This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Dr. D. W. Carson offered for himself and others, a protest, with reasons, against the use of instrumental music in the devotional exercises of the Assembly. A motion to publish this protest in the Minutes was lost. After some discussion this motion was reconsidered and carried. The protest is as follows:

PROTEST OF D. W. CARSON, D.D.

The subscriber for himself and any who may wish to join with him hereby enters his protest, as a member of this Assembly, against the use of instrumental music in the worship of God in the devotional exercises of this Assembly, in which all it members are expected and supposed to participate: 1. Because, since there is no law of the Church or principle of her standards making its use a duty, its omission could wrong no one's conscience, and its use in these circumstances is in violation of Christian unity and the equal rights of brethren. 2. Because it is in disregard of the recommendations of former Assemblies on this subject.

D. W. Carson,
J. C. Elliott.

A partial report of the Committee on Devotional Exercises was read and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

Your committee on devotional exercises would recommend that a portion of time be occupied each session in devotional services under the direction and at the discretion of the moderator.

The report of the Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

A plan for continuous pastorates was referred without reading to the Special Committee on Home Mission Supplies.

Statistics of the Sabbath Schools, gathered by the Sabbath School Committee of the Board of Publication, were referred without reading to the Committee on Sabbath Schools.

The report of the committee to modify the article of the Testimony on Secretism was read, and its consideration was made the first order of the day for this afternoon.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a partial report which was adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee on Correspondence would recommend that the second order of this afternoon be the hearing of Rev. Oliver Johnson, fraternal delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

A communication from T. W. Hathaway, D.D., General Secretary of the American Sabbath Union, was referred without reading to the Special Committee on Reform.

The report of the Committee on Statistics was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

The efficient work of A. G. Wallace, D.D., the Second Clerk of the General Assembly, is so highly commendable that little is left for suggestion on the part of your committee. We would particularly commend the Summaries and Table of Percentages as of great value, and worthy of more attention than is often given them.

Your committee would recommend one change in the order of the statistical tables, namely, the placing of the presbyteries in Egypt and India, at the close of the record of American presbyteries. The principal reason for this change is that it will bring the foreign work into a more compact record, which will make it easier to use for study and comparison.

The report of the Managers of Xenia Theological Seminary was read and referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

A letter from Wm. I. Phillips, General Secretary of the National Christian Association, was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The report of the Trustees of the General Assembly was read and adopted.

The report of the Trustees of the Reed estate was read and adopted.

The following list of Presbyterial Financial Agents, Superintendents of Missions, Sabbath School Superintendents, and Secretaries of Christian Unions was approved:

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the following Special Committee to revise the report of the Committee on the Fifteenth Article of the Testimony:

SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO REVISE THE REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE XV. ARTICLE OF THE TESTIMONY.

Revs. Russell Graham, D.D., G. M. Wiley, Elder W. N. Aiken.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers. At 9:15 o'clock the Chairman, D. R. MacDonald, D.D., reported to the Assembly through the Moderator that an interesting and instructive service had been held.

After prayer by D. W. Carson, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

Saturday, May 26, 1900, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. W. A. Findley.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A resolution instructing the Permanent Committee on Narrative and State of Religion to prepare from year to year a list of Mid-week Prayer Meeting Topics, was adopted. This resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION ON MID-WEEK TOPICS.

Resolved, That the Committee on Narrative and State of Religion be instructed to prepare from year to year a list of topics for the use of the mid-week prayer-meeting.

The following resolution on the American Bible Society were adopted:

RESOLUTION ON THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Resolved, That the Assembly have heard with pleasure W. R. Henderson, D.D., the representative of the American Bible Society; and that we heartily sympathize with the society in its excellent work and aims, and would commend it to the attention and liberality of our people.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions was made the first order of the day for Monday afternoon.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions was made the order of the day for 10 o'clock Monday morning.

The report of the Committee on Railroad Fare was read and adopted.

The report of the Committee on Petitions to the President and Congress was read and adopted.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The report of the Committee on Women's Work was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON WOMEN'S WORK.

Having considered carefully the report of the Women's General Missionary Society to this General Assembly, we find therein nothing to criticise, but much to praise. The succinct statement the report contains of the work they have accomplished during the year indicates increasing contributions to their work, an increase in the number of the societies and presbyterial associations, a wise business management, zeal and devotion. In studying the report of the Women's Society we cannot fail to be impressed with the width of the services it is rendering. Not only have the Boards, Foreign, Home, Church Extension, etc., been aided with large contributions from their treasury, but also a large number of the workers in both the home and foreign fields have been directly sustained by them. In addition to these things, carried on under the management of the Women's Board, the benefactions of the women of our Church have also stretched out to the Orphans' and Aged People's Homes, and to hospitals for the sick. Even this summary far from perfectly exhibits the full extent of our women's work through their Board. Their report should be read in all of the families of our Church. We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the report of the Women's General Missionary Society be adopted.

2. That the General Assembly hereby expresses its hearty approval and appreciation of the society's work.

3. That this Assembly expresses the wish and hope that soon all the women of our churches be found in active connection with our Women's Missionary Societies.

4. That we render to God thanks for all he has accomplished and is accomplishing through our Women's Board.

The Committee on Judiciary presented the following partial report on the question on the church standing of those who practice divine healing. It was adopted and is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON JUDICIARY.

On the question referred to the General Assembly by the Synod of Iowa, on the subject of the ecclesiastical standing of those who believe in and practice "divine healing," the Committee on Judiciary would respectfully report:

There is no room to doubt that much of the teaching and practice of the believers in so-called "divine healing" arises from a misinterpretation of Scripture on the subjects of Christ's redemptive work, and of the function of Christian faith, and is repugnant to sanctified common sense. Their rejection of the use of means of recognized utility in the relief of sickness and injury is presumptuous and unscriptural. It is always the duty of those having ecclesiastical oversight of those holding these views and practices to enquire whether the views held are opinions founded on ignorance of Bible teachings, or heretical perversions of the doctrine taught in the Word of God, and whether the non-use of the recognized means of relief or cure is an error of judgment or criminal negligence. Such inquiry should be fairly and kindly prosecuted in each individual case, where the evidence seems to require it. And only where the views are proved heretical, producing divisions in the church; or the practice criminally negligent, can they deprive such members of their good standing in the Church.

Therefore, resolved, That such persons are to be regarded and—on their request—certified as in good standing, unless on due trial convicted of heretical belief or of criminally negligent practice, in the holding and carrying out of their views.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

In the judgment of your committee this department of the Church's work, as shown by the report of the Board and statements of its representative here, Rev. W. J. B. Edgar, has been and is being managed not only with efficiency, but with remarkable economy in the administration of the funds contributed by the Church to this object, the entire cost of administration being but eight-tenths of one per cent. The Board has been enabled by a careful administration of the funds at its disposal to give relief to every applicant within the rules. But the maximum amount to which, by the rules under which it acts, it is limited in any one case puts it out of its power to give relief to the extent that, in many cases, it feels to be necessary. While the present state of the fund does not as yet justify a change in the rules, we think the Church should be called to the exercise of more liberality in her contributions to this fund. No increase in the appropriation for this year is asked, but an earnest effort to bring the contributions up to the amount appropriated, the contributions of last year being little over one-half the amount appropriated. We recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That the conduct of the Board in the management of this department of the Church's work is hereby cordially approved.

2. That pastors and churches are earnestly recommended to earnest effort to raise the full amount appropriated.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was made the first order of the day for Tuesday morning.

The Assembly resolved that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

The report of the Special Committee on Distribution of Home Mission Supplies was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON HOME MISSION SUPPLIES.

There have been referred to us memorials from the Presbyteries of Frankfort, Xenia, Beaver Valley, and Kansas City, asking for a better method of distributing home missionaries; also a memorial from the Presbytery of New York, asking that a committee be appointed to draft some plan by which the difficulty of our present system may be obviated, and every minister, able and willing to work, be furnished continuous employment, and every mission station secure a pastor; also a plan for "dealing with vacant congregations, and unemployed ministers," presented by the Rev. W. M. Howie; also a "plan for a continuous pastorate," presented by a number of ministers.

Your Committee is not persuaded that a better method of distributing home missionaries is needed, so much as a better enforcement of the present method, nor are we ready to recommend to the Assembly the adoption of either of the plans submitted to us. However, in order that opportunity may be given for the most careful consideration of the question, we recommend that this question, with all the papers submitted to us, be referred to a Committee to report to the next Assembly, said Committee to consist of Revs. W. H. Vincent, D.D., R. H. Hume, D.D., and M. M. Pattersón, D.D.

A letter from the American Home Finding Association was read and referred to the Special Committee on Reform.

A partial report of the Committee on Correspondence was read and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee on Correspondence would respectfully recommend that Albert E. Truxal, D.D., fraternal delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, be heard at the hour of 11.45 A. M.

Albert E. Truxal, D.D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, presented the greetings of the body he represented, and the Moderator responded in name of the Assembly.

A telegram from the Presbyterian General Assembly, sending greetings, was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence with power to act.

After prayer by Rev. A. S. Biddle the Assembly adjourned.

MONDAY.

May 28, 1900, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by A. G. Wallace, D.D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Education was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education has had referred to it the report of the Board of Education. The growing interest in our work of education is a matter of congratulation as seen in the fact that contributions have been received from each presbytery, and that a liberal donation of more than $1,000 was received from the treasurer of the Young People's Union. We believe that the Assembly cannot too earnestly commend to the people of the Church the very excellent work that is being done by our academies, colleges, and seminaries, in the interest of higher Christian education.

We note as a matter of commendation that persons who have received aid from the Board while pursuing their theological education, are returning the funds that they may be used by others. Also we note the faithfulness of the Board in making provision for the return of the funds that have been given to men, who have been led into other denominations.

It seems that the rule urging presbyteries not to present the names of theological students who are undergraduates, has not been as faithfully observed as it should be. We recommend the careful attention of presbyteries to this rule.

The request of the faculty of Cooper Memorial College, that the Educational Fund be distributed in two instalments, has been considered, and we find that, because of the failure of the Church to place the funds in the hands of the Board in the early part of the year, the suggestion would be impracticable. We therefore recommend that the request be not granted.

We recommend that there be granted out of the College and Seminary Fund, for the ensuing year, $500 to the academy at Pawnee, Neb., and $500 to the academy at Waitsburg, Wash.

The Special Committee on Reform presented its report. It was adopted and it is as follows:

REPORT ON REFORM.

The Committee, on the action of the Lake Presbytery in relation to the canteen, the kindred memorials from the Presbytery of Cleveland and that of Garnett, and the papers on various other matters of reform referred to it, respectfully present the following for consideration and adoption by the Assembly:

I. TEMPERANCE.

1. The nullification of the anti-canteen law of Congress by the adverse opinion of the Attorney-General, acquiesced in by the Secretary of War, and after months of evasion, sustained by the President of the United States, has justly stirred up the righteous indignation of the Christian people of the land, and hereby receives the unqualified disapprobation of this General Assembly.

2. The Assembly as unqualifiedly expresses its disapprobation of the attempt of Adjutant-General Corbin, seemingly with the approval of the administration at Washington, and evidently in sympathy with the liquor interest, to show that the soldiers of our army are in less danger from the canteen than they would be if it were abolished, and expresses its indignation at the charge made by the Adjutant "that the professional temperance reformers are in this respect—that is, in the agitation against the liquor selling canteen—allied with the aggressive saloon interests in their efforts to secure legislation to destroy it." Such a statement is contradicted by the declared testimony of more than one hundred army officers, is wide of the truth, and is a slander upon multitudes of the best citizens of the country, upon presbyteries, synods, General Assemblies, Conferences, etc. The statement is deserving of the contempt of all good people, and cannot be too emphatically condemned.

3. The Assembly hereby directs its officers to petition Congress to enact the bill now pending before it, or one similar thereto, abolishing the canteen in the army, or any military premises,—thus making a law which cannot by any possibility be nullified by the Secretary of War or by the administration in subserviency to the liquor power. And in the meantime the Assembly, through its officers, petitions President McKinley as Commander-in-Chief of the Army to issue an order abolishing the canteen in the army, and also in the exercise of the military power of the Government to prohibit the importation of intoxicating liquors into the islands that have lately come under the military control of the nation.

4. The Assembly directs its officers to unite with the representatives of other assemblies or conferences who may be disposed to join them, or in case that none unite with them, then of themselves to petition the political parties of the country, that are yet to hold their national conventions, to put into their platforms a plank declaring that they favor the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, or that, at least, they clearly make known their attitude in relation to this question, in order that Christian voters of the country may be in no doubt as to the party, or parties, with which they should cast their ballots. In this connection the Assembly declares that the legalizing of the liquor traffic is a sin against God, and a crime against man, and that any party favoring the licensing thereof has no right to expect, and should not receive, the votes of Christian citizens.

5. In order that the Christian denominations of our country may unite upon a plan by which they may combine their efforts for the overthrow of the liquor traffic, this Assembly agrees to appoint a Permanent Committee on Temperance which shall present to all the highest courts of all religious denominations of the country, a request that each of them appoint a corresponding permanent committee on temperance, in order that the committees thus appointed may meet conjointly and provide for a grand Pan-Christian Council, or devise other methods by which the united power of the entire Christian Church of the land may be combined in systematic and determined effort for the destruction of the saloon.

6. In view of the belief, which seems to be well founded, that there are already upwards of four millions of voters opposed to the saloon, its influence and effects, and believing that it will require the united forces of all who are seeking to utterly remove this terrible curse from our land by means of voters who are opposed to it, this General Assembly cordially recommends its voting members to join hands with the "Million Voters' League" of the American Young People's Christian Temperance Union for the overthrow of the saloon in our nation. Let the million votes be once cast against the saloon and its doom is probably sealed.

7. Having been informed that the Women's Christian Temperance Union, in accordance with a plan adopted by the London Sabbath School Union, is endeavoring to secure the observance of the fourth Sabbath in November as "Temperance Day," the Assembly approves of the movement, and recommends that the day named be observed in our churches as Temperance Day, in whatever way pastors and sessions may deem most conducive to the interests of the cause.

8. As one day in the "Week of Prayer" is usually devoted to the confession of sins, repentance for them and their removal, the Assembly recommends that special attention be given on that day to confession of sin in connection with the liquor curse, and that much earnest prayer be offered for its removal.

II. THE SABBATH.

9. The Assembly views with anxious concern the increasing desecration of the holy Sabbath day by individuals, by sporting clubs, by municipalities and by the general government. It therefore calls upon all of its members to be more and more watchful of their conduct on that day, that it may strictly conform to the divine requirement. The Assembly, studying the best interests of employers and employes in high and lower places, pleads for the cessation of all labor on the holy day except works of necessity and mercy.

In this connection the Assembly cordially unites with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in respectfully requesting the United States Congress and all State Legislatures to make no more appropriations for expositions to be held in this country, without the provision that such expositions shall be closed on the Lord's day.

The Assembly further takes pleasure in endorsing the work of the American Sabbath Union, and Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, and other similar associations that have for their object the promotion of the better observance of the Lord's day throughout the United States or in the Commonwealths of the nation.

III. SECRET SOCIETIES.

10. Oath-bound, Christ-denying secret societies are rapidly multiplying in number and constantly increasing in membership. The Assembly regards them as the foe of the home, the Church and the nation. It reiterates the Church's testimony against them, warns its members, especially its young men and women, to guard against enticements to join them, and calls upon Christians everywhere to come out from among them and to be separate, that they may be the sons and daughters of the Lord Almighty.

IV. POLYGAMY.

11. The Assembly expresses its great gratification that Brigham H. Roberts, the confessed polygamist from Utah, was denied a place in the House of Representatives at Washington, and unites with others in petitioning Congress to submit a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting polygamy everywhere, and for all time, in our land.

V. THE CHURCH CHRIST'S WITNESS.

12. Let it always be in mind that, in prosecuting these and other reforms, the Lord Jesus Christ is the supreme reformer, and that his Church is, under him, commissioned to regenerate and reform the world. She is his great witness, the light of the world and the salt of the earth. As the great reforming power she is to testify against all sin in the individual, the municipality, the commonwealth and the nation, and for all righteousness. The soul that sins and repents not shall die. The nation that will not serve Christ's witness in the world, the Church, that will not receive and obey her testimony against its sins and her pleading in behalf of civic righteousness, shall be utterly wasted.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report which was adopted:

REPORT ON REVISION.

Your Committee would respectfully report that there were put into our hands the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1899, also the 1899 Minutes of the Synods of Illinois, New York, Pittsburg, Iowa, Nebraska, Ohio, the First Synod of the West, the Second Synod, the Punjab, and of the Columbia for '98 an '99. These have been carefully examined and found to be neatly and correctly kept. We would therefore recommend their approval.

A partial report of the Committee on Judiciary was read and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON JUDICIARY.

On the question of reference of certain ministers and elders about "the baptizing by our ministers of a child whose parents are at the time members of another communion," the Committee on the Judiciary would respectfully report: The question asked is, "Is it in accord with the law of our Church for one of our ministers to baptize a child whose parents are at the time members of another communion?" The administration of the sealing ordinance of baptism in such a case would seem to be in contravention of the Article in our Testimony on the subject of Communion; would imply the imposing of religious vows and obligations without any oversight as to the performance of the duties assumed by the recipients; and would be a violation of the comity that should be observed between different denominations of Christians.

Therefore, resolved, That the above question be answered in the negative.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. This report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

To your Committee have been referred the following reports: The report of the Board of Home Missions and the report of the General Committee of Home Missions. In general your Committee wishes to say that the work in the home mission field has been signally blessed during the year, and at the present time is in a prosperous condition.

From the reports of the Board and the General Committee the following facts are gathered: 215 stations, representing 55 presbyteries, have received aid; 212 stations reported, 35 gave reports for less than four quarters. The average attendance in the stations reporting was 19,175. The number of communicants was 17,068. Increase by profession, 1,387; by certificate, 1,464; decrease, 1,378; net gain, 1,473. This is a gain of 9.2 per cent., as compared with 8.8 per cent. one year ago. Seventeen stations are without church buildings, 167 stations have preaching full time, 116 stations have pastors. The amount raised by these home missionary stations in the aggregate is $103,434. This amount exceeded the expenditures for the same period by $15,792; $72,532 were paid to presbyteries; the congregations contributed $82,663, being $10,131 more than was received by them. The Board reports a manifest improvement in the spiritual life of the stations. New work has been taken up in five great centers, and the beginnings are very encouraging. Thirty-three special missions were under the care of the Board, and in all of them the work moved forward with "a fair measure of success."

In the General Committee applications for aid were presented from 55

presbyteries, and 227 stations, and from the A. R. Synod of the South, Louisville, Ky., Corsicana, Texas, and Charlotte, N. C. Aid was granted these three stations, and thus the work of co-operation with our southern brethren will go forward during another year. These applications called for $90,786. A debt of $3,080 rests upon the Board. Appropriations were recommended as follows: For special missions under the care of the Board, $23,400; for other stations aided in former years, $50,686; for new work, $8,225; for cases referred to the Board, $3,750; to provide for payment of indebtedness, $3,080. The whole amount recommended is $94,141.

With the history of the past year, its earnest work and liberal support, and the promises and pledges of the coming year before us, your Committee offers the following resolutions:

1. That the report of the Board of Home Missions be approved.
2. That the annual report of the General Committee be adopted.
3. That we offer to God sincere thanks for his blessing that has rested and is resting upon the work in the home mission field.
4. That, while we rejoice that the contributions to the work of home missions have so increased that payments have been far more promptly made, and the indebtedness almost discharged, still an indebtedness of $3,080 remains, and the appropriations recommended are larger than last year by $1,640, and new and promising fields are waiting to be occupied, therefore we urge upon our congregations and people the prompt and liberal support of the home mission work of the Church.
5. That to facilitate the preparation of an accurate report by the Board to the General Committee of Home Missions, the superintendents of Missions be and hereby are directed to observe the rule requiring all applications to be in the hands of the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions by April 20 each year.
6. That while there is noticeable improvement in presbyterial oversight in the matter of applications for aid, still there is an evident failure in some cases to exercise this authority; therefore we urge presbyteries to use the utmost carefulness in this matter, believing that thus much of the unrest and dissatisfaction in respect to the distribution of ministers, and the supply of vacancies would be removed, and many hindrances to the operation of the present system would disappear.
7. That we urge presbyteries, in making applications for aid, to have in mind and respect "the fifteen year limit" and "the sliding scale," lest these wholesome provisions become inoperative.
8. That the following amendment be made to the regulations of the Board of Home Missions, namely, the addition of a regulation under "Regulations for the General Committee," as follows: In cases other than Special Missions which are already provided for in the regulations, the General Committee shall refer the appointment of missionaries to the Board subject to the approval of presbytery.
9. That we congratulate the Secretary of the Board on the excellent record that he has made during the first year in this position. The work has moved forward without a single complaint, and with marked efficiency. He has the confidence of the missionaries and the whole Church.

The report of the Directors of the Allegheny Theological Seminary was read and referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

After prayer by Rev. E. H. Thompson the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. T. R. Aiken.

The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and adopted.

The consideration of the report of the Committee to review the report on the Fifteenth Article of the Testimony was made the special order of the day for this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a partial report which was adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

We recommend that Dr. Herrick Johnson, of the Presbyterian Church, be heard as a fraternal delegate at the hour of 11.30 A. M. Tuesday.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

Your Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions would respectfully report that there were placed in our hands four papers: The annual report of the Board to the General Assembly, a memorial from the First Synod of the West on the matter of mission work in Cuba, a charter of incorporation for Knoxville College, and a communication relative to a bill before Congress asking aid for industrial education among the freedmen. To these papers your committee would call the attention of the General Assembly in the following items:

1. In the goodness of God the lives and, in large measure, the health of the workers on the field and of the members of the Board have been kindly cared for, and the various lines of work have been prosecuted with commendable interest and energy.

2. The growth of the work during the year is worthy of notice. This year nine congregations are reported, and three unorganized mission stations. The total membership is 784, a net gain of 106 for the year. In 13 schools there is an enrollment of 3,024, a small gain over last year. Sixteen Sabbath schools have an enrollment of 3,843, with 138 officers and teachers. Eighty-nine missionaries are reported, of whom 11 are ordained ministers. The Sabbath schools show an increase of 41 officers and teachers, of 357 scholars, and of contributions, $196. The Young People's Societies show a gain of 557 members.

3. The contributions of the missions show that they are growing in the grace of giving also. The total contributions of last year were $857, while this year they were $2,024, a gain of 15 per cent. The Sabbath schools gained in contributions, $196.

4. The policy of the Board to provide ministers and teachers for the colored people from among their own race has been steadily pursued. In our own missions six ministers and two licentiates are colored, in addition to the 33 teachers from this race, while 350 have filled important positions in other schools, having under their care about 18,000 pupils. In these schools religious exercises are regularly observed.

5. The charter which is presented for the purpose of clothing the trustees of Knoxville College with the power to confer degrees, is rendered necessary in order that its graduates, particularly in medicine, may have standing as legal practitioners. The charter confers no other power upon the trustees. All other powers are reserved by the Freedmen's Board.

6. Your Committee and the Board have with great regret to report a debt of $16,082.75. The larger part of this is the debt of last year, which has been increased by the renewal of the triennial insurance dues which were lately paid, and some necessary improvements on buildings. The contributions of the last year also fall considerably below the amount expected.

7. The last Assembly directed the Synod of New York to organize a presbytery in Eastern Virginia and North Carolina to be composed of the ministers and the elders of the congregations under the care of the Freedmen's Board. This arrangement has not been carried out, and the Board finds that it would seriously interfere with the proper control of the work. These ministers are not only pastors but principals of schools also, and from this source comes their main support. To constitute them a presbytery would put such power into the hands of the servants of the Board as might greatly cripple its work. All that was desired in the way of presbyterial control of these ministers and congregations was provided for at the meeting of the General Assembly in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1890, and hence no further action was necessary. On this account the Assembly is asked to repeal the act of last year which gave authority for this presbytery.

8. An unusually liberal offer comes to the Board from Bristol, Tenn., for establishing the work there. A benevolent gentleman has offered suitable land for a building and $1,000 in money toward such building, and at the same time the city offers to turn over a large part of its school funds for the support of such school. It is represented also that other funds will be subscribed to aid in the erection of the building.

9. The memorial relative to establishment of work, at Mantanzas, Cuba, comes before us at a time when the eyes of our country are upon that land, and when God has been marvelously opening it up to the influence of our Protestant Christianity. A work has already been begun there under the direction of one of our ministers, Rev. R. H. Barnes, which has already accomplished much good. A suitable building with 70 acres of land has been rented, and an industrial school is already established into which many of the orphan and homeless children of the impoverished reconcentrados have been gathered. These children and young people are in dense ignorance; they are waifs afloat upon the sea of existence and might say, "No one careth for my body much less for my soul"; they are accessible, not having fallen under the deadly blight of priestcraft. Is there not a call upon the Christian Church to-day to give these long oppressed and benighted people the liberty-working gospel of Jesus Christ, louder by far than that which called our nation to rise for their deliverance from Spanish misrule and oppression two years ago? Has not the great King and Head of the Church been marching on to conquest and victory, that this "gem of the Antilles" might be filled with his gospel? Is there not here an open door which our great Redeemer has opened up that our Church might enter in, get a foot-hold, and lay the foundations for a noble work in this needy island which lies so near us?

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That the report of the Board of Freedmen's Missions be approved.

2. That we express our profound gratitude to Almighty God for the favor he has shown in preserving the lives and health of the members of the Board and of the workers on the field during the past year; also for the growing prosperity with which he has blessed this work in strengthening the old fields and opening up new doors of usefulness to our Church.

3. That, while we commend the policy of the Board in raising up schools and colleges which provide a high order of education for the colored people, thus providing teachers and preachers for them among their own people, we especially commend the policy which seeks to evangelize them and to gather them into the Church. Teachers should be chosen who are not only proficient in secular learning, but who may also be useful in lines of spiritual work.

4. That we approve the proposed charter for the incorporation of Knoxville College, bestowing upon its trustees the right to confer degrees.

5. That we commend the work of the Board anew to the confidence and increased liberality of our people. Not less than $55,000 will be needed this year to carry on the work and provide for the debt of past years. Let us see to it that every dollar of the amount is raised.

6. That this Assembly should, and hereby does, repeal the resolution passed last year to constitute a presbytery in Eastern Virginia and North Carolina, as the desired oversight was already provided for by the General Assembly of 1890.

7. That the Board be authorized to establish a school at Bristol, Tenn., for which inducements have been offered on the best possible available terms.

8. That the Freedmen's Board be authorized, and the Women's Board be invited to co-operate with them, to investigate the field of the Island of Cuba with a view to establish a mission among that needy people, and that $2,000 be appropriated for the use of the Board in investigating the field and sustaining mission work, and that these Boards be instructed to correspond with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and secure their co-operation, if possible.

9. That the papers relative to a bill before Congress asking for aid for industrial education are indefinite in many particulars, and the information given is very limited; therefore, resolved, that the General Assembly take no action on the subject.

The report of the Treasurer of the Gibson Trust Fund was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The hour of adjournment was postponed until 5:30 o'clock, and the Assembly proceeded at once to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee to review the report on the Fifteenth Article of the Testimony. During the discussion of this report the hour for adjournment arrived. Its further consideration was made the second order of the day for tomorrow morning.

After prayer by Col. Robert Munroe, the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. J. Love.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

By order of the Assembly a conference was held on "The relation of the Church to every-day life," W. H. Vincent, D.D., presiding. At 9:45 o'clock the chairman reported that an interesting and profitable conference as outlined by the Assembly had been held.

After prayer by Rev. T. H. Hanna, Jr., the Assembly adjourned.

TUESDAY.

May 29, 1900, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by A. G. King, D.D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension was made the first order of the day for this afternoon.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. During the consideration of this report the Corresponding Secretary of the Board and the foreign missionaries present were invited to a place upon the platform. A vote of thanks was tendered to the missionaries for their presence and earnest words. The report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The report of the Board of Foreign Missions, the only paper put into our hands by the Assembly, presents in a clear and concise manner the condition and need of the missions in Egypt and India. This report will be published in the Minutes of the Assembly, and it is not necessary to review the work in detail.

During the year, three well known and beloved missionaries have been called to their reward by death, viz., Rev. J. P. McKee, D.D., Rev. D. S. Lytle, and Mrs. Rebecca G. Gordon, the widow of the lamented Andrew Gordon, D.D. Rev. K. W. McFarland and wife mourn the death of their little daughter.

The Board accepted the resignation of Rev. J. P. White, M.D., who is in this country and cannot return to India on account of the health of Mrs. White.

The Board requests the Assembly to confirm the appointment of Revs. William L. McClenahan and Orin A. Keach and Miss Helen J. Ferrier to the mission in Egypt; and Rev. W. J. Brandon and Miss Charlotte MacArthur, M.D., to the mission in India. Dr. MacArthur to take the place of Dr. Mary A. Platter who must soon come home on furlough; and in case any of these persons cannot accept the appointment the Board be authorized to appoint one in the place of said person.

The Synod of the Punjab has elected Robert Stewart, D.D., to a professorship in the theological seminary connected with the India mission. In case the election is confirmed by the Assembly, authority should be given the Board to provide for Dr. Stewart's passage to that field. If, however, Dr. Stewart declines the appointment, the Board asks authority to send a new missionary to India to take the place made vacant by the death of Rev. D. S. Lytle

The work during the year has been of the usual character and is highly creditable both to the missionaries and the Board. Truly "the Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad."

The Ecumenical Missionary Conference has given an impetus to missions throughout the world, and this Assembly would do well to adopt the suggestion of the Board and recommend to the members of the Church to read the literature given by the Conference and also by the Board.

The need of the Board is money to prosecute the work. There is a debt of $17,200, and in addition to this amount the Board reports that the mission in Egypt expended in the year 1898 the sum of $4,814.48 in excess of the appropriation made by the Assembly for that year. The Women's Board very kindly donated $2,000 toward liquidating this debt, leaving an indebtedness of $2,814.48. The Board recommends that this debt be paid and the amount be added to the total of the above appropriation.

The mission to the Sudan is calling for action on the part of the Church. An English lady has proffered $500 a year for three years, if the Church will take up the work in that region. George D. Mathews, D.D., of London, kindly called the attention of the Freedmen's Missions Aid Society, of that city, to our mission in Egypt and the Board of Foreign Missions, in connection with the work in the Sudan. The result was a donation of $9,605.60 by that society, to be used in prosecuting the work at Khartum or that region of the Sudan. Dr. Andrew Watson and Rev. J. Kelly Giffen have explored the field and recommend favorable action. It is also the judgment of the Board that the work should be begun, and at the same time great care should be taken not to hinder the permanent work in Egypt.

It gives your Committee pleasure to recognize the generosity of the Women's Board, which in addition to its regular work in the foreign field, which cost $18,784.20, donated $3,500 toward the indebtedness of the mission in Egypt and of the Board. Also the liberality of the First church, Allegheny, and of the Freedmen's Missions Aid Society, London; the gifts of A. M. Stewart, Indiana, Pa.; John P. Duncan, New York; John S. McConnell, Mt. Vernon, Ohio; Mrs. Robert Jamison, Allegheny, Pa.; Rev. John Howard Tate, New York; Thomas Shepherd, Martin, Michigan; W. B. Shrader, Butler, Pa.; J. B. Patton, Eden, Ill.; Mrs. Margaret Warden, Mt. Pleasant, Pa.; "A Friend," Parnassus, Pa.

We recommend the following resolutions:

1. We recognize the providence of God in removing by death Rev. J. P. McKee, D.D., Rev. D. S. Lytle, Mrs. Rebecca G. Gordon and the little daughter of the Rev. K. W. McFarland and wife, and humbly pray that "the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, who comforteth us in all our tribulation," may comfort the bereaved families "by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God."

2. That we give thanks to God for his blessing on the missionaries and their work during the year.

3. That the Assembly thank the Women's Board, the Freedmen's Missions Aid Society, London, the First church, Allegheny, and all those named in this connection in the preamble of this report, for their generous support of the work in the foreign field.

4. That thanks be extended to Rev. George D. Mathews, D.D., of London, for the great interest he has taken in the mission in Egypt and in the work in the Sudan.

5. That the request of the Women's Board and the Foreign Board for the transfer of the support of the Girls' Training School at Sialkot to the Women's Board be granted.

6. That the Board be authorized to begin work in the region of Khartum as soon as in its judgment it is practicable, and the work in said region will in no way hinder the progress of the work in Egypt.

7. That the Assembly recommend to our people to read the reports of the Ecumenical Conference and also the literature of our Board in order to create greater interest in foreign missions.

8. That the Assembly approve the recommendation of the Board to pay the over-expenditure of $2,814.48 in connection with the work in Egypt in 1898.

9. That the work of the Board be approved.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions announced to the Assembly that Dr. Robert Stewart had been elected as professor in the theological seminary in India. The matter was referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The order of the day for this hour was postponed until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The report of the Committee on Finance was read. During its discussion the hour for the order of the day arrived and Dr. Herrick Johnson presented greetings from the Presbyterian General Assembly of the United States in America.

The Moderator then responded in the name of the Assembly.

The representative of the Board of Ministerial Relief, who was absent during the discussion of the report of the Committee on that Board, was heard.

After prayer by Dr. Herrick Johnson the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by W. A. Spalding, D.D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension. The report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

There have been referred to us two documents: The printed report of the Board, and a memorial from the Presbytery of Spokane, asking the Assembly to appoint a committee to investigate the question of fire insurance of church property, with a view to the United Presbyterian Church carrying its own fire insurance.

Your Committee would respectfully report: We find the work of this Board to be in a very satisfactory condition. During the past year appropriations amounting to $39,601 have been made to 25 congregations. The receipts during the year exceeded those of last year by $10,404.09. This increase was through special effort on the part of the Board, and comes largely through individual contributions. The permanent fund is steadily growing, and now exceeds $100,000. The books of the Board, methods of business, and auditor's report, were all examined by your Committee. The whole financial condition calls for gratitude. The business has almost outgrown the present set of books. The entire management is such as to inspire implicit confidence. We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That the blessing of God be gratefully acknowledged in the success and prosperity enjoyed by our Church through this Board.

2. That we approve the report of the Board and commend the work of the corresponding secretary and treasurer for their systematic methods, which keep the whole business of the Board in a condition above criticism.

3. That we suggest that the corresponding secretary prepare a set of books for the use of the Board, adapted to their growing work and larger needs.

4. That the salary of the corresponding secretary be increased from $1,500 to $1,800 per year.

5. That the policy of the Board, in making $5,000 the maximum grant to any congregation, be approved.

6. That, as a rule, no presbytery disorganize a congregation, in whose property the Boards have an interest, until the rights of the Boards have been protected.

7. That all our congregations, especially the 200 that contributed nothing to this Board last year, be urged to contribute to this important fund; and that all Sabbath schools be urged to observe the quarter set apart by the Assembly for the work of Church Extension.

8. That the Board be directed to investigate the matter of fire insurance and report to the next Assembly, if any scheme can be suggested that will accomplish a saving to our Church in this regard.

9. That presbyteries be directed to supervise, by means of the Committee of Supply, or otherwise, the selection of church sites, the collection of funds for the erection of church buildings, and to do whatever else, in their judgment, may be necessary to secure the best results from the assistance furnished by the Board of Church Extension.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Special Committee to revise the report of the Permanent Committee on the Fifteenth Article of the Testimony. This report was laid on the table. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO REVISE THE REPORT ON THE XV. ARTICLE OF THE TESTIMONY.

The Special Committee, to which was referred the action of the Committee appointed by the last Assembly to inquire into the revision of Article XV. of the Testimony, reports these recommendations:

1. That the report of said committee be printed in full in the Appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly.

2. That an overture, together with an explanatory preface accompanying it, be sent down to the presbyteries as follows:

"The General Assembly of 1899 appointed a committee to inquire into the subject of our Church's attitude toward secret orders. That committee reported to the Assembly of 1900 that there was no occasion for the Church to relax its opposition to the lodge system, that instead the condition of our times called more loudly than ever for the protest of the Church against oath-bound secret societies as hurtful to the individual, the family, the Church, and the State. In place of any change in the Testimony itself the Committee recommended a modification in the administration of the Testimony. The recommendation was that an adherence to the Church's subordinate Standards be no longer required of those seeking communion with us, but that a profession of Christian faith and an expressed willingness to receive instruction in the truth embodied in the Standards be made the sole condition hereafter of church fellowship. In accordance with this recommendation a form of overture was submitted which embraced the necessary amendments to our Book of Government and Discipline and to the introduction of the Testimony. The proposition of the Committee was an honest, well-meant endeavor to meet the difficulty of admitting to membership new converts and others uninstructed in the details of the Church's Testimony, but its apparently radical character prevented its acceptance. The General Assembly, however, recognized that, in the development of our evangelistic work, it has come to pass that the present formula of questions for the admission of church members is not adapted, in the larger number of cases, to the attainments of applicants. It recognized further that sessions must of neccessity be allowed, and do in fact exercise, some degree of discretion in the admission of persons who give evidence of regeneration, but are not yet fully instructed in the doctrines and regulations of the Church. To provide the desired modification in our present membership covenant it was therefore resolved that the following be sent down in overture to the presbyteries:

1. Shall the formula of questions for the admission of members in the Book of Government, Part II., Chapter II., Section 6, be amended to read as follows:

(1) Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the infallible and only rule of faith and practice?

(2) Do you here and now profess your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and do you enter into covenant with him as your personal Saviour and Lord?

(3) Do you profess your desire and willingness to receive instruction in Christian doctrine and practice as set forth in the Standards adopted by this Church, and do you promise to be subject to the Church's order and discipline, conforming the life thereto?

(4) Do you engage to seek the peace, purity and prosperity of this congregation while you remain a member thereof, to give to it your active service, your financial support as God may prosper you, and the moral influence of a godly life?

(5) Do you promise diligence in attendance upon church services, faithfulness in the study of God's Word, devotion to private and family religion, activity in extending a knowledge of the gospel, separation from sin and from every form of worldliness as detrimental to your spiritual growth?

(6) Do you make this profession as in the presence of God, in reliance on his grace, and as you hope to give in your account with joy at the Great Day?

2. Shall the same changes be made in the formula of questions used in the administration of adult baptism, as found in the Directory for Worship, Chapter III., Article V., Section 4?

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The unfinished business was the report of the Committee on Finance. This report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON FINANCE.

I. Your Committee respectfully reports that it has examined the report of the treasurers of the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Ministerial Relief, Publication, Education, Gibson Trust Fund and of the General Assembly, and find that these reports have been properly audited and found correct. Their approval is recommended.

II. We ask that warrants be drawn on the Assembly Fund for the payments of the following bills:

Committee of Ways and Means	$ 13 35
Janitor, General Committee, Hoopeston	10 00
Janitor, Woodlawn Church, Chicago	20 00
Murdoch, Kerr & Co., Printing	38 25
Stevenson & Foster Co., Supplies	4 48
Rev. C. S. Cleland, Delegate to A. R. S. of the South	30 75
Committee on Revision of the 15th Article	60 00
General Committee on Revision Metrical Psalms	10 00
Expenses of Second Clerk	57 95
Expenses of Principal Clerk	49 78
The Alliance of Reformed Churches	270 00

III. On the memorial from Chartiers Presbytery, asking an appropriation of $5,000 for the use of the Board of Publication, to the end that helpful literature may be placed gratuitously in the hands of our people, your committee, considering this a worthy object, would recommend that $500 be appropriated for this purpose.

IV. The report of the Committee on Ways and Means has been placed in our hands. Attention is called to the duties of said Committee, as defined by the General Assembly, namely, "To devise and execute proper measures for raising money necessary to support the general work of the Church." The statement is made that the Committee did not see any way in which it could perform this duty, and therefore nothing was done. Attention is called to the resolution of the General Assembly of 1880 directing the preparation of a uniform set of books for the use of Financial Agents, and to the fact that such books have not been prepared. The Committee states that it has had prepared a suitable form for such purpose, submits a sample page of same, and recommends it for adoption, expressing the opinion that the Church could well afford to supply each Financial Agent with a copy of such a book, for the sake of enabling these agents of the Church to keep their accounts in a satisfactory and uniform manner. The Committee states that many congregations are lacking in proper organization for the raising of funds, and that it has been preparing a manual of business forms, including a suggested constitution for free distribution throughout the Church, but the work has not been completed. Some reference is also made to general matters. We offer for adoption the following:

1. That the matter of preparing a suitable book for the use of Financial Agents in keeping their accounts be referred to the Board of Publication, with instructions to prepare such a book if the way be clear, and furnish a copy to each Financial Agent.

2. That the preparation of the suggested manual of business forms for free distribution to congregations be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, to be appointed for the coming year, and that these suggestions and plans in regard thereto, made by the Committee on Ways and Means for this year, be placed in their hands.

3. Concerning the general reference made by the Committee on Ways and Means to the accounting and auditing of the finances of the Boards and institutions of the Church, we recommend the adoption of the following as a substitute for that part of the report, viz., All Boards, receiving and disbursing general funds of the Church, shall have their accounts, securities and investments audited at least annually by an expert auditor, not a member of the Board, and a certificate of audit be reported to the General Assembly in connection with the Treasurer's annual report.

V. We have carefully examined the report of the Committee on Delegate Fund, and would recommend its adoption.

In order to carry out this plan, we recommend the following regulations:

1. That an assessment of ten cents per member be made for Assembly Fund for this year.

2. That the treasurer of the Assembly report to the General Assembly the quota of each presbytery and the amount paid.

3. That the amount for each delegate shall be ascertained by the Finance Committee, and paid by order of the Principal Clerk.

The invitation from the churches of Des Moines to the Assembly to meet in the First church in that city, was accepted, with the understanding that the Assembly entertains itself. The hour of meeting was fixed at 7:45 o'clock P. M.

The place of meeting of the General Committee of Missions was referred to Des Moines Presbytery, in connection with the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was read. The hour of adjournment was postponed for one-half hour to permit the discussion of this report. This report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON BILLS AND OVERTURES.

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures had referred to it the following papers: A memorial from the Presbytery of Keokuk asking the General Assembly to reaffirm and emphasize our present Testimony and Deliverances on the subject of the oath-bound lodge; a memorial from the Presbytery of Allegheny asking for the appointment of a committee to prepare a concise but comprehensive summary of the authoritative standards of our Church; a memorial from the Presbytery of the Lake asking the General Assembly to submit to the presbyteries an overture to the effect that the Synod be the last Court of appeal and complaint in all matters of discipline not affecting the doctrine of the Church, and a memorial from the Presbytery of Allegheny on the same subject; a memorial from the Presbytery of Chicago requesting the submission of the following overture: "Shall the words, 'The man may not marry any of his wife's kindred nearer in blood than he may of his own, nor the woman of her husband's kindred nearer in blood than of her own,' in Section IV. of Chapter XXIV. of the Confession of Faith, be repealed?"

As the Testimony and Declarations of the Church on secretism have been prominently before the last General Assembly, resulting in the appointment of a committee to consider the whole subject and report to this Assembly, and as this committee's report is already before the Assembly, your Committee declines to make any further recommendations touching the subject.

A summary of the authoritative standards of the Church, as requested by the Presbytery of Allegheny, is not only a necessity but also a convenience; we therefore submit the following resolution in reply to this memorial for your adoption:

Resolved, That the Board of Publication be instructed by this Assembly to prepare a concise but comprehensive summary of the authoritative standards of the Church and submit its work to the General Assembly of 1901 for approval.

As the amendment, asked by the Presbyteries of Allegheny and the Lake, to the provision in the matter of appeals in cases of discipline, would require changes in different parts of the Book of Government and Discipline, such a change would require more consideration and care than it is possible to accord to it by any Assembly in session; we therefore recommend the following for your adoption:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to consider such changes as may be necessary in our Book of Government and Discipline, in the limitation of the Synod as the last court of appeal or complaint in all matters of discipline not affecting the doctrines of the Church, and that this committee report the result of its investigation to the next General Assembly.

Although at the present time there does not appear to be any serious agitation throughout the Church on the subject of the memorial from the Presbytery of Chicago, yet it is not certain that this law receives the endorsement and approval of the Church. About thirty years ago the same question was overtured and negatively answered. There may have been considerations then apart from the real merits of the question which influenced the Church in its vote. Certain it is, that now whole presbyteries, without a single exception, favor the repeal of this provision of the Confession of Faith; other large presbyteries with but few exceptions occupy precisely the same position. It is true there may not at this present time be any particular cases of oppression by reason of this prohibition, but if, in the judgment of the Church, it have not Scriptural authority, we should not attempt to maintain it among our standards: we therefore recommend that the following be sent down in overture: "Shall the words, 'The man may not marry any of his wife's kindred nearer in blood than he may of his own, nor the woman of her husband's kindred nearer in blood than of her own,' of Section IV., Chapter XXIV., of the Confession of Faith, be repealed?"

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. W. J. Grimes.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Schools was read. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

We have at hand two papers, namely, the statistics gathered by the efficient Chairman of the Permanent Sabbath School Committee, and the statements in the Board of Publication's printed report, bearing on Sabbath school work. The comments and suggestions in the Board of Publication's report are so comprehensive and so excellent that little remains for your Committee save in the way of emphasis by reiteration.

In almost every phase of the work there is improvement. The membership is larger by 3,040 than the enrollment of the preceding year. The average attendance is better by 2½ per cent. The interest manifested by the ruling eldership has increased, as over 80 per cent. of the elders reported attend our schools. Very few of our pastors are not actively engaged in Sabbath school work. The helpfulness of the Home Department is better recognized, as its plans and purposes are more fully studied. There are reported 4,407 members in this very important, but somewhat misunderstood and unappreciated branch of the work. The contributions of former years have been largely exceeded. This year the total amount was $100,610, an advance in liberality of $8,365 over any preceding year. There are more mission schools than ever before.

It will be seen that there is little inclination on the part of your Committee towards a discouraging pessimism, and that there would be small occasion for it were we so disposed. However there is room for improvement. The study of the Catechism does not receive the universal attention which its importance demands. The proportion of contributions, given directly to the missionary work of the Church, is too small. There were $12,478 more contributed to school expenses than to the Boards of the Church, and no school, we believe, ought to eat up more than it gives to others. The number of scholars confessing Christ as reported is smaller than last year by 98. We do not appreciate to the full the evangelistic opportunities presented by our Sabbath schools. Mission schools are not being multiplied as they would be, were we more alive to the needs of a people perishing for lack of knowledge. The need of a well trained corps of teachers is evidently not appreciated, as 684 schools report neither normal class nor teachers' meeting.

In view of all this your Committee begs leave to submit the following resolutions:

1. We recommend the adoption of the usual order for missionary contributions, viz., 1st quarter, Foreign Missions; 2d quarter, Home Missions; 3d quarter, Church Extension; 4th quarter, Freedmen's Missions.

2. We recommend that, where practicable, the current expenses of the Sabbath school be met by the congregation, and that the entire regular contributions of the schools, or of at least two Sabbaths each month, be devoted solely to the missionary work of the Church.

3. While the attendance of ruling elders has increased commendably, yet we urge upon them a sense of greater responsibility towards the Sabbath school.

4. We urge more thorough drill in the Westminster Catechism.

5. We commend heartily the Home Department as a valuable aid to Sabbath school work.

6. We recommend that hereafter, in harmony with the general custom of the churches, the second Sababth in June be appointed as "Missionary and Children's Day," and the fourth Sabbath of November as "Temperance Day," and that the third Sabbath of October be appointed as a day of special prayer in all our congregations for Sabbath schools.

7. Where praticable and advisable we recommend the holding of Presbyterial and Synodical Sabbath School conventions, and we recommend cooperation with association Sabbath school work in township, county, and State.

8. We recommend that, if possible, these Sabbath school conventions be held in connection with the young people's meetings.

9. Responding to the suggestion of the Board of Publication, concerning a "Twentieth Century Movement," we urge upon the Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents a thorough canvas of their respective presbyteries with a view to the establishing of new mission schools under supervision of the sessions.

10. Acting on a further suggestion of the Board of Publication we "direct all presbyteries to require an annual report of their Sabbath School Superintendents and that the Sabbath School Superintendents be required to report all schools which fail to report to them; and also that all such schools be required on the floor of presbytery to give a reason for such a failure."

The report of the General Committee on Young People's Work was adopted.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries presented the following report which was adopted:

REPORT ON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

Reports have been received from the Boards of both our Seminaries, in which the work of the past year is summarized. From these it appears that diligent attention has been given to the work, both by instructors and instructed. The only change in the faculties is the voluntary retirement of Dr. James Harper from active service in the Xenia Seminary, and the succession of Dr. Joseph Kyle to his department. The change reminds the Church of a debt of appreciation for a long and distinguished service by one whom it "delights to honor." That his mantle falls upon a worthy successor, in the person of Dr. Joseph Kyle, assures the Church of continued excellence in the teaching of this long established "School of the Prophets."

In the completion and occupation of their new building the Allegheny Seminary is to be congratulated. Its beauty and utility reflect great credit upon the wisdom which devised it, and the beneficence which erected it. The recent observance of its seventy-fifth anniversary was at once a recollection of its struggles, a history of its triumphs, and a prophecy of its enlargement. With the outfit now provided for these institutions, and to be increased as the needs arise, the Church is assured of a ministry to perpetuate her cause and maintain her honor in the years to come.

That there has been a marked falling off in the number of students in attendance, need cause no apprehension, as the law of supply and demand adjusts itself to the general conditions which obtain in any given period of the Church. Doubtless when the vineyard of the Lord requires more laborers, "The Lord of the harvest will send them forth."

We recommend the adoption of the following:

1. That we devoutly acknowledge the grace and goodness of God in the present healthful and prosperous condition of our seminaries.

2. That we congratulate the institutions themselves upon the increased and increasing efficiency in the full equipment with which they are furnished.

3. That we record our grateful appreciation of the open handed and open hearted consideration of the people who have provided these institutions with the means of prosecuting their work, so vital to the service of the Church.

4. That we call the attention of the professors to the importance of the devotional reading of the Bible in connection with the public worship of God, and would urge that the students be carefully trained and instructed in the conducting of this important part of formal religious worship.

5. That the election of Robert Stewart, D.D., as a professor in the theological seminary in India be confirmed.

An additional report of the Committee on Statistics was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

ADDITIONAL REPORT ON STATISTICS.

1. We highly commend the work of the Clerks of Presbyteries for their promptness and care in forwarding their reports whereby it has been made possible to prepare and offer in its complete form the table of statistics.

2. We recommend that Stated Clerks of Presbyteries be directed to arrange the roll of congregations in the statistical reports to the General Assembly in the order of the date of pastoral settlement of settled congregations.

After prayer by R. J. Davidson, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

May 30, 1900, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. S. Colvin.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Judiciary Committee on the Esther M. Shontz case was read and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON JUDICIARY.

There have been placed in our hands the following papers: 1. The appeal of Mrs. Esther M. Shontz from the action of the First Synod of the West, in session at Allegheny, Pa., October 9-11, 1899, in dismissing her complaint against the Presbytery of the Lake; 2. A paper in support of said appeal; 3. A paper complaining of the action of the General Assembly in 1899 in dismissing her complaint; 4. Certified abstracts of the Minutes of the provisional session of Conneaut Lake church and of Lake Presbytery, papers connected with various complaints and appeals from Presbytery to Synod and from Synod to the General Assembly of 1899, and the Minutes (approved copies) of the First Synod of the West for the years 1897, 1898 and 1899.

The Committee, on making such examination as was possible of the papers and records before us find that, as asserted in the third reason for appeal, the First Synod of the West, at its meeting in 1899, fell into an error in regard to the dates of actions by the Synod and Presbytery respectively, in 1898. The error, however, while it nullifies one reason for the Synod's decision, does not leave the decision without reasonable support, or require its reversal by this Assembly. From the papers before us your Committee infer the utter hopelessness of eradicating this "root of bitterness that has sprung up" and continued in the congregation of Conneaut Lake by any kinder measure of litigation. Therefore, resolved:

1. That the papers in the case be returned to the parties from whom they came, and that all action on this case be arrested and discontinued.

2. That this Assembly, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, enjoins and commands the appellant and all involved in this unseemly and ungodly strife to leave off contention and live at peace.

3. That the courts below are hereby directed to refuse to entertain malicious charges or libels in relation to this case, and if anyone shows a litigious spirit by seeking to further prosecute these charges, or other similar ones, such person or persons shall be treated as offenders and suspended from the privileges of the Church till repentance and submission are manifested.

The Judiciary Committee presented following report on reference from the Synod of the Punjab which was adopted:

PARTIAL REPORT ON JUDICIARY.

In regard to the reference from the Synod of the Punjab, your Committee would report: It is not necessary to state the case from which the reference springs. The main issue has to do with the restoration of an offender who is under suspension. The Book of Government and Discipline (Chap. IX., Art. III., Sec. 3) is plain on this point. It is as follows: "Suspension may be for a definite time, but generally it must be indefinite in duration, and its removal must depend upon evidence of repentance." According to this regulation the one thing necessary to restoration is repentance, the sincerity of which has been manifested by a holy life for a sufficient length of time. The court that imposed the censure has jurisdiction to pass upon the evidences of repentance and to remove or continue the censure, but in case the offender has removed from the bounds of that court, it should transfer the issuing of the case to the court within whose bounds the offender is living, and which can take knowledge of the evidences of his repentance.

We therefore recommend the Synod of the Punjab to follow this line of procedure in the case referred to in their reference.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented its report which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON PUBLICATION.

The Committee on the Board of Publication, to which was referred the annual printed statement of the Board; the memorial from the Presbytery of Spokane, granting copies of the Minutes of the General Assembly to the clerks of presbyteries, financial agents, and superintendents of missions; and the request from the report of the Committee on Young People's Work that a book of instructions be prepared for the members of Junior Unions and Junior Missionary Societies; would recommend that the following action be taken:

1. It is gratifying to learn that the business affairs of this Board are in such a satisfactory condition, and that its different departments of work are carried forward economically, wisely and efficiently.

2. We heartily commend the Board to the confidence and patronage of our people.

3. We ask the Board to publish a book of instruction for the members of our Junior Unions, and Junior Missionary Societies, to cover the three-fold field of Missions, Church History, and Bible Study, the book to be prepared by Rev. J. F. Jamieson, Mrs. N. Wylie Stevenson, and R. J. Miller, D.D.

4. We recommend that the memorial of the Presbytery of Spokane, requesting that the Board furnish to clerks of presbyteries, superintendents of missions, and financial agents, a copy each of the Minutes of the General Assembly be granted, said copies to be paid for out of Assembly's fund.

5. That the Board at its own request be relieved, for the present, from the further prosecution of preparing revisions of the Psalms to which it was appointed by the General Assembly of 1898; and that a committee of three be appointed by this Assembly to co-operate with the Joint Committee appointed by the Presbyterian bodies engaged in efforts to secure a revised version of the Psalms, which shall prove acceptable to all the churches represented by said Joint Committee.

6. Since the General Assembly of 1883 consolidated the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools and the Board of Publication, and transferred the work of the former to the latter, your Committee does not see any necessity for two standing committees for the same Board. We therefore recommend that hereafter there be but one committee on this Board, and that it be named the Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.

7. This Assembly recommends and would urge pastors to make an effort to put a copy of the Minutes in the hands of all elders and people.

A representative of the Board called the attention of the Assembly to the fact that R. S. Smith, Esq., of Allegheny, Pa., had resigned within the past year the responsible office of treasurer of the Board of Publication, which he had filled continuously since 1874. The following resolution was adopted:

THANKS TO R. S. SMITH, ESQ.

Resolved, That this Assembly tender the thanks of the Church to R. S. Smith, Esq., for the faithfulness and efficiency with which for a quarter of a century he has discharged the duties of the important position of trust from which he has retired.

The report of the Committee on Correspondence was read and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

1. Having been authorized by you to reply to the message of greeting, received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, assembled in St. Louis, we have telegraphed the following: "The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, in Chicago, returns fraternal greetings, earnestly praying for the peace and prosperity of your Zion."

2. We recommend that the report of Rev. C. S. Cleland, delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, be received.

3. We recommend that the report of the Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South be received.

4. We are much gratified to note, both from the report of Rev. C. S. Cleland and of the Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, that the relations between the two bodies are characterized by a larger interest and a deeper cordiality; and that although the time is not yet ripe for organic union, yet such gratifying progress is being made in this direction that we believe the not very distant future shall see us one in organization as we are now in faith and practice. We therefore recommend that the Assembly continue an interchange of fraternal delegates with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

5. Three invitations for our next Assembly have been received from representatives of convention halls. As these invitations are purely of a business character, looking toward the financial interests of the various companies, and as the Assembly does not need a large convention hall in which to meet, we would recommend that they be courteously declined, and that the clerk of the Assembly so notify the companies.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented their report which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

1. That C. H. Strong, D.D., be the alternate of the moderator to preach the opening sermon.

2. That the pastors of Des Moines constitute a Committee on Conferences.

The Committee to revise the report on Narrative and State of Religion presented the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Committee appointed to revise the report of the Permanent Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presents that report as revised, with the recommendation that it be received and printed in the appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly.

The Committee on Appropriations presented its report which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON APPROPRIATIONS.

Your Committee on Appropriations would report the following:

Resolved, That the following appropriations be made:

To Foreign Missions	$132,822
" Home Missions	94,141
" Freedmen's Missions	55,000
" Church Extension	55,000
" Education, Regular Work	8,000
" Education, Colleges and Seminaries	25,000
" Ministerial Relief	8,000
" Assembly Fund	11,500
" Publication	500
Total	$389,963

The appropriation to Foreign Missions is exclusive of $24,000 pledged by the Women's Board, societies and other parties.

The report of the Committee on Nominations was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON NOMINATIONS.

The Committee on Nominations recommend the following persons to fill vacancies or constitute committees as herewith specified:

BOARDS.

DELEGATES TO CORRESPONDING CHURCHES.

Associate Reformed Synod of the South—John A. Wilson, D.D.

The Committee recommends that, reciprocating the courtesy of the sister denominations which have sent delegates to this Assembly, delegates be appointed to convey our fraternal greetings to the next General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the next General Synod of the Reformed Church in America (Dutch Reformed), and the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States (German Reformed), at its meeting in 1902. As delegate to the next General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States Rev. Chas. H. Robinson is nominated, as delegate to the next General Synod of the Reformed Church in America Rev. J. S. Garvin is nominated, as delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States at its meeting in 1902 Rev. W. D. Irons, D.D., is nominated.

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of this Assembly be offered to God for his manifest goodness to us during the days of our sessions.

2. That we record our appreciation and approval of the manly, courteous and impartial ruling of our moderator and his masterly representation of this Assembly in his fraternal salutations.

3. That we appreciate the work of our principal clerk and his preparation for the work of the Assembly.

4. That we extend our thanks to the pastor of this church, in which we have held our sessions, for his complete preparation for our anticipated needs and comforts, and for his care over us during these sessions, to the other pastors in the city and to all who have in any way contributed to the comfort of the Assembly.

5. That we extend our thanks to the railroads for the courtesies shown those from without the city in attendance upon this Assembly, and to the hotels for their special rates.

6. That we record our appreciation of the committees for the year just ending, on account of the careful and conscientious work they have performed.

7. That we thank the editors of our Church papers for the gratuitous distribution of the issues during the Assembly.

Took from the table the report of the Special Committee to revise the report of the Permanent Committee on the Fifteenth Article of the Testimony. This matter was referred to a committee of five to be appointed by this Assembly, with instructions to report to the next Assembly. The nomination of this committee was referred to the Committee on Nominations. Revs. J. G. Madge and John A. Burnett, members of this committee, being absent, Revs. A. I. Young and John A. Reynolds, D.D., were appointed in their places.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The Committee on Nominations presented the following supplementary report which was adopted:

COMMITTEE ON THE FIFTEENTH ARTICLE OF THE TESTIMONY.

J. D. Sands, D.D., T. B. Turnbull, D.D., D. S. Littell, D.D., Joseph Kyle, D.D., Rev. A. I. Young.

This Committee was requested to report its action in the Church papers at least three months before the meeting of the next Assembly.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved when the Moderator said, "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in Des Moines, Iowa, on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1901, at 7:45 o'clock P. M."

The Assembly was led in prayer by the Principal Clerk, and the Moderator pronounced the benediction.

JAMES P. SANKEY,
Moderator.
WILLIAM J. REID,
Principal Clerk.
A. G. WALLACE,
Second Clerk.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Trustees of the General Assembly would respectfully report:

1. That the lives of all our members have been mercifully spared throughout the past year.

2. That our appeal in the matter of the estate of Mrs. Bell, of Rock Co., Wis., referred to in our last report, has not yet been heard by the higher court.

3. The report of the treasurer, Jno. D. Fraser, Esq., properly audited, will be laid before you and will show you the state of our funds. The receipts of the past year, especially from legacies, have not equaled some, or even the average, of the preceding years. It is hoped that our people will not forget Christ in their wills.

5. The term of service of S. Collins, R. J. Miller and R. S. McCague expires with the present meeting of the Assembly.

By order of the Trustees,

S. Collins, President.

J. H. Scott, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

I. Introductory.

For the forty-first time the Board of Foreign Missions comes to the General Assembly to give its account. This will be its last report for this 19th century, the most remarkable in many respects of all the centuries that have preceded. During its years the world has made marvelous progress in the arts and sciences. Civilization and liberty have made gigantic strides. That, however, which has most of all distinguished the century has been its missionary character. It has been styled "The Century of Missions," and this has characterized it more than any of the Christian centuries. During the century the world has been opened up for the entrance of the gospel as never before. When the century began the gates of almost every nation were closed against the missionary. Now there is no more a "hermit nation." Then there were but seven boards or societies organized for sending the gospel to the unevangelized people. Now there are 449, besides 120 women's societies. Then there were in all but 170 missionaries in foreign fields. Now there is an army of 15,460 making their way into all parts of the earth. Then there were associated with the missionaries less than 100 native helpers. Now the number has swelled to 77,338, of whom 4,053 are ordained ministers of the gospel. Then only a few stations were occupied as centres. Now there are 5,571 stations, and 26,247 out-stations. Then the organized churches were few; now there are 11,039. Then the converts were 7,000 all told. Now there are 1,317,684. The adherents then were 15,000. Now they number 4,414,236. Then the entire income for spreading the gospel abroad was $50,000. Now the Christian world is contributing more than $19,000,000. Then there were no single women missionaries. Now there are, besides physicians, 3,403. Then there were no medical missionaries. Now there are 702, and one-third of these are women, and 200,000 patients are treated in a year in dispensaries and hospitals. The century was more than half gone before there were any organizations of women for giving the gospel specially to their own sex in heathen lands. Now there are 120 women's boards and societies organized for this end—fifty of these in our own country—and two millions and a half of the money contributed for foreign mission work is by and through these. At the beginning of the century about one-fifth of the people of the world had the Bible in their own language. Now seven-tenths of the race may read it in their own tongue. Then the Scriptures had been translated into only a few languages. Now they are in whole or in part in 421 languages and dialects. Now more Bibles are printed in a single year than were in all the world when the century dawned. In view of what has been accomplished surely this may rightly be called, "The Century of Missions," and we may well exclaim, "What hath God wrought!"

II. The Year.

The lives of the members of the Board have been spared throughout the year. The regular monthly meetings have been held, and adjourned or special meetings as necessity required. Cheerfully the members have given their precious time, and their self-sacrificing energies to promote the work committed to their care.

With three exceptions the lives of the missionaries have been preserved during the year. The exceptions have been Rev. J. P. McKee, D.D., Rev. D. S. Lytle and Mrs. Rebecca Gordon. Dr. McKee died in the hospital at Oil City, Pa., on November 1, 1899, after a lingering illness. He went to India in 1870. For 23 years he was faithfully and self-sacrificingly at work. He was successful as an evangelist, and excelled as a teacher. He was beloved by the natives, and there were many sad hearts when the news of his death reached India. In 1894, being much broken down in health, he was compelled to leave his work and come to this country. Here he gained somewhat in strength, and hoped until near the end of his days that he would be able to return to his loved India. Nearly two years before his death he offered his resignation, but as he expressed the hope, in connection with this, that he might some day go back to his work, the Board declined to accept the resignation. It was well that his name was retained to the end on our honored list of missionaries.

Rev. D. S. Lytle died at Sialkot, India, on November 8, only eight days after the departure of Dr. McKee. He was present at the annual meeting of the Mission in the closing days of October. Near the end of the sessions he was taken suddenly with a violent attack of dysentery. Hopes were entertained of his recovery until near the end, but he was not able to overcome the prostration and so sank into the embrace of death. His last end, as was also that of Dr. McKee, was peace. They had been laborers together in the Lord's vineyard, and the reward of the one soon followed that of the other. Mr. Lytle entered the mission in 1881. With the exception of a furlough of a year and a half in this country he was laboriously at work until within a few days of his death. The mission was severely stricken by his departure. Specially was it felt that the cause of self-support by the natives had, in his death, lost its most successful advocate. It will be difficult to fill his place in the mission.

Mrs. Gordon, widow of Rev. Andrew Gordon, D.D., died at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on February 5. She was one of our pioneer missionaries to India. She entered the field with her devoted husband and his sister, Miss Elizabeth G. Gordon, in 1855, was with him during his missionary life, and has been in this country since her return with him a short time before his death in 1887. Her life was a self-sacrificing one for the Master's sake.

The work in the fields has gone on during the year as usual. The same evangelistic, educational and medical methods have been pursued. The gospel has been widely preached in the cities, villages and bazaars. It has been taken to many harems and zenanas by the women missionaries. Healing has been brought to many bodies by the medical laborers, while at the same time the effort has been constantly made to impart healing to diseased souls. The reports from the missions for the year will show that the labors of the missionaries have been rewarded with a large measure of success.

III. The Finances.

The Board recommended to the Assembly last year the appropriation of $58,000 to each of the missions for the year, with an additional appropriation of $3,000 to India and $3,000 to Egypt for the last half of the fiscal year, provided the funds would warrant this. The Assembly appropriated the amounts recommended, and, in order to prevent the reduction of the missionary force in Egypt, made an additional appropriation of $5,000, and to prevent the restriction of the work in India added $2,000 to the appropriation to that field. The total amount appropriated to both fields for the year, including what was pledged by the Women's Board, by congregations and individuals, was $142,000. The mission in Egypt could not possibly get through the year with anything less than the appropriation made by the Assembly. India, by special economy, expended about $3,000 less than the Assembly's appropriation.

The total receipts from all sources that could be applied to the appropriations for the year were $130,038. This amount is $12,262 less than the appropriation made by the Assembly and the same amount less than the actual expenditures for the year, thus leaving a deficit of $12,262 and a total indebtedness, including that unpaid from last year, of $17,200. By anticipating the payment of a life insurance policy and a legacy that was certain to come into the treasury at a time not distant the Board, with the assent of the Assembly, then announced itself as free from debt, and said that every cent that would be contributed for the year would go directly for the work in the missions. It is with deep regret that the Board has now to report that it is again in debt to the amount above specified. In this connection it is proper to state that the last Assembly added $11,000 to the appropriations recommended by the Board.

V. ESTIMATES FOR THE YEAR.

The mission in Egypt, after the most careful consideration, has asked for the current year an appropriation of $70,728. The mission in India, in like manner, asks for $66,358. The Board, in view of the financial condition, with great reluctance, feels constrained to reduce these estimates, and to ask for the whole year as follows:

To Egypt	$ 66,000 00
" India	60,000 00
For Salaries of Missionaries at Home	6,000 00
" Children of Missionaries in America	700 00
" Returning Missionaries	5,000 00
" Salary of Corresponding Secretary ($1,000), of Treasurer ($500)	1,500 00
" Clerical Service	300 00
" Printing, Postage and Incidentals	1,400 00
" Interest on borrowed money	860 00
Total	$141,760 00
To meet the debt of the past year	12,262 00
Making a grand total of	$154,022 00

This amount includes $24,000 pledged by the Women's Board, Presbyterial Societies, Sabbath Schools, congregations and individuals, which must be deducted from the above total. The Assembly is asked therefore to appropriate for the year for the entire work of the Board $130,022.

In this connection the Board reports to the Assembly that the mission in Egypt expended in the year 1898 the sum of $4,814.48 in excess of the appropriation as recommended by the Board and confirmed by the Assembly for that year. Such were the demands that the mission did not find it possible to keep within the appropriation without disaster to much of the work in hand. In farther justification it should be said that the mission gave notice to the Board that, if certain missionaries then at home on furlough, were returned, and certain new missionaries were sent to the field, the extra expense must be provided for beyond the appropriation made by the Assembly. The Board submitted the question to the Assembly that year, of sending out certain missionaries and asked for the Assembly's direction. The Assembly left the whole matter to the discretion of the Board. A statement of the case was made to the Church. The response seemed to be such as to warrant the Board in going forward, and sending out the missionaries. The result, however, especially in the last month of the year, was disappointing. The Board did not make any promise to the mission that any amount beyond the appropriation made for the year by the Assembly would be forthcoming, and they did not know until after their report to the Assembly a year ago was in print and ready for the Assembly that the mission had exceeded the appropriation. Even when the Assembly was in session the report of the matter had not come to the Board in such a shape as to enable it to lay the case intelligibly before that body. Subsequently the matter was fully and clearly reported, and is now laid before the Assembly for its action. The fact is the money has been expended. The mission is in debt for it. The missionaries believe that they were justified in the circumstances in exceeding the appropriation. The Board did not authorize any excess in expenditure.

It is proper to add that the knowledge of this indebtedness on the part of the mission having come to the Women's Board, they generously made a contribution from funds at command, of $2,000. It is with especial pleasure that the Foreign Board makes mention of this timely gift. It reduces the indebtedness of the mission to $2,814.48. It will be for the Assembly to direct as to what provision shall be made for the payment of this balance due. If the Assembly shall direct the Board to pay this amount for which the mission is responsible, which in view of all the circumstances the Board recommends, then said amount must be added to the total of the above appropriation making the whole sum asked to be $132,846.

VI. Missionaries.

1. HOME ON FURLOUGH.

As reported to the last Assembly Rev. E. L. Porter and wife, Rev. W. T. Anderson and wife, Miss Mary E. Logan and Miss Marion M. Embleton came home from India on furlough, and Rev. John Giffen and wife, Rev. Samuel G. Hart and wife, Rev. J. P. White, M.D., and wife, and V. M. Henry, M. D., and wife, returned from Egypt. These are all yet in this country. They have enjoyed their rest, while at the same time they have made themselves useful in presenting the cause of missions as they have had opportunity.

Owing to the death of her husband in India, Mrs. Belle G. Lytle and daughter decided to return to this country. Miss Rosa A. McCullough on account of illness was advised by the Foreign and Women's Boards to come home for a period of rest, and has taken the advice. Miss Elizabeth G. Gordon, one of our pioneer missionaries to India, being unable longer to do misssion work, has decided to come to the home land and spend the rest of her days here. These all left India on April 1, and will be due in this country prior to the meeting of the Assembly.

Rev. J. R. Alexander, D.D., Rev. K. W. McFarland, and Miss Leonora J. McDowell, being entitled to a furlough, were granted leave by the mission in Egypt and the Board to come home. Mr. McFarland reached this country in time to be present at the Ecumenical Missionary Conference in New York. The others will not arrive until possibly some time in July.

Mrs. S. E. Johnson, M.D., came home from India, by invitation of the Women's Board, to have a place in the Ecumenical Missionary Conference. She attended the Women's Missionary Convention at Pawnee City, Neb., will visit many of the churches, and will sail from New York on her return on July 28.

Miss Carrie M. Buchanan, on account of failure of health, was compelled to ask leave to come home from Egypt. The leave was granted. She left Egypt on October 20, and reached this country on November 21. Her health has greatly improved by the change and rest, and she hopes to be able to return to her work this year.

2. RETURN AFTER FURLOUGH.

Rev. Thos. F. Cummings and family, Rev. J. H. Martin and family, and Miss Mame R. Martin, after enjoying the usual furlough in the home land, sailed on their return to India on October 23, and arrived safely in the field — November 17. They at once entered again on their labors in the stations ned them. Miss Mary J. Campbell sailed for the same mission on October d arrived in the mission December 6. She is again at work as in former

3. RESIGNATION.

As reported to the last Assembly Rev. J. P. White, M.D., partly because of the financial condition, but chiefly on account of the failure of his health and that of his wife, offered his resignation as a missionary to Egypt. Hoping that by a furlough in this country the health of Dr. and Mrs. White would be restored, the Board declined to accept the resignation. After a year's trial, however, the hope has not been realized to such an extent as, in Dr. White's judgment, to warrant his return to Egypt. Therefore the Board at their meeting in April accepted the resignation. This was done with deep regret, as Dr. and Mrs. White gave large promise of usefulness in the mission field.

4. NEW MISSIONARIES.

After careful examination of credentials, and from personal knowledge, the Women's Board recommended for appointment Miss Charlotte MacArthur, M.D., as a medical missionary to India in the place of Dr. Mary A. Platter, who must soon come home on furlough. Accordingly, at their meeting in April, the Board made this appointment and hereby asks that it be confirmed by the Assembly. At the same meeting, on the recommendation of the Women's Board, Miss Helen J. Ferrier was appointed to the mission in Egypt. The Assembly is asked to ratify this action.

The Board reported to the last Assembly that Rev. Wm. L. McClenahan had been sent to Egypt, his support having been provided for by special friends. As those friends were willing to continue his support for another year the arrangement was continued. His salary having now been especially guaranteed for a number of years, the Board recommends his permanent appointment to that mission.

In view of the probability of the services of one of the missionaries in Egypt being required in initiating work in the region of Khartum, and in view of his expenses having been provided for, as is shown farther on in this report, the Board at their meeeting on April 30 appointed Rev. Orin A. Keach to the Egyptian mission. If the Assembly shall approve of entering upon work at Khartum, it is asked to ratify this appointment.

The Assembly will no doubt be officially informed of the election of Rev. Robt. Stewart, D.D., by the Synod of the Punjab, to a professorship in the theological seminary connected with the India mission. It will be for the Assembly, upon ratifying this election, to authorize the Board of Foreign Missions to provide for Dr. Stewart's passage to the field. In case the election is confirmed by the Assembly, and Dr. Stewart should not see his way clear to accept the position, the Board asks that authority be given to it to send out a new missionary to India to fill the place made vacant by the death of Rev. D. S. Lytle.

In addition, in view of the pressing need of the India mission and the loud call for help sent by the mission the Board, at their meeting on May 8, appointed Rev. W. J. Brandon to that mission, and hereby asks the Assembly to confirm this appointment.

VII. THE MISSIONS.

1. EGYPT.

Missionaries.—There was serious sickness of several of the missionaries in this field during the year but the lives of all were spared. Rev. K. W. McFarland and wife were called upon to mourn the death of their little daughter, aged fourteen months.

According to the action of the General Assembly the Synod of the Nile was organized at Asyut, on May 11, 1899.

The mission asks that four single women missionaries should be sent out this year. More male missionaries are also greatly needed, in addition to the return of Dr. John Giffen and Rev. S. G. Hart.

The work has gone on in the usual lines, though crippled still in many ways from want of funds. The gospel is preached as widely as possible by the missionaries and native ministers, and is taken to many persons and homes by colporteurs and harem workers. The school work in the college and in all the grades of schools is prominently evangelistic in its character. The object is to lead souls to Christ, and when they have embraced him, to train them for work, and thus raise up, as speedily as possible, an army of qualified native laborers. It is recognized that by these mainly the whole land must be evangelized, and a self-supporting, self-propagating church established. The work done by the women in the harems, and by the medical missionaries all have this great ultimate end in view.

Statistics.—The missionaries in the field for the year, beside the wives, were ordained ministers, 15. (Rev. John Giffen, D.D., and Rev. G. S. Hart were in this country.) Single women, 10; medical, 1 male and 2 females, and one professor in the college. The native ministers were 33, licentiates, 17, and other native workers, 70. There were 10 theological students. The organized congregations are 44, all having pastors. In these congregations and the stations are 6,379 communicants—a net gain of 216. Six new pastors were ordained during the year.

The Sabbath Schools number 155. In these are 345 teachers and 8,800 pupils; 5,570 Sabbath school papers are distributed weekly. The contributions of the Sabbath school were $725.

The Day Schools are 184. In these are 325 teachers and 14,246 scholars. Of these 10,122 are males, and 4,124 females; 3,176 are Mohammedans.

Two thousand nine hundred and eight women and girls attend special meetings, 3,448 are being taught in the harems, 4,616 attend the Sabath morning services, and 2,781 are communicants in the churches.

Twenty-two thousand nine hundred dollars were contributed for definitely religious purposes, $29,259 for educational, and $14,166 for books. The medical receipts for physicians' fees were $5,454, and from the hospital at Asyut $1,500, a total of $6,954, making a grand total from the natives for all purposes of $73,279: this amount exceeding the whole sum appropriated by the Assembly by $7,279. This summary of statistics indicates that there has been encouraging progress in every department of work.

2. INDIA.

Missionaries.—The health of the missionaries during the year in this mission has been generally good. There has been some serious sickness, but with the exception of Rev. D. S. Lytle, all lives have been spared. The plague has touched the borders of our field but up to this date has been stayed. The famine, that has been terrible in some parts of the land, has been much less severe in the Punjab. Yet the people in our districts have sorely felt the pressure, especially in the high prices of the necessaries of life. Our people at home have responded quite liberally to the appeal of the suffering that came to them. The help from them sent through the Board to our missionaries has relieved much distress, and has at the same time commended the spirit of our Christianity to the suffering heathen and the needy of our native Christians.

The work in this mission has also been carried on by the usual methods. It has felt deeply the lack of sufficient laborers. Six additional missionaries are earnestly asked for by the mission. It will be sufficient to indicate the need to say that in one district, Rawal Pindi, there are 900,000 souls, with only two American ordained ministers, two single women, and a very few native laborers to spread the gospel among such a multitude.

The work of self-support has been pushed in this mission with all the effort possible. The success in this line has been quite encouraging. A number of native ministers have declined to take any part of their salary from the misssion, and have cast themselves upon the people for support. Their salary is much less than they were receiving or could otherwise command, but they have become convinced that this is the only way for the native church to attain to self-support, and for this end they are making the sacrifice. The aim of the mission is to have the native church ministered to and supported by the natives themselves as speedily as possible. The most promising of the native youth are being educated, and the native laborers trained in summer schools with this great end in view.

Statistics.—Fourteen ordained American missionaries (Rev. T. F. Cummings and Rev. J. H. Martin, were in this country); 22 single women and two women medical missionaries were in the field during the year. There are 11 native ordained laborers, seven licentiates, 11 theological students, 81 school teachers, and of other native employes, 159, making a total of native workers of 269. There are 19 organized congregations, 66 unorganized mission circles, one self-supporting congregation, and six having pastors.

There were during the year 261 members received on profession, 172 adults and 234 infants were baptized, a net increase of 163. The total membership of the churches and stations on December 31, 1899, was 6,136—a net gain over the report of last year of 163.

The Sabbath schools are 112, the teachers 193, and the scholars 3,451.

The day schools are 114, the teachers 269, the pupils 6,664. The Christian pupils are 792. There are three training and industrial schools, with 236 pupils.

The contributions for church purposes were, for the year, $968, and for all purposes, $8,934, a considerable increase over last year.

On the whole these figures present an encouraging exhibit. Because of the stress of famine and removal of members to other parts the gain in membership has not been as great as in some former years. Yet it has been considerable. Not a few of those who have removed will probably be recovered in the new mission districts which have been occupied.

A Transfer Asked For.—In view of the importance of the Girls' Training School at Sialkot for promoting work among the women, and in view of the fact that a number of scholarships are provided for by the women of the Church, and in order to relieve the Board of Foreign Missions of a portion of the expense of the mission, the Women's Board have requested that the support of the said school be transferred to that Board. The Foreign Board unites in the request that this transfer be authorized by the Assembly, it being understood that the method of carrying on the school and its supervision and control by the Missionary Association shall continue as heretofore.

VIII. Mission to the Sudan.

The Board reported to the last Assembly that about $800 had been put into its treasury exclusively for work in the Sudan. The Assembly gave the Board discretionary power to use this amount, or any other funds that might be received for that purpose, in making an experimental advance on the Nile. Soon after the adjournment of the Assembly, it was reported from Egypt that an English lady had proferred $500 a year for three years for mission work in the Sudan. The Board also learned through Rev. Geo. D. Mathews, D.D., formerly of our Church in this country, but now of London, that a society, know as the Freedmen's Missions Aid Society, of that city, was contemplating disbanding. It had been organized some thirty years ago for mission work among the Freedmen of our country and ex-slaves on the west coast of Africa. Its special object was to educate men who might ultimately be employed in doing mission work in Khartum or among the tribes south of that in Africa. Having come to the conclusion that it had accomplished its object so far as lay in its power, it was casting around to see where it could place the funds remaining in its treasury so as most nearly to meet the intention of the donors of the same. Its attention was directed by Dr. Mathews to our mission in Egypt and our Board. The result was a proposition to transfer its remaining funds to our Board on condition that it would expend them in mission work in Khartum or that region of the Sudan. The proposition seemed so clearly providential that it was accepted by the Board, and as soon as the transfer could be made there came into our treasury the large sum of $9,605.60, for which due thanks were given the society by the Board, and should also be given by the Assembly.

The Board informed the mission of this donation and directed that one of its experienced missionaries should proceed at as early a day as possible up the Nile, explore the field in the region of Khartum, and report as to the best method of initiating mission work. Liberty was given to take one or two native workers along and, if thought best, to leave them there engaged in some form of missionary labor. The mission deemed it wisest to send two of their number as a commission, and Dr. Andrew Watson and Rev. J. Kelly Giffen were chosen for that purpose. The Board approved of this action.

As soon as was possible the commissioners started on their tour of exploration. They carefully investigated the valley of the Nile as they ascended, and after remaining for a sufficient length of time at Umderman and exploring the branches of the White and Blue Nile in that region, returned and reported to the Missionary Association at the annual meeting in February. The report was in favor of "appointing a missionary to occupy Umderman, whose work for the first year at least shall be chiefly exploring and testing the field, the people and climate, with a view of the permanent occupation of the field in the future, and we especially recommend that these beginning operations be up the Blue Nile and over the Sannar district, retaining meanwhile Umderman as a center." The commissioners farther recommended "that if the mission and the Board decided to undertake work in the Sudan, the force in Egypt should be increased so that there may be eventually three missionaries in Umderman (or Khartum), one of whom should be a physician." The Association approved of these recommendations, but added to the second the recommendation that after the first year "there should be three missionaries appointed to Umderman or Khartum, one of whom should be a physician." The Association also said that, in view of the difficulty in getting funds for the work already in hand, "We urge that the work in the Sudan should not be undertaken without at the same time fully considering the ways and means for largely developing the present mission work of the Church, as well as carrying on the work in the Sudan. Our needs in Egypt are increasing annually. There should be more workers, and greater means provided at once for properly developing our various agencies in evangelistic, educational and medical work."

The Board approved of the report of the commission and of the action of the mission thereupon, except that it did not consent to that part of the action of the Association that would require the sending definitely of three missionaries after the first year to Umderman or Khartum. It was deemed best to leave this to be acted upon after receiving the report of the missionary who may be sent to explore for the first year. In beginning work it will be necessary to secure suitable property for mission purposes in Umderman, and probably also in Khartum, as recommended by the commission, as that will be ere long the seat of the government and the center of influence for that region. The whole report of the commission has been printed in the papers of the Church, and is also printed separately for the use of the Assembly, which is hereby asked to give its approval of what has been done in this important matter, and its direction as to farther action by the Board and the mission in Egypt. In this connection the Assembly is asked to give due consideration to what the Association says in relation to the increased expense of carrying on work at Khartum, while at the same time sustaining and enlarging, as should be done, the work in Egypt.

IX. The Ecumenical Missionary Conference.

The Board reported to the Assembly last year that arrangements were in progress for an Ecumenical Missionary Conference to be held in the city of New York in the last days of April and first of May, 1900. Invitations were sent to every foreign missionary society connected with the various divisions of Protestant Christendom, and these were accepted with rare unanimity. The Conference was held at the place and time appointed. Our missions, Board and Church, were duly represented. Representatives were present from all the Christian nations, and from almost every part of the missionary world. The Conference surpassed in numbers any of its predecessors, and was in fact the largest delegated assemblage that ever met on the face of the earth in the interests of the extension of the gospel among the nations. Never has there been such a striking manifestation of obedience on the part of the Church to Christ's command to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. Never before such a demonstration of unity in the Church in accomplishing this grand object. Never before have so many laborers in the great cause of giving the gospel to the world had such an opportunity of meeting face to face, of conferring together in regard to missionary work and methods, of uniting with each other in prayer, and of speaking words of cheer to one another as they go up in united phalanx to conquer the kingdom of darkness and bring in the kingdom of light and joy and peace. The Conference we may feel assured will result in the correcting of mistakes that have been made, in throwing light upon the best methods of missionary work, in greater unity in work and comity in the fields, and in the more intelligent and effective operation of all agencies at home and abroad for the speedy evangelization of the nations of the world.

The volumes containing the proceedings of this unequalled Conference of Christian workers will be a grand thesaurus of information in relation to mission work, workers and methods. They should be read everywhere by our people. The Assembly will do well to recommend their widest possible circulation throughout our churches.

X. The Annual Report.

Soon after the adjournment of the Assembly each year, and by its direction, the Board issues in neat pamphlet form its annual report to that body, together with the annual report of the missions for the year preceding. The pamphlet contains annually a large amount of information which cannot otherwise be obtained. It ought to go into the hands of all our members. By its perusal their knowledge of our foreign mission work will be largely increased, a deeper interest in the work will be awakened and larger contributions will result. The report is sent without cost wherever desired. It will be helpful if the Assembly will direct special attention to it and urge its more extensive circulation and careful reading.

XI. Special Help Given.

While the Board is not unmindful of the fact that many of the smaller contributions for its treasury have been given with self-denial, it cannot but mention the names of some who have been special helpers during the year by their large and generous gifts. Among these have been A. M. Stewart, Indiana, Pa.; John P. Duncan, New York; John S. McConnell, Mount Vernon, Ohio; Mrs. Robert Jamison, Allegheny, Pa.; Rev. J. Howard Tate, New York; Thomas Shepherd, Martin, Michigan; W. B. Shrader, Butler, Pa.; J. B. Patton, Eden, Ill.; Mrs. Margaret Warden, Mt. Pleasant, Pa.; "A Friend," Parnassus, Pa.

The First church, Allegheny, Pa., has generously decided to donate a church building for the Alexandria, Egypt, mission, to cost $10,000, and already $2,575 have been paid by them on account. This is only one of many liberal gifts of these good friends for our foreign mission work.

We must mention specially the Women's Board which has continued to support the single women missionaries, the medical work by women, and has made liberal contributions besides. Also the church papers which have given liberal use of their columns for missionary letters and the Board's monthly statement.

The Women's Magazine, too, has done excellent work. The Assembly should thank these, and in addition The Freedmen's Missions Aid Society, The British and Foreign Bible Society, the American Bible Society, the Turkish Missions Aid Society, Lord Cromer and the Messrs. Muller in Egypt, and other friends in the mission fields who have given generous aid.

Above all, let thanks be given to God for his favor so abundantly vouchsafed to our work throughout another year.

By order of the Board,
M. G. Kyle, President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

In submitting the annual report which follows, the Board of Home Missions desires to express its gratitude to God for his blessing upon the work under its care during the past year, also its appreciation of the interest manifested in this work and the support given to it by the Church.

The regular monthly meetings of the Board have been held, and several special meetings that consumed much time were devoted to the consideration and preparation of business that is to come before the General Committee.

In this report, and in the guiding of the home mission work of our Church in the coming years, the hand of the former Corresponding Secretary, Rev. Wm. S. Owens, D.D., who for many years previous to the one that is just closing, so ably directed the operations in the home field will be missed.

We trust that the hand of God will guide with power and unerring wisdom the Church and the Board in all their efforts to bring this land of ours under the influence of the gospel and saving grace of our Lord.

These figures show that progress has been made in our home misison work during the past year. There has been a gratifying increase in the membership and average attendance. The increase by profession is 1,387, by certificate, 1,464, a total of 2,851. The decrease reported is 1,473, leaving a net gain of 1,378. There is a marked increase in the number of teachers and scholars in the Sabbath schools, also in the contributions of the congregations. For the salaries of their ministers and the general work of the Church the aggregate amount raised by the home mission stations for the year is $103,434.00, exceeding the entire expenditures for the work during the same period by $15,792.00. As the figures show, the payments to presbyteries for the support of missionaries were $72,532, and the sum paid by the congregations for this purpose is $82,663, being $10,131 more than the amount received by them from the home mission funds. This is encouraging as indicating the tendency and effort of congregations to become self-supporting, a feature of home mission work that more and more needs to be urged.

As is well known, at the beginning of the year the spiritual life of our Church, like that of nearly all other Churches, was in a rather low state. We believe there has been some improvement in this respect, but the change did not begin until towards the close of the year for which reports are made, and therefore it may reasonably be expected that its effects, so far as statistics are concerned, will be more noticeable in future reports than in the one that is now presented.

The showing that is now made affords ground for encouragement in this work. The new work for the past year is especially encouraging. Without an exception the new stations manifest a vigorous life and give promise of success. In Brockton, Mass., Wilmington, Del., Pinckneyville, Ill., East Des Moines, Ia., St. Joseph, Mo., and New Whatcom, Wash., congregations have been organized, and in each case an excellent start has been made. Other places might be mentioned in this connection, but these indicate the general scope and character of the new work. If the Church would provide the money that is needed, further extension in equally promising fields would speedily be made. It is worse than useless to establish more stations without the assurance or a reasonable hope of proper support.

As God has richly given to our Church the ability, our prayer is that he will also graciously give to it the spirit of willingness and determination to go forward in the Master's work.

II. Grants by the Board.—The last General Assembly placed at the disposal of the Board for use, if required during the current year, for cases that were referred to it, $1,400, and to provide for emergencies that might occur, $5,000, a total of $6,400.

The Board has appropriated for cases referred to it $1,300, and to meet emergencies, $4,462, a total of $5,762. Details are as follows:

For Cases Referred.—A. R. Synod of the South, Louisville, Ky., $200; Corsicana, Tex., $500; Kansas City Presbytery, Topeka Second, $600.

To Meet Emergencies.—Arkansas Valley, Pretty Prairie, $300 additional for full time; Beaver Valley, New Castle, Third Mission, $50, for special work one quarter; Boston, Brockton, $600; Cleveland, Stowe, $200, settlement; College Springs, Creston, $100 additional, settlement; Detroit, Crosswell, $150; Illinois Southern, Pinckneyville, $800; Lake, Conneaut Lake, $150; Monongahela, Gladden, $200; Ohio First, Dayton, $500, settlement; San Francisco, Fowler, $44 additional; Oakland, $200 additional salary and $168 to supply pulpit during the last illness of Rev. J. M. French; San Jose, $850; Westmoreland, Scottdale, $150.

In many of these cases the grant was made about the middle of the year, and therefore only a part of the amount appropriated will be paid.

III. Special Missions.—Thirty-three stations have been in the care of the Board as special missions. The tabular statement which follows sets forth the leading facts in reference to these stations and their work during the year. Special reports were received from all but two. In nearly all of them the conditions are encouraging and the work is moving forward with a fair measure of success. With the exception of those in which the work was entirely new and, in some cases, not begun till the second or third quarter, nearly all of these stations had the regular services of pastors or stated supplies. The reports indicate a general advancement. There was an increase over last year in membership and average attendance. The gain by profession was 222, by certificate 295, decrease 208, net gain 309. There will be some changes in stated supplies for the coming year, but it is not expected that there will be many. The requests of stations continuing in the special care of the Board have been acted upon. The terms of Altoona, Baltimore North avenue, Kearney, Omaha South, Pittsburg, Kan., Portland Grand avenue, Pueblo, Seattle, and Waitsburg expire June 30, 1900. All of these, except Pittsburg, Kan., are asking to be continued for another term. The requests, with all the papers relating thereto, will be referred as usual to the General Committee. In view of the large number of stations asking to be made special missions, the Board earnestly recommends that great care be exercised in considering these cases, and that such requests be not granted except in very extraordinary cases. For the sake of a fuller statement, some of these stations will receive brief mention in addition to what appears in the tables.

Burlington.—The pastor, Rev. P. C. Baird, resigned about the middle of the year to accept a call to a Presbyterian church. No successor has yet been appointed.

Colfax.—Rev. W. W. Reid was sent to this station as stated supply last and the missionary is more hopeful of success.

Colfax.—Rev. W. W. Reed was sent to this station as stated supply last fall. It is a difficult field, and growth will be slow.

Columbus, Neil Ave.—Rev. W. J. Buchanan has announced his intention of retiring from the field at the end of this quarter. Six hundred dollars was asked for the coming year. The Board grants $500, believing the congregation ought to raise the balance for salary.

Des Moines Third.—Rev. I. McG. Knipe took charge as stated supply January 1. He reports encouraging conditions and good prospects.

Ordinary Expenditure	$77,192 21	$74,846 12	$75,642 53
Expenditure for debt		8,325 96	12,000 00
Total Expenditure	$77,192 21	$83,172 08	$87,642 08

The amount from Sabbath schools and Young People includes what was received from the Tenth Anniversary Fund, and only such contributions from Sabbath schools as were not received through financial agents. The amount from Ladies' Missionary Societies includes the special gift of $5,000 from the Women's Board. The $2,500 transferred from special funds does not belong to permanent funds to be held and invested, but is part of moneys donated at different times upon which the donors were to receive a five per cent. annuity during their natural life. No other condition was imposed by the givers, but the Board at one time set these sums apart in a special fund. There being no necessity for thus classifying this money, it has been placed in the ordinary funds.

Comparison with former years is interesting as showing whether or not advancement has been made, but the true standard of judgment in this particular is the ability of the Church. The total direct contributions are $7,086 98 more than those of 1898 and $125.51 less than those of 1899. The total receipts show $15,804.17 more than in 1898 and $768.54 less than in 1899. The total expenditures are $10,449.87 more than they were in 1898 and $4,470 more than in 1899.

The debt of $12,000, which existed at the beginning of the year in the form of two notes of $6,000 each, owed to bank, has been paid. The quarterly payments to presbyteries have been made as promptly as was possible, and all other necessary expenses have been met. To meet the last quarterly payments the treasury was overdrawn to the amount of $3,903.35. From the permanent funds on hand and uninvested this amount was temporarily borrowed till the receipts will permit the return of the same. The cash on hand, received since the closing of accounts April 30, is $823.04. Thus the account shows an actual indebtedness at the time of making this report of $3,080.31.

The Board has endeavored, in every way in its power, to keep the work and its needs before the Church, but it is of the opinion that the receipts from presbyteries would have been larger if some such effort had been made as was put forth two years ago by a special committee appointed by the General Assembly to stir up the Church to enlarged gifts for all purposes. In several presbyteries the contributions show an increase over those of last year; in others there was a decrease, one presbytery giving $2,400 and another $1,400 less than in 1899.

The financial showing for the past year is interesting as a possible indication of what may be expected or relied upon for the coming year. But our eyes must not be turned backward in this work. The Church can improve upon the past, and all will agree that it ought to do so. God is calling upon our Church for larger and better things. The call comes in the large requests for aid that are now presented, in the opening and whitened harvest fields in all parts of our land, and especially in the command of our divine Master. If the faith and zeal of our people shall be commensurate with their ability, there will be no lack of funds for this work. The best assurance of adequate support for this and all other lines of Christian effort is a quickened and vigorous spiritual life in the Church, with a juster appreciation of the duty of God's people.

VIII. THE COMING YEAR.—Reports have been received from all of our presbyteries except those in foreign countries. Fifty-five presbyteries present requests for aid from the home mission funds for 224 stations, including several fields in which work has not yet been begun. In addition to these, the A. R. Church South asks aid for 3 stations. The total amount asked is $87,686. For strictly new work the applications call for $8,750.

The applications for special missions, whose terms continue beyond the present year, have been acted on by the Board. All other applications, according to the regulations, will be presented to the General Committee of Home Missions, to be considered and acted upon by that body.

Rev. E. Z. Thomas has been appointed by the Board as its representative in the General Committee.

The term of service of Rev. W. J. Reid, D.D., Rev. J. G. Brown, D.D., and George M. Paden, Esq., expires June 30, 1900.

By order of the Board,
J. K. McClurkin, President,
J. W. English, Rec. Secretary,
Pittsburgh, Pa., May 16, 1900. Alexander Gilchrist, Cor. Secretary.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The forty-first annual meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions was held in Hoopeston, Ill., May 16 to 23, 1900. All the presbyteries in America, except Vermont, Wisconsin, and Tennessee, were represented by delegates. The Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension were also represented. W. H. Vincent, D.D., of Detroit Presbytery, was elected chairman. W. A. Spalding, D.D., of Spokane Presbytery, and Paul Stewart, of Indiana Presbytery, were appointed assistant secretaries.

Applications for aid from the home mission funds were presented by 55 presbyteries for 227 stations, including several places where work has not yet been begun. These applications called for $90,786. The committee realized that this was a large sum, but felt that few, if any, of the applications could be refused without doing injury to the work. In considering and presenting applications, it was believed that the presbyteries had exercised unusual care this year. There were many requests for aid for proposed new stations. All the fields thus presented were inviting and promising, and the feeling was that almost without exception the requests should be granted. But the total amount of these applications being $11,100, the committee felt that all could not be granted. The work of the committee was performed with great care and with earnest prayer for divine guidance. The following report gives the result of its deliberations.

Appropriations are recommended as follows: For special missions in the care of the Board, $23,400; for other stations aided in former years, $50,686; for new work, $8,225; to meet the probable needs of cases referred to the Board, $3,750; to the Board to meet emergencies, $5,000; to provide for the payment of debt, $3,080. The total amount asked of the Church for the coming year is $94,141. We believe that this amount is necessary in order that our home mission work may be properly sustained. It is our firm belief also that the Church can easily provide every dollar of the amount appropriated. The great need is that our people be made to realize the demands of the work and their duty in reference to it.

I. AID GRANTED.

The following characters are used to express conditions upon which appropriations are made: p. s., continuance of existing pastoral settlement; s., settlement to be effected. In all other cases the condition is stated supply, unless something different is expressly indicated. A fraction after the appropriation shows the amount of time to be taken, as ½ or 2-3. When no figures are used, the grant is for full time. When a * is affixed, as $120*, the station has received what the sliding scale rules permit, and is referred to the Board for consideration of its claims to exemption and an increase.

II. SPECIAL AND NEW WORK.

1. The term of nine stations as Special Missions expires this year. Seven of these asked to be continued in this relation for another term, and eight other stations were recommended to be placed in the same class. In reference to these missions we recommend as follows: Alliance, Neb., referred to the Board with $600, special mission three years; Altoona, Pa., grant of $600, special mission three years, and the reappointment of R. A. Hutchison as s. s.; Du Bois, Pa., a grant of $700, special mission three years; Jeannette, Pa., a grant of $700; Kearney, Neb., a grant of $700; Omaha, Park Ave., Neb., a grant of $700; Omaha, South, Neb., a grant of $950; Portland, Grand Ave., Ore., a grant of $950, special mission three years; Pueblo, Col., a grant of $800, special mission three years; Rock Island, Ill., a grant of $400; Rushville, Neb., a grant of $550; San Jose, Cal., a grant of $850, special mission five years; Seattle, Wash., a grant of $700, special mission three years; Waitsburg, Wash., a grant of $700, special mission five years; Wilmington, Del., a grant of $1,050, and reappointment of Rev. J. J. Huston as stated supply.

2. The following is a list of stations that are granted aid for the first time. The amounts and conditions are given in the general table: Akron, O., Cleveland Presbytery, for investigation; Bolivar, Conemaugh; The Bronx Mission, New York; Burlington Junction, College Springs; Charlotte, Second, A. R. Church, South; Cuyler Station, Chicago; Duquesne Park Mission, Allegheny; Everett, Puget Sound; Los Angeles Second, Los Angeles; Moline, Rock Island; New Castle Third, Beaver Valley; Ontario, Mansfield; Sugar Grove and Good Hope, Des Moines; Wheeling, Chartiers; Zelienople, Butler; Exploration work in Oregon Presbytery; Exploration work in Spokane Presbytery.

III. GENERAL.

We recommend to the General Assembly for adoption the following:

1. That we express our appreciation of the courtesy and efficiency of the officers of this Committee.

2. That we congratulate the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions on the eminent success of his first year in that difficult office and assure him of our cordial support in his work.

3. That the Treasurer of the General Assembly be instructed to issue a warrant for ten dollars for the services of the janitor of the Hoopeston church.

4. That we are pleased to note that contributions to the work of home missions have increased to the extent that payments have been made more promptly than for years past and the indebtedness has been largely reduced. But an indebtedness of $3,080 still remains and the appropriations for the coming year are larger than those for the past year. Many promising fields are inviting our Church to enter. Hence we urge that the attention of all our congregations be called to these facts and a still more hearty support be sought to the end that our Church may move forward more rapidly in the home mission work.

5. That in all the work of raising money care should be taken to cultivate the true spirit of giving as an act of worship, and therefore done to the glory of Christ, the Head of the Church. In considering the many cases before the Committee, it becomes quite evident that when such instruction has been given faithfully there is a gratifying growth in the grace of giving.

6. That in order to facilitate the preparation of an accurate report by the Board to the General Committee of Home Missions, Superintendents of Missions be and are hereby directed to observe with great care the rule requiring all applications to be in the hands of the Secretary of the Board of Home Missions by the 20th of April each year.

7. That the Committee expresses its gratification at the marked improvement in presbyterial supervision as shown in the applications for aid before us. In some cases, however, there has been evident failure in the exercise of presbyterial authority. Your Committee would therefore urge that presbyteries show the utmost diligence in the discharging of that duty of oversight wherewith they are entrusted. It is our judgment that in so doing the unrest and dissatisfaction in respect to the distribution of ministers and supply of vacancies would be largely allayed and many hindrances to the operation of the present system removed, and further, that we call the special attention of the General Assembly to the necessity of taking steps to secure such oversight by the presbyteries.

8. That the following amendment be made to the regulations of the Board of Home Missions, namely, the addition of a regulation under the Regulations for the General Committee as follows: In cases other than Special Missions, which are already provided for in the regulations, the General Committee shall refer the appointment of missionaries to the Board, subject to the approval of the presbytery.

W. H. Vincent, Chairman.

Alexander Gilchrist, Secretary.

W. A. Spalding, Paul Stewart, Assistant Secretaries.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The King and Head of the Church has been gracious to his servants, sparing the life, and, in large measure, the health of the members of the Board, and of all the laborers in this part of his vineyard. For this we are thankful, but we are especially thankful for the privilege of preaching the gospel for another whole year to those who were perishing, and that a goodly number have accepted its terms and are to-day rejoicing in Jesus as their personal Saviour.

SUMMARY.

Before entering upon the task of setting before you the work in detail, we wish to call your attention to the following brief summary: The fourteen (14) missions carried on by your Board are located in four (4) different States of the Union, as follows: Virginia three (3), North Carolina one (1), Tennessee five (5), and Alabama five (5). There are nine (9) organized congregations and three (3) unorganized missions, with a total membership of seven hundred and eighty-four (784), a net increase in membership of one hundred and six (106) for the year. There are two (2) missions in which no members have been received. There are thirteen (13) schools with an enrollment in all grades of three thousand and twenty-four (3,024). Sixteen (16) Sabbath schools are regularly conducted, with a total enrollment of three thousand eight hundred and forty-three (3,843) scholars under the care of one hundred and thirty-eight (138) officers and teachers. Eighty-nine (89) missionaries are employed by the Board, classified as follows: Eleven (11) ordained ministers and four (4) licentiates; of these five (5) ministers and two (2) licentiates are white; six (6) ministers and two (2) licentiates are colored. Of the remaining seventy-four (74) eleven (11) are males, white, and seven (7) males, colored; thirty (30) females, white and twenty-six (26) colored. As a rule, the work has been carried on with earnestness and zeal, the workers being harmonious and co-operating heartily in all efforts to uplift these needy people.

The usual number of students and former students (not less than 350) have filled positions in the public schools of the Southern States, with a total enrollment in all their schools of about 18,000 pupils. Some form of religious work is carried on in connection with nearly all these schools.

Details.—The details of the work which follow have been compiled from the annual reports of the pastors and principals of the different congregations and schools.

KNOXVILLE, TENN.

Knoxville College is in her twenty-fifth year. It was a small beginning that was made twenty-five years ago next September, but it was made in faith, and that faith has been rewarded. The closing of this quarter of a century of work will be appropriately celebrated. The dates of the celebration are June 11 and 12, just preceding the commencement of June 13. Extensive preparations have been made for making it a great day for the college and also for work among the Freedmen.

The year that is nearing its close has been a good one from beginning to end. Special characteristics of the year have been the perfect harmony and heartiness of the workers, the good feeling and loyalty among the students and the colored people of the city, a larger attendance than heretofore, and a good religious interest among all.

Workers and students have been blest with good health during the year.

The enrollment for the year is 313, with an average daily attendance of 232.

The workers in Knoxville College are R. W. McGranahan, J. B. Work, R. J. Love, H. M. Telford, W. T. Hewetson, E. Isabel Kerr, W. G. Purdy, H. W. Speer, Maude R. Brooks, Anna M. Henderson, Agnes Wishart, Mary J. Fisher, M. Jeannette May, O. H. Kyle, Mrs. L. McClatchey, Jennie McCahon, Maggie McDill, Agnes J. Kyle, Anna Rutherford, Minnie Hanna, Emma Pinkerton, and R. M. Bell.

Religious Work.—The regular Sabbath services consist of preaching morning and evening, Sabbath school in the morning, and Junior and Intermediate Young People's Prayer-meeting in the afternoon. The Y. P. C. U. meets on Monday evening. All these services are well attended. The change of the Sabbath school from the afternoon to the morning reduced the attendance somewhat, but resulted in great gain to the work, as it binds together the Sabbath school and preaching service, and much more effective work has been done. A mission Sabbath school has been maintained by the Knoxville congregation since the first of January in one of the most needy portions of the city. This is under the management of the students, who have shown commendable zeal and earnestness in its work. Miss Jennie McCahon, as missionary, is faithful and untiring in sowing the good seed. The two Sabbath schools have an enrollment of 400, with an average attendance of 305. Special meetings were held for a week at a time twice during the year. Twenty six accessions to the church are recorded, of which nineteen were on profession of faith.

A large number of others have accepted Christ and connected with other denominations.

The College.—The term college is used to apply to all the work in connection with the institution, from the classical course down to the primary. The need of primary instruction in many communities is so great that did we not provide such a course many would be denied instruction in the rudiments of learning. The maintaining of the primary and training school departments not only affords an opportunity for thorough instruction from the very beginning, but also an opportunity for the advanced students to obtain valuable experience in teaching under a skillful principal, as many of the classes are taught by advanced students.

Theological Department.—One student graduates from this department this year. He has been the only one regularly in the theological course this year. There are many still in the college course who look forward to entering this department, and the prospect for the department for the future is good. It is an important department, as it trains young men for the actual work, surrounded by many of the conditions that they must meet.

Medical Department.—This year, for the first time, has there been a graduating class in this department. Three young men complete the four years' course and will receive their diplomas. An increased attendance and good interest in the department have encouraged all connected with it.

Industrial Departments.—Students are taught the trades of printing, carpentery, agriculture, electrical work and in incidental ways other industries. All the girls are required to take sewing as a part of the college curriculum. While the students are taught these industries they receive at the same time pay for the work they do, the pay being based on the character of the work done. In this way over $800 have been paid out to students, of which $600 has been received from the State University Fund. In addition to above, ten students have received State Normal Scholarships, of which the State of Tennessee furnishes 66 to be given by the senators to colored young men and women, with the privilege of using them in any of the recognized colored institutions. The State Scholarship gives its recipient $50. From the Women's Board we have received to help students $193. Thus over $1,500 has been used to help students.

The help given students is almost entirely in the way of compensation of labor. The only exception is in the case of those too young to render a return for help given. There is a great opportunity to those who wish to help some worthy young man or woman through school. The money will not be given to him outright, but he will be given work to do in some line that will bring returns that will help some other student to get work, and thus a small amount of money does great good.

Scholarships.—The faculty have provided for a free scholarship to the member of the fourth normal class who shall stand highest in his class, and whose deportment shall have been creditable. This scholarship provides for free boarding and tuition for one year. If the person who wins the scholarship does not desire to avail himself of its privileges it shall be given to the second highest.

It is desired and hoped that before the next session opens scholarships with like provisions shall be provided for in all the schools under the control of the United Presbyterian Church, providing for the winner a free Knoxville College Scholarship. Four such scholarships have been provided—in Athens Academy, Athens, Tenn., given by the Ladies' Missionary Society of Morning Sun, Ohio, congregation; in Thyne Institute, Chase City, Va., given by Mrs. McCleary, New Wilington, Pa.; in Prairie, Ala., mission, given by Mrs. J. M. Brown, of Wheeling, W. Va.; in Norfolk Mission College, given by Rev. J. D. Lytle, Hanover, Ind.

ATHENS AND RICEVILLE.

An important feature of the work at Athens this year has been the organization of a mission at Riceville, a small town seven miles distant, where twelve members have been received into the church and quite a flourishing Sabbath school has been organized. Rev. J. L. Cook preaches every two weeks, and the prospects for a flourishing church are good. The enrollment is 190. The force of workers at this place are Rev. J. L. Cook, J. J. Johnson, J. A. Cleage, Margaret Buchanan, Anna Floyd and Alice Burris. The congregation has contributed to the Boards $48 and to pastor's salary $50, in addition to the running expense.

MILLER'S FERRY, ALA.

This is the oldest station of the Alabama missions and has had its best year. The good crops of last year and the growing reputation of all our schools have greatly increased the attendance in all the Alabama missions.

Workers in this field are: Rev. C. H. Johnson, Mrs. Tillie E. Johnson, Sophia D. Cox, Mrs. Susie James and Patsey Neal.

All the organizations of the well-managed congregation have done good work. In addition to paying all the running expenses of the school and church, this congregation paid $101 to the Boards of the Church, and $100 to pastor's salary, contributing $282.32.

PRAIRIE, ALA.

The workers at this place are: Rev. J. T. Arter, H. J. Oliver, R. H. Adams, Christianita Totten and Elizabeth Bradford.

A feature of this station is the farm which is owned by the Women's Board and managed under the direction of Mr. Oliver. The purpose of this enterprise is to afford opportunity for promising persons to be taught farming properly, and afforded the privilege of purchasing small farms of their own.

This congregation has made good progress this year. Its membership is almost doubled, and its contributions to the Boards of the Church have been $154. The school at this place has started the commendable plan of making small charge for tuition, twenty-five cents a year being charged each pupil. The plan has worked well. It it possible for all to pay that, and much better work is done if it costs the pupils something.

CAMDEN, ALA.

A sewing teacher was added to the teaching force at this place this year, and the department has done well. All the various departments of a thoroughly organized church and Sabbath school have flourished. The location is a very important one, in the county seat of a community that has a large colored population. The enrollment of the school has been 202 during the year. The congregation contributed to the pastor's salary $30.

The workers associated with Rev. E. K. Smith, the pastor and principal, are: Mrs. Maggie Smith, Emma L. Johnson, Lauretta Savage and Olivia J. Lane.

CANTON BEND, ALA.

A congregation was organized during the year. Its membership now is 29. Prof. J. N. Cotton and Mrs. Ella Cotton have had charge of the work. Preaching service has been conducted half time by Revs. E. K. Smith and J. T. Arter. A sewing teacher will be added to the force next year. The property has been improved by the building of a home for the workers. The enrollment has been 174. Fourteen dollars was contributed to the Boards, in addition to what was given for running expenses of school and church.

SUMMERFIELD, ALA.

The workers in this place have been Prof. P. C. Cloud, Laura Scaggs and Alice Walker. The enrollment was 156. The property at this place belongs to the estate of Eliza B. Wallace, which has not been settled. The future of the work is uncertain, as it is not clear that there is an encouraging prospect of a congregation being built up in the near future, and if not it would not be wise to continue.

CLEVELAND, TENN.

Rev. J. A. Cotton begun work here a little more than a year ago. The field is an encouraging one. No effort has been made to open a school, but preaching service and Sabbath school have been carried on. Members have been received into the church as a part of the Athens congregation. The opposition arising from denominational prejudice has been very strong, but there has been much for which to thank God and take courage.

BRISTOL, TENN.

Under the direction of J. H. Tarter this mission opened up with good prospects of being one of our strong points. Twelve members have been received into the church as a part of the Knoxville congregation. The Sabbath school has done well.

Maj. A. D. Reynolds, a prominent citizen and Christian worker of Bristol, has made the inviting proposition to our Board that he would give a lot in one of the best locations for the work in the city, valued at $2,500 and an additional $1,000, if the Board would erect a building which should cost not less than $5,000, and open up a school for colored pupils. The field is exceedingly promising both for school and church work, and we confidently look forward to this being one of our strongest points in the future.

2. The Work.—The work has not differed in any essential particular from that of former years, nor has the result been any less gratifying. The religious work has been especially encouraging. The attendance at church, Sabbath school and weekly prayer-meetings, the reverent attitude and close attention which invariably characterized the audience, indicate the presence with us of the Holy Spirit. No class of persons manifest a more unmistakable desire to know the truth than do these Freedmen, and upon no class of persons does it have a greater influence. A very marked improvement in the moral character of our members and adherents is apparent. The usual special meetings were held, and more than the usual interest manifested, particularly during the last series, held two weeks ago. There has been a net increase of ten in the membership, making a total of 166.

The work in the Woman's Missionary Society and the two Young People's Unions has been continued. A thank-offering taken recently amounted to $44.00, the greater part of which was given by the colored people.

Girls' Industrial Home.—During the term there were 17 girls in the Home and 5 boys in the cottage. We regard this department as one of the most important features of our work here. Aiming, as it does, to effect an improvement in the home-life of the Freedmen, its importance as an indispensable condition of spiritual and social progress should secure for it the most earnest consideration on the part of the Church and the most liberal support of all who love our Church and country. The value of any human being as a spiritual, social, commercial and political factor is largely determined by his home environment. The best results in moral and social culture are possible only when proper attention is given to economics. This is especially true in the case of the Southern negro, the saddest and most pathetic feature of whose unfortunate history is perhaps the practical elimination from his mind of any proper conception of home, consequent upon two hundred and fifty years of slavery. Only in the case of those who have come under such culture as the "Industrial Home" furnishes do we detect the presence of any desire for home improvement. Without this desire there is nothing to which appeal can be made. The desire for better homes rapidly developes in those who enter the industrial department. The permanency of this desire, when once aroused, and the practical results in the improvement of the homes to which these students return, afford the strongest incentive to this kind of work. We can point to scores of homes within the limit of our influence which have been transformed in appearance, and a corresponding advance made in the refinement of those who compose these households.

Sewing Department.—The enrollment in the sewing department is 102; number of garments made, 416; yards of material used, 617; yards of material donated, 362.

The workers are: Rev. J. M. Moore, principal, Clara Hazen, Lizzie Lanning, Lou George, Grace Ling, Mabel Moore, May Walker and Angie Lorimer and Rhoda Lawther in the Industrial.

BLUESTONE, VA.

The enrollment of the Sabbath school and congregation is 205. The average attendance for the term, 103. Total contributions, $45.

O. Y. P. C. U. and Junior Society number 170. The prayer-meetings are held regularly every Friday afternoon. The prayer-meeting of the Senior Society is led by some member of the society, under the direction of the intermediate teacher. The meetings of the Junior Society are presided over by the primary teacher. There has been a marked increase of attendance at the prayer-meetings this year. There has been an influence at work to keep the pupils from school on Fridays; but we have not seen the effects of it this year to any great extent.

The congregational prayer-meeting has been regularly conducted every Tuesday and alternate Sabbath night. The usual interest has been manifested, and at times we have been much encouraged.

The community in which this mission is located was sorely scourged by sickness during a portion of the year. An epidemic of typhoid fever prevailed during the autumn and winter, by which many homes were decimated and some broken up. Our congregation suffered the loss of eight members by death. This greatly increased the distress occasioned by severe poverty in many homes, and hindered the work, the school being almost broken up sometimes. The total enrollment in the day-school was 175.

The workers in this mission are: Rev. W. M. Fowlkes, Mrs. Blanch Fowlkes, C. Henry Wilson and Rosa Williamson.

NORFOLK, VA.

The enrollment is 692, with an average attendance of 577. There are 15 regular teachers and 25 pupil teachers. These latter teach one or two periods daily. It is required of everyone who is a candidate for graduation to teach two years in the model school before completing the course of study. This gives an excellent preparation for the responsible duties of school management, when these young persons go out to assume the office of teachers of others. The wisdom of such a course is testified to by several county superintendents of schools, preferring our graduates in many cases to those of other institutions. Each young woman graduate is required to make her graduation clothes in the sewing room, under the supervision of the sewing teacher. She is required, also, to plan and prepare properly the various meals of the day, to set and bake bread in the cooking department, under the instruction of the cooking teacher. Five young ladies who graduate this year have fulfilled these requirements. Two others have finished the course in sewing and are able to draft, fit and make all clothes of ladies.

The health of the workers has been good till within a month of the close of the year, when four teachers have been laid aside for a time. Death has entered the school and taken a larger number than usual. One young woman who was within a few months of graduation, and who would have taken second honors, was called to rest from her labors. Four members of the congregation have died.

The usual religious services have been regularly maintained. The principal receives more invitations to preach in various colored congregations than he is able to accept. Whenever he can he preaches in these places, and finds it productive of great good in removing prejudice, and in creating a greater interest in the work of the mission in the country districts, as well as instructing in a more perfect knowledge of the teaching of the Word of God. He has prepared a little volume of questions and explanations of Old Testament history and doctrine for the school. The plan is to issue four volumes on the Bible, requiring four years systematic study of the Scriptures. A number of colored ministers who have received the first volume are anxious for the others. In this way many who have so few means of improvement and who profess to be teachers of others are helped into a better understanding of the doctrines of the Bible. Besides the school work, the teachers visit from house to house, read the Bible, pray and instruct in the homes, relieve the needy according to their ability, comfort the dying and frequently assist in burying the dead. More than 1,600 such visits have been made this year.

Seven names have been added to the roll of the congregation. A number of scholars have expressed a desire for membership in our congregation, but are opposed by parents and pastors. Prejudice and ignorance of the principles of our religion are the ground of such opposition. In some cases these have been overcome; in others it will take teaching and time to remove these hindrances.

Four prayer-meetings are held weekly in the school and one by the congregation.

The services of the Sabbath are preaching, Y. P. C. U., Sabbath school at 2 P.M. and at 6 P.M. Many of our members are teachers, and are to be found in Georgia, North Carolina and various parts of Virginia. Others are in service, where they can attend here but a short time each year.

The enrollment in the Sabbath schools is 721 and 189, or a total of 910. The contributions are $130.23.

The Y. P. C. U. meets for praise, prayer and conference every Sabbath morning, and on the first Thursday of each month for business and social entertainment.

The W. M. S. has 31 members, and meets monthly. They have contributed $17.29 for missionary purposes.

The sewing department has 280 girls, classified into five grades. Good work is done here. All visitors to this department express their surprise at the excellence of the work done by the girls. Two girls complete the course this year, and are qualified to assume the trade of dressmaking. Receipts in this department are $62.21; expenditures, $57.98.

The cooking school continues to be the popular department at the college. Eighty-two girls and seven boys are learning all that is necessary for a well-appointed kitchen. The boys are anxious to be cooks or stewards on steamers or ships. Only those who know the home-life of the greatest number of these people can understand the pressing need of these two departments.

In the printing department two girls and thirty-three boys are learning the art of printing. One thousand copies of Bible questions, 600 catalogues and various volumes of different societies were printed and bound besides the Bulletin, the monthly college paper, and a great deal of job work. No work in any of the departments is allowed to pass unless it is as near perfection as possible.

We have received more contributions of clothing and money than formerly. The clothing has, for the most part, been unusually good. Special mention is to be made of the Young Women's Missionary Society of the First church, Washington, Pa., who are maintaining a young girl in school who otherwise would not be able to attend. This girl shows her appreciation of the help given by hard work and the highest average grade in the school.

The workers are: Rev. Wm. McKirahan, pastor and principal, W. D. Gamble, S. F. Houston, Margaret Anderson, Mary M. Welch, Hibbit Coventry, Elizabeth Houston, Alberta Shipley, Gertrude Broughton. Juliet Robinson, Bertha Jones, Blanch Smith, Ralph Moorehead, printer; Hettie Young, sewing; Florence Ganey, cooking.

HENDERSON, N. C.

Rev. F. W. Woodfin is the stated supply at this station, the congregation being wholly under his control. The following order of religious services is observed: Sabbath, Y. P. C. U., 9.30 A.M.; preaching, 10.30; Sabbath school at the Institute, 2.30 P.M.; Junior Society, 5 P.M., and preaching, 8 P.M.; Mid-week prayer-meeting, Wednesday, 8 P.M.; Woman's Missionary Society the last Wednesday of each month, 4 P.M.; Mothers' meeting, Friday, 4 P.M.

Mr. Woodfin speaks as follows in regard to the work: Our Junior and Mothers' meetings deserve special mention. The Junior leaders have sometimes been discouraged and have felt like giving up the work, but recently God has signally rewarded their patience.

Seven of the Juniors, aged 8 to 14, have professed their faith in Christ, and while three of them will join other churches, we are giving all of them catechetical instruction in the fundamentals, such as sin, repentance, faith, justification, the sacraments and our Distinctive Principles, preparatory to their reception as members.

The Mothers' Meeting, unhappily, was discontinued last winter, but has been taken up again with added vigor. This, I believe, is our most effective agency for getting at and improving the home-life of the people. It is, indeed, encouraging and inspiring to be present at one of these meetings and see how eagerly they listen to some timely lecture on some phase of the home-life, or a chapter from Miss Moore's book "For Mothers," and then hear them all at close of meeting send up their fervent petitions to the Father of us all that he give them wisdom to rear aright their boys and girls. Pray for our mothers.

Condition.—This has been a very difficult field, and the statistics do not indicate the real extent of progress made. Previous to the reception of this congregation, our Distinctive Principles were not known, or, if known, not understood. In making them known we have, at times, been put to the necessity of defending them, not only against outsiders, but among our own members. They have been slow to accept our position as to Psalmody, the communion and secretism. We are prone to cling to cherished notions, and when one has been allowed from childhood to sing anything without question or protest, it is not easy to convince such an one that he ought to sing Psalms only. The same is true in regard to secret societies. But while our members and others are being gradually brought to see the excellency and beauty of Psalms, and the solidity of our principles in general, our growth from the ranks of the adults will be slow. The record of the congregation, while it was Presbyterian, shows a total of 41 members in ten years; however, we should surpass this by far.

The contributions for the year were $151.00. We have need of patience and a baptism of the Spirit for service.

The School.—Rev. D. A. W. Johnson is the principal of the school; those associated with him are: Messrs. H. C. Chambers, Daniel McBride and Misses Adda Purdy, Emma Robertson, Lissa M. Jack, Matie B. Speer, Loretta Mitchell and Margaret Kerr, sewing teacher. The school report shows an enrollment of 488, with an average attendance of 242. A case of smallpox, adjacent, compelled the closing of the school the last two weeks of November and the first week in December. The attendance for the rest of the term was small, few being brave enough to return till after the holidays. This reduced the average attendance very greatly and hindered the work. The work done in the school was of a high order.

Training Department.—This department has been an invaluable feature. About twenty-five students in the advanced classes, preparing for the work of teaching, received such training in the methods of teaching as will fit them to be intelligent helpers of their race. Three were taken from the department during the present year to fill positions in the public schools in the neighboring districts. This department has won a reputation for itself in days past.

Sewing Department.—This department reports an enrollment of 148; articles made, 804; yards of material used, 2,155.

Religious Work.—In addition to the religious service conducted daily in the opening of the school and Bible work in all the classes, the following exercises are conducted: In the two cottages for self-boarders, prayers are conducted morning and evening every day by one of the teachers. One of the young men goes to the boys' cottage, and one of the young women to the girls' cottage. A mid-week prayer-meeting is held in the chapel on Thursday evening. The students in the cottages attend preaching in the church Sabbath morning. Sabbath school and preaching are conducted every Sabbath afternoon in the chapel. These meetings are largely attended by pupils and others. The Sabbath school enrollment reached 600. This includes the Sabbath school of the congregation, which united with the school in the chapel a part of the year. The Y. P. C. U. for the entire school was held on Friday evening of each week.

The teachers all do personal work from house to house, as time and strength permit.

INDUSTRIAL SUMMARY.

The following is a brief exhibit of the industrial work done at the different missions:

KNOXVILLE.—Agriculture, including all kinds of farm work, truck gardening, taking care of stock and dairying.

Mechanical Work.—Principally carpentry and electric work, such as caring for and running the dynamo.

Housekeeping in all its parts, down to the smallest detail.

Sewing and Dressmaking, from the first stitches, through all kinds of plain sewing up to the drafting, cutting, fitting and making of ladies' dresses.

Printing.—This art is taught thoroughly so far as may be required in a well-equipped job printing establishment.

ATHENS, PRAIRIE, MILLER'S FERRY, CAMDEN, SUMMERFIELD, BLUESTONE AND HENDERSON.—Sewing and dressmaking.

CHASE CITY, VA.—Sewing, dressmaking, plain housekeeping. The girls in the Girls' Industrial Home are carefully taught the art of plain cooking and housekeeping.

NORFOLK, VA.—Sewing, dressmaking, cooking and printing. This is the only station which has a cooking school distinctively and scientifically conducted. It is not on a large scale, nor has it a complete equipment, but a very efficient teacher had under her tuition 82 girls and 7 boys, much to their improvement in the culinary art.

The Woman's Auxiliary Board has paid the salaries of all the industrial teachers in all the missions, except those of Prof. W. S. Purdy, professor of mechanical arts, and Prof. H. W. Speer, professor of agrculture in Knoxville College, who receive their salaries from the University of Tennessee. The total receipts from the Woman's Auxiliary Board for this purpose are $7,000.

By the financial summary above it will be seen that the debt of this mission Board has been materially increased this last year, the total indebtedness now being $16,082.75. This is occasioned, not by the undertaking of new work not before provided for, but by an increase of expense in some of the missions which was not contemplated; by the triennial payment of property insurance and a slight falling off of contributions. In view of these discouraging facts the Board asks the Assembly to take such action as may be deemed proper.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Charter.—Your Board herewith submits a copy of a charter incorporating a board of trustees for Knoxville College, with power to confer degrees, for the approval of the Assembly. This is made necessary to meet the requirements of the Medical Department of Knoxville College, which sends out this year its first graduation class. The Board of Freedmen's Mission has no authority to confer degrees.

Our attorney prepared the charter constituting the Board of Trustees in such form as to create no danger of disturbing the title to the property by limiting their power to the one matter, viz., the conferring of degrees. The Board respectfully asks the approval of the Assembly.

Presbytery.—Your Board respectfully requests this General Assembly to rescind the action of the last General Assembly relative to the establishment of a presbytery in Eastern Virginia and North Carolina, to be composed of the ministers and elders of the congregations under the care of the Freedmen's Board. Minutes, Page 776, Res. 5, for the following reasons:

1. Because in every instance the minister sustains the double relation of pastor of the congregation and principal of the school. The Board must necessarily have control of his relations with the school. If the presbytery have control of his relations with the congregation there would be great danger of a conflict of authority.

2. All the presbyterial care required for the best interests of the congregations and missions in the field in question is amply provided for in the order of the General Assembly of 1890, in Buffalo, N. Y. See Digest, Page 170, Res. 6, Sec. 11.

STATISTICAL REPORTS.

In the statistical table which is appended to this report, there are a few items worthy of note. One congregation was organized (Canton Bend), two missions are ready for organization (Prairie and Cleveland) There was a net gain in membership of 106. The spirit of liberality among the members is growing. Four congregations contributed to the salary of their pastors a total of $180. The total contributions for all purposes reported last year were $857, and for this year the amount reported is $2,024, or more than double.

The young people's societies had an increase of 557 members. The Sabbath schools had an increase of 41 officers and teachers, 357 scholars, and of contributions $196.

APPROPRIATION.

The Board respectfully asks the Assembly to appropriate $55,000 to meet the present indebtedness and to defray the expenses of the work for the next year.

TERM EXPIRES.

The term of office of D. A. McClenahan, D.D., J. J. Porter, Esq., and D. F. McGill, D.D., expires with this meeting.

By order of the Board,
W. H. McMillan, President,
Allegheny, Pa., May 10, 1900. J W. Witherspoon, Cor. Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension has faithfully endeavored to carry on the work committed to it, and respectfully submits the following report:

The year has been one of much activity in the mission work. The Church appears to be reviving from the depression of the immediately preceding years. The Board has endeavored to meet the demands for aid by a careful consideration of every application, and by such grants as appeared to be necessary, so far as the means at command would permit. The proportion of entirely new work has been greater than in some of the recent years, but it has been found necessary to make grants for some older congregations, because of conditions which seemed to threaten their continued existence. Experience has shown the importance of sustaining the congregations in the old fields and, also, that proper and timely effort and care may restore prosperity to some that appear to be failing without hope. But it should be remembered that a new house of worship, or the removal of debt is only one element in the change for good; the new life must come from within the congregation. We must look to an able and spiritual ministry, and to an earnest and devoted membership for permanent success.

Every practicable effort has been made to increase the income of the Board. For several years the Board deferred to the greater need of other Boards deeply in debt, but this year felt warranted in making special appeals. The result has been gratifying.

The co-operation with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South has been continued by a grant to Corsicana, an important town in Texas. Very cordial acknowledgment of the aid given has been received.

Very liberal and efficient aid has been rendered by the Women's Missionary Board. Beside the grants for parsonages, appropriations to the amount of $4,822 have been made to mission congregations burdened with debt, and, in addition to this, the sum of $2,075 has been paid direct to the Board, viz., $2,000 for the general work, and $75 for the debt. A very satisfactory conference between the two Boards was held to arrange concerning securities for aid to congregations, and as to uniform conditions of grants.

The responsibility for the organization and dissolution of congregations rests altogether with the presbyteries. But when the Board has paid money for the property it has acquired a vested interest, and, if possible, should have knowledge in advance of the disorganization. The Assembly is, therefore, asked to instruct the presbyteries not to disorganize any congregation until the interests of the Boards which have helped have been properly cared for.

There has been a decided increase in the contributions of the Sabbath schools over the preceding year. The amount was sufficient to buy a lot for the Du Bois mission and the erection of the Glendale mission chapel under the care of the Spokane congregation. These are the Sabbath school memorials for the present year.

There has been a large increase of interest in this work on the part of the young people. Their contributions are four and one-half times what was given last year. This is, in part, the effect of the rule of the General Committee that the Convention contributions shall be distributed among the mission Boards according to the appropriations by the General Assembly. The rule is just and reasonable.

The Board has great pleasure in reporting a large increase in individual contributions. The James Law gift of $6,000 constitutes a special fund with the name of the donor. The annuity funds have been increased $3,000.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The appropriations made are as follows:

CONGREGATION.	PRESBYTERY.	DONATION.	LOAN.

The Fourth church, Pittsburgh, some years ago made a change of location and became deeply involved in debt. The property is valuable and the field important, but the burden was too heavy to be carried. Whatever the errors of the past, it was necessary to save the congregation, and a grant was made on conditions which place the congregation on a safe basis.

The grant to Second, Des Moines, is for the erection of the main building. The congregation was given permission to change its location so as to make a better division of the territory between the two congregations.

The following correction is made in the report of last year: The grant to Rushville, Ind., for a parsonage was a loan, and not a donation, as reported.

In explanation of the balance thus reported, it may be said that $9,635.16 was received from contributions within the last three weeks of the year.

The appropriations not paid amount to $21,925, of which a considerable part will be called for at an early date.

The general financial prosperity of the country would lead us to expect a considerable increase in the regular contributions of congregations, independently of the gifts of the Sabbath schools and other organizations, but there has been a slight decrease, $116.69. An examination of the reports of the presbyteries does not reveal any general cause for this, but the increase in the receipts from Sabbath schools and societies suggests that, possibly, contributions are more largely made for special objects. If there is such a tendency, it is suggested that care should be taken to impress upon all our congregations the necessity for the direct support of the regular work undertaken under the instructions of the General Assembly. This is the foundation work. The examination of the presbyterial returns leads, also, to the conviction that very much depends on the efforts of the presbyteries and the financial agents to keep the work before the congregations. The missions of the Church will be sustained according to the local influences in their favor. Of the 911 congregations in America 200 report themselves as not contributing anything to Church extension.

A full statement of the several funds held by the Board was given in the last annual report. To these we now add the "James Law" Memorial Fund of $6,000. This donation was promised by Mr. Law some time before his death, and was paid, with interest, within the last year. The funds subject to annuity have been increased $3,000 by the partial payment in advance of a bequest, by one whose name may not yet be announced. Other special gifts for the Permanent Fund have been received.

The loans for parsonages amount to $11,724.36, a decrease from last year. The loans to churches aggregate $28,047, being $1,292.50 less than a year ago. The Permanent Fund has been increased by special donations, and now amounts to $100,961.38. This includes $16,700 subject to annuity.

This fund is the growth of special gifts, the Quarter-Centennial Fund and other appropriations made to it under the authority of the General Assembly. It is held as a trust fund which, as to the principal, cannot be used for current expenses. It has been a very valuable aid in the work, giving stability and preventing serious embarrassment and loss. The investments are made in first mortgages of undoubted value by a committee of the Board and competent attorneys, special care being taken to protect the fund against loss. Under present conditions the rate of interest is lower than formerly, reducing the income about one per cent.

The Board makes an annual audit of the Treasurer's books and an examination of the securities held for the Permanent Funds and for the aid given to churches. This audit is made by a fully competent person not a member of the Board, assisted by a member. In view of the amount of funds involved, and the importance of public confidence in the management, the Board respectfully asks the General Assembly to appoint the auditors.

A detailed statement of the funds and securities held by the Board is herewith submitted for examination.

The Board has very deeply felt the responsibility resting upon it, and will be pleased to receive from the General Assembly as explicit instructions as it may be possible to give. The applications endorsed by the presbyteries are sometimes for very large amounts, and yet, perhaps, not larger than necessary if the funds could be commanded. But in view of the demands of the field in general, the Board has restricted itself to $5,000 as the extreme limit of grants. One result is that some of the congregations aided are still in debt. During the past few years this has seemed unavoidable, but now that the conditions are more favorable, the Board suggests that, possibly, this would be a favorable time for a general movement for the payment of all property debts. It is asked that the presbyteries be instructed to take up the subject, and encourage and help all dependent congregations to remove all such obligations.

The Board has great satisfaction in reporting that it has received the cordial support of all the synods in its work, and that the superintendents of missions and financial agents have continued to render the same valuable service as in former years. The Board also expresses its obligations to William F. Robb, Esq., and F. L. Stephenson, Esq., for gratuitous services as notaries.

The term of office of T. C. Atchison, D.D., Mr. A. P. Burchfield and A. H. Calvert, D.D., expires with this year

The information before the Board as to the coming year indicates that not less than the appropriation of last year, viz., $55,000, will be required. Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,
M. M. Patterson, President,
C. F. Dean, Secretary,
A. G. Wallace, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

In presenting this, our annual report, to the General Assembly we desire to make acknowledgment of the goodness of God toward us and of his providential care in the protection of our property and of all the interests of the Board.

Our financial condition is quite as good as it has ever been, and the prospect for the complete removal of our indebtedness, as may be learned from the examination of the business manager's statement, is encouraging.

The General Assembly of 1898 authorized the Board of Publication to re-receive new revisions of the Psalms and pass upon their accuracy of translation and poetic merit, and recommend such as they approve to the General Assembly for adoption. The Board reported to the General Assembly of 1899 that but few revisions had been received until near the meeting of the Assembly. That Assembly left the matter of revision in the hands of the Board.

For two or three years prior to 1898 a joint committee from a number of the Presbyterian denominations, our own among them, had been engaged in efforts to secure a revised version of the Psalms which might be acceptable to all the Churches represented in the Joint Committee.

The members of the Joint Committee from our Church reported to the General Assembly of 1898 that with the exception of the Canada Presbyterian Church and the Reformed General Synod and our own Church, no real interest was taken in the work, and that it was "useless to attempt to prosecute the work to an issue at this time." The committee, therefore, asked to be discharged, which request was granted by the Assembly.

We have recently learned that the work of preparing a revised version of the Psalms has been continued by a considerable part of the Joint Committete. This will be brought to the attention of the General Assembly by a statement from said committee. We therefore ask that the Board of Publication be relieved for the present from the further prosecution of the work of revision committed to them, and that a committee of three be appointed to act with the Joint Committee now engaged in the work.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

We have issued Songs of the Ages, Memorial Volume of the Y. P. C. U., and one or two small tracts.

The Memorial Volume is one of great value and interest. It has been well received by our young people and deserves a place in the permanent literature, not only of our young people's societies, but of the whole Church.

The tract on the change of the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week treats of a subject of great importance at the present time.

OUR SABBATH SCHOOL WORK.

We recognize this as the great work of this Board. One of the important objects for which it has been established was to furnish our congregations and Sabbath schools with a sound and suitable literature. We trust we are meeting this end with some degree of efficiency and success. We provide a literature for our Sabbath schools which is helpful to them and creditable to the Church. Those who remember how inadequate was the literature furnished our Sabbath schools, prior to the taking up of the work by your Board of Publication, will appreciate the progress that has been made in this direction.

The statistics and statements in this Report prepared by our Sabbath School Committee, exhibit as fully and completely as has ever been done the condition and progress of this work. If presbyteries and presbyterial superintendents of Sabbath schools, though perhaps more active in this work the past year than ever before, would devote themselves with all possible earnestness and faithfulness toward promoting the efficiency of our Sabbath schools; and if the General Assembly would at once adopt measures which would place this Board and the Board of Home Missions in such relation to the evangelistic work of the Sabbath school and the church that they could actively co-operate in establishing mission Sabbath schools and mission congregations in destitute and needy fields, we apprehend that a great impetus would be given to this good work.

In our report to the General Assembly of 1899 we said: It is the judgment of the Board of Publication that the plan proposed by the General Committee of Home Missions to the General Assembly of 1898 would, with slight modifications, be a suitable one according to which itinerant missionary and Sabbath school work could be carried on.

The General Assembly of 1883 consolidated the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools and the Board of Publication, and "declared the Permanent Committee dissolved so soon as the Board of Publication has been organized in accordance with the foregoing resolutions."

The work which had been in charge of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools was thus transferred to the Board of Publication, the charter of which was so changed that the number of its members was increased to 15. Since the work formerly performed by the Permanent Committee has been placed in charge of the Board of Publication, there does not seem to be any necessity for two standing committees for the same Board. We simply call the attention of the General Assembly to the facts in the case as they exist. The General Assembly will take such action, if any, as it may deem suitable. If it is determined to have but one committee it should be named, Committee on Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.

On the above statistics, and in the interests of the work in general, our Sabbath School Committee makes the following comments and suggestions which we recommend to your careful consideration, viz.:

Pastors.—They attend 747 schools. The number is somewhat smaller than one year ago.

Elders.—Of the 3,776 reported, 3,037, or over 80%, attend our schools. Both actually and proportionately the number is larger than one year ago.

Considering the number of aged and infirm in the eldership, we have the evidence that only a very small minority are indifferent to this work.

Enrollment.—The total reported enrollment is 118,563, or 3,040 more than last year. An increase is found in 42 presbyteries. A few presbyteries show a marked decrease, but in the large majority a healthy growth is manifest.

Average Attendance.—The reported number is 74,124, or 62% of the enrollment, an increase of 3,561, or two and one-half per cent. over that of last year. In some schools the average seems lower than it should be; yet considering the uncontrolable effect of the hot season upon our city schools, and the bad roads, etc., upon many of our country schools; all this in addition to sickness and the fact that several thousand of our children are very small, we have, on the whole, about as high an average attendance as could reasonably be expected. Nevertheless it is both our duty and privilege to strive earnestly for a higher average.

Contributions.—In this respect the average increase of former years has been exceeded. This year the sum is $100,610 or $8,365 more than ever before. Of this amount $35,910 have been contributed to the Boards of the Church. In many of our schools the grace of giving is evidently cultivated; but there is still room in many of our schools for decided improvement.

Scholars Confessing Christ.—The number reported is 3,427, or 98 less than one year ago. These figures, however, do not represent the entire number, as many schools, and some of them among our largest, did not report any accessions. (It is known that some of these had good sized accessions.) Perhaps one reason for so many blanks in this column is because our Sabbath school secretaries do not keep on their records an account of scholars confessing Christ, and fail to secure the proper data from the pastor or session. Notwithstanding this we believe the number to be below what we have a right to expect. We need to waken up more fully to the vital importance of the Sabbath school as a soul-winning institution.

Presbyterial Conventions.—Thirty-one presbyteries report having had conventions or conferences. This is an increase of four over last year. Almost without exception the conventions or conferences held are spoken of in the highest terms. We would urge upon our presbyterial superintendents the importance of this work. If conventions seem to be impracticable, let conferences be held in connection with presbytery. Let the P. S. S. superintendent magnify his office, and press his important claims.

Catechism.—The awarding of the WESTMINSTER DIPLOMA had a stimulating effect upon the study of this important little book. Let there be continued effort in this direction. Too much stress cannot be laid upon its careful study.

Home Department.—There are reported 4,407 scholars; yet this does not represent the total enrollment. More schools report having a Home class than those that give the enrollment. There is a growing interest in this important department. We would recommend that the Assembly urge every school which does not have such a class to organize one without delay. It occupies a fruitful field which as hitherto been neglected.

Mission Schools.—The number is 77. Just one-half of our presbyteries have a mission school or mission schools. The importance of this work has already been impressed upon the Church. We would like to emphasize it. Why not make the increase of such schools our "TWENTIETH CENTURY MOVEMENT"? Could we have a better? Will the Assembly not devise some systematic method by which the territory of every presbytery can be carefully canvassed? Some practical suggestions might be helpful not only to presbyteries, but might be the direct means of leading some of our individual churches to enter upon an investigation of their respective territories. The field is ripe for such a harvest. Shall we enter?

We hail with delight the growing interest manifested by our P. S. S. superintendents in the neat, careful and complete reports which have been forwarded to the committee, and heartily commend them for their patient and persistent effort in securing reports from the tardy schools. A very small minority, however, of our P. S. S. superintendents are inexcusably negligent. We would heartily recommend that the Assembly direct all presbyteries to require an annual report of their P. S. S. superintendents, and that the P. S. S. S. be required to report all schools which fail to report to him; and also that all such schools be required, on the floor of presbytery, to give a reason for such a failure.

The present agitation concerning the training of Sabbath school superintendents and teachers cannot fail to accomplish good. It is helping to awaken us more fully to our sense of need. In this work, as in every other which pertains to the advancement of Christ's cause, let the workers be as well equipped as possible.

We recommend the appointment of the third Sabbath of October as a day of special prayer in all our congregations for Sabbath schools; the second Sabbath in June as "Missionary and Children's Day"; and the fourth Sabbath of November as "Temperance Day."

The business of the Board for the year 1899-1900 has been encouraging, notwithstanding the unsettled condition of the book trade and the sharp competition of the department stores. In the revival of business and general prosperity of the country, prices have advanced in all lines, making a marked advance in our general expenses, fuel and engineer's supplies particularly. Paper has also advanced, but our contract made in the early part of last year has saved the Board money in the Periodical Department. The higher rates have prevailed for all paper used in the preparation of new editions of Bible Songs and Psalm Books and for mailing purposes. The Board, however, has not advanced its former prices, and, following its usual policy, has made donations to the amount of $2,034.78 to missions and weak congregations, and has paid $4,125.00 on the building debt.

The insurance on the building expired in 1899 and has been renewed for a term of three (3) years and charged this year, making a large increase in this expense.

Every room in the building is rented for another year at an advance in rent over last year, with the exception of long-term leases.

The term of office of the following members expires this year, viz.: Rev. John McNaugher, D.D., Rev. W. R. McKee, D.D., Rev. J. D. Sands, D.D., John A. Bell, Rev. S. H. Graham.

J. D. Sands, President,
J. C. Boyd, Corresponding Secretary.

Wm. G. Gibson, Business Manager.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education would give expression of gratitude to God for the favors of the year. There has been commendable liberality in the contributions of the Church; the work has received considerable attention from synods, presbyteries and congregations; the young men to whom appropriations have been made are reported as faithful and successful in the prosecution of their studies, and our educational institutions have enjoyed a good degree of prosperity.

The report of the year's work is herewith submitted:

I. BENEFICIARIES.

Forty-eight students were recommended by presbyterial action for aid from the beneficiary fund. One of the number was compelled, on account of sickness, to leave the seminary soon after the first payment was made. On account of his absence from the seminary he received but one-third of the appropriation. In all other cases the full amount has been paid. Thirty-three of the students attended the seminary at Allegheny, Pa.; thirteen, the seminary at Xenia, Ohio, and one, the seminary at Knoxville, Tenn. One of the young men is a literary student of the senior year, and, by special request of his presbytery, a grant of $50 was made, and he was permitted to prosecute his studies at the home college, Emporia, Kansas. Twenty-six students received $125 each; eight, $100 each; one, $75; twelve, $50 each; and one, $42, making the total paid to students, $4,767.

The following presbyteries have been represented: Allegheny and Monongahela, five students each; Butler, Frankfort and Xenia, four students each; Chartiers and Garnett, three students each; College Springs, Conemaugh and Monmouth, two students each; Beaver Valley, Boston, Delaware, Kansas City, Keokuk, Kiskiminetas, Lake, Mansfield, New York, Pawnee, Princeton, Steubenville, Tennessee and Wisconsin, one student each. Of the young men receiving aid twenty-one graduated at our own denominational Colleges, twenty-one are graduates of non-denominational schools, or of Colleges under the control of other denominations, and five are undergraduates.

A few of the presbyteries need to be reminded of the rule adopted by the General Assembly, namely, "Presbyteries are urged not to present names of theological students who are undergraduates, and persons not intending to graduate, unless the cases are rarely exceptional."

Revs. P. C. Baird, J. W. Innes, and T. H. McKenzie, who have entered the ministry of other denominations, have either returned, or made provision for returning, the full amount of money received from the Board. Revs. J. C. Beitel, John Lackey, and J. P. Nesbit, of our own Church, have returned the money appropriated in order that it may be used for the assistance of young men who are now preparing for the ministry.

II. SEMINARIES, COLLEGES AND ACADEMIES.

The Board, as in former years, directed the Corresponding Secretary to obtain statistics concerning the attendance of young people at our educational institutions, and to secure a list of prospective students to whom the literature of our colleges may be sent. The reports are not as complete as we had hoped they would be. Although envelopes, with return postage, were inclosed in the circular letter, yet almost one-half of the pastors failed to make any reply.

The number attending colleges, normal or professional schools and academies, as reported on the cards received, is 2,049. Of this number 811 are attending high schools, or academies, located in the home community; and 335 are in schools of the same grade where the students are obliged to board away from home. Seven hundred and seventy-three are reported as being in attendance at some college. Of this number 326 are at home, and 447 are from home. Two hundred and fifty-three of the number reported as being away from home are attending schools which are outside of our own denomination, while 194 are reported as being in our Church colleges. About 100 are in schools of law and medicine, and 90 are in our theological seminaries. It still remains true that the larger proportion of our young people, who are away from home, are attending colleges outside of our own Church.

The General Assembly of 1899 renewed the appropriations to the Pawnee City and Waitsburg Academies, for the sum of $500 each.

The contributions to the College and Seminary Fund for the present year amount to $10,000, an increase of almost $1,000 over the preceding year. The rule adopted by the General Assembly for the distribution of the money gives to the institutions the following amounts:

Allegheny Seminary	$ 1,543 42
Xenia Seminary	1,289 90
Cooper Memorial College	757 32
Monmouth College	1,550 68
Muskingum College	1,136 13
Tarkio College	878 82
Westminster College	1,843 73
Pawnee City Academy	500 00
Waitsburg Academy	500 00
Total	$10,000 00

The statements of the five colleges, receiving appropriations from the Educational Fund, show an actual attendance in all departments of 1,304 students, an increase of 95 on the reported attendance of last year. The number of students in the theological seminaries is 93, a decrease of 11 on the attendance of the preceding year.

The following statements have been prepared by the several institutions, and are herewith submitted for the consideration of the Assembly:

SEMINARIES.

Allegheny, Pa.—The Allegheny Theological Seminary is just closing one of the most successful years in her history. The spirit manifested by the students has been all that could be desired. Our new building is a model in convenience and comfort. The gymnasium has proved a source of pleasure and of profit to the physical condition of the men. There is still a debt of $17,000 resting on the building, but we are making effort to reduce this as much as possible before the meeting of the Board of Directors on the 15th inst. Our endowment remains practically the same as reported last year. The income from this source is not sufficient to meet our current expenses, and only for the timely aid through your Board our expenditures would exceed our income. In the good providence of God we have never drawn on our permanent funds for current expenses or for building purposes, and we have never lost a dollar of endowment money through poor investments. We have 65 students in attendance; 14 in the senior class, 24 in the middle class and 27 in the junior class.

Xenia, Ohio. The number of students in attendance during the session of 1899-1900 was 28; of the third year, 16; of the second, 7, and of the first, 5. The number graduated at the close of the session was 16. This session has been in many respects an unusually good one. The students in general have been characterized by a good degree of spirituality, prayerfulness, and diligence in study. The financial condition of the Seminary is indicated by the following facts:

Interest-bearing endowment	$131,860
Increase of endowment	6,500
Value of property	30,000

COLLEGES.

....Cooper Memorial College.—There are 13 professors and instructors. The total number of students is 203, a gain of 47 over last year. They are classified as follows: Collegiate, 36; preparatory and normal, 80; musical, 72; art, 34; commercial, 31; total, 253; less students in more than one department, 50; total, net, 203. During the year a good religious interest has existed among the students. Twenty of them have professed conversion. The students' Prayer Guild is well attended. Ninety-five per cent. of the regular college students are church members. We are able to report an increase of contributions from the Church. About $4,000 have been received. Of this $2,150 came from the legacy of Mr. Archibald Cooper.

Present endowment	$25,000
Value of property	28,000

The faculty request that the Educational Fund be distributed in two installments, at the holidays and at the close of the year.

Knoxville College.—We have had a good year. The attendance has been larger than for some time. There is a much larger number intending to complete the scientific and classical courses. A great majority of our students, however, are in the normal course, as this is the course that prepares them for teaching, and hundreds of teachers have gone out from this course to do splendid work for their own people. One feature of our work that has been specially satisfactory has been the teaching of trades and industrial work to our students. The students are taught useful trades for life, and also are able to earn a part of their expenses through school. Almost $1,000 has been paid out for student labor on our farm, in the carpenter shop, printing office and sewing-room. While the student is not able to thoroughly learn a trade in connection with keeping up his other work in school, yet he is taught the rudiments of it, and is taught that work is honorable, and is prepared to engage in many lines that otherwise he would not be able to fill. We graduate two young men from our medical department, one from our theological and one from the classical. As we have added a year to the normal course there will be no graduates in the normal department. This year we celebrate the quarter centennial of the founding of Knoxville College. The celebration will come in connection with the exercises of commencement week, June 11 and 12 being specially set apart for the celebration. It is a quarter of a century of grand achievement for the Lord, and the College enters on her second quarter of a century with bright prospects and good equipment. We have 22 teachers comprising our faculty, matrons and foreman in our printing department.

Monmouth College.—The faculty consists of 18 professors. Of this number 14 are in the literary department and four are in the departments of music and art. Actual enrollment of students is 309. The classification is as follows: Preparatory, 107; collegiate, 147; other departments, 55. The senior class numbers 28, males 15, females 13. Several of the young men will enter the ministry. Ninety-seven per cent. of the students are professing Christians. The interest in the Christian work of the College is very good.

Value property 90,000

Since last report Mr. Torild Arnoldson has been elected instructor in modern languages, Miss Florabel Patterson professor of history, and Mr. L. E. Robinson professor of English. The present and pressing need of the college is larger endowment, science and library buildings.

Muskingum College.—This has been a very satisfactory year. The teaching force has numbered 13. In point of attendance as compared with last year there has been an increase of 14 in the college, 20 in the preparatory and 11 in other departments, the total of this year being 45 more than that of last year. This year's total is 228, 160 of whom are in the literary department. The senior class has 15, the junior 17, the sophomore 19, and the freshmen 38. There are 71 in the three preparatory classes. There has been no increase in the endowment. It is $36,500. A gymnasium has been erected at a cost of about $5,000, and many improvements have been made about the other buildings and the grounds. The College now has three good buildings, all steam heated and lighted with acetylene gas. There is also a water system which has during the year furnished water to toilet and bath rooms with perfect success. About 1,300 volumes have been added to the library. Important additions have been made to the equipment for teaching physics and chemistry. Some $600 have been spent for furniture and gymnasium apparatus. While, however, the work is encouraging, there are yet urgent needs. The endowment should be generously increased, not to enable the College to encourage premature "specializing" on the part of the few, but that the College may offer a broader culture without increasing the cost to the student and without imposing more work on already overburdened professors. This is now the chief need of Muskingum College. Without presuming to specify ways and means, it is our hope that the people may be led to realize the important place occupied by our colleges as well as our seminaries in the life and mission of the Church.

Tarkio College.—The faculty consists of 12 professors and four instructors. The classification of students is as follows: Preparatory, 121; collegiate, 53; other departments, not counting any of the above, 88. Total number of students, 262, an increase of ten over last year's enrollment. The senior class numbers 16; ten males and six females. Four of the young men will possibly enter the ministry. Eighty per cent. of all the students and 94 per cent. of those in the collegiate department are professing Christians.

Value of property 85,000

Miss Ida Woods, professor-elect to the chair of modern languages founded last commencement, has spent the year abroad in study. Miss E. Ellen Russell, of the English department, has spent the year in study at Chicago University. The place of the latter has been temporarily filled by Miss Dora G. Tompkins.

Westminster College.—The past year in Westminster College has been in many respects a gratifying one. The number in attendance is the largest in many years; about 250 at any one time and over 300 in the aggregate. The general character of the students has been above the average, so that with but few exceptions they have done good work. The moral tone of the school has improved. We have clean athletics and better life, yet the religious life shows no unusual vigor. There is no great advance in Christian enthusiasm or in spirituality. Prof. I. N. Moore is teaching his first year in the department of physics and with good success. The attendance by classes is as follows: Seniors, 45; juniors, 41; sophomores, 53; freshmen, 49. Total in college classes, 188. Third preparatory, 40; second prepartory, 21; special, 22; music, art, etc., 31. Total. 302.

ACADEMIES.

Pawnee City Academy.—The faculty consists of Rev. R. T. Campbell, principal, and the Misses Livonia S. Hunter, Antoinette E. Latson, Faith McAuley and Ada Clare Lafferty. The enrollment for the year was 107, classified as follows: Seniors, 8; juniors, 5; sophomores, 10; freshmen, 7; commercial, 15; irregular, 21; music, 41. This is a slight decrease over our enrollment last year, due wholly to the Free High School Law passed by our State Legislature a year ago. This law, however, has been declared unconstitutional within the last month by the Supreme Court of Nebraska, so the way is clear to regain our loss and more for next year. The Academy was never better supplied with teachers and the work was never more satisfactory. This institution is under the care of the Synod of Nebraska and is the only United Presbyterian institution in the State. The property is valued at $25,000 and is vested in a board of ten trustees who are chosen as required by the Assembly. There is a debt of $8,500 resting upon the property, but this has been provided for through subscriptions received by our financial agent. As the tuition is inadequate to meet the interest on the indebtedness, together with the running expenses of the institution, the Board earnestly asks that the Academy be recommended to the General Assembly for the usual annual appropriation of $500 from College and Seminary Fund. Our prayer is that the Church may awake to the importance of maintaining her educational institutions if she is to live and maintain her principles.

Waitsburg Academy.—There are five members of the faculty: J. A. Keener, principal; Robert M. Horner, Elma Lorimer, Mrs. Vinnie Purrington, and Mrs. Vinnie Abbott, professors. One hundred and six students are reported, an increase of seven over last year. Classification: Academic, 57; business, 13; music, 36. There are six in the graduating class, academic, 4; business, 2. The property is valued at $16,000, and is vested in the Synod of the Columbia. There is an excellent degree of interest manifested by the students in the religious work of the Academy and town. The Assembly is asked to make an appropriation of $500 from the College and Seminary Fund for the next year. We need more endowment, having only $5,000. We have an offer of $10,000 more, provided we raise $5,000. We pray that the friends of education in the United Presbyterian Church send us the amount before the 1st of September of this year. It is a very small amount that we ask. Will you not help us?

III. FINANCE.

The statement of the treasurer, properly audited, is herewith submitted to the Assembly. Contributions have been received from each presbytery, and yet the aggregate is about $500 less than was received from the same source during the preceding year. The last General Assembly appropriated 30 cents per member for the work of the Board—eight cents per member for the regular work, and 22 cents per member for the College and Seminary Fund.

The contributions received may be classified as follows: Two presbyteries gave one cent per member; seven, 2 cents; one, 3 cents; seven, 4 cents; three, 5 cents; three, 6 cents; four, 7 cents; one, 8 cents; five, 9 cents; four, 10 cents; four, 11 cents; two, 12 cents; two, 13 cents; two, 14 cents; three, 15 cents; four, 16 cents; two, 17 cents; one, 18 cents; two, 20 cents; one, 21 cents; and one, 27 cents.

The contributions to the regular work have been so generous that, after paying in full all appropriations made to students, there remained $500 which has been transferred to the Fund for Colleges and Seminaries.

It is with pleasure that we mention the liberal donation of more than $1,000 received from the treasurer of the Young People's Christian Union. The young people are in this way, through their tenth anniversary offering, adding materially to the support of our educational institutions.

IV. THE BOARD.

It is recommended that an appropriation of $33,000 be made for the coming year—$8,000 for the regular work, and $25,000 for the College and Seminary Fund.

The term of office of Rev. R. W. Nairn, Hugh Nash, and W. P. Schall, expires with this meeting of the Assembly. There is also a vacancy occasioned by the removal of Rev. Andrew Renwick to a distant city.

By order of the Board,

T. H. Hanna, President.
W. T. Campbell, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Board of Ministerial Relief submits herewith its twenty-sixth annual report, with fervent acknowledgment of the kind oversight of the Head of the Church in all its operations and of encouraging prospects of still further usefulness in the work with which it is charged.

The treasurer's report appended shows that of the $8,000 appropriated by the General Assembly, there was received from presbyteries $5,228.40, and from other sources, exclusive of endowment fund, $1,147.58, making together $6,375.98. The payments to beneficiaries amounted to $10,017.50. While the labors of the Board have been accompanied by a good measure of success and the results are, in a degree, satisfactory, the success and satisfaction could be greatly increased by more liberal giving on the part of our membership. Our regret continues that our appropriations in many cases are necessarily so restricted, especially as, in a number of instances, the relief from this Board is the only source of income. The balance in the treasury at this time will all be required for the quarterly payments due June 1, and September 1, as the receipts for the first quarter of the Church year are practically nothing.

The general reduction now going on in the rate of interest, where the security is ample, will in all probability cause a reduction of about $1,000 a year in our income hereafter, making it more than ever desirable and necessary that the whole amount appropriated by the General Assembly should be forthcoming. Already we find that, although the endowment fund is $875 larger than last year, the receipts from interest are $386 less. It is only by putting the Board in possession of the means that we can do anything like justice to those servants and wards of the Church, whose claims upon its support we all so readily admit. There are now 68 beneficiaries on the roll; four died and three new names have been added to the roll.

The terms of office of Rev. J. H. Webster and Messrs. James Walker and John McLaughlin expire at this time.

The treasurer's report follows. The books, accounts, vouchers and securities of the Board held by him have been examined and found correct.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S BOARD.

The Board of Directors of the Women's General Missionary Society, in submitting this annual report to the General Assembly, makes grateful acknowledgment of the goodness of God to it during another year.

The work carried on by the various departments of the society continues to prosper, as the statements indicate which follow:

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

As we review the work of the past year in this department, we find much reason for gratitude to God in the continued prosperity of our work in Egypt and India. The status of work in these fields has been much the same as the preceding year, in so far that expenses were increased very little, only one new missionary having been added to the force of workers. We are sorry to add that while the ranks of missionary women were increased by only one recruit, they were also reduced by the return of three to the home-land, two of them badly broken in health.

Financially, the past year has been a most prosperous one in this department, the contributions from missionary societies and individuals exceeding those of the preceding year by $6,452.09.

Total receipts for year ending April 15, 1900, for foreign work, $36,197.47; disbursements, $29,745.40. These receipts include thankofferings, also special contributions amounting to something over $6,000 toward the building of a hospital for women and children at Tanta, Egypt. It is hoped that this beneficent institution will be erected during the present year, that the work of the two physicians located in the Delta may be more effective by having a place where serious cases may be better cared for than in homes where sanitary conditions are little thought of.

Appeals have been made to the Women's Board for eight new missionary women—four for Egypt and four for India. These appeals are endorsed by the mission associations. We are pleased to report that two ladies have already been appointed, one for each field. It is possible that the double request may be fully granted; if so the work of the present year will comprise the work already in hand, viz., the support of all the unmarried ladies in our foreign fields, the medical work, some zenana or native workers, children in schools and new missionaries, together with outfits and travel. The estimated cost of work planned for the year amounts to $40,000.

We have faith to believe that the women of the Church are equal to this undertaking.

HOME MISSION DEPARTMENT.

During the year closing April 15, 1900, eleven persons have been supported by our Board, serving the Church in Chicago, Moline, Sioux City, Seattle, Spokane, Colfax, Portland, Oakland, Pittsburg, Simnasho and Warm Springs Agency. Reports from these workers show that six or seven thousand visits have been made by them, carrying the Word of God and telling the blessed story of the cross everywhere. In the congregation at the Warm Springs Agency Mr. Speer reports a membership of 126, contributing $57 for church work. The General Assembly of 1899 entrusted the care of Messiah Mission to Israel, located in Chicago, to the Women's Board. We assumed the support of same July of that year. The work is under the immediate supervision of the Committee of Missions of Chicago Presbytery, with Rev. T. M. Chalmers in charge. The progress of such an undertaking must of necessity be slow, nevertheless we must not weary in giving the gospel to the chosen people of God. We have not yet received any part of the bequest of Mrs. Stewart for benefit of this mission, but have been able to provide all the funds agreed upon at the opening of the undertaking.

We rejoice that we have been permitted, through our Ministerial Relief Fund, to send a little sunshine into the homes of some of the Lord's aged and afflicted servants and to help bear a little of the burden of the widow and orphan. We do not report the names of our beneficiaries, nor the sums given, but are sure that in every case the gift has been worthily betstowed and gratefully received.

DISBURSEMENTS.

To Indian Work	$3,086 50
To Jewish Work	1,200 00
To Salaries of Missionaries	2,981 00
To Debt of Board of Home Missions	5,081 00

To Ministerial Relief	812 63

The year has been one of unequaled harmony and prosperity, for which we praise God.

FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT.

The work of this department has been, as usual, along industrial lines. Eighteen workers in all have been supported, viz., eleven sewing teachers, four matrons, a cooking teacher, a Bible reader and superintendent of farm. The income from the farm covered all expenses this year. Two hundred and ninety-one acres were cultivated. Two new two-roomed houses were built and two repaired, making in all eleven good tenant houses. The sewing department, also, has been more nearly self-supporting this year, and all show a good balance to begin on next year. Altogether, the Board is gratified with the evidences of good work done and progress made. The same work will be continued this coming year in all lines.

PARSONAGE AND CHURCH EXTENSION WORK.

An unusually large number of requests for application blanks for parsonage aid were received during the past year. As each application must pass through the presbytery in whose bounds the congregation desiring aid is located, and through Board of Church Extension, before returning to the Women's Board for final action, considerable time is required in most cases.

At date of this report, April 15, 1900, four applications have been returned to the Board, and all received favorable action. Owing to the transaction of necessary legal matters, the appropriations for two grants only have been called for, thus adding to our parsonage list the names of Benkleman and Parks (one charge), Neb., and Shiloh, Ind.

In the year 1893 it was decided our women might extend aid to church building when the condition of the treasury justified such help. Not, however, until this year have we felt safe in attempting much along this line. And we are pleased to report aid given to the following church buildings: Second Providence, R. I.; Fourth Pittsburgh, Pa.; Canton, Ohio; also to the Board of Church Extension.

Since the inception of this department, forty congregations have been helped through this fund. Twenty-nine are at present under obligations to the Women's General Missionary Society.

During the year we have received from all sources, including balance from April 15, 1899, $21,322.88. The missionary societies contributed $920.68; amount received in payment of loans, $8,581.81. Total disbursements, $7,463.70, leaving a balance of $13,859.18. Two thousand dollars of this balance belongs to grants already made, and will be paid out as soon as called for.

JUNIOR MISSIONARY WORK.

In reviewing the work of the year we have many reasons for encouragement. The reports from presbyterial secretaries are much better than those of one year ago, and yet, in many instances, the same story is repeated of a failure to get reports from certain societies, thereby making this report incomplete.

From 46 presbyterials we make the following summary:

Total number of societies, including Little Light Bearers	210
Number new societies	17
Number of members	6,415
Number of new members	939
Honorary members	504
Grand total	6,919

An increase of 1,044 members over last year's report.

Six societies report a membership of over 100 members.

Special effort was made to organize the Little Light Bearers' Circles, resulting in an increase of 250 members, with a growing demand for leaflets and suggestions on organization.

The contributions amount to $4,108.63, an increase over last year of $25.59.

Every department of work under the care of the W. G. M. S. has been remembered by the Juniors.

The special work, endowing a child's bed in Tanta Hospital, Egypt, was not confined to the Junior Missionary Societies, but recommended to all juvenile societies. The plate on the bed will bear the following inscription: "Endowed by the Juniors of the United Presbyterian Church of North America."

By an arrangement between the General Committee on Young People's Work and the Women's Board, the same monthly missionary lessons have been recommended to all the Junior societies in the Church, and, we believe, have been generally used. They are published each month in The Christian Union Herald and Junior Missionary Magazine.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT.

The report of this department presents some encouraging features. A considerable amount of printing has been done by the Board this year, and a larger amount of free literature has been distributed than in any preceding year.

Eight thousand nine hundred and thirteen leaflets have been sold and 2,873 have been given free distribution.

Because of a long-felt want, a new department in our literature work was authorized, and the publication of a magazine for Juniors, devoted to the interests of missions, begun in January, 1899.

This little publication occupies a field wholly its own, and we feel has been very helpful in presenting missionary information in an attractive form, and through the lesson briefs prepared for use in Junior societies has made missions more definite factors in the minds of the boys and girls of our Church.

Its long list of subscribers and the financial statement which follows, proves the wisdom of this undertaking, which, we hope, may increase in its influence as the years come and go. Without any pledged support, but a subscription list of 2,000 names, the first issue of this little magazine was sent out in January, 1899. The number of subscribers quickly reached 5,000, and by the close of the first year, December 31, numbered 5,261.

All expenses for engraving, printing, postage, etc., having been met from the subscriptions, the year was closed with a balance of $89.87.

OTHER WORK.

The thank-offering work, the training school at Xenia, and the Women's Missionary Magazine are under the care of the Women's General Missionary Society, but at this writing we have no report from them.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

NARRATIVE.

Inasmuch as the writer of this report has departed somewhat from the practice of former committees, it may be well enough at the outset to note some of the changes and the reasons for making them. Search in the "Digest" reveals the fact that the object in the appointment of this Committee was to set before the Church the state of religion, rather than to furnish a narrative which is a useless duplicate of figures which are published each year in the Minutes of the Assembly, or is a mere reprint of much that is found in "Scouller's Manual." The aim will be, not so much to set forth an array of facts, as to reason from facts and figures kindly furnished by the Assembly's Second Clerk.

In the mortuary list nothing is given except the name of the deceased, dates respectively of birth and death, and the average age. When the list is rather long, as it is this year, but the briefest sketch of each deceased minister would unduly lengthen the record. Moreover, to expand on the lives of these who have gone would be but a reproduction of what has appeared in memorial articles already published in all our Church papers, and the plan would also anticipate what can be better said at the service which the Assembly holds in memory of these deceased brethren. Twelve ministers have died within the year which runs from the first of April to the thirty-first of March in the succeeding year, and the mortuary list for that period is herewith submitted.

MORTUARY LIST.

Name.	Born.	Died.	Age.
James Alexander Shankland	Nov. 16, 1818	April 26, 1899	81
Hugh Hogue Thompson	Oct. 13, 1819	April 29, 1899	80

Average Age			69

From data which has been furnished in advance by the Second Clerk some interesting and rather encouraging facts may be gleaned. Within the year the number of synods has been increased by one, that of the Nile, making thirteen in all, and the presbyteries now number 68, two having been added to the roll during the year. Five synods reported a decrease in membership last year. This year there are but two in that list; but these two may well be concerned, for they were in the list of last year, and for some reason have not been able to recover from the loss of last year as the other synods have done. The marked decrease in each of these cases is in the column headed "Removals." What does it mean? Possibly not much of a loss to the Church at large; for one of these synods, being in the extreme eastern part of the country, may suffer much from emigration while others make the gain of its loss, and as to the other synod, the writer, living within its bounds, knows that there has been agitation there against "padded" rolls, and many pastors within that synod have come to the conclusion that, however it may be with other figures, those sent up to church courts ought not to lie. But while the reports of the synods are more favorable in general than they were last year, there is yet painful evidence in them that the Church is not on the watch for souls as she ought to be, and that she has not wearied herself, as the Saviour did, in seeking to save that which is lost.

The increase in the whole number of ministers during the year has been 31, but there has been a decrease of 26 in the number of licentiates as compared with the report of the previous year. These figures, together with some others which need not be given here, show that up to the present the Church has been able slightly to increase those in the ranks of her ministry each year, but that now the tide has set in the other way and that we may expect a possible decrease in the number of ministers, if the Church is to draw her supply mainly, as in the past, from the seminaries. Is this an unmixed evil? No; if it be true that the young men coming from the seminary must look to the Church to furnish them with good parishes and parsonages all ready to their hand, for there are already more men than can find fields of that kind. But this possible decrease of the ministry would be an evil, if the young men coming into the work were but able to carve out parishes for themselves from the world, or if they did not fear too much taking hold of "the little flock" to whom it may be God's pleasure to "give the kingdom" (the dominance) in the community, if they but had the right kind of shepherding. It is encouraging to note in this connection that 20 congregations have been organized in the twelvemonth past, and that the whole number has been increased by 28. There has been a net gain of 1,266 in the membership of the Church in this country, or about one and one-tenth per cent.; in the whole Church the net gain has been 2,053 or a little over one and six-tenths per cent. These facts are somewhat more encouraging than those presented last year when the gain was but three-tenths of one per cent. for the Church in this land, and but thirty-five hundredths of one per cent. for the whole Church. But anything like boasting is still excluded by a very large margin. Our product is not at all in proportion to our machinery and our expenditure. The net gain is only about one-third larger than the whole number of ministers employed. Verily there is need for a breathing upon the "dry bones"; the tide of life must be low indeed when the fruitage is so small!

In the matter of contributions to the Boards, the Church exceeds what she did last year, showing an increase of $10,074, and an increase of 67 cents in the average per member. This is the more gratifying in view of the fact that no such special effort was put forth this year, as in the previous year, to raise our mission money. The good times, however, would have made it hard for us to give less, and it is no doubt true that our gifts have not been what might have been reasonably expected, judging by that prosperity which everywhere prevails in the commercial world. Our Sabbath schools also show a gain both in members and in benevolence. As to membership, the young people's societies appear to be lagging a little, yet it would be well for members of the Assembly to hold judgment in suspense until the report of the General Secretary is heard; for his statistics are usually fuller and more accurate than those which are sent to the Second Clerk and may make a different showing. At any rate, our young people have greatly abounded in the grace of liberality in the year just closed. They have not attained unto the mark which at the beginning of the year they set for themselves; but they have already far exceeded all previous efforts of this kind, and they may reach the goal before the time of the coming annual convention. Thus it will be seen that there is encouragement all along the line, as compared with the conditions prevailing at the time of last report; but it would be worse than folly for us to suppose, as a Church, that we are already "made perfect" in any respect, or to be filled with complacency as if we had occupied all the land which might have been possessed.

STATE OF RELIGION.

In the preparation of this part of the report the chairman of the Committee has seen fit to depart somewhat from custom. Learning from some of his predecessors how unsatisfactory the results when attempt was made to collect information by means of blanks sent out, he has relied rather for help upon articles appearing from time to time in the Church press and coming from different sections of the Church.

Reports of synods and presbyteries have been studied, opinions of the brethren have been sought as here and there the writer met those of our ministry, and also the views of the secular press noted with some care, ready as it is in these times to teach the Church. All these sources of information have been put under tribute; but the deductions, be it remembered, are the writer's own, and this is said, not that he is jealous of others who might share the praise with him, but the statement is made that all others may be freed from responsibility for the opinions which are here expressed.

First, let us take the darker view and then turn our thought toward some things which tend to revive hope and which say, "The morning cometh."

No doubt the decline in family religion is one prime cause of the Church's impotence. Of all altars at which our God is served, the family altar most needs rebuilding or repair. Too many children, if they get religious instruction at all, must get it outside the home that is nominally Christian. The old-fashioned catechetical methods are sneered at, family prayers are either altogether omitted or are curtailed in the pressure of business till they are almost a farce. Job's habit of sacrificing for his household is the custom of too few fathers; prayerless homes nullify all that is taught in the Church, and the good impressions of the Sabbath quickly disappear from the youthful mind in the constant round of secular amusement or occupation for six days in the week.

Neither are the services of the Sabbath and in the church always calculated to inspire the deepest spirituality. There are Sabbath schools where everything is done on the plan of "dress parade." Mere "exercises" take the place largely of the reverent and direct study of the Word. The prize offered sets a premium on mere intellect, while real goodness goes without notice or reward. Then, too, it is often hard to see the relation between the theme announced for discussion in the pulpit and the prime truths of Scripture or duties of the Christian life. The ministry of our Church offends less perhaps in this particular than those in the more liberal Churches; yet within the pale of our denomination it sometimes happens that there is an evident bid for the crowd in the announcement of the service, or a pitiful attempt to hold and interest a congregation which eschews everything in the nature of solid truth. Such letters as Paul wrote would not be heard in many metropolitan churches, and if that apostle were living now and preached as he once wrote, there would be many to exclaim concerning him, as the Athenians once did, "What will this babbler say?"

Another discouraging feature of our Church life is that the practice of the Church is too much out of harmony with her principles. One popular denomination has this year tried to modify its discipline on the subject of amusements, and confessedly because that discipline is openly defied by a large majority of its membership. Another Church is trying to tone down its creed so as to smother rebellion on the part of many of its leading ministers and members. Neither are we, as a people, without fault in this particular. Some of our people could no longer be distinguished as such, if they were tested by at least two of our distinctive principles. No doubt the consciences of many are burdened by the thought that they are living in open violation of a testimony to which they have voluntarily subscribed. Can all this be pleasing to him who desires "truth in the inward parts"? Brethren, let us "either make the tree good and his fruit good, or else make the tree corrupt and his fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by his fruit!"

There are many things, too, in our social and civil life which stand as great hindrances to the progress of the Church, and we share with others the hurt of these evil influences which are as yet mainly on the outside. Fickleness, unrest, vacillation between extremes which lie far apart, passion unrestrained—these are things which characterize the multitude. One day the people shout before a man as though he were a god. But the foolish adulation may be as hurtful to him as it ill befits an intelligent people, and, lo, next morning "Dagon is fallen upon his face," and the people are made ashamed, as the Philistines of old, by the weakness of their idol. The "double life" is not only presented on the stage, but not infrequently played in all its shocking realism in the so-called higher classes of society, and sometimes even within the Church. The signs are many, and they are ofttimes more than hints, that after all our boasted civilization may be too much a veneer. Modern gladiators fight before the thousands and for purses which were not dreamed of by those who contended in the Roman amphitheater. We garnish the tombs of the martyrs; but we have the mob with us still, who in their savage fury snatch the culprit from the hands of the officers of the law, riddle his body with bullets, or lay fagots at his feet to burn him alive! The figure in our current literature, and the one confessedly most prominent and popular of all, is a man who makes a virtue out of mere brute force, and whose muse appears to be most deeply stirred when he hears the dreadful thunderings of war and scents the blood of terrific battle. Yet we are civilized, we say, and we often put the word Christian before that civilization which we claim for ourselves! Now all these conditions and practices on the outside tell in a damaging way upon the life of the Church; for she, no more than any other institution, can be free from the taint of her environment in this world which as yet so largely "lieth in wickedness."

But there are signs and conditions to give us hope. The Church is at least conscious of her need. Hers is a condition of partial paralysis, not of death. She has yet the strength and disposition to cry unto God, and if the prayer be but continued in earnestness and faith doubtless the prophecy of the psalmist shall be realized when he said, "Truth shall spring out of earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven. Yea, the Lord shall give that which is good, and our land shall yield her increase. Righteousness shall go before him, and shall set us in the way of his steps."

All men are not deaf either to a pure gospel when it is rightly presented. Many are ready to hear the Word which "makes wise unto salvation, if the preacher is only careful "to find out acceptable words." At a great convention of Christian people it is encouraging to see that the religious speech is not so well received as the straightout sermon, and that a clear-cut exposition of the Word of God can awaken more interest, it may be, than mere harangues upon reform. True, indifference and worldliness abound; but here and there you find an Enoch who walks with God, a man such as Paul who gloried in what the world chose to call his infirmities, and who is not ashamed of the gospel though he stand before mocking governors and kings. The meek, we believe, according to the word of our Saviour, shall yet inherit the earth; for they work with God, they have in and behind them the might of his love, and they are marching under the banner of him to whom the Father hath given all power and the kingdoms of this world for his inheritance. May the number of such faithful disciples be greatly multiplied, and if it please God to grant the prayer, then the expectation of the psalmist, as expressed in these words, shall be realized both in our own and in the Church universal:: "Thou shalt arise and have mercy upon Zion; for the time to favor her, yea, the set time is come!"

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS.

Your Committee on Ways and Means respectfully submits herewith its annual report as required by the resolution of the General Assembly providing for its appointment. The duties of this Committee as defined by such resolution are "to devise and execute proper measures for raising the money necessary to support the general work of the Church." There has appeared to your Committee no means by which it could directly increase the contributions of the Church for the current year. So far as general effort in this line seems to be called for, it has been furnished by the frequent appeals of the secretaries and the publication in our Church papers of the needs and conditions of the boards.

It has, therefore, seemed to your Committee advisable to devote its attention to general matters in connection with the raising and distribution of the Church's money, with the purpose of suggesting methods, if any were needed, for systematizing and improving the same. Two ways appeared to your Committee by which this could perhaps be done. Many congregations are suffering from imperfect organization, and it must be apparent that whatever interferes with the ordinary workings of a congregation must diminish its contributions. Your Committee therefore has had in process of preparation, and has nearly completed for use, a manual of business forms, including a suggested constitution, for free distribution throughout the Church. This we will turn over to the new committee, with the recommendation that the same be completed and made available as quickly as may be done.

Your Committee also found upon investigation a lack of method and thoroughness in the matter of auditing the books and accounts of the boards and institutions receiving aid from the Church. It appears that no two boards have the same method of auditing their books and accounts, and no report of the auditing committees of such boards is made to the General Assembly. The auditing of such books is very often conducted by persons unfamiliar with bookkeeping, and receipts and disbursements of many thousands of dollars are approved each year with little more assurance of their correctness than the undoubted and well-known integrity of the treasurers of the various boards. In one board the books are audited monthly, in one or more quarterly, and others annually. One only reports the use of a blank form of certificate. In some cases there is very little precaution against mistakes in entries, and errors of considerable amounts in favor of or against the treasurer could readily escape detection. The treasurers themselves do not appear to be satisfied with the present system, or lack of system, as there is in many cases no adequate protection against mistakes which may subsequently be made to appear.

It has therefore seemed to your Committete that, while no complaint is made by any one as to the manner in which this business has been conducted, and no reflection is intended to be cast upon the boards or the treasurers, yet the interests of the Church would be conserved by a more systematic administration of this important matter. We therefore recommend that the General Assembly appoint an auditing committee consisting of three persons, one to serve for one year, one for two years and one for three years, and that one member be hereafter appointed annually to serve for three years; that such committee serve without compensation, but that its actual expenses be paid by the Assembly; that the books of the treasurers of the various boards be audited at least once each year under the direction of the auditing committee and proper certificates thereof be issued in duplicate, one copy to be filed by the secretary of the board, and one transmitted to the General Assembly with an annual report by the auditing committee.

Your Committee would also call attention to the resolution of the Assembly of 1880 directing the preparation of a uniform set of books for the use of financial agents. No such books have yet been prepared so far as we can ascertain, and we submit that something of the kind is greatly needed and should be prepared with as little delay as possible. It is necessary now for each financial agent to adopt his own system of bookkeeping which may or may not be acceptable to his successor, with the result that much confusion is liable to ensue. Your Committee has had prepared by a financial agent, who is a practical bookkeeper, a simple and inexpensive form suitable for such purpose, and herewith submits a sample page thereof which we recommend for adoption. We believe that the Church could well afford to prepare and present a copy of such book to each presbytery for the sake of having the accounts of the financial agents kept in a uniform and business-like manner.

Your Committee also reports that it has procured for its use and that of subsequent Committees, a permanent record book, in which the doings and reports of the Committee will be preserved.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

A comparison of the work as reported to us this year, with the report made one year ago, would seem to furnish the best means of arriving at conclusions as to the condition of young people's work in our Church to-day. We are sorry that we have never yet been able to present to the General Assembly a report that was complete, or even nearly complete. The reason for this lies in the fact that corresponding secretaries have not yet all learned the importance of accuracy and promptness in reporting their societies.

Both last year and the year before, reports were received from every presbytery. We are sorry to report, however, that from three of the presbyteries reporting for the last two years, no report could be secured this year. Letters were written and telegrams were sent by the General Secretary, but from the Presbyteries of Delaware and Omaha, the latter including the Presbytery of North Platte, no response could be had. We earnestly recommend the appointment of wide awake and competent Presbyterial Secretaries.

In this report the Presbyteries of Delaware and Omaha are represented by writing the number of societies and membership reported last year. No other statistics of these presbyteries, however, are included.

For the first time in the history of young people's work, our report to the General Assembly includes a report from Egypt, of nine senior societies, with 477 members, and four junior societies, with 134 members. These societies are in the Presbyteries of Asyut and the Delta. No organizations are yet reported from upper and middle Egypt. We had hoped to be able to present to the Assembly a report from India; but for some reason, none has yet been received by the General Ssecretary.

It is our very great pleasure to report to the Assembly a substantial gain in every department of young people's work, and at almost every point.

STATISTICS.

Last year 528 Christian Union Societies reported to us. This year the number is 577, a gain of 49. The number of Christian Endeavor Societies reporting last year was 155; this year we have reports from 153, a loss of 2. The total number of societies reporting last year was 683, this year 730, a gain of 47. The membership report of last year was 29,177, this year 30,761, a gain of 1,584. The contributions reported last year amounted to $34,872, this year the amount is $50,426, a gain of $15,554. The amount contributed to the boards last year was $9,206; this year $20,962, a gain of $11,756. Last year 328 societies received tithe cards, this year 266. Last year 268 societies reported tithe committees, this year 243. Last year 5,096 tithers were reported, this year 4,906. Last year 265 Junior Unions were reported, this year 266. Last year the Junior Unions reported a membership of 9,820, this year 10,323, a gain of 503. The contributions of the Junior Unions amounted last year to $4,226, this year to $4,988, a gain of $762. Last year 121 Junior Missionary Societies were reported, this year 125. Last year the Junior Missionary Societies reported a membership of 4,104, this year of 4,765, a gain of 661. Last year the contributions of the Junior Missionary Societies amounted to $2,420, this year to $3,639, a gain of $1,219. Last year the combined contributions of the Senior and Junior Societies amounted to $41,986, this year the amount is $59,053, a gain of $17,067. The usual number of Presbyterial Conventions were held during the year, almost all of which are reported as having been well attended and marked by enthusiasm.

The General Committee marks with great pleasure the progress that has been made during the year; and yet we would not have our young people suppose that their work has been done. We have not by any means come to the place where we must cease to grow. But we have probably reached that stage where continued growth is conditioned upon more aggressive effort on the part of existing societies. There are in our Church in America 173 congregations from which no Senior Society is reported. There are 637 congregations that do not report the existence of a Junior Society. There are no less than 778 congregations that, so far as the report goes, are without a Junior Missionary Society. In view of these facts we dare not assume that young people's work has attained its full development in our Church.

PRAYER-MEETING TOPICS AND HELPS.

The topics selected by the General Committee for use in the prayer-meetings are those used by the Christian Endeavor Society, with slight changes to suit occasions of special interest to the young people of our denomination. The notes and helps furnished by the Christian Union Herald are certainly not inferior in any respect to those provided for the young people of any other denomination.

JUNIOR WORK.

That the wants of our Juniors have been thoroughly provided for through the columns of the Christian Union Herald, and by the efforts of our Junior Secretary, Rev. J. F. Jamieson, is evidenced by the report of the Junior Unions for the year that has just closed. The General Committee respectfully requests the General Assembly to instruct the Board of Publication to publish a Book of Instructions for members of Junior Societies, covering the three-fold field of Missions, Church History and Bible Study, the committee to prepare such a booklet to consist of Rev. J. F. Jamieson, Rev. R. J. Miller, D.D., and Mrs. N. Wylie Stevenson.

ANNUAL OR BIENNIAL CONVENTIONS.

The Pittsburg Convention requested that the General Committee should give careful consideration to the question of changing our annual Convention to a biennial or triennial Convention. After careful consideration of the question, the General Committee reports to the General Assembly its belief that the sentiment of the Church does not call for such a change.

CONVENTION.

The General Committee has been and is earnestly engaged in planning for the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Young People's Christian Union, to be held in Denver, Colorado, July 25-30, 1900.

The term of office of the General Secretary expires this year.

Respectfully submitted,

T. C. McKelvey, Chairman.
D. F. McGill, Gen. Sec'y.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE ALLEGHENY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The past year has been prosperous, the health of both professors and students has been good, and all have been regularly in their places. The number of students enrolled has been 65, classified as follows: in the senior class, 14; in the middle class, 24; in the junior class, 27. The class work done has been excellent, and the spiritual life shown very gratifying. The favor of God has been shown in many ways, and for all his gracious dealings we are grateful.

The faculty continues as in our last report, as follows: D. A. McClenahan, D.D., professor of Old Testament Literature and Criticism, and secretary of the Faculty; James A. Grier, D.D., professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology, and temporary professor of Homiletics, and president of the Faculty; John McNaugher, D.D., professor of New Testament Literature and Criticism, and registrar; J. A. Wilson, D.D., professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government, and temporary professor of Pastoral Theology, and librarian.

The established curriculum of the Assembly has been pursued, including Christian Missions and Experimental Religion. A course of valuable lectures, by gentlemen previously announced, has been given, and also several missionary addresses. The course of special lectures for next year is to be upon various phases of Sabbath school management and work.

The new building was successfully completed in time for occupation by the school during the entire year. It is found to be thoroughly well adapted to the purpose intended, and is probably not excelled by any building of its kind upon the continent. It was dedicated early in the year, a program previously prepared by order of the Board being carried out. A small debt still remains upon the building.

The Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the founding of the Seminary was celebrated on May 16 by the observance of a suitable program of exercises, under the direction of the Board of Directors.

It should be noted that for some years the number of students of theology has been decreasing. In this our Seminary shares with many others in Protestant communions.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. Martin, President.
W. H. McMillan, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE MANAGERS OF XENIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

In reporting to the General Assembly this year concerning Xenia Seminary we feel that there is nothing which demands extended notice, and if this statement be kept within the bounds of what is required, it can be made in a few words.

During the year the prescribed course of study has been followed, both professors and students have shown a commendable diligence in their work, and little has occurred in the way of sickness, or other cause, to hinder the imparting and receiving of instruction. As to classes the students were divided as follows: Five in the first year class, seven in the second, and sixteen in the third. These figures, as well as those from other seminaries, presage a lack in laborers, unless the Lord shall turn the hearts of young men in greater numbers toward the gospel ministry.

In the report of last year notice was taken of Dr. Kyle's election by the synods to the chair of Systematic Theology and Church History. The Assembly confirmed that election and Dr. Kyle's service during the year has amply proved the wisdom of the synods in calling him to this position. Arrangements have been made for his inauguration at the beginning of next session. The other professors have likewise stood faithfully at their respective posts, and their students have had the benefit of both zeal and experience in the work.

At the last meeting of the Board of Managers it was resolved that hereafter the sessions of the Seminary begin on the third Wednesday of September and close with the first Wednesday of May. That period gives about the usual time for study, it avoids the extreme heat of the early fall, the opening of the seminary will not then follow so closely the vacation months; and for these reasons the Assembly is asked to give its consent to the proposed change.

It but remains to express thanks to God for his goodness shown us, not only during the year just closed, but throughout the one hundred and six years which now measure the life of this institution. There is nothing in the past of which we ought to be ashamed and nothing in the future but that which gives us hope. Xenia Seminary refuses to be much moved by the agitation concerning removal; for she has already changed her location more than once without the loss of life, and has the prospect of added years and usefulness should she remain in the present field. She will not be moved to jealousy either by proposals of consolidation; but she rather congratulates the sister seminary at Allegheny on the completion of a new home, the rounding out of seventy-five years in the service of the Church, and has sent one of her honored professors bearing a message of good will to be delivered at the diamond anniversary.

The Board of Managers, by R. G. Ramsay, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE REVISION OF THE FIFTEENTH ARTICLE OF THE TESTIMONY.

There is evidently no occasion for the Church to take a backward step in her attitude toward secret societies. The Church's conviction is deep and permanent that secretism is an evil. The situation calls louder to-day than ever before for the protest of the Church against the encroachments of the lodge upon the home, society, the Church, and the government. The time has not come for the Church to look lightly upon these societies, with their essential or incidental evils. The unanimous sentiment of the Committee is that the Church's Testimony on this subject, if changed at all, should be strengthened rather than weakened.

There can be but little doubt, however, that the deeper spiritual consciousness of the Church, as it faces an unevangelized world and an unsanctified membership, is seeking expression among those who are in the forefront of the Church's activities. What is popularly regarded as the infraction of the letter of the law, namely, the admission to membership of new converts, uninstructed in the details of the Church's Testimony, without requiring of them a profession of "adherence" to said details, is but a manifestation of this deeper consciousness and is the unrelenting demand that in the school of Christianity, graduation qualifications should not be required of those who seek matriculation privileges.

The Assembly one year ago decided that the subject of the Church's attitude toward secret societies required its attention. It has been taken for granted by the Committee that, in its appointment, the Assembly acted in good faith, and that the action taken was, in spirit, the commitment of the whole subject with a view to reaching the best possible solution of the vexed question. The action herewith submitted for your consideration may not be strictly in accord with the letter of the Assembly's instructions; but we are sure that, if it will reach the difficulty in the best way, no reasonable person will regard it as transcending their spirit.

We beg leave to call attention to the fact that the article under consideration is a part of the Basis of Union adopted by both branches of the Church forty-two years ago. This Basis of Union was carefully prepared to cover the matters of agreement between the two bodies uniting, and should not be touched except with the greatest care and under the plainest necessity.

The Committee is, therefore, of the opinion that the situation does not demand a change of the Testimony, but only a change in the Church's provision for administering the Testimony in such a manner as to bring the Church into a closer allignment with Jesus Christ, who emphasized, not knowledge, but discipleship—willingness to "learn of him"—as the sole condition of church fellowship, and who laid upon his commissioned officers the charge to teach these disciples all things whatsoever he had commanded them. That our Church may most successfully fulfill its mission as the school of Christ, and as a great evangelistic agency, and that the demands of the situation, broadly viewed, may be most successfully met for all time, the Committee has agreed to recommend that no change whatever be made in the Testimony, but that this Assembly provide for the amendment of the membership covenant found in General Administration, Part II, Chapter II, Section 6, and that, in order to harmonize the introduction to the Testimony with the proposed action, a necessary change be made in said introduction. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That Article Fifteen of the Testimony be reaffirmed as it now stands.

2. That the following be sent down in overture to the presbyteries:

A. Shall Section 6, Paragraph II, Part II, of General Administration, be so amended as to read as follows:

(1) Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the infallible and only rule of faith and practice?

(2) Do you here and now profess your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and do you accept him as your personal Saviour and Lord?

(3) Do your profess you desire and willingness to receive instruction in Christian doctrine and practice as set forth in the standards adopted by this Church?

(4) Do you engage to seek the peace, purity and prosperity of this congregation while you remain a member thereof; to give to it your active service, your financial support as God may prosper you, and the moral influence of a godly life?

(5) Do you promise diligence in attendance upon church services, faithfulness in the study of God's Word, devotion to private and family religion, activity in extending a knowledge of the gospel, separation from sin, and from every form of worldliness that you may discover to be detrimental to your spiritual growth?

(6) Do you make this profession as in the presence of God, in reliance on his grace, and as you hope to give in your account at the great day?

B. Shall the following concluding sentences of the introduction to the Testimony be stricken out? viz., "An adherence to the Westminster standards before referred to, and to the Declarations contained in the following Testimony, will be required of those seeking communion with us. An assent to the argumentation and illustration under each Declaration cannot, with propriety, be demanded as a term of communion, but these parts may be useful as a guide to the meaning of the Declaration."

There has been practical unanimity among the members of the Committee as to the general character of the action to be submitted, yet, in the absence of definite instructions from the following persons, namely: Revs. H. H. Bell, R. G. Ramsay, J. M. Wallace and James White, we did not feel authorized to append their names to this report.

The Committee would beg leave to suggest, as a concluding word, that your consideration of the matter submitted should not be marked by haste or heated discussion, but by deliberation and prayerfulness, and by a spirit of earnest inquiry into the one matter as to how to make the Testimony most effective in saving men from the evils of secretism in its multiplied forms.

Respectfully submitted,

John A. Henderson, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON A DELEGATE FUND.

The Committee, appointed by the last Assembly to formulate a plan for a General Delegate Fund, respectfully report as follows:

1. For the creation of such a fund the General Assembly, through its Committee of Finance, shall annually make an assessment upon the entire membership of the Church in America. The assessment is in no case to exceed ten cents per member.

2. The financial agent of each presbytery shall receive the amount collected and forward to the treasurer of the General Assembly, not later than April 20 of each year. Through him it shall be paid out according to the regulations stated in the articles that follow.

3. Those entitled to the benefits of this fund shall be the delegates in actual attendance upon all the sessions of the Assembly. The roll of the Assembly shall be accepted as sufficient evidence of the attendance required. The expense provided for is to be limited to railroad fare, and that by the shortest route to and from the place of the Assembly meeting. The time for the distribution of these funds shall be during the sessions of the Assembly.

4. The expenses of each delegate shall be paid in full, when the presbytery represented shall have paid its assessment in full; otherwise in part, on the basis of the per cent. of the assessment paid in by the presbytery to which the delegate belongs.

5. If at any time, a surplus should accrue from this fund in any one year, it shall be retained by the treasurer of the Assembly and used to reduce the assessment of the following year.

M. M. Patterson.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PROMOTING SPIRITUALITY.

At the suggestion of the special Committee on Narrative and State of Religion, the General Assembly which met in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1899, appointed a special Committee on Promoting Spirituality. The occasion of this appointment was the report of the permanent Committee on Narrative and State of Religion. This report showed that there had been, during the year that just closed, an exceedingly small increase in Church membership, and a large deficit in the various Church treasuries.

The General Assembly deplored these things greatly, and acknowledged the want of spirituality in the Church. The General Assembly enjoined upon pastors and sessions the duty of bringing these facts prominently before their respective congregations, and set apart the first Sabbath of October to this end. The Assembly also appointed the following Wednesday a day for humiliation and prayer, and appointed a Committee on Spirituality to keep this matter before the Church. According to the action of the Assembly, the report of the Committee on Narrative and State of Religion will indicate whether the day appointed was observed and with what results.

It is, therefore, necessary and proper for the Committee on Spirituality to report merely on the work done by the Committee. In reference to this the Committee would report as follows:

1. The Committee, in order to keep the action of the Assembly before the Church, enlisted all the Church papers in the work. This was done by corresponding with the editors of the papers, asking them to write brief editorials on different phases of the subject, and to publish brief articles by different correspondents. This request was cheerfully and promptly complied with by all the Church papers.

2. Members of the Committee contributed to the Church papers articles on different phases of the great subject of revival. In this way and by these means, great interest was awakened in the subject. Conferences largely attended and full of interest were held in various parts of the Church. Prominent among these was the all day meeting held in the city of Pittsburg. But it belongs to the Committee on Narrative and State of Religion to report results.

We would only add that the results which followed were very encouraging and satisfactory to the Committee having the work in charge.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. Garvin, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PETITIONS TO THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS.

The Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare and forward certain memorials to the President and Congress of the United States, would report that the duty assigned was duly performed. The following papers were prepared and forwarded:

1. A memorial to the President of the United States, asking him to enforce the anti-canteen law.

2. A memorial to the two houses of Congress, asking that a constitutional amendment be submitted, defining lawful marriage and prohibiting polygamy; and a second amendment, establishing the one Bible cause as the only ground for divorce.

3. A protest addressed to the House of Representatives against the seating of B. H. Roberts on the ground that he is a polygamist.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. S. Owens, Chairman.

REPORT ON A THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The Principal Clerk would report that, according to the instructions of the General Assembly, its officers issued at the proper time the following Thanksgiving Proclamation:

The divine mercies are again brought to mind. The return of the day of annual thanksgiving quickens memory and inspires gratitude. We remember national blessings—abundant harvests, general health, employed labor and capital, sustained public credit, victories by sea and land, and stable government with all its advantages. We remember spiritual blessings—the Sabbath and its rest, the Bible and its revelations, the Church and its ordinances, the Spirit and his influences. We remember family blessings—fathers and mothers, husbands and wives, brothers and sisters, sons and daughters, peace and love, hope and happiness. We remember individual blessings—home and health, and usefulness and friends, and pardoned sin and acceptance in the Beloved.

These mercies have not been unmixed. The Father puts a portion of wormwood in every cup, lest his children should drink to excess. There have been storms, and pestilences, and strikes, and bloodsheds; the Sabbath has been violated, the Bible has not been reverenced, the Church has been neglected, the Spirit has been grieved; some chairs are vacant, some voices are hushed, some hopes have been disappointed; bodies have been racked with pain, friends have died, the assurance of salvation has been shaken.

All good things, joyous or grievous, are the gifts of heaven, and for them thanks should be given to the Father, to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, in the heart, in the home, and in the great congregation; prayer should be offered for their continuance and better improvement, and gratitude should be expressed by deeds of kindness.

We therefore, as directed by the General Assembly, recommend that the 30th day of November, 1899, the day named by the President of the United States, be observed by all the people and congregations of the United Presbyterian Church as a day of thanksgiving to God the Father, to his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and to the Holy Spirit for the mercies with which the year has been crowned, of prayer for their continuance, of sympathy with the sorrowing, and of sharing our plenty with the unfortunate.

By order of the Forty-first General Assembly,

William J. Reid, Principal Clerk.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RAILROAD FARE.

The Committee begs to report the performance of the work committed to its care. It was unable to make any arrangements for reduced fare for the Committee of Missions, as the rules of the railroad associations are such as to require the attendance of 100 persons paying full fare going, excluding clergyman's orders, in order to obtain a reduction in return fare. The Trunk Line, Central Passenger and Western Passenger Associations granted a one and one-third fare on the certificate plan.

The thanks of the General Assembly are due to the above mentioned railroad associations for the courtesies extended to the delegates to this Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

R. Trimble, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNION WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South respectfully reports that there has been no official correspondence with the Committee of the Southern Synod, but there is a gratifying evidence that the relations between the two bodies are becoming more intimate and cordial.

Respectfully submitted,

May 23, 1900. A. G. Wallace, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE METRICAL PSALMS.

The Joint Committee, appointed by American and Canadian Churches to revise the Metrical Version of the Psalms, met in New York on April 20, and continued in session six days. As the Committete had not been convened for three years, it had become somewhat disorganized, some of the Churches supposing that the joint work had been abandoned; but when summoned to meet again most of the co-operating Churches were represented more or less fully, and it was found that interest in the work had not died out, but that in some Churches it had deepened as they were about to proceed independently. The Committee therefore took steps to perfect its organization and extend its constituency; and proceeded at once with the work for which it was formed.

The Committee noted with deep regret the death of their secretary, W. J. Robinson, D. D., and appointed Rev. J. D. Steele, Ph.D., of New York, to act as secretary and treasurer; and the secretary, with Rev. W. J. Coleman, of Allegheny, Pa., was appointed a committee to seek the co-operation of Churches not yet represented and the continued co-operation of those already enlisted.

The first book of the Psalter (Psalms 1 to 41) was gone over carefully, with a view to selecting for each psalm from the versions before them the one they considered best. In several cases versions other than those in Scottish Psalter and in other meters were preferred. This does not mean that the version adopted is to be the only version; it is likely that in some cases a second version will be added.

The Committee then proceeded to examine each psalm with minuteness and care, with a view to making any needed emendations, concluding with Psalm 9. Their steady aim was to express the exact thought of each line of the original, and to do so in the language of the Authorized and Revised Versions of the Bible, and in the best metrical form attainable. The work done is of course provisional and will be revised when the Committee meets again. The Committee record with gratitude the satisfactory way in which many infelicities of expression yielded to emendation, and they believe that decided progress has been made towards the desired aim. They rejoice, too, in the cordial unanimity with which under divine guidance nearly all conclusions were arrived at, sometimes after much discussion.

The Committee decided to meet at Asbury Park, N. J., on Tuesday, September 18, to Thursday, September 27, should it be found that this will suit the convenience of members of Committee who may yet be appointed by their Church courts.

The work already done is being printed and with it forms for the use of the Committee in reporting to one another before the next meeting further suggested emendations, and emendations on the psalms not yet revised. These will be sent to members of the Committee as soon as their names are reported to the Secretary, Rev. J. D. Steele, Ph.D., 74 West 103d street, New York City.

To meet current expenses the Committee resolved to ask each denomination engaged in the work to contribute the sum of $10, which should be sent to the treasurer, Dr. Steele.

Signed on behalf of the General Committee,

E. R. Craven, General Chairman.

James D. Steele, General Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES.

Since our last report, the Seventh General Council of this Alliance has been held, as previously announced, in the city of Washington, sitting from September 27 to October 6, 1899. The gathering was well attended by the representatives of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches throughout the world. The proceedings were characterized by interest, dignity and power, and are contained in full in the volume which has been published by the secretary, a copy of which is herewith transmitted to you. The results of the meeting were marked in the further development of fraternal sympathy and co-operation between the several Churches. The Council elected as president for the current term, Rev. Wm. Caven, D.D., for three years chairman of the Western Section, and principal of Knox College, Toronto, Canada.

The Western Section was reconstituted by the Seventh Council, and held its first meeting in the city of Philadelphia on April 20 of this year. Mr. George Junkin, having resigned his office as American treasurer of the Alliance, the Section appointed in his place F. K. Hipple, Esq., president of the Real Estate Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pa. The officers of the Section now are George Junkin, Esq., LL.D., chairman; Rev. Wm. Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., secretary; F. K. Hipple, Esq., treasurer, and Rev. M. H. Hutton, D.D., recording secretary.

It is respectfully requested that provision be made for the apportionment of the expenses of the Alliance due from your venerable body for the present year, and which amounts to the sum of $270.00. Remittance may be made to the American treasurer of the Alliance.

The Western Section has appointed John McNaugher, D.D., as a delegate to bear to your venerable body the fraternal greetings of the Alliance, with A. G. Wallace, D.D., as alternate.

The Committee on Work on the European Continent of the Western Section calls special attention to the great need of English services on the continent of Europe. In a number of the larger cities there is already a considerable colony of English-speaking people. To these are added every year more than a hundred thousand who go abroad for travel, of whom it is estimated that between ten and twenty thousand belong to the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of this Alliance. The question naturally arises, Shall our children be left as sheep without a shepherd? The only English services in many places are the liturgical, often ritualistic, services of the Anglican Church. Those who prefer non-liturgical worship are generally left without care, even where religious influences are most needed, as at educational centers and health resorts. The Scotch Presbyterian Churches have made a small beginning for the solution of this problem, having about forty preaching places and churches, but what are they in so large a field? The Church of England has about 400 churches and places of worship; and she is thus gaining members from our own communion, while at the same time not ministering to many abroad who prefer non-liturgical services. We earnestly pray your General Assembly to open one or more summer stations in Europe, that thus a beginning may be made at this important problem. These will grow gradually into self-supporting churches, for it is to be remembered that while almost every other department of work is cared for by our Churches, such as foreign missions, home missions, Sabbath schools, etc., this field on the continent is not looked after. It is the duty of this Alliance to call the attention of the Churches to unoccupied fields, and is it not the duty of the Churches to occupy them? Your own children, living or traveling abroad, appeal to you through us for religious privileges, rightfully theirs, from the Churches to which they belong. Shall we leave them to the inroads of rationalism, Romanism, worldliness and indifference, without attempting to care for them? Further, such missions and churches as we ask for will in time have a powerful influence on the welfare of the native Churches of Europe. The great national Churches of the reformed faith may be through them stimulated to a new effort, in some measure similar to the Reformation of the 16th Century. The minimum cost of a summer station is about $300. In any effort that you may make the Continental Committee of this Alliance will be ready to aid by information and sympathy. James I. Good, D.D., Reading, Pa., is the chairman of the Committee.

In closing the report, expression is given to the hopes cherished and in part realized, in connection with the founding and growth of the Alliance. The suggestion for its organization was made at the Reunion General Assembly of 1870, when the old and new school branches of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., met as the representatives of a united Church for the first time since 1837. Since that date, the bonds uniting the various Presbyterian and Reformed Churches have been drawn yet closer, and on more than one continent there have been evidences of the working of that spirit of harmony which produced the Alliance, and which it fosters. Notably, in this connection, reference is made to the recent union of the Presbyterian Churches of South Africa under one General Assembly, and the approaching union of the United Presbyterian Church, and the Free Church of Scotland. We can but rejoice in these signs of the times, which point to an increasing realization on the part of Christians, holding substantially the same faith and the same form of Church government, of the sentiment of the apostle: "There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith and one baptism, one God and Father of all who is above all and through all and in you all."

With earnest prayers for the increased prosperity of the work of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in your midst as a Church, both at home and abroad, we are, in behalf of the Alliance,

George Junkin, Chairman.

William Henry Roberts, American Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE REED ESTATE.

The executors and trustees of the estate of William Reed, as required by the will of deceased, would respectfully report that progress has recently been made by a compromise of the court case referred to in our last two reports. By this our claims are substantially secured. As heretofore the money on hand, about $6,500, is invested in mortgages, and the income used for the payment of taxes. There remain some 15,000 to 18,000 acres (the quantity is very uncertain) of land in West Virginia and Kentucky to be sold. The value is variously estimated at from $1 to $3 per acre.

Respectfully submitted.

S. Collins, of and for Executors.

5. ORGANIZATIONS.

SYNOD.

By order of the General Assembly, Minutes, Vol. VIII, page 518, The Synod of the Nile, from the Presbytery of Egypt, composed of the Presbyteries of Asyut, The Delta, Middle Egypt, and Thebes. Organized at Asyut, May 11, 1899. Territory: The Valley of the Nile.

The Synod is a delegated body, "the ratio of representation being one minister and one ruling elder for every three ministers, and for the fraction over three; a presbytery with less than three ministers to have one minister and one ruling elder."

PRESBYTERY.

Dissolved. By order of the Synod of Nebraska, Minutes 1899, page 14, the Presbytery of North Platte was dissolved and the congregations placed under the care of the Presbytery of Omaha.

A supplementary report from the Treasurer of the Quarter Centennial Commission was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the hearing of the delegates from the Christian Reformed Church. Revs. Gerrett Westenberg and John Keizer addressed the Assembly and the Moderator responded.

The second order of the day was the consideration of the report of the Committee on Women's Work. During the consideration of this report, the delegates from the Women's Board, Mrs. Mary B. Reid and Mrs. Mary W. Porter, and also Mrs. D. S. Lytle and Miss Anna Y. Thompson, returned missionaries, addressed the Assembly. The report was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON WOMEN'S WORK.

Your Committee has studied with interest the admirable report of the Board of Directors of the Women's General Missionary Society. It shows an encouraging, aggressive work along seven distinct lines of missionary service: The Foreign Department, Home Mission and Ministerial Relief, Freedmen's Mission, Church Extension and Parsonage work, Junior Missionary Society, Literature Department, and the Thank-offering Department.

In all these divisions of activity the work of the Women has proved a most valuable factor in the life of our Church. This organized movement began only seventeen years ago, but its powers have been so quickened and its growth has been so vigorous that its records to-day show 977 societies with 26,927 members.

The work of the women has also proved one of the most effective agencies in developing the systematic beneficence of the Church. It has been singularly instrumental in leading many of our people into the spirit and practice of consecrated giving. We note with gratification that the last annual contribution amounted to $75,805.

A careful study of the report of the Women's Board will show that in the fields of India and Egypt most effective service has been rendered, service crowned with special blessings. We note with thankfulness that the work of the Women's Board is moving up the Nile Valley, and that soon a school for the training of girls will be opened in distant Luxor. A movement of so much significance, and having in it unmeasured possibilities for the millions of Egypt and the opening South country, should awaken the interest and be followed by the prayers of the whole Church.

The co-operation of this Board with the Board of Home Missions continues with the pleasantest and most cordial relations. Special mention is made of the large donations of $8,400 the past year, for the support of new work, in the care of the home board. This was a great assistance and encouragement in the effort that is being made to extend our home mission work. We recommend:

1. That the report of the Board of Directors of the Women's General Missionary Society be adopted.

2. That we commend the organized work of the women to all the mothers and daughters of our Church, and recognize in it a loud call to them from the Master.

3. That we would emphasize the earnest appeal which the Board is making for workers in the foreign field. We trust that in the future, as in the past, the womanhood of our Church will respond in loyal, loving devotion to the Saviour as he opens before them the weighty responsibilities of the heathen world.

4 That the representatives of the Board, Mrs. William J. Reid and Mrs. Mary W. Porter, now be heard by the Assembly.

The following resolutions in regard to the estate of Mrs. Mary Stewart were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS ON THE MARY STEWART ESTATE.

Whereas, This Assembly has learned that the executors of the estate of Mrs. Mary Stewart, late of Peoria county, Illinois, are now ready to pay over the bequest of $3,000 made by said Mrs. Stewart to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, but that said executors desire this Assembly to designate or appoint its representative or agent to receive and receipt for said legacy; therefore, be it resolved,

1. That the Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, the corporate representative of this Assembly, be and said corporation is hereby authorized and directed to receive and receipt for the legacy bequeathed to this Assembly by the said Mrs. Stewart, deceased.

2. That in accordance with the purpose of the testatrix as expressed in her will as to the use to which said bequest should be applied, the said Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, are hereby directed, upon receipt of said legacy, to pay over the same to the Women's General Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, in aid of the work of the Jewish mission in the city of Chicago, the support of which has been undertaken by said Society.

The consideration of the report of the Committee of the Board of Freedmen's Missions was made the second order of the day for Monday morning.

The report of the Committee on the Limitation of Appeals was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The report of the Committee to prepare a Book of Instruction for Juniors was read and adopted.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

So much of the report of the Committee on Article XV. of the Testimony as refers to the Membership Covenant was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

So much of the report of the Board of Publication as refers to Sabbath-schools was referred to the Committee on Sabbath-schools.

The report of our representatives on the Committee on the revision of the Metrical Psalms was read and adopted. Pres. R. G. Ferguson, D. D., resigned from further service on this Committee, and the filling of the vacancy was referred to the Committee on Nominations. The following resolution was adopted:

THANKS TO THE PSALM REVISION COMMITTEE.

The General Assembly heartily commends the work of the Committee on a Union Metrical Version of the Psalms, and expresses its satisfaction with the progress made. The Assembly also tenders its thanks to its representatives on the Committee.

The report of the directors of the Historical Society was read and adopted.

The report of the trustees and executors of the Reed Estate was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

After prayer by Rev. C. F. Crooks the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. J. Kyle.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and adopted.

A letter from the Porsony Reformed Congregation of Hungary was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a memorial service for ministers deceased during the year, the Moderator, Pres. J. A. Thompson, D.D., presiding. At the close of the conference the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Elder W. C. Hutchison.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Overture on Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE OVERTURE ON MARRIAGE WITH A DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER.

We find that the whole number of votes cast is 1,182, of which 772 are in the affirmative and 410 in the negative, making a clear majority of 362. We therefore recommend the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolutions:

1. That the overture to repeal that part of Section IV., Chapter XXIV., of the Confession of Faith, which reads, "The man may not marry any of his wife's kindred nearer in blood than he may of his own, nor the woman of her husband's kindred nearer in blood than of her own," has received a clear constitutional majority of the votes of the Church, and, therefore, has been carried.

2. That this Assembly hereby ratifies the decision of the presbyteries, and declares that portion of Section IV. of Chapter XXIV. of the Confession of Faith that was in overture repealed.

The report of the Special Committee on Reform was read and adopted. The nomination of the delegation to the convention of the Anti-Saloon League, provided for in the first resolution of this report, was referred to the Committee on Nominations. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON REFORM.

Three papers were put into our hands: One from the American Anti-Saloon League, one from the superintendent of the Sabbath school department of the W. C. T. U., and the report of the Standing Committee on Reform.

It is time for the most serious thought and strenuous effort on the part of the followers of Christ to meet and withstand the tides of evil which characterize our times.

The rum traffic has always been a manifest anarchy against the law of God, and one of the most fruitful sources of social and political corruption, and of anarchy against civil law, and at the same time a perpetual destroyer of human interests. But the question becomes more serious when the "powers ordained of God" for the protection of human society are found to be in actual alliance with this great destroyer of humanity and at the same time protectors and promotors of its baleful influence. When Christ was inaugurated into his Messianic office, which included his offices of Prophet, Priest and King, he enunciated the fundamental principles of his administration of all his offices when he said, "Thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness." How can we, the followers of Christ, do otherwise than stand with him on this great platform? When Satan proposed to give him all the kingdoms of this world if he would fall down and worship him, our Lord replied: "Get thee hence, Satan, for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." When, therefore, the attainment and exercise of political power are involved, can Christian citizens do other than stand with Christ our Redeemer and King?

With these great principles in view we would say, as the redeemed of the Lord, that we are not omni-partisan, or non-partisan, when these great fundamental principles of Christ's government are set at naught by any party or administration, but we are distinctly and emphatically Christ-partisan. Yet believing that the Anti-Saloon League is accomplishing great good in temperance reform, we would recommend that members of this Assembly, or of the United Presbyterian Church, who expect to attend the sixth National Anti-Saloon League Convention, to be held in Washington, D. C., commencing Tuesday, Dec. 3, 1901, be entitled to credentials as delegates signed by the Principal Clerk of the Assembly.

In response to the request of the W. C. T. U. we would recommend that the fourth Sabbath of November be set apart by the Assembly as Temperance Sabbath, and that pastors and sessions be urged so to conduct the public service of that day as to promote this reform.

We also present to the Assembly the recommendations of the Standing Committee on Reform and commend them for adoption, viz.:

That it direct the Permanent Committee on Reform to meet and organize early in the year, and to proceed at once to open correspondence with committees or representatives of as many Churches as possible; and that, securing such co-operation for the present, and preparing the way for it in the future, the committee be authorized in the name of the General Assembly to act as its agent in seeking to secure needed reforms, and in preventing all efforts to legalize and popularize prevailing vices.

That we recommend to our people the discriminating support of all Christian reforms in civil and social life.

It was resolved that when the Assembly adjourn it adjourn until Monday at 9 o'clock.

The Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. M. Adair.

MONDAY.

May 27, 1901, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by J. P. Sankey, D.D.

The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Samuel Collins, D.D., gave notice, for himself and others who may join with him, of a dissent from the action of the General Assembly in repealing Section 4, Chapter XXIV. of the Confession of Faith. The dissent is as follows:

DISSENT OF DR. S. COLLINS AND OTHERS.

The undersigned, for themselves and any others who may join them, would hereby very respectfully and kindly, yet most firmly, dissent from and protest against the action of this Assembly and of the Church in repealing and annulling the second sentence of section 4 of chapter XXIV. of the Confession of Faith, thus leaving the Church without any law on the subject of incest within or without the marriage relation.

A partial report of the Committee on Judiciary was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON JUDICIARY.

1. The National Women's Suffrage Association requests the Assembly to pass a resolution and petition Congress in favor of "women's suffrage." We recommend the following: Resolved, That inasmuch as the request relates to the civil status of woman, we do not deem it expedient that this ecclesiastical court shall take action in the matter.

2. In the appeal by Rev. J. R. Wallace from the decree of the county court of Allegheny county, dismissing his suit against the trustees of the General Assembly, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, reversed the degree and held the lower court should take cognizance of the case, and inquire into the regularity of the action of the General Assembly complained of by Mr. Wallace. The case was heard again, and the trial judge's finding has been filed, holding that the General Assembly had not followed its own rules, and that its action in 1893, sustaining the appeal of Lake Presbytery, was irregular and void. Exceptions to the court's rulings and findings of fact and law have been filed by our counsel. These have not yet been argued and no decision will be made until a hearing shall be had thereon. We recommend the following action: Resolved, That the course of the trustees be approved and that further proceedings in the case be left to the trustees of the Assembly.

3. The case of H. J. Kyle came to the Assembly in 1900 from the Synod of the Punjab by reference. That Assembly returned it to the Synod, recommending it be referred to the court in whose bounds Mr. Kyle is residing for issue upon the basis of evidences of repentance. This court is the Presbytery of Delaware. It reports that it has examined the case and, being satisfied of Mr. Kyle's repentance, has issued it by removal of the sentence of suspension and by restoration to the gospel ministry. We therefore recommend the following action: Resolved, That the action of the Presbytery of Delaware, in restoring Mr. H. J. Kyle to the office of the gospel ministry be approved, and that the Presbytery of Delaware be instructed to place his name on its roll.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on limitations of appeals in cases of discipline, was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE LIMITATION OF APPEALS.

We have considered the report of the Committee on the Limitation of Appeals in cases of Discipline, and recommend the following action:

I. That this Assembly submits to the presbyteries the following overture:

Shall the Book of Government be amended in the following particulars, viz.:

1. Amend Part I., Chapter V., Article IV., by striking out Sec. 4.

2. Amend Part III., Chapter XII., Section 2, so as to read: "Every decision in any court, except the highest, having jurisdiction, is subject to the review of a superior court."

3. Amend Section 1, of Article II., Chapter XII., to read as follows: "A reference is a judicial representation made by an inferior to a superior court having jurisdiction, of a matter not yet decided."

4. Amend Article II., Chapter XII., by inserting the following as Section 2: "In cases of discipline an appeal or complaint may be made to the Synod as the court of final jurisdiction, but an appeal or complaint concerning doctrines, general regulations, the interpretation of law, or the regularity of proceedings, may be made direct from the presbytery or synod to the General Assembly, whose judgment shall be for the guidance of the lower courts.

Such appeal or complaint shall always be made in writing, and shall contain a clear statement of the issue involved. The General Assembly shall enter upon its records the appeal as presented from the lower court, a clear statement of its own decision, and the grounds upon which it is made."

II. That a competent committee be appointed to revise the Book of Government and Discipline so as to make it conform to the action limiting appeals in cases of discipline to the Synods, and in any other particulars in which revision may be necessary.

The Committee on the Board of Home Missions presented its report. Before entering upon its consideration E. S. McKitrick, D.D., led the Assembly in prayer. The report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

There have been placed in our hands the report of the Board of Home Missions, the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, and the report of the Special Committee on unemployed ministers and vacant congregations.

From the report of the Board it appears that 218 stations were aided during the past year. The amount of money thus expended was $79,658.72, an average of $382.97 to each station. The record shows that the work in the field has gone on encouragingly though not rapidly. There has been a net increase in membership of 1,394, and in the Sabbath schools, a gain of 121 teachers and 2,017 scholars. It is worthy of special notice that while the net gain in the membership of the whole Church in America was only 9-10 of one per cent., the gain in the home mission congregations was 8 1-10 per cent.

The total expenditure of the Board during the year was $82,585.76. The receipts from all sources were $80,920.36, leaving a deficit of $1,664.40. This amount, added to the debt reported at the close of last year, makes a total present indebtedness of $5,576.

From the report of the General Committee it appears that the aid asked for the coming year was greater than ever before in the history of the Church. The total amount applied for was $104,413. Of this $18,150 was for exclusively new work. Your committee look upon this as a satisfactory and highly encouraging fact. It shows that the Church is awaking to the possibilities opening to her in the home field, and sees the necessity of lengthening her cords as well as of strengthening her stakes. This is as it should be, and it indicates a future of increasing usefulness and power for our beloved Church. The committee, after prayerful deliberation, reduced the amount asked for to $100,550. It was felt that a further reduction could not be made without doing serious injury to the work. Appropriations aggregating this large sum are recommended to the General Assembly.

With these facts before us your committee beg leave to offer the following resolutions:

1. That the report of the Board of Home Missions be approved.
2. That the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, with the recommendations therein contained, be adopted.
3. That we render to God our sincere thanks for the blessings which he has given to our work during the past year.
4. That we express our entire confidence in the Board of Home Missions and its Corresponding Secretary, and commend the efforts made to stimulate the Church, not only to give more liberally of its means, but to enter into and establish work in new and inviting fields.
5. That presbyteries be directed to enforce more rigidly the rules relating to the applications for aid; namely, to the fifteen year limit rule, the rule of the sliding scale, and the rule requiring congregations organized three years and over to contribute not less than $5.00 per member for the support of pastor or stated supply.

6. That the time has come for a decided enlargement of our home mission work, and therefore we commend the action of the last General Committee in recommending appropriations reaching $100,000, and we call upon the Church to begin at once the work of raising this amount, so that when the year closes every dollar asked for shall be in the treasury.

In regard to the matter on unemployed ministers and the settlement of vacant congergations, your committee would recommend the approval of the report of the Special Committee appointed by the last General Assembly and would offer the following resolutions:

1. That each presbytery be instructed to hold a conference at an early date upon the authority and rights of the presbytery, and how these are to be maintained in the matter of vacancy and supply.

2. That the Board of Home Missions through its Corresponding Secretary be directed to furnish to the Superintendent of Missions upon request the names of ministers and licentiates desiring pastoral settlement, and that all such ministers and licentiates be urged to send their names to the board for such use.

3. That presbyteries be instructed to use great care in nominating men to fill the office of Superintendent of Missions, and to appoint a committee of supplies with the Superintendent of Missions as chairman, who shall be charged with the care of vacant pulpits. Congregations shall not be permitted to supply themselves excepting through said committee.

4. That the attention of presbyteries be called to the rule, and that they be instructed carefully to enforce it, that only licentiates or ordained ministers are to receive appointments in vacant pulpits.

The nomination of the Committee provided for in the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, part III., resolution 5, was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions was read. In order that this report might be finally disposed of, the time of adjournment was postponed ten minutes. The report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The Committee on Freedmen's Missions has had referred to it the report of the Freedmen's Board. We have also held an interesting consultation with the Corresponding Secretary. We beg leave to call attention to the following particulars in the Board's report:

First, The manifest favor of God in preserving the lives and in a large measure the health of the members of the Board, and of all the active workers in the field, and in making their labors instrumental in the conversion of an unusually large number of precious souls.

Second, The encouraging progress of the work. While no new fields have been entered, yet the report, as a whole, is more than ordinarily hopeful and cheering, and while the total number of church members is smaller, the increase by profession is more than three times larger than last year. Knoxville College has passed its twenty-fifth year of efficient work, and is evidently accomplishing more fully than ever before the great purpose for which it was founded. It is manifest that the Board and the College have been earnestly and successfully endeavoring to carry out the policy of evangelization as well as education. They have planted and fostered churches as well as schools, and the results prove that the United Presbyterian Church can and ought to be extended among the populations of the south.

Third, The financial condition. We notice with pleasure the growth of liberality among the freedmen themselves. They are making a commendable effort at self-support and the average per member this year for religious purposes is more than 33 per cent. larger than last year. We regret to notice, that while the total receipts by the Board have been larger than last year, yet the burdensome debt, which has been hampering the Board for so long, has increased rather than diminished.

Fourth, The work in Cuba. We notice that, owing to the lack of funds for this specific purpose and the evidence that the educational needs of the Cubans were being supplied in good measure from other sources, the Board did not deem it wise to enter this new field, as authorized by the last Assembly.

Fifth, The interest among the southern people. We hear with satisfaction from the Corresponding Secretary of the awakening interest among the white people of the south in our work. Men of wealth and influence are coming forward, offering their buildings and lands, and inviting our Board to occupy the field and carry on the work.

We offer the following resolutions:

1. We express our humble gratitude to God for his manifest favor and blessing upon the work and the workers.

2. Since we deem evangelization more vital to the welfare of the freedmen than secular education, we heartily commend the policy, which is being pursued, of establishing churches as well as schools throughout the south land.

3. In view of the manifest providence of God in opening up new fields of work, and the loud call that comes to us to enter these fields; and in view of the heavy debt resting upon the Board and effectually preventing the forward movement that ought to be undertaken; we earnestly commend the Freedmen's Board to the increased liberality of the Church, and urge upon pastors and sessions the duty of presenting the claims of this work to their congregations.

4. The Board is requested to embody in its annual report a statistical table of the educational work among the freedmen, showing the stations at which schools are being conducted, the number of teachers in each school, the number of pupils enrolled, the average attendance during the year, and the number of months each school is kept open.

5. In view of the increased demands of the work among the freedmen upon the time and thought of the Board and the rapidly enlarging interests involved, we deem the time not far distant when the Corresponding Secretary should devote his entire time to its oversight.

After prayer by J. B. McMichael, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. B. Jackson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. This report, as amended and adopted, is as follows :

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The annual report of the Board of Foreign Missions; papers concerning the Sudan mission; the report of Asyut College Committee, and a communication containing requests respecting a charter for Asyut Training College; the proper recognition of college instructors, medical and hospital assistants so as to secure privileges of transportation; and the method of securing interest and support in the establishing of colleges in our mission fields in Egypt and India, have been submitted to your committee for consideration.

The blessing of God has been freely bestowed upon the foreign work during the almost half a century of its history, success has attended the efforts of our missionaries, the Church has shown commendable liberality in her support of the work, and the prayers of God's people have been answered in the ingathering of souls.

Two missionaries have entered into rest during the year, Rev. R. R. McClure, of Zafarwal, India, on April 27, 1900, and Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sowash, at Alexandria, Egypt, on Sept. 4, 1900. Two of the children of missionaries have passed away, Mary, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Cummings, at Pasrur, India, on May 1, 1900; and Agnes, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Reed, at Alexandria, Egypt, on May 15, 1900.

The educational work in the foreign field has received special favors in the liberal gifts secured through the agency of the committee for the purchasing of grounds and for the erection of buildings for the Asyut Training College, and by the donation of $12,000 from Miss Eleanor C. Law, and Miss Ina L. Robertson, for erecting and equipping a suitable building for Gordon Mission College, at Rawal Pindi, India. Already about $60,000 of the proposed $100,000 have been pledged for the Asyut College. The work is one of great importance, the persons who are prosecuting the enterprise are to be congratulated on the success attained, and the work itself is commended to the liberal hearted constituency of the foreign work.

The paper submitted to the Assembly in regard to establishing a series of colleges in Egypt and India, and the adoption of methods for their support, contains suggestions of very great importance respecting the future educational work in our foreign mission fields, and calls the attention of the Church to this special line of effort.

We mention with gratitude the fact that more than $30,000 passed through the hands of the treasurer of the Board for the relief of the famine sufferers in India. It is also worthy of note that the aggregate amount received from legacies and gifts exceeds $54,000, more than three times the average sum secured from the same sources during six preceding years. This liberality of a few cannot however take the place of the regular contributions of the Church, and ought not to be made an excuse for withholding from the treasury of the Lord.

During the year Revs. R. E. Carson and K. W. McFarland tendered their resignations. The Board is still in hope that the former may be able to return, so the resignation has not been accepted. In the case of Mr. McFarland, health and other conditions satisfactory to himself lead him to insist on the acceptance of his resignation.

Rev. Robert Stewart, D.D., Rev. W. J. Brandon, and Miss Helen J. Ferrier, appointed by the last Assembly, have entered upon the work to which they were assigned by the Board.

The vacancy, occasioned by the inability of Rev. O. A. Keach to accept the call of the General Assembly, was filled by the Board by the appointment of Rev. W. R. Coventry. The vacancy made by the death of Rev. R. R. McClure was supplied by the appointment of Rev. Robert Maxwell. Mrs. Alice McClure, after the death of her husband, was appointed by the Board as a missionary, her support being provided by the Women's Board.

The Board at the request of the mission appointed Dr. H. T. McLaughlin as the first medical missionary to the Sudan.

The Assembly is asked to confirm the appointment of Mr. J. H. Morton and Prof. W. E. Nichol, to the mission in India; of Miss Margaret A. Bell to the mission in Egypt, and to give authority to the Board to appoint and send out one or more young women to India, if suitable persons can be found.

It is with pleasure that we recognize the generous benefactions and helpfulness of individuals, societies, and periodicals in the prosecution in the work of the Board.

We recommend the following for adoption:

1. We express gratitude to God for all the blessings bestowed upon the missionaries, and for the success which has attended the work of the year.

2. That the report of the Board and its work during the year be approved.

3. We would bow with Christian submission to the providence of God in removing by death Rev. R. R. McClure and Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sowash from the active missionary forces; Mary Cummings and Agnes Reed, children of missionaries; at the same time assuring the sorrowing friends of our tenderest sympathy, and praying for the comforting presence and sustaining grace of God in all their bereavements.

4. The Assembly ratifies the action of the Board in the appointment of Revs. W. J. Brandon, W. R. Coventry and Robert Maxwell; Mrs. Alice McClure and Miss Helen J. Ferrier; also the appointment of Dr. H. T. McLaughlin as medical missionary to the Sudan.

5. The Assembly confirms the appointment of Mr. J. H. Morton and Prof. W. E. Nichol to the mission in India, of Miss Margaret A. Bell to the mission in Egypt, and authorizes the Board to send out one or more young women to India, if suitable persons can be found, and two male missionaries and two young women to the mission in Egypt in case the finances will permit.

6. That the Assembly establish a distinct work to be known as the Sudan Mission, work to begin at a station named Dolaib Hill, that $5,075 be appropriated from the Sudan fund to meet the expense of the new mission for the current year, and that the work be prosecuted in accordance with recommendations submitted by the missionaries who have explored the field.

7. That the rules of the Board, governing the return of missionaries to the foreign field after the first term of service, be approved.

8. That the missions be required in the beginning of each year not to exceed the appropriations of the preceding year, until they shall be notified of the amount appropriated for the new year by the General Assembly; that the Missionary Associations shall not overdraw the appropriations made, and that the year shall begin with the first of July and end with the 30th of June.

9. The Assembly directs the Board of Foreign Missions to take the necessary steps to secure charters for Asyut Training College in Egypt, and Gordon Mission College in India, giving authority to these institutions to confer academic degrees.

10. The Assembly authorizes the Board to commission as missionaries college instructors, nurses and assistants in medical and hospital work, and others who are under contract for a term of years, but without the right to membership in the Missionary Associations.

11. That all matters placed before the Assembly by communications relating to the establishment of colleges in our foreign mission fields, and to methods of securing interest and support in the educational work of these fields, be committed to the Board for consideration and approval, and that the Board be requested to give publicity to its conclusions.

The Committee on Finance was instructed to submit to the Assembly a rule governing the Boards in the acceptance of life annuity donations.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

A telegram from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

After prayer by W. H. McMillan, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by J. W. Martin, M.D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

An address to the General Assembly in behalf of the American Bible Society was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a conference on "A Living Church, Its Methods," G. W. Hamilton, D.D., presiding. At 9:40 P. M. the conference rose and reported, through its chairman, an interesting conference on the subject assigned by the Assembly.

After prayer by Rev. Robert Hood the Assembly adjourned.

TUESDAY.

May 28, 1901, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by Rev. A. K. Strane.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of he last session were read and approved.

A resolution for the appointment of a committee to prepare a list of forbidden degrees of consanguinity and affinity in marriage was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A resolution of thanks from the Ministerial Association of Des Moines was read and accepted. It is as follows:

PAPER FROM THE DES MOINES MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

Dear Brethren: The Ministerial Association of this city, desirous of recognizing and welcoming your presence among us, passed this morning the following resolution, which I am instructed to forward to you with our fraternal greetings:

"Resolved, That the Ministerial Association of Des Moines express their cordial appreciation of the presence of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in this city; and they also put themselves on record as appreciating the graceful courtesy of the visiting brethren in filling so many of the pulpits of the city on the Lord's Day just passed."

Wishing you the abundant blessing of our common Lord and Master in your work. I am yours sincerely,

D. B. Spencer, Secretary.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 27, 1901.

The report of the Committee on Revision was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON REVISION.

There have been submitted to us the minutes of the General Assembly, and of the Synods of New York, Pittsburgh, First of the West, Second, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Columbia; all of 1900 and certified; besides, as ordered by the Assembly, a translation of the minutes of the Synod of the Nile for 1901 and certified.

These have been examined by your committee and found to be correctly kept, and are recommended for approval.

The following report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Synod of the Nile was read and adopted:

REPORT ON THE COMPOSITION OF THE SYNOD OF THE NILE.

By request of the four presbyteries composing the Synod of the Nile, the General Assembly of 1899 authorized them to organize the Synod as a representative body, composed of one-third of the members of the presbyteries. The Synod now makes request to be constituted in the regular way, according to the rules of the United Presbyterian Church. The following action is recommended:

Resolved, That the request of the Synod of the Nile, to be composed of all the members of the presbyteries, be granted.

These recommendations of the Secretaries of the Boards of the Church on matters financial were read and adopted:

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SECRETARIES OF THE BOARDS.

Realizing the need of more money for the support of the work in the care of the Boards which we respectively represent, and desiring to see it greatly enlarged and extended, also believing that larger offerings for it can be secured if the right steps are taken to bring this work and its needs before the people of our Church, we beg leave to make to this General Assembly the following recommendations:

1. That this General Assembly recommends that each presbytery at its next meeting hold a conference on the work in the care of the different Boards of the Church, and adopt some plan for quickening the interest of congregations in it and enlarging their contributions to it.

2. That pastors and sessions arrange a service in the interest of this work once a quarter during the coming year, for the special purpose of securing for it larger offerings.

3. That pastors and sessions make special effort to secure from each member of their congregations a contribution to this work, and make a proportionate distribution of the funds thus secured according to the appropriations made by the General Assembly.

4. That the Boards be instructed to prepare, acting jointly, a program to be suggested for the services to be held by congregations.

5. That the Committee on Ways and Means be urged to begin its work at once, and earnestly continue it throughout the year.

The report of the Committee on Judiciary on Article XV. of the Testimony was read. During the discussion of this report a motion was adopted limiting speeches in all following debates during this Assembly to five minutes each. This report was laid aside to permit the hearing of Jesse W. Brooks, D.D., agent for the American Tract Society, who then addressed the Assembly. The order of the day was postponed until after final action upon the report of the Committee on Judiciary. During the consideration of this report the Assembly was led in prayer by the Principal Clerk. Before disposing of the report the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. E. K. Smith.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by Rev. F. W. Crosbie.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Took up unfinished business—the report of the Committee on Judiciary. This report was adopted and it is as follows:

REPORT ON ARTICLE XV. OF THE TESTIMONY.

In view of the existing diversity in the interpretation of Article XV. of the Testimony and in the application of it by sessions in the admission of members of secret orders, and in view of the great multiplication of these orders and of their diversity in purpose and character, the General Assembly adopts the following as expressive of the mind of the Church on this subject:

Article XV. of the Testimony continues to express the general sentiment of the Church and is hereby affirmed. Members of the Church of Christ ought not to have fellowship in associations which bind their members by oaths or affirmations to obey unknown obligations, and to immoral secrecy, or which establish a fraternal fellowship among men subversive of the unity of the body of Christ. It is especially obligatory upon Christians to stand aloof from the societies which, by their moral teachings and religious ritual, foster a belief in the salvability of men apart from the mediation of Christ. We condemn such organizations as most dishonoring to our Lord and injurious to men, and persons who, with knowledge of the truth concerning them, wilfully adhere to such associations, shall not be received into Church membership. All such societies are included in the phrase of the Testimony, "Inconsistent with the genius and spirit of Christianity." The entire contents and bearings of the Article should be emphasized in the pulpit teaching, and the Testimony faithfully maintained by all.

This Article is not to be construed so as to exclude from the Church the membership of such societies as are not bound by oath or affirmation, do not pledge to secrecy in things unknown, or inculcate a Christless religion.

In the administration of this Article, as of others of the Testimony, sessions possess the right to exercise a wise discretion in dealing with such cases as may arise on their merits, and in such a way as may best promote the glory of God and the edification of the Church. It is supposed that sessions are composed of men of understanding, that they are acquainted with the principles which they have embraced, and that they are faithful to the trust committed to them as officers of the Church. They may safely be trusted in the exercise of this power as courts of the Church, being, of course, responsible for the manner in which they exercise this discretion.

The second order of the day for this afternoon was made the consideration of the report on the Board of Church Extension.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief was read. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Your committee, having considered carefully the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, find much to commend it to the sympathy and consideration of the Church. The report and the statements of the representative of the Board here, Rev. Frank Getty, indicate the efficiency and economy with which the funds contributed by the Church towards this object are being distributed.

It is very gratifying to note that the Board has suggested enlarged plans for increasing the amount of relief hitherto granted to those seeking aid, and consequently recommend certain changes in the administration of this fund. The Board, feeling that the maximum amount to which, by the rules under which it acted in the past, limited the amount of relief given in any one case to a sum entirely inadequate, believe that the time has come to justify a change in the rules which hitherto governed the power to give relief.

We note with pleasure the conformity of the Board this year, for the first time, to the regulations of the Assembly in having an expert accountant audit its accounts.

In view of the proposed changes, we recommend:

1. That the maximum annuity paid to beneficiaries be increased from $200 to $250.

2. That any honorably retired minister, who has reached the age of 70 years, and who has been engaged in the service of the United Presbyterian Church as a missionary of the Foreign, Home or Freedmen's Board, or as a pastor or stated supply, for a period aggregating not less than 30 years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief, an annual sum for his support, without annual recommendation from his presbytery; that after due examination by the presbytery, it shall be the duty of the stated clerk of the presbytery to forward the application to the Board with his endorsement; and that then it shall be the duty of the Board to pay such applicant an annuity not exceeding $250 during the remainder of his life, unless because of some change in his circumstances, the presbytery or the applicant himself shall otherwise direct, this sum being a substitute for the annuity allowed to ordinary beneficiaries.

3. That a standing committee of one or more, to be known as the Ministerial Relief Committee, shall be appointed by each presbytery whose duty shall be to examine every application for aid, and report to the presbytery the result of such investigation.

4. That pastors and sessions be urged to put forth earnest efforts to increase the interest of the congregations of our Church in the work of this Board.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension, as read and adopted, is as follows:

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

From the report of the Board of Church Extension and other data placed in our hands, we glean the following facts:

The Board has sustained a serious loss in the death of two of its leading members.

The blessing of God has manifestly attended the efforts of the Church in this branch of her work. Twenty-one congregations have been assisted by donations aggregating $36,975, and one has received a loan of $5,000.

As to funds, demand is in excess of supply. Pressing appeals are coming from every quarter for help, which can be only partially supplied. This difficulty arises from various causes. In cities and towns that are rapidly increasing in wealth, there is a demand for more expensive churches than would have been thought sufficient some years ago. That only 54.3 per cent. of the amount appropriated by last Assembly has been paid may be, at least in part, the result of numerous appeals on behalf of special objects. The demand for aggressive effort is constantly increasing. Especially in manufacturing districts, large populations are being brought together, who are practically without church privileges.

We are convinced that the funds at the command of the Board have been economically and wisely expended. The business methods of the Board cannot be too highly commended. Funds are invested in such manner as to bring in the largest returns consistent with utmost security, and all accounts are audited by an expert accountant, who certifies the result to the Board.

The committee offers the following resolutions for adoption by the Assembly:

1. That the Assembly very decidedly approves the work of the Board for the past year.

2. That, in reference to the death of Messrs. Thomas McCance and William J. Sawyer, the General Assembly places on record its high appreciation of these two willing "witness bearers to the truth"; in their lives, beloved for their self-sacrifices on behalf of the cause of Christ in the world; in their death, revered in memory as men of God, "Whose memorial is on high." May our prayer be that of the Psalmist, "Help, Lord, for the Godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men."

3. That the Assembly gratefully acknowledges the goodness of God in the prosperity that has attended the work during the year.

4. The Assembly commends the work to the earnest consideration of the Church, and recommends that pastors and sessions urge upon their congregations the importance of greater liberality in its support.

As a result of the prosperity of our work in Boston, the church finds itself in pressing need of enlarged quarters. The title to the property is held by the Trustees of the General Assembly. That the congregation may be enabled to meet the urgent demand for more room and provide for its rapid growth, your committee would recommend:

1. That the Trustees of the Assembly be authorized and directed to convey the title to the property to the congregation at such time and under such conditions as the Board of Church Extension may approve.

2. That the Board be authorized to appropriate as a donation a sum not exceeding $5,000, and to permit a first mortgage for such sum as in their judgment may be necessary and prudent.

A partial report of the Committee on Finance was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON FINANCE.

I. Your Committee respectfully report that we have examined the statements of the treasurers of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Education, Publication, Ministerial Relief, Gibson Trust Fund, and of the General Assembly, and find that these have been properly audited and certified as correct, and we recommend their approval. We have examined the report of the executors and trustees of the Reed estate, and recommend its approval.

II. In view of the added burden placed upon the treasurer of the General Assembly, by the establishment of the general delegate fund, your committee would call attention to the faithful and laborious service, which he gratuitously and cheerfully renders to the Church, and recommend that the thanks of the General Assembly be tendered to him, and to the treasurers of all the Boards and funds of the Church for their services.

III. We ask that warrants be drawn on the Assembly fund for the payment of the following bills:

Expenses of Delegate to Synod of Christian Reformed Church	$ 40.00
" " Moderator's Alternate for 1900	9.40
" " Retiring Moderator	25.00
" " Committee on Article XV	30.00
" " United Presbyterian members of the Committee on Revision of Psalms	68.62
" " Committee of Ways and Means	15.39
" " The Alliance of Reformed Churches	270.00
" " General Committee on Revision of Psalms	15.00
" " Principal Clerk	58.54
" " Second Clerk, including printing	69.00
Bill of Murdoch, Kerr & Co., for printing	19.50
Bill of Rufus Johnson for printing	2.50
Janitor of Albia Church	10.00
Janitor 1st Church, Des Moines	20.00

IV. On the memorial from the Synod of Iowa, asking that the action of the last General Assembly increasing the salary of the Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, $300, be repealed, your committee, while fully sympathizing with all efforts in the direction of wisely economizing the mission funds of the Church, yet in view of the ever increasing efficiency of our worthy Secretary, who for so many years has judiciously and most successfully administered the affairs of our Board of Church Extension, devoting his best energies and practically his whole time to that work, recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be not granted.

V. On the memorial from the Presbytery of Omaha, asking that the treasurers of the Home Mission, Church Extension and Women's Boards be directed to furnish annual statements to the clerks of presbyteries in order to facilitate the auditing of the accounts of Superintendents of Missions, we beg leave to say that in the opinion of your committee the statements accompanying remittances from the treasurers of these Boards is a sufficient voucher. We recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be not granted. .

VI. On the request of the treasurer of the Quarter Centennial Commission, asking for direction in the disposal of a small sum of money in his hands, we recommend that it be made a nucleus for the proposed dormitory at Camden.

VII. The report of the Committee on Ways and Means has been placed in our hands. We call attention to the model constitution prepared by the committee for the use of congregations, and to the sample pages of a church treasurer's record. We commend the efforts put forth by the committee to keep the duty of proportionate and systematic giving before the Church. We sympathize most fully with them in their expressions of appreciation of the character and work of Mr. W. J. Sawyer, and of the loss sustained by the whole Church in his death. We recommend:

1. That By-Law No. 3 of the Model Constitution, submitted by the Committee on Ways and Means, be amended by the substitution of the words "are expected to contribute to," for the words, "pledge themselves to a systematic contribution for."

2. That this Constitution, as thus amended, be adopted as a Model Constitution for the government of congregations.

3. That the Board of Publication be directed to publish this Constitution in pamphlet form and advertise the same.

4. That the Board of Publication be directed to prepare a Church treasurer's record book after the model recommended by the Committee on Ways and Means, and advertize the same.

VIII. On the question of annuities referred to your committee we recommend the adoption of the following: Resolved, That it is the judgment of this General Assembly that, in all ordinary cases, the action of the Assembly of 1897, namely, "the General Assembly hereby authorizes all the Boards to receive donations subject to such annuities and payable in such manner as may be agreed upon, such contributions to be securely invested and the annuity never to exceed the annual interest received." (Vol. IX., p. 288) should be adhered to, yet in exceptional cases discretion be granted to the several Boards.

IX. In the judgment of your committee $5,000 is the amount estimated for the Delegate Fund for the coming year.

X. Your Committee on Finance, to whom was referred the memorial from the officers of the General Assembly on the delegate fund, recommend the adoption of the following rules as permanent regulations for the management of this fund:

REGULATIONS FOR THE DELEGATE FUND.

1. The General Assembly, through its Committee on Finance, shall make an assessment upon all the presbyteries in America for a general delegate fund, the same to be included in the appropriation for the General Assembly Fund.

The assessment shall be according to the membership in the several presbyteries as reported to the Assembly making the assessment, and shall in no case exceed ten cents per member.

2. The financial agent of each presbytery shall receive the amount collected, and forward the same to the treasurer of the General Assembly not later than April 20 of each year. He shall also report to the General Assembly at its first session the distance by the most direct route from a central point in the presbytery to the place of meeting of the General Assembly.

3. The treasurer of the General Assembly shall report to the Assembly at its first session the apportionment to each presbytery for the General Assembly Fund, the amount received from each presbytery, and the percentage of the latter to the former. This report shall be referred to the Committee on Finance.

4. The Committee on Finance shall compute the expenses of each delegate entitled to receive allowance from this fund at the rate of 1½ cents per mile for ministers and 2 cents per mile for ruling elders, and prorate the same to each delegate on the basis of the percentage paid by his presbytery as reported by the treasurer of the General Assembly, and report by presbyteries to the General Assembly. In exceptional cases, where concessions cannot be obtained from the railroad companies, the committee is authorized to allow a higher rate.

5. All the commissioners in attendeance on the sessions of the General Assembly are entitled to the benefits of this fund. The roll of the Assembly, as certified by the principal clerk, shall be accepted as evidence of the attendance required. The expenses to be provided for shall be limited to railroad fare, and that by the shortest route to and from the place of meeting of the Assembly, the delegates availing themselves of any commutation, or special rates that may be offered. Commissioners from presbyteries in foreign lands shall be allowed mileage from their place of residence in this country.

6. The principal clerk, not later than the close of the morning session of the last day of the General Assembly, shall certify to the Committee on Finance the attendance of the commissioners on the sessions of the Assembly.

7. When the report of the Committee on Finance shall have been adopted, the principal clerk shall draw a warrant on the Treasurer of the General Assembly for the aggregate amount, and certify to the Treasurer the amount due to each presbytery, together with the sum to be paid to each delegate.

8. The Treasurer of the General Assembly shall remit to the Financial Agent of each presbytery the amount due to the delegates of that presbytery, who shall, without delay, remit to each delegate the amount due to him.

9. The Committee on Finance shall submit to the General Assembly an estimate of the amount required for the delegate fund for the following year.

We also recommend the adoption of the following: Resolved, That, while we concede the right of a presbytery to provide for the expenses of its own delegates, yet in view of the fact that the establishment of a General Delegate Fund is the act of the highest court of our Church, whose authority we recognize, and that the principle on which it is based is Scriptural as well as fraternal, viz., that the strong should bear the infirmities of the weak and not please themselves, and that the success of the plan depends on the co-operation of all our presbyteries and congregations; we urge all the presbyteries to contribute their full quota to the General Assembly Fund.

After prayer by Rev. James Dodds the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by Elder George Gordon.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on Devotional Exercises was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

Your committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly engage in appropriate devotional exercises at each session, especially before the consideration of the more important questions, and that the time thus spent be wholly at the discretion of the Moderator.

2. That Rev. J. K. McClurkin, D.D., be the alternate of the Moderator to preach the opening sermon of the Forty-fourth General Assembly.

3. That the following pastors of Allegheny, Pa., constitute a Committee on Conferences for the next Assembly: Revs. W. I. Wishart, J. W. Witherspoon, D.D., Geo. W. McDonald.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on a Reform Field Agent was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON A REFORM FIELD AGENT.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Presbytery of Conemaugh, asking the General Assembly to appoint a minister to present the cause of moral and national reform from our pulpits, recommend the adoption of the following:

1. That the General Assembly recognizes the great importance of the movement for National Reform and the need of thorough discussion of the subjects involved by competent men.

2. Inasmuch, however, as there exists already an organization, inter-denominational in character and organized for this especial work, and with which we have affiliated for many years, and under whose auspices a number of our ministers have been employed, it does not seem advisable to make the appointment requested by the Presbytery of Conemaugh.

3. We urge our pastors to give special attention to this matter, and see to it that their people are thoroughly informed on the important subjects connected with moral reform.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Distribution of Important Papers was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF IMPORTANT PAPERS.

There has been referred to us a memorial from the Presbytery of Allegheny, asking that the Clerks of the General Assembly be directed to prepare and distribute annually to presbyteries and sessions official circulars setting forth a schedule of all matters of reference from the General Assembly requiring presbyterial action, and such as are important for the information of sessions. Since it seems to be important that the Assembly should be in direct communication with the inferior courts that are expected to know and carry out its official actions, and since full and accurate information is always helpful in developing interest and in guiding to intelligent and loyal support of our Church, we therefore recommend for adoption the following:

1. That the Clerks of the General Assembly be directed to prepare annually and distribute to all the presbyteries an official schedule of all matters of reference from the General Assembly requiring presbyterial notice and action, including overtures, appointments of days for special observance, quotas, and whatever else should be brought to the attention of presbyteries.

2. That similar schedules, with such modifications as may be found necessary, be annually prepared and distributed to all the sessions throughout the Church for purposes of information.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Publication was read. As amended and adopted, it is as follows:

REPORT ON PUBLICATION.

Your Committee on the Board of Publication would respectfully report that we have examined the matters referred to us, and offer for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. We commend the Board to the confidence and patronage of the Church and the public in general.

2. We heartily approve the action of the Board in making grants to mission churches and Sabbath schools in need, and urge it in the future to do all in its power in this line of work.

3. We are pleased to learn that the Board has prepared a new and enlarged edition of Bible Songs.

4. We urge the Board to collect, as soon as practicable, the various amounts due it, and would advise Sabbath schools and individuals, having accounts with the Board, to settle them as promptly as they can.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Schools was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Two papers were placed in our hands: The statistical table prepared by the chairman of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath schools, and that part of the report of the Board of Publication which refers to Sabbath school work. These papers have been well prepared and are full of interesting information. They show that our Sabbath school work is in excellent condition and is making steady advancement. The number of schools reporting is the same as last year, 932. No reports were received from 39 schools. The total enrollment is 121,755, an increase of 3,192. The average attendance has been 74,912, an increase of 788. The contributions were $121,041, or $11,431 more than ever before. Of this amount $39,115 have been contributed to the Boards of the Church. One of the most gratifying features is the fact that, of 6,158 additions to the Church during the year upon profession of faith, 3,192 were from the Sabbath schools, another proof of its vital importance to the life of the Church. This was a gain of 514 conversions over the preceding year.

The Home Department shows a growing interest. There were 28 Presbyterial conventions during the year, all of which were helpful to the work. Eight hundred and twenty-seven congregations have pastors or stated supplies, and 740 of these are in the Sabbath school. Of the 3,776 elders reported, 2,995 attend the schools. This indicates a deep interest on the part of pastors and elders which is to be commended. May others emulate their worthy example! The desire for music better adapted to children's voices will be partly realized when the next edition of Bible Songs is published. Your committee would submit the following resolutions:

1. We recommend the adoption of the usual order for missionary contributions, viz.: 1st quarter, Foreign Missions; 2d quarter, Home Missions; 3d quarter, Church Extension; 4th quarter, Freedmen's Missions; and that these objects be kept before the schools that the missionary spirit may be developed.

2. We recommend that the 2d Sabbath in June be observed as, "Children's Day," the fourth Sabbath of November as Temperance Day; and that the third Sabbath of October be appointed as a day of special prayer in all our congregations for Sabbath schools.

3. The Home Department is proving to be a helpful auxiliary and should be encouraged.

4. We commend the holding of presbyterial and synodical Sabbath school conventions; and we recommend co-operation with association work in county and state.

5. We urge pastors and presbyterial superintendents to canvass carefully their fields with a view of establishing mission schools..

6. That we may become more efficient in our Sabbath school work, we would urge pastors and superintendents to hold teachers' meetings where practical, to have normal classes, and to study the best methods of work among children. We believe that much good can be derived from introducing kindergarten methods in the primary department, and by acquainting our teachers with established pedagogic principles.

After prayer by Rev. W. M. Butler the Assembly adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

May 29, 1901, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. B. A. McBride.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A request from the Board of Publication for an appropriation was read and referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

The report of the Committee on Statistics was read. As amended and adopted, it is as follows:

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

Your committee would report that there has been submitted to us a memorial from the Synod of Iowa, praying, "Inasmuch as it is desirable and just that a full and clear acknowledgment of all the contributions of the people of the Church be made to them; and inasmuch as, of the four hundred salaries paid in whole or in part from the general funds of the Church, not one is directly reported in the current issue of the minutes of the General Assembly. We therefore petition your honorable body to see that these general funds be reported in the minutes of the General Assembly every year in a complete and clear way, giving definitely the salary of each officer of the Assembly and of the Boards, naming each person and classifying in the same way the salaries of missionaries, professors, and teachers, receiving pay from the general fund in our Church."

Your committee is of the opinion that not all of the items here petitioned for are in the province of the General Assembly to grant; and that other items are already published as requested; for example, the salaries of the officers of many of the Boards, and the expenditures of the Board of Home Missions.

1. However, as the fullest knowledge is needful, we recommend that all the Boards publish separate items of the salaries of their secretary and treasurer, in the summary appended to the minutes.

2. We further recommend that the statistical tables as reported by the Second Clerk be heartily approved by this General Assembly.

3. We further recommend that all pastors be urged to pay special attention to distributing among their people the statistical literature furnished by the several Boards for gratuitous distribution.

The report of the Special Committee on Young People's Work was read. It was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

Three papers have been placed in our hands: 1. A memorial from the young people's presbyterial association of Cedar Rapids Presbytery, asking that "the constitution of the Young People's Christian Union be so amended as to provide for a general convention once in three years." 2. A communication from Rev. W. H. McMillan, D.D., the representative of the United Presbyterian Church on the Board of Trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, stating that the term of office for which he was nominated had expired, and that the United Society desired that this Assembly should again nominate a person to represent them in that body. 3. The annual report of the General Committee on Young People's Work.

I. As to the first; we recommend that the memorialists take the course provided in the constitution of the Young People's Christian Union, and come through the Convention and General Committee on Young People's Work.

II. As to the second; we recommend that the Assembly continue its interest in the Christian Endeavor Society by nominating some one to represent the United Presbyterian Church on the Board of Trustees of the Christian Endeavor Society.

III. As the report of the General Committee on Young People's Work will be printed in the minutes of the Assembly, we give attention only to such recommendations as require special action. We recommend:

1. That Mr. E. B. McKown, acting chairman of the General Committee, be permitted to fill regularly his own term of office as chairman of the General Committee the coming year.

2. That all our young people's societies desiring to print and use the Christian Endeavor prayer meeting topics be directed to correspond with the United Society of Christian Endeavor and obtain their consent to use the same.

W. H. McMillan, D.D., was nominated as Trustee of the United Society of Christian Endeavor for a term of three years.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Membership Covenant was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE MEMBERSHIP COVENANT.

In addition to that part of the report of the Committee on Article XV. of the Testimony concerning the "formula" of questions for the admission of members, which was referred to your committee, there were also put into our hands memorials from the Presbyteries of Lake, Spokane and Puget Sound on the some subject. It is evident from the various representations that there is a demand for some change in the formula of questions to be administered in receiving members into Church fellowship. After a careful examination of the various papers before us, however, we are of the opinion that none of them covers the entire ground which is desirable to embrace in such a covenant. There are matters of supreme importance, as the doctrine of the trinity, the divinity and atoning work of Christ, the Holy Spirit and his work, not mentioned in any of these formulas, but which should have specific assent on the part of all who are received into the membership of the Church. We therefore recommend the following for adoption:

1. There is a demand for an amended and revised formula for the reception of members into the Church.
2. That a committee of five be appointed to prepare such a membership covenant and submit it to the next General Assembly for its consideration, and for overture to the presbyteries if it shall prove satisfactory.
3. That this committee be instructed to publish their report in the Church papers not later than January 1, 1902.

The nomination of the Committee provided for in the second resolution of the above report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The report of the Committee on Correspondence was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

1. Your Committee on Correspondence would respectfully report that two memorials have been put into our hands; one from College Springs Presbytery, asking the Assembly to take some formal action with reference to the international conference of Psalm-singing churches, known as the "Twentieth Century Psalmody Convention," to be held in Belfast, Ireland, during the summer of 1902; and one from Allegheny Presbytery on the same subject, recommending a delegation of ten ministers and ten elders and laymen. We recommend that, as a denomination specially interested in maintaining a Scripture psalmody, the Assembly designate such number, as may be deemed wise, to represent the Church and who can go without expense to the Church.

2. We recommend that the report of Rev. James A. Reed, delegate to the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church in America, announcing his cordial reception and their appointment of two delegates to this Assembly, expressive of their kindly feeling and interest in our United Presbyterian Church, be received.

3. We recommend that the letter of Rev. D. G. Phillips, of Bradley S. C., the delegate appointed by the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, expressing regret at his inability to be present at this meeting of our Assembly, and assuring us of their "warm Christian sympathy and interest in all the doings and prosperity of our United Presbyterian Church" be received and duly acknowledged and reciprocated.

It gives us pleasure to state that from the reports received there is evidence of very cordial relations continued and progress made toward a closer union of effort in the great work of evangelizing the world, and we recommend that the Assembly continue the interchange of fraternal relations with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South and with the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church in America.

4. The report of the Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod, announces no correspondence during the year on the subject of union, that hearty co-operation both in mission and young people's work has been continued and that there is evidence of a growing sentiment in favor of union, but for the present it is judged wise to take no direct steps toward its consummation. We recommend the report be received, and that the committee be continued for the coming year.

5. We would acknowledge the receipt of the certificate of the Executive Commission of the American Section of Reformed Churches, appointing A. G. Wallace, D.D., to present fraternal greetings to the General Assembly of 1901, and recommend that Dr. Wallace be heard immediately after the reading of this report, and that we express our hope and prayer that their effort in the good work be blest.

6. On a letter from the Reformed Church of Porsony, Hungary, narrating their efforts, trials and needs in maintaining and advancing the Lord's cause in that benighted land, your Committee, for want of information, can do no more than recommend them to the kind consideration of our people and friends of the truth everywhere.

7. Your Committee addressed a letter of invitation to Hon. E. H. Conger, U. S. minister to China, to address the General Assembly during the consideration of the report of the Board of Foreign Missions which he has acknowledged, expressing regret that prior engagements rendered it impossible for him to be present, assuring us, however, of his "lively sympathy with the missionaries and of their potent influence in civilizing the Chinese, and the very great need of them and their work in the advancing trade and commercial development of that country."

8. In reply to the fraternal greetings of the Presbyterian General Assembly, the following telegram was sent: "Greeting. Let brotherly love continue."

9. The American Bible Society, through its field secretary, presents its claims and some very interesting history of its workings and what it is accomplishing. We recommend the endorsement of its work and commend it to all our churches and people as worthy of their prayerful consideration and help.

10. Having heard from the field secretary of the American Tract Society for the Northwest of the missionary work accomplished and in progress, of the pressing need of literature, especially among the people of our new possessions and the thousands of immigrants in our great cities. Resolved, That we commend the work of this Society to the consideration and liberality of all our people in their offerings.

In accordance with resolution 5 of the above report, A. G. Wallace, D.D., delegate from the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the world holding to the Presbyterian System, Western Section, addressed the Assembly.

The following report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the preparation of a list of forbidden marriages was read and adopted:

REPORT ON FORBIDDEN MARRIAGES.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures on that portion of the dissent of Revs. Samuel Collins, D.D., and J. A. Bailey to the action of the Assembly on the overture on marriage with a deceased wife's sister, asking for a committee to be appointed "to report to the next Assembly a list of the degrees of consanguinity and affinity within which marriage should not be contracted or permitted," would report:

Inasmuch as the doctrine of the Confession, that "marriage ought not to be within the degrees of consanguinity and affinity forbidden in the Word; nor can such incestuous marriages ever be made lawful by any law of man, or consent of parties, so as those persons may live together as man and wife," was not touched by the overture, and stands unimpaired as the general law of the Church, and by which the courts of the Church are to be guided in determining particular cases as they may arise, it is the judgment of this General Assembly that such action as is contemplated in this request is not required. Therefore,

Resolved, That the request be not granted.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Education was read and adopted, the first resolution by a rising vote. It is as follows:

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

The work of this Board, as appears in its published report, and referred to your Committee, is divided into two departments; one for aiding worthy students to get an education, the other, to aid colleges and seminaries. Your committee recommends the following action:

1. That thanks be given to almighty God for increasing interest in, and gifts to, the work of this Board.
2. As the amounts still fall far short of the appropriation, and as this is the most fundamental part of the Church's work, that pastors and sessions be directed to place the claims of this Board before their congregations for a more liberal financial support, especially the part of this fund for colleges and seminaries.
3. That the Young People's Christian Union be asked to consider this Board as an object of special financial support, inasmuch as education is especially for the youth.
4. That the academies of Pawnee City, Nebraska, and Waitsburg, Washington, be recommended for an appropriation of $500 each, from the College and Seminary fund for the ensuing year.
5. That the request of Southern Illinois Presbytery for $300 for Stutgart College be granted for the ensuing year.
6. That the work of the Board during the past year be heartily commended.

The report from the Committee on Theological Seminaries was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

Through the General Assembly came into our hands reports from the Seminaries of Xenia and Allegheny, and a resolution offered by Rev. W. S. McClure, instructing the faculties of these seminaries at the close of each term to report the excused and unexcused absences from recitations of each student to the presbytery to which he belongs.

It appears that the work of both faculty and students has been thoroughly done; that thirty young men have been sent out recently well prepared to preach the everlasting gospel; that the installation of Prof. Joseph Kyle, D.D., in the Chair of Systematic Theology, during the session just closed in Xenia Seminary has given great pleasure to her Board of Managers and to all her students; that the lives and health of both professors and students have been precious in God's sight, the invasion of scarlet fever in Allegheny having resulted in only two cases, and these in the mildest form; that during the past year $20,000 have been added to Xenia's general endowment fund, and that, in addition to the regular instruction of the professors, helpful lectures have been delivered by invited brethren upon missions and the Sabbath school work. Under these conditions we may well praise the God of providence and grace for the good and great work which is being accomplished by these schools of the prophets. In view of the intellectual and spiritual equipment which may be obtained in these schools for the work of the gospel ministry, we offer for adoption the following:

1. That the pastors and presbyteries be urged to insist earnestly upon theological students to secure their education in our own seminaries.
2. That the propriety of largely increasing the endowment funds of these seminaries be commended to the favorable consideration of the well-to-do people in our communion.
3. That it shall be the duty of the faculties of our Theological Seminaries to keep a faithful record of the attendance of students upon recitations, and at the close of each term, report the excused and unexcused absences from recitations of each student, to the presbytery to which he belongs.

The following resolutions of thanks were offered and adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

1. That we offer our thanks to God for his manifest goodness to us during the meeting of the Assembly.
2. That we hereby express our appreciation of the manly, courteous and judicious manner in which our efficient Moderator has conducted the business of the Assembly.
3. That we thank the pastor of the Church in which we have held our meeting, and the other pastors of the city, for their wise provision to meet our needs and in every way minister to our comfort.
4. That we extend our thanks to the young ladies who have presided over the post office and operated the type-writers, provided for the use of the members of the Assembly, for their efficient and painstaking service.
5. That we extend our thanks to the railroads and street cars for the courtesies shown those in attendance upon the Assembly.
6. That we express our appreciation of the work of our special committees and clerks for the conscientious discharge of the duties assigned to them during the past year.
7. We appreciate the notice by the daily papers of the proceedings of the General Assembly and the accuracy of the reports made by the reporters of the business and discussions.

A. G. WALLACE,
Second Clerk.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Trustees of the General Assembly would respectfully report:

1. The merciful preservation of our lives and our general health during the year.

2. The diligent attendance of most of our number at our meetings, and their interest in the business entrusted to our care.

3. The receipt in full of balance due on the Walker land in Kansas, and the distribution of this and other funds, pro rata, to the different boards.

4. That our appeal in the Mrs. Bell will case, Wis., has been decided in our favor. Whether the contestors will take an appeal, is not yet known. The property in the case will probably amount to $10,000, or $12.000.

5. In the appeal by Rev. J. R. Wallace from the decree of the county court dismissing his suit against the Trustees of the General Assembly, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania reversed the decree, and held that the lower court should take cognizance of the case, and inquire into the regularity of the action of the General Assembly, complained of by Mr. Wallace. The case was heard again, and the trial judge's finding (a copy of which is herewith presented) has been filed, holding that the General Assembly had failed to follow its own rules, and that its action in 1893, sustaining the appeal of Lake Presbytery, was irregular and void. Exceptions to the court's rulings, and findings of fact and law, have been filed by our counsel. These have not yet been argued, and no decision will be made until a hearing shall be had thereon.

6. The executors of the will of Mrs. Mary Stewart, late of Peoria Co., Ill., are now ready to pay over her bequest of $3,000, and they desire the Assembly to designate its agent to receive and receipt for said legacy.

7. The report of the Treasurer, J. D. Fraser, Esq., will be laid before you duly audited.

8. The terms of office of J. D. Fraser, S. L. McHenry and H. W. McKee, Esqs., expire with this meeting of Assembly.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Trustees.

S. Collins, President.

May 20, 1901.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

I. Introductory.

Since the last annual report was made to the General Assembly we have glided out of the old century into the new. The nineteenth century, with its marvelous progress in civilization, the arts and sciences, and especially in publishing the gospel among the nations, has gone its way and is numbered with the ages that have preceded it. Its record, on the whole, bids us thank God and take courage. The twentieth century has dawned hopefully for the world and specially for the cause of foreign missions. The world is opening up more and more for the gospel, and the call of the nations to the Church to come over and help is heard more and more distinctly. The check given to the work by the terrible scenes of the past year in China, it is believed, is only temporary. The missionaries that have survived are returning to their fields and work. The Church at home is more than ever resolved to give the gospel to that land. The soil that has drunk in the precious blood of missionaries and of native Christians, who gave up their lives rather than deny their Lord, will yield more abundant fruit, and China will be blessed as she could not have been save as the result of the rage of many of her misguided people. Like results will no doubt follow the lamentable war that draws to its close in South Africa, and our own war with the Philippinos. The outlook over the world is hopeful.

As we enter the new century the condition of our own foreign mission work bids us to be of good cheer. It is not yet half a century since we entered our present foreign mission fields. The work has made steady and almost uninterrupted progress. It has now advanced to a condition of success that draws the attention and elicits the admiration of the missionary world. Thanks be unto God for his gracious favor to our missionaries and their work, and for his cheering voice calling us to go forward into the century which has opened.

II. The Year.

Life has been continued to the officers and other members of the Board, but the messenger of death has, we grieve to say, visited our foreign fields. While the last Assembly was yet in session, word came from India that Rev. Robert Reed McClure was seriously ill. Earnest prayer was offered by the whole Assembly for him if he yet survived. The day following the Assembly's adjournment the sad news came that Mr. McClure had died at Zafarwal on April 27, of typhoid fever. The stroke was a terrible one, not only to his beloved companion, but also to the whole mission. Mr. McClure had been but a little over two years in the field, and but a short time in the station to which he had been assigned. He was acquiring a good working knowledge of the language. Being an adept in music, his service in that greatly needed line was highly prized. He was a brother beloved by all the mission, and by the native Christians and people. Just when he was entering actively upon his great work in India, and when he was giving promise of being one of the most useful and successful of missionaries, his life came to an end, his work in India was done and his Lord called him to his reward in a higher sphere. The mystery of his being taken so early, and from a sphere in which he was so much needed, and from effective labor for which he was so well qualified by nature, by acquisition and by grace, is beyond our ken. We can only say, "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight."

Near the close of September the sorrowful word came from Alexandria, Egypt, that Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sowash had died in the hospital at that place on the 4th of that month. She was ill of typhoid fever only a week. Her unexpected death was a crushing blow not only to her husband, but to the whole mission. By her amiable life she had endeared herself to all. Her husband, left with three motherless children, the oldest being less than four years of age, had the tender sympathy of all the missionaries, and of the Board and the whole Church at home.

We record also in this connection the death of Mary Cummings, little daughter of Rev. T. F. and Mrs. Anna A. Cummings, at Pasrur, India, on May 1, 1900, and that of little Agnes Reed, daughter of Rev. W. H. and Mrs. B. E. Reed, in the hospital at Alexandria, Egypt, on May 15. The bodies of these little ones were laid to rest in mission cemeteries, with faith in him who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me."

The Work in both mission fields has continued during the year along the usual and well-established lines. The annual report, prepared with much care by the missionaries, will be published soon after the adjournment of the Assembly, and will show a good measure of success in the various departments of missionary effort.

The Educational Work has received a special stimulus. The mission in Egypt requested the Board to authorize J. R. Alexander, D.D., while on his furlough in this country, to solicit funds for the better equipment of Asyut Training College, of which he is President. The Board granted Dr. Alexander leave to solicit aid for this object, especially from individuals having means. A number of brethren in Pittsburgh and vicinity took hold of the matter with great earnestness, resolving to raise $100,000 for necessary buildings and the equipment of the institution. It is confidently expected that the entire amount will be subscribed and paid within three years. This is noble, and will be a blessing to Asyut College and to Egypt for all time to come.

The Mission in India, at the annual meeting in October last, resolved to ask the Board to add $12,000 to the estimates for the current year for the purpose of erecting and equipping a suitable building for Gordon Mission College, at Rawal Pindi. This was only beginning to be known in this country, when Miss Eleanor C. Law and Miss Ina Law Robertson, of Chicago, gladdened the hearts of the members of the Board by the information that they had decided to contribute the entire amount of $12,000 for the object specified. For this munificent gift they received the most hearty thanks of the Board, and the whole mission in India has been made to rejoice. The Board has directed the mission to proceed with the building for the college, and as speedily as possible it will be pushed to completion. The new building was absolutely essential to the success of the institution. When it shall be completed it is confidently anticipated that the college will take a fresh start forward, and that it will in time become a blessing to the mission in India, like the blessing that Asyut Training College has become to the mission in Egypt.

The Famine in India, while not affecting our mission field directly, except in the increase of the price of the necessaries of life, yet elicited the sympathy of our whole Church in this country. Contributions for the relief of the sufferers were freely made, and more than $30.000 passed through the hands of our Treasurer. A considerable part of the money was sent by our missionaries to fellow-missionaries in the famine-smitten districts, and was by them distributed. Some of our missionaries, accompanied by native workers, personally visited famine districts and brought back with them a large number of orphan children. Many of these, weakened by starvation, died by the way or after reaching our field. Those that have survived have been provided for in industrial schools established for the purpose. In these they are being instructed religiously, and will be taught at the same time some handicraft by which, when grown, they will be able to support themselves. A number of them have already accepted and confessed Christ as their Saviour. Those that give evidence of ability will be further taught in the mission schools, and it is hoped that not a few of them will, in time, become effective laborers in the mission, some of them ministers of the gospel. The mission has made arrangements for expending the balance of the fund in educating and training these orphans.

III. The Finances.

The Assembly last year, including an excess of expenditure by the mission in Egypt for the year 1898, appropriated for the entire work for the year $132,836.48. This amount did not include $24.000 pledged by the Women's Board, Presbyterial Societies, etc., and did include $12.262 indebtedness from the year preceding. The whole amount to meet all the demands for the year was $156,836.48. From all sources our Treasurer has received for the regular work for the current year $162,727.92. Were it not for indebtedness not included in the appropriations of last year and for expenditures then underestimated, the Board would have closed the year without debt.

It should be stated in this connection that, of the whole amount received by our Treasurer, $54.419.04 was from legacies, or gifts which were substantially legacies. The average amount from legacies which came into the treasury annually for the six preceding years was $14,608. Had the Board received only this average amount from legacies for the past year, the sum of the receipts would have been nearly $40,000 less than they were, and the debt of the Board at the end of the year would have been more than $42,000, instead of $8,949.07, as it is. It is believed that the receipts by the Treasurer were lessened considerably by the knowledge of the fact that the Board had received such large amounts in legacies, by contributions to the India Famine Fund and other special objects. Be this as it may, it must be plain to every thoughtful mind that the Church should not rely upon legacies to meet, to any large extent, the appropriations for the work made by the Assembly. There is nothing certain about legacies from year to year but their uncertainty. They are received with gratitude when they come, and great good is done by money given in this way, but the Church must not rely upon a source of income that is so uncertain in its amounts from year to year. The aim should be to meet the entire appropriation made by the Assembly by direct contributions.

The Board would add in this connection that the mission in Egypt has again in its expenditures exceeded the appropriation made by the Assembly. At the time of the previous overexpenditure, the Board represented most strongly to the mission the imperative necessity of keeping the expenditures within the appropriations, and the serious consequences which must follow any other practice, and later also the President of the Board personally presented the same subject to the missionaries in the field. Notwithstanding this the Treasurer of the mission reports an expenditure of $4,988.36 above the amount authorized by the Assembly for the year 1900. The expenditure was more than the mission's own estimate for the work. As soon as this fact was learned, the Board gave the mission word that it could not recognize this extra expenditure, and recommended that the excess, as far as practicable, be charged to the account of the stations that had overdrawn the amounts to which they were legitimately entitled according to the appropriation made. The matter as thus stated is referred to the Assembly for such direction as it may deem best to give.

In order to prevent the recurrence of overexpenditure it should be stated that in the month of December last a series of new rules, relating to financial matters in our missions, was adopted and sent to the missions. These rules are now being acted upon in the missions, and it is believed that they will effectually prevent any expenditure in excess of the appropriations as made by the General Assembly from year to year.

V. Estimates for the Year.

The estimates, as received from the mission in Egypt for the current year, amount to $77,792. Those from India sum up $78,417. The Board cannot recommend the Assembly to appropriate these amounts with any reasonable hope that they, together with the amount required for all other absolutely necessary expenses, will be put into the treasury by the Church. After the most careful consideration the Assembly is asked to make the following appropriations:

To	India	$ 65,000 00
"	Egypt	70,000 00
For	Salaries of Missionaries at Home	3,700 00
"	Children of Missionaries in America	1,200 00
"	Traveling Expenses of Missionaries	6,000 00

"	Printing, Postage, and Incidentals	2,000 00
"	Emergencies	3,000 00
"	Interest on borrowed money	1,200 00
"	Debt of past year	8,949 07
"	Soudan Mission	5,075 00
		$169,624 07

These estimates include $24,000 pledged by the Women's Board, Presbyterial Societies, Sabbath schools, congregations, individuals, and $5,075.00 for the Soudan Missions, which amounts are to be deducted from the above total. The whole amount, which the Assembly is asked to appropriate for the year for the entire work of the Board, is thus $140,549.

VI. Missionaries.

(1) Home on Furlough.

It was reported to the last Assembly that Miss Elizabeth G. Gordon, Mrs. Belle G. Lytle and Miss Rosa A. McCullough were on the way to this country from India. They arrived safely on May 12, 1900. Miss Gordon and Mrs. Lytle have retired from the mission work. Miss McCullough hopes to return to her field in the ensuing autumn.

J. R. Alexander, D.D. and family, and Miss Leonora J. McDowell arrived in this country on furlough from Egypt on July 23, 1900. They expect to return in the fall of this year.

Miss Mary A. Lawrence and Miss Ella M. Gordon, having fulfilled their first term or service, were granted leave to come home from India on furlough. They came by the eastern route and arrived on the Pacific coast on April 24.

Mrs. A. B. Caldwell and two of her children accompanied them. It was necessary for her to come home in advance of her furlough in order to care for her other children, who had been left in this country. Her husband, Rev. A. B. Caldwell, will remain in the field until the regular time for his furlough. It having been found necessary for Mrs. T. L. Scott to come to this country from India on account of her children, she was granted leave to come home. She is expected here at an early day. The husband and father will remain in his place in the mission until his time for furlough shall expire. Miss Mary A. Platter, M.D., has also been granted leave to come from India on furlough. She will not leave her field until late in this year or early in 1902. William Harvey, D.D., Mrs. Harvey and Miss Anna Y. Thompson were given leave to come home on furlough from Egypt. Miss Thompson arrived on May 6. Dr. and Mrs. Harvey will come about midsummer.

Miss Jessie J. Hogg, by a special arrangement, was allowed to spend five months of this summer on furlough from her work in Egypt in Scotland, the residence of her mother. On account of the illness of her brother in Egypt, she may not be able to avail herself of this period of change and rest.

(2) Return After Furlough.

(a) To India.

Mrs. S. E. Johnson, M.D., sailed on August 11, and arrived in the mission on October 18. Rev. E. L. Porter and wife sailed on August 18, and, after spending some time with Mrs. Porter's relatives in England, arrived on November 23.

Robert Stewart, D.D., and Mrs. Stewart sailed from San Francisco on September 15, and arrived on November 10.

Rev. W. T. Anderson and family and Miss Marion M. Embleton sailed on September 2, and, after having spent a short time seeing the missionaries and work in Egypt, arrived on October 23.

(b) To Egypt.

John Giffen, D.D., leaving his family in this country, sailed on July 21, in order to act as President pro tem. of Asyut Training College during Dr. Alexander's absence. He arrived on August 19, and at once entered upon his special work in the college.

Rev. Samuel G. Hart and family, V. M. Henry, M.D., and family, and Miss Helen J. Ferrier sailed on October 6 and arrived October 28.

Miss Carrie M. Buchanan and Mrs. Amanda R. Morrow sailed on January 22, 1901, and arrived on February 7. By a private arrangement Mrs. Morrow has gone to have charge of the children and home of Rev. George A. Sowash.

(3) Resignations.

Rev. Ralph E. Carson, who has been at home from Egypt for several years on account of his health, sent his resignation as a missionary to the Board in the month of April. As he has not yet fully tested the matter of health, and as his heart is still in the work in Egypt, to which he hopes at some time to return, the Board for the present declined to accept the resignation.

Rev. K. W. McFarland, who last year returned on his first furlough from Egypt, deemed it best, because of the condition of his health and for other reasons satisfactory to himself, to offer his resignation as a missionary. The Board deeply sympathized with Mr. McFarland and regretfully accepted his resignation at their meeting on April 8. The relations of Mr. McFarland with the mission and the Board have been through all the years of his service of the most pleasant character. His experience in the mission field will no doubt be of great advantage to him in taking up work in this country.

(4) New Missionaries.

It was with regret that the Board learned that Rev. Orin A. Keach and Miss Charlotte McArthur, M.D., because of insuperable difficulties, could not go to the fields to which they were appointed by the last General Assembly. Rev. W. J. Brandon accepted his appointment to India. He and Mrs. Brandon set out for their field on September 15, and arrived safely in the mission on October 22.

Miss Helen J. Ferrier accepted her appointment to Egypt. She left this country on October 6 and reached her destination on October 28.

Dr. Robert Stewart accepted the position to which he had been chosen as theological professor by the Synod of the Punjab, and, after an absence of a number of years in this country, again resumed his work in the India mission.

As Rev. Orin A. Keach could not go to the mission in Egypt, the Board at their meeting on September 10 appointed Rev. W. R. Coventry to supply the vacancy. He accepted the appointment, and he and Mrs. Coventry sailed for their field on November 10. They arrived safely on December 5.

The death of Rev. Robert Reed McClure left a vacancy in the India mission. As the need was great the Board assumed the responsibility of appointing Rev. Robert Maxwell to fill the vacant place. The appointment was made on August 6, and on September 15 Mr. Maxwell and wife set out for their field. They reached the mission in the Punjab on October 22.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Alice McClure expressed her desire to remain in India and be employed in the capacity of a single woman missionary. As she had acquired a good working use of the language and had other excellent qualifications for effective work, and being also recommended by the Women's Board, she was, on November 12, appointed a missionary. Her support, as is that of all the single women missionaries, is provided by the Women's Board.

As Rev. J. Kelly Giffen was chosen by the Missionary Association in Egypt the first American missionary to the Soudan, and as it was not deemed wise or safe for him to be in that region beyond the reach of a physician, and as H. T. McLaughlin, M.D., had been two years in Egypt, the Board, by request of the mission, appointed Dr. McLaughlin as the first medical missionary to the Soudan.

The Assembly is asked to ratify all of these appointments which have been made in the interim of its meetings.

The mission in India requested that at least two ordained missionaries, four single women and two laymen to be employed as professors in Gordon Mission College, be sent out this year. The Board, to meet the request as far as possible, at their meeting on March 11, appointed Mr. J. H. Morton, who was completing his course of study in the Allegheny Seminary, and, on April 8, Professor W. E. Nichol, of Tarkio College, to that mission.

On the recommendation of the Women's Board, Miss Margaret A. Bell was appointed to the mission in Egypt at the meeting of the Board on May 6. The Assembly is asked to ratify the appointment of these new missionaries. As four single women missionaries are asked for by the mission in India, and as the Women's Board is not at this date prepared to make any nominations of suitable persons, the Assembly is asked to give authority to appoint and send out one or more young women to India, if the properly qualified ones can be found.

VII. The Missions.

(1) India.

The missionaries in India were cheered during the year by the return of those who had been on furlough in this country, and by the arrival of the new missionaries sent out. The munificent gift of $12,000 made by the Misses Law and Robertson for the erection and equipment of a suitable building for Gordon Mission College caused every heart to rejoice. A building for the Theological Seminary is greatly needed. That institution has been without a local habitation for twenty-three years. It is hoped that some generous friend, or friends, will in the near future supply the means to meet this pressing need. With a well-equipped college and theological seminary, the mission would go forward with new energy and greatly increased success.

While the famine did not directly affect any of our mission districts, yet the increase in cost because of it of the necessaries of life caused many removals of our native Christians and others to the new districts lately provided with irrigation by the government. This has rendered a change in some of the mission districts necessary, and the new district of Khangra Dogran has been established. It is believed that not a few of our members who have removed from other districts will thus be recovered and that this well-watered and prosperous region will show specially good results in the line of missionary effort.

The work has gone on during the year in the usual lines and with an encouraging measure of success.

SUMMARIZED STATISTICS.

Ordained ministers 18, wives of missionaries 17, unmarried women 23, medical missionaries 2. Total 59. Ordained native ministers 12, one ordained during the year, licentiates 9, theologues 9, teachers 91, other mission employees 139. Total native workers 260.

Synod 1, presbyteries 3, principal stations 9, out stations 218, work in villages 468, organized congregations 20, seven of which have pastors and one of which is self-supporting. Membership 6,987, a net gain for the year, 851. Members received on profession 547. Contributed for church purposes $1,227.

Sabbath schools 113, teachers 209, pupils 3,575. Day schools 113, teachers 281, pupils 6,513, fees $8.593. Gordon Mission College enrolled during the year about 75. Christian Training Institute enrollment 152. Girls' boarding schools Sialkot enrollment 130, Pasrur enrollment 30. Theological Seminary professors 2, students 9.

Medical missionaries 2, assistants 3, hospitals 2, patients treated 26,043.

Books—Bibles and portions sold (partial report) 977, other books 1,694. Receipts $266.

The total amount contributed by natives for all purposes was $9,820, a gain of $894 over the preceding year.

(2) Egypt.

The work in this mission has gone forward as usual during the year, and has been prospered in every department. The net gain in membership has not been as large as in some preceding years, but it shows that there is a steady and wholesome growth. Each year the mission expands, and new towns, villages and stations are occupied. The mission has been greatly cheered by the news of the movement here at home to secure buildings and equipment for Asyut Training College.

The following summary of statistics will be studied with interest:

STATISTICS.

Ordained ministers 18, wives of missionaries 17, unmarried women 11, medical missionaries 4, professors in college 1. Total 51. Native ordained ministers and pastors 33, licentiates 21, theological students 10, native workers 50, shopmen and colporteurs 36. These go into almost every part of the land. Synod 1, presbyteries 4, students licensed in February, 1901, 5; organized congregations 50, five of which are self-supporting. Other stations 213. Membership 6,526, a net gain of 147. Increase by profession 453. Attendance on Sabbath morning service 13,029. Contributions by natives for definitely religious purposes $24,258. The evangelical community numbers about 25,000.

Sabbath schools 147, teachers 375, scholars 9,697, contributions $790. Day schools 186, teachers 358, pupils 14,181. Tuition by natives $34,783. Asyut Training College enrolled during the year 604.

Books—Bibles sold 17,030, receipts $3,366; religious books 10,906, receipts $1,768; educational books 46,654, receipts $7,442; receipts for stationery $2,006; total volumes 74,590. Total receipts $13,582.

Medical missionaries 4, assistant 1, nurse 1, patients treated 24,954. Receipts not given.

The total receipts from the natives for all purposes, not including medical fees, were for the year $72,623, or considerably more than the entire sum appropriated by the General Assembly for the whole work for the year.

Surely these statistics of our missions should cause the whole Church to rejoice and to go forward in the work with increased energy.

VIII. The Soudan Mission.

The last General Assembly authorized the Board to begin work in the region of Khartum as soon as in its judgment might be practicable. The Board at their meeting in June directed the mission in Egypt to send one of their number, as soon as the way seemed open, to inaugurate the work. There was considerable delay in getting the consent of the government. When it was obtained, it was upon the condition that work be confined to the Protestants in the region of Khartum and the non-Moslem population of the White Nile.

The mission, as directed by the Board, after the most careful and prayerful consideration, selected Rev. J. Kelly Giffen as the first missionary to the Soudan. He left Egypt for Khartum on November 30, and arrived at Umderman on December 10. He was preceded by a native evangelist sent as the representative of the Synod of the Nile, and by a colporteur supported by the British and Foreign Bible Society. Dr. H. T. McLaughlin followed Mr. Giffen on December 19. Their path was opened up in a way that indicated the leading of the divine hand. The Governor General (Sirdar) showed them special kindness, and they were well received by all classes of the people. After remaining for a time at Khartum and beginning some work there, they went on a tour of exploration up the White Nile as far as Tewfikiah and also for some distance on the River Tobat. After the most careful consideration of the whole field, they report to the Mission Association in Egypt and to the Board in favor of opening mission work at a station which they designate Dolaib Hill, about ten miles above the mouth of the Sohab River and the same distance from Tewfikiah. As there is freedom to work among the non-Moslem tribes in this region, and as work in it will be in exact accordance with the conditions of the fund given to the Board by the Freedmen's Missions Aid Society of London, it is recommended that the mission work in the Soudan be begun at this station. The estimated cost of this mission for the year is $5,075. As the fund furnished by the London Society will more than meet the expenditure already made and the estimate for this year, it is recommended that the above sum be appropriated from the Soudan fund. It is further recommended that this shall be a distinct mission, to be known as the Soudan Mission. As the fund in hand for the support of this mission will be only about $3,600 after the end of the current year, it is earnestly hoped that those throughout the Church who have specially urged the advance by our Church on the Nile will make special and liberal contributions for the support of this mission to tribes that have never heard that there is a Saviour for lost and perishing sinners.

The report of the missionaries who have explored the field to the Association in Egypt and to the Board is herewith laid before the Assembly, that it may with the fullest intelligence possible consider and act upon this forward movement in our missionary operations. It should be added that the work that has been initiated in Khartum is to be continued and provided for by the native church in Egypt—or the Synod of the Nile.

IX. Miscellaneous.

1. The Board, being more and more convinced from year to year that only those missionaries should remain in the fields who have in the first term of their service acquired a fair working use of the language and otherwise shown that they have qualifications for effective work, at their meeting in December, 1900, adopted the following: "That the Board direct the Missionary Association in India and Egypt, in acting upon the application for a first furlough, to vote upon the application in this form: (1) Shall the application for a furlough be approved? (2) Shall the Board be requested to return the missionary to the field after furlough? (3) The vote in each case may be by ballot."

2. At the same meeting the following action relating to estimates was taken: "That the missions be absolutely required in the beginning of each year not to exceed the appropriations of the preceding year, until they shall be officially notified of the appropriations made for the new year by the General Assembly; and it is further directed that the appropriations for each year shall begin with July and end with June 30 of the next year."

3. The Missionary Association in Egypt at their last annual meeting adopted the following: "That we recommend that the Association ask the Board to take steps to secure a charter for Asyut Training College, with authority to confer academic degrees." The Board asks the Assembly to give effect to this action of the Association.

4. The Board hereby requests the Assembly so far to modify its action relating to annuities as to grant leave to pay interest on the same at a rate not exceeding five per cent. in any case.

X. Special Obligations.

The Board desires to express its special obligations to individuals, etc., for favors during the year as follows:

1. To Miss Eleanor C. Law and Miss Ina Law Robertson, for their munificent gift of $12,000 for the erection of a suitable building for Gordon Mission College, India.

2. To the heirs of the late Mr. John Christie, of East Greenwich, N. Y.; George Christie, Eliza Christie, Jane Christie, William D. Christie, Alexander McGeoch, William John McGeoch, Agnes McGeoch and Mrs. Jane Maxwell, for making good to the full amount the sum of $20,000 which their brother and uncle had verbally requested should go to the Board after his decease.

3. To Mr. Charles J. Deacon, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for managing in the Board's interest the donation of $22,200.13 by the late Mr. James Leghorn and settling up without remuneration after Mr. Leghorn's death the whole donation, according to the agreeement made some years previously between the said Mr. Leghorn and the Board.

4. To Lord Cromer, his Majesty's representative in Egypt, to Sir Wingate Pasha, Sirdar of the Soudan, for their very kind and generous treatment of our pioneer missionaries to Khartum and that region.

5. To the Women's Board for their continued support of the single women missionaries in our fields, the medical work by women, the Girls' Boarding School at Sialkot, India, and for generous contributions for other parts of the work.

6. To the American Bible Society, the British and Foreign Bible Society, the Turkish Mission's Aid Society, the Messrs. Muller in Egypt, and other friends in the mission fields who have generously aided our work.

7. To Mr. J. J. Porter, Dr. J. K. McClurkin, Dr. R. M. Russell, John D. Fraser and others in Pittsburgh and vicinity, who have devised and are working out so nobly the project for the equipment of Asyut Training College, in Egypt.

8. To Mrs. Eliza J. Blackwood, Erie, Pa.; Miss Elvina Mackenison, Monmouth, Ill.; Mrs. Sarah A. Wallace, East Palestine, Ohio; Mr. J. B. Clayworth, Oskaloosa, Iowa; Mrs. R. C. Montieth, Montieth, Mich.; Mr. Matthew Nickle, Hookstown, Pa.; Rev. J. Howard Tate, New York; John P. Duncan, Esq., New York; Mrs. D. C. Rockwell, Garrattsville, New York; E. Z. Paul, Monmouth, Ill.; Mr. D. T. Reed, Pittsburgh; Mr. James R. Connell; three members of South Henderson, Ill.; "X. Y. B." and many others, who would only be known as "Friend," "Contributor," "Friend of Missions," etc., etc., for liberal contributions to its funds.

9. To the several papers of the Church and the Women's Missionary Magazine for space freely given during the year for the "Monthly Statement," letters from missionaries and other communications relating to the great cause of missions.

10. The Assembly is asked to express its thanks to all of these special helpers, and, above all, to God for his favors to our Board, missions and work throughout another year.

By order of the Board,
M. G. Kyle, President.
W. W. Barr, Cor. Sec'y.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board of Home Missions submits to the General Assembly its regular annual report, and in connection therewith begs leave to say that it has given diligent and prayerful attention to the work committed to its care during the year. The regular monthly meetings have been held and effort has been made to ascertain the needs of the home mission field and, as far as possible, provide for them.

Thankful acknowledgment is made of God's blessing upon the work. The Board also records its appreciation of the faithful labors of the missionaries, and the support which these workers and the congregations in their charge have received from the Church.

Payments to Presbyteries	71,051	72,532	79,659
Entire expenditures, year ending March 31	83,172	87,642	82,585

The foregoing figures show a net increase of 1,394 in membership, and a gain of 121 teachers and 2,017 scholars in the Sabbath schools. The stations raised $8,030 more for the salaries of their ministers, $449 less for the general work of the Church; the total for these two purposes being larger by $7,531. The amount paid to stations was $7,127 more than for last year, the total payments being the largest ever made. Twelve stations pass from the list of dependent congregations.

During the past two years quite a number of new missions have been started, and in the newer stations generally the work is in a more vigorous and prosperous condition than in the majority of those in the older class. The only limit to extending the work still farther into new fields is that fixed by the contributions of the Church for this work. The advance has already been pushed beyond what the Church has provided the means to sustain, and still there are scores of needy and promising fields that have not been entered by our Church. The Board respectfully and earnestly asks the General Assembly to take note of these conditions. It would also ask that this fundamental and all-important work be given a larger place, financially, in the consideration of the Church.

II. Grants by the Board. Acting upon the recommendation of the General Committee, the last General Assembly referred to the Board the applications for aid presented by several stations and, in order to meet their needs if grants should be made to them, the sum of $4,425 was placed at the disposal of the Board. In like manner, the sum of $5,000 was set apart to meet emergencies that might arise during the year.

The Board has appropriated for cases thus referred to it, as follows: A. R. Synod of the South, Charlotte, Second, N. C., $200; Corsicana, Texas, $450; Louisville, Ky., $175; Los Angeles, Los Angeles Second, $800, none of which has been called for, Wildomar, $500; New York, Bronx, $1,000; Omaha, Alliance, $600; San Francisco, Morgan Hill, $600. Total, $4,325.

To meet emergencies the following appropriations have been made, viz.: Chicago, Cuyler, $300, for three months, not called for; Cleveland, Barberton, $600; Kansas City, Lawrence, $200, settlement; Keokuk, Harrison, $200 additional on condition build parsonage before May 15, 1901; Lake, Erie, Brown Avenue, $700, settlement; Mansfield, Fredericksburg, $200, settlement; Monongahela, McDonald, French mission, $600; Thirteenth, Pittsburg, $200, settlement; Omaha, Dunbar, $100 additional; Pittsburg, Springfield, $25 additional; Puget Sound, Everett, Ebenezer, $300; Westmoreland, East McKeesport, $200, settlement; Wisconsin, exploring Minneapolis and St. Paul, $42; Xenia, Columbus, First, $105 additional, settlement. Total, $3,772. In some of these cases the grants do not apply from the first of the year and, therefore, the full amount will not be paid.

III. Special Missions. Thirty-two stations have been in the care of the Board as special missions during the past year. With few exceptions these missions have had the regular services of pastors or stated supplies. All are now so settled, and it is expected that the ministers at present in charge will so continue for the coming year, except in one or two cases.

Special reports have been received from all of these missions, and the work in nearly all of them is in an encouraging condition. In the case of all whose terms continue beyond the current year the Board, in accordance with the regulations, has made grants and appointed missionaries for the coming year. The amounts thus granted and other general facts in reference to these missions appear in the tabular statement which follows. In some instances the grant is less than was asked. It is the judgment of the Board that some of the congregations could reasonably be expected to give more for salary than was promised in the application.

At the end of this year expires the term of eleven of these stations, viz.: Burlington, Ia.; Columbus, Neil Ave.; Davenport, Ia.; Denver, Boulevard; Pasadena, Cal.; St. Louis, Wagoner Place; Spokane, Wash. All of these except Burlington, Columbus Neil Ave. and Denver Boulevard ask to be continued for another term. Their requests, together with those of stations seeking to be made special missions for the first time, will be considered and acted upon by the General Committee.

IV. The Work of the Women's Board. As in former years, the co-operation of the Women's Board has been a great aid in our home mission work.

For Indian work, which is wholly in their care, they expended, last year, $2,928.80; for Messiah mission, Jewish, Chicago, $1,200; Italian mission, Pittsburg, $422.50; Polish mission, $555; Salaries of missionaries under their direction, $2,422.40; McNaugher mission, Allegheny, $100; San Jose, $500; Oneonta, $500; to different missions, by request of donors, $137. This Board continues to support a number of women missionaries who labor chiefly in large cities in connection with congregations.

Acknowledgment is especially made of the generous aid given for the specific work in the care of our Board. After some correspondence and conference in reference to further co-operation, they kindly agreed to appropriate the amount required for the support of the new work in the care of our Board, $8,400. This generous help, which was greatly needed, is most cordially appreciated.

V. The Sliding Scale and the Fifteen-Year Limit Rules. Of the 218 stations that have been receiving aid, and that are applying for grants next year, there are only 54 that do not come under the sliding scale rule, and of these 13, on account of age, come under the 15-year limit. Thirty-eight ask no more than the sliding scale allows, but 15 of them come under the 15-year limit. One hundred and twenty-six ask more than is permitted by the sliding scale, and of this number 68 would be excluded by the time limit. Thus, exemption from the sliding scale for 126 stations, and from the 15-year limit for 96, is recommended by presbyteries.

The facts just stated show that there is little disposition to conform to these just and wholesome regulations. Some exceptions, of course, ought to be made, but when exemption is so generally sought and is so readily granted, the purpose of the rules in question is defeated. Advance in our home mission work will be slow, and often impossible, so long as this practice continues. If old stations are permitted to absorb all the money that the Church is willing to contribute for this work, new stations cannot be taken up.

VI. SUPPLIES FOR VACANT CONGREGATIONS AND EMPLOYMENT FOR UNSETTLED MINISTERS. As stated in the report of last year, the system supposed to be in operation at present is not effective, and evidently cannot be made so. After earnest effort on the part of the Board it was discovered that only about 12 per cent. of the unemployed ministers were willing to co-operate in the plan, and therefore it could not be carried out. According to it, save in the case of special missions, the Board can appoint only upon the specific request of presbytery. Not a single request for the appointment of a man whose name appeared on the list sent to presbyteries, was received. The Board has endeavored in every way in its power to aid presbyteries in procuring supplies for their vacancies and unemployed ministers in securing appointments. It is hoped that the report of the committee appointed by the last General Assembly will result in some satisfactory adjustment of this matter, though it will be difficult to devise a plan that will be practicable and satisfactory to all concerned.

Under the head of Sabbath Schools and Young People, $1,761.33 were received from the 10th anniversary fund, and the balance, $33.40, includes only such offerings of the Sabbath schools as were sent directly to our treasurer, the amounts sent through financial agents not being separately reported. The amount from Ladies' Missionary Societies includes the special grant of $8,400 by the Women's Board.

The payments to presbyteries, as heretofore stated, were $7,126.50 more than for last year. This is accounted for by the extension of the work, especially in cities where the demands are large and have to be met almost entirely by grants.

The expenditures exceeded the total receipts by $1,664.40. There was an indebtedness at the beginning of the year of $3,903.35. Thus the year closes with a debt of $5,567.75.

Attention is called to the fact that the receipts from presbyteries were $3,036.52 less than for last year. The explanation of this the Board does not undertake to give, but it so vitally affects the work that it calls for serious consideration, especially in connection with the making of grants for the coming year. There is, perhaps, some explanation in the large amount contributed by the people of our Church to special objects during the year, but it is the belief of the Board that if the claims of the regular work of the Church were properly presented to the congregations they would give it larger financial support. Without discouraging the spirit of liberality toward all worthy objects, it is the feeling of the Board that congregations should be encouraged to give the regular work of the Church the first and chief place in the matter of contributions, and not permit outside calls, especially those for objects that are not in the care of responsible organizations, to interfere with their duty to this work.

The large receipts from other sources this year prevented the incurring of a large additional indebtedness, but support from such sources cannot be depended on; the reliance must be upon the regular offerings of the congregations, and if this work is to advance these offerings must be largely increased.

VIII. The Coming Year. From all of our presbyteries, except those in foreign countries, reports have been received. Fifty-seven presbyteries present requests for aid from the home mission funds for 240 stations. The A. R. Church of the South asks aid for five stations. Four old congregations ask aid for the first time, to the amount of $900. There are 18 applications for appropriations for strictly new work, aggregating $12,500, for specific requests. In three cases the applications are general and the amounts desired are not stated. The specific requests aggregate $98,793. This sum will be increased by the three general applications and those of two stations which came too late to be included in the statistical statement.

As heretofore stated, the Board has acted on the applications of special missions whose terms continue beyond the present year. According to the regulations prescribed by the General Assembly, all other cases will be presented to the General Committee of Home Missions, to meet in Albia, Iowa, May 15, 1901.

The term of service of the present corresponding secretary, who was elected to take the place of Rev. W. S. Owens, D.D., resigned, and of the following members of the Board: Rev. David Barclay, D.D., Rev. J. K. McClurkin, D.D., and A. M. Scott, Esq., expires June 30, 1901.

The statistical table of home mission congregations, and the report of the treasurer, which has been audited according to the requirement of the General Assembly, are herewith presented.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

Alexander Gilchrist,
Corresponding Secretary.

J. K. McClurkin, President.
J. W. English, Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The forty-second annual meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions was held in Albia, Iowa, May 15-22, 1901. All the presbyteries in America, except Brookville, Illinois Central, Princeton and Vermont, were represented by delegates. Representatives of the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension were also present. Rev. C. H. Strong, D.D., of Arkansas Valley Presbytery, was elected chairman. Rev. J. D. Barr, of Mercer Presbytery, was elected recording secretary, and Rev. S. G. Huey, of Wisconsin Presbytery, was chosen assistant secretary.

Applications for aid from the home mission funds were presented by fifty-seven presbyteries for two hundred and forty-one stations. The total amount thus applied for was $104,413.

This is the largest number of applications ever presented in any year. It is worthy of notice, also, that the requests for new work exceeded in number and the amount asked those of any previous year. There were twenty-six applications in this list calling for $18,150, all but three being for strictly new work. These facts the committee regarded as evidence of a healthy condition, and the right spirit in our home mission work. The committee felt that almost without exception the requests for new work presented inviting fields, but at the same time it was felt that the amount that could reasonably be expected from the Church for home missions for the coming year would not warrant the taking up of work in all the fields thus presented, and great perplexity was experienced in selecting the ones to be entered. The work of the committee was entered upon and performed throughout with earnest prayer for divine guidance and with a desire to make the wisest appropriation of the Church's money. The following report gives the result of the committee's deliberations: Appropriations are recommended as follows: For special missions in the care of the Board, $23,070; for other stations aided in former years, $57,218; for new work, $9,745; to the Board to meet emergencies, $5,000; to provide for the payment of debt, $5,567. In the new work four stations with $3,000, and in the old work seven stations with $3,700, for special reasons, were referred either to the Board or to presbyteries.

The total amount granted, $100,550, is the least that in the judgment of the committee could be appropriated without doing serious injury to the work. After the stations had all been passed upon, it was found that the aggregate appropriations exceeded the sum that the committee was willing to recommend. As the most feasible way out of the embarrassment it was agreed that each representative, if he could see his way clear to do so, would suggest where further reductions might be made in his presbytery, the committee believing that under the circumstances all concerned would be willing to abide by the results thus reached. In this way the appropriations were reduced to the figure named.

The committee is firmly of the opinion that the people of our Church are able to provide the sum recommended, and that they will do so if the claims of the work are properly presented to them, and the right steps are taken to raise the money.

I. Aid Granted.

The following characters are used to express conditions upon which appropriations are made: p. s., continuance of existing pastoral settlement; s., settlement to be effected. In all other cases the condition is stated supply, unless something different is expressly indicated. A fraction after the appropriation shows the amount of time to be taken, as 1-2 or 2-3. When no figures are used, the grant is for full time.

II. Special and New Work.

1. Special Missions.—The term of eleven stations as special missions expires this year. Seven of these, viz., Davenport, Emporia, Kansas City, First, Kansas City, Second, Oakland, Cal., Pasadena and St. Louis, Wagoner Place, asked to be continued in this relation for another term. These requests, except in the case of Davenport, were granted, and appropriations made to the stations as shown in the foregoing list of grants. Everett, Wash., Middletown, Ohio, and Starkville, Miss., ask to be made special missions for the first time, and with the exception of Middletown, Ohio, these requests were granted. The amount appropriated in each case appears in connection with the name of the station in the regular list of grants.

2. First Grant.—The following is a list of stations that are granted aid for the first time. The amount and conditions are given in the general table: Oklahoma; Salem, Mass.; Evanston, Ill.; Seabring, Ohio; Starkville, Miss.; Bluffton, Ind.; Winchester, Kan.; South Sharon, Pa.; Pleasant Hill, Neb.; Philadelphia, South, Pa.; Washington, D. C.; Glendale, Wash.; Hooper and Washtucna, Wash.; Chester, W. Va.; Knoxville, Pa., and St. Paul or Minneapolis, Minn.

III. General.

Your Committee on recommendations and resolutions would respectfully report as follows:

1. We recommend that the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension be urged to send during the year their corresponding secretaries, or other representatives, to visit our frontier mission stations, especially those in the Synods of California and of the Columbia.

2. That the Home Mission Board be requested, if feasible, in making up the annual report to add another column and to give therein the average contributions for all purposes per member of congregations applying for aid.

3. That the Board be requested to send to the Superintendent of Missions of each presbytery, in connection with blank applications for aid, enough copies of the rules in reference to the making out of applications, to enable him to place a copy in the hands of each missionary.

4. That all applications for new work and from special missions to be continued as such, shall be investigated by the Home Mission Board, and shall be by them submitted to the General Committee, together with their recommendations thereon, as in other cases.

5. That we recommend the appointment by the General Assembly of a committee, to consist of one member from each Synod in America, to take into consideration the question of a change in the formation of the General Committee, and of the present method of distributing the home mission funds, to report to the next General Assembly; and, further, that the committee be directed to publish its report in the Church papers not later than January 1, 1902.

6. That the Board of Home Missions be directed to make investigation with reference to work among the mountain whites of the South, and to make suitable provision for carrying on work there, if in their judgment the way for it be open.

7. That the General Committee express its appreciation of the faithful and efficient service rendered to the Church by the members of the Home Board, and especially by the Corresponding Secretary, Alexander Gilchrist, D.D., and in view of the fact that Dr. Gilchrist's term of office expires at this time, we earnestly recommend to the General Assembly his re-election.

8. That we recommend the General Assembly to appropriate ten dollars to be paid to the sexton of Albia church for services rendered during the sessions of this General Committee.

ALEXANDER GILCHRIST,
Secretary.

C. H. STRONG, Chairman.
J. D. BARR and S. G. HUEY, Assistant Secretaries.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

We most gratefully record the goodness of God in sparing the life of all the members of the Board, and of all the missionaries in the field during the last year. Two of the faithful workers were laid aside temporarily by sickness, but their health has been restored. The work in every mission has been carried on with much earnestness and self-denial on the part of the workers, and the year closes with the comforting assurance that the labor has not been in vain.

The Board.—Twelve regular and several special meetings have been held. The members have shown a deep interest in the entire work, and the material interests of the missions have been managed and guarded with the same care which successful business men give to their own business enterprises .

Schools Closed.—All the schools will be closed by the 15th of May for the summer, except Knoxville, whose closing wil be a month later. but the religious work will be continued in all the missions without interruption.

THE FIELD AND THE WORK.

General.—Tennessee and Alabama Stations.—The missions in Tennessee and Alabama are very closely connected. Knoxville College supplies all the teachers for the other missions. The principal in each of the stations makes his monthly report to the president of the college, who summarizes the reports for the Freedmen's Board. The president of the college visits the stations once or twice a year, and the workers in the missions all attend the Summer Bible School at Knoxville College in June of each year after commencement.

The year has been one of good work, of harmony and of good results in a spiritual way. There has been but little sickness among the workers and students. The prevalence of smallpox in many communities of the South has seriously interfered with attendance from some points.

The statistics of the congregations in these fields very inadequately represent the work done. Some are disappointed in noting the comparatively small membership as compared with the large attendance at our schools. There is a reason for this and the work cannot be measured by the net gain in membership. A very large number of our accessions are students, who in the very nature of the case move away where they will not find a United Presbyterian Church, and regret to sever connection with it. A large number of persons are converted also whose parents oppose their uniting with our Church. Denominational prejudice is strong. There are few colleges any where which can show a larger per cent. of church members than Knoxville College.

Our Alabama missions are located in the Black Belt, in Wilcox county, about one hundred miles from the Gulf. Of the four stations in the Black Belt only one is in a town, the rest being found in rural districts. This is rather a novel feature of the work and one that has been most highly endorsed by persons interested in the race problem. One great evil of the time is that so many of the colored youth are congregating in the cities. If they are given an education in the country, there is less probability of their leaving home for the city.

One characteristic that has marked all our missions has been the effort of the people to help themselves. The congregations of Athens, Miller's Ferry, Camden and Prairie each paid $50 on their pastor's salary in addition to their contributions to the boards and their own expenses. Miller's Ferry paid three months of their pastor's salary. Some are making an effort to build their own dormitories, and a most commendable effort has been put forth in this direction by all the missions.

KNOXVILLE COLLEGE.

Knoxville College.—Knoxville College celebrated the Quarter Centennial of its founding last June with appropriate exercises. It has been the fourth of a century of large achievements in the cause of the Master. Those who have received their education here are scattered all over the South, and wherever found are marked by a spirit of earnestness that is most praiseworthy.

During the year, Mrs. Agnes H. Wait, who was laid aside from active work four years ago, was called to her heavenly rest. While she has not been identified actively with the work since that time, yet her home has been in our midst and she has been counted one of the workers. Her last years have been full of suffering, and she leaves behind her the blessing of a life nobly spent.

Religious Work.—The regular Sabbath services consist of preaching morning and evening, Sabbath school in the morning, and Senior, Junior and Intermediate Young People's prayer meetings in the afternoon. All services are well attended. The change of the Sabbath school from the afternoon to the morning reduced the attendance somewhat, but resulted in great gain to the work, as it binds together the Sabbath school and preaching service, and much more effective work has been done. A mission school has been maintained by the Knoxville congregation in one of the most needy portions of the city, but was compelled to close its doors in February because of smallpox in the vicinity. This is under the management of the students, who have shown commendable zeal and earnestness in their work. Miss Jennie McCahon, as missionary, is faithful and untiring in sowing the good seed. The College Sabbath school has an enrollment of 275, with an average attendance of 222. Special meetings were held for a week at a time twice during the year. Thirty-three accessions to the Church are recorded, of which twenty-five were on profession of faith. A large number of others have accepted Christ and connected with other denominations.

The College.—The term college is used to apply to all the work in connection with the institution, from the classical course down to the primary. The need of primary instruction in many communities is so great that did we not provide such a course many would be denied instruction in the rudiments of learning. The maintaining of the primary and training departments not only affords opportunity for thorough instruction from the very beginning, but also an opportunity for the advanced students to obtain valuable experience in teaching under a skillful principal, as many of the classes are taught by advanced students.

Theological Department.—We have enrolled four students in this department. They are all in the first year. There are many still in the college course who look forward to entering this department, and the prospects for the future are good. It trains young men for the actual work, surrounded by many of the conditions that they must meet.

Medical Department.—Discontinued.—This department has been discontinued. It was started with an understanding on the part of the physicians that it would never be any expense to the institution. Of course that is quite impossible if proper equipment were to be secured. It was also inexpedient to have the Medical Department with the college without separate buildings. The work could not be done as it ought to be done, and it is desired that every department that is maintained must be maintained first-class.

Industrial Departments.—Students are taught the trades of printing, carpentry, agriculture, sewing, cooking, electrical work and in incidental ways other industries. All girls are required to take sewing as a part of the college corriculum. While the students are taught these industries they receive at the same time pay for the work that they do, the pay being based on the character of the work done. In this way over $800 has been paid out to students, of which $600 has been received from the State University Fund. In addition to the above twelve students have received State Normal Scholarships, of which the State of Tennessee furnishes 66, to be given by the senators to colored young men and women, with the privilege of using them in any of the recognized colored institutions. The State Scholarship gives its recipient $50. Through the Women's Board we have received to help students $245. Thus over $1,500 has been used to help students. The help given students is almost entirely in the way of compensation for labor. The only exception is in the case of the State Normal Scholarships and those too young to render a return for help given. There is great oportunity to those who wish to help some worthy young man or woman through school. The money will not be given to him outright, but he will be given work to do in some line that will bring returns that will help some other student to get work, and thus a small amount of money does great good.

Scholarships.—The faculty have provided for a free scholarship to the member of the Fourth Normal class who shall stand highest in his class, and whose deportment has been creditable. This scholarship provides for free boarding and tuition for one year. If the person who wins the scholarship does not desire to avail himself of its privileges, it shall be given to the second highest.

It is desired and hoped that before the next session opens scholarships with like provisions shall be provided for in all the schools under the control of the United Presbyterian Church, providing for the winner a free Knoxville College Scholarship. Four such scholarships have been provided and used this year — in Athens Academy, Athens, Tenn., given by the Ladies' Missionary Society of Morning Sun, Ohio, congregation; in Thyne Institute, Chase City, Va., given by Mrs. Mary McCleary, New Wilmington, Pa.; in Prairie, Ala., mission, given by Mr. J. M. Brown, of Wheeling, W. Va.; in Norfolk Mission College, given by Rev. J. D. Lytle, Hanover, Ind.

More Land Needed.—In order to properly develop our Industrial Department it is absolutely necessary that we have more land. An option has been secured on about thirty acres adjoining our property, which lies just outside the corporation limits, by which we may purchase the land before September 1st, for $7,500. Half of this has been pledged by a friend of the work, provided we can raise the other half elsewhere.

ATHENS.

Rev. J. T. Arter has been in charge of this station this year for the first, succeeding J. L. Cook. Mr. Arter has gained the confidence of the people and the work of the station has gone on without any jar because of the change of workers. The enrollment for the day school is 180. The attendance at church and Sabbath school is good, reaching almost one hundred. The spiritual growth of the congregation has been evidenced in increased liberality and mission work.

CLEVELAND, TENN.

Work was begun at this station more than two years ago by Rev. J. A. Cotton. The first year preaching services and Sabbath school were carried on, and this last year a school has been opened up. The church has not been formally organized, members having been received into it as members of the Athens congregation. The opposition arising from denominational prejudice has been very strong, but there has been much for which to thank God, and take courage. The people of the town have provided a building and maintained all the running expenses of the school except the salaries. The workers at this place are: Rev. J. A. Cotton, pastor and principal; Miss Mattie Warren and Miss Delia Parks.

BRISTOL, TENN.

Mission work at this point was opened up two years ago. Until April of this year no school was maintained. The church is not regularly organized, but members are received into the church as a part of the Knoxville congregation.

A new building was dedicated on April 2nd, which cost entire, including its furniture, almost $7,000. A prominent citizen and Christian worker of Bristol, Major A. D. Reynolds, donated a lot valued at more than $2,000 in one of the best locations in the city and gave $1,000 cash. The work has opened up most auspiciously; the field is an exceedingly promising one both for school and church work. Rev. Frank W. Woodfin is pastor and principal of this mission.

RICEVILLE.

Rev. J. H. Tarter is in charge of the work at this point. He began work last August. Previous to that time Sabbath school had been carried on by the Athens congregation, seven miles distant. A church building was purchased for $350 and arrangements made to accommodate both the church and day school. Mr. Tartar has been the only teacher in the school and has had an enrollment of more than 80. While the field is not unlimited, yet it promises to be a good one.

MILLER'S FERRY, ALA.

This, the oldest station of the Alabama missions, had a good year. The opening of a rival school in the same neighborhood reduced the attendance somewhat, but more than 200 have attended our school. The congregation is active and well organized. The people have contributed liberally and the work has prospered. In this field Rev. C. H. Johnson is pastor and principal.

PRAIRIE, ALA.

Rev. J. E. James, who graduated from the Knoxville College Theological Department last year, has been in charge of this mission during the past year. The work has been characterized by utmost harmony and good-will on the part of the community. The main feature of this station is the farm which is owned by the Women's Board and managed under the direction of N. B. Cotton, who has had charge of it during the past year. The purpose of this enterprise is to afford opportunity for promising persons to be properly taught farming and offered the privilege of purchasing small farms of their own. The school at this place charges a small tuition fee of twenty-five cents a year. The plan has worked well and is a feature that may be introduced into the other stations, as it would do its part toward educating the people to self help.

CAMDEN.

"The best year we have had," is the report from the pastor and principal, Rev. E. K. Smith. The church work has been active and the people have been revived. This mission is located in the county seat of Wilcox county, and is for more than one reason a very purportant point. The enrollment of the school has been 225. All the various departments of the church and school have been carried on actively.

CANTON BEND.

A sewing department was begun at this mission last year and it has had a successful year. Prof. J. N. Cotton, the principal at this station, is not a pastor or ordained minister, but a ruling elder. He looks after all the affairs of the congregation and along with the neighboring pastors expounds the Word to the people. The school has a strong hold on the community. The enrollment for the past year was 145.

SUMMERFIELD, ALA.

After carefully canvassing the situation the Board decided that it was best to discontinue the work at this point. There seemed to be little prospect of a congregation being built up in the near future, and it was thought best to concentrate efforts at other points. Prof. P. C. Cloud, who was in charge of the work for a number of years, has removed to Knoxville, where he will educate his family.

In all the stations the various organizations of well-managed congregations and Sabbath schools have been maintained. Young People's meetings, Junior societies, Mother's meetings, Missionary societies, and so on, have been kept up, and house to house visitation is always a very important part of the work.

CHASE CITY, VA.

A comparison of the statistics for this year with that of former years, furnishes some very gratifying evidences of progress in the work at Thyne Institute. There has been a much larger and more regular attendance, both in the church and day school. The average attendance at church for the school year is 223, or 41 more than that of last year The highest average for any one month last year was 203, or 20 less than that of the entire present school year.

On each alternate Sabbath evening the principal lectured on Christian doctrine to an audience ranging from one hundred to one hundred and fifty. The attendance at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting has been from 75 to 125. Junior and Young People's meetings have been held each Saturday afternoon during the school year. A three weeks' series of meetings was held last winter, resulting in an accession of twelve on profession of faith to the membership of the congregation. The Woman's Missionary Society met semi-monthly during the year and did good work under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Moore and Miss Margaret Kerr.

Girls' Industrial Home.—There were fourteen girls in the Home, and four young men in the Cottage most of the year. All the girls in the Home are instructed in cooking, baking, housework, and all that enters into the duties pertaining to housekeeping. This includes laundry work. The girls themselves do all the work and are graded upon it as in regular class work. Careful attention is also given to deportment, so that students shall become refined and lady-like. An effort is made to bring them under such training as will make them a source of refining influence in their own homes when they return thereto. Though there were but fourteen girls in the Home this year, who can measure the good that will result from their influence?

Sewing Department.—The enrollment for the year was 124. These were given instruction in plain sewing, and dressmaking was introduced into the schedule. This will be a permanent feature of this department hereafter. Each is required to make her own graduating dress.

BLUESTONE, VA.

Rev. W. M. Fowlkes withdrew from this mission at the close of the term of the public school, February 1st, and will soon be assigned to another field of work. Mr. W. G. Wilson succeeds Mr. Fowlkes and has entered upon his duties with energy and with good prospect of success. The total school enrollment for the year is 113, and of the Sabbath school 143. All the different parts of the work are carried on through the various organizations, as in the other missions.

NORFOLK, VA.

Thirteen persons have united with the congregation during the year. Four of these were baptized. Two members have died, one was dismissed on certificate, and six others were dismissed for cause. The attendance on the preaching services was larger than that of previous years. The daily collections amounted to $74.87.

Day School.—Seven hundred and six names are on the roll for the year. The average daily attendance is 552. Good work has been done. Thirteen young ladies and gentlemen graduate, and one young man receives a certificate.

Sabbath Schools.—There are two Sabbath schools — afternoon and evening. In the afternoon school 668 names are enrolled. Scholars who must use the street cars or the ferry are not required to attend on the Sabbath, but are examined on the lessons on Mondays. $164.47 were contributed by the school. The evening school is for the very poor, who are neglected by all others. These are gathered from the streets, many of whom cannot read, and not a few have no idea what the words God and Jesus Christ mean. These are able to repeat all the Golden Texts for the year. One hundred and ninety children are in this school.

Prayer Meetings.—Six prayer meetings are held in the school every Wednesday afternoon, into which the scholars are all gathered. These are conducted by the scholars themselves under the supervision of the teachers. The attendance at the congregational prayer meeting, on Wednesday evenings, has almost doubled in numbers. Good interest was manifested during the "Week of Prayer," the effect of which is still seen in the conduct and behavior of the school.

W. M. S.—There are 32 members in the society. Meetings are held monthly. The amount of collections for the year is $43.24.

Y. P. C. U.—Meets monthly for business and social entertainment. Meetings for prayer and conference are held each Sabbath morning. The work of the Union is carried on through its various committees. Amount of contribution, $54.58.

Sewing Department.—Two hundred and ninety-eight girls and one boy are learning to make all garments worn by women, and all articles made with the needle. The girls are required to become so efficient as to be able to plan, cut, fit and make their own graduating dresses. The work of the year is an advance of last year.

Cooking Department.—Ninety-six girls are learning to do neatly, economically, and well, all the work that pertains to the cooking in a well ordered household. Much more interest has been manifested in this department. The girls are required to be able to plan all the meals, to bake bread, and to cook and prepare a meal that will pass the inspection of competent judges before they are allowed to graduate.

Printing Department.—Twenty-eight girls and boys are learning to print. Besides the Bulletin, a monthly paper of eight pages, and all necessary work for the College, enough job work is done to pay all necessary expenses.

Miscellaneous.—The principal, besides the regular work of the school and congregation, teaches a class in the colored Y. M. C. A. building, of the teachers and superintendents of the various Sabbath schools, besides preaching occasionally for them and making other addresses. The teachers make house to house visitations in the evenings and on Saturdays. Three Sabbath schools in the country are supplied with suitable reading matter. Thousands of copies of our church papers and Sabbath school literature are thus distributed, and eagerly received and read. The mission has contributed $337.16. Two things are greatly needed to the procuring greater results for the labor done:—a church building and a dormitory where the girls may be protected from the temptations of the streets. God's blessing has evidently rested on the work of the year.

A Lot Purchased.—The Board has purchased a valuable lot of ground adjoining our mission property here. This property was so occupied that it has for years been a menace to the safety of our mission, and an intolerable nuisance besides. The owners held it at $4,500—but since the holidays it was sold at a forced sale and we bought it for $3,000. The Board believes that arrangements have been made by which this sum can be paid without drawing upon the regular funds in our treasury.

HENDERSON, N. C.

A change of administration was effected at the beginning of the last year. Rev. J. L. Cook, who for ten years had been in charge of the work at Athens, Tenn., was placed at the head of the work, as pastor and principal. He was given a band of tried and faithful teachers as his assistants, and the work has apparently prospered during the year. The school has flourished, having a total enrollment for the year of 706, we think the highest enrollment since its organization. The class room work has been of a high order and the progress of the pupils very satisfactory. The religious work has shown the most striking improvement.

The congregation has about doubled in membership and the Sabbath school has reached the highest mark as to numbers ever attained in any of our missions, the enrollment being 1,110. The methods of work adopted by Mr. Cook are the same as those used in his former mission. The Word is preached in the church once every Sabbath. At another hour a Bible school is conducted. Here the Bible is studied in an informal way. The members are given a chance to ask questions and express their opinion on the passages under consideration and the pastor corrects them if in error. Mr. Cook says, in the Bible school is where we get at our distinctives, and as a result of our work in this direction there are several young men who say they will leave the lodge and join our church. All the usual organizations are kept up here as in the other fields.

Industrial Work.—Some kind of industrial work is carried on in all our missions as far as our means will allow. Our Board is, however, a Missionary Board and our work primarily and chiefly a missionary work. Every school conducted by our Board is a missionary school, and moreover is a United Presbyterian school in which the doctrines "professed by this Church" are taught, and the effort is constantly made to have the pupils impressed with the phase of the Christian faith for which our church stands. The teachers are United Presbyterians.

NEW WORK.

No new work was undertaken by the Board during the last year.

The last General Assembly authorized your Board "to investigate the field of the island of Cuba, with a view to establishing a mission among the needy people." Upon this authorization the Board met shortly after the adjournment of the Assembly and took the matter under advisement. Subsequently, several meetings of the Board were held, and all the information that could be obtained by correspondence and otherwise laid before it. It appeared from reports by Governor-General Wood upon the question of the education of the Cubans, that their needs in this direction were being supplied in some good measure. He says: "Schools have increased, in a few months, from a few hundred to over three thousand—the school attendance has doubled and redoubled several times since our control was established, and there are now 160,000 children in school, and three-quarters of a million dollars' worth of supplies have been distributed." This year, Gen. Wood declares, "the expenditure for school funds will be over $4,000,000. Summer normal schools are to be established throughout Cuba, and pains taken to bring to the island first-class instructors in educational methods; while it is hoped that four or five hundred teachers may be sent to the United States to receive instruction." In view of these facts the Board did not deem it best to go farther in the matter, but rather to rest the case for the present and report thus far its action to this Assembly. This conclusion was reached the more readily owing to the fact that no part of the $2,000 appropriated by the last Assembly for investigating the field came to our treasury designated so as to warrant the using of it for this purpose, and, moreover, it became more evident every month that the receipts would not be sufficient to carry on the work already undertaken in our own country, and pay the burdensome debt, which has hindered the work for years. We leave the matter with the Assembly without suggestion or recommendation.

Women's Auxiliary Board.—This Board has heartily and cordially co-operated with us during the year, paying, as formerly, the salaries of all industrial teachers except those of the mechanical and agricultural professors of Knoxville College, and the salaries of the printers at Knoxville and Norfolk. Without this aid it would be impossible for us to carry on the work in its present form and extent. The amount received from the Women's Board for this purpose was $6,585.00.

Debt.—We are very sorry, and not a little disappointed, that we are still compelled to carry into the next year a debt which has so long burdened and hindered the work. It amounts to $20,350.

Appropriation.—The Board respectfully asks the Assembly to appropriate $55,000 for the work of the next year.

Vacancies.—The term of office of Revs. D. W. Carson, D.D., W. H. McMillan, D.D., and W. S. Harper, D.D., expires with this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. McMILLAN, President.

J. W. WITHERSPOON, Cor. Secretary.

Allegheny, Pa., May 9, 1901.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension respectfully reports that the year has brought many blessings, but also great sorrow and loss, not to the Board only, but to the whole Church, in the death of two of its most faithful and efficient members.

After a short illness, Mr. William J. Sawyer died on the 12th of December. Mr. Sawyer was elected to this service by the General Assembly of 1883, and during these more than seventeen years gave special attention to the work of the Board, and for a considerable part of the time was a member of the Committee on Finance. The following minute was adopted:

"The members of the Board record their profound sorrow and sense of loss in the death of a member so much beloved and so valuable in counsel, and extend their sympathy to the bereaved friends.

"For over seventeen years Mr. Sawyer has been a member of this Board, and by his kindly courtesy and his eminently Christian spirit endeared himself to his fellow members. He brought into the service a large experience in benevolent work, an intimate knowledge of the United Presbyterian Church, with an intense desire to advance all its interests, and, above all a supreme faith in God and humble dependence on his grace. He was faithful in his attendance, and gave careful attention to the details of the work of the Board. His judgment was clear and always had great weight. He had a warm sympathy for the missions, and advocated the largest possible help for them. He in no measure spared himself in any duty assigned to him, his first thought being the prosperity of the Church and the advancement of the kingdom of God. In all his life his spirit was that of an earnest Christian who loved his Lord and was devoted to his service.

"We mourn him as a brother beloved, taken away from us in the midst of his days."

On the 8th of March Mr. Thomas McCance, the senior member of the Board, and a member of the Committee on Finance, ceased from his labors in the completeness of a life of usefulness in many departments of the work of the Church. The following minute was adopted:

"The members of the Board, thus called upon a second time within a few months to mourn the death of a brother greatly beloved, humbly bow before the will of our Lord by which sorrow is added to sorrow, and out of their own grief extend their sympathy to the breaved family and friends.

"Mr. McCance has been a member of the Board since 1877, and in this long term of service has proved himself worthy of the confidence placed in him and of the high esteem in which he was held by his brethren. He was courteous in manner, kindly and genial in spirit, ever ready for whatever the work of the Board required of him, and faithful in the discharge of the duty involved. He loved the Church, was familiar with its history and work, and brought into the service his large experience, his good judgment, his prudence, and his reverent and devoted love to the Lord Jesus. He never allowed personal interests to interfere with his service in the Board, and even when feebleness of health would have justified rest from active labor, he continued to give his remaining strength to the mission work. The Spirit of the Lord was upon him, and he wearied not until in the completeness of a long and useful Christian life he was called to enter the presence of the Lord."

The vacancies thus created were filled by the election of Mr. William H. Jamison and Mr. E. W. Hill.

The Board has endeavored to fulfill the trust committed to it. Monthly meetings have been held, and careful consideration has been given to every application presented. An effort has been made to distribute the funds at command equitably to every part of the Church. Special care has been taken to secure the adoption of suitable plans, and also to develop the spirit of self-dependence. The corresponding secretary visited as many of the synods as possible, and at others the cause was presented by the corresponding secretary of the Board of Home Missions, under an arrangement for mutual help. Circulars have been issued, and much correspondence has been had to make known the work and needs of the Board.

As noted in former reports, the applications are for much larger grants than formerly. The Church has everywhere felt the general change in the social life of the country, resulting from the increase of wealth. In all the cities and towns great public improvements have been made, and the general style of building is more elaborate and expensive. In all the churches more expensive houses of worship have been erected. The missions have felt the spirit, and ask for larger and more perfectly equipped churches, in order to be in harmony with their surroundings, and to be able to compete with well established congregations. The Board appreciates this feeling and recognizes that present methods of work and general social conditions require a better grade of churches than formerly, but is of the opinion that the tendency is towards a too large expenditure in the early part of the work. The Board has not been able, in every case, to prevent the missions from contracting debt, and so bringing upon themselves a burden heavy to be borne. In some cases this was clearly unavoidable except by appropriations not authorized by the General Assembly, but in others the Board has insisted, as much as was deemed prudent, on a less expenditure until the congregation would be well established. In very few cases have the presbyteries placed restrictions in this direction when endorsing the applications for aid.

As one result of these more expensive buildings private appeals have been made quite extensively in the Church at large. The Board has not the power to interfere with the individual right of giving, nor does it wish to do so, but it is convinced that the many appeals for special objects diminish the income for the work undertaken by the General Assembly through its Boards

No appropriation has been made for aid in the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, because of the large demands for our own missions.

The Women's Missionary Board has made grants to the following congregations for parsonages: New Haven, Mich.; Reinbeck, Iowa; Clarion, Iowa; Orchard, Neb.; Seattle, Wash.; Oak Harbor, Wash.; Superior, Neb.; Northfield, O.; St. Joseph, Mo.

The increase of parsonage building and the consequent new conditions have suggested the necessity for a revision of the regulations governing the co-operation of the two Boards. A conference on the subject will be held at an early day.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Fresno, Cal., church was designated as the Sabbath school memorial for the year now closed. The contributions of the Sabbath schools covered the cost of the very suitable house which has been erected. The detailed reports of the financial agents show that a large number of the Sabbath schools do not contribute to the erection of mission churches.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The Board considered every application with great care, and made such grants as, in its judgment, were necessary. This has not always been to the amount of the application, but the grant has generally proved sufficient.

The appropriations made are as follows:

CONGREGATION.	PRESBYTERY.	DONATION.	LOAN.
Allegheny, Duquesne Park	Allegheny	$ 1,300 00
Beaumont, Cal.	Los Angeles	300 00
Bolivar, Pa.	Conemaugh	1,500 00
Burlington Junction, Mo.	College Springs	1,250 00
Canon City, Col.	Colorado	500 00
Des Moines, Third, Iowa	Des Moines	2,500 00
East McKeesport, Pa.	Westmoreland	2,000 00
Erie, Pa., Brown Ave.	Lake	2,800 00
Everett, Wash., for the lot	Puget Sound	2,500 00
Fresno, Cal.	San Francisco	3,100 00
Jewell, Kan.	Pawnee	500 00
Moline, Ill., for the lot	Rock Island	3,500 00
New Haven, Mich.	Detroit	200 00
New York, Washington Heights	New York		$ 5,000 00
Philadelphia, Dales Memorial	Philadelphia	1,000 00
Pittsburgh, Thirteenth	Monongahela	3,000 00
Starkville, Miss.	Southern Illinois	425 00
Stowe, O.	Cleveland	$ 750 00
Topeka, Second, Kan.	Kansas City	2,000 00
Whatcom, Wash.	Puget Sound	2,350 00
Wilmington, Del.	Philadelphia	5,000 00
Youngstown, O., Second	Cleveland	500 00
		$36,975 00	$ 5,000 00
Total appropriations			41,975 00

The First church, Boston, Mass., which formerly received aid under the direct instructions of the General Assembly, finds its house of worship entirely inadequate. The present building is too small, and is not strong enough to bear remodelling. To buy the additional lot necessary and rebuild will require a very large sum. The Board is convinced that the congregation should have better accommodations, but did not feel free to do more than to consent to waive its claim so far as to permit a mortgage on the property. No progress has yet been made. The title is in the trustees of the General Assembly.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

As compared with the preceding year, the contributions from congregations and Sabbath schools have been larger, but the amount from societies is smaller, chiefly because but little of the Tenth Anniversary fund remained to be paid in. The exceptionally large individual contributions of last year have not been equalled.

The receipts from all sources have been:

From Congregations			$24,265 03
From Sabbath Schools			3,867 84
From Societies: General	$ 513 54
Tenth Anniversary Fund	970 35
			1,483 89
From Individuals			276 50
Total Contributions			$29,893 26
From Legacies	$ 2,120 00
From Loans Returned—Churches	3,083 35
Parsonages	3,762 55
From Rent, Allegheny Property	1,750 00
From Interest on Permanent Funds	8,861 66
From Sales of Property	1,327 06
From Investments paid in	20,995 00
			41,899 62
Total			$71,792 88
Balance, May 1, 1900			10,054 08
Total Receipts			$81,846 96

The payments have been:

Available Balance			$ 4,679 63
Appropriations not paid			$19,400 00

*The corresponding secretary has not drawn the increase of salary voted by the last General Assembly.

The contributions received, including individual donations, amount to 54.3 per cent. of the appropriation by the General Assembly.

Of the 909 congregations in America 172 have not contributed to this work.

The general financial prosperity of the country reasonably led to the expectation of large contributions for mission work, but there has been disappointment. The experience of this Board has been the experience of others. So far as this is because of the many appeals for special objects, it is to be regretted that the work undertaken by the General Assembly should be allowed to suffer. So far as it may be due to the absorption of the resources of the people by the great industrial, commercial and financial schemes of the past year, it is to be lamented. The General Assembly is asked to take measures to awaken the people to a sense of the obligations and privileges of the kingdom of God at the present time.

THE PERMANENT FUNDS.

The applications for parsonage loans having been all referred to the Women's Missionary Board, the payments received have reduced the amount of the parsonage loans to $7,463.69. The loans to congregations for churches have been reduced to $22,792.50. The loans from these funds thus paid in have been added temporarily to the permanent reserve fund, which now aggregates $111,894.96, including $16,700 subject to annuity. The total of all the permanent funds, including the memorial funds, is $142,121.15. The loans from these funds are made on first mortgage security. Each mortgage is carefully examined by a competent attorney before it is accepted.

A detailed statement of these funds accompanies this report.

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, the "accounts, securities and investments" of the Board have been audited by an "expert accountant," well known in the city for his care, accuracy and thoroughness, who is not a member of the Board, and who has conducted the audit for several years. His certificate is attached to the treasurer's report.

The year has been one of very great anxiety concerning the work committed to the Board. From every quarter there is pressure for aid. The Board has made the appropriations according to the best light at command. The blessing of God has rested upon the missions, and the Assembly is asked to render special thanks for the divine favor. The year in which we are now entering gives promise of great missionary activity. In every part of the country, especially in the manufacturing districts, the population is increasing with remarkable rapidity. Towns of many thousand inhabitants are springing into existence. The Church must be awake to the demands of God's providence, and, in faithfulness to its great commission, endeavor to give to these the gospel of Christ and the ordinances of his grace. To do this very liberal appropriations will be required. The Board respectfully asks the General Assembly to give a prayerful consideration to the present conditions and to encourage and stimulate the people to seek a more intense spiritual life, and to make larger contributions for the work of the Lord.

The appropriation to the Board of Church Extension should be not less than last year, $55.000.

The term of office of M. M. Patterson, William H. Jamison, and E. W. Hill, expires this year.

The Board again acknowledges with gratitude the valuable services of the superintendents of missions and financial agents, and its obligations to William F. Robb, Esq., and F. L. Stephenson, Esq., as notaries.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

M. M. PATTERSON, President.
C. F. DEAN, Secretary.
A. G. WALLACE, Cor. Sec.

Pittsburg, May 7, 1901.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

In submitting this our annual report to the General Assembly it becomes our sad duty to report the death of the Rev. Samuel H. Graham, a beloved brother, and for many years a faithful and efficient member of this Board, and its recording secretary.

OUR PUBLICATIONS.

Among these we mention a special edition of Songs of the Ages for The Midland; also two editions of Bible Songs; an edition of No. 501 Psalm Books, and Psalms for Bible use. A large edition of the Psalter has been published to supply those who by subscription have guaranteed its issue. A new and enlarged edition of Bible Songs has been prepared and is now in the hands of the printers. It will be ready by June 15. The first volume of "Junior Normal Lessons," ordered by the Assembly of 1900, has been prepared as directed. It has not met with the success that was expected. We have not undertaken the publication of any new books, as no manuscripts were offered, the publication of which, it was believed, would command such a sale as would justify the Board in their issue.

It is the purpose of the Board to engage more extensively than heretofore in the publication of small books and tracts of a denominational character, to be distributed, for the most part, gratuitiously.

The General Assembly of 1900 adopted this: "Resolved, that the Board of Publication be instructed by this Assembly to prepare a concise but comprehensive summary of the authoritative standards of the Church and submit its work to the General Assembly of 1901 for approval." A competent committee, appointed soon after the adjournment of the Assembly, has undertaken the work and finds it one of considerable magnitude, and is only able to report progress. The work cannot be completed until the meeting of Assembly of next year.

The following resolution was offered by the financial committee of the Assembly and adopted: "1. That the matter of preparing a suitable book for the use of financial agents in keeping their accounts be referred to the Board of Publication, with instructions to prepare such a book if the way be clear, and furnish a copy to each financial agent." This work is in the hands of a competent committee which is not yet able to report to the Board the completion of its work.

GRANTS.

The grants of the Board to mission churches and Sabbath schools have been as large as the means at our disposal would permit. We are glad to be able to say that no newly organized church or Sabbath school applying for help which was really needed has failed to receive a reasonable proportion of the aid asked.

Grants to the number of 136 have been made, principally to mission stations and Sabbath schools. Our donations in Psalm books, Bible Songs, periodicals and Bibles for eleven months, or up to March 31st, when our books close, amounted to $1,628.50, which is about $328 more than the amount at our disposal for the purpose. A complete list of donations made by the Board for eleven months, beginning with May 1, accompanies this report.

OUR SABBATH SCHOOL WORK.

We are gratified to be able to report an increased interest in Sabbath schools throughout the Church. The action of the General Assembly of 1900 was favorable and encouraging to the Board. It gave it an appropriation of $500. Of this amount $479.33 has been received to the date of this report.

ACTION OF THE SYNODS.

First Synod of the West.—"Synod notes with pleasure the work this Board is doing in the publication of Sabbath school literature; the energy with which it is pushing the Sabbath school work; and the liberal donations made from time to time of Bibles, Psalters, Bible Songs and Sabbath school literature to mission stations, and needy fields."

"The Board and its publications are most cordially commended to the patronage of our people."

Synod of Nebraska.—"4. That pastors and sessions using their best judgment as to time and place, press the mission Sabbath school as an excellent help in entering and holding the open doors for the gospel."

Synod of Iowa.—"4. That we ask special attention to the action of the General Assembly urging upon presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents a thorough canvass of their respective presbyteries with a view to establishing new mission schools under the supervision of their sessions."

The Synod of California.—We understand that this synod will present to the General Assembly a memorial asking it to appoint two missionary evangelists to labor under the direction of the Board of Publication.

Other synods have spoken in commendation of the work of the Board.

We respectfully ask the General Assembly to renew the action of the last Assembly concerning Sabbath school superintendents. It is as follows: "9. Responding to the suggestion of the Board of Publication, concerning a 'Twentieth Century Movement,' we urge upon the presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents a thorough canvass of their respective presbyteries with a view to the establishing of new mission schools under supervision of the session."

"10. Acting on a further suggestion of the Board of Publication we direct all presbyteries to require an annual report of their Sabbath school superintendents and that the Sabbath school superintendents be required to report all scholars which fail to report to them: and also that such schools be required on the floor of presbytery to give a reason for such failure."

We suggest further that it would be gratifying to the Board if the General Assembly would designate a part of the contributions of the Sabbath schools to the Board's Sabbath school work, and thus enable it to increase its grants to Mission churches and Mission Sabbath schools.

SABBATH SCHOOL STATISTICS.

Presbyterial Conventions.—Twenty-eight presbyteries report having held either conventions or conferences. These were all spoken of as profitable. Some recommend taking part in local union conventions. We earnestly urge every P. S. S. S. to press the importance of conventions or conferences upon the schools under his care.

Catechisms.—Seven hundred and six schools report that in them the Catechism is taught.

Home Department.—There are reported 5,407 scholars; yet this does not represent the total enrollment, as many schools report such a class without giving the number of scholars. We again call the attention of the Assembly to the vital importance of this department.

Mission Schools.—The reported number is 78, one more than a year ago. While many such schools have been organized during the year, almost an equal number have been dissolved. In many of our presbyteries there are fruitful fields for this kind of Christian work.

On the above statistics, and in the interest of the work in general, our Sabbath School Committee makes the following comments and suggestions, which we recommend to your careful consideration, viz.:

Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents.—With few exceptions they manifest a deep interest, and make a persevering effort to secure reports from all their schools.

Pastors.—There are 740 that are in attendance at the Sabbath school, a slight decrease from the previous year.

Elders.—Of the 3,776 reported, 2,995 attend our schools.

Enrollment.—The total reported enrollment is 121,755, or 3,192 more than one year ago. An increase is found in 39 presbyteries.

Average Attendance.—The reported number is 74,912. Proportionately there has been an increase in each of the last three years.

Contributions.—For many years there has been a gradual increase. This year, however, the proportionate increase is larger than formerly. The sum is $112,041, or $11,431 more than ever before. Of this amount $39,115 have been contributed to the Boards of the Church.

Scholars Confessing Christ.—The reported number is 3,941, or 514 more than last year. These figures, however, do not represent the entire number, as 236 schools have either reported no accessions or left this column blank.

RECOMMENDATION.

We recommend the third Sabbath of October as a day of special prayer for Sabbath schools; the second Sabbath in June as "Missionary and Children's Day"; and the fourth Sabbath in November as "Temperance Day."

The report of the business department of the Board for 1900 and 1901 is for eleven months only. The short time given in previous years in preparing the report was unsatisfactory and this year it was decided to close the books with the last of March instead of the last of April. This accounts for the small amount of money reported as having been received from the presbyteries. The treasurer's report will show the full amount of money received from this source up until the end of April as usual. Quite an amount has been received since our books were closed.

The building is profitably rented, every room, as for the past two years, being occupied, and we anticipate making some improvements which will reduce our expenses and we hope will increase our income.

The terms of the following members expire this year, viz.: Rev. D. S. Littell, D.D., Rev. J. A. Douthett, D.D., Jno. D. Fraser, S B. Donaldson, W. D. McGill, Rev. G. E. Hawes who was elected in place of Rev. S. H. Graham, deceased; also the term of Rev. J. C. Boyd, D.D., Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

It is with gratitude and thanksgiving to God that the Board of Education closes the work of the year. The educational institutions of the Church have been prospered, the work in these institutions has been successfully prosecuted, and the aggregate of students is about fifteen more than during the preceding year. The young men to whom appropriations of money have been made are reported as making commendable progress in their studies. The contributions of the Church, while falling much below the recommendations of the General Assembly, show that the presbyteries and synods are giving attention to this department of Christian work. A summary of the work for the year is herewith submitted:

I. Beneficiaries.

Fifty-two students received aid upon the recommendation of presbyteries. Forty of the students attended the seminary at Allegheny, Pa., and ten, the seminary at Xenia, Ohio. Two are literary students; one a member of the senior class of Cooper Memorial College, and one a member of the present senior class at Westminster.

Thirty-four students received $125 each; eight, $100 each; one, $80, and nine, $50 each. The total payment to students amounted to $5,580, or $813 more than the preceding year.

The following presbyteries have been represented: Allegheny, Monongahela, Muskingum, and Wheeling, four students each; College Springs, Garnett, Monmouth and Steubenville, three students each; Beaver Valley, Chartiers, Frankfort, Pawnee and Xenia, two students each; Albany, Argyle, Arkansas Valley, Butler, Chillicothe, Cleveland, Conemaugh, Kansas City, Kiskiminetas, Mansfield, Princeton, Rock Island, Tennessee and Westmoreland, one student each.

Twenty-seven of the young men receiving aid are graduates of our own colleges; twenty-two graduated from colleges of other denominations, or from non-denominational schools; and three are undergraduates.

Revs. P. C. Baird, J. W. Innis and J. B. Lee, who have entered the ministry of other denominations, have returned in part, or in full, the money received from the board; and Rev. R. S. Young has arranged for payment in the near future. Rev. J. P. Nesbit of our own Church, has returned the money received while in preparation for the ministry, and the amount has passed into the beneficiary found for the assistance of other young men.

II. Seminaries, Colleges and Academies.

The number of students in attendance at the theeological seminaries is 93, the same number as reported last year. The statements of the five colleges show an actual attendance in all departments of 1,317. There are 194 students in the two academies.

The Presbytery of Southern Illinois recommended an apportion of $300 from the College and Seminary Fund, for Stuttgart College, Arkansas. The General Assembly has heretofore designated the schools which are to receive appropriations, and the Board has not felt at liberty to add to the list of these beneficiary institutions. The Board refers the matter to the General Assembly for action.

The rule adopted by the General Assembly for the distribution of the College and Seminary Fund gives the institutions the following amounts:

Allegheny Seminary	$ 1,958 78
Xenia Seminary	874 55
Cooper Memorial College	766 80
Monmouth College	1,505 60
Muskingum College	1,156 70
Tarkio College	930 97
Westminster College	1,806 60
Pawnee City Academy	500 00
Waitsburg Academy	500 00

The several institutions have prepared the statements herewith submitted for the consideration of the Assembly.

Seminaries.

Allegheny, Pa. There are four professors. Seventy-four students have been in attendance during the session. The senior class numbers 21; the middle class, 30; the junior class, 20, and there are three irregulars. The present endowment is $245,000, and the property is valued at $150,000.

The year has been a good one in every respect. The young men have been studious and faithful. An especially good course of lectures in our special lecture course was given on "Modern Sabbath School Methods and Work." The blessing of God has been on the Board of Directors in its efforts to equip the seminary with a good building and all modern appliances. The new building is a model of convenience; its dormitories are unsurpassed; the gymnasium gives opportunity for needed exercise; the Law library fund is enabling us, in some measure, to keep our library abreast of the times; the reading room is provided with the best magazines and papers.

The effort of those in authority is to make this seminary second to none in its equipment and teaching force. This end will be constantly striven after, but there is still much to be done. There is a debt remaining on the new building. A seminary with only four professors cannot be said to be fully manned. There is urgent need of at least one more professor. A modern building has brought increased expense, so that but for the timely aid from the Board of Education our expenses would exceed our income, and this too with the most careful looking after the outlay. Another $100,000 added to our endowment would still leave us far short of that possessed by any first-class seminary undertaking the work committed to us. Such an addition to our endowment would mean much for our seminary. It would enable us at once to increase the faculty, and to enlarge in many ways. We have confidence to believe that this additional endowment will come in due time; for we are persuaded that the United Presbyterian Church will not be satisfied without having her seminaries adequately equipped for giving the best classical theological education.

Xenia, Ohio.—The faculty consists of four professors. During the year nineteen students have been in attendance. The classification is as follows: Seniors, seven; middle class, four; juniors, eight. The present endowment amounts to $150,000. Since the last report there has been an increase of $15,000, to the permanent endowment. The property is valued at $10,000.

The session of 1900-1901 has been in many respects very good, exceptionally good for pleasantness and for the diligence and progress of the students. The average grade in recitations was higher than it has ever been.

Colleges.

Cooper Memorial College.—There are ten professors. The actual attendance of students is 169. They are classified as follows: Collegiate department, 39; preparatory, 65; other departments, 65. The present senior class numbers eight; one of the number expects to enter the ministry. Seventy per cent. of the students are church members; the interest in the Christian work of the college is good. The Prayer Guild is the organization for Christian work.

The invested endowment amounts to $25,000, and the property is valued at $28.000. The college needs more money in order to do her work as it ought to be done. The competition with other institutions is close. The State institutions offer free tuition. They can offord large libraries and extensive apparatus. Many of the denominational institutions are obtaining large endowments. Cooper Memorial has a good field, and a bright future before her, if she can get the means needed to do her work. God can give her the money needed, and in his own time he will do it. By fourteen years of faithful, successful work, the college has gained a right to a warm place in the hearts of the Church.

Knoxville College.—The faculty consists of 14 professors, and there are 299 students. Twenty-two are in the regular collegiate classes, 81 in the preparatory, and 196 in other departments. Ninety-seven per cent. are members of the Church. The Christian organizations are the Y. P. C. U. and Y. M. C. A., and there is good interest taken by the students in Christian work. The property is valued at $110,000.

The year's work has been very satisfactory. The attendance has been good and an excellent spirit has pervaded the atmosphere. The teaching force, including matrons and foremen, numbers twenty-five. One new department has been opened up very successfully this year, a domestic science department. In this department students are taught cooking, including the chemistry of foods, and all that pertains to the proper management of the kitchen. The health of the teachers and students has been good. Professor W. G. Purdy has been away on a leave of absence during the year, on account of his health, but is greatly improved and will take up his work next year. The industrial feature of our work has been given more prominence than heretofore, and is proving a most important feature. The students are taught the trades of farming, carpentering, printing, sewing and cooking. They are not only thus enabled to learn useful trades for life, but are in these departments able to earn a part of their expense through school. The medical department of the college has been discontinued as there was no provision made for its proper equipment, and for evident reasons a medical department ought not to be so closely connected with the collegiate department. At the very best only second rate work could be done with the arrangement and equipment, and the standard of the college is that only first-class work can be tolerated. The graduates of the collegiate department number six, the normal department the same number. Knoxville College has celebrated her quarter centennial since the Assembly. It has been a quarter of a century of great achievement for the Lord. Her graduates and students are scattered all over the south land, and wherever they go carry the spirit of consecration and desire to be helpful to their communities.

The college needs very badly larger equipment in her industrial departments, and above all a liberal endowment. An option has been secured on a tract of thirty acres of land adjoining the college property, which must be secured if the industrial departments are developed as they ought. The land can be bought for $7,500. This is a very reasonable figure for it, as it is just outside the corporation limits of the city. We appeal to the Church to provide this much needed addition to our college property at once. The college ought to be endowed to relieve the Freedmen's Board of its burden, and thus enable them to place the offerings to the Board in other places from which the call is coming so urgently.

Monmouth College.—Professors and instructors, 18; students, 303. There are in the collegiate classes 147; preparatory, 102; other departments, 83. There are 30 in the present senior class. Of the 15 young men who graduate, nine expect to enter the ministry. Ninety-five per cent. of the students are members of the Church. The organizations for Christian work are the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. The report of the faculty states that the interest in Christian work among the students is only fair. The permanent envested endowment is $165,464.65, and the property is valued at $88,298.85. .

Monmouth College needs a library building, a scientific building and a larger endowment. A working library is as necessary to a college as a chest of tools is to a carpenter. Monmouth College has done noble work with very poor equipment, but that is the very reason why she should be well equipped. Working tools in the shape of a first-class library in a good library building is her most crying need to-day. Her prospects are bright, provided her support can be made strong. The small college well equipped, and doing first-class work under strong Christian influence, need have no fear of competition. Her future is secure. Many small colleges are doomed to go to the wall in the next quarter of a century unless their support is very greatly increased. In this respect Monmouth College is on the up grade. She will make heroic efforts to reach the top. With her strong faculty, her noble spirit and purpose, she ought to succeed and she will succeed. She claims the generous support of the Church because she is the child of the Church, and still more because she is at the same time the stay and strength of the Church. If our colleges cease graduating ministers and missionaries, what of the Church of the future? Monmouth College claims the support of God's people, because she is enlarging and strengthening the lives of God's children.

Muskingum College.—The number of professors and instructors is 13. The number of students in actual attendance during the year is 213, and the classification is, preparatory department, 85; collegiate, 96; other departments, 80. There are 21 in the present senior class, 13 males, 8 females. Of the young men, five to eight will enter the ministry. The per cent. of church members is 92. Very good interest is taken by the students in the Christian work of the college. The organizations are the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and Missionary Society. The present endowment amounts to $37,000, and $500 have been added during the year. The property is valued at $33,000.

This has been a prosperous year. While the whole number of students in the preparatory and college classes for the year is but nineteen larger than last year, yet the attendance each session has been much larger. This is because the percentage attending but a small part of the year was much smaller, nearly all being students throughout the entire year—a fact which promises well for solid growth in attendance. The percentage of students pursuing partial courses is decreasing, and many more are, from the start, looking toward degrees.

Including those who are now in the theological seminaries, and the seniors who expect to enter the ministry, Muskingum has, in the last ten years, furnished 55 to 58 to the ministry—45 of them in our own Church. This is over half the male graduates during these years. Sixteen are now in the seminaries, and five to eight will enter next fall. These figures indicate that the work is still so shaped as to contribute directly, and as largely as possible, to the Church's working force.

The location of the college in southeastern Ohio, with but one other college—lately started—within a radius of fifty miles, is important in determining what should be the Church's attitude toward her. The section served is one in which our Church is strong. The needs of the college, that she may worthily represent our Church in this favorable field, are of course numerous and varied; but it is agreed by trustees, synod, alumni, and faculty that a generous increase of endowment is the pressing want of the present. Rev. David Livingston, Station A, Route 2, Columbus, Ohio, is the college's representative with the people.

Tarkio College.—Professors, 13; instructors employed full time, 3; students in preparatory department, 123; students in collegiate department, 63; students in commercial department, 78; students in musical department, 248; students in art department, 33; total 545. Repetitions in above lists, 207; net total, 338. Men in senior class, 5; women in senior class, 9; total 14. Number in senior class, who expect to enter the ministry, not known. Organizations for Christian work, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. The students have been active in Christian work in conection with the special meetings held during the fall and winter. One hundred per cent. of the senior, junior and sophomore classes; 95.3 per cent. of the collegiate department; 94.3 per cent. of the preparatory department; 73 per cent. of the commercial department are professing Christians. Ninety-one per cent. of the three departments mentioned above are professed Christians. It is not practicable to secure statistics for the musical department. The endowment of the college is $60,000. There has been no increase during the year. The value of the college property is $85,000.

The college always needs more and yet more of the Spirit of God. This is its supreme need. Its managers should have more faith in God. An enlarged faith would bring enlarged means. Under God our greatest need is for increased endowment. There is a wide field in this former slave state for the increase of students, and the enlargement of the work of the United Presbyterian Church. It can only be fully occupied through the college. The college cannot occupy it without an increase of endowment and of buildings. So far as the prospect for this is concerned, we walk by faith, not by sight. The college is proving a potent influence in the aggressive work of the Church. Its graduates who enter the ministry are willing to go into difficult fields. Many are working in the foreign field, and more are looking that way for their future work. Its alumni who go into other professions, business or into the home are, for the most part, useful in the Church and in society. Very many who do not graduate make better Christians and better citizens for their brief stay in college. The men and women for whom it is responsible are the best claim which the college can make on the Church and on Christian people.

Westminster College.—There are 12 professors in the faculty. The number of students in attendance during the year is 294. Fifty-two are in the preparatory, 191 in the collegiate, and 49 in other departments. The present senior class numbers 45. It is thought that eight of the young men will enter the ministry. The Christian organizations of the college are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. More than usual interest has been taken in Bible study.

The effort to endow the college more liberally is now fairly started by the joint committee of the synods. The committee, while feeling deeply the great loss occasioned by the death of its interested and efficient chairman, Rev. Dr. Robinson, went on with its work without interruption. The outlook promises abundant labors and good results. An encouraging beginning has been made, and we are hopeful that the friends of the college will rally to her help and the year 1902, which rounds out her fifty years, may find her upon a satisfactory financial basis by the completion of the proposed new endowment of $200,000.

ACADEMIES.

Pawnee City, Nebraska.—The present faculty consists of Rev. R. T. Campbell, principal; Antoinette E. Latson, Laura Strong Shelden, Helen Gertrue Ogden and Frank E. Young. The enrollment of the year is 111. The classification is as follows: Seniors, 8; juniors, 11; sophomores, 5; freshmen, 12; irregulars, 29; commercial, 13; music, 33. This is an increase of four over the enrollment of last year, and an increase of seven in the literary department. The property is valued at $25,000, and is vested in a board of ten trustees. The property is secured to the United Presbyterian Church, as required by the Assembly. The subscriptions secured throughout the Synod of Nebraska are slowly being paid in, and, if carefully handled, will pay off the indebtedness of $8,500, which has rested on the building ever since its erection. The board of trustees earnestly ask that the academy be recommended to the General Assembly for the usual annual appropriation of $500 from the College and Seminary fund.

Waitsburg, Washington.—The Waitsburg Academy is under the control of the Synod of the Columbia. The faculty consists of Rev. J. A. Keener, principal; Robert M. Horner, Miss Elma R. Lorimer, Mrs. Vinnie Purrington, and Mrs. Vinnie Abbott, professors. Eighty-three students have been in attendance during the year—43 males, and 40 females. The classification is, academic, 50; music, 33. There are six in the graduating class. The academy has been in operation fifteen years. The present valuation of property is $20,000, with an invested endowment of $4,000.

The needs of the school are briefly stated. It needs, first, more endowment, as the present small endowment is entirely insufficient, thus forbidding enlargement of the course of study, as well as the employment of a sufficient number of teachers. It needs in the second place a dormitory, or dormitories. Being without anything in the shape of accommodation for students from a distance, it must necessarily be limited in the matter of attendance to local students. Wise parents do not, as a rule, send their children to a school where dormitory accommodations are not to be had, as such a course would leave their children at the mercy of the different circumstances of the community in which the school is located. Under such circumstances there is usually but little shelter for young minds and hearts. The school has an excellent standing in the community and throughout the State, and with a larger endowment and dormitory buildings, would rapidly increase in numbers and influence. Our hope is that the future will abundantly supply the needs of the Waitsburg Academy. An appropriation of $500 from the College and Seminary fund is asked for the ensuing year.

III. Finance.

The annual statement of the treasurer, properly audited, is submitted to the Assembly. Each presbytery in the home Church has made a contribution to the educational fund. The aggregate amount received from presbyteries is $607.70 more than was received from the same source during the preceding year. The General Assembly of 1900 appropriated 29 cents per member for educational purposes, 7 cents for the regular work, and 22 cents for the College and Seminary fund. The contributions received from the several presbyteries may be classified as follows: One presbytery gave less than one cent per member; two, less than two cents; six, less than three cents; three, less than four cents; three, less than five cents; six, less than six cents; six, less than seven cents; four, less than eight cents; two, less than nine cents; four, less than ten cents; three, less than eleven cents; two, less than twelve cents; three, less than thirteen cents; four, less than fourteen cents; two, less than sixteen cents; two, less than seventeen cents; one, less than eighteen cents; four, less than nineteen cents; two, less than twenty cents; one, less than twenty-three cents; and one—Cedar Rapids—twenty-nine cents.

The Synod of New York gave $1,648.80, 10 cents per member; the Synod of Pittsburgh gave $3,210.30, 13 cents per member; the First Synod gave $2,293.81, 13 cents per member; the Synod of Ohio gave $1,036.70, 10 cents per member; the Second Synod gave $719.70, 8 cents per member; the Synod of Illinois gave $970.32, 10 cents per member; the Synod of Iowa gave $1,318.67, 14 cents per member; the Synod of Kansas gave $335.26, 8 cents per member; the Synod of Nebraska gave $335.14, 9 cents per member; the Synod of California gave $147.79, 9 cents per member; the Synod of Columbia gave $129.91, 9 cents per member.

The Board has made full payment of appropriations to students, but it was found when closing the report that there was an overdraft on this fund of $469.34. Since balancing the accounts for the year a part of this money has been refunded, and the whole amount will be paid in the near future. Special mention should be made of the help received from the Young People's Tenth Anniversary Offering, from the Women's General Missionary Society, from former beneficiaries who have returned the money received that it may be used for the assistance of others; and for the thoughtfulness of those who by donation and legacy have added materially to the permanent funds of the Board.

IV. THE BOARD.

The Board asks for an appropriation of $33,000 for the coming year—$8,000 for the regular work, and $25,000 for the College and Seminary fund.

The term of office of Revs. Russell Graham, D.D., W. C.. Williamson, D.D., and J. F. Jamieson expires with this meeting of the Assembly.

By order of the Board,

W. T. CAMPBELL, Cor. Sec'y.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

In presenting the annual report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, we again have great cause for thankfulness for the continued evidences of the oversight and guidance of the Head of the Church in our operations and plans for the relief of those who come under our care. There has been some improvement in the contributions received from presbyteries, and yet we have again to record that the amount received has fallen far short of the appropriation by the General Assembly. The amount appropriated by the last Assembly was $8,000, the receipts from presbyteries have been $5,082.83. We are glad to report that the income of the Board from other sources, such as legacies, individual contributions and interest on endowment fund, has been so large that there has been no delay in promptly meeting all the claims of the beneficiaries of the Board. This encouraging condition of our affairs has suggested the propriety of enlarging the plans of the Board and increasing the amount of relief granted to those in need. We herewith submit for the consideration and judgment of the Assembly, the changes which we have thought it would be well to make:

First, That the maximum annuity paid to beneficiaries be increased from $200 to $250.

Second, That any honorably retired minister who has reached the age of seventy years and who has been engaged in the service of the United Presbyterian Church, as a missionary of the Foreign, Home or Freedmen's Board, or as a pastor or stated supply, for a period aggregating not less than thirty years, shall be entitled, by such service, to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support without annual recommendation for the same from his presbytery. When such a minister shall certify to the presbytery the fact and amount of his need, together with his statement as to the years of service rendered to the Church, his field or fields of labor, with the term of service in each, it shall be the duty of the stated clerk of the presbytery to forward the application to the Board with his endorsement. It shall then be the duty of the Board to pay such applicant an annuity not exceeding $250 during the remainder of his life unless, because of some change in his circumstances, the presbytery or the applicant himself shall otherwise direct.

Third, That a standing committee, to be known as the Ministerial Relief Committee, shall be appointed by each presbytery. It shall be the duty of this committee to examine carefully every application for aid, and to report to the presbytery the result of such investigation, and also to endeavor to increase the interest of the congregations in the work of the Board.

We believe that, if this plan shall meet with the approval of the Assembly, the Board of Ministerial Relief will have a stronger claim than heretofore upon the sympathy and support of the Church. Our work will be enlarged in undertaking to provide more liberally for those already under our care, and also in including those who have not before been eligible to relief from our funds. The adoption of this plan would greatly increase the annual liabilities of the Board, but we hope and believe that the interest and zeal of our entire Church would be so increased and intensified that the propriety and success of the changes would be promptly manifest. We ask the earnest and prayerful consideration of the Assembly to the whole subject.

The endowment fund is now $116,090, an increase of $9,890 mainly from a legacy of 40 shares of Westinghouse Air Brake stock, valued at this time at $7,440. As mortgages are paid off and re-investments have to be made, it is found necessary in almost all cases to change the rate of interest from six to five per cent.

There are now 66 beneficiaries on the roll: 22 ministers, 41 widows, 3 single persons. Three died during the year and one new name was added:

In view of the prospective enlargement of the field of labor of the Board and the increased payment to beneficiaries, an appropriation of $10,000 is asked for the coming year.

The term of office of James McCartney, James S. McCracken and James D. Ferguson expires at this time.

The treasurer's report follows, audited by an authorized accountant as directed by the last Assembly.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S BOARD.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

In reviewing the work of this department, there is much to encourage from conditions both at home and abroad. Especially cheering reports have been received concerning what has been accomplished by our faithful missionary women, native teachers and zenana workers. The one regret is that a large part of the new work planned for last year did not materialize. Only two new missionaries were added to the force of missionary women (credit, however, should be given to three applicants who proved ineligible), and not even the foundations of the Tanta Hospital have as yet been laid, because of oriental fickleness.

Financially, the past year has been the most prosperous one of all in the history of this department, the contributions amounting to $37,479.30; disbursements, $31,707.21.

Precisely the same appeals as last year have come to our Women's Board for more missionary women, viz., four for each field. Just here we desire to ask the question, Are there no more physically strong, capable, well educated, consecrated young women in our beloved Church who are willing to devote themselves to the Master's service in our foreign fields? Will the fathers and brothers in this General Assembly please take the question home with them, otherwise it may be necessary to report next year that strangers are entering our mission fields and gathering the ripening harvests that we are unable to touch.

Work for the present year is the support of all work in hand, viz., the salaries of the thirty-nine missionary women, medical work, the girls' boarding school at Sialkot, some native helpers and Bible women, and a new boarding school for girls in Upper Egypt, at an estimated cost of about $800 for the first year, in a rented building. This new work is undertaken at the earnest request of the Egyptian Mission Association. The total cost of all this work amounts to something over $40,000. We believe the women of our Church will provide every dollar needed to carry on this most important work. Experience has proven that it is much easier to put money in our treasury than to put missionary women in the foreign fields, but both are needed.

HOME MISSION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Lord seems to have called our Board into special work for foreigners during the past year. Four ordained ministers, one evangelist and five women have carried the banner of the cross into eight different states. Rev. J. A. Speer and Rev. J. A. Morrow have continued in labors for the Indians, although both of these brethren have sent in their resignations, to take effect about September 1st. We are anxiously praying the Father to send us the right men as their successors. Rev. Thomas M. Chalmers continues in charge of Messiah Mission in Chicago; Rev. R. G. Edgar in charge of Italian Mission in Pittsburg, with Mr. Antoszeswski as a traveling evangelist through Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, carrying the Word printed in the Polish and other Slavic languages to these peoples. Miss Carothers, in Spokane; Miss Beaton, in Colfax; Miss Morrow, in Seattle; Miss Wishart, in Pittsburgh, and Miss Marlin, in Bloomington, Ind., have all rendered good and faithful service as city missionaries in mission stations. Several applications for similar workers have received favorable consideration.

FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT.

The year just closed has been the most prosperous since we, as women, have been doing mission work systematically.

Twenty industrial teachers and matrons have been supported, the expenses of the various industrial departments have been met, and extensive repairs on the farm and buildings owned by the Women's General Missionary Society, at the various missionary stations, have been made. A teachers' home was erected at Prairie at an outlay of $1,400.

A department for teaching domestic science was opened at Knoxville College; cooking is taught at Norfolk, Va., Henderson, N. C., and Millers Ferry, Alabama, additional this year.

The farm is now managed in a very satisfactory manner by Mr. N. B. Cotton, formerly of Knoxville College. Fine crops were gathered this year, consisting of corn and oats, and cotton, largely. Thirty-four bales of cotton were produced on the shares. There are those who rent for the half share of crop and those who prefer a money rent. A flourishing sewing department is supported at each of nine stations.

CHURCH EXTENSION AND PARSONAGE WORK.

We present the report of this department with gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His continued blessing.

That our parsonage work is growing has been evidenced this year in the large number of requests for application blanks, and in the increased number of applications for loans that have been returned to the Board. The latter number twelve. Eleven were granted aggregating $15,400. Later, it was found two of these grants amounting to $3,400 would not be called for owing to inability of the congregations to give proper security. One application was not granted because the Board felt it did not belong to the class of congregations that should receive aid from this fund, and was referred to Finance Committee at a higher rate of interest.

Receipts for the year, ending April 5, 1901, were $8,756.94. Missionary societies (Women's and Junior's) contributed $934.95. Received from repayments of loans, $6,791.99. From Thank-offering, $1,030. Total disbursements, $7,065.

We would urge, in the distribution of money by societies, that this department be not overlooked. There has been improvement in the matter of giving to this work, more societies contribute to it each year than formerly. But, if we would judge from the statistical reports a large number still overlook it.

The nine grants of the past year are as follows: New Haven, Mich., $500; Reinbeck, Iowa, $1,400; Clarion, Iowa, $1,000; Orchard, Neb., $400; Seattle, Wash., $2,500; Oak Harbor, Wash., $500; Superior, Neb., $1,500; Northfield, Ohio, $600; St. Joseph, Mo., $3,600.

JUNIOR MISSIONARY WORK.

The work of the year in this department has been exceedingly gratifying, showing earnest, persistent effort on the part of those in charge of the societies. We are enabled to report statistics more nearly correct than for any previous year. Out of the 60 or more presbyteries only 45 report Junior Missionary societies, showing the need of more work.

Number of members last year	5,428
Present membership, not including young women	6,537
An increase of	1,109
Number of societies	219
Number of new societies	20

The contributions show the largest amount ever reported, $5,249, an increase over last year of $1,210. The special work assigned the Juniors of the Church was the support of 40 girls in the Girls' Boarding School, Sialkote, India, at a cost of $1,000. The Junior Missionary societies have paid, up to date, the liberal sum of $1,465.60, or $465 more than asked for from all the Junior Societies of the Church; $217.70 has been received from the J. C. E's and J. C. U's, making a total of $1,683.30.

The Board has felt for some time that it has not had the hearty support of the ministers of the Church in this department of its work, but the splendid success of these societies during the past year as indicated in the above report justifies us in asking that the pastors will give due consideration to this plan of Junior organization, and that we may have your hearty co-operation and earnest prayers in our effort to train the children and youth of the Church for the Master's service.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT.

REPORT OF LEAFLET SECRETARY.

There has not been the advance in this department as in former years, owing, no doubt, to the delay in publishing a new catalogue. The leaflets have been carefully selected and we recommend their more general use. A Prayer Calendar, ordered by the W. G. M. S., has been issued and sent broadcast over the Church at great expense, but we believe large returns will be the result in answer to the prayers that may be made because of the suggestions of the Calendar. Seven thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight leaflets have been sold, besides many helps for Senior and Junior societies. Three thousand four hundred and fifty-nine leaflets have been distributed free.

REPORT OF MAGAZINE COMMITTEE.

The publication of the Junior's Missionary Magazine has proved an effort in the right direction and has been blessed in carrying missionary information to the boys and girls in the Sabbath schools and Junior societies. Subscribers generally express appreciation of its helpfulness, and the regret is that so small a proportion of the children of our Church are reading it. About 15,000 members are reported in the Junior societies, while our subscription list is but 5,717. At the small subscription price of

Number of subscribers April, 1901	5,717
Balance on hand April 15, 1900	$348 73
Received for subscriptions	$551 41
Disbursed	684 70
Balance on hand April 15, 1901	215 44

THANK-OFFERING DEPARTMENT.

The thank-offering work of the past twelve months has been characterized with more than usual zeal and energy in all parts of the Church. Some congregations have given their first thank-offering toward raising the special Twentieth Century offering for missions. In different parts of the Church societies report having doubled and trebled their offerings of last year, while almost one hundred women have given liberal gifts over and above the box offerings, to help meet the needs of the hour in the special mission work assigned to the care of the women of the Church by our General Assembly.

The love of the women of the Church for the cause of missions has been well tested during the past year, and the large thank-offering to be laid upon God's altar at the Monmouth convention (after the indebtedness to the Boards of the Church and the contributions to societies have been met) will reveal the result in dollars and cents. The full value of these offerings of gratitude to the giver, to the Church and to the cause of missions only heaven's arithmetic can compute.

During the year 13,587 Scripture Responsive Verses were sold. The free distribution of supplies is as follows:

5,395 Responsive Services.
48,500 Copies Thirteen Years' Review.
26,000 Copies Thank-offering Question Box Opened.
1,500 Leaflets on "Giving."
30,123 Thank-offering Envelopes.
50,700 Letters to Societies.
1,394 Regular Thank-offering Boxes.
48,075 Twentieth Century Boxes.
2,109 Junior Boxes.

XENIA BIBLE TRAINING SCHOOL.

We regret the Xenia Bible Training School has nothing to report, except the "open door," and lack of acceptance of the opportunity gratuitously offered to persons of our own and all other denominations for training in mission work; however, several ladies who may be called training school pupils have attended the seminary lectures; but the number did not reach "ten," the condition made by the Seminary Board to secure a regularly organized training school. That such an inestimable opportunity for instruction—instruction so vital to the increasingly important cause of missions at home and abroad, should find so few desiring to avail themselves of it, is, to us, both a disappointment and a surprise.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The special work of this committee is to receive and investigate all applications for donations and loans (except for parsonages), attend to the investment of all special funds, place all surplus monies on deposit, and collect all interest due.

Loans to needy home mission churches this year amounted to $21,469.13.

Loans are in every case made upon first bond and mortgage only, interest paid quarterly or semi-annually as congregation may prefer, with privilege of reducing loan at every interest-bearing period. Insurance policies on building must have clause inserted as follows:—i. e., "All loss, if any, to be first paid to Women's General Missionary Society, of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, as its interest may appear." Policies must also be sent to us for deposit, and must be renewed from time to time while the loan remains unpaid. It is, of course, unnecessary to add that all mortgages are made out in the charter name of the society.

All applications for such loans should be made through chairman of finance committee. We have through this feature of our work, been enabled to assist congregations in erecting church buildings at a time when it would have been impossible without some such aid.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY MAGAZINE.

The Women's Missionary Magazine, now in its fourteenth year, continues on its way with a satisfactory amount of success so far as man may judge. In the way of increased subscriptions, its growth has been encouraging, an addition of 340 having been made to its mailing list during the past year. Its circulation now is 5,365.

The Magazine is in excellent financial condition, being free from debt. It makes an effort to afford information to its readers chiefly about our own church work abroad and at home; and secondarily about the missionary efforts of other denominations. As it is expected to cover so wide a territory in its literature, the Magazine sometimes feels a load of responsibility. But it can only do its best, leaving results with the Lord of the harvest. It is intended, during the coming year, to follow the proposed interdenominational scheme for united missionary study.

REPORT OF STATISTICAL SECRETARY.

The close of another year brings the annual report of the Women's General Missionary Society. The reports from the presbyterial and congregational societies encourage us to believe that the Lord has been mindful of and blessed the work of the women of our Church. Report follows:

REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

With deep sorrow we report the death of two members of the society within the past year, namely, Rev. S. H. Graham and William Stevenson. These brethren were well known throughout the Church and highly esteemed as useful and godly men. We who were intimately associated with them for many years loved and honored them in life, and now put on record this expression of our pleasant and profitable association with them. We also hereby express our sincere sympathy with the families of these trusted friends and brethren beloved.

Our records have been placed in the ample vault of the Allegheny Seminary building. They have not as yet been completely arranged and catalogued, but it is our purpose to have this done as soon as may be possible.

We regret to say that but little has been accomplished since the organization of the society in the matter of collecting the records of the Church, owing to the fact that the society was composed of so many members that it was difficult to get them to come together to attend to the business of the society, and also because there seemed but little to do after what had been accomplished in former years.

We suggest to the Assembly that a committee or board, composed of a smaller number of members, would be a more efficient agency in the management of the work of the society than the present number.

It is with great satisfaction we report that the Cuthbertson Diary, which for a time, it was feared, was lost, is now in the possession of the Theological Seminary.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

NARRATIVE.*

Your Committee wishes, first of all, to make recognition of the fact that since the last General Assembly met in the city of Chicago, the old century has closed and a new century has dawned. In making this first report of the new century we are glad to say that the Church is in a prosperous condition. During the past year the Church has enlarged her work along various lines, and in so doing has expanded her influence and increased her power. From every quarter, north, south, east and west, come good reports. And to-day the Church seems more devoted than ever to the great work of uplifting humanity.

Within the past year from the ranks of the ministry some faithful ones have fallen. The mortuary list contains the names of 10 of our beloved brethren, and it is as follows:

Name.	Born.	Died.	Age.
Robert Reed McClure	Oct. 4, 1870	April 27, 1900	30
A. S. Montgomery	June 10, 1822	June 20, 1900	78
Marion Morrison, D.D.	June 2, 1821	Aug. 22, 1900	79
R. J. Hammond	Jan. 21, 1820	Aug. 22, 1900	80
James A. Wiley	June 21, 1855	April 10, 1900	45
Samuel Jamison, D.D.	March 2, 1820	Oct. 29, 1900	80
S. H. Graham	April 25, 1834	Oct. 23, 1900	66
John Gaily	Feb. 1843	July 27, 1900	57
R. B. Ewing, D.D.	Jan. 27, 1827	Jan. 13, 1901	74
W. A. Black	1820	Jan. 24, 1901	81
Average Age			67

From statistics carefully compiled and systematically arranged by the Assembly's Second Clerk, some items of information have been gathered which seem worthy of some special notice. In the number of synods and presbyteries there has been no change. Last year two synods reported a decrease in membership. This year there are three in this list. This decrease seems to be caused chiefly by removals and cannot be considered as indicating any serious loss to the Church. All the other synods show gains, ranging from four-tenths of one per cent. in the synod of New York, to twelve and one-tenth per cent. in the synod of Columbia. The increase in the whole number of ministers during the year is 19. Last year the increase was 31. Last year there was a decrease of 26 in the number of licentiates. This year there was an increase of 12. Last year there were 320 ministers without charge. This year there are 303. Although there has been some improvement here, yet 303 ministers are far too many to be without charge in the United Presbyterian Church. Something should be done to remedy this great evil. Last year the number of congregations was 996. This year 11 congregations have been organized. Last year we had 821 pastoral charges. The present number is 837, a gain of 16.

Last year the membership in America was 115,901. The present membership is 116,934, a gain of 1,033. Last year the membership in the whole Church was 128,836. The present membership is 130,447, a gain of 1,611, or about one per cent. Last year the number of scholars in the Sabbath school was 116,091. This year the number is 120,032, a gain of 3,941. Last year the contributions to the Boards were $282,202, this year $343,411, an increase of $61,209. Last year the total contributions were $1,637,425, this year $1,751,291, an increase of $114,866. Last year the average per member in America was $14,06. This year it is $14.89, an increase of 83 cents. Last year the increase was 67 cents. Our Sabbath schools and also our young people's societies show great gains in membership and great improvement in benevolence.

State of Religion.

The best way, and the only way, to ascertain the state of religion, or the spirituality and power of the Church, is to learn how faithfully and how well the Church is accomplishing her divine mission. The Church is the pillar and ground of the truth; the preservation and the proclamation of the truth, therefore, are the mission of the Church. How faithfully the Church is fulfilling her mission may be learned in part from statistics, and in part from other sources of information.

Is the Church faithful to the trust committed to her? Let her record for the past year and the work she is still doing make answer. It is true that even inside the Church there is some questioning, doubting and disputing of Bible truth. But this is no new thing. In every age there has been in the Church a doubting Thomas. Other years have witnessed similar attacks on the Holy Book. But never before, perhaps, have these assaults been so bitter and so determined. But as of old these assaults have all been in vain. The discussions may have weakened the faith of some, and caused some to become indifferent to Bible truth. But the heat of the conflict is dying out. The smoke of battle is clearing away. The attempt to overthrow the truth has failed, and its assailants have met their Waterloo. The Bible triumphant enters the new century—The Word of God. "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the Word of our God shall stand forever."

It is true that there is a disposition in some parts of the vineyard to make changes in creeds and confessions. In some instances this is to be regretted. But in others it is scarcely more than the lopping off of dead and unfruitful branches, and is a fulfilling of Scripture, "Every branch that bringeth not forth fruit is taken away." It may be true that there are some preachers who are not preaching the truth. But these are only the few. The great majority of ministers in all evangelical denominations are faithfully preaching the pure gospel of Jesus Christ. In the present-day preaching, sinners are converted, saints are edified and the glory of Christ promoted. It is true that in many homes there is no family altar, and in many others it is in great need of repair. But in many homes the Word of God is still read, and there is morning and evening prayer. As of old, "The saint, the father and the husband prays."

In membership, the Church is growing. This growth is such as to be encouraging. "The Lord is still adding to the Church daily such as are being saved." The regular Sabbath service and the mid-week prayer meeting are not so well attended as they should be. The time has not yet come when men are flocking to the house of God as doves to the windows. But in every part of the Church, large congregations assemble every Sabbath for public service. In every city and town and in the country, great multitudes are still faithfully waiting upon God in the observance of his ordinances. The contributions for the past year have been liberal. Nineteen millions have been contributed to advance the kingdom of Christ. Of this sum our own Church has contributed a part, of which she need not be ashamed. But our contributions, although liberal, are not what they should be. They are not such as to indicate the devotion that would be most pleasing to the Master, or secure for the giver the greatest reward. Worldiness, which is covetousness and therefore idolatry, still obtains. There are many, even inside the Church, who seem disposed to count the present world of controlling moment. There are many who even set at nought the kingship of Christ, and worship gods of silver and gold. But even here there is hope; "For the Word of God is quick and powerful and will not return void."

In the business world the religion of Christ is controlling men to as great an extent as ever before. In the great reforms the Church is moving forward. Aggressive assaults are being made on the kingdom of Satan. The Church is insisting on the proper observance of the Sabbath. In the temperance reform there is progress. The canteen has been driven from the army as it had been from the navy. In the west a new star appeared and gave a new impetus to this great reform. Everywhere new light is breaking forth. In realms, social and political, moral and spiritual, there is onward movement. Ignorance and prejudice and superstition are passing away. Tyranny is being overthrown. The rights and the duties of the individual, the office and the welfare of society, the largeness of the kingdom and the mission of the Church are all better understood to-day than ever before. The fatherhood of God, the botherhood of man, and the unity in Christ of all true Christians are, with the new century, taking on a new meaning and a new power. God is magnifying the witness of himself in every land. Great world movements are sweeping onward. The indications are that the present century will be a decisive one. The present state of religion is such as to inspire hope. The present condition of the Church gives a bright outlook into the future. The indications are such that we may pray, even now and in faith, that the kingdoms of this world may soon become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ; that the Church may soon go forward in all the beauty of divine and all conquering love; that soon earth's song and heaven's symphony meeting will unite in one triumphant song of praise, that will sound on and forever in honor of him who is before all things and in whom all things consist.

"And blessed be his glorious name to all eternity,
The whole earth let his glory fill. Amen, so let it be."

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. GARVIN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS.

Your Committee on Ways and Means would report that there was submitted to it, by the Committee of last year, a constitution and by-laws, for the use of congregations. Your Committee has examined the constitution and by-laws and has made such amendments as in the judgment of the Committee were deemed proper, and herewith submits a copy of the said constitution and by-laws, as amended, and recommends the same for adoption.

Your Committee, believing that a simple, and as near as may be, uniform system of keeping the accounts of congregations, would be for the best financial interest of the Church, herewith submits sample pages of a Church Treasurer's Record and recommends its adoption.

Recognizing that the giving of our means as the Lord may prosper us should be regarded as an act of worship essential to the highest Christian growth, that the method observed is important, and that the amount given should not be less than the tithe; your Committee, while not ready to recommend the adoption of what is termed the "Covenant Plan of Tithing" as a rule of the Church, believes that the plan is deserving of careful consideration. At the request of the Committee, Mr. George W. Somers has published an article in our Church papers explaining the plan.

While your Committee is of the opinion that the work of raising funds for the boards of the Church, under existing conditions, is more especially the work of our congregations, under the supervision of our financial agents, it has published a short article in our Church papers, urging our people to give of their means as the Lord may have prospered them.

It is the judgment of the Committee that, for the present, no better measures can be devised for raising the money necessary to support the general work of the Church, than the measures heretofore approved by the General Assembly. The recommendations in this report are intended as aids in the execution of the approved measures.

The contributions for the regular mission work of the Church, during the past year, have not been in proportion to the material prosperity of our people, but your Committee is inclined to believe that the cause has not been so much the fault of the measures, as in the execution of the measures.

A closer walk with Jesus will increase our interest in his cause, will enable us to live upon a higher spiritual plane, and we will find a greater pleasure in giving. The Spirit of God will give us a truer loyalty to our Church and we will regard the appropriations made by the Church as the work of the Lord. The Christian conscience cannot well be at ease, until the amounts necessary for the regular work of the Church have been paid as fully and as promptly as an honest business man pays his debts.

This Committee regrets to record the loss to the Church in the death of Mr. W. J. Sawyer, which occurred December 12, 1900. Mr. Sawyer had been connected with the Ways and Means Committee since its origin, and was regarded as one of its most efficient members. In council he was wise, in methods he was suggestive, as a member he was faithful. As a man he was honest and sincere, as a friend he was constant and firm, as a Christian he was conscientious and true. In the enterprise of raising the Quarter Centennial Fund his business habits and enthusiasm had no little part in the success of the movement, which has meant so much to the boards of the Church and her educational institutions. With regret this Committee has felt his absence during this year, and wishes to leave on record this token of appreciation of his services to the Church.

Respectfully sumbitted,

MILLARD MCMURDO,
J. H. MCMILLAN,
HUGH R. MOFFET,
W. S. WEIR,
ROBERT RUTLEDGE,
GEO. W. SOMERS.

MODEL CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, the need of orderly and better defined procedure in the affairs of the congregation is recognized; therefore, we, the members of the United Presbyterian Church of....., do hereby ordain and establish this, our constitution and by-laws.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This congregation is incorporated under the name of, and shall be known as the,.....United Presbyterian Church of.....

ARTICLE II.

RELATIONSHIP.

Being organized as a congregation of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, we hereby declare our acceptance of the government and discipline and directory for worship of that Church, and our subordination to her several courts, and particularly to the Presbytery of.....

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. Only members in full communion shall be eligible to office.

Sec. 2. The officers of the congregation shall be: 1. The officiating minister and the ruling elders constituting the session; 2. A Board of..... trustees; 3. A treasurer; 4. A clerk; 5. A chief usher.

ARTICLE IV.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. An election for officers shall be held during the week following the last Sabbath of March of each year, and shall be by ballot, unless otherwise provided by unanimous consent or vote of two-thirds of the members voting.

Sec. 2. Only members in full communion are permitted to vote for officers.

Sec. 3. The number, term of office, and manner of choosing the members of the session are provided in the Book of Government and Discipline, chapters 6 and 7.

Sec. 4. A chairman shall be elected at the opening of each meeting of the congregation to preside during that meeting.

Sec. 5. The treasurer, clerk and chief usher shall be elected for one year from April 1, and shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The term of office for trustees shall be three years, and shall end when their successors are elected and qualified. The trustees first elected under this constitution, however, shall divide into three classes by lot, so that one-third of their number may retire at the annual meeting of the first year, and another third at the annual meeting of the second year, the remainder retiring at the annual meeting of the third year, thereby and thereafter requiring the election of one-third of the trustees each year.

Sec. 7. Terms of office shall begin at the annual meeting except when otherwise provided.

Sec. 8. Vacancies in elective offices may be declared by vote of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting of the congregation duly called for that purpose, or when an officer for any reason shall cease to be a member of the congregation in full communion. In case of such vacancy, an election shall at once be held to fill the unexpired term.

ARTICLE V.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. The Session. The session is charged with the spiritual oversight and government of the congregation. It belongs to it to decide upon qualifications of applicants for church membership, to enquire into the knowledge, character and conduct of members, to arraign offenders, to admonish, rebuke or suspend them, as the proper exercises of discipline may require; to dismiss members in good standing with proper certificate to other congregations, and do whatever else pertains to their office, in maintaining the good order and promoting the edification of the Church, as denoted in the Government and Discipline of the United Presbyterian Church and the deliverance of her several judicatories. The session shall hold at least one stated meeting each month, the time and place of which shall be announced at the preceding Sabbath morning service.

Sec. 2. Board of Trustees (a) The board of trustees shall be entrusted with such responsibilities as the civil law assigns to it. (b) The board shall organize as soon as may be possible after each annual meeting of the congregation, by the election of a chairman and secretary who shall serve for one year, and shall adopt such rules for its own government as may be necessary. (c) It shall have charge of the property and finances of the congregation, subject, however, to the duly expressed authority of the session. (d) It shall attend to the payment of all taxes and assessments upon the property of the congregation, and care that such property is kept insured and in good repair, and shall secure and direct the necessary janitor service. (e) It shall audit all bills against the congregation and issue warrants upon the treasurer for their payment, signed by the chairman and countersigned by the secretary of the board. (f) It shall, prior to the first Sabbath of each April, secure as nearly as possible the names of all members of the church and others who are willing to subscribe a definite amount payable weekly towards the expenses of the congregation and hand the list of these subscribers to the treasurer as soon as practicable. (g) It shall prepare and submit in writing to the annual meeting of the congregation an annual budget of appropriations needed for all purposes for the succeeding year. (h) The board shall hold at least one stated meeting each month, the time and place of which shall be announced at the preceding Sabbath morning service.

Sec. 3. Treasurer. (a) It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all money belonging to the congregation, and pay the same out only upon proper warrants signed by the chairman and countersigned by the secretary of the board of trustees. (b) He shall be careful that expenditures do not exceed the appropriations in the approved budget, and shall charge each item of expenditure against the proper appropriations. (c) He shall keep a record of all receipts and expenditures, and shall from time to time advise the trustees of the general and particular condition of the finances. (d) He shall supply all members, and others who may wish to contribute, with weekly offering envelopes, and shall render to each subscriber a quarterly statement of his or her account. (e) In extraordinary circumstances and when large amounts of money are being handled by him, he shall on direction of the board of trustees give bond in a penal sum not exceeding $5,000, secured by a surety company approved by the board of trustees, who shall draw a warrant for the expense thereof.

Sec. 4. Clerk. (a) It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep correct minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the congregation, and to record the same in a suitable, well-bound book provided for such purposes, and to see that meetings of the congregation are called and announced as herein provided. (b) He shall be the custodian of all valuable papers, such as deeds, insurance policies, written reports of officers and committees, and all papers ordered placed on file by the congregation, and shall provide himself with a strong box (at the expense of the congregation for their safe keeping) and shall deliver all to his successor when he shall be elected and qualified) and He shall notify in writing all persons elected to office by the congregation, and furnish them with minutes of any action of the congregation affecting the administration of their duties.

Sec. 5. Ushers. The chief usher shall have entire charge of the seating of all audiences, and of ventilating the room during services, and shall appoint his own assistants, subject to approval of the session.

ARTICLE VI.

Sec. 1. An auditing committee of three members shall be appointed by the session of the church at its last meeting preceding the annual meeting of the congregation, whose duty it shall be to examine the records, papers and books of the trustees, treasurer and clerk, and to report on the condition and accuracy of the same at the annual meeting of the congregation.

Sec. 2. Special committees may be appointed by the congregation for the performance of special duties as may from time to time appear necessary.

ARTICLE VII.

SABBATH SCHOOL.

Sec. 1. The officers and teachers of the Sabbath school shall be appointed by the session. (See Directory for Worship, chap. 8.) The officers shall be appointed for one year. The superintendent shall have power to nominate teachers.

Sec. 2. The current expenses of the Sabbath school shall be paid from the treasury of the congregation, and shall be included in the annual budget. (See Art. 4, Sec. 2, paragraph G.)

Sec. 3. All money collected by the Sabbath school shall be turned over promptly to the treasurer of the church and applied to the missionary funds, unless otherwise directed by the session.

ARTICLE VIII.

SUB-ORGANIZATIONS.

No sub-organization can exist within the congregation except by authority and consent of the session, and it shall have power to disorganize any such when it shall deem this course necessary.

ARTICLE IX.

REPORTS.

Sec. 1. Annual reports covering the discharge of their responsibilities, the condition of the work committed to them and the recommendations for the good of the church, shall be made to the congregation by the session, board of trustees, treasurer and chief usher, and read at the annual meeting.

Sec. 2. The report of the session should be made by the pastor, and shall include the reports of all organizations within the church, the Sabbath school, woman's missionary, young people's Christian union, etc., and shall cover the following particulars: 1. The pursuit of the purpose of the organization; 2. Present officers and number of members; 3. Funds collected and in what manner; 4. Amounts disbursed, and for what purposes; 5. Balance in treasury, and bills payable, if any; 6. Prospects and plans for future usefulness.

Sec. 3. The report of the board of trustees should be made by the chairman and should contain a careful inventory of the personal property of the congregation, give full information regarding the assets and liabilities, the general condition of the property and suggest ways and means for increasing the resources and economizing the expenses.

Sec. 4. The report of the treasurer should be in sufficient detail to give the contributors and members an intelligent grasp of the finances under the heads, (1) Receipts, (2) Disbursements, (3) Bills Payable, and (4) Bills Receivable. It should also show clearly the amount appropriated for and the amount charged to each fund authorized in the budget.

ARTICLE X.

The annual meeting of the congregation shall be held during the week following the last Sabbath in March at such time as may be fixed by the clerk, suiting as near as possible the convenience of the session and board of trustees. Special meetings may be called by the session, and shall be called by the clerk at the written request of ten members. In all cases at least three days' notice shall be given by announcement at the morning service (Sabbath), and the object of all special meetings shall be stated in such announcement. The following shall be the order of business at all the regular meetings: Calling of meeting to order by clerk; Election of chairman; Devotional exercises; Reading of minutes; Report of officers; Report of committees; Unfinished business; New business; Adjournment.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS.

The constitution and by-laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of members present at any meeting, provided notice of such proposed amendment has been given in the announcement of such meeting.

BY-LAWS.

(1.) The annual budget submitted by the board of trustees (Art. 5, Sec. 2), may be amended and shall be approved by a majority of the members of the congregation voting before it shall be operative, and when it is approved shall govern the board of trustees, treasurer, and all concerned as the maximum amounts to be expended during the calendar year for the purposes specified. No liabilities unprovided for in the budget shall be incurred without the previous approval of the congregation.

(2.) The trustees shall draw a warrant for, and the treasurer shall remit to the presbytery's financial agent, one-twelfth of the amount appropriated for missions at the end of each calendar month; or, in the discretion of the trustees, one-fourth at the end of each quarter.

(3.) Proportionate giving being a distinct and positive command in the Scriptures, all persons becoming members of this church are expected to contribute to the support of the church, of such a portion of their incomes as God requires according to the principles laid down in 1 Corinthians 16:2.

(4.) Members asking for letters of dismissal must first adjust their accounts with the treasurer.

(5.) Persons uniting with the church, having been approved and accepted by the session, shall enter at once on the enjoyment of all the privileges and duties pertaining to this fellowship, and shall be publicly received on the following communion Sabbath, or at such other time as shall be determined by the session.

(6.) The sittings in this church shall be free.

(7.) The use of the church buildings or grounds, for any other than religious services of the congregation and recognized organizations within the church, can only be had with the consent of the session.

(8.) The copy and proofs of all printed matter issued by or bearing the name of this church, or of any organization within this church, shall be submitted to and approved by a committee appointed by the session for that purpose.

(9.) In absence of the clerk, any elder may call the congregation to order, and preside until the election of a chairman and clerk pro tempore.

(10.) When not otherwise provided, Roberts' Rules of Order shall govern the proceedings of meetings.

(11.) The chairman of the board of trustees is ex-officio purchasing agent of the congregation. All purchases to be paid for from funds in the church treasury should be purchased by him or by some one authorized by him.

(12.) Persons having bills against the congregation should present the same to the chairman of the board of trustees.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

Our report consists of statistics and suggestions. We trust the latter will not be presumptuous and the former not tiresome, as they certainly are not discouraging.

I. The Statistics are as follows: Senior societies reported, 777. Of these 618 are under the Christian Union constitution, and 159 are Christian Endeavor organizations. The membership is 31,601. The total amount contributed was $45,002; $13,743 were given through the boards of the Church, or about $1,200 less than one-third the entire sum. Tithers reported, 4,492, and 229 tithe committees. Among the juniors, 419 societies are reported, 289 of them being Junior Christian Unions and 130 of them Junior Missionary Societies. The membership of the Unions is 10,351, and their contributions $5,975. The membership of the Missionary Societies is 6,517 and their contributions $3,687.

In connection with these figures, this item of interest merits special mention. For the first time we are able to give reports from both Egypt and India. In the synod of the Nile, there are eight Christian Union Societies and four Christian Endeavor Societies, with a total membership of 781; four Junior Unions with 116 members and three Junior Missionary Societies with 331 members. The Seniors, 34 of whom are tithers, contributed $159, and the Juniors $38. The synod of the Punjab reports four Christian Union and two Christian Endeavor Societies, with a total membership of 104, and three Junior Unions with 89 members. The Seniors, 18 of whom practice tithing, contributed $16.

These figures do not represent thoroughly the condition of our young people's work. For the statistics are far from complete, and in very many instances they are quite fragmentary in what they are supposed to give. This year, reports were received from every presbytery save one, the presbytery of Spokane. After repeated letters and a telegram, the man supposed to be the secretary of the Christian Union for that presbytery replied that he did not know he had anything to do with it, and so could furnish no data. But out of the 60 other presbyteries reporting, only 19 gave returns from every society. So that in one presbytery all of the societies, and in 41 presbyteries very many of the societies have no credit whatever. But notwithstanding this, which however is annoying and apparently inexcusable, progress has been made in every particular except two, and for one of these losses there is a reasonable excuse. The contributions for this year are less than last year's by $5,424. But you will remember that last year's report had the benefit of the special enthusiasm generated by the Tenth Anniversary Offering at the Pittsburgh convention. During the year, there has been a gain of 47 societies and 840 members among the Seniors; and among the Juniors, a gain of 27 societies and 1,762 members.

The presbyterial conventions have been quite up to their usual standard. Some of the presbyterial secretaries speak of them as follows: "Increased interest," "Large attendance," "Outlook of aggressive work excellent," "More interest shown than ever before," "Splendid meetings," etc. I have multiplied these quotations, and I might easily have given more, with a purpose. Your Committee has no sympathy with, nor endorsement of the idea that young people's work is on the wane. The facts do not warrant even the suggestion of the charge, much less the serious entertaining of it. Still, we have not yet attained nor are we already perfect. For 221 congregations report no senior society, and 578 have no organization among the juniors.

II. These are Our Suggestions: First, At our last meeting in Warsaw, Indiana, this action was taken: "The General Committee on Young People's Work would respectfully request the General Assembly that Mr. E. B. McKown, who has acted as chairman since the withdrawal of Rev. R. G. Ramsay, be continued to fill regularly his own term of office the coming year."

Second, At the same meeting this was acted upon: "The minutes of the Denver concention contain the following recommendation, viz.: 'After considerable discussion the General Committee was directed to take the necessary steps to change our motto to, 'God; Whose I am and Whom I serve.' Notwithstanding this action and with all due respect to it, it is the sense of this Committee that the proposed change is not needed, and the General Secretary is hereby instructed to incorporate this action in his report to the General Assembly."

Third, The General Secretary was instructed to correspond with George B. Graff, agent of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, and ask for our societies, where desired, the right to have their prayer meeting topics printed locally. These topics are selected and copyrighted by the United Society of Christian Endeavor, and Mr. Graff's reply was that such privilege would always be granted, provided each society, so desiring, would write for permission to have its own printing done. Your Committee would suggest that a copyright is a copyright, and that we have neither legal nor moral defense for disregarding it, and that both law and Christian comity ought to be respected more in this regard.

Fourth, The thirteenth annual convention of the Young People's Christian Union is to be held at Winona Lake, Indiana, July 24-28, 1901. The program is being arranged with the one idea prominent—a spiritual quickening and uplift. And you, as ministers and laymen, may contribute largely either to the achievement of this result, or to a disappointment by your attitude towards the convention.

Respectfully submitted,

E. B. McKown, Acting Chairman.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEE OF THE UNITED SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The undersigned was nominated by the Assembly of 1898, as a member of the board of trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor for a term of three years. Your nominee begs leave to report that he was elected to that position and has endeavored to represent the United Presbyterian Church in that great organization, which stands for denominational loyalty and interdenominational fellowship in a movement to develop the activities of young Christians. It is the desire of the United Society of Christian Endeavor that this Assembly should again nominate a person to represent you in that body.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. McMillan.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE ALLEGHENY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The work of another prosperous year of this institution has been completed. The professors have all been in their places throughout the year, and the health of the students has been generally good. There was an invasion of scarlet fever which gave great alarm, but happily only two mild cases appeared.

The number of students enrolled has been 74, being nine more than last year. These have been classified as follows: In the senior class, 23; in the middle class, 30; in the junior class, 21.

The faculty continues, as per our last report, as follows: James A. Grier, D.D., LL.D., professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology, temporary professor of Homiletics, and president of the faculty; D. A. McClenahan, D.D., professor of Old Testament Literature and Criticism, and secretary of the faculty; John McNaugher, D.D., professor of New Testament Literature and Criticism and registrar of the faculty; J. A. Wilson, D.D., professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government, temporary professor of Pastoral Theology, and librarian.

The curriculum established by the Assembly has been pursued, including Christian missions and experimental religion. A course of lectures on Sabbath school work was given the past year by men especially qualified on the subject. This has been very helpful to the students.

The board is able to report to the Assembly that the work of both faculty and students has been thoroughly done, and men are being sent out to fill the sacred office of the ministry well equipped for their work.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. WILSON, President.

REPORT OF THE MANAGERS OF THE XENIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

In presenting our report, we desire to make mention of the grace and goodness of our covenant God, vouchsafed to us as a board and seminary, during the past year.

1. In that, during the session that has just closed, we have been permitted to install in the chair of Systematic Theology in connection with that of Church History, a worthy successor to the worthy Prof. James Harper, D.D., resigned, in the person of Prof. Joseph Kyle, D.D. It is a matter for congratulation to the Church at large, that the synods in charge have shown such unmistakable wisdom in this matter. The departments, once more, are all equipped with loyal and devout men.

2. The lives of both professors and students have been precious in God's sight. No interruption has been permitted to occur on account of sickness, serious enough to prevent the faithful carrying out of the curriculum as set for the class-room work, so that the entire course for the year has been gone over. Besides the regular class work, several addresses have been delivered to the students by visiting brethren under the auspices of the Students' Missionary Association on themes relating to the work of the ministry.

3. The spiritual status of the seminary is most gratifying, as indicated by devotion to duty, and appreciation of privileges on the part of students and professors, manifesting themselves in the spirit of harmony and self-dedication, found also in the fact that in ten years a higher general average in grades, in recitations and final examinations, has not been attained, the minimum grade being 92 per cent., the maximum 97.9 per cent.

4. The board is desirous of devising liberal things for the physical and spiritual welfare of the young men who are seeking a safe, and a comparatively inexpensive, preparation for the great work of the gospel ministry. To the steam heating plant has been added electric light, by way of making the building comfortable and cheerful; and the finance committee has been instructed to fit up bath rooms, during the summer vacation. The board has also taken steps to arrange for an extended course of lectures to the students during the year, to be delivered by well-known and able instructors.

5. To the general endowment fund there has been added through gifts of generous hearts and hands, the sum of $20,000. The number of students in the third year class, who have received their graduating diplomas, is seven. Though the number graduating this year is not so large as last, yet we feel sure that the Church has received an ample compensation in that both the students and her ministry are richer "in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." "How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight?" "It is not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

W. S. McCLURE, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE FIFTEENTH ARTICLE OF THE TESTIMONY.

After carefully considering the matter submitted to us by the last General Assembly your Committee would respectfully report:

It does not appear that there exists in the Church such a demand for a change in our Testimony against secret societies, as would justify the sending down in overture the Article under consideration. It does, however, appear that the rule is variously construed, and that there are differences of administration. Uniformity in this particular has been rendered more difficult by the multiplication of various secret orders, with a great diversity of objects in view. Some sessions have construed the law as mandatory and consequently requiring the exclusion of members of secret orders of every kind from membership in the Church, irrespective of the special object which they may seek to promote, or the spirit and the attitude of the applicant for membership in the Church. Others have regarded the law as advisory in character, and not necessarily excluding from membership in certain societies. In some cases sessions have recognized the principle that there may be exceptions to all rules and have used discretion in individual cases, while others have not felt free to exercise any discretion in the premises.

We recommend the following for your adoption:

Resolved, That while Article XV. of our Testimony defines in a manner sufficiently explicit the general law of our Church on the subject of secretism, sessions possess and are expected to exercise a wise discretion in the administration of the law, dealing with such cases as may arise upon their merits, and in such a way as may best promote God's glory and the peace and prosperity of the Church.

Inasmuch as the "formula" of questions for the admission of members was referred to this Committee by the reference of the report of the committee to the last Assembly, and inasmuch as there are certain inaccuracies in the order of these questions, such as adherence to the distinctive doctrines of the Church taking precedence to profession of faith in Christ, we would recommend that such action be taken as may be necessary for the amendment of Sec. VI. Chap. 2 of the General Administration to read as follows:

1. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the infallible and only rule of faith and practice?

2. Do you profess your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; your acceptance of him as your Saviour, and your resolution through grace to continue in the faith?

3. Do you accept the doctrines, government and worship of this Church as agreeable to and founded on the Word of God, so far as you have been enabled to understand them, and do you profess your willingness to be instructed in them?

4. Do you promise to be subject to the order and discipline of God's house; to be diligent in your attendance upon divine ordinances, both teaching and sealing; faithful in the study of God's Word and in devotion to private and family religion; to avoid every form of worldiness as detrimental to your spiritual growth?

5. Do you engage to seek the peace, purity and prosperity of this congregation while you remain a member thereof, to give it your active service, your financial support as God may prosper you, and the influence of a godly life?

6. Do you make this profession as in the presence of God, in reliance on his grace, and as you desire to give in your account with joy at the great day?

REPORT ON THE LIMITATION OF APPEALS IN CASES OF DISCIPLINE.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly "to consider such changes as may be necessary in our Book of Government and Discipline, in the limitation of the synod as the last court of appeal or complaint in all matters of discipline not affecting the doctrines of the Church," respectfully submits the following report:

The Book of Government and Discipline is constructed on the principle of the right of appeal to the highest court in every case. It would, therefore, seem to be desirable that all parts of the Book relating in any way to the powers of the courts, the right of appeal and the processes to be followed, should be rewritten; but, on the principle that all subordinate regulations are to be interpreted in accordance with a clearly defined statement of law or regulation setting forth a general course to be followed, a few changes may be sufficient to affect the object in view, and limit appeals in cases of discipline to the synod. The following changes are, therefore, recommended:

1. Amend Part I, Chapter V, Article IV, by striking out Section 4, which authorizes the General Assembly to refer appeals in cases of discipline to a commission.

2. Amend Part III, Chapter XII, Section 2, which treats of "the ways in which a case may be carried from a lower to a higher court," so as to read: "Every decision in any court, except the highest having jurisdiction, is subject to the review of a superior court."

3. Amend Section 1, of Article II, of the same Chapter, to read as follows: "A reference is a judicial representation made by an inferior court to a superior court having jurisdiction, of a matter not yet decided."

4. Amend Article II of the same Chapter, by inserting the following as Section 2: "In cases of discipline, an appeal or complaint may be made to the synod as the court of final jurisdiction, but an appeal or complaint concerning doctrines, general regulations, the interpretation of law, or the regularity of proceedings, may be made direct from the presbytery or synod to the General Assembly, whose judgment shall be for the guidance of the lower courts. Such appeal or complaint shall always be made in writing, and shall contain a clear statement of the issue involved. The General Assembly shall enter upon its records the appeal as presented from the lower court, a clear statement of its own decision, and the grounds upon which it is made."

REPORT ON UNEMPLOYED MINISTERS AND VACANT CONGREGATIONS.

Your Committee, to which was referred the matter, by the last Assembly, of some remodeling of our plans for securing appointments for unemployed ministers and the supply of vacant congregations, beg leave to present the following report:

In answer to several memorials presented to the last Assembly, in which certain defects in our home mission system were complained of, your Committee was appointed to report to this Assembly some method by which the irregularities and inequities of the present plan might be removed, or a new plan proposed. The problem, given to us for solution, seemed to our minds so perplexing and difficult, that we were at a loss to find any plan which would vary in any considerable degree from that at present in operation, unless we should depart from our whole Presbyterian order of the settled pastorate, and adopt some form of episcopacy, which would place the power of appointing all ministers to their respective fields for a definite period in the hands of the synods or some central committee, under the direction of the General Assembly.

This plan contemplates the removal arbitrarily, after a period of from one to five years, of every minister, and assigning him to another field. Such an arrangement would remove from the people the right to chose their own ministers; a right which has been jealously guarded by our forefathers, and cherished by our Church in every age, as a part of the liberty which we have in Christ; and it would further be a radical departure from the established order under our Presbyterian system of a fixed pastorate, only to be dissolved by the consent of the parties. Any such change seemed to your Committee too radical and revolutionary to be acceptable to our Church, and whether the desired relief would be thereby secured seems to your Committee very questionable.

It is a well known fact that under a system such as this, the Methodist Episcopal Church, which has such a splendid record, and such great missionary spirit, which used to boast that it had a place for every minister and a minister for every place, now has its best pulpits filled with ministers, who have been virtually called to the place before the bishop or conference has passed upon the matter, and all that is left for them to do is to ratify the choice or call of the local church for the man they want; while a long list of supernumeraries and local preachers, terms often covering inefficiency and unacceptability, and of poorly supplied churches, only repeats the complaints so often heard against the plan which obtains among us. The complaints about "favoritism," "clicks" and "wire-pulling" to secure desirable appointments, and the consequent jealousies, heart-burnings and bitterness, which are often heard of from these sources, indicate that the severe arraignment of "shameful system," "lawless procedure," "a disgrace to the Church," "humiliating to the Christian ministry," etc., sometimes heard among us, are not peculiar to our system, but are hurled with vehemence against the Episcopal form of government, by those who grow dissatisfied with it.

Your Committee, in its perplexity as it wrestled with the problem, turned to other brethren in the Church, to learn what might in their judgment, and in the light of their experience, be a better method, than the one now operating. A circular letter was sent out to one hundred representative ministers and laymen, chiefly to ministers, asking their opinion on the matters presented in the following questions. Replies came to sixty of them, almost all of them from ministers, and we give the result.

First question:—"Is the present method of appointment for ministers and the supply of vacancies satisfactory, or the best which can be successfully carried out?" To this question there were twenty who answered in the affirmative, thirty in the negative, and ten non-committal. Among the comments on the affirmative were, "Less complaint now than formerly," "Gives every one a chance on his own merits," "Gives more liberty of choice to the men and the congregations," "Not faultless, but the best available," "Not satisfactory to all, but you will not find a plan to suit all." On the negative side, "Too much Congregationalism," "Works well for large men and congregations, but poorly for little ones," "Not worthy of the name, method," "Difficult to get men in remote fields," "Older men do not get a hearing."

Second question:—"Would a return to a system similar to that formerly employed, of having the General Committee of Missions distribute the men be an advisable method?" Answers: affirmative, fifteen; negative, thirty-five; non-committal, ten. Comments for, "As good as any that can be devised," "Better than the present method," "It was more successful in securing regular employment for men," "Commended by many in the Presbyterian Church," "Our vacancies were better cared for then;" against, "We have outgrown it," "Many men would not submit their names," "Presbyteries got supplies elsewhere," "Wholly impracticable," "Church too large now for such a system," "Men sought their own appointments, and congregations their own supplies."

Third question:—"Would a more thorough oversight of the appointments by the presbyteries, and more presbyterial authority in the matter remedy the evils complained of?" Affirmative, forty; negative, five; non-committal, fifteen. Comments, "Would help," "We are drifting into Congregationalism," "Do more to solve the problem than anything else," "Certainly," "Congregations should be trained to listen to the voice of the presbytery," "We need to get down, or rather up, to presbyterial authority," "As a penalty where men will not go to needy fields, withhold all appointments," "Yes, if backed by the General Assembly and the ministry generally," "Men who resign should report their names at once to the home mission secretary, and he send these names monthly to superintendents of missions," "Does not reach the case of providing for the unemployed," "A consummation devoutly to be wished," "Yes, if presbyteries will deal with obsteperous men as well as with obsteperous congregations," "Congregations want better men than they can get; men want better places than they can hold; presbytery would be a better judge as to what would be a good fit," "An S. M. with grit, get-up, grace and gumption about him, and who magnifies the presbyterial authority behind him, the best remedy," "Would not remedy all evils, for complaints will probably be heard as long as men are deficient in spiritual power and ministerial efficiency," "Better get back to presbyterial oversight, than adopt some plan which leads away from it."

Fourth question:—"Have you any other plan or method to suggest that might aid in solving this difficult problem?" Affirmative, thirteen; negative, forty. Comments, "Men might be distributed by a small committee, or subcommittee of one from each synod in connection with the work of the General Committee of Missions. This would be worth five years' trial," "Get the best possible man for S. M., and hold him responsible," "Congregations may ask for certain men of the S. M., but let him arrange the dates and make the appointment," "The Church should have greater care in admitting men to the ministry. Ministers who are incapacitated for effective service should be encouraged to go on an honorably retired or superannuated list," "We should have more money for home missions and give employment to more men." "Restrain settled ministers from running after every good vacancy which occurs," "Supply home mission congregations by the home board, others by the presbytery," "Put all the authority in the hands of the secretary of the home board, and let him have absolute control of all vacancies and all the men," "Less self-seeking and more of the spirit of Christ," "A form of sustentation by which congregations may be formed into pastoral charges, and a salary of not less than $800 be provided for each charge," "Work the plan we have." A father in the Church says, "My experience is that any minister of respectable ability and approved piety can always find work in our Church, if he will go to places where he is needed. I do not think any great number of ministers are suffering injustice under the present system, or that there is any other system which would not be exposed to similar evils." "More men ready to obey the call which comes to them, fewer men looking after good settlements." "Recognition of the fact that some men are no longer efficient and acceptable." Others suggest some form of Episcopacy, in which some central board, under the direction of the several synods or the General Assembly, shall have control of all ministers and all congregations. All appointments made for one year, subject to renewal year by year up to five years, but no minister to be continued more than five years in one place. Much as we respect the opinions, and appreciate the love for our Zion of the brethren, who advocate this form of modified Episcopacy, we regard it as too wide a departure from historic Presbyterianism, and too radical, not to say drastic, in its operations, to be acceptable to our Church. Much as we deplore the difficulties which beset our present method, we believe this one would give rise to endless complaints and dissatisfaction. We believe that the provisions of the Presbyterian form of Church Government, which is not only scriptural, but a golden mean between the looseness of independency, and the rigidity of Episcopacy, is adequate to meet the situation, and properly care for all the interests of the Church. These considerations,

"Make us rather bear those ills we have,
Than fly to others that we know not of."

If men, as they appear in the pulpit to feed the flock of God do not impress themselves as suitable guides for the flock so as to receive a call, there is little to hope for in the way of useful pastorates, when these ministers are thrust upon the people by some appointing power, and are not the free choice of the people. We believe the most careful, judicious mind of the Church to be, not a new system for vacancy and supply, but more of the spirit of Christ, in following out the arrangements we already have, and which may be amended from time to time to suit changing conditions. The plan to have the former system of distributing men by the General Committee, while having much merit, broke down under the spirit of congregationalism, in which many ministers and congregation made their own arrangements for preaching, by methods wholly aside from the provisions of the presbytery and the General Assembly, and hence it was set aside. A committee was appointed by the Assembly of 1897, to devise some different plan. That committee, after careful deliberation, proposed a plan to the General Assembly of 1898, providing for a committee, composed of one minister from each synod, which should meet twice each year to distribute ministers desiring employment, to the different presbyteries. This report, which removed many of the objections to the former system, and seemed to afford relief from the evils complained of, was laid upon the table of the Assembly, where it still remains. (See Minutes of 1898. Report on page 624, and action taken, page 508.) This seemed to dispose of the idea that the Church wants the distribution of men to the different presbyteries by any committee, whether large or small.

As these methods are not acceptable to the Church, is it not a time for the General Assembly and the presbyteries to rally to a more careful observance of the Presbyterian system in caring for our vacancies and unemployed ministers? We all lament the decay of the power of the presbytery, and no one is to blame for this, so much as the presbyteries themselves. If the presbytery fails to exercise its divinely given authority and magnify its high calling, its influence will speedily fall into contempt. Nothing so soon undermines authority, as to allow its requirements to be trifled with, and its rulings to be trampled upon. We believe a judicious and firm application of the authority of the presbytery will remedy nearly all of the irregularities and inequalities complained of.

One prominent complaint is that we have no order in providing for vacancy and supply, and that ministers and congregations are a law unto themselves. Our Presbyterian system supposes that a vacant congregation is under the care of the presbytery. In other words, the presbytery is the pro tempore pastor of pastorless congregations, and is to have the supply of the pulpit, and all arrangements for securing a pastor under its direction, until a settlement is affected. There may be at times some restiveness under the method of each congregation receiving its supplies through the presbytery, but these are exceptional cases. Usually by due consideration of the rights, both of the congregation and presbytery, these matters may be adjusted satisfactorily. Indeed the complaints about our present system have not proceeded from the congregations, but from the ministry themselves, and when made, these resolve themselves into about two grievances; first, that the ministry is overcrowded, and that the Church should regulate the matter of the increase of the ministry, so that men already in the office may not be displaced or crowded out; and second, that to seek appointments through the superintendents of missions, is belittling and repugnant to a self-respecting minister. As to the first of these objections, it is probably overestimated. It is true that presbyteries are sometimes a little weak in admitting men into the ministry, who may be over anxious to get into the pulpit, or whose friends may be very persistent in crowding them in.

Instances of failure in the ministry can often be traced to this over-persistency. A great kindness would have been done to these persons, if presbyteries had kindly but firmly said, "We do not think that this person has the gifts and qualifications calculated to give success in the ministry, and that his services, in some other calling than the ministry, would seem to give promise of greater usefulness to the Church." Many a good farmer, physician, or teacher, has been spoiled when certain men have crowded into the ministry only to be disappointed in the after years, and cry out against the Church that they have not been fairly treated.

Presbyteries should carefully guard the door to the ministerial office, so that over-anxious persons, without the necessary gifts and qualifications, may not thrust themselves into the ministry. But is the ministry overcrowded? We sometimes think so when we hear it announced that 320, or nearly one-third of the entire ministry of our Church, are without charges, and only 187 congregations to be supplied. But a careful analysis of this list shows that, of these ministers, 34 are editors, professors in seminaries or colleges, or secretaries of boards, and cannot enter the pastorate, as their time is taken up serving the Church in other lines; 34 are agents or lecturers, or engaged in other business, which would prevent their entering upon the pastoral office. Then 64 are disqualified by some sickness or some complication, which hinders them from the pastorate; 66 are infirm by reason of years and long service; 33 are missionaries in foreign lands; five are engaged in special lines of religious work, apart from the pastoral office. During the year, at least, seven have died, and 15 have accepted charges. This would leave but 60, who are able and willing to undertake the active work of the ministry in the pastoral office, to supply something like 187 congregations. Is the ministry overcrowded? During the past year, we know that many superintendents of missions have found it difficult to find men for needy fields. It is not so hard to find men for nice-feathered nests, but to find men willing to take up hard fields, and make something of them, is a difficult matter.

As to the objection that men have to ask for appointments at the hand of superintendents of missions, we hope this is not a serious objection with many. It is simply coming into the line where the Lord of the vineyard may find laborers to send them forth. This is not seeking employment from congregations, but coming forward to offer one's services, through the properly constituted authorities, to the Church. If any one's zeal for saving souls and building up the Church of Jesus Christ is overshadowed by such extreme delicacy, it should be overcome. The Church wants men, must have them. Will not these brethren help solve this hard problem, by placing themselves in the hands of the superintendents of missions, that they may be available for appointments?

Unlicensed students should not be allowed to assume the right to supply vacancies. This is often done to the supplanting of both ordained ministers and licentiates, and has grown to be a scandal upon our theological seminaries and our Presbyterian system which places honor upon the ordained ministry. If law and order in the Church means anything, if protecting the rights of our unemployed ministers means anything, presbyteries should be instructed to lay hands on this great and growing evil and suppress it. For young men who need financial help in entering the ministry, the Church out of its own beneficence provides funds for their assistance, that they may give themselves wholly to their studies, and the temptation to break over the safeguards of law may be removed.

Ministers, who are already settled over congregations, have given occasion for much complaint by the way in which they seek a hearing in congregations supposedly better than their own. When a charge paying a good salary becomes vacant, many settled ministers in hope of bettering their condition besiege by letter by their "next friend" for a hearing to the supplanting of worthy and deserving brethren, who are without charge, frequently with families to support, who are dependent upon them for some such income. This policy, which sets aside those who are regularly in the field as supplies, works serious injury to these brethren, and who can blame them if they cry out loudly against such intrusion upon their rights? Your Committee would recommend for adoption, the following resolutions:

1. That each presbytery be instructed to hold a conference at an early date upon the authority and rights of the presbytery and how these are to be maintained in the matter of vacancy and supply.

2. That the Board of Home Missions, through its corresponding secretary, be constituted a bureau of information, and that on request he furnish each superintendent of missions, at the first of each month, the names and addresses of ministers and licentiates who are able and willing to fill pastorates.

3. That each minister who becomes unemployed, and each licentiate on his licensure, be instructed to communicate his name to the Home Mission Board, for their use in informing the superintendents of missions.

4. That presbyteries be instructed to choose the best possible man for the office of superintendent of missions, and that he, as chairman of the committee on supplies, be charged by the presbytery with the duty of caring for the vacant congregations, and to hold congregations and ministers to the rule, that appointments in each pulpit be made only through this officer of the presbytery.

5. That the attention of the presbyteries be called to the rule, and that they be instructed carefully to enforce it, that only licentiates or ordained ministers are to receive appointments in vacant pulpits.

6. That in case of a protracted vacancy, the presbytery shall have the right, after one year of vacancy, to place in such pulpit a supply for three months or longer, as may seem expedient, with a view to secure prompt settlement of vacancies.

REPORT ON A BOOK OF INSTRUCTION FOR JUNIORS.

The committee, appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare a book of instruction to cover the three-fold field of Bible study, missions, and Church history, for the use of our junior societies, would respectfully report as follows:

R. J. Miller, D.D., was prevailed upon to undertake the authorship of such a book. Rev. J. O. Ashenhurst kindly furnished blackboard helps, and Rev. J. A. Cosby gave some helpful suggestions for memorizing Scripture and for prayer. The work grew to be of larger proportions than was at first anticipated, and in order to make a smaller book for use, as well as to get out a portion of it more promptly, it was decided to publish it in two parts.

Part I. was issued by the Board of Publication about January 1, and consists of 24 lessons for children in Old Testament study. Part II., which will cover New Testament study, with Church history, and twelve lessons on the subject of missions, will probably be issued early after the return of Rev. Dr. Miller from Europe.

From the annual statistical reports concerning junior work it is learned that a very large number of our junior societies have introduced the book. The high praise accorded it wherever used, seems universal. There is one criticism, and only one, which has been urged with the committee, and that is in reference to the cost of the book. It has sold at the rate of 25 cents per single copy, or 15 cents in lots of ten or more copies. This has been against its more universal introduction, and has led to its being used by the superintendents alone, in many instances, instead of its being taken by the societies for distribution among the children. Your committee would recommend:

1. That the book be furnished to our juniors for 10 cents per copy, in lots of ten or more.

2. That this little book, so carefully prepared by the editor of our children's literature receive the earnest consideration and hearty patronage of our junior workers.

J. F. JAMIESON, Chairman.

REPORT ON REFORM.

Besides her duty of giving the gospel to every creature, the Church of Christ has the work of doing good as she has opportunity to all men. It is under this department that she is the originator and promoter of public reforms. As the divinely commissioned benefactor of the human race, it is the work of the Church of Christ to oppose, and, as far as possible, eradicate the vices and sins that corrupt society and bring upon its individual members temporal misery, moral degradation and eternal ruin. The legalized liquor traffic, the profanation of the holy Sabbath, licentiousness legalized in laws of marriage and divorce, and prevailing lawlessly in literature, harmonized in nearly every conclusion. The aim was, first, To find out and plays and prostitution, the gambling spirit, invading the parlors of society, entangling the young and unwary in its innumerable cabals and conspiracies, and with all this such a low state of civic virtue that the solemn oath of civil officers gives no security for the performance of their duties, the Church, as the reprover of sin and the conservator of public righteousness, has call to the most energetic and effective performance of her function.

It is not enough that the representatives of the Church in the Church courts should appeal to the representatives of the people in legislatures and executive offices. A more direct appeal to the people themselves must be made. To give this stronger influence and wider effect, the appeal should be not denominational, but general. If the supreme courts of all or of many of the Christian bodies could be combined in a testimony against prevailing vices and an earnest appeal for needed reforms, their testimony and appeal would come with greater power and would influence a much larger constituency. It will be good for followers of the Son of God, who was manifested to destroy the works of the Devil, to move together under their one Leader, and will be an evidence to the world that the Father hath sent him.

We therefore recommend that the Assembly appoint a Committee on Reform for the coming year; that it direct the Committee to meet and organize early in the year, and to proceed at once to open correspondence with committees or representatives of as many Churches as possible; and that, securing such co-operation for the present and preparing the way for it in the future, the Committee be authorized, in the name of the General Assembly, to act as its agent in seeking to secure needed reforms, and in preventing all efforts to legalize and popularize prevailing vices. We also recommend to our people the discriminating support of all Christian reforms in civil and social life.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE METRICAL PSALMS.

The Joint Committee of American and Canadian Churches on the Revision of the Metrical Version of the Psalms met in the First Presbyterian church, Asbury Park, N. J., from September 18th to the 27th, 1900, and in the board room of the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, Philadelphia, from April 24th to May 7th, 1901, holding a session of three or four hours each forenoon and each afternoon (excepting Saturdays), and two extra evening sessions. There were present representatives from the following Churches: (1) Presbyterian Church (North), (2) Canadian Presbyterian Church, (3) United Presbyterian Church, (4) Reformed Church in America, (5) Christian Reformed Church, (6) Reformed Presbyterian Church (Synod), (7) Reformed Presbyterian Church (General Synod), (8) Associate Presbyterian Church. At Philadelphia the Committee noted with sorrow the recent removal by death of one of their number, who took a deep interest in the work, namely, Rev. Dr. John T. Duffield, of Princeton.

At the meeting held in New York, in April, 1900, the first nine Psalms were revised; at the meeting in Asbury Park the revision was carried as far as Psalm 34, and at the meeting in Philadelphia it extended to Psalm 72. A careful examination was also made of the next book (Psalms 73 to 89), for the purpose of selecting for each Psalm the best version available, which versions will be thoroughly revised at the next meeting of the Committee. While the Scottish version of the Psalter was adopted as a basis for revision, yet in the case of not a few Psalms other versions in various meters have been substituted or will be added as giving better expression to the Psalms they represent. These versions have mostly been tested by public use.

The Committee rejoice in the perfect unanimity in aim and method and spirit which has prevailed in their meetings, and in the last meeting they felt more fully than ever before that the Spirit of God was leading them in the work, and the Committee believe that the results attained so far will be found more faithful to the text, and at the same time in smoother verse than anything that has yet appeared on the Psalms. Of course, the work done will receive another and final revision.

It is gratifying that the Presbyterianism of North America is so largely represented on the Committee, and it is hoped that any branches of the Church not yet co-operating may decide to send representatives, as they are hereby cordially and earnestly invited.

The next meeting of the Committee will be held in Toronto, from August 20th to 29th.

The Psalms as already revised will be printed and sent to the present members of the Committee, and to new representatives when their names are sent to the secretary.

To meet the expense of printing and other small items, the Committee ask, for the current year, the sum of $15 from each of the denominations co-operating. This should be sent without delay to the secretary, Rev. Dr. J. D. Steele, 74 West 103d street, New York City.

The Committee express their cordial thanks to the friends in Philadelphia who so courteously extended hospitality to them while in the city, and to the First Presbyterian church, Asbury Park, and to the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, Philadelphia, for comfortable rooms in which to meet.

REPORT OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE METRICAL PSALMS.

The chairman, Rev. R. G. Ferguson, D.D., was unable to meet with the Committee. The undersigned took part in the work, at Asbury Park, N. J., during ten days in the fall of 1900, and for two weeks at Philadelphia, in April and May, 1901. Before our appointment the Committee held a week's session in New York, in April, 1900, and revised the first nine Psalms. At Asbury Park the revision was continued through Psalm 34, and at Philadelphia to the end of Psalm 72. The next meeting is to be held in Toronto, Canada, on the last ten days of August, where we hope to reach the end of the third book, Psalm 89. All this work, however, is to be revised again before submitting it to the various Churches.

Thus far the Committee has prepared only a single version of each psalm, though in the final revision a few second versions may be added. In the first 72 psalms the common meter was selected in a majority of cases; yet a large minority of selections are from the various meters of our Revised Psalter, a liberal use of which was made in every psalm except a very few. The Committee aims to have all the different meters that are used in sacred music represented in the psalms, to the end that the Churches may have as large a variety of music as is desirable. The changes made by the Committee are chiefly in the Scottish versions; the new versions of our Psalter are generally so accurate as to require few and slight changes.

In this revision eleven denominations are partially enlisted; the eight following are represented by delegates actively engaged in the work: The Canada Presbyterian and the R. P. General Synod, by three delegates each; the R. P. Synod and the U. P. Assembly by two delegates each; the Northern Presbyterian had two delegates at the first meeting, but one of them, Rev. Prof. Duffield, has since died; the (Dutch) Reformed, the Associate and the Christian Reformed, by one each. The Committee have made an effort to secure, if possible, the co-operation of other denominations in our work, and they desire full delegations from each denomination represented. The whole Committee cordially agreed to the principle of a close rendering of each psalm as far as possible in a smooth versification; and in the work so far there are fewer deviations from the text than in the Scottish version or our revision.

The delegates differing in sentiment on many questions, not always agreeing in judgment as to the true sense of Hebrew words and phrases, nor as to the essentials of a close translation, have yet with little dissent harmonized in nearly every conclusion. The aim was, first, To find out and express the true sense of each verse; second, To select the best meter in which to make the versification; and, third, To make each stanza the closest possible to the text, and as smooth as the accepted limitations would allow. We do not imagine that all mistakes are avoided, that our work is not open to just criticism, nor that it will meet universal approval from any of the Churches represented. Objections will be made here and there to our work, and perhaps ought to be made; and doubtless other and better revisions may be made. But we believe that any just critic, in comparing our revision with the original text and with other versions will be compelled to say that we have made great improvement on former versions; that in none of them has there been as close and clear rendering of the text, as few violations of poetic accent and rhythm and meters so well suited to the sentiment of the psalm. We hope to make it, when completed, a revision worthy of recommendation as a twentieth century attainment.

The time spent in Committee meetings is but a small part of the demand upon us. Since our appointment, a year ago, every hour that could be spared from other duties has been given to the study of the Psalms and the preparation for material which may help the Committee in their determinations. We gratefully recognize the manifest evidences of the Holy Spirit's guidance and blessing, both in our personal and committee labors. Without this, nothing could have been done; with it much has been done that we trust will redound to the perfecting of divine praise, the unity of the Christian Church, and the glory of Christ Jesus our Lord and Saviour.

REPORT OF THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL COMMISSION.

The treasurer of the Quarter-Centennial Commission desires to report to the Assembly that a short time ago he received from a gentleman in Iowa the sum of $31, in payment of a note that had been given in 1883, and of which he had no knowledge until quite recently. The treasurer, by the advice of some other members of this Commission, asks the Assembly whether he shall divide this small sum pro rata among the objects designated by the Assembly of 1883, or give it in bulk, with the consent of the donor, to one of the other objects now before the Church.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. PORTER, Treasurer.

WILLIAM J. REID, President.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNION WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

There has not been any correspondence with the Committee of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South on the subject of union during the past year. There are many indications of a growing feeling in favor of such union, when it may be accomplished without any division or dissatisfaction. The relations are becoming more cordial, and co-operation is continued in mission work and in the young people's work. It is, therefore, judged better not to take any direct steps towards union at the present time, being well assured that the union will take place as soon as the edification of both bodies will call for it.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Committee,

A. G. WALLACE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

I beg leave to report that, by the appointment of the General Assembly of 1900, I attended the meeting of the Associate Reformed Synod, held in Louisville, Georgia, November 8-12, 1900. I was received and entertained in a most cordial and fraternal manner. The highest regard was expressed on every hand for the United Presbyterian Church, union with which all seem to consider only a question of time. Delegates were appointed by the Synod to attend this Assembly.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. WILSON.

REPORT OF THE ASYUT COLLEGE COMMITTEE.

The Asyut College Committee desires to present to the Assembly the following statement concerning its origin, work and purpose:

On December 26, 1900, a meeting of ministers and laymen was held in Calvin Hall, Pittsburgh, to consider the needs of the educational work of our Church in Egypt. At this meeting a Committee was appointed, consisting of Revs. Drs. J. K. McClurkin, R. M. Russell, John McNaugher, D. F.

McGill, Messrs. J. R. Reed, Samuel Young, T. J. Gillespie, J. D. Fraser and J. J. Porter, to consider the entire subject and to report to a subsequent meeting. This Committee held two sessions, carefully considering the subject in its many phases. At the second meeting, held January 30, 1901, in the Monongahela National Bank, Drs. Barr and Kyle, secretary and president of the Board of Foreign Missions, were present by invitation and took part in the conference. The Committee decided to report the following resolution: "Resolved, That we make an effort to raise $100,000 for the purchase of grounds and the erection of buildings for Asyut Training College, at Asyut, Egypt, the subscriptions to be payable one-third July 1, 1901, one-third July 1, 1902, one-third July 1, 1903." The two officers of the Foreign Board expressed themselves as being in thorough sympathy and accord with this action.

A second meeting of ministers and laymen was held in Calvin Hall, Pittsburgh, February 8, 1901, at which the Committee reported action as above. The report was discussed and unanimously adopted. The Committee was made a permanent one, with power to add to its number, and with instructions to proceed to raise the money as speedily as practicable, and to report to another meeting to be called in May.

The Committee, to be hereafter known as the Asyut College Committee, met in the Monongahela National Bank, Monday, February 11, 1901, and organized by the election of J. K. McClurkin, D.D., 456 South Atlantic avenue, chairman; R. M. Russell, D.D., 572 North Sheridan avenue, vice-chairman; John D. Fraser, treasurer, Monongahela National Bank; J. J. Porter, secretary, 918 Penn avenue.

Since the above date the Committee has been holding fortnightly meetings in the parlors of the Monongahela National Bank, tabulating results of efforts made and planning new duties. The Committee is happy to report that the sum of $65,163.10 has been already pledged, of which amount the sum of $17,683.16 has been paid to the treasurer, and is held by the Committee for the work in Egypt. It is the desire of the Committee to continue its work until the whole sum is raised, the buildings erected and turned over to the Foreign Board free of debt. It is a pleasure to express our conviction that the money raised and to be raised will in no way interfere with the regular contributions of our members to the boards of the Church. The sums received so far are from a comparatively small number of members, whose loyalty to the boards will be rather increased than diminished by this special effort.

The Committee is assured, from the liberal response made to its call within the brief period of its existence, that the full amount asked for will be speedily raised, and expects to conduct its work along lines which will have the fullest approval of the Assembly, and which will be recognized as auxiliary to the regular work of the boards.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. PORTER,
Secretary.

J. K. MCCLURKIN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF REFORMED CHURCHES.

The Executive Commission of the Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian System, presents to your venerable body its annual report, invoking upon you and your churches the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Ghost.

The Commission has held two meetings during the year, one on November 15, 1900, at Louisville, Ky., in the Warren Memorial Presbyterian church of that city, the second in the Marble Collegiate Reformed (Dutch) church, New York City, on April 9, 1901. Both meetings were characterized by much good feeling, and were highly profitable to the mutual interests of our Churches. The members of the Commission were the objects of a cordial hospitality in the two cities, and in New York City an evening reception was given by the Presbyterian Union.

The Commission has appointed Rev. A. G. Wallace, D.D., as a delegate to bear to your venerable body the fraternal greetings of the Alliance, with John McNaugher, D.D., as alternate.

It is respectfully requested that provision be made for the apportionment of the expenses of the Alliance, due from your venerable body for the present year, and which amounts to the sum of $270. Remittance may be made to the American treasurer of the Alliance, Frank K. Hipple, Esq., LL.D., president of the Real Estate Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pa.

We regret to report the removal by death of one of the most distinguished members of the Commission, General Benjamin Harrison, ex-President of the United States. He belonged to the highest type of Christian statesmen, and was honored in all the Churches.

The work on the European continent needs once more to be emphasized in our correspondence. A large proportion of the visitors to Europe each summer are connected with the American Churches of the Alliance. Their spiritual needs receive but little attention. Where effort has been made to supply them, the result has been most encouraging. It is respectfully suggested that the agency having charge of the work of foreign missions under our jurisdiction, be charged with the duty of special effort with a view to providing services of the Churches of our faith and order in Europe during the summer season, in such places as are most frequented by American visitors.

In connection with this work we report that a draft of a constitution for "Auxiliary Societies for European Work" was adopted at the meeting of this Commission, held in New York City, on April 9, 1901. Copies of the same can be secured upon application to the American secretary of the Alliance.

Your attention is also called to the movement presented to the Commission by the Rev. Dr. J. A. Worden, looking toward, first, the organization in our Sabbath schools of a normal department for the higher study of the Scriptures and for the training of persons to be Sabbath school teachers; and, second, to the furnishing of these normal departments with a series of lessons in the Bible, and with the methods and principles of teaching in a normal quarterly. It is also worthy of note that a plan of systematic beneficence of an efficient character is now in operation in the Sabbath schools and Christian Endeavor Societies of the Reformed Church in America.

The Commission having given careful consideration to the home mission work of the several Churches in the Western Section of the Alliance, submits the following resolutions, adopted by it, to your venerable body, viz.:

Whereas, The blessing of God has been graciously and in remarkable degree bestowed in the past upon the home mission work of the Churches connected with this Alliance on the American continent; and, whereas, in the new century which opens before us, yet larger opportunities for progress appear to be afforded by divine Providence; and, whereas, God has blessed his people with greatly increased means for the prosecution of the work of his kingdom; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That it be recommended to the supreme judicatories of the several Churches in the Western Section of the Alliance to take such steps as shall lead to renewed effort along all lines of home mission work, with a view to a yet more thorough evangelization of the American continent.

2. That special attention be called to the increasing alien immigration so full of peril to our religious institutions; to the religious destitution among the isolated dwellers in our mountain districts, and the great field open to us among them, and to the changing conditions among the colored people, requiring greatly increased efforts for their instruction and spiritual elevation, providential calls to special work at this critical period.

3. That it be earnestly recommended that in all these lines of special mission work the plan of co-operation already adopted be carefully carried out, that the Churches represented may come nearer together in the common field.

The Commission further took action in relation to the Ecumenical Missionary Conference, held in New York last year, and as follows Resolved, That the executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian System, Western Section, herewith records its great joy that there was held in the city of New York, in the closing year of this century, an Ecumenical Missionary Conference, whose truly representative character and strong personnel, whose splendid program of noble addresses and comprehensive papers evoked widespread missionary enthusiasm and inspiration, and marked it as unique and glorious among the great councils of the Church of Christ.

This Commission also records its profound gratitude to God that the Alliance of the Reformed Churches of the world was permitted to have part in inaugurating the movement that resulted in this great conference, the beneficent effects of which will doubtless be felt, and strongly, far into the coming cenutury, as the Christian Church realizes its splendid privilege and great responsibility and enters the doors of the heathen world that everywhere are opening to the gospel.

The matter of the conditions prevalent in China was under consideration at the meeting November 15, 1900, at Louisville, Ky., and the following action was taken:

Resolved, 1. That this Alliance expresses its high appreciation of the devotion and courage of the missionaries of the Christian Churches in China during the troublous events recently occurring in that country, and its thankfulness to God that not even the fear of death availed to shake the faith or weaken the fidelity either of the missionaries or of the great majority of their converts.

2. That the deep sympathy of the Alliance is tendered to the relatives of the missionaries, both men and women, who suffered martyrdom for the sake of Christ.

3. That it is the judgment of this Alliance that the work of missions in China, where destroyed, should be re-established at the earliest practicable date, and that missionary efforts should be carried forward with renewed and unflagging energy, when God in his providence opens the way.

4. That Christian missionaries, equally with other citizens, are entitled to the full protection of their governments while resident in China, and that the officers of the Alliance communicate to the President of the U. S. A. our thanks for the kindly interest and care which the representatives of the U. S. government in China have shown to the missionaries during the recent dangerous and sorrowful times.

With gratitude to God we draw attention to the movements toward union within our Churches. The several Presbyterian missions in Southern India, representing three separate Churches, have under consideration arrangements for co-operation in mission work, and the union of the native congregations in one body. This movement is in line with the religious tendency of the times, a tendency yet more clearly manifested in the completed union of the Free Church and the United Presbyterian Church of Scotland, which took place at Edinburgh, Scotland, October 31, 1900. The new Church is called The United Free Church of Scotland, and has about 1,786 ministers, 1,706 congregations, 495,178 communicants and 282,965 Sabbath school scholars and teachers.

The Commission addressed a letter of congratulation, signed by its officers, to the General Assembly of the United Church, as follows:

Beloved Brethren: The Western Section of "The Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian System," tenders to you its heartfelt felicitations upon the union now happily effected between the United Presbyterian and the Free Churches of Scotland. In tendering our congratulations we feel that we represent a widespread and affectionate interest in your welfare as a Church among the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the American continent. From the Southern Cross to the Aurora Borealis, in Chile, Brazil, Mexico, the United States and Canada, there is heard the voice of thanksgiving and praise for the goodness of God as made evident in your dwelling henceforth together in one visible household of the faith. Especially when we remember that the Alliance, which gives expression to this spiritual unity of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches throughout the world, was brought into existence by the earnest efforts and unselfish devotion of such men as Rev. Drs. Wm. Garden Blaikie, James McCosh and John Cairns, we can but rejoice that their work, in the line of Christian unity has in part found fruitage in the union of your two Churches. Indeed, as we think upon the past, rejoice in the present and cherish hope for the future, we are "bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth."

May the union now realized by you be an incentive, in many lands, to the bringing into the visible unity of Christ's Church the many beloved brethren who, with us, are one in faith and practice.

"Now, our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father which hath loved us, and hath given us the everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work. Finally, brethren, pray for us that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you."

We close this report with brief reference to the great interests which are entrusted of God to the Churches of this Alliance. We are in agreement upon all essential matters. We draw from the Holy Scriptures, as the great source, our doctrine, worship and government. We acknowledge these Scriptures as the only infallible rule of faith and conduct. We stand for the certainty of the accomplishment of God's purposes alike in salvation and in providence. Our Churches have been in the forefront in the past in all missionary work, both at home and abroad. We have on the American contient 8,000,000 of adherents and 17,000,000 in other parts of the world. We should come yet more closely into sympathy and co-operation, striving together for the faith, and praying earnestly for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon Christian and heathen nations alike, God thus co-operating with his people for the redemption of the world, and responding to their prayer, "Thy kingdom come." May the opening years of the twentieth century witness great revivals of religion in this and other Christian lands, and the overthrow of idolatry in heathen regions, in particular in that empire where so many Christians recently have sealed with their blood their fidelity to Christ and his cross.

Tendering fraternal sympathy and earnest prayers for the prosperity of the work of Christ within your bounds, and in fulness of faith that his purposes shall be fulfilled in due time, whose is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, we are in behalf of the Alliance,

WM HENRY ROBERTS, American Secretary.
GEORGE JUNKIN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE REED ESTATE.

The executors and trustees of the William Reed estate would, as required by the will of deceased, present this our annual report of progress:

1. In the collection of $8,976.66, balance on the sale of 2,695 acres of mineral land in West Virginia. Some 12,000 acres remain there unsold, and not very saleable, worth probably $3 per acre.

2. The collection of $20.000, the amount of compromise referred to in our last report, as due from the sale of land in Missouri.

3. These sums and some other funds, less expenses, have, by direction of the Orphans' Court, under special bequest in the will of the deceased, been paid to the estate of Mrs. Reed, deceased, and will soon pass entire, less expenses, to the boards of the Church.

We have failed to sell during the year any of the land reported last year as belonging to the estate.

After paying all taxes and other expenses incurred in defending the estate against various law suits, there remains about $2.100 cash and securities, for incidental and possible expenses, pending additional sales.

Respectfully submitted by order of executors,

S. COLLINS, Secretary.

Meloy, D.D., of Chicago, W. S. Heade, Esq., of Cambridge, Ohio, and W. C. Williamson, D.D., of Keokuk, Iowa, be appointed to make appropriate addresses.

After prayer by D. R. Miller, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by R. G. Miller, D.D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The printed report of the General Committee of Home Missions was presented and referred to the Committee on Home Missions.

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the following committees:

Young People's Work—Revs. J. R. J. Milligan, D. Craig Stewart, J. D. Lytle; Elders E. W. Strain, J. R. Dunlap.

Narrative and State of Religion—Revs. W. M. Anderson, W. T. Warnock, D. M. Thorne; Elders S. D. Stewart, D. R. Hunter.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a conference on "Our Country for Christ," Rev. J. W. Ashwood, presiding. At 9:30 o'clock the conference rose and reported through the chairman that an interesting and profitable conference had been held. This report was adopted.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a partial report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

There have been referred to your Committee the following papers:

1. A memorial from Allegheny Presbytery requesting the appointment of a delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and to invite similar action on the part of that Synod. Your Committee recommends that this request be granted, and that the appointment of a delegate be referred to the Committee on Nominations.

2. The report of Dr. Joseph Kyle, delegate to the Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of the South, your Committee recommends that the action of our delegate be approved. We express pleasure at the hope of organic union with this sister denomination, and recommend the appointment of a delegate to its approaching Synod. We also recommend that the credentials of Rev. R. G. Miller, D.D., as the fraternal delegate from that Synod be accepted, and that Friday morning, May 30, at 10 o'clock, be set as the time for his presentation to the General Assembly.

3. The report of Rev. J. S. Garvin as delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America. We recommend that his fulfillment of his appointment be approved, and that his expense account be referred to the Committee on Finance.

After prayer by J. G. Carson, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

FRIDAY.

May 30, 1902, 9 o'clock A. M.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises respectfully reports:

1. That half an hour be spent each day in devotional exercises at the discretion and under the direction of the Moderator.

2. That J. O. Campbell, D.D., be appointed the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon.

3. That a committee be appointed on conference or devotional exercises for the next Assembly.

A petition in behalf of the Twentieth Century Psalmody Conference, together with accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on Methods of Home Mission Work presented its report. The consideration of this report was made the order of the day for this morning at 11 o'clock.

Commissioners from the different presbyteries were instructed to inform the Finance Committee as to the distance from a central point in the presbytery to the place of meeting of the Assembly.

The report of the Board of Directors of Allegheny Theological Seminary was read and referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The report of the Board of Managers of Xenia Theological Seminaries was read and referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

An invitation to visit Allegheny Theological Seminary was read and referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

A recess of 20 minutes was taken to arrange for return railroad transportation.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the hearing of R. G. Miller, D.D., delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, who presented the Christian greetings of his denomination. The Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly, and James White, D.D., led the Assembly in prayer.

The Assembly directed the Moderator to appoint a special committee to which shall be referred all matters relating to the delegate fund. This committee was empowered to employ an accountant.

During the discussion of the following resolution, "Resolved, That the Committee on Delegate Fund shall be allowed to apportion the delegate fund in proportion to the amount of railroad fare each delegate has paid," with J. H. Brown, D.D., on the floor, the hour for the order of the day arrived, and the Assembly proceeded to the discussion of the report of the Committee on Methods of Home Mission Work. This report was not adopted.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Membership Covenant was made the order of the day for 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Home Missions was made the order of the day for Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

After prayer by Rev. Edgar MacDill, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. D. M. Thorne.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with; the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the following Special Committee on Delegate Fund:

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON DELEGATE FUND.

Revs. E. MacDill, W. K. Fulton, J. A. Keener; Elders W. S. Heade, H. W. Leech.

A request from the National Anti-Saloon League for the appointment of delegates was read and referred to the Committee on Nominations, with instructions to appoint delegates.

A letter from the Friends' Press Association on Purity of the Press was read and referred to the Committee on Reform.

The invitation of Tarkio, Mo., for the next meeting of the Assembly was accepted, and 7:45 P. M. was fixed as the hour of meeting. College Springs was fixed as the place of meeting of the General Committee of Missions.

The report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

Reports from the seminaries of Xenia and Allegheny have been placed in our hands by the General Assembly indicating that thorough and efficient work has been done by the faculty and students of each of these institutions. One hundred and one students have been in attendance during the past year. Thirty-two have gone out to preach the gospel. The blessing of health has been enjoyed in a marked degree, and the work has suffered no interruption.

ALLEGHENY SEMINARY.

The Allegheny Seminary has followed the Assembly's curriculum, including Christian missions and experimental religion, laying special emphasis on the expository study of the English Bible, and faithfully teaching the doctrines of the Word as held by the United Presbyterian Church. The members of the junior class, who are all members of the Mission League, have been employed in practical religious and missionary work under the direction of the various pastors. Students have enjoyed instruction in elocution and music.

XENIA.

Xenia Seminary was encouraged by the largest number of new students, with but three exceptions, in her one hundred and seven years' history. In addition to the regular class room work, courses of lectures on important topics have been delivered by the professors and by experts in various departments of Christian work. Opportunity for practical work has been abundant.

Much needed improvements have been made in the seminary building in the way of bath-rooms, steam heat and electric light. Steps have been taken to erect two dwellings for the use of the professors and a building containing a chapel, library and class-rooms.

Eleven thousand and twenty dollars have been added to the endowment fund during the year.

INVITATION TO VISIT ALLEGHENY SEMINARY.

An invitation from the Board of Directors of Allegheny Seminary to visit and inspect the new building, and, if convenient, hold a meeting in Pressly Chapel has also been placed in the hands of the Committee.

In view of the contents of the papers submitted, we offer the following for adoption:

1. That we hereby record our gratitude to the God of all grace for the favor he has shown these schools of the prophets and the temporal and spiritual prosperity they have enjoyed.

2. That they be commended to the liberality of the Church in the hope that their endowments be increased to meet their needs.

3. That the Assembly accept the cordial invitation of the Board of Directors of Allegheny Seminary and set apart a convenient time to visit that institution, and hold a meeting in Pressly Chapel to be presided over by Prof. John A. Wilson, D.D.

Two o'clock to-morrow afternoon was fixed as the time for visiting Allegheny Theological Seminary.

Took up unfinished business, the discussion of the resolution, "The Committee on Delegates' Fund shall be allowed to apportion the delegate fund in proportion to the amount of railroad fare each delegate has paid." This resolution was carried.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a service in memory of the dead soldiers of the Republic, W. P. McNary, D.D., presiding. At 4:30 P. M. the conference arose and reported that a delightful conference, in memory of the old soldiers of the Republic, had been held.

An invitation from the managers to visit the Orphans' Home was accepted.

The second order for Monday afternoon was fixed as the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Women's Board.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Membership Covenant was made the first order of the day for to-morrow morning.

The consideration of the reports of the committees on the following boards was made the order of the day: Foreign Missions, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock; Freedmen's Missions, first order Tuesday afternoon; Church Extension, second order Tuesday afternoon; Ministerial Relief, third order Tuesday afternoon.

The consideration of the report of the Judiciary Committee on Church Union in India was made the second order for Tuesday morning.

A memorial from members of the United Presbyterian Ministers' Association of Pittsburgh and Allegheny on Membership Covenant, together with accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented its report. This report was recommitted, and the entire report of the Committee on Membership Covenant was also referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, with instructions to report to-morrow morning, their report to take the place of the first order of the day, already appointed.

After prayer by Rev. J. H. Nash the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. C. Lynn.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a memorial service for ministers deceased during the year, W. J. Martin, D.D., presiding. At 9:40 o'clock the conference rose and reported through the chairman that the memorial service in honor of brethren who have gone onward has been kept with profit to those who remain in the work.

After the apostolic benediction by the Moderator, the Assembly adjourned.

SATURDAY.

May 31, 1902, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. A. B. Gilfillan.

The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Membership Covenant. Dr. J. T. McCrory, chairman of the Permanent Committee of the last Assembly on the Membership Covenant, was invited to take part in the discussion. Rev. C. S. Cleland, a member of the committee, was also granted the privileges of the floor. The morning session was prolonged a half hour. The Assembly resolved that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Twelve o'clock to-day was fixed as the time for beginning the taking of the vote on the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures. This report was amended. The first resolution of this report was lost by a vote of 103 to 118; the second resolution was also lost; the third and fourth resolutions were adopted. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON MEMBERSHIP COVENANT.

There have been put into the hands of your Committee on Bills and Overtures the following papers on the subject of the Membership Covenant: The report of the Committee on Membership Covenant appointd by the last General Assembly, and a supplemental report by the same Committee, a memorial from the Lake Presbytery proposing a different Membership Covenant, a memorial from the Presbytery of Allegheny asking a reference of the whole subject to a committee to report to the next General Assembly, and a memorial from certain members of the United Presbyterian Ministerial Association of Pittsburgh and vicinity asking that a distinction be made in the Membership Covenant between the baptized and the unbaptized.

Your Committee has given most careful consideration to these various papers. The report of the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly merits the most careful consideration of the Church. The same may be said of the memorial from the Lake Presbytery. But there is evidence, in the diversity of opinion manifested by these papers, that the time has not come for the formulation of an Overture to be submitted to the presbyteries on this subject. However, to bring these matters before the Assembly in suitable form for action, the following resolutions are presented:

1. That the report of the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly, together with its supplemental report, be overtured.
2. That the memorial of the Lake Presbytery be granted.
3. That the memorial of the Presbytery of Allegheny be granted, viz., that a committee be appointed to further consider the subject of the Membership Covenant and report to the next General Assembly, and that the Committee be authorized to meet as may be required for the preparation and maturing of its report, and that its expenses be paid by the General Assembly.
4. That the memorial of certain members of the United Presbyterian Ministerial Association of Pittsburgh and vicinity be referred to the above named Committee.

The nomination of Committee on Membership Covenant, provided for in this report, was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

So much of the report of the Trustees of the General Assembly as refers to the Rev. J. R. Wallace case was referred to the Committee on Judiciary. On the request of this committee, W. S. Heade, Esq., and Judge Duncan Dow were added to the committee.

The report of the Permanent Committee of the last Assembly on the Membership Covenant was referred to the Permanent Committee on Membership Covenant provided for in the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

After the benediction by the Moderator, the Assembly adjourned.

MONDAY.

June 2, 1902, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Alexander M. Smeallie.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented its report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON PUBLICATION AND SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, to which were referred the annual printed statement of the Board, together with the statistics and recommendations compiled by their Sabbath School Committee; and the memorial from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking for the publication of a small book of selections of Psalms with simple music, suitable for use in junior Christian unions and primary departments of Sabbath school work, would respectfully report for the adoption of the Assembly the following action:

1. That we are gratified to learn that the business affairs of this Board are in a very satisfactory condition, and we approve the manner in which the different departments have been carried forward. We specially congratulate the Board on the publication of the new edition of the Bible Songs and express our pleasure that it has been so well received by the Church.

2. We rejoice in the fact that there is an increased interest in the Sabbath schools throughout the Church. The conventions which have been held by synods and presbyteries, it is believed, have done much to awaken interest in this good work and to secure a larger number of mission Sabbath schools being established throughout the Church than in any former year. The contributions have also exceeded those of the year 1890 by the sum of $48.000. And this Assembly would urge upon Presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents the importance of providing, for all the schools under their care, institutes, conventions or conferences, and that they report the Sabbath school work to their respective presbyteries for information and discussion.

3. We recommend, the third Sabbath of October to be observed as a day of special prayer for Sabbath schools, the second Sabbath in June as "Missionary and Children's Day," and the fourth Sabbath in November as "Temperance Day."

4. We recommend that the Board of Publication prepare and publish at an early day a small book of selections of the Psalms, suitable for use in the junior Christian unions and in primary Sabbath school department work as requested in the memorial from the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

The report of the Committee on Railroad Rates was read and adopted.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

William J. Reid, D.D., presented his resignation as Principal Clerk of the General Assembly. This resignation was referred to a special committee to bring in an appropriate minute. It is as follows:

RESIGNATION OF WILLIAM J. REID, D.D., PRINCIPAL CLERK.

Fathers and brethren:

I am constrained by impaired health to resign my office as Principal Clerk of the General Assembly, which I have had the honor to hold since 1875, said resignation to take effect at the close of the business of the present Assembly. I offer this resignation now that a successor may be elected, who shall receive the papers and arrange the business of the next Assembly.

I cannot take this step without expressing my deep appreciation of the uniform courtesy which you and the members of the twenty-seven previous General Assemblies have shown me in the discharge of my official duties, and my thankfulness to the Head of the Church through whose help I have been able to serve so long. My prayer is that the divine blessing may rest upon future Assemblies, even more abundantly than it has rested upon those which are past.

WILLIAM J. REID, Principal Clerk.

The report of the Special Committee on Reform was read. As amended and adopted, it is as follows:

REPORT ON REFORM.

There have been placed in the hands of your Committee on Reform, the following papers, namely: The report of your Permanent Committee on Reform; one from the "American Sabbath Union," asking for strong resolutions in favor of the more careful observance of the Sabbath; one from the Reform Association, asking our continued help, and suggesting that we name a suitable man for the field of reform work and commend him to our people for support; one from the National Reform Association, asking that we designate the second Sabbath in September in each year as a day to be observed in Christian homes and churches as a day of special and united prayer in behalf of public and private schools, composed of 15,000,000 scholars and 425,000 teachers; one from the Friends' Press Association, asking for a resolution urging our people to put into their homes the best and purest literature; one from the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Pennsylvania, asking our indorsement in favor of the curfew ordinance.

Your Committee on Reform respectfully offer the following as their report for your consideration and approval:

We are living in the opening years of the twentieth century, which marks an epoch in the history of our country. Great moral and economic questions meet us. They must be answered. They can be answered only by those who are in harmony with the will of God. The Church of Jesus Christ does her duty, when, in the name of Jesus Christ, the King, and of the Church, she, on bended knees, over the only rule of faith and conduct, answers them, and forces into practice all known Bible privileges that will lift all classes of men into purer and nobler life and conduct.

The solution of these questions demands our renewed faithfulness and our best wisdom, guided by a steadfast loyalty and a ready obedience to the divine law as expressed in the Word of God. There should be deeper love for the Church of the living God, a clearer conception of the origin and authority of the Church, an awakening to the necessity in our land for a larger measure of sound education of all our youth and people as an antidote to the flood of false teaching and examples that find expression in these days. Therefore we recommend,

1. That the report of our Permanent Committee on Reform, as amended, be adopted.

2. That we most heartily endorse the good and progressive work of the National Reform Association, and ask our congregations to encourage the agents and literature, but we do not think the time has come to name a man from our Church to represent us in the field and ask our people to support him

3. That the second Sabbath of September in each year be observed in Christian homes and churches as a day of special and united prayer in behalf of public and private schools.

4. That as we seek for the best agencies to educate our youth, we will, as far as is possible for us to do so, admit into our homes and schools only such papers as will uplift and ennoble and tend to rouse the best in them to higher ideals.

5. That we commend to all our people the careful consideration of the "curfew ordinance," and urge upon them, as far as would be practicable, in their communities, to do all they can to have this ordinance put into practical use.

6. That we ask our several presbyteries to hold conferences or conventions during the year on Sabbath observance.

7. That thirty-thousand copies of the report of our Permanent Committee on Reform be printed and distributed carefully in our several congregations by the Board of Publication.

8. That we commend to our sessions a pamphlet by Dr. C. R. Wylie, entitled "Our Educational System: Is It Christian or Secular?" and recommend the propriety of their placing in each family a copy of the same.

The Assembly took a recess of ten minutes.

The Special Committee on Young People's Work presented its report. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

The only paper coming into our hands was the annual report of the General Committee on Young People's Work. While noting with gratification the encouraging features of this report, we deemed it unnecessary to embody them in ours, and will merely call the attention of the Assembly to such items as shall require the Assembly's action.

First. The Assembly is perhaps cognizant of the fact that, at the last Young People's Convention, "it was voted to request a change of our national meetings, from annual to biennial." Your Committee understands it will be necessary for this Assembly to give its "approval" to this action, and would so recommend.

Second. The General Committee has recommended some changes in the wording of the constitution to correspond to the change from annual to biennial conventions. In accord with this we recommend:

1. That the last clause of the first sentence of Article 2, be amended so as to read, "five elected by each convention," instead of "five elected annually by each convention."

2. That Section 2 of Article 5 be amended to read: "The General Committee shall nominate, and each convention shall elect a secretary of junior work."

3. That this addition be made to Section 1 of Article 8, "The General Committee shall have power to fill vacancies occurring in the convention part of the Committee."

4. That Section 1 of Article 6 be amended to read, "biennial convention" instead of "annual convention."

5. That the last clause of Section 5, Article 7, be amended to read, "each convention," instead of "the convention each year."

6. That Article 9 be amended to read, "The convention shall meet biennially," instead of "the convention shall meet annually."

Your Committee would call attention to the coming convention in Tacoma, Wahsington, July 23-27, 1902 and would recommend the Assembly to urge the societies to send large delegations. While the interest is very good, there is a necessity for further agitation by our pastors, and the officers of our Young People's Societies, in order to make the convention a success and to give an impetus to home missions in the Great Northwest. We recommend that Rev. W. R. Cox be given the floor to address the Assembly on the Tacoma convention.

We further recommend that, in view of the fact that our conventions will hereafter be biennial, a deeper interest be taken and a greater effort made by our Presbyterial secretaries and pastors in the arranging of Presbyterial and Synodical conventions for the "off" years.

The hour of adjournment was postponed for ten minutes, and in accordance with one resolution of the above report, Rev. W. R. Cox addressed the Assembly.

After prayer by Rev. George R. Murray, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. W. B. Barr.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the following Special Committee to bring in a minute on the resignation of the Principal Clerk:

COMMITTEE ON RESIGNATION OF PRINCIPAL CLERK.

Revs. T. H. Hanna, D.D., W. C. Williamson, D.D., George R. Murray; Elders James Carson, T. J. Frazer.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

From the reports of the Board of Home Missions and of the General Committee which have been placed in our hands, your Committee is pleased to see that the general results in the home field this past year were so favorable, and the prospects are so hopeful, that the General Committee has called for a forward movement and with a courageous spirit has planned for much new work.

The Board has 229 stations under its care, with an average attendance of 19,429 on preaching services and 23,120 in Sabbath-school. There was a net gain to the membership of the Church of 1,614, making a total enrollment of 18,285 in this department of our work. These stations aided by the Board contributed to the Boards $24,822, being $4,550 in excess of last year's contributions, and for home work $95,112, being $4,414 more than last year, which indicates a growing spirit of liberality or an increased ability on the part of the givers. The total expenditure in this field last year was $91,385, being an increase of $3,232 over the previous year; and this highly gratifying statement is made, that there is no debt to be provided for, but there remain on hand $2,862, the second time in the history of the Board, when the balance was in favor of the treasury; and also that 12 congregations which have been receiving aid for a number of years, have with gratitude for past favors declared for self-support in the future.

The General Committee had 251 applications for aid for the coming year, including 33 requests for assitance in entirely new work, and after careful consideration of each case decided on new work to the amount of $15,450, and made a total grant of $103,000, which is an increase on our last year's grant of $2,450. The General Committee believes, and your Committee shares in its conviction, that every dollar of this somewhat increased amount is absolutely needed, and that the last dollar will be cheerfully given if the field and its claims are fairly and persistently laid before our people. Your Committee therefore offer the following resolutions:

1. That we are grateful to God for his care shown to this department of our Church's work, and for his opening up before us so many new and inviting fields.

2. That we express our entire confidence in the Board of Home Missions, and are gratified with the care and good judgment shown by the General Committee in the work they were called to do.

3. That our Corresponding Secretary, Dr. Alexander Gilchrist, by his diligence and efficiency merits our full confidence and shall receive our hearty sympathy and co-operation; and we hereby endorse the request of the General Committee as to a suitable office room being furnished him, and that $200 be placed at his disposal for clerical assistance when needed.

4. That the suggestion of "Volunteer Service" in the home field, on the part of students just leaving the theological seminary, be put in operation as far as practicable.

5. That the work among the mountain whites of the South be kept under advisement, in the hope that God may somehow give us the chance of assisting this interesting but benighted people so near our own doors.

The Committee on Women's Work presented its report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE WOMEN'S BOARD.

There has been placed in the hands of your Committee the report of the Women's General Missionary Society. This report shows a gratifying condition of affairs, and that the work carried on by the society is continually enlarging and is being wisely directed. While perusing the report, one is impressed with the extent of the work carried on by the women of our Church and the efficiency with which the work is managed. Distant India, the Valley of the Nile, as well as the Freedmen of the South, the Indians of the Northwest, and other work in the Homeland have received help. In the foreign field, the Board supports 44 unmarried women missionaries, besides providing for the entire support of the two boarding schools, three hospitals and three dispensaries. In the home field 12 missionaries and among the Freedmen 21 industrial teachers and matrons have been supported, and the expenses of the various industrial departments have been met by the Society, besides granting loans to 18 congregation for the erection of parsonages.

In connection with the work in the foreign field, we call attention to the removal by death of Doctor Johnson, and the following statement of the Board in connection therewith: "We are deeply grateful because of the work of her hands which the Lord has established, and our earnest prayer now is that this work may not be allowed to suffer for lack of another leader. To this end we seek the co-operation of the members of the Assembly in keeping this vacant chair prominently before the Church, so that there may be as little delay as possible in securing the services of an experienced woman physician for the Good Samaritan Hospital." May God raise up one qualified to take her place!

We would commend the efficient financial management of the Board. Our women will not go in debt. They do not believe in retrenchment. Forward is their watchword. The contributions for the support of the work are constantly increasing. During the year $93,843.94 have been raised by the women of the Church. This includes a Thank-offering of $40,000. It is to be noted that one hundred per cent. of all money contributed for missionary purposes is expended on the various objects designated. We have reason to be thankful that the grace of liberality is being cultivated and systematic benevolence is being encouraged in our Church through the efforts of our women. Your Committee recommend:

1. That the report of the Women's General Missionary Society be adopted.

2. That we render thanks to God for what he is accomplishing at home and abroad through the agency of the Women's General Missionary Society in the extension of the kingdom.

3. That we commend the work of the Society to the continued confidence of the Church.

4. That the representatives of the Board, Mrs. E. M. Hill and Mrs. Mary W. Porter now be heard by the Assembly.

The report of the delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States was read and referred to the Committees on Correspondence and Finance.

The credentials and letter of Rev. John H. Kendall, delegate of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, were referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Uniform Metrical Version of the Psalms was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE UNIFORM METRICAL VERSION OF THE PSALMS.

The report of the joint Committee on the Uniform Metrical Version of the Psalms and from the United Presbyterian members of said Committee have been referred to us. The following action is recommended:

We express our gratification with the progress that has been made by the labors of this Committee, and our hope that they will be able to carry forward their work to the end, and that all the denominations interested may see their way clear heartily to co-operate with it. Resolved,

1. That we accept this report as a report of progress.
2. That the General Assembly appropriate hereby the amount asked to defray necessary expenses.
3. That an addition of two members be made to the United Presbyterian Committee.

The nomination of the additional members of the committee provided for in this report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the vote on the Overture on the Limitation of Appeals was recommitted, with instructions to insert in their report the exact words to be incorporated in the Book of Government.

The Assembly took a recess for ten minutes.

The Committee on Statistics presented its report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

Your Committee would report that there have been placed in our hands the Summaries of our Church for the year ending March 31, 1902, as prepared by the Second Clerk of the General Assembly. From these we rejoice to learn that there has been the largest increase in the contributions to carry on the work of the Church through its different Boards that has ever been made in a single year, the average increase being 98 cents per member, and that a greater number of congregations have contributed to all the funds than ever before. While we observe with sorrow that there has been a slight decrease in the membership of three of our synods, yet it is gratifying to learn that in this age of pleasure-seeking, worldliness and greed of gain, there has been a net gain in the entire Church.

We recommend that the Statistical Tables so carefully prepared by the Second Clerk be approved by this General Assembly.

We also recommend that pastors and sessions be urged faithfully to present to the congregations under their care the work and needs of the Church in its various enterprises, and seek to cultivate the grace of Christian giving among the people.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Education was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

The work of the Board of Education, as appears from its report, is now carried on under two distinct departments: One department is the work of affording assistance to needy and deserving students who are looking forward to the work of the ministry; the other is the work of making direct contributions to the funds of the colleges and theological seminaries of the Church. This department of the work is becoming increasingly one of great importance.

It is to be regretted that during the past year the Board has been able to pay only 66 per cent. of the usual grant to students in colleges and seminaries. The grants to the colleges have equaled an amount which represents the income from a fund of $200,000 and so have materially aided the good work of our institutions of learning.

A very commendable effort has been made to bring the colleges of the Church into direct communication with the young people of our congregations, who are expecting to pursue studies in higher institutions of learning. We recommend for adoption the following: Resolved,

1. That the conduct of the work by the Board druing the past year be heartily approved.

2. That presbyteries be requested to assist the Board in its effort to obtain from ministers departing from our Church a return of the aid which had been granted for the pursuit of collegiate and seminary studies.

3. That the Board be encouraged to enlarge as rapidly as possible the department of work on behalf of our higher institutions of learning.

The Committee on Revision presented their report, which was recommitted, with instructions to be specific as to the minutes approved.

The following resolution on a fitting celebration of the semi-centennial of the Church was adopted:

SEMI-CENTENNIAL OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Resolved, That the Nominating Committee be instructed to nominate to the Assembly a special committee of seven, who shall present to the next General Assembly a plan looking toward the appropriate celebration, in 1908, of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the United Presbyterian Church.

After prayer by Rev. J. P. Sharp, Ph.D., the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Joseph McKelvey.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a conference on "America's Duty to the World," Dr. John Williamson presiding. At 9:45 the conference arose, and reported through its chairman that a pleasant and profitable conference had been held.

The Committee on Conferences was instructed to prepare a program for a conference for to-morrow evening on the state of religion.

After the benediction by the Moderator, the Assembly adjourned.

TUESDAY.

June 3, 1902, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by L. N. Lafferty, D.D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A letter from Rev. J. S. Allen, D.D., delegate from the Synod of the Reformed Church in America, was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence. The nomination of a delegate to this Synod was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

A request from John H. Kerr, D.D., publishing secretary of the American Tract Society, for a hearing was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The report of the Committee on Revision was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON REVISION.

Your Committee on Revision begs leave to report that the minutes of the General Assembly of 1901 and the minutes of the Synods of New York for 1901, Pittsburgh for 1901, Ohio for 1900 and 1901, First Synod of the West for 1901, Second Synod for 1901, Illinois for 1901, Iowa for 1901, Kansas for 1894, 1899, 1900, 1901, California for 1900, Columbia for 1901, Punjab for 1901 and 1902 have been examined, and their approval, endorsed by the clerk of General Assembly, is recommended.

The Special Committee on Delegate Fund presented its report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

SPECIAL REPORT ON DELEGATE FUND.

Your Special Committee on Delegate Fund begs leave to recommend that a Permanent Committee of three members on Delegate Fund be appointed, and to it be committed all matters relating to the proper collection and distribution of the Delegate Fund, and including the work of securing reduced rates of transportation for attendance of the delegates on the meetings of the General Assembly, and the presentation of the subject of the general delegate fund to all the presbyteries to secure the full payment of the amount due the Assembly's Fund from each presbytery.

The nomination of the committee provided for in this report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Moderator was instructed to appoint a special committee to incorporate the action of the above report in the Rules of Order.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the vote on the Overture on the Limitation of Appeals, which was adopted:

THE VOTE ON THE OVERTURE ON THE LIMITATION OF APPEALS.

Your Committee has examined the vote as reported from the presbyteries and find it to have been as follows: Out of a total vote cast of 1,029, there were 625 ayes, and 414 nays, a majority of 221 in favor of the Overture. The Overture is therefore carried, and we recommend the adoption of the following resolution, that the Overture on the Limitation of Appeals is declared to be carried, and it is hereby directed that it be incorporated in the Book of Government as follows:

1. Amend Part I, Chapter v, Article iv, by striking out Section 4, which authorizes the General Assembly to refer appeals in cases of discipline to a commission.

2. Amend Part 3, Chapter xii, Section 2, which treats of "the ways in which a case may be carried from a lower to a higher court," so as to read: "Every decision in any court, except the highest having jurisdiction, is subject to the review of a superior court."

3. Amend Section 1, of Article II, of the same chapter, to read as follows: "A reference is a judicial representation made by an inferior court to a superior court having jurisdiction, of a matter not yet decided."

4. Amend Article II, of the same chapter, by inserting the following as Section 2: "In cases of discipline, an appeal or complaint may be made to the synod as the court or final jurisdiction, but an appeal or complaint concerning doctrines, general regulations, the interpretation of law, or the regularity of proceedings, may be made direct from the presbytery or synod to the General Assembly, whose judgment shall be for the guidance of the lower courts. Such appeal or complaint shall always be made in writing, and shall contain a clear statement of the issue involved. The General Assembly shall enter upon its records the appeal as presented from the lower court, a clear statement of its own decision, and the grounds upon which it is made."

The Special Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented its report. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Committee would respectfully recommend the adoption of the report of the Permanent Committee on Narrative and State of Religion. Your Committee would also present the following suggestions and resolutions:

In view of the fact that there was a net gain of less than one per cent. during the last year in the United Presbyterian Church, there must have been reasons which have hindered a large blessing of God. Three per cent. have been entirely lost by removals. Your Committee is disposed to look upon this decrease as a leak caused by purging rolls of congregations. But why this loss? Many causes may be attributed for the small progress which the Church made in membership. One is a decline in family religion, where the fire on the altar burns dimly, if it is not entirely extinguished. The weekly prayer-meeting which is a thermometer of the spiritual life of a congregation, is too sparsely attended, and is it because that interest in it is choked out by the thorns of this world and its multiplied cares? Worldly conformity of the Church, and a disposition to resent the teaching of the truth, are alarming in their growth. In daily life and practice it ought not to be necessary for the children of God to wear a badge to denote that they belong to the Church of Christ, rather than to the world; yet how much the line of demarcation is being entirely broken down, when the followers of Christ blend with the world. The injunction in such times as these comes with great force. "Come out from among them and be ye separate, saith the Lord." God's Word never changes and it still insists, "ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light." Sabbath desecration by the world is alarming in its extent. Yet there is hope for its preservation and purity if God's people will refrain from joining the restless multitudes in its destruction. The spirituality of any people can be determined by its attitude to the Sabbath. God will cause the Church to prosper when she is ready to "call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable."

The Church of God must get back to the altar in humility before him for failures of the past; back to the prayer-meeting for spiritual life for the individual and the congregation. God's people must forsake sin and pray the Father of all mercies for cleansed hearts and a purged conscience.

The Spirit speaks to the United Presbyterian Church to-day in the words of Paul, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." To further these thoughts among the members of our beloved Church, Resolved.

1. That presbyteries at their next regular meetings be requested to spend one session in prayer and humiliation before God, imploring the Father for pardon of sin, the healing of our backslidings, and the baptism of the Holy Spirit, with his purifying, warning, and enlightening fire.

2. That the Permanent Committee on Narrative and State of Religion be directed to use as it sees fit the religious press of the Church for the purpose of provoking our people to good works.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. This report was amended and adopted, the thirteenth resolution by a rising vote, while Dr. W. H. French led the Assembly in prayer. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In carrying out our commission from the Church's King and Head this is the great work, both of the Assembly and of the whole Church of our Lord Jesus Christ. If this General Assembly should be famous for anything, here seems its opportunity. Let it give such an impetus to foreign mission work as shall gladden the valley of the Nile and shall call forth songs of thanksgiving throughout the Punjab.

In our own fair land we are enjoying a prosperity unequaled. If this surplus of fullness be placed in the Lord's treasury, there needs be no difficulty in the enlarging of our work, and that greatly, in these fields, for the cultivation of which the world, and God, who is over all, holds us responsible. That India alone this last year should give us one-half the net increase in membership of the entire Church, is but an indication of what may be expected, if the hosts of the Lord will bring their treasures and offer them to him. "Who though he was rich became poor that we through his poverty might be rich." Then may we expect according to the promise, that the Spirit will be poured out as rain upon the mown grass, and as showers that water the earth.

The progress of the past year, as shown by the report of the Board, is full of encouragement. The incidents the Board has cited only show us that God has the hearts of all men in his hand, and that he can, for his own glory, direct all their way. That the Lord should call the laborers to their reward, when the work he assigns them is done, should neither surprise nor discourage. The mission, and indeed the whole Church, feels the loss of that energy and sanctified adaptation that was in Dr. Sophie E. Johnson. But her hallowed influence remains to help some one else to carry on the work so well begun, and we should thank God for what he accomplished through her.

That the finances are not as we desire, and as the progress of the work demands, simply shows that as a Church we have not done our duty. Let us then humble ourselves before God, and with faith in him and in the willingness of the people to meet the requirements of the Lord, when they know them, let us go to the people who have the means, pay the indebtedness, and replenish the Lord's treasury for the honor of his name and for the honor of the Church we love.

The recommendations of the Board commend themselves to our judgment. Therefore we offer the following:

1. That the over-expenditure of the Egyptian mission of $5,848.36, made in 1900, be paid. Inasmuch as the greater part of this expenditure was made before the Association could know of the reductions made in the appropriations as compared with the previous year, and as the income of that year from the Bible work fell so much short of that of previous years, we think this the course that should now be pursued.

2. That this must neither be a warrant for contracting debts, without the knowledge of the Board, nor as a precedent of what may be expected of the Church in the future.

3. That we commend the project of establishing a high school, or college, at Cairo, provided the money can be secured outside the regular channels of contributions.

4. That we recommend the erection of a home for the theological seminary of India, and that the $12,000 necessary for its erection be solicited outside the regular channels of contribution; also that $4,000 be solicited in the same way for the erection of a high school for boys at Gujranwala; that to these projects we call the special attention of men of wealth throughout our Church, as an opportunity for them to honor the Lord with their substance, making their money a permanent blessing to the humble, needy ones, gladdening the hearts of our missionaries, and securing reflex blessing to their own souls for time and eternity.

5. That our people be asked to pray earnestly for the success of the work starting in the Upper Nile, or Soudan, by Rev. Dr. Giffen and Dr. McLaughlin.

6. That the Board of Foreign Missions be entrusted with the raising of funds for more aggressive educational work in Egypt and India, and that they report their plans to the next General Assembly.

7. That the thanks of the General Assembly and of the entire Church are due, and are hereby given to Friend John S. Fowler, of Winona, Ohio, for his proposal to establish a school and orphanage near to Cairo, and that our missionaries be directed to take the charge and oversight of the work as he requests, when the money he proposes to raise, has been secured.

8. That the thanks of the Assembly be given, as suggested by the Board, to Lord Cromer, to the American and British Foreign Bible Societies, and to all the others named in their report, for the encouragement and assistance rendered to our work in the foreign field.

9. That as requested the Assembly hereby ratifies the appointment of Robert B. Miller and of J. Howard Boyd as missionaries for Egypt, and of William M. McKelvey for India; also the appointment of Miss Marion A. Paden and Miss Alice B. Underwood and Miss Myra L. Boyd to Egypt, and that of Miss Lillian A. McConnell to India, and that the Board be authorized to send out two additional young women to India, if suitable persons be secured; and also two ordained missionaries as soon as the necessary funds are forthcoming.

10. That we rejoice in the resolve of the parents of Miss Paden not only to send their daughter to this great work, but also to provide for her salary, or support, during her missionary life. May the Lord constrain by the love shown in the gift of Calvary, other parents to do likewise.

11. That the Manual prepared by the Board be approved and adopted.

12. That our missionaries present be invited to the rostrum, and that they be also invited to take part in the discussion of these resolutions.

13. That above all we express our thanks for the work the Master has enabled our laborers in India and in Egypt to accomplish, and that we do now invoke upon them the blessing of God and the special power of his Holy Spirit.

14. That the Board of Foreign Missions, the Women's Board and the Missionary Associations of Egypt and India consider the matter of changing the term of service of the missionaries for the second and subsequent terms and report to the next General Assembly.

The hour of adjournment was postponed for ten minutes that the new appointees to the mission fields might be presented.

After prayer by M. G. Kyle, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. H. G. McVey.

The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the following Committee on Change in the Rules of Order:

COMMITTEE ON AMENDMENT TO RULES OF ORDER.

Revs. J. H. Webster, Edgar MacDill; Elder J. A. Hawk.

Charles A. Dickey, D.D., was granted the privileges of the floor and was invited to the rostrum. He made an address of greeting to which the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly.

The Committee on Nominations presented a partial report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON NOMINATIONS.

The Committee on Nominations recommend the following persons to fill the vacancies or constitute the committees as herewith specified:

BOARDS.

COMMITTEES.

Membership Covenant—Revs. J. K. McClurkin, D.D., J. S. McKee, D.D., W. S. McClure, T. H. McMichael, T. B. Turnbull, D.D.

The retirement of Dr. Barr from the secretaryship of the Board of Foreign Missions was referred to a committee of three to bring in an appropriate minute.

The vote fixing a conference on the state of religion for this evening was reconsidered. Instead of the conference the Assembly fixed as the first order of business for the evening the consideration of the report of the Committee on Correspondence.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The only paper referred to this Committee was the annual report of the Board of Freedmen's Missions, but that report has furnished all the matter that can be given consideration at this time. We proceed therefore to notice particularly some items in the report:

1. "The lives of all engaged in this work have been preserved, and with few exceptions all the work has been prosecuted through the year without interruption and with marked success, God thus giving evidence of his continued favor."

2. "The conditions now existing in all the fields occupied, and the results of the year's work, both educational and religious, are such as to give great encouragement not only to those who are engaged in the work, but to the entire Church by which these workers have been sent forth, and from which also they should receive adequate support." But just here is the most disheartening feature of the Board's report. For to quote the exact language of that report, "The great and only discouragement is purely of a financial character." The failure of the Church to place in the treasury of this Board 45% of the amount appropriated for this work by the last Assembly has not only seriously hampered the work during the year, but left it at the end under a debt of $25,052.77, an increase of $4,052.77 of that reported to the last Assembly, and this notwithstanding that the new work taken up cost less than $700, while open and sadly needy fields have been importunately but vainly pleading with the Board for help. . . . Does this indicate that the United Presbyterian Church, which in the days of her weakness and poverty was the fearless and self-sacrificing advocate of the black man's civil and religious rights, has in the day of her great strength and of her vast and rapidly accumulating wealth deliberately decided to be blind to his great need and deaf to his most pathetic appeals? It should be further noted here that the large debt has made necessary the payment of almost $2,000 interest during the year. Very evidently this burden of debt must be lifted, and sufficient money contributed for the vigorous and enlarged prosecution of the work, as God has so clearly indicated to be the duty of the United Presbyterian Church, or the manifest favor of God, so long enjoyed in her labors for the freedmen, will be withheld from the Church."

We note with pleasure the expansion of the work at Knoxville by the purchase of additional land without cost to the Board, and also the opening of a summer school for colored teachers to begin this month and to be made a permanent part of the work, and to which the Southern Educational Board has donated $500.

We are pleased to observe that the mission at Norfolk earnestly desires to add to its equipment a chapel for religious services, to be placed on the land lately purchased, and that the people of the mission congregation are eagerly willing to contribute to the full measure of their ability to this object; and we deeply regret the inability of the Board for lack of funds to comply with their wishes. The almost phenomenal growth of the mission at Henderson, N. C., is worthy of special remark, the Sabbath school enrolment there being the largest in our Church, commending the industry and efficiency of Rev. J. L. Cook and his co-laborers, all of whom are colored, and have been trained in our schools.

The recognition by southern people, both white and colored, of the splendid work in our mission is shown by the donation of ten acres of land by two planters, as a site for a new mission and the erection on this land of a building by the colored people, that our Board might establish and maintain a mission in the community. Similar propositions from other communities are before the Board, but cannot be accepted because the Church appears unwilling to furnish the means for enlarging the work.

We present the following resolutions:

1. That we gratefully acknowledge the good hand of God in continuing the lives and health of those who have gone as our representatives to serve the Master among the destitute colored people of the Southland, and in giving so many evidences of his enriching blessing upon their labors.

2. That the management of the work among the freedmen by the Board of Freedmen's Missions be commended for its efficiency and especially for its economy, less than one per cent. of the money contributed for the work having been expended in its management.

3. That in view of the large and growing debt upon this Board, and the imperative demand for its removal not only that the work may expand, but that it may be maintained in the fields that we now occupy, this Assembly directs every presbytery in America to bring before each congregation under its care these deplorable facts, and order that in addition to the regular contributions to the Freedmen's missions a special collection be taken on the third Sabbath of October for the payment of the debt with which the Board has so long been struggling.

4. That the liberality of the people in our missions who out of their poverty have contributed to the Church an average of $4.82 per member during the past year is worthy of the highest commendation.

5. That if the contributions of the Church will justify such a course, the Board should at an early day establish additional missions in some of the fields now asking help from our Church.

6. That the thanks of the Assembly are hereby given to the two planters who have donated to our Board five acres of land for the establishment of a new mission at Midway, Alabama.

7. That Mr. H. J. Murdoch, who has served continuously for twenty-eight years as a member of the Board of Freedmen's Missions, and has all those years discharged the duties of treasurer of that Board, and that without cost to the Church, having now declined re-election, this Assembly expresses its appreciation of his long continued and faithful services so efficiently and so freely given to the Church, and the hope and prayer that he may be richly compensated for his labors of love by the Master of Assemblies.

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the following committee to bring in a minute on the retirement of Dr. Barr:

COMMITTEE ON DR. W. W. BARR'S RETIREMENT.

Revs. W. P. McNary, D.D., J. A. McKirahan, A. B. Coleman.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented its report.

The hour of adjournment was postponed ten minutes to give time for the disposal of this report. The report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

Having examined the report of the Board of Church Extension, together with the books and papers of its Corresponding Secretary and the schedules of its Treasurer, your Committee recommends the following for adoption:

1. That we record our appreciation of the ten years of faithful and efficient service rendered to the Church as a member of this Board, by A. H. Calvert, D.D., who entered into his rest on the 30th of last November; and that we receive this as another call from our heavenly Father to work diligently while the day lasts.

2. That we note with pleasure the fact that this Board was enabled to aid churches during the year to the amount of $52,857, which is $12,857 more than last year. For this increase of liberality let us thank our God and take courage.

3. In view of the good results attained by the visit of the Secretary of this Board, together with the Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, to the mission stations of the far west, we recommend that similar visits be made to the mission fields in other parts of the Church in the confident hope that like good results will follow such visits.

4. Since it appears that harm has resulted to some of our mission churches through debt, it is recommended that an investigation be made of this matter in connection with the gathering of next year's statistics, that data may be secured for the wise handling of this subject by the next General Assembly.

5. That the form for Declaration of Trust be amended substantially as follows:

"In trust that the said premises shall be used and kept, maintained and disposed of as a place of divine worship, for the use of the ministers and members of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, subject to the Standards and Acts of said Church, as from time to time authorized and declared by the General Assembly of said Church, and in case the.. .. .. United Presbyterian.. .. ..of.. .. .. shall cease to exist, be dissolved, or cease to be connected with and subject to the jurisdiction of the General Assembly of said Church, or shall lose its corporate existence, the trust shall terminate and the tile shall vest absolutely in the 'Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America,' who shall then have the right to sell and convert the same into money without any liability of the purchaser to see to the application of the proceeds of such sale. And the said Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America may, at any time in their discretion, quit claim said property to said.. .. ..United Presbyterian.. .. ..of.. .. .. so as to vest in it the indefeasible title thereto discharged of said trust, or they may permit said.. .. ..United Presbyterian.. .. ..of.. .. ..to mortgage said property so that the rights of the mortgage shall be superior to and free and discharged of the rights of said Trustees."

6. That the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to take the necessary steps to relieve the Wilmington, Del., congregation from the embarrassment caused by the declaration of trust in the deed for their church property.

7. That we approve of the transfer of the entire parsonage work to the Women's Board and adopt the following regulations for the governing of the fund:

1. The Board of Church Extension assigns to the Women's Board the entire Parsonage Department, reserving the right to make parsonage grants in special cases in which other interests may require it to be so done.

2. Applications for parsonage aid shall be made to the Women's Board, and all grants shall be subject to the regulations at present in force until otherwise ordered by the General Assembly, viz.:

(1.) The Parsonage Fund shall be used to assist congregations which require aid from the mission funds of the Church, and not for congregations in general.

(2.) Applications for aid from the Parsonage Fund shall be made by the trustees of the congregation, by authority of the congregation, endorsed by the Presbytery and approved by the superintendent of Missions of the Presbytery.

(3.) Aid shall be granted only as a loan on security approved by the Board, a moderate rate of interest, the same to be repaid in installments according to the conditions named in the grant.

(4.) The term within which the loan shall be repaid shall be determined when the grant is made, but ordinarily, may not exceed ten years.

(5.) All aid for parsonages shall be subject to the rule of the General Assembly concerning the title to church property.

3. When a parsonage loan is made by the Women's Board, with the approbation of the Board of Church Extension, the Trustees of the General Assembly and the Board of Church Extension shall recognize such loan as a first lien on so much of the premises as may be used for the parsonage, until the same shall be satisfied. And in case of the failure of the congregation, the Board of Church Extension and the Women's Board shall have a pro rata interest in the proceeds of the sale of the property, as the interests of each may appear.

4. Inasmuch as the security for a loan for a parsonage erected on the church lot affects the property interests of the Board of Church Extension, notice shall be given to said Board of the amount of such loan and the time for which it is made.

5. A loan made by the Women's Board for a congregation to meet a debt on its church, and approved by the Board of Church Extension, shall be recognized by the Trustees of the General Assembly and the Board of Church Extension as a first lien on the property until the same shall be satisfied.

6. Appropriations for the erection of churches shall be made by the Women's Board on applications to the Board of Church Extension, approved by it and referred. Such grants shall be subject to all the regulations and conditions governing the Board of Church Extension. When both Boards make a donation, one mortgage covering both grants shall be taken by the Board of Church Extension, and each Board shall have a pro rata interest in the property.

7. Neither Board shall make an appropriation to a congregation already aided by the other Board without consultation and agreement as to the amount and conditions.

8. That we commend the orderly and business-like way in which this Board has conducted the large real estate business committed to its oversight, as well as its careful supervision of all matters entrusted to its care.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

INSTRUCTIONS TO BOARDS.

Resolved, That the Board of Publication be instructed to provide a room, or rooms, for the exclusive use of the several boards of the Church, free of rent.

In view of the comity existing between the several Boards,

Resolved, That in all matters involving legal obligations, the regulations of the General Assembly and the agreements and arrangements between any of the boards should be recognized by the Trustees of the General Assembly and boards affected as having the effect of legal obligations without the execution of legal papers.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief was made the second order for the evening.

The consideration of the report of the Special Committee on Delegate Fund was made the third order for the evening.

After prayer by F. M. Spencer, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Elder Josiah Work.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved:

The matter of the salary of the new Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Board was referred to the Committee on Finance.

By consent of the Assembly the Committee on Judiciary presented, as the first order of the evening, its report on Church Union in India. After considerable discussion the further consideration of this report was postponed and fixed as the first order of the day for to-morrow morning.

The Committee on Correspondence presented its final report. During the consideration of this report the Assembly decided to adjourn, and was adjourned after the benediction by the Moderator.

WEDNESDAY.

June 4, 1902, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Thomas Balph, D.D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The order of the day was suspended to hear the report of the Committee to Prepare a Minute on the Resignation of the Principal Clerk. This report was adopted by a rising vote while Dr. W. T. Meloy led the Assembly in prayer. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON RESIGNATION OF PRINCIPAL CLERK.

Your Committee to which was referred the resignation of our Principal Clerk, William J. Reid, D.D., would report the following minute for your adoption:

Resolved, 1. That while we recognize with sorrow the reason for this action on his part, namely, his seriously impaired health, yet loath to sever the connection which has existed so long between us and cherishing the hope of restoration, we recommend that his resignation be not accepted; and that Rev. Dr. Wallace, the Second Clerk, be given the oversight of matters pertaining to the office of Principal Clerk, and Rev. Wm. J. Reid, Jr., be appointed Assistant Clerk, pro tem., and thus his mind be relieved from all responsibility connected with the minutes of the Assembly, while we wait God's will concerning him.

2. That this Assembly records its profound gratitude to God for his goodness in granting us the long and faithful service of our Principal Clerk, that we assure him of our tendered sympathy in his present trial of weakness and distress, and that our prayers are united and will be persevering that it may please God to restore him to the activities of his loved ministry again.

3. That while making no attempt to give expression to our appreciation of the varied gifts and services of our brother, we deem it opportune and germane to our present action, to record our conviction that the duties, pertaining to the office of Clerk of an Assembly, could scarcely have been performed more intelligently and accurately and promptly, nor rendered with a better or more uniform bearing towards the brethren, than has characterized the service of Dr. Reid through the unbroken period of twenty-seven years, so that now we verily believe no one can recall an instance when through his neglect the business became confused or his courtesy failed, and through stress of trial by reason of the inexperiences or carelessness, or obstinacy of a member, his temper was seriously ruffled, or his patience exhausted, or his willingness to explain difficulty or rectify a mistake, was not prompt and kindly. But on the other hand how many instances can be recalled when through his knowledge of parliamentary usage and his quickness to realize the situation, a whispered word untangled a serious snarl, or a prompt suggestion avoided a threatened outbreak, or a little pleasantry served like oil on troubled waters, or a word of sympathy plucked out a sting, which might have rankled into a festering sore. View him from whatever point you may, to the thought of United Presbyterians, our long time and well beloved Principal Clerk stands unrivaled among those who have held this important and delicate position, and we long to see him in his accustomed place once more, and so again invoke God's blessing on him, while we wait to see how it shall fare with him and us.

The matter of compensation of the Assistant Clerk was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Took up the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Judiciary on Church Union in India. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON CHURCH UNION IN INDIA.

The Synod of the Punjab asks the General Assembly for instructions respecting the attitude to be taken and the course to be pursued in respect to the proposed union of all the Presbyterian Churches of India. The following questions are submitted: 1. Would the General Assembly be willing for us to form a union with other Presbyterian bodies in India on a basis substantially like that which has been prepared by the Alliance, provided the Synod of the Punjab, after overture to its presbyteries, think it wise and proper so to do? 2. If not willing for this, would the Assembly give some indication of the conditions which she would require for the formation of a union?

A copy of the Confession of Faith, Constitution, Canons and Scheme of local organization accompanies the memorial. Having examined these carefully, and having heard from the president and secretary of our Foreign Board, and also from the missionaries who are with us from India, and being satisfied that our position on the subject of praise is safeguarded, your Committee recommends for adoption the following:

1. That we approve of the principle of presbyterian union in India when in the providence of God the way is opened up, and the time is ripe for such a movement.

2. That, reposing the utmost confidence in the wisdom and loyalty of our missionaries in India, we authorize them to take part in the work of preparation for the proposed union.

3. That when the whole scheme of doctrine and administraiton is completed, it be submited in overture to the presbyteries in India, and reported, together with the vote on the same, to the General Assembly for approval or rejection.

The Committee on Judiciary presented a report on Revision of the Book of Government. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON THE REVISION OF THE BOOK OF GOVERNMENT.

The Committee on the Revision of the Book of Government asks instructions respecting the extent to which said revision shall be carried. We recommend the following for adoption:

1. That the entire Book of Government and Discipline be thoroughly revised.

2. That the Committee be continued, and three members added to it.

The nomination of additional members on the Committee on Revision of the Book of Government was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The report of the Committee on Judiciary on the J. R. Wallace case was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE J. R. WALLACE MATTER.

The Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the report of the Board of Trustees relating to the suit recently pending in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, wherein Rev. J. R. Wallace was plaintiff and the Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America et. al. were defendants, find:

That in the year 1892 Lake Presbytery, against the objection of said

Rev. J. R. Wallace dissolved his relation as pastor of the Jamestown congregation. An appeal was taken from this action of the presbytery to the First Synod of the West, which synod reversed the action of the presbytery and restored Rev. Wallace to his former position as pastor of said congregation. The presbytery appealed from the action of the synod to the General Assembly, which in the year 1893 reversed the action of said synod and affirmed that of the presbytery. Rev. Wallace then filed a bill of equity in the Common Pleas Court of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, avering among other things that the proceedings by which he had been removed from his pastorate by the General Assembly was not in accordance with the law of the Church. To this suit the Trustees of the General Assembly was made a party defendant. The Court of Common Pleas found that the appeal to the General Assembly by the presbytery was not in conformity with the Book of Discipline, and that the General Assembly did not have before it any evidence tending to support its conclusions, and thereupon declared the action of the General Assembly null and void, and found in favor of Mr. Wallace and restored him to the pastorate of said church.

From this judgment and finding of the Common Pleas Court, the Trustees of the General Assembly appealed to the Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania, which latter Court, on the 6th day of January, 1902, affirmed the action of the Court of Common Pleas and ordered that Rev. J. R. Wallace be restored to the position of pastor of the Jamestown congregation with the same rights and privileges as if the action of the First Synod of the West had not been reversed.

In the judgment of your Committee the Assembly is not called upon to take any action in the matter further, unless merely to approve of the conduct of the Trustees of the Assembly in defending the action of the Assembly in the Courts. As to the merits of the controversy we have no opinion to express, but as the action of the presbytery and General Assembly have been reversed and that of the synod affirmed, this whole matter is thereby relegated to the congregation of Jamestown and Lake Presbytery for such action de-novo as in their sound judgment will best advance the spiritual welfare of the congregation of Jamestown.

That the Trustees of the General Assembly be requested to notify said synod and presbytery of the judgment and decree of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

The Assembly decided that when we adjourn this morning, we adjourn to meet at 1:30 o'clock P. M.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a report, acknowledging the action of the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in withdrawing its mission from Gujranwala, India, which was adopted. It is as follows:

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF ACTION OF R. P. SYNOD IN WITHDRAWING FROM GUJRANWALA.

Your communication to our General Assembly was heard with pleasure by the Assembly, and a delegate will be appointed to bear its salutations to your Synod. We note with special interest the following item in your communication: "That our Reformed Presbytery of India has been instructed to withdraw from the Gujranwala District and leave it to the care of those who are thoroughly competent to provide for its needs." Our Assembly hereby expresses its appreciation of the magnanimous action of your Synod, feeling assured that it will also be highly appreciated by our missionaries in India.

Took up unfinished business, the report of the Committee on Correspondence. After part of this report was adopted, the hour of adjournment was postponed for a few minutes to hear Dr. John H. Kerr, Publishing Secretary of the American Tract Society. The following resolutions on the work of this society were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS ON WORK OF AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.

The Assembly having heard the report of the American Tract Society as presented by John H. Kerr, D.D., Publishing Secretary, congratulates the Society on the enlargement of its operations, and in view of the extent and excellence of its Christian literature in English, and the many languages used by immigrants; its gratuitous distribution through home missionaries and other Christian workers; its colportage among the foreigners, Mormons, and other exceptional classes; and its invaluable aid to Foreign Missions, by printing in 153 languages:

We hereby express our commendation of the American Tract Society and its work, and recommend that our several churches according to their ability give it substantial financial assistance.

After prayer by Rev. J. H. Nash, the Assembly adjourned.

1:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Elder James H. Hays.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A letter from the non-partisan National Woman's Christian Temperance Union was referred without reading to the Committee on Reform.

Proceeded to unfinished business, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Correspondence. This report, as amended and adopted, is as follows:

ADDITIONAL REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

We have received official notice of the appointment of Rev. John H. Kendall as fraternal delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church (N. S.) to this Assembly; also a communication from this brother, regretting his inability to be present in person and conveying the salutations of his brethren and the action of his Synod in reference to mission work in India. We recommend that this letter be read in the Assembly and that a Committee on Correspondence be authorized to draft a suitable acknowledgment of the action of the General Synod in withdrawing from the Gujranwala District.

We have also received the credentials of John C. Scouller, D.D., as representative of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System. We recommend that he be heard by the Assembly.

We have received also the report of W. D. Irons, D.D., as delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, held in Baltimore, May 21, 1902. We recommend that his fulfillment of this appointment be approved.

In view of the importance of the work of the American Tract Society, we recommend that John H. Kerr, D.D., representative of this society, be given ten minutes at the convenience of the Assembly, to present the claims of this work.

We have received the credentials of Rev. J. S. Allen as representative of the General Synod of the Reformed Church; also a letter explaining his absence and conveying the salutations of his brethren. This letter has been read to the Assembly. We recommend that our Assembly express its deep interest in the work of our sister Church as thus presented.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented its report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Your Committee has had before it the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief and can most heartily recommend its good work to the Assembly.

It seems that the changes made by the last Assembly in the increase of the maximum annuity from $200 to $250, and that a Committee of Ministerial Relief formed in each presbytery have worked well. There has been a gain in receipts, over the last year, of $1,430. Legacies and other contributions have added to this fund, until it is now $120,000. The good work of this Board is seen in the fact that the roll of beneficiaries has been increased to 80, 33 ministers and 47 widows and orphans; 14 new members were added during the past year, and the number on the new list of permanent pensioners, is 14.

An encouraging feature of the report is that the endowment fund is increasing in greater ratio than the number of beneficiaries. Twenty-one years ago there were 19 beneficiaries, and the endowment fund was $20,000. The number of beneficiaries has increased, up to date, four-fold, but the endowment fund has increased six-fold. The financial statement of this Board is attested by a certified public accountant, and is no doubt correct. An appropriation of $10,000 is asked for, from the Assembly, for the coming year. The terms of office of Revs. W. J. B. Edgar, Frank Getty and John Teas, D.D., expire at this time. Your Committee regards the work of this Board in a prosperous condition and well managed. We would recommend the following:

1. That it is the expressed judgment of this Assembly, that any minister in good standing, who has served the Church, and is in need of help, may with the proper endorsement of his presbytery, become a beneficiary of this Board.
2. That the report of this Board be adopted.

The Committee to bring in a minute on the retirement of Dr. W. W. Barr presented its report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE RETIREMENT OF DR. W. W. BARR.

It is with sincere regret that the members of this Assembly and the people of the United Presbyterian Church have learned that W. W. Barr, D.D., after 40 years of faithful service in the Board of Foreign Missions, considers it impossible for him to continue longer in the position of Corresponding Secretary of the Board which for nine years he has filled so efficiently.

It is with great pleasure and satisfaction that we review the progress of our foreign missions during the nine years in which his counsel has been a large factor. Nearly one-third of all the foreign missionaries of the Church have been selected and sent out to the field. The annual contributions have been advanced about $50,000. While the boards of other Churches have been groaning under burdensome debts, his wise and conservative leadership has kept our work almost free from debt, and there has been during the years such expanding and strengthening of our missions as has made them a joy to our own Church and the admiration of all Churches. In view of these things, we recommend the following action: Resolved,

1. That the thanks of the whole Church are due and are hereby tendered to Dr. W. W. Barr for his faithful, efficient and self-sacrificing services.

2. That Dr. Barr is hereby elected Honorary Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions for life, with a salary of $1,000 a year for a term of two years.

The Committee on Delegate Fund presented its report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON DELEGATE FUND.

The Committee submits the following for adoption:

1. That the treasurer of the General Assembly pay the claims of the traveling expenses of the delegates of the different presbyteries the amounts which have been allowed each one according to the percentage the presbytery has paid on its assessment to the Assembly Fund, as follows: Albany, $42.08; Allegheny, $00.00; Argyle, $65.07; Arkansas Valley, $201.32; Beaver Valley, $4.27; Big Spring, $25.66; Boston, $33.00; Brookville, $1.35; Butler, $5.28; Caledonia, $17.97; Cedar Rapids, $103.14; Chartiers, $3.90; Chicago, $88.60; Chillicothe, $12.97; Cleveland, $6.50; College Springs, $220.14; Colorado, $205.00; Concordia, $71.00; Conemaugh, $9.21; Delaware, $73.67; Delta, $00.00; Des Moines, $204.01; Detroit, $00.00; Frankfort, $00.00; Garnett, $83.13; Gujranwala, $00.00; Gurdaspur, $00.00; Illinois Central, $40.84; Illirois Southern, $144.58; Indiana, $30.80; Indiana Northern, $1.50; Iowa Northwestern, $60.85; Kansas City, $90.58; Keokuk, $111.69; Kiskiminetas, $00.00; Lake, $7.05; Le Claire, $59.30; Los Angeles, $355.60; Mansfield, $17.02; Mercer, $7.90; Monmouth, $148.42; Monongahela, $00.00; Muskingum, $5.99; New York, $7.50; Ohio First, $42.82; Omaha, $121.00; Oregon. $264.25; Pawnee, $143.06; Philadelphia, $34.08; Pittsburg, $6.80; Princeton, $00.00; Puget Sound, $191.00; Rock Island, $114.85; San Francisco. $546.00; Sidney, $3.80; Spokane, $215.20; Stamford, $00.00; Steubenville, $12.50; Tennessee, $111.90; Vermont, $24.43; Westmoreland, $00.00; Wheeling, $10.29; Wisconsin, $34.56; Xenia, $48.22; total, $4,491.65.

2. That the treasurer pay W. K. Fulton for accountant and clerk provided for the Committee, and for blanks printed by John C. Park, $16.75.

3. That the appropriation for delegate fund for 1903 be $5,500.

The Assembly extended an invitation to Rev. James Henry, of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, to address the Assembly in the interests of the Belfast Psalmody Convention. The address was given and the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON FINANCE.

1. Your Committee respectfully report that we have examined the statements of the Treasurers of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Education, Publication, Ministerial Relief, Gibson Trust Fund and of the General Assembly Fund, and find that these have been properly audited and certified as correct. We therefore recommend their approval.

2. We ask that warrants be drawn on the Assembly Fund for the payment of the following bills:

Expenses of the Alliance of Reformed Churches	$270.00
" " Delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South	39.25
" " Delegate to Synod of Reformed Church in America	20.00
" " Members of Committee on Metrical Version of the Psalms	99.50
" " Committee on Ways and Means	399.20
" " Committee on Narrative and State of Religion	3.65
" " Committee on Membership Covenant	15.00
" " J. A. Thompson, D.D., Retiring Moderator	26.00
" " Principal Clerk, supplies, postage, etc	14.87
" " the Second Clerk, supplies, postage, telegrams, etc	17.83
" " Committee on Home Mission Methods	107.90
Bill of Murdoch, Kerr & Co., printing and supplies	30.10
Bill of Stevenson, Foster & Co., supplies	6.78
Janitor Bellevue Church	10.00
Janitor Eighth Church, Allegheny	20.00

3. Your Committee recommends that it be a rule of the General Assembly hereafter, that the expenses of committes be allowed only when definitely authorized by the General Assembly.

4. The report of the Permanent Committee on Ways and Means has been placed in our hands. We commend the earnest effort put forth by this Committee to keep before the Church her obligations to the different Boards. We desire to call attention to the special Holiday Offering of about $30,000, secured from the Church through the efforts of the Committee. We also desire to call attention to that part of the Committee's report regarding a financial secretary. Your Committee believes, with the Committee on Ways and Means, that the failure of the whole, or any part of the Church to support its missionary work is due to want of leadership rather than unwillingness to give; that we are not doing our duty to the membership of the Church, if we ask for money without making them familiar with the uses to which it is being put, and the glorious results that are being achieved.

The Committee on Ways and Means says, "So deeply are the members of your Committee impressed with the importance of this recommendation which has been repeatedly made to the Assembly, that we are willing to be held responsible for the payment of the salary of a financial secretary for the term of three years if the General Assembly will authorize his appointment." Your Committee therefore recommends the adoption of the resolution proposed by Committee on Ways and Means: Resolved, That the Permanent Committee on Ways and Means be directed to secure the services of a competent person, to be known as the Financial Secretary, whose duty it shall be to keep the Church thoroughly informed as to the work represented by her various Boards, and to secure from the Church as nearly as possible the full amounts appropriated by the General Assembly. The salary of the Financial Secretary, for a term of three years, shall be paid by private subscriptions and his traveling expenses from the General Assembly Fund.

5. We recommend that the financial agents of the different presbyteries study carefully the rules and regulations for their direction as set forth in the Digest, pages 155 and 156: And that Financial Agents be urged to give a detailed statement of the standing of each congregation in relation to the various Boards at each regular meeting of presbytery.

6. We recommend that congregations be urged to commence making their contributions to the various Boards early in the church year.

7. We recommend that the salary of the Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board be $2,000 per annum.

8. We recommend that the compensation for the Assistant Clerk of this General Assembly be $50.00.

The Committee on Nominations presented its final report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

The committee was empowered to add names to this list of delegates.

To the National Convention of Anti-Saloon League—Revs. W. P. Mc-

Nary, D.D., J. H. Tedford, W. I. Wishart, J. C. Taggart, D.D., John A. Henderson, F. O. Ross, Alexander Gilchrist, D.D.; Messrs. R. N. Chamberlin, Lyle Reid.

The report of the executors of the Reed estate was approved.

The Committee to Amend the Rules of Order presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON RULES OF ORDER.

Your Committee respectfully offer the following for adoption:

1. That the words "A committee on Transportation and Delegate Fund," be substituted for the present reading of Rule 34, Section 3, of the Revised Rules of Order.

2. That Rule 37 be amended to read as follows: "The Committee on Transportation and Delegate Fund shall consist of three members who shall serve for three years, one to be elected by each Assembly, whose duty it shall be to arrange with the railroad companies for reduced rates for the members of the Assembly in attending its meeting and the meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions, and to it shall be committed all matters relating to the proper collection and distribution of the Delegate Fund."

The following recommendations from the secretaries of the various Boards were adopted:

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SECRETARIES OF THE BOARDS.

We believe that the plan proposed last year for conferences in the different presbyteries and congregations on the work in the care of the Boards was attended with good results, and we recommend that a similar plan be adopted for the coming year, the secretaries to prepare and place in the hands of pastors a program for use in quarterly conferences. We also recommend that the expense of printing and circulating such program be paid out of the General Assembly's fund.

The Committee on Appropriations presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON APPROPRIATIONS.

Resolved, That the following appropriations be made:

To Foreign Missions	$170,595
To Home Missions	103,000
To Freedmen's Missions	55,000

To Education (Educational Institutions)	25,000
To Ministerial Relief	10,000
To Assembly Fund	8,000
To Publication	3,000

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be offered,

1. To the railroad companies that have given reduced rates of transportation to the commissioners and visitors attending this Assembly.

2. To the Moderator of this General Assembly for his courteous bearing, fair rulings and Christ-like spirit in presiding over our deliberations.

3. To the pastor and people of the Eighth church, and to the ladies of the several congregations, who have so generously provided for our comfort and entertainment.

4. To Mr. Lorimer and the other members of the entertainment committee for their attention.

5. To the papers for their daily reports and the attention they have given.

The Committee on Leave of Absence presented its report, which was amended and adopted:

REPORT ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Your Committee would respectfully report:

1. That a large number of the delegates were absent at the first or second roll call, but present at all the sessions, except as noted below. We have not thought it necessary to report their names.

2. The following persons have not responded to any roll call, nor asked to be excused by your Committee: S. J. Seville, H. Sefton, Hugh Chambers, E. W. Hastings, J. A. McClaughey, J. A. Watt, D. K. Andrews.

3. Thirty delegates are marked as not present at the Assembly.

4. The following, for good and sufficient reasons as appeared to the Committee, were excused from one or more sessions of the Assembly: A. B. McCarrell, W. H. French, E. W. Strain, J. A. Keener, J. B. Lee, T. V. Dugan, J. D. Williams, A. T. Hemphill, S. W. Wilson, J. M. Stevenson, A. G. Hastings, J. M. Bell, D. Ward, J. Hildebrand, W. B. Barr, H. W. Leech, F. M. Hunter, J. H. Brown, A. J. The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved when the Moderator said: "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in Tarkio, Mo., on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1903, at 7:45 o'clock P. M."

The Assembly was led in prayer by Dr. J. G. Carson, Psalm 72:16-18, C. M., was sung, and the Moderator pronounced the benediction.

J. C. WILSON,
Moderator.

WILLIAM J. REID,
Principal Clerk.

A. G. WALLACE,
Second Clerk.

WM. J. REID, JR.,
Assistant Clerk.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Trustees of the General Assembly would respectfully report:

1. Our diligent efforts to conserve the interests of the Church so far as committed to our care.

2. The receipt of the $3,000 bequest of Mrs. Stewart, of Peoria, Illinois, and the payment by us of the same, less the collateral tax, to the Women's General Missionary Society, as directed by the General Assembly, for the benefit of the Jewish Mission in Chicago.

3. Notice from our attorney that at least $10,000 on account of the bequest of Mrs. Bell, of Rock Prairie, Wis., will probably be paid in a few days. We would here recognize the very valuable services of Rev. S. G. Huey, in connection with those of our attorney, George G. Sutherland, Esq., of Janesville, Wisconsin, in bringing this suit to a successful issue in this case.

4. In the suit of Rev. J. R. Wallace against the Trustees of the General Assembly, the exceptions to the court's rulings and findings of fact and law, mentioned in our report of last year, were in the main overruled by the court, and a decree in accordance with the court's findings was made, adjudging and decreeing, "that the action of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America in reversing the action of the First Synod of the West, and sustaining the action of the Lake Presbytery, in removing Jos. R. Wallace, the plaintiff, from the pastorate of the Jamestown U. P. Church, be declared null and void. And that he be restored to the position of pastor of said church, with all the rights and benefits pertaining thereto as fully and with the same effect as if the action of the First Synod of the West had not been reversed."

From this decree an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. The errors assigned in said court covered the exceptions which had been taken to the rulings and findings which had been overruled by the lower court, said assignments alleging, amongst other things, the incompetency and insufficiency of the evidence on which the lower court had made its finding, and that there were irregularities in the proceedings before the General Assembly in the hearing of the appeal of the Lake Presbytery before said Assembly.

The assignment most strongly pressed, however, before the Supreme Court, alleged error on the part of the lower court in admitting and considering evidence given on part of the plaintiff to prove irregularities in the proceedings in the General Assembly, against objection by defendants' counsel that there was no allegation in the bill giving defendants notice of a claim by plaintiff of any irregularity in said proceedings. The only allegation in plaintiff's bill of complaint, charging any irregularity on the part of the General Assembly in connection with the appeal of the Lake Presbytery from the decision of the First Synod of the West in the Wallace case, was set forth in the ninth paragraph of the plaintiff's bill, which was as follows:

"Ninth. That under the laws and forms adopted by the United Presbyterian Church of North America for its government, the said Lake Presbytery possessed no authority to take an appeal to the General Assembly from the action of the First Synod of the West as hereinbefore set forth in the seventh paragraph, and said appeal should have been dismissed. And the action of the General Assembly, in entertaining the appeal and sustaining Lake Presbytery, was without authority and void."

The defendants' answer to the above was as follows:

"Ninth. We deny that under the laws and forms adopted by the United Presbyterian Church of North America for its government, the said Lake Presbytery had no authority to take an appeal to the General Assembly from the action of the First Synod of the West, and that the action of the General Assembly in entertaining the appeal and sustaining Lake Presbytery was without authority and void, as alleged in the ninth paragraph of the bill. We aver, on the other hand, that the appeal of the Lake Presbytery was in accordance with the laws and forms prescribed in the Book of Government and Discipline of said Church, regulating the procedure in the Church Courts, inasmuch as the Presbytery itself was an 'original' party, being the party against which the complaint to the Synod was made by plaintiff; and furthermore, that by the general practice and usage of the Church, a court whose decision has been reversed by a superior court has a right to appeal the case to the next higher court as an original party. We further aver that the plaintiff was present in Synod when the Presbytery's appeal in said case was taken, that he was cognizant thereof and made no objection to the proceeding, and that the regularity of said appeal was expressly found and adjudicated by the General Assembly before the trial of said appeal, and no objection thereto was made by, or on behalf of plaintiff."

The issue, raised by the above recited paragraphs of the bill and answer, was the main question involved in the case, and it will be seen related only to the competency of the Lake Presbytery to take the appeal in question, and the defence made in the court below was directed mainly to the support of the position taken in the above quoted part of the answer, which defence was successfully maintained.

After the defendants had closed, however, the lower court permitted the plaintiff to re-open his case in chief and give evidence to prove certain alleged irregularities in the hearing before the General Assembly, chiefly that the original papers and the evidence that was taken in the Presbytery and which was before the Synod were not presented to the General Assembly; this in the face of objection on part of defendants that there was no averment in plaintiff's bill giving defendants notice of any such claim.

The defendants in support of their objection to the admission and consideration of the testimony produced by plaintiff to prove irregularities in the conduct of the hearing of the case before the General Assembly, invoked both before the lower court, and before the Supreme Court, the cardinal rule in Equity that:

"Every fact essential to the plaintiff to maintain the bill and obtain the relief, must be stated in the bill, otherwise the defect will be fatal. For no facts are properly in issue, unless charged in the bill, and of course no proofs can be generally offered of facts not in the bill; nor can relief be granted for matters not charged, although they may be apparent from other parts of the pleadings and evidence; for the Court pronounces its decree secundum allegata et probata. The reason of this is, that the defendant may be apprised by the bill of what the suggestions and allegations are, against which he is to prepare his defence."

The Supreme Court, by its decision made on January 6th last, ruled, however, that the paragraph of plaintiff's bill above quoted, contained a sufficient averment to warrant admission of the evidence objected to, and, overruling all the assignments of error, affirmed the decree of the Court of Common Pleas.

5. The report of our Treasurer, John D. Frazer, Esq., duly audited, is herewith presented.

6. The terms of office of R. E. Stewart, J. H. Scott and E. S. Morrow, Esqs., expire with this meeting of Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

I. INTRODUCTORY.

This Board was organized by the General Assembly in 1859, one year after the United Presbyterian Church of North America came into existence. Year after year it has reported to the Assembly, until now, in 1902, it comes with its annual account for the forty-third time. Through all these years it has been with pleasure that the Board has reported to the Assembly and has received its approval and its instructions. It is exceedingly gratifying to state that during all this time there has been the utmost harmony in the Board, and that its relations with the Assembly, as its servant, have been uniformly pleasant. May these cordial relations ever continue.

II. THE YEAR.

(1) DEATHS.

The lives of all the missionaries were spared for so many months that the Board was hoping the year would close without having to make a record of the death of any one. But on the 11th of April a cablegram from India brought the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Sophie E. Johnson, M.D. She died suddenly of apoplexy, at Jhelum, on the 9th of April, at 2:30 A. M., and was buried on the evening of the same day. It was known that for a time she had not been well, but the news of her death came quite unexpectedly.

Dr. Johnson was well known in the Church in this country. She was four years here while taking a full medical course in the Woman's Medical College, Philadelphia, and during those years she traveled extensively and made addresses in many of our congregations and societies. In 1890 she was regularly commissioned as a medical missionary to India. She was stationed at Jhelum, where she has done noble work in the fine hospital erected under her superintendence, in the dispensary connected therewith and in outdoor practice. She was regarded as one of the leading physicians in the Punjab. In 1900 she returned to this country to attend, as a delegate, the Ecumenical Missionary Conference in New York. Again she visited many of our congregations, and did effective work in awakening a deeper interest in the mission cause. Her death is a great loss to the mission. Hardly any one could be more missed than Dr. Johnson.

In this connection the Board feel that they must make mention of the death of Mrs. Henrietta McCague, which occurred at Omaha, Neb., on the 24th of March. Though not under the Board's care for many years, its members do not forget that she and her devoted husband were our pioneer missionaries to Egypt. For several years they did good work in laying foundations. Compelled because of ill health to return to this country, their interest in the work in Egypt has continued, and they have done good service in the home field.

Mention must also be made of the death of Ella Scott, daughter of Rev. T. L. and Mrs. Anna E. Scott. In the month of June, 1901, the mother and four daughters arrived in this country from India. It was the intention that the daughters should enter Westminster College in the autumn. This was not the divine will with respect to all of them. Ella was removed by death on the 22nd of August.

Record, also, must be made of the sudden death of John Robert Sowash, son of Rev. George A. and Mrs. E. J. Sowash, at Monsurah, Egypt, on the 11th of October. He was a little over three years old.

Record, too, must be made of the death at Bhera, India, on November 13th, of Ray Martin, son of Rev. J. H. and Elizabeth Martin. He was nearly nine years of age. Death came after only a few days' illness.

Prof. Robert S. McClenahan and Mrs. Margaret J. McClenahan were called to mourn the loss of their second child of only a few weeks, at Asyut, Egypt, on December 29th.

All of these bereaved parents will have the sympathy of the Assembly and the Church.

(2) PROGRESS.

The work in the fields has been conducted during the year on the usual lines, and there has been progress in almost every department. The one great hindrance has been the want of money to do the work in the fields, that, had it been supplied, could have been done. Notwithstanding this the gain has been gratifying. It will be enough to indicate this to say that the additions to the membership in India for the year 1901 have been 1,036 on profession and 337 on certificate and by restoration. The net gain in membership was 1,035. In Egypt the additions on profession were 450, a net gain of 54. The net gain in membership in the two missions was 1,089. The contributions in India during the year for definitely religious purposes were $1,529, a gain of $302, and in Egypt they were $29,790, a gain over the preceding year of $5,532. For all purposes the contributions in Egypt were four times what they were ten years ago, and there has been about the same advance in India. The annual report, when published, will fully show the progress along other lines.

(3) AN INTERESTING INCIDENT.

Soon after the last meeting of the Assembly, Friend John S. Fowler, of Winona, Ohio, appeared before the Board with a proposition in which all were at once deeply interested. Friend Fowler and his wife, who is a minister in the Society of Friends, visited Egypt a few years ago. While in Cairo they were moved with compassion for the many poor and blind children whom they saw on the streets. It came into their hearts to try to do something for these. Hence Friend Fowler's proposition to the Board was to raise among his friends in this country and abroad a large fund with which to establish a school and orphanage for those suffering children in Cairo and vicinity. Our mission being established so well in the country, Friend Fowler desired to have the missionaries in Cairo, under direction of the Board, take the oversight and charge of the work which he desired to accomplish. The Board readily gave the project its approval. It assumes no financial obligation, and no requirements are made except such as it was quite ready to comply with. Friend Fowler has collected several thousand dollars already for the object, and, according to the agreement made, work in the line indicated can at once be commenced and be carried forward as the funds are contributed. It is believed that the project carried out will in time be a valuable aid to our mission work in Egypt.

(4) INTERESTING ITEMS.

A noteworthy event of the year was the completion and dedication of the Memorial Church building in Alexandria, Egypt. The funds for this were generously furnished by the First church, Allegheny, as a memorial to their late pastor, W. J. Robinson, D.D.

It is gratifying also to state that the new hospital in Asyut was opened near the close of 1901. The funds for this were collected by Dr. L. M. Henry during his late furlough in this country. The friends throughout the Church who contributed for this object have the hearty thanks of the mission and the Board. The medical work in Asyut and that region has been greatly facilitated by this means.

The fund projected for new buildings and equipment for Asyut Training College is largely in hand, and arrangements are being made for proceeding with the work.

It is also of interest to state that by action of the Synod of the Punjab the Presbytery of Gujranwala is to be divided and a new Presbytery to be known as Rawal Pindi erected. The new Presbytery will be formally organized in October next. This will make four Presbyteries in the field.

III. THE FINANCES.

The last Assembly appropriated for the entire work for the year $140,549. This did not include $24,000 pledged by the Women's Board, by congregations, etc., and the $5,075 for the Sudan Mission, and did include the $8,949.07 indebtedness from the preceding year. The total amount to meet all the obligations for the year was $169,624.07. Deducting the $5,075 already in hand for the Sudan Mission, and the $2,400 appropriated for the Emergency Fund, not used, and some other expenses less than estimated, the total amount absolutely required for the year was $164,853.50. The total receipts by the Treasurer for the regular work for the year have been $148,212.29, leaving an indebtedness of $10,847.14, or $1,898.07 more than at the beginning of the year.

The legacies for the year, though equal to the average, were nearly $40,000 less than for the year preceding. This indicates the uncertainty of this source of income from year to year. The regular receipts for the mission work directly have been larger than for any preceding year.

OVER-EXPENDITURE IN EGYPT.

The Board regrets to state that notwithstanding the positive rule in the Manual, the rules adopted by the Board and the action of the Assembly, the mission in Egypt again reports an over-expenditure for the year 1900. This was reported to the Assembly last year, the Board stating that "as soon as the fact of the over-expenditure was learned the Board gave the mission word that it could not recognize this extra expenditure, and recommended that the excess, as far as practicable, be charged to the account of the stations that had overdrawn the amounts to which they were legitimately entitled according to the appropriation made." The action of the Board was approved by the Assembly. In relation to this the Association in Egypt, at its summer meeting in 1901, took the following action:

"Whereas, The indebtedness of the mission to the Board at the close of 1900, amounting to $5,848.36, arose from the reduction of the mission estimates by the Board in May of that year; and,

"Whereas, The mission did its very best to make its estimate correspond with actual current expenses; and,

"Whereas, The mission also carrying on the work of the year made earnest effort to keep expenses as low as possible; and.

"Whereas, The new rules of the Board, by which monthly remittances are made by the General Treasurer to the Station Treasurers, are intended to prevent in future any excess in expenditure over appropriations,

"Resolved, 1. That the Board be requested to ask the General Assembly of 1902 to grant the sum of $5,848.36 in addition to the regular appropriation in order to cancel the excess of expenditure over appropriations in 1900.

"2. That the General Treasurer hold the Station Treasurers responsible for any excess in expenses over appropriations from January 1, 1901, and in the future."

The Board informed the mission that it could not consistently ask the General Assembly to grant the amount of the excess in expenditure, but that it would report the matter without recommendation to the Assembly and give the reasons assigned by the mission for exceeding the appropriation. The matter is thus submitted to the Assembly for its action.

V. ESTIMATES AND APPROPRIATIONS.

(1) ESTIMATES.

The mission in Egypt estimates as necessary for carrying on its work for the present year the sum of $87,570. The India mission's estimate is $76,919. It is believed that these estimates have been carefully made, and gladly would the Board recommend the Assembly to appropriate the full amounts asked by the missions were there a reasonable hope that the Church would contribute these, together with the other absolutely necessary expenses. After the most thoughtful consideration the Board presents to the Assembly the following estimates for the entire work of the year:

To Egypt	$ 76,000 00
" India	68,000 00
For Salaries of Missionaries at Home	4,000 00
" Children of Missionaries in America	1,800 00
" Traveling Expenses of Missionaries	6,000 00
" Outfit for new Missionaries	1,800 00
" Salary of Cor. Sec. ($1,000), of Treas. ($500)	1,500 00
" Clerical Assistance for Treasurer	500 00
" Printing, Postage and Incidentals	1,800 00
" Emergencies	1,500 00
" Interest on borrowed money	1,400 00
" Debt of past year	10,847 00
" Sudan Mission	5,000 00
Total	$180,147 00

These amounts include $24,000 pledged by the Women's Board, Presbyterial Societies, Sabbath Schools and individuals, and $4,096 now in hand for the Sudan Mission, which amounts are to be deducted from the above total. The whole amount which the Assembly is recommended by the Board to appropriate for the entire work for the year would thus be $152,051. If the Assembly shall grant the excess of expenditure for 1900 asked by the Egyptian Mission, then $5,848.36 must be added to this sum, making the total appropriation $157,999.36.

While the above is the recommendation in regard to appropriations, the Board submits to the judgment of the Assembly the question of granting the estimates in full as made by the missions. The association in Egypt complains that the estimates are not laid before the Assembly just as they are prepared by the mission, and earnestly pleads that they be submitted to the Assembly without being passed upon by the Board. It has been the uniform custom of the Board to lay before the Assembly from year to year the total amount of the estimates as made by the missions and make its recommendations in relation thereto. This method is again followed this year, but the question of granting the reduced estimates, as recommended by the Board, or the estimates entire, as presented by the missions, is submitted to the judgment of the Assembly. In case the entire estimates be granted by the Assembly, the total will be $200,636 instead of $180,147, and the appropriation by the Assembly must be $172,540 instead of $152,051. And further, if the Assembly shall agree to grant the over-expenditure by the mission in Egypt for the year 1900, the sum of $5,848.36 must be added, thus making the grand total of appropriations $178,388.36.

In connection with the appropriations, and in view of the financial condition, the question is submitted to the Assembly whether it is good mission policy now to increase the number of our foreign missionaries. For a number of years it has been necessary to make a considerable reduction in the estimates as made by the missions. The cut in the estimates does not affect the salaries of the missionaries, or materially the rent of the houses, and some other necessary items of expenditure. It falls upon the work in the fields, reducing the estimates for this from twenty to thirty per cent. Is it wise mission policy thus to contract the work, much of which can be done effectively and at comparatively little cost by native laborers, in order to add to the number of foreign missionaries? Until more money can be secured for work in the fields this question has become a serious one. It is submitted to the Assembly for its deliberate consideration and the expression of its judgment.

The Board would report further in this connection that out of the appropriation made by the last Assembly for "emergencies," $400 were appropriated to the India Mission to repair the missionary's house at Pathankote, which was regarded as dangerous to live in; and $200 for the schools at Alexandria, Egypt, to save them from destruction or dangerous hindrance. A much larger sum was asked for this latter object, but the Board felt that the financial condition did not possibly warrant a larger grant. It was learned later that special funds, contributed by friends, brought further relief to this and other stations in the Delta which were suffering from the reduction in the estimates.

(2) SPECIAL REQUESTS ADDITIONAL.

In addition to the regular estimates, the India Mission asks that a special grant of $4,000 be made by the Board and the General Assembly for a building for the High School for boys at Gujranwala. There are more than 1,100 boys in this school. Rev. E. L. Porter is in charge.

An appeal is also made to the Church for $12,000 with which to erect a suitable building for the Theological Seminary in the India Mission. This seminary has never had a settled home. The need of a new and suitable building for the accommodation of professors and students is deeply felt. These special objects are earnestly commended to the consideration of the Assembly.

The Missionary Association in Egypt, at the last annual meeting in February, 1902, in view of the importance of the Christian education of young men, and regarding it as evident that the Church, through its ordinary annual contributions cannot provide the large means necessary for the founding and adequate equipment of the institutions required for the needed higher education, adopted the following:

"(1) The Missionary Association in Egypt begs the Board to devise and lay before the General Assembly this year a method of interesting men and women of wealth in our Church, so as to provide adequate means for this great and necessary project, supplementary to the ordinary contributions of the churches.

"(2) We suggest that a sum of at least $50,000 for this purpose should be provided for during the coming year."

The Board is profoundly convinced of the importance of this matter to the success of our work in Egypt. A college like that in Asyut is an absolute necessity for the Delta. Young men and boys will not go, in any considerable numbers, so far from their homes as Asyut for an education. The great mass of the inhabitants of Egypt are in the large cities, towns and villages of the Delta. There must be a college within reach of these, where the young men and boys can receive a higher education, which is now being sought for. It would be difficult to name an object more worthy of the consideration of men and women of means in the Church than this. A beginning could be made by the contribution of the $50,000 suggested by the Missionary Association, but a sum much larger than this ought to be raised as speedily as possible. This matter is commended to the earnest attention of the Assembly.

Can any plan in its wisdom be devised by which the money for all of these special objects in our mission fields may be obtained?

VI. MISSIONARIES.

(1) HOME ON FURLOUGH.

Mrs. T. L. Scott and her four daughters arrived in this country from India on the 9th of June, 1901. Mr. Scott remains in the mission.

Wm. Harvey, D.D., and family arrived from Egypt on the 15th of July. He has been doing good work among the churches and in our educational institutions.

Miss Sallie E. Dickey, of India, was compelled, on account of an affection of her throat, to anticipate her furlough by one year and come to this country. She arrived on the 26th of October.

Because of the large number of ordained missionaries in India whose furlough will be due in 1903, it was deemed best that Rev. David R. Gordon should come home this year—one year in advance of his furlough. He and his family accordingly arrived on the 16th of April.

The full time for furlough of Misses Edith M. Fulton and Nannie J. Spencer having expired, they returned to this country from India with Mr. Gordon.

The time for furlough of Misses Maggie A. Smith, Minnehaha Finney, Grace Chalmers Brown and Ella O. Kyle having expired, they have been granted leave to come home from Egypt. Miss Kyle has decided to remain in Cairo until the date of the graduation of the girls in her school, in the last of December. She will therefore not be home until early in 1903. The others are expected to arrive at an early day.

Misses Jessie J. and Rena L. Hogg have been granted a short furlough to their home in Scotland. They will be absent only during the vacation in the school at Asyut.

The health of Mrs. George W. Morrison having again failed in India, and it having been decided that she cannot live in that country, Mr. Morrison was granted leave to bring his family home. They expect to be here prior to the meeting of the General Assembly. The Board greatly regrets to state that Mr. Morrison has decided that, owing to the fact that Mrs. Morrison cannot return to India, he will present his resignation as a missionary.

Miss Mary A. Platter, M.D., having fulfilled her first term of service as a medical missionary in India, was granted the usual furlough. She left for home by the Eastern route late in December, 1901. As she is visiting on the Pacific coast and on her way East, she is not expected at her home in Chillicothe, Ohio, until some time in June.

(2) RETURN AFTER FURLOUGH.

Dr. J. R. Alexander and Mrs. Alexander, having enjoyed the usual furlough, sailed for the mission in Egypt on the 10th of August, and arrived August 27th. He at once resumed his place at the head of Asyut Training College.

Misses Anna Y. Thompson and Leonora J. McDowell embarked on their return to Egypt on November 2nd, and arrived near the close of that month.

(3) NEW MISSIONARIES.

Rev. John H. Morton and Prof. William E. Nicoll accepted the appointment to India made by the last Assembly. They, with their wives, set out for their field on the 5th of October and arrived safely on November 21st. According to authority given by the last Assembly, the Board appointed Miss E. Roxy Martin and Miss Margaret A. Ball to the mission in Egypt. The former sailed on August 10th and arrived on the 27th. The latter sailed on the 5th of October and arrived November 1st.

(4) APPOINTMENTS TO BE RATIFIED.

Owing to pressing need in the missions, and in order that the number of the ordained missionaries in the fields might at least be kept up, the Board at the April meeting appointed three young men, Messrs. Robert B. Miller, J. Howard Boyd and William M. McKelvey. On account of unforeseen obstacles in his way, Mr. Miller is at this date uncertain as to whether he can accept the appointment or not. The Assembly, however, is asked to ratify his appointment, and that of Mr. Boyd to Egypt, and Mr. McKelvey's appointment to India; and in case Mr. Miller shall finally decide that he cannot go, the Board be authorized to select and send another to Egypt in his place. It is believed that the salaries of all these young men will be specially provided for. It should be kept in mind, however, that the salary is not much, if any, more than one-half of the expense of a missionary.

The Assembly is asked also to ratify the appointment of Miss Myra L. Boyd, Miss Marion A. Paden and Miss Alice B. Underwood to Egypt, and that of Miss Lillian A. McConnell to India, and also to give authority to the Board to send at least two additional young women to India, provided suitable persons can be found. It should be added that Miss Paden's parents have generously offered to provide for her salary during her missionary life. This is the first instance of such support in the history of our missionary work. It is a noteworthy example which, it is hoped, may inspire many to do likewise.

VII. MISSIONS.

(1) EGYPT.

The following outline of statistics will indicate the condition and progress of this mission for the year 1901. The special hindrance has been the want of money for work in the field. Because of this some prosperous work could not be prosecuted and little or no advance could be made.

Ordained ministers in the field, 16; wives of missionaries, 15; unmarried women, 17; medical missionaries, 4; professor in college, 1. Total, 51.

Native ordained ministers and pastors, 30; licentiates, 20; shopmen and colporteurs, 38. These go into almost every part of the land. Harem workers, 50.

Synod, 1; presbyteries, 4; lay workers, 11; students of theology, 6; organized congregations, 53, ministered to by 30 pastors, five of which are self-supporting. Other stations, 173.

Membership, 6,580, a net gain of 54. Increased by profession, 450. Attendance on Sabbath morning service, 12,065.

Contributions by natives for definitely religious purposes, $29,790. The evangelical community numbers about 25,200.

Sabbath schools, 190; scholars, 8,611; contributions, $1,022.

Day schools, 169; teachers, 333; pupils, 13,406. Tuition by natives, $29,637.

Theological Seminary, professors, 3; students, 6.

Asyut Training College enrolled during the year 615.

Books—Bibles sold, 15,024; receipts, $2,687; religious books, 11,363; receipts, $1,752; educational books, 46,807; receipts, $7,205; receipts for stationery, $2,185; total volumes, 73,194. Total receipts, $13,831.

Medical, missionaries, 4; assistant, 1; nurse, 1; patients treated: Tanta, 5,173; receipts equal to expenses. Benha, clinic patients, 4,856; receipts not given. Asyut, patients treated in hospital, 671. Others not reported. Receipts less than expenses.

(2) INDIA.

The work in this mission has been conducted on the usual lines during the year. A new mission station was arranged for at the October meeting of the Association. Sangla Hill, about twenty-five miles northeast of Lyallpur, is its center. This makes in all 13 principal stations. The report of each mission district appears separately this year, and not under special subjects as heretofore. That a large measure of success has attended the work the following summary of statistics will show:

Ordained ministers, 19; wives of missionaries, 16; unmarried women, 19; medical missionaries, 2. Total, 56.

Ordained native ministers, 15; licentiates, 10; theologues, 14; teachers, 115; other mission employes, 142. Total native workers, 296.

Synod, 1; presbyteries, 4; principal stations, 13; villages, 498; organized congregations, 25, 11 of which have pastors, and 5 of which are self-supporting. Membership, 8,022; members received on profession, 1,036, and on certificate and by restoration, 337. Net increase, 1,035. Contributions for church purposes, $1,529.

Sabbath schools, 129; teachers, 245; pupils, 5,341.

Day schools, 140; teachers, 319; pupils, 7,855. Fees, $9,078.

Training and Industrial Schools, 4; pupils in, 407; contributed for all school purposes, $9,078; contributed by natives for all purposes, $10,607.

Theological Seminary, professors, 2; students, 14.

Books—Bibles and portions sold (partial report), 977; other books, 1,-694. Recipts, $266.

Medical Work—Physicians, 2; hospitals, 2; patients treated, not including branch dispensary at Pasrur, 45,406. Fees not reported.

(3) THE SUDAN.

It was reported to the last Assembly that by direction of the Board and the Missionary Association in Egypt, Rev. J. Kelly Giffen and H. T. McLaughlin, M.D., had proceeded to Khartum and thence up the White Nile to Tewfikiah, and that they had selected a site for the mission at Dolaib Hill, on the Sobat River, about twelve miles from its mouth and the same distance from Tewfikiah. The missionaries returned to Egypt, and, their report having been approved by the mission, the Board and the Assembly, they then made their arrangements to return as speedily as possible to Dolaib Hill to begin work among the non-Arabic speaking tribes of that region. Arriving on their way at Umderman, through some misunderstanding that has not been explained, they were refused leave by His Excellency, the Sirdar, to proceed. After several months' delay, and the return of Lord Cromer from England, leave was granted the missionaries to go forward according to the arrangement of the preceding year. They left Umderman by sail boat, as the cheapest mode of travel, on the 5th of March, and were proceeding up the White Nile and nearing their destination, at the latest word, March 26th.

This has been recognized by the General Assembly as a distinct mission, and provision must be made for its being carried forward. It should be stated in this connection that Rev. J. Kelly Giffen has self-sacrificingly agreed to postpone his furlough for one year, and, if health permit, not to come to this country until the spring of 1903. Another must be in his place at latest by that date. If one shall go from Egypt a new missionary must be sent to fill the place thus vacated.

It should also be stated in this connection that Mr. Giffen and Dr. McLaughlin strongly recommend that, in view of the strategic importance of Umderman as a centre, a missionary should at once be sent to occupy that place.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS.

(1) CHARTER FOR COLLEGES.

The General Assembly a year ago directed the Board to take the necessary steps to secure charters for Asyut Training College in Egypt and Gordon Mission College in India, giving authority to these institutions to confer academic degrees. On investigation it was found that all academic degrees in India are conferred by the government. A charter for the object desired cannot, therefore, be obtained for Gordon Mission College. In regard to a charter for Asyut College in Egypt, it has been found that there are grave obstacles in the way of obtaining here a charter for an institution in a foreign land. The hope is cherished that the Board may succeed in obtaining the desired charter, but at this date only progress can be reported.

(2) REVISION OF THE MANUAL.

The edition of the Manual of the Board of Foreign Missions, revised by the Board and approved by the Assembly in 1882, having been exhausted, a new edition was required. Owing to numerous changes having been adopted by the Assembly during the intervening years, and owing to the enlargement and progress of the work, a revision of the Manual seemed to be a necessity. A revision has accordingly been carefully made by a committee of the Board, and, having received its sanction, the Manual thus revised is herewith submitted to the Assembly for its approval.

IX. THANKS TO SPECIAL HELPERS.

The Board feels that it has been under obligation during the year to the whole Church for its sympathy and generous support. At the same time it is felt that mention must be made of some who have been specially helpful.

1. The Assembly's Committee on Ways and Means has been unusually active and energetic in stirring up the Church to a sense of her duty, and in eliciting funds for the maintenance of her missionary work.

2. The Women's Board has carried forward energetically the large part of the work in our mission fields that has been committed to them.

3. Thanks are due to Lord Cromer, representative of the British Government in Egypt and the Sudan, for his interest in promoting the generous favors granted to our missionaries during the preceding year. If there was delay in the missionaries reaching their field this year, it was not by any fault of his. He has been the consistent friend of our mission in Egypt and in the Sudan.

4. The American Bible Society and the British and Foreign Bible Society have, through another year, been generously co-ordinate helpers of our mission work in Egypt, by the grants in aid they have made and by their colporteurs distributing the Word of God.

5. The Committee in Pittsburgh and vicinity, mentioned last year as having in charge the fund for securing buildings and equipment for Asyut Training College, have continued their laudable efforts with success during the year.

6. Miss Ina Law Robertson and Miss Eleanor C. Law, who most generously subscribed the $12,000 needed for a building for Gordon Memorial College, India, have been making payments as the work on the building progressed during the year. The building is now approaching completion, and the last installment of the money is on the way.

7. The Women's Magazine and the papers of the Church have given generous space for the "Monthly Statement" of the Board and for numerous letters from the mission fields, by which means the good cause has been greatly aided.

8. A Friend, per Rev. J. M. Atchison; A Friend of Missions, per Rev. D. C. Stewart; Samuel C. Duff, Mrs. R. M. Reid, Robert Montgomery, A Friend, Lancaster, Pa., Rev. J. Howard Tate, Mrs. D. C. Rockwell, J. C. McElray, Miss J. K. Denham, A Friend of Missions, Cedarville, O., Two Friends in First Church, Allegheny, Pa., Miss Carrie M. Reed, A Friend of Missions, George Brush, Rev. James Sawhill, J. A. and A. S. Gradle, A Contributor, Mrs. A. B. Caldwell, Mrs. Martha McCrory, Mrs. S. J. Michell, Mrs. Sarah P. Wallace, Mrs. Jane M. Boyd, Mrs. Catherine Wight, Mr. Nelson Pratt, "Bovina, N. Y.," W. F. S., A Friend of Missions, E. M., Mt. Pleasant, Pa., Rev. W. G. Moorehead, D.D., Treasurer, J. L. Burnett, X. Y. Z., Hopeful, Pittsburgh, Pa., Second Church, Jersey City, Third Church, Pittsburgh, Sixth Church, Allegheny, and the First Church, Allegheny, have placed in the treasury of the Board during the year sums ranging from $100 to $2,500.

9. To all of these helpers the Board is grateful. The Assembly is asked to unite with it in expressing thanks to all of those named, and to all others who, by their sympathies, prayers and contributions, have aided the good work during the year.

Above all let thanks be given to God for his benignant favor to our foreign mission work and all connected with it throughout the year.

By order of the Board

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

In presenting its annual report to the General Assembly, the Board of Home Missions desires to express its gratitude to God for his blessing upon the work that has been under its care during the past year.

Besides the regular monthly meetings, special meetings have been held as they were made necessary by the urgency of important business. The needs of the home mission field have been prayerfully considered, and the Board has endeavored in every way within its power to meet the demands of the work.

The ministers and congregations in the home mission field are to be commended for their faithfulness and zeal, and the Board desires to express its appreciation of the support that has been given to this work by the Church and by individual contributors.

The work during the past year has been very prosperous, as the statements which follow will show.

On account of changes that occur in the list of stations from year to year, large and strong congregations going off and small ones coming on, it is not possible to make comparison with preceding years that will be altogether just, but at the same time can be determined thereby in a general way the progress of the work.

There was a net gain in membership of 1,614. The contributions to the general work of the Church exceeded those of the preceding year by $4,550, and for salaries by $4,419. The amount paid to stations exceeded the payments for last year by $2,355. During the year 12 congregations that had been receiving aid for many years became self-supporting.

The Board has encouraged the extension of the work as far as the condition of the treasury would warrant, and grants were made for the purpose of exploring and opening up several new fields.

Our new work is expensive. In almost every instance the whole salary of the missionary is called for from the Home Mission treasury at first. It is the belief of the Board that with proper effort more local support could be secured in some places.

It has been suggested to young men just leaving the seminary, who would be content with moderate things for a year or two, to take up work in places where there would likely be a good deal of local support from the first and consequently small demands upon the public funds of the Church. No one is urged or even asked to act upon the suggestion. There is simply offered the opportunity for volunteer service.

The last General Assembly directed the Board to make investigation with reference to work among the mountain whites of the South. The Board has made such investigation by correspondence and interviews with persons who are acquainted with the situation. Sad in the extreme is the condition of those people in every respect. Work among them would have to be taken up and carried on much the same as in heathen lands. Further investigation as to particular fields and methods will be necessary, as well as larger contributions by the Church, before the Board can see the way clear to starting work in that region.

In the opinion of the Board, the visit of the Corresponding Secretary to the West last fall was attended by good results both in the way of encouraging the missions and arranging for carrying on the work. The Board also believes that a similar visit to the eastern part of the Church during the coming year would be advisable.

II. GRANTS BY THE BOARD.—Cases Referred.—The following cases were referred to the Board by the last General Committee and General Assembly:

Arkansas Valley, Guthrie, $1,000, granted; Chicago, Evanston, $1,200, granted; Detroit, Port Huron, $400, granted; Kansas City, Amoret, $275, not granted, group with Mulberry; Mercer, South Sharon, $500, granted; Spokane, Glendale, $1,000, not granted, recommended that it be continued as a mission S. S.; A. R. Church, South, co-operative missions, Charlotte Second, Corsicana, Louisville, $925, granted.

Three cases were referred back to Presbytery and afterwards came before the Board for consideation: Arkansas Valley, Duquoin, ganted, $156; Jetmore, granted, $112; Philadelphia, Wharton Square, granted, $480.

Emergencies.—To meet emergencies during the year appropriations were made as follows: Allegheny, Allegheny 12th, $400; Arkansas Valley, Roosevelt, $300; Big Spring, York, for investigation, $200; Boston, Salem, $800; College Springs, Creston, $50 additional; Des Moines, Des Moines, Second, $150, change location; Indiana, Madison, $100 additional; Kansas City, Winchester, $100 additional; Keokuk, Harrison, $50 additional; Monongahela, Pittsburgh, Eleventh, $200; Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Fifth, and new mission, $250; Puget Sound, Oak Harbor, $225 additional; San Francisco, Fresno, $100 additional.

III. SPECIAL MISSIONS. In the care of the Board as special missions have been 29 stations during the past year. These missions have made special reports to the Board and in most of them the work is in an encouraging condition. There will be some changes at the end of the year, but in nearly all cases the ministers now in charge are expected to continue for another year.

As required by the regulations, in the case of the stations whose terms extend beyond the current year, the Board has made grants for the coming year and appointed missionaries except, in a few cases that are still under advisement. The general facts in reference to these missions are given in full in the regular tabular statement of missions.

The term of 7 of these stations as special missions expires at the end of this year, viz.: Canton, Colfax, Des Moines Third, Detroit First, Lincoln, Sioux City and Tacoma. Canton, Des Moines Third, and Lincoln ask to be continued for another term.

IV. THE WORK OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY BOARD. As aforetime, the co-operation of the Women's Board continues and is greatly appreciated. The following statement was furnished us for publication:

Warm Springs, Indian mission, $3,892.30; Donations: Oakland, Cal., $500; Wilmington, Del., $2,000; Pawnee Academy, $3,000; Central Falls, R. I., $500; salaries of women missionaries, $2,667.10; Polish mission and paper, $700; Italian mission, $473; Jewish mission, $400; Park Chapel, Allegheny, $100; Puget Sound Mission Boat, $35.65; DuBois, Pa., $21; Tenth Church, Allegheny, $25.

Entire amount paid to Jewish mission, Chicago, commencing July, 1899, $2,800.

V. THE SLIDING SCALE AND FIFTEEN-YEAR LIMIT RULES. One of the chief hindrances to the more rapid extension of our home mission work is the unwillingness of congregations to provide according to their ability for their own support. This fact explains almost entirely the existence and intent of the sliding scale and time limit rules. The great majority of stations to which these rules apply ask to be exempted and, with very few exceptions, presbyteries endorse the request, but the Board is firmly of the opinion that these rules are just and wholesome, and that they should be enforced with reasonable strictness. For the coming year exemption from the sliding scale for 103 stations, and from the fifteen-year limit for 88 is recommended by presbyteries; 48 stations accept the sliding scale, but 29 of these would be excluded by the time limit.

In view of the urgent call from new fields on every hand, the Board believes that more money should be appropriated to new work and less to undeserving and unpromising old stations.

VI. VACANT CONGREGATIONS AND UNEMPLOYED MINISTERS. During the year the Board has endeavored to co-operate with unemployed ministers, so far as opportunity and ability permitted, in the effort to secure appointments, and with presbyteries in the matter of supplying their vacant congregations. Very few ministers or presbyteries have sought such arrangements through the Board. The Board would welcome a satisfactory adjustment of this matter, but does not see how it can be effected. The whole subject of the home mission system is to come before the next General Assembly and improvements may be made.

Balance Cash on hand			$ 2,862 45

Under the head of Sabbath Schools and Young People are given only such contributions as were sent directly to our treasurer. No doubt considerable sums were sent to financial agents and, while they were forwarded to our treasury, were not separately reported. The sum of $584 was received from the tenth anniversary fund.

It is cause for gratitude that we have been enabled to close the year with all financial claims met and a balance in the treasury of $2,862.45. For this gratifying result we are indebted chiefly to friends who remembered the work in their wills. An exceptionally large sum, $27,105.71, was received from legacies.

The receipts from congregations were $64,930.30, not quite 65 per cent. of what was pledged by the General Assembly and therefore expected of the Church. The total appropriations were $100,500. The contributions of the Church, as such, were $9,000 more than for last year, and the Board is of the opinion that this increase was due very largely to the splendid work done by the committee on ways and means.

More money is the great need in our Home Mission work. Scores of needy and promising fields are open to our Church in all parts of this great land, and the only thing that prevents our entering in and taking possession of them is the lack of necessary funds.

We cannot depend upon legacies for the coming year, the reliance must be upon the interest and Christian liberality of the congregations. The work will be pushed to the farthest limit warranted by the offerings of the Church.

VIII. THE COMING YEAR. Reports have been received from all our presbyteries and, with the exception of three, all are carrying on home mission work for which aid is asked. If the three presbyteries referred to are not extending the work in their bounds it is hoped they will soon start some new missions and thus make our Church throughout its whole length and breadth a missionary Church in fact.

Fifty-eight presbyteries present requests for aid for 242 stations. The A. R. Church of the South asks aid for 4 co-operative missions.

There are 28 applications for grants for strictly new work aggregating $17.400. Three of these applications are for places to which grants were made last year, but, for special reasons, work was not begun. Two old congregations ask aid for the first time to the amount of $600. The requests aggregate $98,663. Except those for special missions, all applications will be presented to the General Committee of Home Missions to meet in Bellevue, Pa., May 21, 1902.

The term of service of Geo. M. Reed, Esq., Rev. J. W. English, D.D., and Rev E. Z. Thomas as members of the Board will expire June 30, 1902.

H. W. McKee, Esq., was elected to fill the unexpired term of A. M. Scott, Esq., who resigned during the year on account of inability to attend the meetings of the Board.

Herewith are presented the statistical table of home mission congregations and the report of the treasurer, which has been audited according to requirement.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

ALEXANDER GILCHRIST,
Corresponding Secretary.

J. K. MCCLURKIN President.
J. W. ENGLISH, Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The forty-third annual meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions was held in Bellevue, Pa., May 21-28, 1902. All the Presbyteries in America and the Presbytery of Delta, Egypt, were represented by delegates, and representatives of the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension were present.

Rev. Geo. McCormick, D.D., of San Francisco presbytery, was elected chairman. Rev. Edgar MacDill, of Indiana presbytery, was elected recording secretary, and Rev. J. G. Kennedy, of Colorado presbytery, was chosen assistant secretary.

Applications were presented by 58 presbyteries for aid for 251 stations aggregating $102,244.

There were 33 applications for grants for entirely new work, aggregating $19,250. There were two requests for grants for old congregations asking aid for the first time amounting to $600.

It was not felt that in justice to the work in general all these requests could be granted, but there was an earnest desire to make a decidedly forward movement in this direction, and accordingly much more new work than usual was taken up.

The Committee entered upon its work prayerfully and exercised great care in the consideration of each case. The aim in each appropriation was to make the wisest distribution of the money contributed by the Church for home mission work.

The result of the Committee's deliberations is given in the following report. Appropriations are recommended as follows: For special missions in the care of the Board, $20,345; for other stations aided in former years, $57,206, including $2,600 to meet the probable needs of stations that were referred to the Board or presbytery. For new work, $15,450; to the Board for its use during the year to meet emergencies that may occur and provide for new fields that may require attention before their cases can be brought before the next General Committee, $10,000. The total amount granted is $103,000.

It is the belief of the committee that our Church is able to provide the sum that has been recommended, and that every dollar of it is imperatively needed to provide for the successful prosecution of our home mission work. The Committee also believes that if the needs of this work are properly presented to the people of our Church, they will support it liberally, especially in view of the large number of new missions that are to be taken up and the promising outlook for a general advance in this important work.

I. AID GRANTED.

$9,000 more than for last year is appropriated directly to the work, there being no debt to be provided for by appropriation, and $6,000 more for new work. The following characters are used to express conditions upon which appropriations are made: p. s., continuance of existing pastoral settlement; s., settlement to be effected. In all other cases the condition is stated supply, unless something different is expressly indicated. A fraction after the appropriation shows the amount of time to be taken, as 1-2 or 2-3. When no figures are used, the grant is for full time.

II. SPECIAL AND NEW WORK.

1. Special Missions.—The term of seven stations as special missions expires this year, viz.: Canton, Colfax, Des Moines 3rd, Detroit 1st, Lincoln, Sioux City, and Tacoma. Canton, Colfax, Des Moines 3rd, Detroit 1st, and Lincoln ask to be continued for another term. These requests, with the exception of Detroit 1st, were granted and appropriations made to the stations as shown in the foregoing list of grants. St. Paul and South Sharon asked to be made special missions for the first time and their requests were granted.

2. First Grant.—The following is a list of stations that are granted aid for the first time. The amount and conditions in each case are given in the general list: Birmingham, Ala.; Buffalo, Stony Point, N. Y.; Clairton, Pa.; Des Moines 2nd, Ia.; Detroit 2nd, Mich.; Eastern Oregon, Ore.; East St. Louis, Mo.; East Tacoma, Wash.; Ft. Morgan, Col.; Ft. Recovery, O.; Grinnell, Ia.; Moundsville, W. Va.; Mt. Vernon, Wash.; New York, Crescent Park, N. Y.; Prescott, Ia.; Redlands, Cal., Rennerdale, Pa.; St. Paul, Minn., grant last year, work not begun; Sheridan, Pa.; Southwick, Ida.; Spokane 2nd, Wash.; Swissvale, Pa.; Trenton, O.; Waterloo, Ia.; West Pittsburgh, Pa.; Woodville, Pa.; York, Pa.

III. GENERAL.

Resolutions and recommendations were adopted as follows:

1. That we gratefully acknowledge the goodness of God and His manifest blessing upon our Home Mission work, especially in the grace of giving and in the opening of new fields of work.

2. That we express our high appreciation of the careful and efficient service rendered our Church by the Home Board. We desire especially to express appreciation of the diligent and faithful work of our corresponding secretary, Alexander Gilchrist, D.D.

3. That the Board be authorized and instructed to make provision for a suitable office room for the corresponding secretary.

4. In view of the increasing office duties of the secretary, and in order that he may have more time for visiting the field and presenting the work to the Church, that the sum of $200.00 be appropriated for clerical assistance.

5. In the form for the "Declaration of Trust," change, "And whenever, in the judgment of the said Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, it shall be proper or right, for any cause, to terminate such trust and sell, or otherwise dispose of the said property, the Trustees, with the concurrence of the said.. .. .. United Presbyterian.. .. ..of.. .. .. may, in their discretion, act accordingly," to read, "And the said Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America may, at any time in their discretion quit claim said property to said .. ..United Presbyterian.. .. ..of .. .., so as to vest in it the indefeasible title thereto discharged of said trust, or may permit said.. .. ..United Presbyterian.. .. ..of.. .. .., to mortgage said property so that the rights of the mortgagee shall be superior to and free and discharged of the rights of said Trustees."

6. That the treasurer of the General Assembly pay to the janitor of the Bellevue church ten dollars for services rendered during the sessions of this committee.

ALEXANDER GILCHRIST.
Secretary.

GEORGE MCCORMICK, Chairman.
EDGAR MACDILL and J. G. KENNEDY, Assistant Secretaries.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The work committed to the Board has been caried on with much earnestness, and the constant aim has been to make it as aggressive and effective as possible with the means placed at our disposal. There is much evidence of a very rich blessing resting upon the efforts put forth, calling for profound gratitude. There have been experiences also which call for great searchings of heart.

A glance at the field.—The number of missions is fifteen; missionaries employed, one hundred and five. The day school enrollment is 3,595; Sabbath school enrolment, 3,724. We have ten organized congregations with a membership of 820, an increase of 53 for the year, and five unorganized missions. The total contributions of these natives churches and missions for the year are $3,959, being an average of $4.67 per member, and an increase over last year of $1,313. There has been a corresponding advance in the work along all lines and in all departments. The great, and only discouragement with which the Board has met, is purely of a financial character.

Discouragements.—From the beginning of the year the receipts were small and slow. Scarcely one month passed in which it was not necessary to borrow money to meet the expenses incurred in the preceding month, and on one occasion, nearly the entire amount of salaries and expenses for the month had to be borrowed. The amount received from legacies, and other irregular sources was smaller than in former years. Appeal after appeal was sent out, bringing but little relief. The Board at times was well nigh ready to despair, but decided to struggle on in the hope that at the close of the year, the money long overdue would come in and relieve the embarrassment, but this hope was not realized. Although a goodly sum was received in April, yet the amount was inadequate to meet the demand; and we are forced to report a crushing debt of $25,052.77, an increase of that reported last year of $4,702.77.

The total contributions received from Presbyteries amount to $30,155.90, or 55 per cent. of the amount appropriated. The deficit in these contributions is $24,844.10, which amount is only $208.67 less than the entire indebtedness of the Board. The new work undertaken by the Board did entail an expense of over $700. This work was done at Leakesville, N. C., and at Midway, Ala. A lot in Cleveland, Tenn., was purchased for $850, as a choice between making the purchase or being shut out from the only eligible position in the town, which practically meant an abandonment of the field. There was no unusual expense incurred at any of the missions, except at Henderson, N. C., and this was occasioned by a severe storm which damaged the buildings seriously, and by the phenomenal increase in the attendance, which made necessary some changes in the buildings. With this statement of the conditions, your Board leaves the matter with the Assembly in the hope that action may be taken which will speedily relieve the present distress, and make the way plain for the vigorous prosecution of the work next year.

We now ask the careful consideration of the work, set forth somewhat in detail, as gleaned from the annual reports of the principals of the different schools, to the Board.

KNOXVILLE COLLEGE AND SUB-STATIONS.

GENERAL.

The two groups of mission stations in Tennessee and Alabama have each five missions. These are all very closely related. Knoxville College supplies all the teachers for these ten missions. The reports all come through the President of the college, who summarizes them for the Freedmen's Board. The workers in these schools all attend the Summer Bible School at Knoxville College in June of each year after commencement.

In general the work during the year has been encouraging. Reports come from all the principals that it has been a good year. The health of the workers has been good.

The partial failure of crops in many places reduced the attendance, especially in Alabama. The boarding departments have found it a hard year on account of the increased cost of living.

The statistics of the congregations in these fields show that the year has been one of increase in church membership. Our churches are getting stronger all the time, and are potent factors for good in their communities. The hard times has caused an unusual amount of moving, and hence the loss by removal is larger than usual.

The increased efforts of the people to help themselves is worthy of special note. Although the year has been unusually hard on them yet the congregations of Athens, Camden and Prairie paid each $50 on their pastor's salary, and Miller's Ferry has paid $175. This has been done in addition to liberal contributions to the Boards of the Church. We hope it is prophetic of the time when all of them will be able to pay their pastor's salaries in full. It is significant that requests have come from various communities in proximity to our missions for the Board to open schools in their midst.

Knoxville College.—The enrolment for the year reached 303. Students have come from 17 states, and from Central America. The 26 workers have been blessed with good health in general.

In the fall scarlet fever broke out in the school. There were eight cases, but they were all mild. This had the effect of reducing the attendance materially.

Financial.—All the incidental expenses of the college have been met by incidental fees and profits from our various departments. We receive from the Government, through the University, with which we are connected, $4,000.

Enlargement.—An addition to our farm was made last summer at the cost of $7,500. Half of this was given by a friend of the work, on condition that the other half be raised elsewhere. A tour of some of the churches in the North was made during the summer by a member of the faculty with the college quartette, and the money was secured.

This land is a very important addition to our agricultural department. The college tract now comprises 46 acres. In addition to this a five-years' lease on an adjoining farm of 30 acres is held.

Religious Work.—All the services in connection with a regularly organized congregation are carried on. The religious activity has been marked; all the organizations have done good work. Miss Jennie McCahon, as missionary, is a faithful and untiring worker. The students are required to attend all the religious services, and in addition there is a good attendance from the city. No mission school has been maintained in the city this year on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever and small-pox, at different times but the students have worked in connection with the various churches, and especially in maintaining services in a neglected country district. The College Sabbath School has an enrollment of 219 with an average attendance of 185. The number of accessions to the church during the year was 20. A large number of others have accepted Christ and joined other churches.

Departments.—The college maintains a Literary department, Training School, Normal course, Scientific, Classical and Theological courses.

Industrial Department.—The Industrial department includes training in Sewing, Domestic Science, Agriculture, Printing, Carpentering and Electrical work. The sewing and domestic science are provided for by the Women's Board; the other departments are provided for by the Government. By arrangement with the University of Tennessee we receive the colored state students in our industrial department, and an appropriation of the Government funds to the extent of $4,000. This provides for two professors, foremen, equipment and student labor. We are required to use these funds exclusively in this department. Students are paid for their labor, and thus many are enabled to be in school who could not otherwise attend. Electric lights are furnished by the dynamo which belongs to this department, and students are thus trained to run the engine and care for the dynamo.

All the girls are required to take sewing and cooking as a part of their college curriculum.

The policy of the school is to give little help direct, but to provide work for all that wish it, and in this way a healthful independence is cultivated. During the year a dairy has been added to the Agricultural department. A herd of 14 cows, silo, cream separator, and other equipment afford facilities for teaching dairying thoroughly. Poultry raising by means of incubators and brooders is carried on. A green house, hot beds and cold-frames afford facilities for floriculture and vegetable raising.

Scholarships.—It has been the aim to provide a free scholarship in each of the preparatory schools under the Freedmen's Board. The plan of the scholarship is to provide for free boarding and tuition in Knoxvile College for one year to the member of the graduating class in the several schools who stands first in scholarship and whose deportment is creditable. We have had four such scholarships this year. The faculty of Knoxville College provided one for the preparatory department of the institution. The Larimer Avenue Mission, Pittsburg, provided one for Miller's Ferry. Mrs. Mary Wallace, of Oakdale, Pa., provided one for Camden, and "a friend" provided one for Chase City.

Mrs. Thomas Jamison, of Allegheny, has generously given $1,000 to permanently endow a scholarship in Knoxville College. It is earnestly hoped that before next term opens scholarships will be provided in each one of the schools under the control of the Freedmen's Board.

Bible School and Summer School.—The annual Bible School will be held as usual for ten days after commencement. The teachers this year are Dr. W. G. Moorehead, Dr. W. J. Erdman, Dr. M. C. B. Mason and Prof. J. B. Work. This has always been of great benefit to those who attend.

Arangements have been made by which we shall begin this year a summer school for colored teachers. An appropriation for this purpose of $500 has been made by the Southern Educational Board with its headquarters in New York. In addition to this, eminent lecturers have been provided in connection with a summer school for white students at the University of Tennessee. This is the beginning of what we expect to be a permanent work in a very important and much needed line. It will be in session six weeks, June 23 to July 31.

ATHENS.

The work in this station has gone on well. A large addition to the church and an awakening in the spiritual life of its membership is the most marked feature. The enrolment at the day school of 163 and Sabbath school of 114 is up to the average. Rev. J. T. Arter is in charge.

CLEVELAND.

The work which was begun at this station three years ago by Rev. J. A. Cotton has grown steadily. A day school has been carried on for two years. This year the Women's Board furnished them with a teacher for sewing. Good work has been accomplished. Great disadvantages have been experienced because of lack of suitable quarters. The people of the town have provided a building and met all the running expenses of the school except the salaries, but the best building that could be secured was very inadequate to the needs. The Freedmen's Board has recently purchased a lot for $850, well located and providing opportunities for the enlargement of the work as needed. It is most earnestly hoped that before the opening of the school in the fall a new building will be provided. The church membership has been increased during the year by an addition of 8. At the last meeting of Presbytery of Tennessee they were granted privilege of organizing. The enrolment in the school is 73.

BRISTOL.

This has been the first year of full work in the large and spacious new building. The work has gone on in a way most encouraging. The enrollment during the year has reached 160. The school stands well in the community, and there is much to encourage. In special meetings during the spring there was an accession to the membership of the church of 26. Rev. Frank W. Woodfin is pastor and principal of this mission.

RICEVILLE.

Riceville is a village 8 miles from Athens. The work at this point was opened up less than two years ago. Rev. J. H. Tarter and one assistant have it in charge. There is a large settlement of colored people in the surrounding community. Mr. Tarter has gotten hold of the hearts of the people, and there is every reason to believe that this is a good station. In the smaller stations the workers get closer to the people than in the larger. The religious work in this station has greatly prospered. In addition to his teaching Mr. Tarter preaches once every Sabbath.

MILLER'S FERRY, ALA.

This is the oldest station in the Alabama missions, and it has had a good year. More attention was given to industrial work in this station than in the others of its group. They have a teacher of cooking and laundering, and a department of printing was added this year. They are equipped with dormitories both for girls and boys. The people have contributed liberally, paying three and one-half months of their pastor's salary, besides more than $100 to the Boards of the Church. Rev. C. H. Johnson is pastor and principal.

PRAIRIE, ALA.

Rev. J. E. James has been in charge of this mission for two years. Good results have followed from his work. An interesting feature of the work at this point is the plantation owned by the Women's Board and managed under the direction of Mr. N. B. Cotton. The purpose of the enterprise is to afford opportunity to persons to be taught farming properly and to be offered the privilege of purchasing small farms of their own. The enrolment of the school has been 286.

CAMDEN, ALA.

This mission is located in the county seat of Wilcox county and thus differs from the other Alabama stations which are in rural districts. Perfect harmony and earnestness have characterized the work during the past year. Rev. E. K. Smith is pastor and principal. The people have responded liberally to the needs of the work. A home for the assistant principal was built largely through their efforts. The enrolment of the school has been 234.

CANTON BEND, ALA.

This is one of the smaller schools, but one which has been marked by the greatest success from its very beginning. Prof. J. N. Cotton, the principal, is not an ordained minister but a ruling elder. He looks after the affairs of the congregation, and together with the neighboring pastors expounds the word to the people. The school has a marked influence on the community. The enrolment for the school year was 176.

MIDWAY, ALA.

A new station has been opened at Midway four miles from Prairie. The people of the community presented a petition to the Board that they might be provided with a school. Two plantation owners agreed to donate 5 acres each, and the people offered to erect the school building on condition that the Board would supply them with a teacher. The conditions were agreed to, and Mr. George L. Johnson, a graduate of the Normal department of Knoxville College, was appointed to take charge of the work. As the building was not yet completed the school has been taught in a cabin, and in spite of unfavorable surroundings they have had a good attendance, enrolling 58 pupils. The new building is now completed, and the deed for the property is in the hands of the Board. There is a vast number of children within the reach of the school for whom there has been little or no provision heretofore. Preaching services have been held by Rev. J. E. James, our pastor at Prairie. Sabbath school has been taught regularly and mothers' meetings have been conducted by teachers at Prairie. The preaching and teaching of the Word have led to several conversions, and we believe there is a good opening there for a prosperous mission, and a United Presbyterian congregation. The new building erected by the people is a neat structure 20x40 with folding doors between the two rooms.

CHASE CITY, VA.

Statistics.—The congregation there has a membership of 168. During the year there were four accessions and two dismissals. Their contributions for all purposes amounted to $633. The Sabbath school has a total enrollment of 315, with an average attendance for the school year of 201, and for the whole year of 180.

The day school enrolled 300, and maintained a monthly average enrollment of 212 for the entire school year.

The work.—Although the statistics do not show it, there is nevertheless a marked increase in the interest taken in the work by the colored constituency of Thyne Institute. There is, perhaps, no better test of the spiritual condition of a congregation than the interest manifested by its members in the prayer meeting service. Except on a very few stormy evenings our large chapel has been two-thirds filled at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting. It has not been necessary to urge the people to come, or even invite them to do so. They came without urging, and wholly occupy the time. At the Sabbath services the chapel has invariably been filled except on stormy days. A very deep interest has been taken this year in the temperance work. A Temperance League has been organized in connection with, and under the control of Thyne Institute. About 100 persons have joined it by signing the pledge and constitution. Its meetings are held in the chapel the last Tuesday evening of each month.

A Young People's Missionary Society has been organized and a missionary program arranged for each alternate Sabbath evening. At these meetings, as also at the temperance meetings, the chapel is filled, indicating the measure of interest taken. The Women's Missionary Society meets in the sewing room on Saturday afternoons twice a month. In addition to the ordinary work of such a society the members are instructed in sewing.

Land purchases.—At different times the Board has made a purchase of a tract of wood land near the mission and adjoining its ground in order to secure the wood for fuel. The price of the land was about equal to the price of four or five cords of wood. And the wood on one acre was easily worth the price paid for ten acres. Now the wood is nearly all used, and we have the land cleared and almost ready for cultivation. There are about 139 acres of this land, seventy of which is virgin soil, and the Board has taken steps to open an agricultural department at this mission, which will add greatly to the efficiency of the institution, and the department from the beginning will be inexpensive, and in a short time be self-sustaining. It is hoped that the work can be begun in a small way next year.

Girls' Industrial Home.—The work in this department has not varied from that of former years. The attendance has been somewhat larger than that of last year, there being 22 girls in the Home and 5 boys in the cottage.

Sewing Department.—The work in this department has been very satisfactory. Much interest has been taken in the dressmaking class by the more advanced students. They take pride in being able to cut, fit and make their own dresses. Some of the students are able to find profitable employment during the summer among the white people who are glad to employ them, and who compliment them upon their skill. The number enrolled in this department is 123; garments made, 610; yards material used, 1,595. The department has been self-sustaining, with a balance in the treasury of $38.79.

BLUESTONE, VA.

The hard times, occasioned by partial failure of crops, have hindered the work in many of our mission fields. In this one there was much suffering. And every one felt the stress of the situation. Yet the work was carried on with earnestness, and there was much to encourage. The enrolment in day school is 125, and in the Sabbath school 105. Three were received into the congregation by profession. Four removed. There are 51 members. Mr. Wm. G. Wilson is the principal.

NORFOLK, VA.

This is one of the oldest of our missions, and it has always stood in the front rank for its efficiency in work and influence in the city in which it is located. The last year has not been an exception to the rule.

The Church.—Eight persons united with the congregation during the year. The most of these came from the school, and some are from the more prosperous and better educated class of this people. Three were baptized; three members died, and five were dismissed. All the religious services are well attended, especially the preaching service and prayer meeting, where the attendance was almost 50% greater than for the preceding year. The mission was disappointed and discouraged when informed by the Board that it would be impossible to build them a chapel upon the saloon lot which was purchased a little more than one year ago. The one pressing need of the mission is a chapel for the religious services. The people were ready and willing to aid in the erection of a chapel to the full extent of their means, when the Board may be able to undertake the work. They have a fund started with $72 in it for this purpose. The congregation and Sabbath school last year contributed for all purposes $597.42.

Sabbath School.—The Sabbath school has an enrolment of 810. Two sessions of the Sabbath school are held each Sabbath. The afternoon school is especially for the pupils who attend the day school, and their attendance is required. The evening Sabbath school is for the very poor and ignorant, whose garments are so tattered, often, that they cannot be induced to come into the school in day light. In this school boys and girls get an impulse toward a better life, and, encouraged by the help extended to them, they begin to look up, and from these come into the day school some bright and promising pupils. The International Lessons are taught in the afternoon school, and the lesson is thoroughly reviewed on Monday morning by the teachers in their respective departments, and the pupils graded, as for other studies.

The Day School.—The enrolment was 663 for the whole term, and the attendance maintained the exceptional average for the year of 579. Five young women and four young men will finish their course and graduate this month. The Bible is a daily study. This has been one of our best years in this institution.

Women's Missionary Society.—This society meets every month for prayer and conference, using the program published in the Women's Magazine. A deep interest is manifested in the meetings. The society has thirty-five members and contributed $88.31. Their annual thank-offering was $40.

Y. P. C. U.—The young people hold their meeting for prayer and conference on Sabbath morning. A good interest in maintained. The attendances ranges from thirty to fifty. They contributed $111—a sum more than double that of the previous year.

Sewing School.—Two hundred seventy-eight girls and one boy have done excellent work in this department. Three hundred twenty-seven garments have been made, and nine hundred eighty-eight yards of materials were used. This department is fully self-sustaining outside the teacher's salary.

Printing.—The printing class is composed of three girls and twenty-nine boys. Some of them have attained a proficiency which would recommend them to other offices. All necessary printing for the school is done here. A monthly Bulletin of 150 copies is printed. Job work was done to the amount of $64 (more than the expense of the office) and three books were printed and bound.

Domestic Science.—Ninety-six girls are in this department. Plain cooking is the main feature, while many fancy desserts and dishes have been prepared by the more advanced pupils. The expense amounts to 9 mills per day for each pupil, and the money received for articles cooked, reduces the expense to 4 mills per day for each girl. By another year we hope this important department will be self-sustaining.

Dormitory.—The house on the lot, recently purchased, which has been used for years as a place for selling liquor, gambling, and their attendant evils, has been changed into a dormitory for girls. In it twenty-two girls find a safe Christian home. Each girl takes her turn in leading worship night and morning. They are never permitted to go out on the street unless accompanied by a teacher. The maintenance of the dormitory adds nothing to the expense of the institution except $15 per month for the one who acts as housekeeper. The girls are required to do all the work of the home. Thanks are due the Y. P. C. U of the Presbytery of Philadelphia for furnishing the sleeping apartments. Only one-half the applicants for rooms could be admitted because the place was too strait.

HENDERSON, N. C.

This is our largest mission, referring to numbers, the day school having an enrolment of 673, and the Sabbath school 1,005. The equipment for the work is good, especially in the matter of the buildings. The chapel is a very pretty frame structure, situated in the town, while the school buildings, dormitories and teacher's home are about one half mile distant in the open field. Thus the religious services are well provided for. Every Sabbath a Bible school for all is conducted in the chapel by Pastor Cook, and in the same place he preaches in the evening. At both services the house is usually well filled, and often crowded. In the afternoon, the great Sabbath school meets in the school building, where there is not room enough for all to be seated for the opening and closing exercises. The lessons are taught in the various class rooms of the large building. It is in the Sabbath school that the workers touch most intimately the throbbing heart of the community. Through the great throng which gathers every Sabbath afternoon, hundreds of families are reached by the gospel. The effect cannot but be most beneficial. Ten members were added to the congregation, nine by profession of their faith, and one by certificate. In all such work statistics very indaequately show the extent of the influences at work in a community like this. The regular organizations, in a well conducted congregation, are all found here, and all doing their work faithfully and with evident success. The Y. P. C. U. is very efficient in reaching the young men and women in the neighborhood. The Juniors, under the direction of Mrs. Cook, have an enrolment of 200 and have been very helpful in many ways. The W. M. S. is in a pros perous condition and is interesting the masses in religious work.

Industrial Work.—As usual some kind of industrial work is carried on in all the missions, where it is at all practicable. In most places the work consists entirely of sewing. In Knoxville the industries are varied and extensive. In Norfolk, Va., and in Miller's Ferry, Ala., cooking schools are conducted very successfully. It is expected that next year Chase City will be provided with a well equipped cooking school.

The Women's Board has as formerly supported the industrial schools and paid salaries of all the industrial teachers, except those who are supported by the Government in the Knoxville College. They have expended for this work $7,870.

Legacies.—While we are always sorry and feel a sense of bereavement when the good and faithful servants of Christ are removed from their places in the field, and the Church is deprived of their valuable services, yet it is cause for gratitude that so many of them, by God's grace, show their faith in the cause of Christ and their desire is to have it continue and prosper, by remembering it in the final disposition of their worldly goods. It is also cause for thankfulness that surviving relatives so often manifest the same spirit of their departed friends by using all their influence, often at cost to themselves, to have their will faithfully executed.

This Board has been remembered and greatly helped in its work by receiving bequests this last year from the estates of E. McLaughlin, J. S. Reed, D. McLaren, H. Elliott, James Reed, S. C. Hogue, Sarah Wright I. Walker, M. G. Durant and R. N. Fee, and we delight to place their names upon the roll of the honored dead.

Resignation.—After a faithful and painstaking service of twenty-eight years, H. J. Murdoch, Esq., has offered his resignation of his position as Treasurer of the Board, and it has been accepted. Mr. Murdoch also declines to be re-elected as a member of the Board. We bear very willing and grateful testimony to the faithfulness, efficiency and self-sacrificing spirit of the retiring Treasurer. In this position he has served for more than a quarter of a century, and so great has been his love for the cause that he gave his service without compensation. The whole Church and the entire mission to the Freedmen are his debtors. Wm. K. McGinness, Esq., has been elected his successor.

Appropriation.—The appropriation for the regular work next year should not be less than the amount of last year's grant, $55.000, besides making provisions for the payment of the debt referred to in another part of this report.

The terms of office of the Rev. R. H. Park and H. J. Murdoch, Esq., and Peter Dick, Esq., as members of the Board, and of the corresponding secretary expire with this meeting.

By order of the Board,
W. H. McMILLAN, President.
J. W. WITHERSPOON, Corresponding Secretary.

ALLEGHENY, PA., May 13, 1902.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension respectfuly reports that again the providence of God has brought sorrow, not to the members of the Board only, but, also, to a pastoral charge and to the whole Church in the death of a faithful and efficient member, the Rev. A. H. Calvert, D.D. On the 30th of November, while absent from home assisting a brother in communion services, he was suddenly called away from earth. The following minute was adopted by the Board:

"The members of the Board of Church Extension record their profound sorrow and deep sense of loss in the death of a member so much beloved, and extend their sympathy to the bereaved family and friends.

"Dr. Calvert has been a member of the Board for over ten years, and by his sympathy and warm-hearted Christian spirit drew to himself the love of his brethren. He was faithful in the discharge of his duty, and gave close attention to the details of the work of the Board. He was independent in his judgment, but was cordial in accepting the decision of the majority when it differed from his own. His long experience and his familiarity with the general principles of business gave great weight to his judgment. So much did he command the confidence of his brethren that he was frequently entrusted with delicate and difficult commissions on committees, and as a special agent. He was liberal in his spirit and earnestly sought to promote the interests of the missions, but was conservative as to the management of the trust committed to the Board. His memory will be tenderly cherished by those who have been intimately associated with him.

"Called a third time, within a few days over a year, to mourn the death of a brother, the members of the Board recognize the call of God to watchfulness and preparation for the coming of the Lord, and seek for grace to be faithful in every position and work."

The vacancy thus created was temporarily filled by the election of Rev. H. C. Swearingen, of the Presbytery of Allegheny.

Early in the year Rev. T. C. Atchison, D.D., having accepted a call to Baltimore, resigned his membership in the Board. Dr. Atchison has been a member of the Board since 1875, and has rendered to the Church a very valuable service. The vacancy was filled by the election of Rev. John S. McKee, D.D., of the Presbytery of Butler.

The year has been one of blessing and enlarged work. The measure of this enlargement may be seen in the amount paid to congregations, $52,857.60, as against $41,000 in the year preceding. The following figures show the steady increase of the work: In 1887 the amount paid to congregations was $25,333; in 1888, $37,659; in 1899, $35,049; in 1890, $36,000; in 1901, $41,000, and in 1902, $52,857.

The Board recommends that special thanksgiving be rendered unto God for his favor.

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly the Board directed the Corresponding Secretary to visit the frontier missions in the West, in company with the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions. The time occupied was eighty days, and the visit extended to the Presbyteries in Washington, Oregon, California, parts of Colorado and Kansas, and to the cities of Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, and Indianapolis, and important places in Montana, Idaho, Eastern Oregon and Oklahoma. Meetings with the congregations and missions were arranged, and private official meetings were held with the elders and trustees. Possible new fields indicated by the Superintendent of Missions in each Presbytery, and districts beyond the jurisdiction of any Presbytery, were visited and carefully studied with reference to future work. The arrangements made by the Superintendents of Missions were so complete that no time was lost, and the welcome given by the congregations and missions indicated the light in which this official visit was regarded. The general knowledge of the fields, their present condition and relative importance, the closer and more confidential relations established between the missions and the Boards, the inspiration of congregations to more enthusiastic mission work, and the opening of new missions, are ample justification of the action of the General Assembly. The General Assembly is asked to bear in mind and make provision for the enlarged work which has already begun, especially in Washington and Oklahoma.

The attention of the Board has been called to the number of congregations burdened with debt, and the suggestion is made that the General Assembly take steps to ascertain the extent of this indebtedness and to inaugurate measures for the removal of the burdens.

Serious embarrassment to one of our missions has been caused by the interpretation which the attorney in one of our States put upon the last clause of the declaration of trust which the General Assembly requires to be in the title to all mission church property, inasmuch as it restricts the power of the Trustees of the Assembly to terminate the trust when it seems proper and right so to do. An amended form is herewith submitted, which will, it is believed, obviate the difficulty without impairing the desired security.

During the year several missions have failed, some from causes beyond foresight or control, others, apparently from want of proper oversight. The loss of the funds is the least of the evils following. The injury to the mission spirit of the Church should command the serious consideration of the General Assembly.

ALLEGHENY PROPERTY.

The buildings on the premises which have been referred to in former reports as the "Allegheny property," the gift of the late J. P. Hanna, having been burned, a settlement with the firm has been made and the lease terminated. The property will be sold and the proceeds become part of the Permanent Fund.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Brockton, Mass., and the East Side mission in Tacoma were designated as the Sabbath school memorial churches for the past year. The amount received was $3,332.64.

PARSONAGES AND THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY BOARD.

The Women's Auxiliary Board has made grants for parsonages to the following congregations: Olympia, Wash., Second Topeka, Kan., Thirteenth Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Kan., Pinckneyville, Ill.; Winterset, Iowa, La-Crosse, Kan., East McKeesport, Pa., Pitcairn, Pa., Sioux City, Iowa, Everett, Wash., Third Des Moines, Iowa, Homestead, Pa., Salineville, O., Canon City, Col., Stafford, Kansas, Chariton, Iowa, First Tacoma, Wash.

The increase of parsonage building, and the consequent new conditions, suggested over a year ago the necessity for a revision of the regulations governing this department. The Board of Church Extension has been gradually restricting its parsonage grants, that more aid might be given in the erection of churches. It was, therefore, proposed that this entire department be transferred to the Women's Board. The proposition was cordially accepted, and conferences were held with reference to the regulations governing the co-operations of the two Boards. The agreement for the transfer is submitted to the General Assembly, together with amended regulations for the use of the Parsonage Fund:

REGULATIONS FOR PARSONAGE FUND.

1. The Board of Church Extension assigns to the Women's Board the entire Parsonage Department, reserving the right to make parsonage grants in special cases in which other interests may require it to be so done.

2. Applications for parsonage aid shall be made to the Women's Board, and all grants shall be subject to the regulations at present in force until otherwise ordered by the General Assembly, viz.:

(1.) The Parsonage Fund shall be used to assist congregations which require aid from the mission funds of the Church, and not for congregations in general.

(2.) Applications for aid from the Parsonage Fund shall be made by the trustees of the congregation, by authority of the congregation, endorsed by the Presbytery and approved by the superintendent of Missions of the Presbytery.

(3.) Aid shall be granted only as a loan on security approved by the Board, a moderate rate of interest, the same to be repaid in installments according to the conditions named in the grant.

(4.) The term within which the loan shall be repaid shall be determined when the grant is made, but ordinarily, may not exceed ten years.

(5.) All aid for parsonages shall be subject to the rule of the General Assembly concerning the title to church property.

3. When a parsonage loan is made by the Women's Board, with the approbation of the Board of Church Extension, the Trustees of the General Assembly and the Board of Church Extension shall recognize such loan as a first lien on so much of the premises as may be used for the parsonage, until the same shall be satisfied. And in case of the failure of the congregation, the Board of Church Extension and the Women's Board shall have a pro rata interest in the proceeds of the sale of the property, as the interests of each may appear.

4. Inasmuch as the security for a loan for a parsonage erected on the church lot affects the property interests of the Board of Church Extension, notice shall be given to said Board of the amount of such loan and the time for which it is made.

5. A loan made by the Women's Board for a congregation to meet a debt on its church, and approved by the Board of Church Extension, shall be recognized by the Trustees of the General Assembly and the Board of Church Extension as a first lien on the property until the same shall be satisfied.

6. Appropriations for the erection of churches shall be made by the Women's Board on applications to the Board of Church Extension, approved by it and referred. Such grants shall be subject to all the regulations and conditions governing the Board of Church Extension. When both Boards make a donation, one mortgage covering both grants shall be taken by the Board of Church Extension, and each Board shall have a pro rata interest in the property.

7. Neither Board shall make an appropriation to a congregation already aided by the other Board without consultation and agreement as to the amount and conditions.

8. These regulations shall have the force of legal obligations without further legal papers.

APPROPRIATIONS.

No appropriation has been made for aid in the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

It has not been possible to give that encouragement to the establishment of missions which is desirable, but every application has been considered, and in every case an amount sufficient, in the judgment of the Board, to meet the need, has been granted.

The appropriations made are as follows:

The appropriation to Boston was made under the action of the last General Assembly. Work on the new building has not yet been begun. The amount involved is very large, and the congregation is not yet prepared for it.

The Board has interpreted the General Assembly's limitation of appropriations to the maximum of $5,000 as including appropriations made by the Women's Board.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

As compared with the preceding year, there has been an increase of $4,685.91 in the receipts from contributions. The amount reported from the Sabbath schools is less, and, the Tenth Anniversary Fund being now completed, the receipts from Young People's societies have been less than for a few years, but the direct congregational contributions and the individual gifts have made a net increase of 15 per cent. in the total amount.

The receipts from all sources have been as follows:

From Congregations	$	$29,117 43
From Sabbath Schools		3,332 64
From Societies: General	426 05
Tenth Anniversary Fund	239 05
		$ 665 10

The contributions received, including individual donations, amount to 62.8 per cent. of the appropriation by the General Assembly.

In view of the transfer of the Parsonage work to the Women's Board, the Parsonage Fund has been added to the General Fund. The total amount of the Permanent Fund is now $155,000.08. Of this amount $17,700 is subject to annuity. The loans from these funds, except to congregations, are made on first mortgage security. Each mortgage is carefully examined and the value of the property ascertained by a competent attorney, and the Committee of Finance. A detailed statement of these funds and securities accompanies this report.

The "accounts, securities and investments" of the Board have been audited by the same "expert accountant" who has so satisfactorily rendered the same service for several years. His certificate, and the certificate of the president of the Union National Bank are attached to the Treasurer's report.

The indications are that the work for the coming year will require a much larger amount than heretofore, if it is to be prosecuted successfully. The appropriation by the General Assembly, should, therefore, be not less than last year, $55,000, and if possible it should be increased to $60,000.

The terms of office of J. T. McCrory, C. F. Dean, and R. Lamont Hay, of H. C. Swearingen, elected to fill a vacancy, and the corresponding secretary expire with this year.

The Board again acknowledges the very valuable services of the Superintendents of Missions and Financial Agents, and its obligations to William F. Robb, Esq., as Notary Public.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

M. M. Patterson, President.
C. F. Dean, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

It is with great satisfaction that we report to the General Assembly that by the blessing of God the Board has had an unusually prosperous year.

OUR PUBLICATIONS.

Since our last report to the General Assembly we have issued the following: "Progressive Studies in the Bible," by Prof. Samuel Dodds, Ph.D.; "The Communicant's Guide," edited by S. Collins, D.D.; Dr. J. D. Brownlee's Sermon on "Masonry a Religion"; "Pencil Bible Studies," by Rev. J. O. Ashenhurst; "Congregational Treasurer's Record Book;" a new and enlarged edition of Bible Songs, 35,000 copies of which have been sold; and the Constitution for Congregations.

In course of preparation—United Presbyterian Manual, by the Rev. W. M. Glasgow; and a new edition of the Digest.

"A Summary of the Authoritative Standards of the Church," which the Board was authorized by the General Assembly to prepare, is not yet ready for the press, but it is expected that it will be soon.

GRANTS.

Grants to the full amount of appropriation received have been made. These have chiefly been to new missions and Sabbath schools. These grants for the year with donations in Psalm Books, Bible Songs and Bibles amounted to $1,977.20. The tract by Dr. Brownlee, "Masonry a Religion," and some other tracts we are distributing gratuitously.

The last General Assembly made an appropriation to the Board of Publication of $1,500 "to be used exclusively for donations of the Board's publications to mission congregations and Sabbath schools," $568.76 of which has been received up to the date of closing this report, March 31, 1902.

We ask an appropriation of $3,000 for this year.

OUR SABBATH SCHOOL WORK.

We are glad that we can report an increased interest in Sabbath schools throughout the Church. Sabbath school conventions have been held by Synods and Presbyteries, and it is believed have done much to awaken interest in this good work.

A larger number of mission Sabbath schools have been established throughout our Church the present year, now nearing its close, than in any former year. For several years the Board has been urging greater vigor on the part of Sessions and Presbyteries in the prosecution of this work.

The Board has endeavored to supply as fully as possible with needed literature new mission stations and Sabbath schools. Many of these ask help for a limited time only; almost all of them are among the most deserving beneficiaries receiving aid from any of our Boards.

The following statistics have been collected and carefully compiled by the Sabbath School Committee. These, together with the comments and suggestions which the Committee has added, we commend to your careful consideration, viz.: (For comparison, the statistics of 1890 and 1900 are appended).

COMMENTS.

Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents.— With a few exceptions they manifest a deep interest in their work and make an earnest effort to secure full reports from all the schools under their care.

Pastors.—There are 794 schools attended by our pastors, an increase of 54 over that of last year. It seems that only in unavoidable cases are pastors absent from the schools.

Elders.—Of the 3,732 reported, 2,948 attend. Considering the advanced age of many of the elders, their attendance is encouraging.

Enrollment.—The total reported enrollment is 119,271, a slight decrease from one year ago. This decrease is found in about half of the Presbyteries, and in a few it is marked. A very commendable increase, however, is reported by some of the Presbyteries.

Average Attendance.—This is also slightly under that of one year ago In about one-third of our schools it seems that it should be much larger than it is.

Contributions.—These continue to increase. The above statistics show that they exceed those of 1890 by $48,000. Of this sum, $40,297 were given to the Boards of the Church, about $6,000 more than the entire Church gave to the Boards in 1860.

Mission Schools.—Some have been dissolved; but more new ones have been organized. The total number is 84.

Scholars Confessing Christ.—The reported number is 3,852. This, however, does not represent the entire number, as 228 schools have either reported no accessions or left this column blank.

Presbyteries Not Reporting.—Pittsburg, Princeton and Wisconsin are the delinquents. However, in making up our totals, we take statistics from last year reports.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We recommend the second Sabbath of September as a day of special prayer for Public and Private Schools; the third Sabbath of October as a day of special prayer for Sabbath schools; the second Sabbath in June as "Missionary and Children's Day;" and the fourth Sabbath in November as "Temperance Day."

Again we would recommend that the Assembly urge upon Presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents the importance of providing, or helping provide, for all the schools under their care, institutes, conventions or conferences. Also, where practical, to exchange pulpits, with the view of bringing before other schools helpful suggestions, and encouraging them in the good work.

The report closes with the 31st of March, 1902. The Board has adopted this time for closing the books that sufficient time may be afforded to audit the books and accounts before the preparation of the report to the Assembly.

The term of office of the following members expires this year, viz.: W B. Smiley, D.D., Rev. R. H. Hood, T. J. Gillespie, Hugh Kennedy, J. M. Wallace, D.D.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. SANDS, President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The work of the Board for the year has been prosecuted with a good measure of success. The educational institutions of the Church have been blessed and prospered, and the year is closing with many evidences of the divine favor. At no time in the past has there been so much attention given to the importance of the College and Seminary fund as a necessary help to our educational institutions. In addition to the official statements of the Board presented from time to time, there were special efforts made to interest the whole Church in educational matters. Sometime before the day of prayer appointed by the General Assembly several articles were published presenting the needs and urging the claims of our educational institutions; letters were sent out by the faculties of the several colleges to congregations forming their constituency, and in many ways the attention of the people was directed to the pressing demands of our educational work.

The summary of the work for the year now closing is herewith submitted:

I. BENEFICIARIES.

Presbyteries presented applications in behalf of 64 young men. Before the time for making the first payment, one of these had withdrawn his application, leaving 63 on the list of beneficiaries. This was eleven more than was reported to the Assembly of 1901, and a much larger number than during any one of the three preceding years.

Of the number receiving aid 36 attended the seminary at Allegheny, Pa., one the seminary at Knoxville, Tenn., and 26 the seminary at Xenia, Ohio.

In the appropriations made, Presbyteries are represented as follows: Wheeling, seven students; Monongahela, six students; Allegheny, Muskingum and Steubenville, four students each; Frankfort and Sidney, three students each; Beaver Valley, College Springs, Conemaugh, Des Moines, Garnett, Lake, Monmouth, Pawnee, Rock Island and Xenia, two students each; Albany, Argyle, Arkansas Valley, Boston, Butler, Cedar Rapids, Chillicothe, Kansas City, Mansfield, Philadelphia, Princeton and Tennessee, one student each.

Thirty-seven of the young men are graduates of our own denominational colleges; 21 graduated from colleges of other denominations, or from non-denominational institutions; and 5 are under-graduates.

The Board would again call attention to the rule adopted by the Assembly: "Presbyteries are urged not to present names of theological students who are under-graduates, and persons not intending to graduate, unless the cases are rarely exceptional." The fact is worthy of mention that there are five under-graduates the present year, while there were but three the preceding year.

Forty-three students were recommended for $125 each; two for $100 each; and eighteen for $50 each.

The Board has paid for three consecutive years the full appropriation to all beneficiaries. In order to to this it has been necessary to close each year with an overdraft on the students' fund. It was found that it would not be possible to pay the full amount for the present year without leaving a large indebtedness to this fund, and hence the Board directed the payment of only two-thirds of the appropriations for the year. This will remove present obligations and place the students' fund in better condition for the immediate future. The payments made in accordance with this direction of the Board are as follows:

Forty-three students, $84.00 each	$3,612
Two students, $67.00 each	134
Eighteen students, $34.00 each	612
Total to Beneficiaries	$4,358

Rev. W. J. Brandon, of the Foreign Mission in India, and the Rev. J. B. Lee, who has entered the ministry of a sister denomination, have returned money received while prosecuting their theological studies.

II. SEMINARIES, COLLEGES AND ACADEMIES.

By direction of the Board, blanks were sent to pastors and sessions in order to secure reports respecting the attendance of young people at colleges and other higher institutions of learning. Stamped envelopes were enclosed, addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, in which to return these reports, and yet of the eight hundred blanks sent out only a little more than one-half were returned.

Number of students reported	1,746
Attending our own church schools	506
Attending colleges of other denominations	351
Attending state universities and normal schools	494
Academies	122
High Schools	273
The number reported as prosecuting literary studies is	1,456
Theology	56
Law and Medicine	132
Music, engineering, etc	102

Of the whole number 709 are reported as boarding at home, and 1,037 are away from home.

It is a fact that many of the students in our denominational colleges, possibly the great majority, are among the number who are reported as boarding at home. Yet, even if we were to count all such as attending other than local schools, the report would still show that fully one-half of all the young people are being educated away from home, and in shcools outside of our own Church. It is clearly evident that our own denominational colleges are not receiving the loyal support of the Church which they so richly deserve.

Blanks were also sent that pastors and sessions might return the names and postoffice address of young people in the several congregations of the Church who were planning to attend some college in the near future. Almost 1,500 names have been reported, and a printed list of these names has been sent to each college and academy, so that the literature of our own schools may be placed in the hands of the young people of the Church.

The theological seminaries report an attendance of 101 students, eight more than the preceding year. Last year 28 graduated. this year there are 32, in the senior classes. The junior classes at present number 13 more than were enrolled one year ago. The five colleges report an attendance of 23 more in the collegiate department than during the preceding year. Two hundred and twenty-two students have attended the two academies, an increase of 28 over the preceding year.

The last General Assembly, at the request of Southern Illinois Presbytery, granted an appropriation of $300 from the college and seminary fund to Stuttgart College, Arkansas. The expectation of friends has not been realized, and it was found necessary at the end of the first term to close the college, or to become financially involved. The debt at that time amounted to almost $400. The president and friends of the institution proposed that if the Board would pay $100 they would settle all outstanding accounts. This amount was paid by the Board and all financial claims have been adjusted.

In accordance with the rule adopted by the General Assembly for the distribution of the college and seminary fund, the several institutions have received the following amounts:

Allegheny Seminary	$ 1,770 50
Xenia Seminary	1,062 83
Cooper College	795 17
Monmouth College	1,431 40
Muskingum College	1,149 40
Stuttgart College	100 00
Tarkio College	1,018 20
Westminster College	1,772 50
Pawnee City Academy	500 00
Waitsburg Academy	500 00
	$10,100 00

The several institutions have made their annual statements which have been summarized, and are submitted for the consideration of the General Assembly.

SEMINARIES.

Allegheny, Pa.—The faculty consists of four professors. During the session 70 students have been enrolled. The junior class numbers 23; the middle class 18, and the senior class 29. The present endowment is reported as $245,000, and the value of the property is $150,000.

The following statement is submitted by the faculty: "The year has been a good one in every respect. The young men have enjoyed good health. They have been studious and faithful. In addition to the regular instruction of the professors, a course in elocution has been conducted by Rev. E. C. Paxton, and a course in music by Prof. R. G. McGranahan. The work in the gymnasium has been under the direction of a competent instructor." The needs, as stated by the faculty, are: "1. The liquidation of a debt still remaining on our building. 2. The enlargement of the faculty by at least one professor. A seminary with only four professors sannot be said to be fully manned 3. An addition to our endowment. Another $100,000 would still leave us far short of that possessed by any first-class seminary undertaking the work committed to us. Such an addition to our endowment would mean much to the seminary. A modern building has brought increased expense, so that but for the timely aid from the Board of Education our expenses would exceed our income, and this, too, with the most careful looking after the outlay. We have confidence to believe that additional endowment will come in due time; for we are persuaded that the United Presbyterian Church will not be satisfied till she has her seminaries adequately equipped for giving the best classical theological education."

Xenia, Ohio.—There are four professors in the faculty. Thirty-one students have been in attendance during the year. The classification of students is as follows: Junior, 18; middle class, 10; senior, 3. The present endowment is reported as $147,000. During the year $15,000 has been added to the endowment fund. The property is valued at $10,000.

The statement made by the faculty is: "One thing our seminary needs is an increase of the endowment. The decrease in the rate of interest makes the increase of the endowment a necessity. The increase during the last year, though not large, is encouraging.

COLLEGES.

Cooper College.—There are ten profesors in the faculty. The attendance of students is reported as follows: Preparatory department, 75; collegiate, 45; music, 61; art, 40. There are 11 in the present senior class. Eighty per cent. of the students are professed Christians. The "Prayer Guild," an organization for Christian work in the college, is well maintained, and the spiritual condition of the college is good. Dr. C. H. Strong has charge of the Bible study—preparatory students in one class and college students in another. There is one Bible lesson each week for all students. The endowment amounts to $26,000. One thousand dollars has been added during the year. Present value of property, $28,000.

The statement of the faculty is: "The past year has been one of earnest work and substantial growth. Rev. H. B. Turner has been elected financial agent and has entered upon his work. Two things are planned. One is to put into the building apparatus for furnishing steam heat. The second is to add to the income so as to increase the teaching force and add to the equipment of the college. The recent development of Central Kansas shows that Cooper College is favorably located. The field is a good one for Kansas, Colorado and Oklahoma students. To do the work to which God is calling, Cooper needs an increase of interest in her own synod and additional help from other sources. Cooper is the Home Mission College of the Church. Her fifteen years of successful work are but the prophecy of what she promises to do for United Presbyterianism in the great West."

Monmouth College.—There are 16 professors. The classification of students is: Preparatory, 87; collegiate, 142; music, 239. Of the number in the musical department, 109 are enrolled in some line of work in either the college or preparatory department, leaving 130 as the net enrollment in the department of music. The total net enrollment in college, preparatory and music, is 359.

The present senior class numbers 26. Eight of the 15 young men expect to enter the ministry. The organizations for Christian work are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. About 95 per cent. of the students are professing Christians. The religious spirit of the college is fair. Provision made for Bible study is: "Twenty-five weeks of Bible study given five days in the week." The endowment fund amounts to $217,242.51. Increase during the year, $12,342.67, interest bearing, and $15,000 non-interest bearing. The property is valued at $80,000.

The faculty says: "Monmouth College needs above everything else immediate enlargement of endowment fund, better facilities for libraries and laboratories. We need a stronger, more pronounced Christian life. Our chief encouragement is the hearty unity of patrons, students and college officers in an effort to promote the college spiritually and financially."

Muskingum College.—The faculty consists of 13 professors. Students are classified as follows: Preparatory department, 77; collegiate, 99; music, 55; other departments, 53. The senior class numbers 14. Four or five of the class expect to enter the ministry. The organizations for Christian work are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., and the religious spirit of the college is good. Ninety-four per cent. of the students are professing Christians. One hour each week is given to Bible study in all the college classes, and in addition there are also "voluntary Bible study classes." The present endowment amounts to $38,000. One thousand dollars has been added during the year. The value of property is $33,000.

The faculty presents the following statement: "We believe that God's blessing has been upon the college during the year. A small debt incurred in finishing the new buildings is being reduced and bids fair to be canceled very soon. This has been accomplished largely through the generosity of a friend of the college who agrees to duplicate every dollar given by others until the debt is removed. The attendance and work have been encouraging. The needs of the college are many. A number of special objects for gifts could be mentioned, any one of which would be most worthy. But the steady, annual income that would come from an adequate endowment is, after all, what is most needed to enable the college to meet the demand of the day for a liberal training under Christian influences."

Tarkio College.—The faculty is composed of 19 members, 14 professors and 5 instructors. The net total of students in attendance is 247. They are classified as follows: Preparatory department, 105; collegiate, 79; music, 111; commercial, 97. There are 8 in the present senior class. Eighty per cent. of all the students are professing Christians, and 92½ per cent. of the four college classes are members of the Church. The per cent. of the several classes, as given by the faculty, is: Senior, 100 per cent.; junior, 100 per cent.; sophpomore, 85 5-7 per cent.; freshmen, 94 14-19 per cent.; preparatory, 77 1-7 per cent. and commercial, 56 8-57 per cent. The organizations for Christian work are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., and the religious spirit of the college is good. The provision for Bible study is one recitation weekly in all classes above the first year preparatory. The present endowment amounts to $98,277. The increase during the year to the endowment fund has amounted to $50,000. The college property is valued at $85,000.

The report of the faculty is: "The enrollment of the college proper shows an increase of more than 25 per cent. This is in the face of the fact that the college curriculum has been lengthened one year in its scientific course. An apparent falling off in the total enrollment of the year is caused by the omission of the names of the members of the Oratorio Society. These names will not hereafter be included in the college enrollment. It will be seen that the number of professed Christians in the school increases as the length of time which students remain in the school is lengthened. The commercial department does not retain its students more than a single year. It is among these that the largest number of non-professors is found."

Westminster College—Professors, 13; students, preparatory, 39; collegiate, 194, music, 19; other departments, 24. Total, 276. The present senior class numbers 55. Nine of the young men will probably enter the ministry. The Christian organizations are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., also Student Volunteers. There are five classes for Bible study under the direction of the Christian associations.

The statement of the faculty is: "Westminster closes her fiftieth year in June. The retrospect brings to view much that is gratifying. She has lived through many days of trial, surviving to tell the tale, and looking hopefully toward the future. She has many sons and daughters in many lands and lines of endeavor, and they are her glory. If there are pages in her annals that are less bright than others, if aught has been lacking in effort or results, we still have reason to rejoice that so many years have passed with so honorable a record. The semi-centennial occasion will be observed with appropriate ceremonies, Tuesday, June 17, 1902. The semi-centennial endowment commission, appointed by the Synods having control of the college, is pursuing its work with zeal and confidence. The fruit of their work can be better reported in a subsequent year."

Pawnee City, Neb.—Rev. R. T. Campbell is principal, and associated with him as professors are Sadie Karr, Jennie E. Martin, Julia Sevesind, Daisy McClure and Maud Stokes. The number of students is 124, an increase of 13 over the enrollment of last year. The classification is as follows: Literary, 60; business, 24; music, 38; elocution, two. There are 12 in the present graduating class. The property, valued at $20,000, is vested in a board of trustees, and secured to the United Presbyterian Church.

The principal says: "There has been a very encouraging year. We have had a large increase in attendance. Have paid over $2,500 on the debt, and have lately received a gift of 1,200 acres of land in Greeley county, Nebraska." The board of trustees asks for the usual appropriation of $500 from the college and seminary fund.

Waitsburg, Wash.—This academy is under control of the Synod of the Columbia. Prof. W. T. Hewetson is principal. The other members of the faculty are Robert M. Horner, Elizabeth Owens, Rev. J. A. Keener, Mrs. Vinie Abbott and Mrs. Vinie Purrington. 98 students have been enrolled, an increase of 15 over the preceding year. The number includes 32 males and 66 females. The classification is: Literary, 40; business, 8; music, 50. Seven will graduate at the close of the present session. The property is valued at $25,000, and is vested in a board of trustees elected by the Synod.

The statement of the faculty accompanying the report is: "During the year just closing the affairs of the academy have been completely reorganized. The endowment has been increased in the sum of $15,000. Of this amount $5,000 was contributed by the people of Waitsburg, and the balance by Miss Ina Law Robertson, of Chicago, through whose generosity also sufficient funds have been received to build two dormitories, one for boys, the other for girls. The outlook is encouraging. With accommodations for students from a distance, it is expected that the enrollment next year will be largely increased. The academy is out of debt, but is sorely in need of means to furnish the new dormitories. The efforts being made to place the school upon a firmer footing have occasioned no little expense, which it is hoped the friends of education will help us to defray."

The Synod of the Columbia recommends an appropriation of $500 from the college and seminary fund for the coming year.

III. FINANCES.

The annual statement of the treasurer, properly audited, is herewith submitted to the Assembly.

Very soon after the last General Assembly the Board received two legacies, one for the sum of $6,707.27, the other for $1,000. In accordance with the regulations adopted by the Board, the interest will be used each year for carrying on the work, while the principal will be kept as part of the permanent fund. The aggregate amount received from Presbyteries is $14,048.89, or $1,502.49 more than was received from the same source during the preceding year. The receipts from interests are not as large as was reported to the last Assembly. This apparent falling off is due to the fact that last year the amount was materially increased by the payment of overdue interest, while the present report includes only the legitimate income of the year. The appropriation made by the General Assembly for the past year for educational purposes was 28 cents per member, 7 cents for the regular work, and 21 cents for the college and seminary fund. The Presbyteries have responded as follows: Five Presbyteries paid one cent per member; one, 2 cents; four, 3 cents; two, 5 cents; two, 6 cents; six, 7 cents; five, 8 cents; four, 9 cents; four, 10 cents; two, 11 cents; five, 12 cents; two, 13 cents; one, 14 cents; three, 16 cents; five, 17 cents; one, 18 cents; three, 19 cents; one, 21 cents; three, 23 cents, and one—Cedar Rapids—the full appropriation of 28 cents. One presbytery failed to make any contribution to the work of the Board.

The contributions by Synods are:

Synod of New York	$1.594.47	9 cents per member.
Synod of Pittsburg	3.293.28	13 cents per member.
First Synod	3,000.50	14 cents per member.
Synod of Ohio	1.137.26	14 cents per member.
Second Synod	917.70	10 cents per member.
Synod of Illinois	1.345.75	14 cents per member.
Synod of Iowa	1.562.36	16 cents per member.
Synod of Kansas	465.44	11 cents per member.
Synod of Nebraska	397.32	10 cents per member.
Synod of California	220.70	14 cents per member.
Synod of Columbia	120.21	18 cents per member.

The donations of the Church have fallen much below the recommendation of the General Assembly, yet Presbyteries and Synods are each year manifesting an increasing interest in the support of our educational institutions, as shown in this annual contribution to the college and seminary fund. The comparatively small amout gathered in this way is equal to the income of at least $200,000 of permanent endowment, and it is much easier to secure the yearly collection than to add such a large amount to the interest bearing fund of our schools.

IV. THE BOARD.

The Board asks for an appropriation of $33,000 for the coming year—$8,000 for the regular work and $25,000 for the College and Seminary Fund.

The terms of office of the corresponding secretary and of T. H. Hanna, D.D., Rev. N. H. Brown and Mr. Hugh R. Moffet, expire with this meeting of the Assembly.

By order of the Board,

T. H. HANNA, President.
W. T. CAMPBELL, Cor. Sec.

REORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The annual report of the Board of Ministerial Relief is herewith submitted with devout thankfulness to God and with great gratification in view of the fact that its extended work and enlarged benefactions, entered upon by the direction of the Assembly of 1901 and carried on since then, have proved in so many ways a wise departure. The increase of the maximum allowance from $200 to $250 per year and the formation of a new class of permanent beneficiaries, seventy years of age with thirty years of service, were begun with some misgivings, though it was believed, if the Church could be fully advised of what was proposed, there would be a satisfactory response in the way of greater interest and larger contributions. The direction of the last Assembly that a committee of Ministerial Relief should be formed in each presbytery has, it is believed, been generally followed. This has aided greatly in bringing the work of the Board before the people and having them take an intelligent interest in it.

It is encouraging to report that the enlarged demand on the funds of the Board, caused by the changes above referred to, has been met, up to this time, by the increased contributions of the presbyteries, although of the $10,000 asked for last year by the Assembly from the presbyteries, only a little over $6,500 was received, which however was an increase of about $1,450 over the receipts of the previous year.

The income from the Endowment Fund continues to be the main factor in the income of the Board. Legacies and other contributions have increased this fund by $4,000 during the past year, the fund now being $120,100, all of which is invested in mortgages, a large part of them being at five per cent. Legacies from deceased friends, who have so generously remembered this Board, have enabled us to give more liberally to our beneficiaries, and we suggest that few better ways of relieving the needs of the Lord's servants and aiding in his work can be found than contributing by legacy or donation to this Board. In last year's report of the Endowment Fund there was an item, Westinghouse Air Brake Stock $7.440. Two dividends were received on this stock amounting to $240. and it was afterwards sold for $7.-344.40 and the proceeds were invested in mortgages.

As there is every prospect that the benefactions of the Board will be increasingly applied for, both as to numbers and amount, it is especially desirable that the sum asked for from the Church through the Assembly should be fully raised, so that all worthy applications may be promptly met. There can be few sadder sights than that of aged servants of the Church, after years of faithful work, unfitted for further labors, without income or resources, their meager salaries permitting no savings, and with nothing but the scanty allowance made by this Board to shield them from actual need. That the Board of Ministerial Relief may accomplish the object of its formation satisfactorily, it is earnestly hoped that the Presbyterial committees will make every effort to continue and enlarge the good work begun with so much encouragement during the past year.

The amount required for payments during the coming year will be nearly $13,000. The present considerable cash balance will largely disappear by the quarterly payments June 1st, and September 1st, as the receipts during the three summer months are always very small. There are now on the roll 80 beneficiaries, 33 ministers and 47 widows and orphans. One minister died during the year, 14 new names were added to the list and the number on the new roll of permanent pensioners is 14. In 1881, twenty-one years ago, there were 19 beneficiaries and an Endowment Fund of $20,000. In this period the number of beneficiaries has increased four fold and the Endowment Fund six fold.

An appropriation of $10,000 is asked for from the Assembly for the coming year. The terms of office of Rev. W. J. B. Edgar, Rev. Frank Getty and John Teas, D.D., expire at this time.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S BOARD.

Although the past year has been one of sorrow because of prominent workers having been removed from our midst, it has been one of abundant labors in which we have been permitted to see larger results than ever before. It is therefore with deepest gratitude to our Heavenly Father that we present the following report.

STATISTICAL.

Number of presbyterial societies	64
Number of congregational societies	990
Number of members	25,090

FOREIGN.

The retrospect of the past twelve months has been taken through eyes moist with tears because of the sad message of the removal, by death, of "good, faithful Dr. Johnson, who has been such a strong power ever since she entered the field as our first medical missionary in 1890. We are deeply grateful because of the work of her hands" which the Lord has "established" and our earnest prayer now is that this work may not be allowed to suffer for lack of another leader. To this end we seek the co-operation of the members of the Assembly in keeping this vacant chair prominently before the Church so that there may be as little delay as possible in securing the services of an experienced woman physician for the Good Samaritan Hospital. The excellent annual report sent to the Women's Board, by Dr. Johnson, just a few weeks previous to her death is an illustration of the very encouraging work done in all lines during the past year. Dr. Maria White who served so faithfully for some years in the Memorial Hospital, Sialkot, India, and who was obliged to return to this country to regain lost physical powers has been re-appointed to her former position and has taken the place left vacant by Dr. Platter who is now in this country for rest and recuperation. Because of Oriental slowness, and the necessary change in plans, the work on the new hospital at Tanta, Egypt, has been delayed. Recent letters report a building committee appointed and work begun with hopeful prospect of speedy completion. $15,000 are in the treasury to meet the expenses of this new building, and four beds at $1,000 each have been pledged, giving the hope of a complete endowment by the time the hospital is open for the reception of patients, and so insure the maintenance of this new institution to be known as The Martha J. McKown Hospital. It has been our pleasure to contribute $200 and loan $500 towards the erection of the new school building at Benha, where two rooms are reserved for the clinics held by Doctors Lawrence and Watson who are located at Tanta, a few miles distant.

The Girls' Boarding School at Sialkot, India, given into our care two years ago has been enlarged and more fully equipped for the needs of the work. The Junior Missionary societies have provided almost wholly for the support of this school during the past year, having contributed more than $2,000, the cost of educating the young girls in this institution having been assumed by the Juniors as their "Special Work." The new school under our care at Luxor has been begun in a large old palace which has been renovated and made habitable; but because of the great numbers seeking admission it has been found inadequate to the needs, and a memorial fund has been established. The friends of Mrs. Mary S. Bowden and Miss Mary G. Carson having contributed $200 in their memory toward a new building, while five hundred dollars has been given by Mrs. Lowman towards the salary of a native teacher. All lines of work, undertaken by the Women's General Missionary Society, the salaries of all (44) unmarried women missionaries, about twenty Bible women and helpers, the entire support of the two boarding schools, three hospitals and three dispensaries together with the contributions to the general educational work of both fields, have been liberally sustained by the "prayers and alms" of the women and children of the Church.

We are pleased to report that we have been enabled to respond to the loud cry for more workers and present the names of the following young women who have met all requirements and are under appointment to the foreign field: Miss Marion Agnes, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Paden, Avalon, Pa.; Miss Myra Lindsay, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Boyd, Mt. Lebanon, Pa.; Miss Lillian Anna, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. T. McConnell, Turtle Creek, Pa., and Miss Alice B. Underwood, whose home is in Ingram, Pa., but who has been located, for a few years past, in the Ossining Hospital, Ossining, N. Y. The salary of the first young lady has been pledged by her parents, and the salary of another will be assumed by the Women's and Young Women's Missionary Societies of the Shadyside congregation, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The total contributions for the year have been most liberal and amount to $48,314.11. The disbursements have been $32,804.30. The large balance will be very materially reduced in the next few months in meeting the demands for the work. We close this, another year's record, with thanksgiving in our hearts for "ours the trust, the grand employ" and enter the unknown future conscious that we are being led into a "larger place," but with our eyes lifted unto the "hills" from whence shall come our help.

HOME MISSION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

During the year closing April 15, 1902, twelve missionaries have been supported by the women of the Church, serving in Tacoma, Spokane, Seattle, Colfax, Bloomington, Detroit, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Simnasho and Warm Springs Agency. These workers report about ten thousand visits made in the hope of winning souls to Christ.

Much has been done in attempting to give the gospel to foreigners in our own land, notably Italians and Poles. Work at our Jewish mission has been suspended, missionary having resigned September 1, 1901. Chicago Presbytery reports itself loath to give up this work, and its committee is making efforts to find another worker for the field. Bequest of Mrs. Stewart for Jewish work has been paid to treasurer of Women's General Missionary society after necessary expenses were deducted.

Rev. W. W. Gordon and Rev. J. O. Ashenhurst have taken charge of our Indian work at the Warm Springs Agency and Simnasho.

Mr. Gordon reports as follows for seven months' work:

Received by profession	5
Received by letter	5
Removed by death	4
Dropped from roll	21
Present membership	110
Marriages	4
Baptisms—Infant	3
Baptisms—Adult	2
Funerals	9
Prayer meetings	60
Services	72
Offerings	$25 [illegible]
Offerings, Food value	10 [illegible]

No organization has been effected as [illegible] reports having [illegible] at meetings [illegible]

Ashenhurst is making diligent study of the language and has already nine sermons which he can preach in the native tongue thereby doing without the very unsatisfactory services of interpreters.

A new worker was elected last June—Miss Ella Montgomery who acts as field matron. Her work is principally with the women, children and aged in their homes. She reads the Word and prays wherever she is permitted; teaches the women housekeeping, cooking and sewing; also how to care for the sick. We are much encouraged at the reception accorded her and believe her work will result in the betterment of the home life. She has traveled 1,230 miles, riding an Indian pony over mountain trails to make 643 visits. We ask the prayers of the Church for all these workers.

In our ministerial relief work we have been enabled to send a little sunshine into saddened lives, not only by the money from our treasury, but by the sending of well-filled boxes by societies all over the Church. Of course, all the correspondence of this department is considered strictly confidential and the names of our beneficiaries are never made known, but we are sure that our gifts have been worthily bestowed.

FREEDMEN.

It is with a feeling of sadness that we present the report of Freedmen's work. It has seemed wise to our Heavenly Father to take from us unto Himself the one who for sixteen years has so faithfully carried on the work of the Freedmen under the care of the Women's General Missionary Society. But the Lord's work must go on even though those who have been our leaders are called away. It is with weak and trembling hands we take up the work. May He who perfecteth strength in weakness qualify for the duties.

The year just closed has been a prosperous one. Twenty-one industrial teachers and matrons have been supported and the expenses of the various industrial departments have been met. A sewing department was added this year at Cleveland, Tenn., making twelve sewing departments at the different stations.

Domestic science has been placed in the regular curriculum at Knoxville College. Cooking is taught at Norfolk, Va., Henderson, N. C., and Prairie, Ala.

The farm at Prairie, Ala., owned by the Women's General Missionary Society is under the management of Mr. N. B. Cotton. The crops, consisting largely of cotton, corn and grass, were not as large this year as last year owing to the spring rains, summer drought and late frost. However, the farm is in a prosperous condition. One new house has been built and several enlarged and repaired.

Disbursements for the year $9,520.62.

PARSONAGE.

It is with joy and thankfulness that we report more congregations aided through this department than ever before.

Since last report parsonage loans have been granted to eighteen congregations. These applications were carefully considered and made on first mortgage security. In every case our legal adviser, Major R. E. Stewart, examined the papers, giving much of his valuable time to this department of the work. The loans made are as follows:

Olympia, Wash.	$ 1,500 00
Second, Topeka, Kan.	1,700 00
Thirteenth, Pittsburgh, Pa.	3,100 00
Kansas City, Kan.	2,500 00
Pinckneyville, Ill.	1,200 00
Winterset, Iowa	1,200 00
La Crosse, Kan.	500 00
East McKeesport, Pa.	2,700 00
Pitcairn, Pa.	2,400 00
Sioux City, Iowa	2,800 00
Everett, Wash.	1,800 00
Third, Des Moines, Iowa	1,800 00
Homestead, Pa.	2,500 00
Salineville, Ohio	1,500 00
Canon City, Col.	1,900 00
Stafford, Kan.	1,000 00
Chariton, Iowa	1,200 00
First, Tacoma, Wash.	3,200 00

Receipts for the year ending April 15, 1902, including balance from previous year were $23,589.65. Missionary societies (Women's and Juniors') contributed $1,177.80. Received from re-payments of loans, $7,115.73. From Thank-offering, $2,055.00. Total disbursements, $24,542.17.

During the year the debts on five parsonages have been canceled.

On account of changes in some of the conditions in matter of loans and securities it was deemed advisable by Board of Church Extension and Women's Board to revise the rules governing the two Boards. Three conferences were held and the entire subject of appropriations for church and parsonage building carefully considered. The changes agreed upon as well as the amended regulations will appear in report of Corresponding Secretary of Board of Church Extension, hence are not given here.

By the blessing of God and the people being made willing to give of their means much has been accomplished in the past. But what of the year upon which we now enter? Shall it not be for increased contributions to the work of this department, that poorly paid Home missionaries may at least have the comforts of well appointed dwellings for themselves and their families?

The Women's Missionary Magazine Committee is thankful to report a year of reasonable prosperity. The financial condition is good, there being no outstanding liabilities, and a small balance remaining in the treasurer's hands. The circulation of the Magazine, while not increasing as rapidly as the Editorial Committee might desire, is yet not retrograding; and we are convinced that the growth, though not swift, is steady. Our subscribers number between five and six thousand.

While devoting the larger portion of our space to the consideration of our own work in its various departments, the scheme of Interdenominational Missionary Study has been followed, and some literature on related topics has been furnished in our columns. It is intended that a similar plan shall be pursued during the coming year, as we have reason to believe that such a course will be useful and acceptable to the Magazine's readers. We are grateful to the friends who have shown us kindness, and most of all to that Friend without whom we can do nothing.

JUNIOR MISSIONARY.

This report brings us to the close of ten years in the history of the Junior Missionary societies under the present plan of organization. It is with a spirit of thankfulness that we record briefly what has been accomplished by these societies. Financially the figures show they have been no small factor in the upbuilding and maintaining of the work undertaken by the Women's General Missionary Society. During the ten years we find these societies have contributed $44,218.00.

In 1892 155 bands were reported with a membership of 3,463, the contributions amounting to $2,770.00. The report for 1902 shows the number of societies to be 199 with a membership of 6,712, and the contributions are the largest in the history of the societies $6,016.01. We feel we have great reason to be encouraged with this showing.

While the number of our societies shows a decrease of 26 over those reported the previous year, yet no societies have been reported as disbanded and with 17 societies organized during the year, we do not believe there has been an actual decrease, but that it comes from a failure to gather all the reports. The membership of 6,712 shows an increase of 1,078.

The increase in the contributions of $755.54 we believe is due to the fact that a special work is assigned each year, and that over three thousand envelopes for this work were sent free this year to societies making application for them. It may also be due to the fact that it includes the twentieth century thank-offering of the Juniors which exceeded that of any previous year.

The special work during the past two years has been a very popular one, providing scholarships for the girls' school at Sialkot, India. In 1901 the Board asked the Juniors for one thousand dollars, and they gave fourteen hundred and sixty-five. This year closing instead of the fifteen hundred dollars asked, for the same school, they have again exceeded our expectations and given $2,069.51, or a total of $3,534.51 during the two years. This has not been given at the expense of the other departments of work as all but two of these show an increase over the past year. In addition to the above for the special work we have received from the Junior Union and Endeavor societies during the two years $410.20.

We are glad to find, our superintendents keep before the members the subject of systematic giving and that the contributions are growing each year. In the earlier years there was a tendency to devote their funds to other objects, most worthy in themselves, but quite outside the work for which the Women's General Missionary Society is responsible. But we see a marked improvement in this direction. One of the objects for which these societies are organized is to aid in the work of the Women's General Missionary Society. We must not, however, estimate the value of the work done from a financial stand point only, for who can tell of the greater benefits resulting from these years of training in the Lord's service. Some of the results are shown in that 290 united with the Church during the year; 1,066 members of these societies come from homes outside the Church.

The largest Junior society in the Church, as far as is known, is the Sixth Church, Pittsburgh, with 250 members. Shadyside has 172; Avalon, Pa., 130; Cedar Rapids, Iowa, 126; Salem, N. Y., 123; Seventh Church, Pittsburgh, 118. A number of others report from 75 to 100 members.

From 46 Presbyterial societies we make the following summary:

Number of societies including Little Light Bearers' Circle	199
Number of societies organized this year	17
Number of members last year	5,634
Present membership	6,712
Present members in L. L. B. Circles	585
Honorary members	512
Grand Total	7,809

THE JUNIOR MISSIONARY MAGAZINE.

The Junior's Missionary Magazine has completed its third year and has been faithfully sustained by its friends in subscriptions, and contributions for its columns. An earnest effort has been made to keep the lamp of missionary intelligence trimmed and burning so that our boys and girls have never been left in darkness regarding the needs of a dying world, and of the particular mission fields of our own Church.

Believing, as we do, with Bacon that the best material for prophecy is in the unforced tendencies of our youth, we therefore ask, for the sake of the future of our Church and the work committed to it, that we have the hearty co-operation of every father and brother in disseminating this little light of missionary literature until it shall have penetrated the minds and hearts of the young people in our homes.

LITERATURE.

The work of this department continues to grow in interest and importance, more leaflets having been distributed during the past year than ever before.

Orders have been received from all parts of the Church, Iowa leading, New York, Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania closely following. Special effort has been made to secure leaflets written by our own people. As a result we now have thirteen new publications specially written concerning the work of our own Church. More than twenty-three thousand copies have been distributed, about twenty-five hundred of these free.

HOME FOR CHILDREN OF MISSIONARIES.

One year ago the Women's General Missionary Society adopted resolutions authorizing its business agent—the Board of Directors—to secure a house at New Wilmington, Pa., to be used as a Home for the children of home and foreign missionaries located in fields not having proper school advantages, this Home to be in readiness for occupancy at the opening of the college year September 10, 1901. These instructions have been carried out, and at present five children occupy this Home.

We are certainly justified in concluding that this Home holds a large place in the hearts of our people from the prompt response of the individual congregations and societies, who contributed for furnishment and maintenance.

On June 1, 1901, a Board of Managers for the Home was elected, consisting of nine women, living in or near New Wilmington. At their meeting July 16, 1901, Mrs. Louise B. Robertson was elected house-mother.

A delightful reception was held on "Opening Day," September 9, 1901, by the Board of Managers, which was enjoyed by the citizens of New Wilmington and other friends.

Monthly reports of the work are presented to the Women's Board by the managers. But nine months have passed since the Home was established—yet this brief time has afforded abundant proof of the real need of such a Home.

The number contributing to the maintenance fund we trust will be speedily increased until every society in the Church, even the smallest, will have a share in this part of the Master's work.

Boarding rates for children over twelve years are three dollars per week for board and laundry; those under twelve years, two dollars per week.

This Home during its brief existence has more than fulfilled the highest expectation for it, thus giving evidence of its being the outgrowth of believing prayer, and promising well for the future, when we hope to have a building erected that will meet the needs of all who may have a right to be admitted to it. Few, if any, organizations in our denomination have fallen so quietly and so quickly into smoothly running order as has this Home; and does not this fact carry with it the assurance of God's smile of approval upon it?

To-day this Home stands as a silent reminder to our faithful self-sacrificing missionaries in the home and foreign fields that their own and their children's interests are not being forgotten or neglected by the Church which they serve.

GENERAL FINANCES.

We believe that the usefulness of our work is much enhanced by the work of our finance committee. At certain seasons of the year we sometimes have surplus funds on hand. Knowing that home mission congregations often found great difficulty in procuring loans wherewith to erect church buildings, make improvements, etc., it was decided that instead of finding investments for our surplus funds from time to time, that loans would be made to congregations whose applications were approved by Presbytery, taking as security therefor first mortgage and bond of trustees of congregations. We are pleased to state that where Board of Church Extension held first mortgage on the property that it has always waived its claim and allowed our mortgage to rank first. Loans are generally made at four and one-half per cent. and for one year only. When congregations desire a renewal and our financial condition permits, interest at five per cent. per annum is expected.

The following is a list of loans thus made and present standing:

Thirty-third Street Church, Pittsburg, Pa.	$ 2,700 00
Benha Girl's School, Egypt	500 00
First Church, Des Moines, Iowa	1,500 00
Chartiers Congregation, Pittsburg, Pa.	4,169 13
Knoxville, Monongahela Presbytery	2,500 00
Second, Providence, R. I.	3,000 00
Individual	125 00
Central Falls, R. I.	1,900 00
Mount Washington	720 00
Seventh, Allegheny	800 00
Palisade Ave. Mission, Hoboken, N. J.	2,000 00
Third, Chicago	3,500 00
Philadelphia Presbytery	400 00
Moline, Ill.	1,000 00
Sixth, Chicago	400 00
Fifth, Chicago	6,000 00
	$31,214 13

Congregations are permitted to reduce loan at any interest bearing period and in all cases of renewal. Some payment must be paid on principal each year. We are very grateful to be enabled to report that one hundred per cent. of all money contributed to our society for missionary purposes is expended on the various objects designated, not even the necessary postage and exchange being deducted therefrom. Our work is growing rapidly, and new doors of usefulness are constantly opening before us.

With gratitude for the favor with which God has blessed us in the past we look forward hopefully to the future.

THANK-OFFERING.

It is a source of deep gratitude and joy to report that the enthusiasm manifested throughout the Church one year ago, in gathering in the Twentieth Century Thank-Offering, still exists. It did not even diminish when at the close of the twelve months' work the goodly sum of $40,000 was laid upon God's altar for the extension of His kingdom. That one years' enthusiasm proved to be the forerunner of a widening and deepening of that beautiful spirit of giving unto God gifts of gratitude, which makes our Thank-offerings become true love-offerings. Never have plans for extending the Thank-offering department of our women's work, until it would reach all parts of our Church, been so greatly blessed as during the past year.

Never have there been so many inquiries from Presbyterial Thank-offering Secretaries, as to how to reach every congregation so as to have it represented in this year's offering.

Never have there come so many invitations for addresses on "Giving" at the annual "Ingathering" of offerings. Never such earnest pleas for helpful literature to stir up the careless and indifferent stewards of the Lord's money.

Calls from pastors as well as missionary societies for copies of our little four-paged leaflet, "Questions of the Hour," increased until a second edition was ordered. Twenty-eight thousand copies were sent out, and yet the demand was not satisfied. Never have there been so many calls from workers in other denominations for help in establishing the giving of Thank-offerings, among their members, as within the past three months.

While the individual offerings may not be greatly enlarged, we believe that the number of givers will be increased, and, as a result, our people will become more and more a grateful people, until blessings will be multiplied upon both gifts and givers.

If our church members could be led to unite in one great Prayer Circle and plead together daily for God to bestow upon His Church the grace of liberality, it would prove a mighty power not only in filling the Lord's treasury with tithes and offerings, but in bringing about the fulfillment of the promise of "poured out" blessings. In the past the Thank-offering work has proven itself to be a decided stimulus to regular systematic giving, a kind of giving without which the Church can never meet its financial responsibilities. It has become an important factor in every department of the Church's work, in that it reaches out a helping hand to all. Thus it merits the hearty approval and support of both pastors and people.

The Thank-offerings go to supplement the contributions of missionary societies in the support of the special work assigned to the care of the Women's General Missionary Society by the General Assembly. Therefore the larger the offerings the better we are enabled to relieve the other Boards of the Church, by assuming additional work from year to year.

The distribution of Thank-offering supplies for the year ending April 15, 1902, is as follows:

Senior and Junior Thank-offering boxes.. 4,060
Senior and Junior Thank-offering envelopes.. 36,254
Scripture Responsive Services.. 13,500
Leaflets and Junior Recitations.. 3,526
Questions of the Hour (leaflet).. 28,000

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The subject on which your Committee is expected to report does not seem to grow old. Admirable reports on the subject of Narrative and State of Religion may be read in the history and in the prophecies of God's word. Ever since certain letters were read in the church at Ephesus and Pergamos and Thyatira, the people of God have listened with more or less gratification or humiliation to the reports which have been made on the subject of "The Narrative and State of Religion," and it is believed that under some name these reports will continue to be in order "until the day break and the shadows flee away." In all these reports there seems to be a strange blending of daylight and darkness, night and morning, gladness and gloom; and your Committee is of the opinion that a fair portrayal of present conditions will make this report very similar to many which have gone before. As we look back over another ecclesiastical year, there seems to be some occasion for gratification and humiliation, for joy and sadness, for gratitude to God and for confession of sin. All is not dark neither is all light.

NARRATIVE.

In the beginning of last year 1,017 ministers and 130.447 members were supposed to have a firm hold on the gospel net in the United Presbyterian Church. At the close of the year when the nets were dragged to shore, and the supposedly good were gathered in vessels and counted, it was found that the United Presbyterian Church had made a net gain of 2,029, and it appears that more than half of this gain is found in our mission fields. We must bear in mind that this is net gain, or else the Church will be given the credit of doing less than was really accomplished. There was a total increase of 15,047. Of these 7,332 were received on profession of their faith. Of those making a profession of faith, 1,973 received baptism. Nearly 200 more members were received on profession than a year ago, and over 400 more adults were baptized.

Comparisons are supposed to be odious and not particularly edifying, but they are sometimes found to be interesting, and we would point out a few facts which appear in the summaries of the Second Clerk. The synod showing the largest per cent. of members received on profession is California, with 8 per cent. Next comes Nebraska with 7.6 per cent. Next comes Columbia with 7.3 per cent. Then follows Pittsburgh with 5.9 per cent. The others follow at irregular intervals with two worthy synods, which shall be nameless here, bringing up the rear of the procession with 4.3 per cent. increase on profession. These two synods, together with a third, show a decrease in membership as compared with last year's figures. The other synods, however, while making some gain in membership, have little reason for unseemly boasting, for only two of them report a net gain of more than one hundred members.

When we look at the percentage table a second time, we notice that in the Second Synod 42 per cent. of those uniting on profession of faith received baptism. Iowa follows with 34 per cent. California with 27 per cent. and Columbia with 26. The lowest per cent. of adult baptisms is 14, and is found, we will not say where, but will commend the minutes of this General Assembly to the officers and memberhsip of the Church for a careful perusal.

If we could abolish the removal column for a few years from our statistical tables, the growth of the Church would be rapid. Evidently there are a host of United Presbyterians who are always planning to change location with the fond hope of securing better land, better health, better neighbors, or better preaching. These, probably, will keep moving from place to place until they arrive at the heavenly Canaan; and then it is believed that their desire for a change of location shall forever cease. These nomadic saints are in evidence again this year, and consequently we put the figures 9,338 in the decrease by removal column. This is a loss of 8 per cent. for the Church in America on account of removal. The western synods seem to suffer most; they claim to have an earthly paradise in the great northwest, yet Columbia Synod furnishes the largest per cent. of removals, 14.3. We cannot help but wonder to what place they have wandered, and where they will wander next. Nebraska comes next with 13.4. California, Kansas and Iowa follow in the order named, each with more than 10 per cent. loss from removals. There is a loss of thousands of members from this cause every year, as is shown by the fact that the percentage of those received by letter from our own and other Churches is not nearly so high as the percentage of removals. The synodical missionary of the future will find the trail of some of these peripatetic United Presbyterians on the red wheat lands of Oklahoma, in the snows of Manitoba, in the sands of the Dakotas and by the water courses of many of the western states, and if he should follow the trail he would probably find that it leads him within the doors of another church, or out into the barren pastures of a worldly life.

Your Committee does not desire to overload this report with statistics. All the figures, which we could furnish, have either appeared in the church papers, or soon will appear in the published minutes of the Assembly. But we wish to make note of the fact revealed in the statistics, namely, That there has been substantial progress in nearly every department of the Church's work. One thousand and thirty-six young people's societies are reported this year; 21 less than a year ago, and the membership is less by 2,200. Several interrogation points should appear after this last paragraph, to suggest that the questions ought to be repeatedly asked, How did it come? What is the reason of it? There are more Sabbath schools than last year, more teachers and more scholars and larger contributions. There are more missionary societies, more ministers, more licentiates, more students of theology, more pastors, more congregations, more money paid to the boards of the Church, more money paid to general purposes, more money spent in the congregations and more money paid to the pastors; we find that the average salary of pastors is increased from $1009 to $1,010. and the average per member for all purposes is increased from $14.89 to $15.87. The progress indicated may not be as rapid as we could desire, but we should recognize with gratitude that the hand of the Lord has been with us during the year that has gone.

But from the figures that tell of the work done by the Church, we would turn your thoughts briefly to the workers who have finished their course during the year. A larger number of ministers have fallen during this year than during any other year in the knowledge of your Committee. Twenty-three ministers of the United Presbyterian Church will no more answer the roll call of an earthly court, but henceforth will enjoy the fellowship of "just men made perfect." With tender, profound respect we write the names of our departed brethren:

Many faithful ones have fallen this year who were occupying positions hardly less responsible than that of the under shepherds. We could not write their names in this report even if we should attempt it, but the faithful, living or dead, have their names recorded in a more desirable place than the minutes of the General Assembly, and neither death nor the grave will erase the record from the Lamb's book of life. We put these figures in the death column of our statistical tables to tell the number of our members who were, we trust, right for glory—1,763. "They do rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

State of Religion.

If religion were a commodity that could be weighed on the scales or a substance that could be measured by a yardstick, our report might be more specific. The spirituality of a Church or individual cannot be measured by the standards used in the counting house or in the stock exchange. Very little information is secured by consulting Bradstreet or Dunn on this important subject. We are able to judge of the piety of an individual or a Church only by its effects, and we venture the opinion that a year has made very little change in the religious conditions prevailing in our bounds. Much that has been well written on this subject during the past few years might properly be embodied in this report, for there has been no remarkable change for better or worse.

There has been no special and remarkable work of grace to be reported in any part of the Church, but quiet, faithful work has been accomplished, and the forces of the Church are generally supposed to be well equipped for another year's campaign. In part of our territory, during the past year, the showers were withheld from cultivated field and pasture land, and great need was felt and spoken on every hand. Perhaps, there was in some measure the same experience in spiritual things, for there were no wide-spread showers of religious blessing. Apropriately the Church may pray in the language of a song which she sings:

"And now, O Lord, my outstretched hands
I lift to thee again.
For thee I look, as thirsting lands
For genial showers of rain."

Many of the congregation might paraphrase the words of Simon, when telling of their efforts and the result, "Lord, we have toiled for a night a year long and have not taken very much." But as they look forward to another year of service, we think they will also say: "Nevertheless at thy word the nets go in again." And we trust that the nets may be full and the hearts of the fishermen glad when another year of service closes.

In spite of partial failure in crops, the prosperity wave seems to be yet advancing. The reports of temporal conditions from different sections of the country read like a campaign document issued by the administration at the time of an exciting political contest. During the past year or two many a United Presbyterian has pulled down his barns, his house, or his business room, to make way for greater. People seem to be able and willing to pay sky-scraping prices for beef, feed, groceries, mining and oil swindles and other similar commodities, and it would be expected that they would be willing to make larger contributions in the interest of pure and undefiled religion. Our expectations are not disappointed, but if the amount of our offerings were to be a gauge of the Church's piety, we would come to the conclusion that there was room for improvement. However, when the information concerning the Church and its needs is set before the people, the contributions and piety are both increased. The work done by the Ways and Means Committee of last year, we believe, has been a means of grace to the people as well as furnishing a solution of some of the Church's financial problems.

The test of persecution is not applied to the whole Church now as it once was. The children of the world often flatter the Church, or else confine their persecutions to the use of a few choice words like bigoted, narrow-minded, hypocritical. In the beginning of the twentieth century the fires of persecution are found smoldering or raging in some of the dark portions of the earth, and through the fires of persecution, and after they have passed, the Church beholds the true gold of a Christian faith shining out clearly from the place where sufferings were cheerfully borne or martyr blood was willingly poured out. Many of these faithful ones, who have received martyrs' crowns in this generation, were only children in knowledge and Christian development, and yet they were true as steel and true till death. If the fires of persecution should sweep over the Church to-day, it would furnish us some test of religious conditions, and by that test we believe it would be found that the material out of which martyrs are made is just as plenty to-day as at any other age of the Church. We would probably find that there are multitudes who are regarded by some as lacking in reverence, zeal and devotion, and apparently negligent of some of the means of grace, who are reday to die before they would deny the faith.

Interest in present day reforms is usually supposed to furnish us with another test of religious conditions. "Did the militia stand fire?" asked a great American at a critical time in American history. When he heard the reports of a battle for freedom, and when an affirmative answer was given, he said, "Then the liberties of the colonies are safe." Will the members of the Church face the enemies of a Christian home, a Christian Sabbath, a Christian Church and State? If like Ephraim of old they turn back in the day of battle, then woe to the Church, the State and the homes of the republic. There may be some disinclination on the part of our members to begin the fight against the forces of evil on the fields of reform, but whenever the fight is on our members seem to be in the thick of the battle. The battle with the saloon has raged in many of the smaller cities and towns in connection with local elections, and the behavior of the children of the kingdom is a prophecy of the speedy destruction of the evil system when once the fight is on with the saloon from Long Island to the Golden Gate. If God will give us war with this Philistine, and his help is given in the day of battle, then the child of the next generation, passing through the burying-ground of civilization, will see among the headstones marking the graves of the dead giants of evil, the tombs of two monsters side by side. During their lives they each shed rivers of tears and blood. On the slab that marks the grave of one he will read: "Died—Slavery in 1863. Stabbed to death by bayonets." On the other: "Died—The Saloon in 19—. Smothered to death by Christian ballots."

We would propose another test to determine the state of religion in our bounds. What is the attitude of the Church toward the truth of God? There are some who are like the ignorant pilot who asked his captain for another star to steer by, because he had sailed clear past the first one. These think they have gotten clear beyond simple faith in the Word of God. Some have relegated Adam, Abraham and even Moses to the realm of fiction. They have placed the miracles of the Bible on the same level with the Tales of Gulliver and the Arabian Nights, and according to the opinion of those would-be scholars Christ is much more likely to be mistaken than a modern critic. Some there are whose only claim to learning is a gown and a flat hat which they wore when they graduated. The sole claim that some bring to prove they are scientists is that they believe in atheistic evolution after the fashion of Darwin. Likewise the only ground some men can give to prove their Biblical scholarship and piety is that they agree with Tom Paine and a recently dismissed professor of a western university in their views of the Bible. We congratulate the United Presbyterian Church on the fact that neither the ministry nor the membership seem to be much disturbed by these heresies that have distracted some of our sister Churches.

In our own Church there appears to be some agitation looking toward changes; not change in doctrines held, but rather a change in administration. One correspondent writes that in his section there is very strong loyalty to the doctrinal position of the Church, but also a trend away from the old notion that doctrinal statements should be regarded as terms of communion He professes sympathy for the new "membership covenant" idea, and does not think the position of the Church will be at all weakened if the old idea of terms of communion is abolished. Others would desire some change in the form of the "membership covenant" without weakening in any way the obligations found therein, while others strenuously object to any change. We believe the message comes to our Church which came to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, "Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it, for thou hast a little strength and hast kept my word and hast not denied my name." Years ago the door opened toward Egypt and the Church entered, and God blessed her there. The door swung open toward the ripening harvest in India; the Church entered, and God blessed her there. The door opened toward the south. Our beloved Church sought to enter, and God blessed her there. The door of opportunity opened toward the needy home fields. The Church has entered, and God has blessed her there. Though closed for centuries, the door of the Sudan country swings back on its hinges, and the finger of God's providences points out the way of duty. The Church seeks to enter, and there is heard the watchword of an advancing army from the lips of the soldiers of the cross: "On to Khartum!" We are confident that God will bless the Church there, so that ere long unbelief might as easily turn the Nile backwards as to put out the light that our Church will carry to our dark skinned brothers in the central portion of a dark continent. Before the doors of our Father's house open to receive his faithful ones, there will be many more doors of opportunity and usefulness opened to those who are always going forward, and it is a good evidence of desirable religious conditions when a Church is ready to enter the open doors placed before it by the providences of God.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS.

1. We have tried to do our duty. Meetings have been held throughout the year as often as seemed necessary. Early in the year we entered into correspondence with the financial agents of the presbyteries, for the purpose of getting the name and address of every treasurer of a congregation. These were in most cases kindly furnished by the financial agents. We then addressed a circular letter to each treasurer, urging the importance of having his congregation enter at once upon the work of securing its full share of the appropriations made by the General Assembly to the boards of the Church. We also addressed a letter to every pastor and session, asking that they would co-operate with the treasurer of the congregation in the matter of securing from the congregation its quota in full. In both these communications we tried to emphasize the importance of beginning early in the year to secure the appropriations for the year. As the holiday season approached, we urged upon the members of the Church that at this season of the year, when gifts are made tokens of human love and friendship, we should give expression to our love for Christ by special offerings for the advancement of his kingdom. In a letter addressed to every session, we suggested and asked for a "Holiday Offering to the Lord." We prepared and distributed throughout the Church about 120,000 envelopes to be used for this purpose. We also published and put into the hands of the people the same number of copies of a leaflet entitled "A Sermon by the Ways and Means Committee." In addition to this, we tried to keep in touch with the membership of the Church, and to keep constantly before our people the matter of their responsibility for the missionary enterprises of the Church, by means of a brief communication from our comittee, which appeared in all our Church papers each week until the close of the financial year. For this means of communication with the membership of the Church we are very grateful to the editors of our Church papers.

2. We have reasons to believe that our efforts have not been altogether fruitless. From many letters received from treasurers and pastors of congregations, we know that a number of our congregations were stimulated to early effort in the matter of securing the appropriations to the missionary work of the Church. So far as is known to us, no congregation that began early in the year to meet its obligation failed to pay its full quota before the expiration of the year. Reports that have been made to us indicate that the amount of the special Holiday Offering is from $28,000 to $30,000. Unusual activity in the closing month of the financial year and the pleasant surprises that came to the boards in the shape of unusually large contributions from the presbyteries, indicate that congregations have been "provoked" to good works, and we trust also, "unto love." Receipts from the presbyteries for the year just closed, show gains over last year as follows: Foreign Missions, $17,719; Home Missions, $8,968; Church Extension and Freedmen's Missions, each about $5,000; Ministerial Relief, $1,442. The total contributions of the Church amounted last year to $1,751,291, and this year to $1,843,235, a gain of $91,944. The average per member was last year, $14.89, and is this year, $15.87, a gain of 98 cents.

3. We are deeply impressed with the fact that our sphere has been larger than our service. While we are grateful for and proud of the record made by the United Presbyterian Church in her missionary operations, we believe that she may easily be led to a far nobler service in the cause of Christ. What our people need is patient, persistent, inspiring and practical instruction, that will bring them into and keep them in contact with the work which is being done by our Church, under the blessing of God every day. The fact that hundreds of communications were received by members of the Ways and Means Committee during the year, from ministers and laymen, expressing approval of our manifest desire to keep constantly before the people their opportunity and their responsibility, is evidence that our members are waiting to receive instruction and are ready to respond to it. The failure of the whole, or any part, of the Church to support its missionary work, is due to want of leadership, rather than unwillingness to give. We are not doing our duty to the membership of the Church, if we ask for money without making them familiar with the uses to which it is being put, and the glorious results that are being achieved. This is a service which your Committee is not able to render, for the reason that its members have other pressing duties, and are not able to give their whole time to the work. We are unanimously of the opinion, however, that some one, with special qualifications for this work, should be employed to give his whole time to it. So deeply are the members of your Committee impressed with the importance of this recommendation, which has been repeatedly made to the Assembly, that they are willing to be held responsible for the payment of the salary of a financial secretary for a term of three years, if the General Assembly will authorize his appointment. We therefore respectfully and earnestly request that the General Assembly will take the following action:

Resolved, That the Permanent Committee on Ways and Means be directed to secure the services of a competent person, to be known as the Financial Secretary, whose duty it shall be to keep the Church thoroughly informed as to the work represented by her various boards, and to secure from the Church as nearly as possible the full amounts appropriated by the General Assembly. The salary of the Financial Secretary, for a term of three years, shall be paid by private subscriptions, and his traveling expenses from the General Assembly Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

Although it is true that "the kingdom cometh not with observation," and that arithmetical calculations do not and cannot represent fully the operations of grace, yet figures have their place in the reports of Church work. We beg leave to present the following statistics concerning the part taken by the young people in the activities of our denomination this past year. Reports have been received from every presbytery and from each of our synods across the seas, the Synod of the Nile and the Synod of the Punjab, but in a very large majority of the presbyteries there are many societies that are given no credit for any work whatever. This is either the result of indifference, or because corresponding secretaries imagine that the Old Testament prohibition of the numbering of Israel's army is still binding. I wish I could be charitable enough to allow the latter loop-hole, but there are some limitations even to the love that "thinketh no evil." Seven hundred and thirty societies are reported; 144 of these being under the Christian Endeavor organization, and 568 under the constitution of the Christian Union. The membership reported is 28,892.

The total contributions were $43,618, or an average of over $1.50 per member, which is very good when we consider that the most of the members are regular contributors through the ordinary channels of the Church as well. Of this amount, $10,196 were given through the boards of the Church, or a little over 23% of the total amount. This shows two facts: (1) The young people are in no danger of breaking away from ecclesiastical control and going off in some independent scheme of raising and distributing funds. (2) The Church is by that much the better off financially than she would likely be were there no organization among her young people. Among the members of the senior societies 4,177 are pledged tithers, which does not mean that they do not give more than a tenth of their income, but that they will not fall below that very poor and inadequate standard.

It is with gratitude to him the entrance of whose Word giveth light that we record 1,210 additions to the Church by a profession of faith among our young people. There were only two presbyteries which did not report conversions among their members. Taking the number received into the Church by profession last year (1900-1901) for a basis, nearly one-sixth of them came from the young people's societies.

The juniors report 443 societies; 221 of these are Christian Union, 149 are Missionary Societies, 65 are Christian Endeavor, and 8 are Intermediate Societies. The total membership is 16,763. They contributed $8,664, or over 51 cents per member. Among them 272 tithers are reported, and 896 juniors publicly named the name of Christ upon them by coming into his visible Church.

I will be pardoned if I single out two reports for special mention. The Synod of the Nile reports 1,007 members, a gain over last year of 226. Their contributions were $221, or $62 more than last year. And 33 of the members left "house and brethren and sisters and father and mother and lands for the gospel's sake," by joining the Christian Church. The Synod of the Punjab reports 124 members, a gain over last year of 20. Their contributions amounted to $20, and 11 were added to the Church by profession of their faith.

The presbyterial conventions were quite up to their standard, many of the secretaries reporting "the best convention ever held." So that, while we have not "whereof to boast" and there is much that looks like a culpable "ease in Zion," we do thank God and take courage. The young people's movement is still a movement. It is not a spent force. It lives and moves and has its being, though there is an occasional "valley of dry bones" here and there, which needs the breath and the prophesying of an Ezekiel.

You are aware that the last convention voted to change our national meetings from annual to biennial. The General Committee recommends the following for action by this General Assembly:

We recommend a change in the wording of the constitution to correspond to the proposed change to biennial conventions, as follows:

"1. Amend Article 2, last clause of first sentence, to read: 'five elected by each convention,' instead of 'five elected annually by each convention.'

"2. Amend Article 5, Section 2, to read: 'The General Committee shall nominate and each convention shall elect a secretary of junior work.'

"3. Amend Article 8, by adding to Section 1: 'The General Committee shall have power to fill vacancies occurring in the convention part of the committee.'

"4. Amend Article 6, Section 1, to read: 'biennial convention,' instead of 'annual convention.'

"5. Amend Article 7, Section 5, last clause, to read: 'each convention,' instead of 'the convention each year.'

"Amend Article 9 to read: 'The convention shall meet biennially,' instead of 'The convention shall meet annually.'"

In answer to a growing demand, and in accordance with the instructions of a previous General Assembly, Number Two of the Junior Normal Lessons will be published as soon as possible, under the supervision of R. J. Miller, D.D., and the secretary of junior work.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Young People's Christian Union is to be held in Tacoma, Washington, July 23-27, 1902. This decision was made because the urgency of the "Macedonian cry" from the frontier could not be unnoticed. We feel our action was wise and we bespeak your hearty co-operation in every possible way, that the coming convention may greatly quicken missionary zeal in our Church.

In view of the fact, that our conventions will hereafter be biennial, if your judgment so indicates, and we hope it may, we recommend that the pastors and Presbyterial secretaries take a particular interest in the arranging of presbyterial and synodical conventions for the "off" years.

Respectfully submitted,

E. B. McKown,
Chairman.

General Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE ALLEGHENY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Another year of successful work and of the enjoyment of the manifest tokens of the divine favor has been completed by this Seminary. The professors have all been enabled to do their work without interruption throughout the year, excepting that Professor McClenahan was laid aside by sickness for about two weeks.

The number of students in attendance has been 70 during the session. These were classified as follows: Seniors, 29; Middlers, 18, and Juniors, 23. The faculty continues unchanged since the last report as follows: James A. Grier, D.D., LL.D., president, and professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology, and temporary professor of Homiletics; D. A. McClenahan, D.D., professor of Old Testament Literature and Criticism, and secretary of the faculty; John McNaugher, D.D., professor of New Testament Literature and Criticism, and registrar; John A. Wilson, D.D., professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government, and temporary professor of Pastoral Theology.

The curriculum established by the Assembly has been followed, including Christian missions and experimental religion, laying special emphasis on the expository study of the English Bible. The board can assure the Assembly that all the doctrines of the divine Word, as held by the United Presbyterian Church, are faithfully taught to the students you send to Allegheny Seminary. No poison of false teaching is infused into their life. During the term the students were furnished with instruction in elocution and music.

The members of the junior class, as members of the Mission League, were distributed among the pastors of Allegheny and Pittsburgh and engaged in congregational and Sabbath school work under the direction of the several pastors. This practical experience has been of great value to the students.

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. King, President.
W. H. McMillan, Sec.

REPORT OF THE MANAGERS OF XENIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

As a Board we desire to render to God our gratitude and praise for his favor shown the seminary during the year just closed. The lives of professors and students have been precious in his sight, and the work has suffered no interruption. The quality of the work done in the class room has been of a high orders as evinced by the examinations, which, in their results, were most gratifying to the board.

Last fall the largest number of new students entered the seminary, with but three exceptions, in the history of the institution, extending through a period of one hundred and seven years. The enrollment of students for the year was 31.

Besides the regular class room exercises provided for in the curriculum, two professors each week lectured of evenings in behalf of the "Students Missionary Association," on themes touching the Old Testament, Missions, Mormonism, Bible Study, etc. The course of lectures, provided for and given during the session by experts in their various fields of Christian work, was both interesting and instructive. The spiritual status of the Seminary is in a very satisfactory condition as indicated by devotion to duty and appreciation of privileges.

Large opportunities for Christian service on the Sabbath have been afforded our students at the Workhouse, the Infirmary, the Jail and the Third Church Mission at Goes station; also in the Sabbath schools of our churches and the Ohio "Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home," where over nine hundred children are maintained, where our students have been prized as Sabbath school teachers.

During the year bath-rooms have been installed in the seminary building, and by the aid of generous friends the interior of the building has been brightened and beautified in that it has been papered and painted, and the halls relaid with new matting. These improvements, together with steam heat and electric light, make the seminary in its appointments most cheerful and comfortable. At its last meeting the Board of Managers authorized the Board of Trustees to take such steps as should be found needful for the erection of a new chapel, class rooms and library, and gave instructions with reference to the procuring or construction of two dwelling houses for the use of profesors in the seminary.

Since our last report there have been added by bequest and personal gifts the sum of $11,020.

Most respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

J. S. COLVIN, President.
W. S. MCCLURE, Sec.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MEMBERSHIP-COVENANT.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to report to this Assembly a revised and amended form of Membership Covenant for overture to the presbyteries if it should prove acceptable to the Assembly, respectfully offers the following:

1. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be the word of God, the infallible and only rule of faith and conduct?

2. Do you believe in the one living and true God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and do you accept and confess the Father as your almighty and merciful Father, the Son, Jesus Christ as your only Saviour and Lord, and the Holy Spirit as your comforter, sanctifier and guide?

3. Do you promise submission in the Lord to the constituted authorities of the United Presbyterian Church, and are you willing to receive with meekness instruction in divine truth according to its accepted standards of doctrine and worship and, renouncing the world, the flesh, and the devil, will you endeavor to conform your conduct to the will of God as it may be made manifest to you?

4. Do you as a member of the Church of Christ, which is his body, promise to be faithful in your attendance on the public worship of God and in the observance of the sacraments, to advance the kingdom of Christ by personal service and financial support as he may prosper you, and to promote the peace, purity and prosperity of this congregation while you remain a member thereof?

5. Do you promise to pray to God and read his word daily, to worship God in your home, to cherish love for your brethren and set a godly example before the world?

6. And now in this solemn covenant, which dedicates you to the glory of God, do you make this profession as in his presence, in reliance on his grace and as you desire to give in your account with joy at that great day?

Your Committee recommends, also, that the following form for the public recognition of members on their reception into the congregation be submitted in overture to the presbyteries.

After confession and covenant the minister shall say:

"In the name of the Lord Jesus, I now announce your membership in full communion in the visible Church, and affectionately commend you to the confidence, love, and care of the brethren of this Christian household. And may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit rest upon us forever. Amen."

To members received by letters, the minister shall say:

"Having already confessed Christ, and been recommended by the church of which you were members, you to-day renew your covenant with God and transfer your relation to this church. Do you? May God give us grace to continually honor him and promote the spread of the gospel, the peace of the Church, and the salvation of souls."

Church members rising, the minister shall say:

"We, officers and members of this congregation, do now affectionately welcome you to membership and fellowship in this Christian family. We humbly pray for divine help that we may together seek the present and eternal welfare of our fellow disciples, and do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. May the Lord bless thee and keep thee, the Lord cause his face shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee, the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee and give thee peace. Amen."

J. T. McCrory,
T. H. Hanna,
J. G. Kennedy,
C. S. Cleland.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSION METHODS.

Your Committee, to which was referred "the consideration of a change in the formation of the General Committee and the present method of distributing the home mission funds," recommend the following changes:

CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The General Committee: There shall be a General Committee of Home Missions, which shall be composed of one member of the Home Mission Board, one member of the Board of Church Extension and the superintendents of the missions in the presbyteries.

REGULATIONS FOR HOME MISSION WORK.

Classification of Missions: We recommend: That the mission stations be classified as follows:

a. Fields that have received aid from the Home Mission Board for one year or more.

b. New fields for which presbyteries are asking aid.

Regulations of Presbyteries: We recommend: That class a be under the control of the Presbyteries and the Home Mission Board. The Board shall have power to decide upon applications, to fix the salary to be paid and to grant money for the payment of the same. In any case in which the Board is in doubt it shall refer the matter to the General Committee. The Presbytery, in conjunction with the Home Mission Board, shall make appointments of stated supplies.

That Class b shall be provided through the General Committee in the regular way.

That each presbytery shall nominate annually to the General Assembly one of its ministers for appointment as superintendent of missions. In the following year the minister so appointed or his substitute shall represent the presbytery in the General Committee of Home Missions. This officer is to be selected with the greatest care, both in the first instance and in the case of the substitute who is appointed when a vacancy occurs.

If any delegate to the General Committee is unable to attend the meeting or unable to perform the part assigned him in the work of the Committee (See Appointments by the General Assembly) he shall report his inability to his presbytery, which may elect a substitute.

It shall be the duty of the Superintendent of Missions, subject to the direction and control of the presbytery, to superintend its mission work, to direct its stations to make a thorough canvass each year as to the money they can raise, so that they may definitely know the amount to pledge in the application for aid.

REGULATIONS FOR THE GENERAL COMMITTEE.

We recommend: That the business of the General Committee be taken up in the following order:

(a) The address of the Corresponding Secretary.

(b) Consideration of "The Annual Report of the Board."

(c) Addresses by the representatives of the Synods, limited to ten minutes each. Subject, "Home Missions, the Needs and Opportunities in your Synod."

(d) Conference on Special Missions and New Work:

First: Special Missions. Opened by the Secretary of the Home Mission Board, and the Chairman of the Committee on Special Missions. Opening speeches limited to twenty minutes each, other speeches to five minutes each.

Second: New Work. Opened by the member of the Board of Church Extension and the Chairman of the Committee on New Work. Speeches limited as above.

(e) Appropriation of moneys to stations not referred to special committees.

(f) Reports of committees on Special Missions and New Work.

(g) Miscellaneous business.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

We recommend: That the Board of Home Missions be directed to present to the Nominating Committee of the General Assembly the names of suitable persons for appointment in the work of the General Committee as follows:

(a) One superintendent from each synod to address the General Committee at its first evening session.

(b) The chairman of the following committees to serve at the next meeting of the General Committee:

Special Missions, New Work, Resolutions and Recommendations.

The following members of the Committee have authorized the signing of their names to this report:

C. H. STRONG,
PETER SWAN,
JESSE JOHNSON,
E. Z. THOMAS,
A. F. KIRKPATRICK,
R. W. NAIRN,
P. W. FREE,
JOSEPH CALHOUN,
C. S. CLELAND,
H. H. BELL.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON REFORM.

Your Permanent Committee on Reform would respectfully report: 1. That no memorials or papers have been referred to us; 2. That we were not notified of the special instructions given by the last Assembly, "to open correspondence with committees or representatives of Churches," and "to act as the agent of the General Assembly in seeking to secure needed reforms," etc., and were not aware that such action was taken until it was too late to comply with the directions; 3. That in view of the fact that a very cursory review of the history and progress of reform movements during the past year would fill a volume, we must be content to mention only a few of the more important items for the information of the General Assembly.

Temperance Reform. It is a matter for thanksgiving and congratulation that the determined and persistent efforts put forth by the liquor interests, aided by army officials and a venal press, to secure the defeat of the recently enacted anti-canteen law, have signally failed. The exposure of the gross and repeated falsehoods as to the condition of our military posts since the abolition of the army canteen has served to discredit the testimony of some of our great dailies, and awakened public sentiment in favor of the maintenance of the law. The enthusiasm and interest thus aroused should not be permitted to wane until something further is done to relieve the monotony of army life and minister to the comfort and moral welfare of our soldiers.

The passage of the Gillett-Lodge bill to protect all unattached Pacific islands, particularly the New Hebrides, against the sale of intoxicants, opium and fire arms by American traders, through both houses of Congress, and its prompt approval by the President, is a signal triumph of justice, humanity and religion, over selfishness and brutality. This policy of protecting native races should be pursued by our government until it includes all under our control. It is not only in the interest of religion and humanity, but of commerce, as well, for the liquor traffic destroys buying power and the buyers themselves.

On January 25, 1902, the National Department of Scientific Temperance Instruction celebrated its twentieth year of legislative work, and at the same time removed the black cap from the map of Georgia—the last state to succumb to the dictate of science on this subject. Twenty years ago the idea was in the mind of one woman—Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, of Boston. To-day there is mandatory teaching of the nature of alcohol in every public school of every State in the Union, and by congressional law in all the territories and in all national institutions, including West Point, Annapolis, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines. Scientific temperance instruction follows the flag.

The Kansas prohibitory law became of age on May 1, and the anniversary was fittingly celebrated. The governor of the State in his address spoke of the growth in temperance sentiment during the twenty-one years that had passed, and the beneficent results apparent throughout the Commonwealth. "It is better," he says, "if intoxicating liquors are sold as a beverage, that they should be sold in spite of the law, rather than with the law's sanction and approval." "Prohibition at its worst is better than any form of license at its best."

An interesting illustration of the truth that "Prohibition does prohibit" where it is backed by honest and fearless officials, and a constituency who believe in law and order, and who use their ballots to secure it, is afforded by the extirpation of the open saloon from the city of Portland and Cumberland county, by Sheriff Samuel J. Pearson. So effectually has this been done, that an offer of one hundred dollars for the finding of an open saloon in the town or county goes a-begging, and the dissolution of the Cumberland County Liquor Dealers' Association is reported.

Effective work against the saloon has also been accomplished during the past year by the Hyde Park Protective Association of Chicago. Similar results would be obtained, doubtless, even in New York City, if the municipal authorities there would accept the following proposition lately made by Dr. I. K. Funk: "If the administration will place under my direction five detectives, and if Mayor Low, Colonel Partridge, and District Attorney Jerome will let it be known that they want this law obeyed, there will be thereafter little complaint about the non-enforcement of the law, while the police will have 'Sunday' as a part holiday, and the Monday police courts lose two-thirds of their gruesome scenes, and tens of thousands of women and children will have sweeter homes and better food and clothing."

Another example of official fidelity is afforded by Brigadier Gen. Kobbe, who recently issued an order prohibiting the sale of all alcoholic beverages in Mindano and Joli, one of the military departments into which the Philippine Islands are now divided.

The American Medical Association in session recently in St. Paul, by a unanimous resolution repudiated Prof. Atwater's theory of the food value of alcohol.

Last year efforts were made looking toward the repeal or the re-submission of the prohibitory laws in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and North Dakota, but these attempts were all futile.

The plan of the liquor interests to have Oklahoma and Indian Territories admitted as one State, so that the prohibitory law of the latter could be overruled by the larger vote of the former, has failed. Oklahoma enters the sisterhood of States alone. The Indian is still protected.

Still another encouraging item comes from a prohibition journal, which claims that fully 30,000,000 of the inhabitants of the United States, or more than one-third of the entire population, are now living under prohibition, either by state law or by local option. Forty-one States of the forty-five are included in the numeration, either in whole or in part. Even Kentucky, in spite of its undeserved notoriety, has 90 out of 119 counties under prohibition's sway. The few excepted States are Idaho, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming.

There are 6,000,000 more total abstainers in the United States to-day than fifty years ago. The railroads are drawing total abstinence lines closer about their employes. Heretofore the stringent rule against the use of liquor while on duty has been confined chiefly to those operating trains; now a universal order has been issued by several of the large western railways, prohibiting all intoxicants by all employes while on duty, and declaring that the frequenting of places where liquor is sold when off duty, is sufficient cause for dismissal. This includes the great army in the bridge and building department, the depots and offices, and all the multitudinous branches of the railway system. The Southern Pacific Railroad last August closed all the saloons along its line.

The miners in the anthracite region before entering upon the present strike, as a measure of self-protection, took a pledge to abstain entirely from the use of intoxicating liquors during the period of cessation from work.

A bill for state prohibition was unexpectedly defeated by the Mississippi legislature. The local option minority are charged with the defeat of the bill. The effort will be renewed in the campaign for the next legislature. Five-sixths of the state is under local option. A restrictive license measure with local option features was defeated by the liquor men in the constitutional convention recently held in Richmond, Va. By a late decision of the Iowa Supreme Court, the wholesale solicitation of liquor purchases can be made in all the prohibitory counties of the state, and the goods delivered to the consumers C. O. D. The Supreme Court of Kansas has also rendered a decision adverse to the enforcement of the prohibitory law against sales by agents from license States. On the other hand, Judge Remly, of Iowa, has conferred a legal benefit upon the temperance movement by declaring that cider must be classed with whiskey under the Iowa law.

There is an idea somewhat prevalent that the use of intoxicating liquors is decreasing, but the figures taken from the official statistics show that the total amount consumed by the people of the United States in the fiscal year, 1901, was greater than during any other year of our history; and that the total per capita was greater than any year except 1893. It has also been asserted that malt liquors are driving out spirits, a supposed fact which has been looked upon as favorable to temperance. The figures show that the increase in the consumption of malt liquors is real enough, but that at the present time this increase is attended, not by a decrease in the consumption of spirits, but by a rapid and appalling increase. The liquor bill of the American people for the fiscal year, 1901, reached the enormous sum of $1,219,341,686, or $46,000,000 more than ever was spent for drink in any other one year of American history. The per capita expenditure in the year 1900 was $15.38, while in 1901 it reached $15.71.

A political organization is now being formed throughout the United States by the allied branches of the liquor industry, which will be formally launched at a meeting to be held at Pittsburgh, June 6. It is expected that this meeting will be the largest gathering of representatives of the liquor interests ever held in the United States. Angelo Meyers, of Philadelphia, general manager of the Distilling Company of America, says: "At the Pittsburgh meeting the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association, the National Distillers' Association, the Retailers' Association, the National Association of Brewers, and any number of kindred organizations will be united under a common head. Officers will be elected and an organization will be kept intact for the methods of the big political parties." The purpose of this association, we are told, is "to fight prohibition in the press and on the platform;" to conduct a "campaign of education," and especially to counteract all efforts to lead the people toward the adoption of local option and prohibition. And as a reason for such a combination, it is asserted that at present a prohibitory movement is sweeping over the southwest, and liquor interests are being hurt; and in Michigan, Maine and Kansas prohibition is also strong. This accords with the confession of the Brewers' Congress that their business was "staggering to its ruin," and that new and educational methods must be adopted for its rescue.

Sabbath Reform. The Buffalo Exposition afforded another object lesson as to the penalty of trampling under foot the law of the Sabbath. At Chicago the opening of the gates on the Sabbath did not pay, so it was at Buffalo. The exposition, with half price fee to tempt to the desecration of the Sabbath, was a financial failure. But the Glasgow exposition, with Sabbath closing, and no Midway, showed a half million profit.

Upon the occasion of Prince Henry's recent visit to this country, great deference and lavish hospitality was bestowed on the foreign prince, but much of it was done at the expense of dishonoring the Lord of the Sabbath. The conduct of leading officials of the government upon that occasion is in striking contrast to that of Gen. Grant, who, when in Paris, being invited by the president of the Republic, as a special token of respect, to a place in the grand stand to witness the great racing which occurs in that country on Sabbath, declined the honor in a polite note: "It is not in accordance with the custom of my country or with the spirit of my religion to spend Sabbath in that way." When Prince Albert, the Crown Prince of Belgium, was visiting us, Vice President and Mrs. Hobart desired to entertain him. On being informed that Sabbath evening would be an agreeable time for the royal guest to attend the proposed dinner party, Mrs. Hobart sent a prompt reply, in which she intimated very plainly that she did not consider the Lord's day to be the proper time for the giving of dinner parties.

After the so-called "Reform" victory in New York City, tremendous efforts were put forth by some clerical advocates of the saloon and the "reform" (?) administration to authorize open saloons on the Sabbath, and two bills providing for this were introduced in the legislature; but before the time fixed for a hearing before the committee, both bills were withdrawn. With all their clamor for the "Sunday saloon," they were ashamed to come up and defend it.

There is evidence of a general feeling among railway officials in favor of the day of rest. Last summer several of the roads running into Omaha definitely refused to grant the request made by the Commercial Club of that city, that excursions be run into Omaha from over the State. The project was therefore abandoned. The administrations of the Burlington, Union Pacific and Elkhorn have for years been strongly opposed to Sabbath excursions, and now they announce that they will not run them under any circumstances. They base their objections on two things: Sabbath work for railroaders, and general demoralization.

The "Sunday" newspaper continues to set at naught both the law of God and the law of man. It is robbing its employes of their right to one day's rest in seven; and robbing its patrons of their right to divine fellowship and worship. It is sowing seeds of lawlessness that must bring forth in time a harvest of anarchy and ruin.

Divorce Reform. An attempt was made by the Bar Association to defeat the new divorce law recently enacted for the District of Columbia—a law based on true Scripture principles, and in marked contrast with the many lax divorce laws which mar the statute books of our States—but happily the effort failed, and the law went into effect at the opening of the year. We believe there is a growing demand on the part of Christians for a national marriage and divorce law, conformed to the divine law.

National Reform. After some recent decisions by attorney generals and supreme courts, the ruling of the Lord's prayer out of the public schools by the attorney general of Minnesota need not surprise us. The constitution of the United States, and the State constitutions as well, ought to be so amended as to prevent any court or earthly authority from ruling out of our public schools either the Lord's prayer or the Bible. Attention is called to a pamphlet by Dr. R. C. Wylie, entitled, "Our Educational System: Is it Christian or Secular?" being an exhibit of the constitutions, laws and judicial decisions of all the States bearing on the relation of public education to religion and morals.

Purity. In response to the vigorous protests of the women of this country, Secretary of War, Root, issued an order dealing directly with the evil effects of drink and licentiousness upon the army in the Philippines. He cites at length the disastrous results of the evils mentioned, and lays upon the commanding officers the responsibility for the moral, as well as the physical welfare of the enlisted men.

To the honor of Gen. Miles be it known, that he notified the manager of the Pan-American Exposition that the visit of the West Point Cadets would be abandoned unless the objectionable features of the Midway were temporarily, at least, suppressed.

The Mormon danger still threatens the home and the nation. Our duty lies, first of all, in the direction of faithful Christian work. The power of the pulpit and the school has not departed. Then direct support should be given to the movement for the amendment to the constitution of the United States, absolutely prohibiting polygamy.

It is a matter of profound regret and deep sorrow that representative ministers of Buffalo have been found compromising with evil and disgracing the Church by sanctioning the localizing of prostitution.

An aroused public sentiment led to the closing of an immoral resort in Hawaii, which had long been protected by the complicity of United States government officials.

Political Corruption. There is cause for alarm in the wide-spread corruption so prevalent both in state and municipal politics. Bribery, intimidation, fraud, high-handed acts of robbery under form of law have become so common as scarcely to excite surprise. The most alarming feature is the fact that these things have come to be tolerated so patiently by the average citizen and looked upon as a necessary evil of modern politics. Surely it is time that the Christian manhood of the state and nation should arise and assert its power.

Lawlessness. In spite of the fact that examples are not wanting of faithful, courageous protection of criminals from mob violence, the record of fresh lynching horrors still makes the blood run cold. Sooner or later lynch law must bring anarchy. It is vain to hope that the lawless execution of negroes by mobs in the south can go on without intensifying race hatred and provoking to retaliation.

The climax of lawlessness was reached in the assassination of our late President. It is a sad commentary on our boasted civilization that three times within the life of a generation the chief magistrate of the nation has been stricken down by a ruthless, lawless hand. Surely we need to learn anew the lesson of reverence for duly constituted authority, reverence for and humble submission to God, the source of all authority; we need to learn anew the gospel of the divine Son, who could say, "Not my will, O God, but thine, be done."

In view of these facts your Committee would make the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That we renew our declaration of allegiance to Christ, whom we acknowledge as Head of all things to the Church.

2. That in all our efforts for the good of humanity, we would seek to glorify God, and be guided by the Word and Spirit of him who came to this world for this very purpose, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

3. That we renew our declarations as to the duty of total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the State, in order to meet the claims of God's law and the need of humanity.

4. That the General Assembly hereby reaffirms its settled conviction, that the law of the Sabbath is a divine law of perpetual binding obligation upon all men; that the Decalogue is a formulation of a pre-existing and eternal moral law of which the fourth commandment is a vital part; that the authority of the Christian Sabbath is based upon the universal Sabbath law as generically expressed in the Decalogue and confirmed by the Lord Jesus Christ when he said, "The Sabbath was made for man," and "The Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath."

5. That the General Assembly enjoins all ministers, officers, and members of the United Presbyterian Church and all members of their young people's societies and Sabbath schools to special care and faithfulness for the preservation, both by precept and example, of the sacred character of the Christian Sabbath; that the day should be observed in such a manner as to be restful for the body and for the soul, a day for communion with God, for divine worship and for Christian service; that we strongly reprobate all games and sports, such as parties, golf, ball games, Sunday photography, and social functions on the Lord's day; that we remind all church members of the necessity of special watchfulness over their conduct during the summer days of vacation and recreation, either at home or abroad, with regard to their Christian example on the Lord's day; that we most respectfully but earnestly request all officers of public transportation companies to seriously consider the subject of "Sunday excursions," to the end that they may be discontinued in the interests of labor, morals and religion; that we deprecate the use of the Lord's day for traveling either for business or pleasure, by private individuals or public officials, notably such as occurred during the recent entertainment of a foreign guest; that we deprecate political conferences on the Lord's day, a practice which has become a great and growing evil in this Republic, and which has led in some recent campaigns to public political meetings on this day; that we earnestly urge the captains of industry and all corporate officials and employers of labor, to safeguard their employes in their right to the day of rest; the highest material and commercial prosperity, no less than the demands of human nature, necessitating the Sabbath rest of the employes; that the General Assembly repeat its condemnation of the seven day journalism of our country and age, and strongly recommends against the purchase, reading, or advertising in the Sunday newspaper; that we most heartily commend and warmly endorse the work of the American Sabbath Union and the Women's National Sabbath Alliance, in their faithful efforts to preserve in its purity the Christian Sabbath; that we earnestly recommend that each pastor of our communion preach a sermon in the month of April next on the subject of the Sabbath, and that these resolutions be read by the pastors from their pulpits in connection with the sermon preached on this vital subject.

5. That the General Assembly request the International Sabbath School Committee to continue its Quarterly Temperance lessons.

6. That the General Assembly memorialize Congress to enact laws prohibiting the sale of liquors in the soldiers' homes, public buildings and immigration stations, and to provide by a liberal appropriation for the comfort and welfare of the soldiers in our army posts.

7. That we urge our government to do as much for the protection of our citizens, in our new possessions, from the curse of strong drink, as has been done for the so-called uncivilized parts of the world.

8. That we cordially endorse the movement to secure uniformity in the laws of the States, regulating marriage and divorce, and to bring all into closer harmony with the law of Christ.

9. That in harmony with the action of the last General Assembly, Rule of Order No. 33 shall be so amended as to provide that the Permanent Committee on Reform be authorized and directed to act as the agent of the General Assembly in seeking to secure needed reforms, and in preventing all efforts to legalize and popularize prevailing vices; and that the Clerk of the Assembly be directed to notify the Committee appointed for this year of their added responsibilities.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RAILROAD FARE.

We beg to report that we have attended to the matter of reduced railroad fares for the commissioners to this Assembly. The Trunk Line, Central Passenger and Western Passenger Associations have granted a rate of one and one-third fares for the round trip on the certificate plan.

Respectfully submitted,

R. TRIMBLE, Chairman.

REPORT ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF IMPORTANT PAPERS.

The General Assembly of 1901 adopted the following resolutions: "Resolved, 1. That the clerks of the General Assembly be directed to prepare annually and distribute to all the presbyteries an official schedule of all matters of reference from the General Assembly requiring presbyterial notice and action, including overtures, appointments of days for special observance, quotas, and whatever else shall be brought to the attention of presbyteries.

"2. That similar schedules, with such modifications as may be found necessary, be annually prepared and distributed to all the sessions throughout the Church for purposes of information."

In compliance with these directions the clerks of the Assembly prepared such a schedule, and published it in the papers of the Church as the best way of reaching the presbyteries and sessions. So far as your Committee has learned, it was not widely used. It is a question whether it is wise to continue these directions. All the information desired, and much more, is contained in the minutes of the General Assembly, which can be purchased at a small expense, and all proper means should be taken to increase their circulation, while the plan adopted last year has a tendency to lessen it. We ask for instructions.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM J. REID,
A. G. WALLACE.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

I beg leave to report my attendance at the meeting of the Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of the South, held at Rosemark, Tenn., November 7-11, 1901, according to the action of the General Assembly of 1901. The reception tendered me as delegate from the United Presbyterian Church was most cordial, and from many brethren of the Synod the expression came of earnest hope and desire that the two sister Churches might soon be one. Delegates were appointed by the Synod to convey its Christian salutation to the United Presbyterian Assembly.

Respectfully,

JOSEPH KYLE.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNION WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South respectfully reports, that there has not been any correspondence on the subject of union during the year. Your Committee thought it proper to wait in hope that something might arise which would furnish a more favorable opportunity for re-opening the correspondence. There is nothing in the minutes of the last meeting of the Synod that indicates any action on the subject by the Synod.

Your Committee, therefore, has no recommendation to submit, except that the correspondence by delegates be continued.

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. WALLACE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON A UNIFORM VERSION OF THE METRICAL PSALMS.

The Joint Committee of American and Canadian Churches for preparing a Uniform Version of the Psalms in Meter, held a meeting in Knox College, Toronto, Canada, from August 20 to August 28, 1901, and a meeting in the Allegheny Theological Seminary (U. P.), Allegheny, Pa., from April 15 to April 24, 1902. Representatives were present from the following Churches: (1) The Presbyterian Church (North), (2) The Presbyterian Church in Canada, (3) The United Presbyterian Church of North America, (4) The Reformed Presbyterian Church (Synod), (5) The Reformed Presterian Church (General Synod), (6) The Reformed Church in America, (7) The Christian Reformed Church, (8) The Associate Presbyterian Church, and (9) The Associate Reformed Synod of the South. The last named Church was for the first time represented on the Committee at Allegheny.

The unanimity in aim and method, cordiality in relation to one another and the manifest presence of God's Spirit which characterized former meetings were in full evidence in those now reported. The Committee made a thorough revision of Books III. and IV. of the Psalter (Ps. 73-106) and examined carefully the next Book as far as Ps. 121, and decided on versions of these psalms to be revised at the next meeting. While the Scottish Version was adopted as a basis for revision, yet in the case of not a few psalms other versions in various meters were substituted or will be added as giving better expression to the psalms they represent. The experience formerly gained enabled the Committee this year to attain more perfect results than at the beginning of the undertaking. They feel much encouraged in the work and hope that the outcome of it may be a metrical version of the Psalms that will prove acceptable to the Churches represented, and to others.

The next meeting of the Committee will be held in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, Canada, from September 10 to September 18.

To meet the expense of printing and other small items the Committee asks for the current year the sum of fifteen dollars from each of the denominations co-operating. This should be sent without delay to the Secretary, Rev. J. D. Steele, Ph.D., 74 West 103rd street, New York City.

The thanks of the Committee are due to the authorities of Knox College, Toronto, for the use of their Board Room and for comfortable lodging for the members of the Committee; to the authorities of the Allegheny Theological Seminary for the use of their commodious and comfortable parlor, and to the friends in Allegheny and Pittsburgh who so courteously entertained them.

It is gratifying that the Presbyterianism of North America is so largely represented on the Committee, and it is hoped that any branches of the Church not yet co-operating may decide to send representatives, as they are hereby cordially and earnestly invited.

REPORT OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN DELEGATES TO THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE METRICAL PSALMS.

Two meetings of the Joint Committee have been held since our last report. The first was held in Knox College, Toronto, August, 1901, where we were most cordially received by the officers of that institution. At that place

Psalms 73 to 89, the Third Book, were carefully revised. The second meeting was held in our own Allegheny Seminary. Sixteen sessions of three hours each were spent in the work; and the revision was continued from Psalm 90 to 106, the end of Book Fourth. A part of Psalm 104, and of Psalm 106, were left over for further examination.

At this last meeting we were favored with the presence of Rev. James Boyce, a delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, whom we hope to have with us at subsequent meetings. Fifteen delegates were at this meeting, making it the largest since the beginning. Rev. Prof. Jeffers, D.D., by invitation was with us at some of the sessions, and helped with wise suggestions.

The presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit were manifest in the delightful Christian fellowship enjoyed, and in the progress made. With frequent diversities of judgment, there were animated discussions and earnest endeavor to agree in expressing the truth as it is revealed. The Lord has helped us hitherto, for which we render grateful thanks, and more confidently than ever expect a successful completion of our work. Our financial reports are sent herewith.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES.

The Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, Western or American Section, presents to your venerable body its annual report, greeting you as brethren beloved in the Lord, and fellow-laborers unto the kingdom of God.

The Commission has held two meetings during the year, one on October 24, 1901, at Montreal, Canada, and the other at Pittsburgh, Pa., on April 16 and 17, 1902. The members of the Western Section received most cordial welcome in both cities and popular meetings were held in Pittsburgh in the interest of the Alliance. There was also a reception on the evening of October 24, 1901, at the Presbyterian College, Montreal; and at Pittsburgh, Pa., on the evening of April 17, a banquet was given in honor of the Commission by the United Presbyterian Social Union of that city. These meetings and social functions are of great value in the nurture and maintenance of that fraternal sympathy which more than any other influence cultivates the spiritual unity of our Churches.

The Commission has appointed J. C. Scouller, D.D., as a delegate to bear to your venerable body brotherly greetings.

It is respectfully requested that provision be made for the apportionment of the expenses of the Alliance due from your venerable body for the present year, which amounts to the sum of $270.00. Remittance may be made to the American treasurer of the Alliance, F. K. Hipple, Esq., LL.D., President of the Real Estate Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pa.

We regret to report the death of the chairman of the Western Section, George Junkin, LL.D., a distinguished ruling elder connected with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. Dr. Junkin was present at the First Council of the Alliance at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1877, and was a member of the Commission from its establishment. He was chairman of the Business Committee of the Second Council held at Philadelphia, Pa., in 1880, and contributed materially to the success of that great gathering. For a long period he served as treasurer, and in September, 1899, in recognition of his high character and distinguished services, he was unanimously chosen chairman. His death took place on April 10, 1902, and the Section has entered upon its records an appropriate minute setting forth its appreciation of his life and work. R. P. Kerr, D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Richmond, Virginia, one of the vice-chairmen of the Section, was chosen as his successor.

Attention is specially drawn to the fact that the Eighth General Council of the Alliance will meet at Liverpool, England, either in June or July, 1904. The basis of representation in the Council is as follows: For each one hundred congregations or less two delegates up to one thousand congregations; above one thousand congregations one delegate for each additional one hundred up to two thousand; above two thousand, one delegate for each additional two hundred and fifty congregations. It is respectfully requested that an early report be made both to the General Secretary, Rev. Dr. George D. Mathews, and to the American Secretary, in the matter of the persons named as your delegates.

The Commission begs leave to draw attention to the work accomplished by it during the year, as set forth in part by the minutes for the meeting of April, 1902, copies of which have been forwarded to you for distribution. In particular is it asked that you give consideration to the reports on "Moral Conditions in the New Territories," on "Religious Liberty" in said Territories, and on the need for "Mission Work among the European and American Residents in Foreign Seaports."

In relation to work on the European Continent in aid of the Reformed Churches located there, the Commission respectfully requests that a Committee be appointed by your body to be known as a Committee of Correspondence on Work on the European Continent, and that said Committee be directed to co-operate with the similar Committee of this Commission, of which James I. Good, D.D., of Reading, Pa., is chairman. There is present need of assistance to these European Churches. At this very time, there is a decided movement away from the Roman Catholic Church in several European countries, and the hold of the Papacy appears to be loosened upon large populations. The expression of sympathy and the tendering of aid at this critical juncture would prove of very great value to the cause of true religion.

The Commission also requests that special attention be given to the following resolutions upon home missions:

"Whereas, The relation which the United States and Canada sustain to both Europe and Asia gives to them a position of great power, and the advancement of the kingdom of God requires that their influence should be in the highest degree Christian; and, whereas, God has brought to our door a great multitude who sadly need the quickening and saving influence of evangelical truth; and, whereas, he has greatly blessed the Churches in their home mission work; therefore,

"Resolved, 1. That it be recommended to the supreme judicatories of the several Churches in the Western Section of the Commission to hold a special service of thanksgiving and praise for his grace, and of prayer for his continued blessing on the home mission work, and to take steps to keep this work before the members of all the congregations in all its importance and pressing urgency.

"2. That special attention be called to the necessity for the adaptation of the home mission work to the changing conditions of our population, and for more systematic efforts to reach all classes and all communities with the gospel of divine love."

It is further respectfully requested that the second Sabbath of September be set apart as a day of prayer for private and public schools and for preaching on education. It is at this period of the year that the schools begin their work, and the interests involved are the largest and most important of those connected with educational interests. The secularism which is abroad is one of the great dangers of the country, and has seriously affected popular education, both in its spirit and in the personnel of the teaching force. We believe that the general observance of a day of prayer, as requested, would be highly conducive to the moral and religious interests of the millions of our children and youth.

In closing, we emphasize the influence of the Alliance in relation to Christian unity as illustrated by the movements towards union in the mission Churches of the Presbyterian faith and order found in China and India. In India, where a Presbyterian Alliance exists, the proposals for a united Church have been duly submitted to the ecclesiastical authorities interested, and a name has been agreed upon, viz.: "The Church of Christ in India, Presbyterian." The new Church, if the movement for union succeeds, will begin its work with not less than fifty thousand church members. Details of the progress of union in China, and of the condition of the Church of Christ in Japan, will be found in the minutes (above referred to) of the last meeting of the Western Section of the Alliance.

We draw with especial pleasure your attention to the fact that the General Secretary of the Alliance, George D. Mathews, D.D., is on a visit to the Churches on the American Continent in behalf of the general interests of the Alliance. It is the expectation that he will be able to visit you at your present meeting. We invoke for him a cordial reception by you and the blessing of God upon his visit.

May the God of all grace bless you in your labors abundantly and bestow upon you success in all your undertakings for the welfare of man and the extension of the kingdom of Christ in the earth.

For the Alliance,

ROBERT P. KERR, Chairman.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, American Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTORS OF THE REED ESTATE.

The executors of the Reed estate would respectfully report that, though using due diligence, we have succeeded in selling only $500 worth of the large mineral interest, of which the estate consists. We think the prospect for an early sale of some 12,000 acres of mineral in West Virginia is fairly good now. Our finances remain substantially as reported last year, taxes and other expenses about equaling the receipts during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

S. COLLINS, Secretary.

OF THE

United Presbyterian Church of North America.

TARKIO, MO., MAY 27 TO JUNE 3, 1903.

TARKIO, MO., May 27, 1903, 7:45 P. M.

The Forty-fifth General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America met according to appointment.

In the absence of the Moderator and Acting Principal Clerk who were detained by the floods and washouts on the railroads, the General Assembly was constituted with prayer by the Rev. C. T. McCaughan, D. D., of the Presbytery of Des Moines, the oldest minister present. Rev. S. J. Shaw, of the Presbytery of Los Angeles, was elected Clerk pro tem.

The opening sermon was postponed until to-morrow morning. On motion, half an hour was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of R. H. Hume, D.D., of Xenia Presbytery.

On motion the Assembly adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Closed with the benediction by the Moderator pro tem.

THURSDAY.

May 28, 1903, 9 o'clock, A. M.

At the time appointed, the General Assembly was called to order, and the retiring Moderator, J. C. Wilson, D.D., LL.D., preached the opening sermon from 2 Cor. 5:9, "Wherefore we labor that whether present or absent we may be accepted in him."

The Committee on Credentials announced that, by authority of the Second Synod, the Presbytery of Chillicothe had been consolidated with the First Presbytery of Ohio, and therefore is not represented in the Assembly.

Also, that by the authority of the Synod of the Punjab, the Presbytery of Rawal Pindi was constituted on the 15th of October, 1902, and the credentials of a commissioner have been presented.

The Committee presented the following roll which was called:

The report of the Permanent Committee on the Narrative and State of Religion was read and adopted.

The reports of the Joint Committee on a Uniform Version of the Psalms, and of the delegates from the General Assembly to the Joint Committee were taken up and adopted, and a warrant for $15.00 for expenses of the Joint Committee was ordered.

The report of the Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was taken up and adopted.

The report of the Permanent Committee on the Revision of the Book of Government was taken up and adopted, and the filling of the vacancy on the Committee was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Membership Covenant, and of the minority report of the same committee, was made the first order of the day for Saturday.

The report of the Committee on Semi-Centennial Celebration was made the second order of the day for Saturday.

The report of the Committee on Ways and Means was taken up and adopted.

A report from the Committee on Devotional Exercises was presented and adopted.

REPORT ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises would beg leave to make this partial report:

Resolved, That services appropriate to Memorial Day be held Saturday, at 2 P.M., with Rev. D. M. Sleeth presiding, and addresses by W. S. Owens, D.D., J. C. Taggart, D.D., and elder J. E. Miller.

After prayer by Rev. C. F. Wishart, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Dr. J. C. Scott. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

In the absence of the Committee on Transportation and Delegate Fund, their work was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, for several years the Committee on Women's Work has been appointed and entered on the record as a Standing Committee on the Woman's Board;

Resolved, That this be made a standing order, and that Section 3 of Rule 18 on Standing Committees be changed to read:

"3. A committee on each of the Boards of the Church, including the Women's Board."

Proceeded to the order of the day, a memorial service for ministers deceased during the year; J. C. Scouller, D.D., presiding. At 9:15 o'clock, the conference rose and reported through the Chairman that the memorial service in honor of brethren who have gone onward has been kept with profit to those who remain in the work. After the benediction by Dr. T. W. Anderson, the Assembly adjourned.

SATURDAY.

May 30, 1903, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Dr. R. G. Campbell. The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Statements of the Treasurers of the General Assembly, and of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Education, Publication, Ministerial Relief, the Gibson Trust Fund, and of the trustees of the William Reed estate, were referred to the Committee on Finance, as were also certain bills for printing.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Foreign Missions was made the first order of the day for Monday afternoon.

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the appointment of the following committees:

Committee on the Death of the Rev. William J. Reid, D.D.—Rev. R. G. Ferguson, D.D., Rev. Morris Watson, D.D.; elder, J. C. Morrow, M.D.

Special Committee on Reform—Revs. J. H. Leiper, James Parker, Ph.D., Joseph A. Scroggs; Elders, W. H. Morehead, M.D., James Patton.

Young People's Work—Revs. Carles F. Wishart, S. W. Douthett, Fred Elliott; Elders, S. H. Holmes, A. T. Martin.

The order of the day having arrived, the consideration of the reports of the Committee on Membership Covenant was postponed until printed copies of the minority report can be procured.

Proceeded to the second order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Semi-Centennial Celebration. The report was taken up seriatim. The representatives of the various Boards were granted the privileges of the floor during the discussion. The first section of the report, with slight amendment, was adopted. The second section was adopted. The consideration of the first recommendation of the third section was postponed until report is received on memorials asking appointment of an Evangelistic Committee. (This recommendation was adopted after the adoption of the report of the Committee on Home Missions. See said report.)

The second recommendation was adopted. With reference to the entire third section, the following was adopted:

Resolved, That the portion of Section III, of the report referring to the detailed distribution of the proposed Semi-Centennial Fund, be referred for fuller consideration to the Semi-Centennial Commission to be appointed, which shall report to the next General Assembly. Section four was adopted. Further consideration of the report was postponed for the present. After prayer by Rev. S. M. Hood, the Assembly adjourned.

MONDAY.

June 1, 1903, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Revs. L. McCampbell and T. C. McKelvey. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A telegram containing greetings from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, was received and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The minutes of the Synod of the Punjab were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A memorial from the Presbytery of Arkansas Valley, relating to advanced mission work, was read and referred to the Committee on Foreign Missions.

The hearing of the representatives of the Women's Board was made the second order of the day for this afternoon.

The reports of the Committee on Membership Covenant were taken up. The following was adopted: Resolved, that the majority and minority reports be referred to a committee of five persons, of whom Dr. E. S. McKitrick shall be chairman, with instructions to prepare a single form, using the reports as a basis, and to report to this Assembly, Tuesday, in the first order of the day.

The report of the Committee on Correspondence was taken up. It was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Eight papers have been referred to us. With respect to these the committee submits the following:

First. That the credentials of the Rev. R. G. Ferguson, D.D., as representing the Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Holding the Presbyterian System, be accepted and a time set for his hearing; also that a hearing be given to the letters of fraternal greeting from the Christian Reformed Church and the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Second. That the reports of the following persons, accredited by the last Assembly as fraternal delegates, relative to the fulfillment of their respective appointments be accepted and their accompanying expense accounts referred to the Committee on Finance: Rev. J. I. Frazer, to the Psalm Singers' Conference at Belfast, Ireland, August, 1902; R. H. Hume, D.D., to the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church in North America, held in Holland, Mich., June, 1902; Rev. W. I. Wishart, to the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, held in South Ryegate, Vt., May, 1903; F. M. Spencer, D.D., to the Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of the South, at Pisgah, N. C., November, 1902.

Third. That we express our pleasure at the cordial reception given these brethren by our sister denominations, and recommend that these bonds be further sealed by the following appointments: (a) The appointment of a delegate to meet with the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church; (b) The appointment of a delegate to meet with the Christian Reformed Church of North America; (c) The appointment of a delegate to meet with the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the South; (d) That, in view of the action of the last named body, with reference to union, taken by it at its last meeting, in Pisgah, N. C., November, 1902, as reported by our delegate, F. M. Spencer, D.D., it seems to the committee that the time has come for the reopening of correspondence with this Synod through our Committee on Union. We, therefore, recommend that the attention of the Committee on Union be called to this action that no advantage hastening union may be allowed to go unimproved. To this end we would recommend the advisability of having our fraternal delegate for the coming year either chosen from our Committee on Union or made an ex-officio member of it; also that the attention of the same committee be called to the action of similar import as set forth in the letter of greeting from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Fourth. That the communication from the Managers of the American Bible Society, calling attention to the coming celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and asking that on Sabbath, March 6, 1904, there be a universal recognition of this event, be entertained, and that this Assembly urge pastors to comply with this request as far as possible, and thus give recognition to the value and importance of the great work of giving the Bible to all nations.

Fifth. That in view of the coming meeting of the Eighth General Council of the Reformed Churches Holding the Presbyterian System, to be held in Liverpool, England, June, 1904, we recommend that the names of the delegates appointed by the last Assembly, with all vacancies filled, together with the statistics called for in the blank sent out by the General Secretary, George D. Matthews, D.D., be forwarded at once through the Clerk of the Assembly.

A memorial from representatives of Educational Institutions, asking for the establishment of a Board of Aid for Colleges, was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Dr. R. G. Ferguson, a delegate from the Western Section of the Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian System, addressed the Assembly.

The report of the Committee on Home Missions was made the second order of the day for Tuesday morning.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the memorial relating to Article XIV. of the Testimony, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON ARTICLE XIV. OF THE TESTIMONY.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommends for adoption the following minute with reference to the memorial of Westmoreland Presbytery, asking that an overture be submitted to the presbyteries embracing two questions relating to the XIVth Article of the Testimony, namely: 1. Shall the article be eliminated from the Testimony as a term of communion? 2. Shall it be printed hereafter as a historic statement?

The General Assembly thankfully recognizes that God in His good providence has brought about in our beloved land changes which take from the XIVth Article of the Testimony the practical importance that it once had; and further recognizes the laudable intentions with which the memorial has been presented; but finds no sufficient reason for inviting a general discussion of the subject at the present time by the submission of an overture.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the memorial relating to union with certain sister Churches, was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON UNION.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, with reference to the memorial of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking the appointment of a committee, or of committees, to enter into negotiations for union with the Associate Reformed Church, South, and the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, or New School, recommends the following action:

Inasmuch as a Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Church, South, is already in existence, it is unnecessary to take further steps as to this sister Church. We await hopefully the result of pending negotiations. Should the way be open for organic union with our brethren of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, the United Presbyterian Church will cordially enter upon the fraternal consultations that may lead to a result so eminently desirable, and our Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Church, South, is hereby empowered to ascertain the attitude of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, in this matter, to open a correspondence if this is found advisable, and thus to prepare the way for further action by another General Assembly.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on memorials, asking that arrangements be made for Psalmody Conventions in 1905, was adopted, and the nominating of the committee provided for was referred to the Committee on Nominations. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON PSALMODY CONVENTION.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, with reference to the memorial of Allegheny Presbytery, endorsed by sixteen other presbyteries, asking that suitable arrangements be made for the holding of two popular conventions during the year 1905, in the interest of an inspired Psalmody, recommends that the following action be taken:

Resolved, That the General Assembly approves the request presented in these memorials, and will, at this meeting, appoint a committee of seven, with Prof. John McNaugher, D.D., as chairman, whose duty it shall be to make all suitable arrangements for the holding of two popular conventions during the year 1905, in the interests of a more general use of the Psalms as the Church's inspired songs of praise. This committee shall have power to fix definitely the times and places for these conventions; to prepare and publish a suitable program; to invite coöperation of other Churches at home and abroad, and to solicit private subscriptions to defray necessary expenses.

It was agreed that delegates to the Psalm-Singers' Convention in Belfast be asked to send their reports to the clerk of the Assembly. After prayer by Rev. W. H. McMaster, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with a short service of praise and prayer. The calling of the roll was dispensed with.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A paper from the Executive Committee of the National Reform Association was referred to the Committee on Reform.

The report of Dr. W. P. McNary, delegate to the annual convention of the Anti-Saloon League, was read and referred to the Committee on Reform.

Being informed that those appointed to address the Assembly at its evening conference on Church Union, would not be able to be present, on account of the floods, it was agreed to arrange for a conference on Home Missions and Church Extension.

The following persons were appointed a Committee to arrange for a Denominational Exhibit at the St. Louis World's Fair, to be held in 1904: Prof. John McNaugher, Rev. Charles R. Watson and Dr. James Price.

The Moderator announced and the Assembly confirmed the following Special Committee on Membership Covenant: Dr. E. S. McKitrick, Chairman; Rev. J. A. Kennedy, Dr. R. G. Ferguson, Prof. J. N. Swan, and Prof. J. G. Thompson.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Foreign Missions. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Three papers were referred to your committee, viz.: The annual report of the Board of Foreign Missions, a memorial from the Presbytery of Cedar Rapids, urging the Assembly's endorsement of the call from India and Egypt for increase of missionary forces, and a memorial from the Presbytery of Arkansas Valley, urging endorsement of said call and indicating presbyterial effort to that end.

Great should be the gratitude of the Church to God that the report of the Board shows an increase in contributions of 24 per cent. over that of the previous year, and that the ingathering of souls into the kingdom of our Lord exceeds the record of any other year of our history. The faith of the last General Assembly has been vindicated. As a Church we should "thank God and take courage," planning for greater conquests and hearing in the appeals for missionary reinforcement the renewal of God's ancient marching orders, "Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward."

We regard the presbyterial memorials before us as the expressions of the thought of the whole Church in desire to have our missionary efforts measure up to the world's need and the meaning of the Master's command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," a command whose reasonable interpretation must mean the evangelization of the unbelieving of any generation by those of that generation who believe.

Saddened by the death of our Honorary Secretary, Dr. W. W. Barr, we should find occasion for joy and thanksgiving in the facts that his departure was into the presence of the Master so faithfully served, and that he was permitted to tarry until his successor was, by his kind and faithful tutelage, introduced to his duties.

Referring the Assembly to the most interesting and impressive array of facts presented in the report of the Board, we recommend the following action:

1. That the appointments to missionary service, made by the Board, be ratified, and that the Board be empowered and authorized to appoint and send out new missionaries as soon as secured through fulfilled conditions as to qualifications and provision for support.

2. That the Board be, and hereby is, instructed to use the funds secured by the settlement of the Joseph D. McKee estate as the foundation for a reserve fund, so that expenses of the work may be met without embarassment during periods of the year when receipts fall below the requirements of the work, said reserve fund to be in no sense an endowment, but such a fund as is possessed by other societies doing successful work.

3. That the opening of an office for the Corresponding Secretary, as a headquarters and repository of records for foreign missionary work, and the securing of a secretarial clerk at a reasonable salary should be regarded as a necessity of our expanding work, and the expenses incident thereto to be placed among the authorized expenses of the administration.

4. That to meet the pressing and almost embarrassing demands upon the Board for the assignment of specific mission work to congregations and individuals, the Board be authorized to make such assignment of regular work to individuals and congregations as may stimulate special interest and secure increase of contributions, said assignment to be in such manner as shall not involve a twofold raising of funds for the same work.

5. That the appeal of our foreign missionary associations in India and Egypt for a definite increase in missionary forces should be regarded as evidence of God's awakening of the Church to a clear apprehension of her missionary obligations, and that with the aim of reaching this ideal presented by the missionaries in the field and speedily evangelizing the lands specially entrusted to our Church, the Board be, and hereby is, instructed to begin a campaign of interest and effort whereby through individuals and congregations the support of new missionaries and their work may be secured without endangering or weakening the support of present work.

6. That provisional increase of the annual appropriations, as suggested by the Board, would be impracticable, in view of other auxiliary financial efforts contemplated by the Church, and that the annual appropriation to the Board should be a definite sum.

7. That since the fiftieth anniversary of the beginning of our mission work in Egypt and India occurs in 1904-5, and since these anniversaries may be so taken account of as to deepen the interest of the Church in the work of these fields, the Board of Foreign Missions be, and hereby is, appointed a committee to arrange for a fitting celebration of these anniversaries, and that in so doing the interests of the Semi-Centennial Commission's work should be furthered.

8. That the Assembly approves the desire of the Board to have the semi-centennial of our missionary organizations made the time of raising a memorial fund for the educational and other needs of our mission fields, and that the Board is hereby authorized to coöperate with the Semi-Centennial Commission in securing this end.

9. That the term of missionary service for the second and subsequent terms be eight years, as agreed upon by the Board of Foreign Missions and the Women's Board, and commended by the Missionary Associations of India and Egypt, after its reference to them by the last Assembly.

10. That the thanks of the Assembly and of the whole Church be extended to the various individuals, associations and agencies mentioned in the report of the Board as having rendered encouragement and aid to our work during the year.

11. That since the marked efficiency of our Corresponding Secretary would be increased by a detailed knowledge of the fields, possible only through personal inspection, the Board is authorized to provide for such journey of inspection at its convenience.

12. That in view of the year's work we express thanks to God for the blessings of His grace and devote the closing moments of conference on this report to a union of prayer that by an infilling of the Holy Spirit the whole Church may rise to meet her opportunities and that Macedonian call, "Come over and help us," issued by our missionary associations, may be met with the Pauline devotion which, in ages past, gave the Gospel to Europe and laid the foundation of the civil, religious and commercial institutions of our land.

It was agreed that the representatives of the Women's Board be heard at the evening session. After the benediction by Dr. Alex. Gilchrist, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. H. Park. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension was made the first order of the day for Tuesday afternoon.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Education was made the second order of the day for Tuesday afternoon.

Took up the report of the Committee on the Women's Board.

The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON THE WOMEN'S BOARD.

The report of the Women's General Missionary Society, which has been referred to your committee, shows that the blessing of the Head of the Church continues to rest in a very marked and special manner upon this organized work of the women of the Church.

It clearly reveals that they are characterized by liberality, by a consecrated purpose and by a spirit that is alert to enter the opening door of service.

They have just closed the second decade of their history with an inspiring convention, held in the First church, Allegheny, where they were first organized twenty years ago.

They are doing a great and growing work in the foreign and home fields, and among the freedmen of the south and the Indians of the north and central west, and in the erection of parsonages.

The report shows 64 presbyterial societies, 989 congregational societies, with a membership of 26,190.

The treasurer's report is commendable for its clearness and completeness, and reveals the business-like manner in which the work has been carried forward. The total contributions for the year are $93,617.50, which, with a balance from last year of $18,619.34, made a grand total of $112,236.84. Of this amount the report shows that $101,250.75 was expended in the work of the year, leaving a balance on hand of $10,986.09. This is a splendid showing and reflects great credit on the management.

In the foreign field the society is supporting 48 missionaries. They have 2 hospitals and 4 dispensaries, with a girls' boarding school at Sialkot, with 150 students, and a similar school at Luxor, Egypt, with 100 students.

The attitude of the Society toward the stirring appeals for more laborers in India and Egypt is shown by the following resolution, adopted by the General Missionary Society's convention:

Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to make the effort to provide one lady missionary for each ordained missionary sent out by the Foreign Board.

In the home field this Board has assisted in every department of the Church's work. It has 13 laborers scattered over a territory which extends from Oregon, on the northwest, to Pennsylvania, on the east. This includes our missionaries among the Warm Spring Indians and a number of female missionaries whose names appear in the report of the Board.

It has aided the work of our Board of Ministerial Relief and has supported 24 workers among the freedmen. More than $21,000 has been disbursed by this Board in aiding the Board of Church Extension; most of this amount was expended in helping needy congregations to procure parsonages.

In all other divisions of the women's work most encouraging tokens of effective service have been given.

The junior missionary work is by this report shown to be in a prosperous condition, showing 233 societies, with a membership of 7,568, and contributions amounting to $6,369.

Resolved, 1. That the work of the Board, as set forth in the annual report, be approved.

2. That we express our gratitutde to God for His blessing upon this Board, and through it upon the whole Church.

3. That our pastors and sessions again be urged to give helpful encouragement to the women's missionary societies and junior missionary societies of their congregations to lead the energies of the women more toward this organized work of the Church.

4. That pastors and elders give special attention to the fact that four women missionaries are needed, and recommend at once any suitable person to the Women's Board.

5. That we recommend that the Women's Board send out at least two representatives, who shall visit the foreign fields, in order to promote that acquaintance with the workers and the conditions of the field which is necessary to the most efficient direction of the work.

6. That Mrs. H. C. Campbell and Mrs. E. M. Hill be now heard by the Assembly as the representatives of the Women's Board.

It was agreed that the Conference that had been arranged for this evening, should be held on Tuesday evening, and that the report of the Committee on Home Missions should be presented at that time.

After prayer by Rev. W. E. Shaw, the Assembly adjourned.

TUESDAY.

June 2, 1903, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Dr. John Williamson and Elder J. E. Sankey. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

It was directed by the Assembly that that portion of the memorial presented by representatives of colleges, asking for an appropriation for the present year, be referred to the Committee on Education.

The report of the Committee on Reform was made the first order of the day for Wednesday morning.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Special Committee on Membership Covenant.

During the consideration of this report, the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly was adjourned after the benediction by the Moderator.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. T. M. Houston and Rev. C. H. Johnson.

The roll was called.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The credentials of Rev. R. F. Bradley, fraternal delegate from the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the South were received and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Committee on Correspondence reported recommending that the hearing of the fraternal delegate from the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the South be made the second order of the day for Wednesday morning.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Church Extension.

The report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

A glance at the printed report in your hands affords a glimpse of the work of the Board for the past year, but only a glimpse. These figures and statements leave untold much of the care and toil and anxiety of those who have had charge of this department of the Church's work. As little can we know the joy of those congregations of unhoused worshipers who appeal to the Church for help through this Board, when they receive an assuring answer to their prayer.

Nor can we measure the increasing pace and power of these congregations as the Church's help and sympathy reaches them through this Board. For this work and its results we here record our thanks to God.

The Board is not only an agency for disbursing the Church's contributions, but also a trustee. Legacies and gifts come into its keeping to be held in trust and the proceeds used for current expenses. Faithfulness demands that these funds by so held. In the pressure of emergencies during the past year drafts were made upon these permanent funds to the extent of $6,250.11, more than the balance in the treasury.

Looking forward and providing for the future work we would recommend the following:

First. That the drafts from permanent funds be replaced at the earliest practicable date, and that care be taken to preserve intact such holdings as come into our possession under such conditions.

Second. The pioneer work of the Board in new centers of business and prospective centers of population, by which we have secured early and favorable positions at moderate outlay, is commended, and we would ask the Board to continue to seize such opportunities as they present themselves.

Third. We recommend the selection of some mission, as in past years, in which a memorial church may be erected by the contributions of the Sabbath schools.

The Board being simply the agency of the Church at large to help congregations in securing suitable houses of worship, and the absolute necessity for such provisions to the growth and efficiency of congregations being admitted, every such necessity, wherever pressing, ought to touch every part of the Church just as though tornado or lightning flash had placed that same condition upon themselves. We are obligated, not to the Board in such cases, but to God. We work not for them, but for the cause of Christ. It is simply stretching the hand of sympathy to the suffering member. If through the Board's operations we may relieve the needy member we can all rejoice with them; therefore,

Fourth. In view of the enlarged grants which this Board has been called upon to make during the past year, the Assembly recommends that pastors and sessions urge upon their congregations the importance of greater liberality in its support and greater economy in the buildings which they endeavor, with the help of the Board, to erect.

For the past two years the question of better accommodations for the congregation of Boston has been before the Board and the Assembly. Owing to the peculiar conditions prevailing there the Board has not felt free to act on its own judgment in reference to the grants for that work. Boston is a strategic point for our work in New England. The whole field is helped or endangered by the conditions prevailing there. The building regulations of the city of Boston and the cost of building and grounds in any suitable location make necessary larger appropriations for the accomplishment of any needed work. For this reason the Board has always brought this work before the Assembly for direction. Your committee, after conferring with representatives from Boston Presbytery and from the Board, recommend,

Fifth. That steps be taken looking to the possibility of securing a new site, which may afford room to enlarge and yet be within the limits of available resources. That when a decision as to site has been reached, whether it involve removal or not, the Board be authorized to make a grant of $5,000, and that the congregation be recommended to the Women's Board for a like grant.

Sixth. That the General Assembly place on record its high appreciation of our beloved brother, Rev. John S. McKee, D.D., who, as a member of the Board of Church Extension, and in so many other ways rendered such faithful and efficient service to our Church, and who fell asleep on March the 5th, 1903. In this sudden call of the Master may we hear the voice of Him who said, "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh."

Seventh. We commend the faithfulness of the Board, both toward the Church and the needy congregations, for their care in disbursing the funds of the Church and seeking the interests of those congregations.

Proceeded to the second order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Education. The report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

The report of the Board of Education, and other papers, have been placed in our hands. We rejoice in the evidences of God's favor and blessing that have attended our educational work. There has been an increase in the contributions and an encouraging interest in our denominational schools. We desire to place special emphasis on the importance of this department of the Church's work. The great demand for laborers in the home and foreign fields makes it a matter of deep concern that the institutions upon which the Church depends for its supply shall be well sustained and equipped. We call attention to the statement that our colleges report an attendance of seven less than the preceding year and the seminaries an attendance of sixteen less. We also note that less than one-third—519 out of 1,608 reported—of our young people attending educational institutions are in our own schools. Do our colleges and academies have the earnest sympathy and interest of our people their merit deserves? Our Church schools ought to be known better by our people that their financial needs may be met to enable them to enlarge their facilities to meet the pressing demands of the day.

The excellent spiritual condition of our colleges—95 to 98 per cent. are professing Christians—calls for gratitude and gives strong evidence for the future.

We recommend the following:

1. That the faithfulness of the Board of Education, in conducting the business, be commended.
2. That pastors be urged to present the importance of a Christian education to their congregations and to encourage the young people to improve their opportunities for securing higher literary attainments.
3. That beneficiaries be required to make their applications early in the year for which they are desired, and that in all ordinary cases all benefactions shall date only from the time of application.
4. That the second Sabbath of February be set apart as the day of prayer for our educational institutions.

After prayer by Rev. S. A. Moore, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. W. E. McBride. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A comunication from Allegheny Presbytery was read, informing the Assembly of a special meeting of the members of that presbytery for prayer for the General Assembly.

The matter of the salaries of the clerks of the Assembly was referred tothe Finance Committee for adjustment.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a conference on Home Missions. At 8:55 the Conference rose, and reported through the Chairman, Rev. R. E. McClure, that an interesting and profitable conference had been held.

Took up the report of the Committee on Home Missions. The time of adjournment was postponed to 9:45 to allow time for the consideration of the report. The report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

The reports of the Board of Home Missions and of the General Committee of Home Missions have been placed in our hands. From these reports we gather certain facts which call forth gratitude, because of the success which has attended the work of home missions in the past, as well as to arouse our hopes of greater achievements in the future. The Church of Jesus Christ most certainly is facing the greatest problems and opportunities in her history in this country. From all parts of our land, and especially from the many new and growing communities, there comes an earnest and pleading call for the establishment of churches. The manifest approval of the efforts of our Church in behalf of the unsaved, by the Great King and Head of the Church, leads us to affirm that no other denomination is better equipped for reaching the unchurched communities, in city or country, than our own. The thousands of calls which have come to the Home Board for help ought to arouse the conscience of the Church to the magnificent opportunities that are to-day open to our beloved Church.

Exclusive of the large section which is regarded as the field of our sister Church in the Southland, there are ten states and territories in which we have no church; 266 cities of 10,000 inhabitants, and upwards, in which our denomination has no existence; thirty cities of 25,000 population, or more, with only one congregation. In the western portions of our country alone there are at least 600 communities, more or less populous, which are entirely destitute of Gospel privileges.

The 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 mountain whites, 12,000,000 of foreigners, many of them illiterate and vicious, are all waiting, in the very shadows of eternal death, for the Word of life. Surely the Master's command, "Go, stand and speak to the people . . . all the words of this life," is intended for us. To what extent are we willing to obey?

Last year 241 stations were helped by the Board of Home Missions. In these congregations there was an average attendance of 20,153, a net gain in membership of 1,693, while the net gain for the entire Church in America was 1,484. Eighteen mission stations became self-supporting congregations within the year.

This year it is proposed to enter 24 new fields and render assistance to 248 stations already established. For this work this Assembly is asked to appropriate $120,137. While this is an advance of a few thousand dollars beyond what was granted last year, we are of the opinion that the Church cannot afford to do less and maintain her place in the twentieth century forward movement. Your committee, therefore, presents the the following:

Resolved, 1. That we do most thankfully acknowledge the goodness and the mercy of the Lord, as shown to our work in the home mission field during the past year.

2. That we express our satisfaction with the established agencies of the General Assembly for carrying on the mission work of the Church, and urge upon all our congregations the necessity of using said agencies, rather than those which may prove less permanent.

3. That we express our high appreciation of the untiring labors of Dr. Alexander Gilchrist, our efficient Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions.

4. Inasmuch as the Church contemplates a great forward movement in opening and developing new and needy fields, we authorize the Board of Home Missions to employ whatever means they may deem advisable to explore such fields and to assist in securing the necessary support of such special work.

5. We recommend the adoption of the report of the General Committee on Home Missions.

There have been placed in our hands memorials from the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Monongahela, Des Moines, and the Synod of Illinois; also Article I., of Section 3, of the report of the Semi-Centennial Committee. These memorials indicate a commendable awakening of interest on the part of the Church in the line of evangelistic efforts. Your committee recommends, first, That a permanent committee be created to stimulate synods, presbyteries and congregations in aggressive evangelistic work, and to devise and suggest measures for the systematic prosecution of such work, said committee to coöperate with the Board of Home Missions; second, This committee shall be known as the Committee on Evangelistic Work, and shall consist of seven members, who shall be appointed by the General Assembly, one of whom shall retire each year, but shall be eligible to reëlection. The chairman of the committee each year shall be the member whose name stands first in order; third, This committee shall constitute the committee on evangelization, contemplated in the report of the committee on semi-centennial celebration, during the life time of said commission.

That part of the report of the Committee on Home Missions relating to a Committee on Evangelization was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The first recommendation of the third section of the report of the Committee on Semi-Centennial was adopted.

Took up the report of the Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath Schools.

During the consideration of this report the time for adjournment arrived. It was agreed to meet at 8:30 Wednesday morning.

After prayer by Rev. W. M. Story, the Assembly adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

June 3, 1903, 8:30 A. M.

The Assembly met and for a time engaged in devotional exercises with special reference to the calamities that have befallen many during the sessions of the Assembly. Prayers were offered by Dr. J. A. Collins and H. J. Bell. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Proceeded to the first order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Reform. The report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON REFORM.

Papers and communications have come into the hands of your committee as follows: From Permanent Committee on Reform, Women's Christian Temperance Union, American Sabbath Union, American Anti-Saloon League, Pennsylvania Sabbath Association, National Reform Association.

All of these organizations and committee are laboring, each in its sphere, for the overthrow of the realm of darkness and crime and the establishment of the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ, God-man, Mediator, who is both the Head of His Church and Supreme Ruler among the nations. The principle that underlies all reform of fallen humanity in any and all its relations, whether ecclesiastic, civic, domestic, social or commercial, is embodied in the supreme and universal rulership of God's Incarnate Son. Until this mighty truth is recognized and acknowledged and acted on by God's Church and her public servants, who are His divinely appointed teachers of the nations, the Holy Spirit will not be given beyond His usual power, and reform will "drag its slow length along," for it is written (John 7:39), "The Holy Ghost was not yet given, BECAUSE that Jesus was not yet glorified."

We offer the following resolutions:

1. That we do here and now renew our covenant with God to "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

2. That we deplore the violations of this divine commandment throughout this broad land, and pray Almighty God, for the sake of His great name, and for Christ's sake, to send forth His light and truth, and, by the infinite power of the divine Spirit, bring the inhabitants to repentance and obedience, and thus escape His wrath, which has consumed Sabbath-breaking nations of the past. (See Jer. 17:27 and Neh. 13:18.)

3. That we heartily commend the National Bureau of Reform, and other associations, for their work in defense of the Sabbath, especially in securing a decision in closing on the Lord's day the gates of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. We also rejoice with the Pennsylvania Sabbath Association in the work accomplished largely through its efforts, viz.: The defeat in the state legislature, within a period of ten years, of twelve anti-Sabbath bills; the education of public sentiment by the distribution of more than 700,000 pages of Sabbath defense literature, and holding 38 Sabbath Reform conventions within the bounds of the state.

4. That it is with profound appreciation that we have observed the care shown by our Chief Magistrate, in his recent tour of the West, as on former occasions, in not permitting his train to run on the Lord's day; and we hereby commend this his example as worthy of imitation by all, especially all officials of government, both state and national.

5. That Resolution 4 be forwarded to President Roosevelt, signed by the Moderator.

In reference to the tobacco habit:

1. That a habit that besmears the sidewalks of the public thoroughfares, or pollutes God's pure air, which He made for the support of life, which relegates its victims to the smoking den of the passenger train, and which is forbidden in the drawing-room and parlor of respectability, which injures the bodies and enslaves the minds and squanders the money of its devotees, is a habit improper in a follower of "the man Christ Jesus."

2. That we earnestly suggest to all the superintendents of our Sabbath schools that they prepare a pledge against the habit of the cigarette, and have it signed, if possible, by all the boys of the school.

In reference to temperance:

1. That the fourth Sabbath in November be, and is hereby, recommended to be devoted to the consideration of the great and pressing question of the overthrow of the liquor saloon.

2. That five delegates be appointed to attend the National Anti-Saloon Convention, to be held in the City of Washington, December 9-11, 1903.

Our Directory for Worship urges upon the families of our Church the duty of family worship morning and evening. We are sure that duty is very much neglected; therefore,

Resolved, That we hereby call the attention of pastors and sessions to this matter, that the custom be restored, that there be no family without the family altar, and that the delighful and profiable exercise of singing praise be not allowed to fall into disuse in connection with the daily devotion.

Resolved, That we protest against the seating of Senator-elect Smoot, and call upon Congress to enact such legislation as shall forever prohibit all polygamists from seats in our national legislature.

Resolved, That we affirm our former action on the subject of secret societies.

Resolved, That the second Sabbath of September be set apart as a day of public and private prayer for public schools.

Resolved, That the American Sabbath Union, which aims to federate all Christian sentiment for the preservation of the Sabbath, be recognized as a potent agency of reform, and commended to our congregations for interest and support.

Proceeded to the second order of the day, the hearing of the Rev. R. F. Bradley, delegate from the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the South, who presented the Christian greetings of his denomination. The Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly.

A communication from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Took up the report of the Special Committee on Membership Covenant. The hour of adjournment was postponed 15 minutes. During the consideration of this report the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly adjourned after prayer by the Rev. R. F. Bradley.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. S. Colvin. The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Took up the report of the Committee on the Board of Publication. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON PUBLICATION AND SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Your committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, to which was referred the printed statements of the Board of Publication, together with the statistics and recommendations of your Standing Committee on Sabbath School Work and the memorial from the Presbytery of Mercer, asking that the Board of Publication be instructed to exclude "get-rich-quick" advertisements from the Christian Union Herald, and a request from the "Presbyterian Historical Saciety," would respectfully report for adoption of the Assembly the following:

1. That the Church is to be congratulated upon the successful management of the business affairs of the Board of Publication, the printed statistics of which make a most favorable showing and reveal close business scrutiny. The Board is to be commended for the publication of a revised Digest of the "Principal Acts and Deliverances of the General Assembly," also for its present plan of distributing more widely than in former years the printed Minutes of this General Assembly. We commend, also, the generous act of the Board in distributing free to needy missions Bibles, Psalters, Bible Songs and lesson helps, largely in excess of the Church's contributions to the Board.

As Rev. J. C. Boyd, D.D., who was the efficient Corresponding Secretary of the Board for twenty-five years, is now incapacitated by reason of serious illness, we ask that the members of the Assembly remember him at the throne of grace.

2. The report of the Standing Committee on Sabbath Schools affords reason for rejoicing. There is larger attendance of pastors, elders, teachers and scholars than ever before in the history of the Church. The contributions are some $8,000 more than any previous year; and the number of those professing faith in Christ, from the Sabbath schools, is over four hundred in excess of last year.

In view, therefore, of the fruitfulness of the Sabbath school field, the vital importance of the work, and the growing demands for a revival of interest in many sections of the Church, and because of a certain recommendation of the General Committee of Our Young People's Work, we recommend that the Assembly take into careful consideration the advisability of selecting a General Secretary, who shall devote his whole time to the organization and revival of Sabbath schools and young people's societies, and to provide the means for his support.

3. The request from the Presbyterian Historical Society of Philadelphia, asking that pictures, publications, relics, etc., illustrating our Church's history, be placed in the gallery and museum of that society, was considered by your committee.

(1) We would call the attention of the Board of Publication to the action of this Assembly, in 1873, directing that copies of all the publications of our Board be presented to the Presbyterian Historical Society, and to the action of 1882, recommending efforts to secure and place with this society material of interest to all the friends of Presbyterianism.

(2) That the Board of Publication be directed to comply, as fully as possible, with these former actions of Assembly and with this request of the Presbyterian Historical Society.

4. Your committee very carefully considered the memorial from the Presbytery of Mercer, relative to advertisements in the Christian Union Herald. We call attention to the action of the Assembly of 1894, on the same subject, wherein the Assembly approves the insertion of advertisements in the Christian Union Herald and Bible Teacher, when such are consistent with the character of these periodicals. Your committee, therefore, sees no need for further action on this subject at this time, but express our confidence that the management of the Christian Union Herald will be guided by the former action of the Assembly.

5. We recommend the third Sabbath in October be set apart as a day of special prayer for Sabbath schools, the second Sabbath in June as Missionary and Children's Day, and the fourth Sabbath in November as Temperance Day.

Took up the report of the Committee on Membership Covenant. The report was referred to the Committee to prepare an alternate form of question number three, to be submitted in overture.

Took up the report of the Committee on Freedmen's Missions. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The only paper referred to us was the annual report of the Freedmen's Board.

This report indicates a gratifying condition. A comparison with the report of a year ago, as found in last year's Minutes, shows an advance in almost every particular. The debt has been reduced nearly $7,000. There has been an increase in receipts, an increase in the number of stations, an increase in the total enrollment of Church membership and of Sabbath school and day school attendance. The Sabbath school enrollment at the Henderson (N. C.) Mission, which mission is wholly manned by colored laborers, is larger than a year ago, when it was the largest in our denomination. The college enrollment at Knoxville is over one-third larger than a year ago. In various other particulars there has been an advance.

And there is evidence of good work and conditions which figures cannot indicate. Many of our pupils become identified with colored denominations and are largely helpful therein. Those trained in our schools sow the seed in fields far and wide. Not least, there is evidence of increased cordiality and coöperation of southern whites. Indeed, in this whole work the best people north and south, and of both races, are coming nearer together and understanding each other better.

This is a time when no backward step should be taken. The very marked movements pertaining to the relations between the races and to the status of the colored race, movements which seem beyond the control even of constitutional law, call, by acknowledgment of the best, north and south, for increased devotion to the uplift of the whole colored race as apparently the only solution of present problems. In this work our Church, with its marked anti-slavery history, should hold no second place.

In presence of prominent discussions as to the comparative importance of various departments of education, industrial and other, our Board and workers in the field seem to be combining these departments in something like proper proportions, educating body, mind and heart, all in the spirit and service of our Lord.

Our Board seems faithfully devoted to its great work. The Corresponding Secretary, in his report, makes warm mention of the self-sacrificing labors of the members thereof, all of whom, whether ministers or business men, have manifold other labors. And our laborers in the fields also seem faithful and efficient. One of these laborers, Mrs. Rev. J. L. Cook, formerly Miss Anna B. Floyd, principal of the Henderson Normal Institute, has been taken away, leaving a most precious memory. Two others, brothers Cook and Love, are temporarily laid aside by infirm health.

Once more we learn that contributions to this, as to other objects, instead of being distributed evenly through the year, have been bulked to a degree at the end therof, thus necessitating extra outlay for interest on money borrowed. May this ancient evil soon cease.

The Board asks instructions as to opening certain small new stations in North Carolina. We believe this may wisely be left to the judgment of the Board to do what may seem best, in view of financial and all other conditions.

We submit the following for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That our Board and workers be commended for their services and their course be approved.

2. That we commend the annual report of the Board to the careful reading and study of the whole Church.

3. That we hope and trust the Board's debt, already reduced, in another year, under renewed spiritual life and faithful effort, may be extinguished.

4. That the Board be recommended to provide for a full annual inspection of the field and work by the Corresponding Secretary or by some one else under the appointment of the Board, supplemented by such other inspections as may be deemed advisable.

5. That the various questions relating to the enlargement of the work be left to the judgment of the Board, in trust that ere long we will witness a growth and prosperity in this important department of service such as we have never seen.

The Special Committee on Membership Covenant reported an alternate form of question number three, which was adopted. The report was amended and adopted, and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures to prepare the form of overture.

Took up the report of the Judiciary Committee on the memorial from Allegheny Presbytery. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON MEMORIAL FROM ALLEGHENY PRESBYTERY.

Your committee, to whom was referred the memorial from the Presbytery of Allegheny, asking the Assembly to give a deliverance on the question, "Is it lawful, from an ecclesiastical point of view, for a licentiate to solemnize marriage?" would report as follows:

The solemnization of marriage involves the possession of authority on the part of the person officiating. Such authority is given in ordination, not in licensure. It is, therefore, the judgment of your committee that the licentiate has not been authorized, and, from an ecclesiastical point of view, it is unlawful for him to do so.

Took up the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Union in India. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON UNION IN INDIA.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures has received and examined a printed pamphlet referred to it, containing Proceedings of the Meetings of the Representative Committee of the Presbyterian Alliance of India. The meetings were held at Allahabad, January 14-16, 1903, and were occupied with the subject of uniting in one Church all the ecclesiastical bodies of India that are Presbyterian in doctrine and polity.

The Minutes of the Synod of the Punjab show that the matter of ecclesiastical union was before that body at its last meeting, and was laid upon the table. No formal report on the subject has been made to this Assembly. It does not appear, therefore, that any action by the General Assembly is necessary.

But it is of interest to note that the printed pamphlet examined at this time shows that certain modifications of the original draft of the plan of union in India were practically agreed to at the suggestion of our representatives, and that a willingness was indicated to use the Psalms alone as songs of praise in meetings of the General Assembly of the proposed united Church. Such signs of progress encourage us to hope for the Church in India, and for the Church universal, that the future will yet bring the full realization of Christ's desire, as expressed in His intercessory prayer, "that they all may be one."

Took up the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on a Board of Aid for Colleges. The report was adopted and referred to the Committee on Nominations. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON BOARD OF AID FOR COLLEGES.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommends the following action with reference to that part of the memorial from representatives of our denominational colleges which asks that a committee of five be appointed "to report to the next General Assembly a plan of organizatoin for a Board of Aid for Colleges":

It is not clear that the Church is prepared for the definite establishment of a new board, charged with the duties contemplated in this memorial. A full consideration of the question, however, with a view to possible action hereafter, is not objectionable; therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of five be now appointed, whose duty it shall be to consider the advisability of establishing a Board of Aid for Colleges and the sphere of action of such a board, if established, and to report to the General Assembly of 1904.

Took up the report of the Committee on Ministerial Relief. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Your committee have carefully examined the annual report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and find that under efficient and economic management its work continues to widen and its usefulness to increase. During the year the number of its beneficiaries increased from 80 to 85, of whom 35 were ministers, 47 were widows and three were orphans. The death of nine persons during the year left 76 still on the roll at the end of the year. The amount granted to beneficiaries was $13,262, or $2,572 more than during the previous year.

But this enlarged beneficence has not been attended by an increase of income. On the other hand, there has been a slight decline in the amount of interest received from investments; only $100 was received by legacy, and less than two-thirds of the appropriation for the year were received. The $10,000 asked for the present year ought to be paid in full and all due encouragement given to so worthy a work as that done by this Board. The term of office of James Walker, John C. McLaughlin and James Price D.D., expires with this meeting.

The three memorials placed in the hands of your committee have been carefully considered. One of them asks that all ministers who have reached the prescribed age should become pensioners. While it may be desirable that all our aged ministers be pensioned, the report of the Board indicates that its resources are not yet sufficient for such an enlargement of its work, as such action would involve.

The other two memorials ask that the class of beneficiaries eligible to a life pension, by the action of the Assembly of 1901, be extended so as to include all ministers who have served the Church in any capacity. As those who would be benefited by the action desired can now secure aid by the old rules of the Board, and their service has been an important one to the Church, and as such action would not increase to any great extent, if at all, the expenditures of the Board, it is the judgment of your committee that it would be appropriate to grant the request of your memorialists.

We would offer the following resolutions:

1. That the report of this Board be heartily approved and its work recommended to the liberality of the Church.

2. That presbyterial committees be urged to press the claims of this Board upon pastors and sessions in their respective presbyteries.

3. That its beneficent work and need of support be given a more prominent place in all the courts and conferences of the Church, from Assembly to session.

4. That the class of life beneficiaries, established by the action of the Assembly of 1901, be so enlarged as to include any minister who may have served the Church in any important capacity and is in need.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported a form of overture on Membership Covenant. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON MEMBERSHIP COVENANT.

The Committee on Bills and Ovetures recommends the following as the form of overtures to be submitted to the presbyteries on the Membership Covnant:

No. 1. Shall the following be adopted as a substitute for Book of Government and Discipline, Part II., Chapter II., Section 6:

6. Manner of Admission. Having satisfied the session respecting their knowledge, principles, motives and character, applicants shall be received on answering affirmatively the following formula of questions. Ordinarily members shall be received at a service of public worship, in the presence of the congregation.

1. Do you believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of God, and, confessing your need as a sinner, do you accept Him as your own Saviour and Lord?

2. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and conduct?

3. Do you promise to receive, in the teachable spirit of a disciple of Christ, instruction in the doctrines of the United Presbyterian Church, as set forth in her accepted Standards; to yield subjection in the Lord to her constituted authorities, and to render to her a loving and loyal support so long as you remain a member thereof?

4. Do you promise to attend faithfully upon the ordinances of public worship, to maintain personal and family religion, and to follow after righteousness in all your relations in life?

5. All this do you covenant and promise as in the presence of God, in reliance upon the gracious aid of the Holy Spirit, and as you desire to give in your account with joy at the great day of the Redeemer's appearing?

The minister may then say: We, the officers and members of this congregation, do most heartily welcome you to our Christian fellowship, pledging you our sympathy and help as brethren in the Lord.

No. 2. Shall the following be adopted as a substitute for Book of Government and Discipline, Part II., Chapter II., Section 6:

6. Manner of Admission. Having satisfied the session respecting their knowledge, principles, motives and character, applicants shall be received on answering affirmatively the following formula of questions. 2. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and conduct?

3. Do you promise that, so long as you are a member of the United Presbyterian Church, you will conform your life and conduct to the doctrines of the Word of God, as set forth in her accepted Standards; that you will receive, in the submissive spirit of a disciple of Christ, instruction in her principles; that you will yield subjection in the Lord to her constituted authorities, and that you will render to her a loving and loyal support?

Took up the report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

Your Committee on Theological Seminaries has had placed in its hands three papers, two being reports from the managers of the Allegheny and Xenia Theological Seminaries, and one a memorial from the faculty of Allegheny Theological Seminary, by direction of its Board of Directors, praying that means might be devised to increase the number of theological students. In regard to these we would offer the following for adoption:

First: We express our gratitude to God for the outward manifestations of His favor enjoyed during the past year by both these institutions, no serious interruption having been experienced in the work of either school.

Second. We are admonished by the sudden and unexpected death of J. B. McMichael, D.D., and of David McDill, D.D., LL.D., professors emeritus of Xenia Seminary, that our times are in God's hand, and with grateful recognition of the honored and useful service these fathers have rendered to the Church, we would give ourselves to greater diligence in the work of the Master, reminded that "the night cometh when no man can work."

Third. We congratulate Xenia Seminary on the brighter outlook, from the material and financial point of view, that is before the institution, in the prospect of a new building and increased revenue, whereby another professor is a possibility in the near future.

Fourth. We commend the work done in both institutions, making special mention of the emphasis placed in Allegheny Seminary on the study of Christian missions and experimental religion and the exposition of the English Bible, and of the work done by special lectures in the Xenia Seminary.

Fifth. In reference to the memorial, asking that means be devised to increase the number of theological students, we would express the conviction that the cause of the trouble from which we are suffering is so deeply rooted in the life of the Church that nothing less than a fuller manifestation of the power of the Holy Spirit can remove it. The world-spirit so possesses the great mass of the people that it is difficult, and often well-nigh impossible, to get any great number to give themselves even for a week wholly to the work of soul winning; and therefore it is not to be thought strange that out of this mass we should experience difficulty in drawing men in great numbers into the Gospel ministry. There may, also, be further cause for the trouble, and certainly occasion for regret, in the fact that men who have spent one-third of their lives in preparing themselves to enter upon this high calling should have to spend almost another third in enforced idleness at its close. But even while we deliberate, is there not "the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees" discernible, in the effects produced by the calls from India and Egypt, in the conviction that is coming upon us that the Church is impotent to meet these demands without a fuller realization of the Spirit's presence and power, and in the plans being devised for a universal appeal to God to help in this our time of need? But we would further recommend the following:

1. That pastors be urged to keep before the young people of their churches the crying need of more laborers in the vineyard of the Lord.

2. That college presidents be asked to preach upon this subject to their students, or make provision for its presentation by our Ways and Means Secretary, J. Campbell White, or both, and to give prominence to Bible study and experimental religion in the class room.

3. That a short season be now spent by the Assembly in prayer to the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into His harvest.

Took up the report of the Committee on Young People's Work. The report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

Your committee has had but one paper referred to it. This is the annual report of the General Committee on Young People's Work. On this paper we submit, for your approval, the following action:

1. We rejoice in the encouraging features of the report. A substantial gain has been made in every department of the work, saving that of tithes and offerings. Your committee is of the opinion that the decrease in this grace may be due, in part, to reaction after the special effort for the tenth anniversary offering. We are glad to note that his decrease is largely made up by increased offerings from the juniors. The splendid work of these little ones is revealed through good gains all along the line. A large increase in professions of faith, among both seniors and juniors, is evidence of a healthy spiritual condition.

2. We heartily commend the work of the General Committee, and especially the faithful and able service of General Secretary Hanna.

3. We recommend that our young people's societies should take up and vigorously prosecute the special course of mission studies prepared for that purpose by the Foreign Mission Board, and similar courses prepared by other Boards.

4. We repeat and enforce the recommendation of last year's Assembly, "that a deeper interest be taken and a greater effort made by our presbyterial secretaries and pastors in the arranging of presbyterial and synodical conventions for the 'off years.'"

5. We call attention to the fact that one-fifth of our congregations in America have no senior societies, and that one-half of them have no junior societies. We earnestly urge upon pastors and supplies the organization of societies in all congregations where no society exists at present. We also urge upon all pastors that some definite work should be assigned to the young people, and that they should be constantly stimulated to systematic liberality.

6. Regarding the request for a General Secretary, who shall give his whole time to the work of the Sabbath school and the young people's organizations, your committee recommends that the General Committee on Young People's Work and the Board of Publication, through the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, shall jointly determine upon some definite plan of coöperation that shall be fair to both of the interests involved; upon some definite plan for the financial support of the proposed secretary, and, if practicable, upon some suitable person for the position, and report the same to the next General Assembly.

7. We recommend that the election of a new member of the General Committee and of a General Secretary be referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The time of adjourment was postponed one-half hour, to give time for the consideration of further reports.

Took up the report of the Committee to prepare a minute on the death of the Rev. Wm. J. Reid, D.D., LL.D. The report was adopted and is as follows:

MINUTE ON THE DEATH OF DR. WILLIAM J. REID.

Since the last General Assembly met one year ago, the Principal Clerk of the Assembly, Rev. William J. Reid, D.D., LL.D., has gone to the assembly of the blest and another has been chosen to fill the place thus made empty. It is fitting that some record be made of our appreciation of his eminent service to the Church in the office which he held and honored so long.

He was a man of manifold labors. He held three important positions which brought him prominently before the Church. He was pastor of one of the most important churches of the city of Pittsburgh, the editor of the United Presbyterian and the Principal Clerk of the General Assembly, and though under the searching light of general observation for so long, he grew in the esteem of the Church with the passing years.

He was elected Principal Clerk in 1875 and remained in the office continuously until his death. His genial personality, his intelligence and carefulness in directing and recording the action of Assemblies, his courtesy and patience in his dealings with his brethren, his familiarity with parliamentary order, which helped out many a novice in the Moderator's chair, and his long period of service made him seem to be a necessary part of our ecclesiastical machinery. How often he cleared the atmosphere by a timely reference to the rules of order or the Book of Government; how often he reduced the friction of discussion by the lubricant of a humorous remark! How often he subdued to silence and thoughtfulness as he led in appropriate and fervent prayer! How often have we listened to his inspiring speech from the pulpit, as with keen analysis of the word and play of fancy and deep pathos he proclaimed the unsearchable riches of Christ! May his mantle fall upon his successor and upon us all as we turn our steps toward the duties of the future!

Took up the report of the Judiciary Committee on the Law of Declinature. A minority report was presented by a member of the Committee.

The whole matter was referred to a Committee to report to the next Assembly. The nomination of this Committee was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

A paper from the Corresponding Secretaries of the Boards was read and adopted, and is as follows:

RECOMMENDATIONS OF SECRETARIES.

We recommend for next year the continuance of the plan that has been followed for the past two years for deepening the interest of the Church in the work in the care of the different Boards, viz.:

1. That each presbytery be recommended to hold at its next meeting a conference on this work, and adopt some plan for quickening the interest of congregations in it.

2. That pastors and sessions arrange a service in the interest of this work once a quarter during the year.

3. That the Boards be instructed to prepare, acting jointly, a program to be suggested for the services to be held in congregations.

4. Having experienced great difficulty in attending the meetings of the various synods, owing to frequent conflict in the dates of their meetings, and believing that annual presentation of the Church's work at the synodical meetings is essential to the maintenance and development of an intelligent interest in, and support of, the missionary work of the Church, we request the General Assembly to appoint a committee of five to confer with synodical authorities with a view to arranging the dates of synodical meetings, so as to allow the secretaries to reach the greatest possible number of such meetings.

Took up the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on an advanced course of Sabbath School Lessons. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT ON ADVANCED COURSE OF SABBATH SCHOOL LESSONS.

With reference to the memorial on an advanced course of Sabbath school lessons, presented by the Western Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of Reformed Churches, the Committee on Bills and Overtures recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. The General Assembly gratefully recognizes the increasing demand for more advanced and thorough study of God's Word, seeing therein the promise of higher efficiency in the work of the Sabbath school.

2. Without committing ourselves to details, we give general approval to the plan outlined for an advanced course in Bible study.

3. We hereby empower the Board of Publication to coöperate with the Sabbath School Committee of th Western Section of the Executive Committee of the Alliance of Reformed Churches, as requested in the memorial.

Took up the report of the Committee on Finance. The report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Your Committee on Finance begs leave to report:

1. We have examined the statements of the treasurers of the Board of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Education, Ministerial Relief, Publication, Gibson Trust Fund, General Assembly Fund, and find that these have been properly audited and certified as correct. We therefore recommend their approval, and in so doing we desire to call your attention to the accurate and satisfactory manner in which the disposition of the funds in the hands of these Boards is reported to the Assembly.

2. We ask that warrants be drawn on the Assembly Fund for the payment of the following bills:

Expenses of the Alliance of Reformed Churches	$ 270 00
" " Delegate to Christian Reformed Synod	12 00
" " Delegate to Associate Reformed Synod of the South	50 75
" " Delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church	34 30
" " Members of Membership Covenant Committee	65 00
" " Members of the Committee on Metrical Version of the Psalms	90 20
D. C. Wilson & Son, supplies for the Assembly	3 55
Expenses of Committee on Ways and Means	2,182 86
Bill of Murdoch, Kerr & Co., Printing	59 90
Expenses of Retiring Moderator	36 10
" " Second Clerk, supplies, postage and traveling expenses	62 50
" " Committee on Revision of Book of Government	3 50
Janitor, College Springs church	10 00
Janitor, Tarkio church	20 00

3. The report of the Trustees of the General Assembly has been referred to us. We note the recept by the Trustees of two legacies, one from Sara Bell, of Rock Prairie, Wis., $13,118.85 for Home and Foreign Missions; the other from A. F. Alexander, $500, for the missions of the Church. The Trustees suggest the appointment of a special treasurer to receive and disburse the Delegate Fund, and to explain its operation by repeated announcements in the Church papers. We do not deem it expedient to make such a provsion at the present time.

4. We ask that the Treasurer of the General Assembly pay the claim of the traveling expenses of the delegates of the different presbyteries, the amounts which have been allowed each one according to the percentage the presbytery has paid on its assessment to the Assembly Fund, as follows:

Albany, $21.56; Allegheny, $209.34; Argyle, $171.81; Arkansas Valley, $82.44; Beaver Valley, $76.45; Big Springs, $154.83; Boston, $132.70; Brookville, $10.11; Butler, $140.84; Caledonia, $59.08; Cedar Rapids, $52.94; Chartiers, $218.24; Chicago, ————; Clevland, $81.66; College Springs, $12.19; Colorado, $71.31; Concordia, $17.73; Conemaugh, $123.50; Delaware, $212.08; Des Moines, $31.64; Detroit, ————; Frankfort, $11.44; Garnett, $21,34; Illiois Central, $33.10; Illinois Southern, $79.96; Indiana, $57.96; Indiana Northern, $51.60; Iowa Northwestern, $18.51; Kansas City, $15.70; Keokuk, $32.69; Kiskiminetas, $85.37; Lake, $76.91; Le Claire, $25.69; Los Angeles, $206.40; Mansfield, $83.67; Mercer, $123.64; Monmouth, $85.71; Monongahela, $210.18; Muskingum, ————; New York, $12.55; Ohio First, $113.73; Omaha, $44.50; Oregon, $371.92; Pawnee, $12.37; Philadelphia, $53.27; Pittsburgh, ————; Princeton, ————; Puget Sound, $351.90; Rock Island, $60.06; San Francisco, $327.20; Sidney, ————; Spokane, $62.00; Stamford, $70.77; Steubenville, $78.56; Tennessee, $159.26; Vermont, $62.52; Westmoreland, $237.46; Wheeling, $71.96; Wisconsin, $34.15; Xenia, $165.29. Total, $5,331.79.

5. We recommend that instead of the allowances for the publication of the Minutes the salaries of the Clerks be fixed sums, as follows: Principal Clerk, $125.00; Second Clerk, $250.00.

6. We recommend that the appropriation for Delegate Fund for 1904 be $5.500.

It was agreed that an evening session be held, beginning at 7 o'clock.

After prayer by Rev. John Downie, the Assembly adjourned.

7 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. W. M. Nichol.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on Nominations was presented and adopted. It is as follows:

The report of the Committee on Leave of Absence was presented and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Your committee would respectfully submit the following report:

First. We recommend that all delegates detained from the sessions of the Assembly on account of washouts on the railroads be granted excuse. We do not deem it necessary to present a list of their names.

Second. Nine ministers and forty-five elders are marked as not present at the Assembly.

Third. The following, for reasons deemed sufficient to the committee, have been excused from one or more sessions of the Assembly: Rev. A. R. Robinson, Rev. J. F. Campbell, Rev. Morris Watson, J. E. Miller, Joseph Blair, Rev. W. R. Gray.

The report of the Committee on Statistics was presented and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

Your committee would report that there have been placed in our hands the summaries of our Church for the year ending March 31, 1903, as prepared by the Second Clerk of the General Assembly. Also a memorial concerning a lack of uniformity in the manner of reporting congregational statistics.

We would call special attention to the statistics concerning Church property, the collection and tabulation of which have involved a vast amount of extra labor on the part of the Second Clerk.

We recommend that the statistical tables, so carefully prepared by the Second Clerk, be approved by this General Assembly.

We also recommend that the statistics concerning Church property be kept on file, the summaries only being published in the appendix to the Minutes of the General Assembly.

With regard to the memorial submitted to us, we recommend that the marginal instruction in the blank for congregational statistics be so changed as to read: "All money contributed to work connected with any of the Boards, whether passing through the hands of the financial agent of the presbytery, or otherwise, be included in the column for that particular Board."

The report of the Committee on Revision was presented and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON REVISION.

Your Committee on Revision begs leave to report that the Minutes of the Forty-fourth General Assembly and the synods of New York, Pittsburgh, Ohio, Second, First West, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, 1901 and 1902, Punjab, and the Nile have been examined, and their approval, endorsed by the Clerk of the General Assembly, is recommended.

The report of the Committee on Devotional Exercises was presented and adopted, and referred to the Committee on Nominations. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

Resolved, 1. That Rev. R. E. McClure be made the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon of the Forty-sixth General Assembly.

2. That a committee on conferences and devotional exercises for the next Assembly be appointed.

The selection of a place of meeting for the next General Assembly was referred to the Moderator and Clerks.

The appointment of a Committee on Conferences for the next Assembly was referred to the Moderator and Clerks.

The report of the Committee on Appropriations was presented and adopted. It is as follows:

APPROPRIATIONS.

Your committee, in recommending appropriations in advance of all previous years, has taken account of three facts:

1. The earnest statement of the Boards as to pressing needs.
2. The rising tide of interest, expectation and faith in the Church.
3. The increased equipment of the Church in means for emphasizing the needs of the Boards and deepening the interest of contributors.

With the direction, that of the appropriation made to educational institutions, $500 shall be devoted to Pawnee Academy and $500 to Waitsburg Academy, the following appropriations are recommended:

To Foreign Missions	$190,393
" Home Missions	120,137
" Freedmen's Missions	68,000
" Church Extension	68,000
" Education (regular work)	8,000
" Education (institutions)	30,000
" Ministerial Relief	10,000
" Assembly Fund	9,000
" Publication	5,000
	$508,530

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Assembly:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Resolved, That we extend our cordial thanks to the pastor and people of this congregation, and the friends, for their hospitality, by which our stay with them has been made exceedingly pleasant; to the Committee on Arrangements, and to Mr. T. T. Wilson, for the ample provision made for the convenience of the Assembly, and their constant attention to the comfort of the members; to the Moderator for his fairness in presiding, and the other officers of the Assembly for their faithful service; to the President and faculty of Tarkio College for their expressions of kindness in our behalf, and also to the railroads for their generous concessions to the delegates of the Assembly.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved when the Moderator said: "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1904, at 7:45 P. M., at a place to be selected by the Moderator and Clerks of this Assembly."

The Assembly was led in prayer by Dr. A. G. Wallace, and the Moderator pronounced the benediction.

JAMES P. COWAN,
Moderator,
D. F. MCGILL,
Principal Clerk.
A. G. WALLACE,
Second Clerk.

By virtue of the power vested in them, the officers of the General Assembly designate Greenville, Pa., as the place for the next meeting of the General Assembly.

This appointment is made on cordial and urgent invitation of the congregation of Greenville.

The General Committee of Home Missions will meet in the Second Church, Mercer, Pa.

In behalf of the officers of the Assembly.

D. F. MCGILL,
Principal Clerk.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of the General Assembly would respectfully report:

1. The merciful preservation of the lives of all our members during the past year.

2. Their general diligence in attending the regular and special meetings, and their faithfulness in conserving the interests of the Church committed to our care.

3. That final settlement, after years of litigation over a mere quibble in her will, of the estate of Mrs. Sarah Bell, of Rock Prairie, Wis., and the receipt from same of $13,118.85 "for Home and Foreign Missions."

Here we would again call attention to the importance of clear, accurate statement in making wills, to designate in correct phrase the exact object intended.

Also, that it is generally better to give real estate to the Trustees of General Assembly for specific objects, especially where more than one Board is to receive. Then the Trustees alone can execute the deed, otherwise all the Boards named must join in the deed, as in a recent case, requiring the signature of every Board of the Church, from Philadelphia to Monmouth, Ills.

4. The report of Treasurer J. D. Fraser, Esq., duly audited, will be presented.

5. The terms of office of S. Collins, R. J. Miller and R. S. McCague expire with July 1 prox.

Respectfully submitted, by order of Trustees,

S. COLLINS, President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

It is with deep thanksgiving to God that the Board of Foreign Missions presents to the General Assembly its Forty-fourth Annual Report. By her contributions to Foreign Missions during the past year the Church has established a new rcord for liberality, exceeding her contributions of two years ago by $21,787.86 and her contributions of a year ago by $36,303.49.

OUR ADVANCE.

We should be neglectful in our appreciation of God's goodness in pouring out upon His Church the grace of giving if we did not lay due emphasis on this advance of 24 per cent. in the Church's liberality over that of the preceding year. On the other hand, this year of missions is made memorable by the fact that the largest ingathering of souls recorded for any single year in the entire history of our Church's missionary work has been accomplished during the year with which the report deals. Our Foreign Missionary record for 1902 is, therefore, 14 new missionaries sent out! $184,515.78 contributed to the work! 1,697 received on profession of faith! In this record we rejoice.

There is sorrow, however, and the consciousness of personal loss in our presentation of this year's report, owing to the absence of one who was with us a year ago, and whose election to the office of Honorary Secretary promised us, we hoped, the continuance of his sympathy and counsel in the burdensome responsibility of our work. The Lord, however, judged otherwise and called His servant away from further service.

DR. BARR'S DEATH.

A few minutes after midnight, while the bells were heralding forth the advent of Christmas, with its message of joy and peace, our brother's soul passed into the presence of his Lord. The last weeks of Dr. Barr's life were spent in committing to another the duties which he had so long performed. In this he displayed the utmost kindness, patience and graciousness. A week before his death he tied up the last bundle of papers, and laid it aside, with the remark, "Now my work is done." These words proved to be strangely prophetic. There are not many who can present to their Lord a life-work which can be at all characterized as "a finished work." There was about Dr. Barr's life the beauty of completeness. He could say with Paul, "I have finished my course!"

Dr. Barr's connection with the Board of Foreign Missions covers almost the entire period of the Board's existence. He became a member of the Board in 1861. In 1871 he was elected President of the Board. Upon the death of Dr. Dales, in 1893, Dr. Barr became Secretary pro tem., and at the following meeting of the General Assembly he was regularly elected to fill that office.

Dr. Barr continued to discharge the duties of that office until the spring of 1902, when the increasing burdens of the office and the failing strength of advancing years led him to present his resignation to the General Assembly. When it was found that Dr. Barr could not be persuaded to continue in office, the Church reluctantly accepted his resignation, chose the Rev. Charles R. Watson as his successor, and elected Dr. Barr Honorary Secretary for life.

The service which Dr. Barr has rendered to the foreign missionary cause could not be fully set forth without entering upon a history of the missionary work of our Church during the past forty-one years. To the wise judgment and courage, to the faith and devotion of Dr. Barr as Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions must be credited a large part of the success which now marks our foreign missionary work, and which has won for it endorsement and admiration on all sides.

The devotion and loyalty of our missionaries toward Dr. Barr found expression upon his retirement, and at his death, in resolutions setting forth their appreciation of his long and faithful service, and voicing their sense of personal loss in his death.

I. A YEAR'S WORK.

INDIA.

Our India Mission presents an inspiring record of progress along every line. The increase in membership is the largest on record for any single year in the entire history of that mission, exceeding even that of a year ago, which was considered unusual. That such sentences as these which follow are possible is a matter for profound thanks. From one district comes the report: "We have more inquirers than for several years." Another missionary writes: "During the last winter's camping season 487 persons were baptized." Neither do figures tell the whole story, for there is abundant testimony to the fruits of the Spirit in the changed lives of those who have accepted and confessed Christ.

Further, one cannot read the annual report of this mission without becoming convinced that precious as are the spiritual experiences through which this mission is passing, there are evident signs of larger blessings yet in store. The statement of an old man in one of the villages visited would seem prophetic: "You came last year, and then there were two inquirers. You have come this year, and we are all inquirers. You come next year, and we will all become Christians." And why should we be surprised? Do we not read that "nations shall be born in a day"?

The impression made upon the reader of the reports as to the manifest spiritual power of our missionary work is not more profound than the impression made as to the crying need of many parts of our field. One missionary writes: "It is with sadness we report that many villages containing Christians were not visited in 1902." Frequently, too, where villages were visited, it was only once in the course of an entire year, eliciting the pathetic exclamation from one hungry soul, "Your words are good, but after you are gone we forget!"

Special mention must also be made of the terrible scourge of plague which has been devastating our India field. "Do not call it sickness, call it death," was the exclamation of a native. In other places it was called not a sickness, but a "masacre." In Sialkot district 30,000 deaths were reported for the year. In Gujranwala the death rate ran up to 1,000 a week. Teachers and pupils in the schools, members of our native churches, men, women and children were among those stricken down. Yet the Angel of the Lord watched over the lives of our missionaries, and in many instances our native Church seemed miraculously spared. As to the influence upon non-Christians, the scourge produced conviction of sin in some, and hardening of hearts in the case of others.

A new impulse has been given to the work of training up the youth of India for efficient leadership in the native Church by the completion and dedication of the Gordon Mission College buildings and by the provision of generous contributors in America for the erection of a permanent building for the Theological Seminary. Much may be inferred as to the progress of the work by a careful study of the following statistics:

Ordained ministers, 18; wives of missionaries, 15; unmarried women, 18; medical missionaries, 2. Total, 53.

Ordained native ministers, 15; licentiates, 17; colporteurs, 7; Bible women, 23; Christian school teachers, 125; other mission employes, 116. Total native workers, 303.

Synod, 1; presbyteries, 4; mission districts, 12; villages, 574; organized congregations, 23, 11 of which have pastors and 5 of which are self-supporting; services held in 209 places.

Membership, 9,493; members received on profession, 1,178; on certificate and by restoration, 1,224. Net increase, 1,471.

Sabbath schools, 112; teachers, 230; pupils, 5,461.

Day schools, 134; pupils, 8,017; industrial schools, 2; pupils, 287; boarding schools, 4; pupils, 376; colleges, 1; pupils, 58; theological seminary, 1; students, 14. Total pupils in schools, 8,752. Total teachers, 331.

Medical work—Hospitals, 2; beds, 65; in-patients, 367; dispensaries, 5; out-patients, 47,950.

Bible work—Colporteurs, 7; Bible women, 23; amount from sale of books, $673.

Contributions—Native contributions to Church work, $1,311; to building, $95; to school work, $9,305; to medical work, $280. Total native contributions, $10,991.

Expenditures (exclusive of missionaries' salaries)—For Church work, $5,657; school work, $32,777; medical workk, $5,349; Bible work, $1,889.

EGYPT.

In the Egyptian Mission we find that the progress of the kingdom during the past year has been intensive rather than extensive. The Egyptian Church is coming nearer and nearer to the ideal of all missionary effort—the realization of a self-directing, self-propagating and self-sustaining Church. She is coming to regard the newly-opened and needy field of the Sudan as her proper foreign mission field, so that we now have the picture of a foreign mission Church which has become herself a foreign missionary Church. She has sent forth to Khartum, at her own charges and as her missionary representative, the Rev. Gebra Hanna, and she has purchased a lot and is erecting a building for missionary work.

A pastor reports a large number of the families of his congregation where family prayers are offered daily. Accounts are given of special religious interest in our educational institutions, as in the Alexandria Boys' School, where the boys voluntarily organized a prayer meeting, or as in the college at Assiut, where scores of boys thoughtfully and solemnly surrendered their lives to God's service wherever His providence might lead them. Many instances appear, also, of self-sacrificing service rendered by Christian women and of personal effort to bring others to Christ, put forth by both men and women. All these are signs of growth in grace.

There has also been extensive development. The increase in the membership of the native Church has been exceeded only three times in the history of the mission. Some very interesting accounts appear of the far-reaching influence exerted through the medical and educational agencies, as also through the distribution of the Scriptures. Makhiel Mansoor, a Mohammedan convert, carried the Gospel to his former co-religionists within the precincts of the Mosque El Azhar, the greatest center in the world of Moslem education and influence.

Paralleling India's experience with the plague, Egypt has suffered from the cholera epidemic. The death rate was not high, but the danger was sufficient to forbid the opening of schools for several weeks. This hindered the work in many places, and increased the expenses of the mission. The following are the statistics of the Egyptian Mission for the past year:

Ordained ministers in the field, 19; college professor, 1; medical missionaries, 3; nurses, 2; unmarried women, 13; wives of missionaries, 20. Total foreign missionaries, 58; other foreign helpers, 13. Total, 71.

Ordained native ministers, 31; licentiates, 18; theological students, 4; other lay preachers, 11; harem workers, 50; in book department, 45; school teachers, 336. Total native workers, 495.

Synod, 1; presbyteries, 4; organized congregations, 52; other places where services are regularly held, 171.

Membership, 6,800; increase by profession, 519; attendance on Sabbath morning services, 13,729.

Sabbath schools, 168; officers and teachers, 418; attendants, 9,177; contributions, $925.

Village schools, 174; teachers, 227; pupils, 8,759; central schools, 23; teachers, 124; pupils, 4,183. Total schools, 170. Total instructors, 351. Total pupils, 12,942.

Theological Seminary, 1; teachers, 2; pupils, 3.

Assiut Training College, teachers, 16; pupils, 570; central boarding schools, 4.

Books—Scriptures sold, 21,758, receipts, $3,831; religious books, 8,133, receipts, $1,308; educational books, 35,375, receipts, $5,465; receipts for stationary, $1,812. Total volumes sold, 65,266. Total receipts, $12,516.

Medical work—Clinic treatments, 12,840; village visits, 47; house visits, 674; in-patients, 969.

Native contributions—To salaries of pastors, etc., $8,965; to congregational expenses, $1,978; to church buildings, $6,530; to work in the Sudan, $1,978; ministerial relief, $88; to Sabbath leaflets, $418; to the poor, $2,723. Total contributions of native congregations, $22,680.

THE SUDAN.

The Board reported to the General Assembly of 1902 that Rev. J. K. and Mrs. Giffen and Dr. and Mrs. H. T. McLaughlin had almost reached the site on the Sobat river, which had been granted to them for missionary purposes. Their time has been fully taken up in the erection of necessary buildings, forming an acquaintance with the people of that section, studying the language and customs of the people, and adapting themselves to the conditions of life and work, which differ radically from those which obtain in our other mission fields. It is, of course, too early to look for results in the way of converts, for

The limits of what shall constitute our mission field in the Sudan are difficult to determine. Mr. Giffen, in his report, speaks of the tribes living along the Sobat river borders, toward the headwaters of the Blue Nile, as properly consituting our mission field. Meanwhile mission work has been forced upon us in Khartum through the presence in that city of a large number of our Egyptian constituency.

Missionary work in the Sudan, owing to the needs of that country, and judging by analogy from the experience of the missionaries of Central Africa, further to the south, will doubtless follow lines of industrial development.

The reference which Lord Cromer, British Agent and Consul-General, makes to our missionary work in the Sudan in the report upon Egypt and the Sudan, which he presented to both Houses of Parliament, in April, 1903, is exceedingly gratifying and is worthy of quotation:

"An opportunity was afforded me, during my recent tour in the Sudan, to visit the station established by the American missionaries on the Sobat river. I was greatly pleased with all I saw. The mission is manifestly conducted on those sound, practical, common-sense principles which, indeed, are strongly characteristic of American mision work in Egypt. . . . Not only can there be no possible objection to mission work of this description, but I may add, from whatever point of view the matter is considered, the creation of establishments conducted on the principles adopted by Mr. Giffen and Dr. McLaughlin, cannot fail to prove an unmixed benefit to the population amongst whom they live. I understand that the American missionaries contemplate the creation of another mission post higher up the Sobat. It is greatly to be hoped that they will carry out this intention. They may rely upon any reasonable encouragement and assistance which it is in the power of the Sudan government to afford."

It is a matter for thanksgiving to note that the prohibition forbidding missionary work among Mohammedans in the Sudan seems about to be revoked, at least, in so far as it applies to the opening of schools. This may be inferred from the following in Lord Cromer's report:

"I should add that, although mission work, properly so called, cannot as yet be permitted among the Moslem population of the Sudan, I see no objection to the establishment of Christian schools at Khartum. Parents should, of course, be warned before they send their children to the schools that instruction in the Christian religion is afforded. It will then be for them to judge whether they wish their children to attend or not."

The sudden illness of Mrs. McLaughlin compelled Dr. McLaughlin to leave his post and accompany her to Cairo, where she received further medical attention. Her health was restored and both have returned to their post on the Sobat river. As Mr. Giffen's furlough is now overdue, and both he and Mrs. Giffen are much in need of a rest, permission has been given them to return to America this summer. Rev. and Mrs. Ralph E. Carson have been appointed to take their place, while the Rev. George A. Sowash will take up the work at Khartum.

The extreme separation of our Egyptian and Sudan mission fields led to some discussion of the absolute separation of these two missions in administration and government, as well as in financial matters. Further consideration of the question, however, led to the discovery of a community of interests between the two fields such as forbade separation for the time being. Action in the matter was, therefore, indefinitely postponed. The Sudan Mission, while distinct and separate from the Egyptian Mission in financial matters, will continue to be otherwise subject to the Association of Missionaries in Egypt.

II. OUR MISSIONARIES.

(1) THEIR MOVEMENTS.

The following missionaries arrived in this country on furlough in the spring of 1902, and are expecting to return to their respective fields of labor this fall:

Miss Sallie E. Dickey, of India.
Miss Edith M. Fulton, of India.
Miss Minnehaha Finney, of Egypt.
Rev. David R. and Mrs. Gordon, of India.
Miss Maggie A. Smith, of Egypt.
Miss Nannie J. Spencer, of India.

The following missionaries arrived this spring and will be entitled to furlough until the fall of 1904:

Rev. J. W. and Mrs. Ballantine, of India.
Rev. Thomas J. and Mrs. Finney, of Egypt.
Rev. J. K. and Mrs. Giffen, of the Sudan.
Miss Fannie C. Martin, of India.
Rev. John A. and Mrs. McConnelee, of India.
Miss Adelle McMillan, of Egypt.

Mrs. T. L. Scott and Mrs. A. B. Caldwell, of India, continue in America, with their children. Mrs. Robert Stewart, of India, rejoined her children in America this spring, and will remain with them at least a year.

Miss Ella O. Kyle, of Egypt, who arrived this spring, expects to spend only the summer at home, returning to Egypt in the fall.

Dr. L. M. Henry, whose ill health compelled him to leave Egypt last summer, continues to improve, though very slowly. He expects to return to Egypt this fall, in company with Mrs. Henry.

Miss Jessie J. Hogg and Rev. W. L. McClenahan were married in Scotland during the summer of 1902, and then returned to Egypt to take up missionary work in Alexandria.

Miss Mary A. Platter, M.D., who returned to this country from India last spring, has presented her resignation to the Board and it has been accepted. Miss Grace Chalmers Brown, of Egypt, who arrived last fall in this country, also does not return to the mission.

On October 18 there sailed from New York, on the steamer Columbia, the largest missionary party, save one, that our Church has sent out at any one time. Of the new missionaries the following were under appointment for India:

Rev. William M. and Mrs. McKelvey.
Mis Anna M. Hamilton.
Miss Lillian A. McConnell.
Miss Emma M. Minger.
Miss Jessie P. Simpson, M.D.

Those under appointment for Egypt were:

Rev. J. Howard and Mrs. Boyd.
Miss Myra L. Boyd.
Miss Zella W. Mitchell.
Miss Marian A. Paden.
Miss Alice B. Underwood.

In company with these there were returning to India Miss Ella M. Gordon, Miss Mary A. Lawrence and Miss Rosa A. McCullough.

Rev. Ralph E. Carson, whose ill health compelled him to withdraw from the work in Egypt in 1897, found himself sufficiently restored to warrant his taking up the work again in the fall of 1902, and he and Mrs. Carson sailed for Egypt in November. They have since been appointed to Dolaib Hill, on the Sobat, where they are now stationed.

Rev. William Harvey, D.D., who reached America in July, 1901, was unable, through sickness, to return to Egypt early in the fall of 1902. He and Mrs. Harvey sailed from New York in January, 1903. He has improved further in health since his return to Egypt.

(2) DEATHS.

The death of Mrs. Sophie E. Johnson was reported to the General Assembly of 1902, although it properly comes within the compass of this year's report. Apart from this the lives of all of our missionaries in our three mission fields have been spared, and both the health and lives of their families have, on the whole, been wonderfully preserved. When we remember the visitations of plague in India and of cholera in Egypt, the dangers from fever, poisonous reptiles and accident, to which our Sudan missionaries were exposed, the faithfulness and goodness of Israel's keeper is wonderfully manifest.

In October, 1902, Margaret, the daughter of Rev. Robert and Mrs. Maxwell, was called away. A number of our missionaries have been called upon to mourn the loss of near relatives in the home land who passed away during their separation from them. To all these the Board and the Church have extended their prayerful sympathy.

(3) APPOINTMENTS TO BE RATIFIED.

In order merely to maintain the strength of our missionary force and supply vacancies created by furlough, removal and death, the appointment of a definite number of new missionaries from year to year is imperative. The Board regrets to find that of the limited number of men and women available for foreign missionary service several are prevented by considerations of health and family from accepting appointment to this work. At the present time the only names which can be presented to the General Assembly for appointment are those of Rev. H. C. Chambers, to India, and Rev. Bruce J. Giffen, to Egypt; Miss N. Belle Drake, M.D., also to Egypt, and Miss Flora J. Jameson. The General Assembly is requested to ratify the appointment of these as missionaries to the fields indicated, and to give the Board authority to send out three additional unmarried women to Egypt, three to India, a man equipped for educational work to the college at Rawal Pindi and a matron to the college at Assiut, Egypt.

III. FINANCES.

GENERAL SURVEY.

The entire amount appropriated by the General Assembly last year for carrying on the foreign missionary work was $170,595. By adding $24,000, pledged by the Women's Board, by congregations, etc., and $4,096 in hand from British sources for the Sudan Mission, we get a total of $191,995.36. By some oversight, the salary of the new Corresponding Secretary was not included among the items which are covered by the above amount. This is, therefore, added to the above amount, making a grand total of $193,995.36.

Against this unusually large amount the Treasurer's books report on April 30 receipts amounting to $184,515.78. With an unexpected economy in administration the Board was thus able to close the year with a deficit of only $5,258.38.

There have been received during the past year $31,305.31 in legacies, which is more than has ever been received from this source in a single year. Owing to the uncertainty of this source of income it is not wise for the Church to rely upon more than $21,885.73, which is the yearly average of receipts from this general source during the past ten years.

There came into the hands of the Board, upon the death of Joseph D. McKee, and through the settlement of his estate, $24,110.51, which is in full payment of the remaining principal, interest and expense of the indebtedness of Mr. McKee to the Board. The Board requests the General Assembly to grant it permission to use this amount as a foundation for the establishment of a reserve fund. It will furnish the Board, without interest, with the funds which are necessary for the carrying on of the work during those periods of the year in which the receipts fall below the amount required to defray authorized expenses.

RESERVE FUND.

Let it be clearly understood that it is not the purpose to establish an endowment fund. As the Church is aware, the authorized expenses of our work are distributed in equal proportion throughout the year, whereas the Church's contributions vary from month to month, amounting during the summer months to less than one-half of the expenses and increasing only as the end of the fiscal year approaches. During the past year fully one-fourth of the entire appropriations for the year were not received until the last month of the year. This irregularity in the receipts has to be met by the borrowing of money upon which interest has to be paid.

To save this item of expense, the Board recommends the creation of a reserve fund, to which additions shall be made from time to time of contributions received through legacies, whenever the amount of these legacies shall exceed the average of the preceding ten years. The value of such a reserve fund is evident from the economy which it will effect, as has been indicated above, and the experience of other missionary boards endorses this judgment.

The Church Missionary Society of England has a reserve fund of $300,000, which gives credit to the Board's drafts in all the markets of the world. The Presbyterian Foreign Missionary Reserve Fund now amounts to $95,550.

In the administration of the work it was found necessary this year to open an office for the Corresponding Secretary, which should serve as headquarters for the foreign missionary work, and in which might be collected the official records and correspondence of the Board. To lighten the burden of correspondence, which was shutting out more effective service in other directions, the Board authorized the engagement of a secretarial clerk, whose salary for the current fiscal year should be provided for from private sources. After five and a half months' experiment with this arrangement, the Board recommends that the expense for both office and clerical assistance be placed among the authorized expenses of administration.

ASSIGNMENT OF SPECIFIC WORK.

A great demand has arisen for the assignment of specific mission work to both individuals and congregations for support. The Board is of the opinion that the present policy of contributing to the general foreign missionary fund without limitation to specific work is the most desirable policy, involving the least burden of administration, the greatest freedom of missionary operations and giving the donor the broadest acquaintance with the entire work.

The Board is willing, however, to coöperate with individuals and congregations who think that the assignment of specific work for support will deepen their interest. To this end the Board is prepared to devise for such special cases a plan for the assignment of specific work in so far as such assignment is practicable. Preliminary to this, the Board must request the General Assembly to repeal the rule forbidding pledged funds to be recognized as a part of the appropriations, excepting in so far as that ruling applies to the Women's Board.

IV. THE APPEALS FROM INDIA AND EGYPT.

On October 29, 1902, at Sialkot, India, after a ten-day conference, characterized by earnest prayer and a deep sense of responsibility for the spiritual condition of their mission field, our India missionaries framed an appeal for 180 new missionaries. This appeal was signed by every missionary on the field.

At the annual meeting of the Egyptian Association, held at Cairo, on February 19, 1903, in the same spirit of prayer and faith which characterized the meeting in India, a similar appeal was framed, asking for the mission field of Egypt, apart from the Sudan, 280 new missionaries. No attempt was made to compass the probable needs of the undefined Sudan mission field; it was merely estimated that 25 workers will be needed in that field in the immediate future.

These appeals were forwarded to the Board and to the home Church and have been before the Church for some months. It will not be necessary to reproduce them at this point, but only to indicate the principles and facts which underlie them.

(1) Both appeals are based upon a comprehensive study of the conditions and needs of these mission fields. It is a significant fact that never before had such a comprehensive study been made by our missionary bodies.

(2) Both appeals include within their scope the territory which Providence has clearly assigned to our Church for evangelization. The needs of our undefined field in the newly-opened Sudan were not included in the request from Egypt for 280 new missionaries. The argument of the missionaries, that the responsibility of the evangelizing of these fields rests upon the United Presbyterian Church of America, cannot be gainsaid.

(3) The number of new missionaries for which appeal is made is based upon the estimate of one ordained missionary and one unmarried lady missionary for every 50,000 within the bounds of these mission fields. While we recognize that in the evangelization of nations God's ways are not our ways, and that spiritual results are neither limited to, nor commensurate with, the number of laborers sent forth, yet we must also recognize that the number of workers asked for is so small in proportion to the number to be reached, that, far from overestimating the need, we believe that these appeals have only approximated the need.

(4) The argument that the eternal welfare of the present generation demands the immediate evangelization of these fields is an argument from which there is no refuge, believing, as we do, the hopelessness of the soul which passes into eternity without Christ.

As the facts underlying the appeals of our missionaries are undeniable, the inferences which they draw as to the duty of our Church are equally irresistible. We unite with them in laying anew upon ourselves and upon the Church the full burden of responsibility for the prompt evangelization of the mission fields which Providence has given to us. We unite with the missionaries in appealing to the Church to come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty.

We ask the General Assembly to heartily endorse these appeals and to urge the Church to come forward to meet them, in keeping, of course, with the principles of that broad and sound missionary policy which past experience has vindicated.

In placing these appeals before the Church for action, the Board requests the General Assembly to call the Church's attention to the necessity for making due provision, not merely for the salary of each missionary sent out, but also for the maintenance of that work which is under his or her direction. Past experience shows that the expense of missionary operations is equal to, and even somewhat in excess of, the amount which must be provided for the missionary's salary.

Further, the Board would request the General Assembly to make specific appropriations only for the work now in hand and for the support of the new missionaries now under appointment, and that the sending out of new missionaries in response to these appeals be left to the liberality of individuals and congregations who can be found willing to pledge the support of such missionaries and their work without detracting from the support of present work.

V. ESTIMATES AND APPROPRIATIONS.

The Board recommends to the General Assembly the following appropriations for the entire foreign missionary work of the year:

Egypt	$ 87,000
India	78,000
Sudan	14,000
Salary, etc., for new missionaries	2,300
Salary of missionaries at home	7,000
Children of missionaries at home	1,800
Traveling expenses of missionaries	6,600
Outfit of missionaries	1,800
Salaries (Cor. Sec'y, $2,000; Treas., $500)	2,500
Clerical allowance (Cor. Sec'y, $600; Treas., $600)	1,200
Printing, postage, office rent, etc	3,000
Emergencies	1,500
Interest on borrowed money	1,600
Debt	5,000
	$213,300

In deciding upon the amounts quoted above, the Board gave long and prayerful consideration to the needs of the work as expressed in the estimates received from our three missions. By careful consideration the Board then sought to determine what measure of advance upon last year the liberality of our Church would seem to justify. It may prove helpful to compare the recommendations of the Board with the amounts received by our missions during the past year, and with the amounts requested by them for the coming year:

	Amount Received Last Year.	Board's Recommendation for This Year.	Mission's Estimate for This Year.
Egypt	$81,848 36	$87,000 00	$101,129 60
India	74,000 00	78,000 00	88,207 33
Sudan	5,000 00	14,000 00	16,822 50

Subsequent correspondence indicates that through an unexpected economy in one item of necessary expense the Sudan estimate is now properly $14,000. In this connection the Board draws attention to the fact that the support of our Sudan Mission now falls upon the Church in America, as the British funds, which have hitherto supported this work almost entirely, have now become exhausted. This adds the sum of $14,000 to our foreign missionary budget this year.

The total amount named by the Board is $28,784 in excess of the receipts of the past year. The Board confidently believes that it is fully within the power of the Church to provide this amount.

While unable to recommend that appropriation be made at this time to the full extent of the estimates of our missions, the Board recognizes that these estimates are prepared with conscientious conservatism and express most urgent needs of present work. The Church is, therefore, urged to put the duty of providing for the balance of these estimates in the front rank of its obligations to its missionary work, and the General Assembly is requested to authorize the Board to make an additional appropriation of $10,000 to the work in Egypt and India, in case the liberality of the Church seems to justify such a course towards the close of the current year.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS.

(1) Permanent Property. The India and Egyptian Associations, after a careful and comprehensive study of the present and prospective needs of the mission in the matter of permanent property for missionary work, drew up and forwarded to the Board detailed estimates of the cost of such property.

There is no doubt as to the advisability of securing at an early date such permanent property in order to save the exorbitant rents which are often demanded for rented property, in order to take advantage of present prices for both land and building, which in Egypt are advancing enormously from year to year in all parts of the country, and in order to deliver the work from the petty persecution of hostile landlords, the misfortune of undesirable rented quarters or the dilemma of the entire absence of proper domicile.

To the amount of this estimate the Egyptian Mission has added a further estimate for endowments necessary to the successful operation of the high schools and colleges of our Egyptian Mission.

For some time requests of this character—too large to be placed in the estimates for the current work of any single year—have been coming to the Board from our Missions. It is the judgment of the Board that separate appeals to the Church for needs of this character cannot be effectively made owing to their large number and their varied character, and that it would be best to group such appeals together and ask the Church to raise a memorial fund sufficient to cover them.

A year ago the General Assembly endorsed a more limited appeal for aggressive educational work in our mission fields, and instructed the Board to devise plans for securing the funds necessary for such work. The Board now presents to the General Assembly the plan of raising a memorial fund to provide for these and other needs. The approach of the fiftieth anniversary of our Church Union affords, in the judgment of the Board, the opportunity for launching such a movement.

(2) Charter for Assiut College. The Board is glad to report that it expects to secure, in the near future, under the laws of the State of Ohio, a charter for Assiut College.

(3) Term of Service. A year ago the General Assembly commissioned the Board of Foreign Missions, the Women's Board and the Associations of Egypt and India to consider the matter of changing the term of service of the missionaries for the second and subsequent terms and report to the next General Assembly. The Board reports this duty done, and recommends the adoption of an eight-year term, with the same furlough allowances as are now accorded. This eight-year term meets with the approval of the India Association, the Women's Board and the Board of Foreign Missions, while it is also recommended by the Egyptian Association as one of two alternatives.

(4) Jubilee of Foreign Missions. The Board would respectfully call the attention of the General Assembly to the approaching fiftieth anniversary of the etsablishment of our present foreign missionary work, the Egyptian Mission dating back to 1854 and the India Mission to 1855.

The Board is of the opinion that the close of a half century of missionary service in Egypt and India affords a splendid opportunity for strengthening the faith of the Church and deepening her interest in the cause by passing in review the progress and success of that work. Gratitude to God demands that we make mention of His goodness to us during these fifty years of foreign missionary enterprise. The proper celebration of this fiftieth anniversary of our present foreign missionary work will give to our Church a clearly defined consciousness of victory won, of progress made and of results achieved. That consciousness will, no doubt, become the foundation for further progress.

The Board, therefore, suggests to the General Assembly that a committee of nine be appointed to select a common date for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversaries of the establishment of our Egyptian and India missions, and to report to the next General Assembly plans for a suitable celebration throughout our Church of the fiftieth anniversary of our foreign missionary work.

(5) Cairo Orphanage. Mention was made last year of the efforts put forth by Friend John S. Fowler, of Winona, Ohio, to secure funds for the establishment of an orphanage in or near Cairo, Egypt. This enterprise, which has for its aim the relief of poor and blind children of Egypt, enlisted the deepest sympathy of the Board. Mr. Fowler, who is a minister of the Society of Friends, and who visited Egypt a few years ago, has given himself devotedly again this year to the work of securing the necessary funds. He has succeeded in securing altogether some $8,500, with good prospects of further contributions in the near future. It is expected that soon purchase will be actually made of land for building purposes and also for such industrial training as such an institution may require.

(6) Missionary Information. Believing that "to know the facts is the necessary condition of intelligent interest," the Board has sought to acquaint the Church with its foreign missionary work. The annual report has received wide circulation, and again the Board appeals to pastors to secure for this yearly record of the work not merely a wide circulation, but a careful reading.

Among the agencies which have served to acquaint the Church with the condition and progress of the work are such circulars as were issued by the Board during the current year, the missionary leaflets of the Women's Board, articles and letters appearing in our Church papers.

In this connection announcement is made of the preparation and issue of a new set of revised wall maps of our Egyptian and India missions, which are offered to the Church at the nominal price of $1.25.

A booklet, entitled, "Apostolic and Indian Missions Compared," has been printed by order of the India Mission. It presents four most interesting and instructive lectures by Robert Stewart, D.D. Three of these lectures were delivered at the annual meeting at Sialkot.

The Board would also commend the Mission Study Course—an educational campaign on foreign missions—which is being conducted this year among our young people, under the auspices of the Young People's Christian Union.

The young people's societies of our Church are devoting one meeting a month to a systematic and comprehensive study of our three mission fields. Much interest has already been manifested in this course of study, and a more intelligent loyalty to the cause of missions cannot fail to be the result.

(7) Annuities. The Board is glad to announce that a considerable amount of money has been contributed to the cause this year under the annuity plan, by which the Board receives varying amounts and allows to the donors during life a certain amount of interest.

(8) Trust Funds. The following special memorial funds have been established during the year:

The James Junk Fund. Being a bequest of James Junk, deceased, late of Washington, Pa. Principal, $5,000. To be invested for twenty years and interest applied to the work of the Board. At the expiration of twenty years the principal sum to be applied directly to the work.

The James S. McNary Fund. Principal, $4,750. Being a bequest of James S. McNary, deceased, late of Canonsburg, Pa. To be invested and the income used in the work of the Board.

The L. & M. E. A. Fund. Principal, $1,000. (The generous donors of this sum prefer that their names should be withheld.) To be invested and the income used for work in India.

The Ella Jane Dysart Fund. Principal, $500. Donated by her mother, Mrs. Margaret M. Dysart, St. Clairsville, Ohio. The principal to be invested and the income used in the work.

The Mary L. Pratt Memorial Fund. Principal, $300. The principal to be invested and the income used in the work.

VII. SPECIAL THANKS.

The Board is grateful to the great host of those who, by prayer and liberality, have made contribution toward the success of the foreign missionary work of the Church during the past year. Special thanks, however, are due—

1. To the Women's Board for bearing the full burden of that part of our foreign missionary work which has been committed to their care and support.

2. To Lord Cromer, representative of the British government in Egypt and the Sudan, for his appreciative mention of the work of our mission in these two countries, and for the favors which have been accorded these missions through his kindly interest and influence.

3. To the friends of the Freedmen's Missions Aid Society, through whose generosity the Sudan Mission has been established and almost wholly supported until the present time.

4. To the American Bible Society and the British and Foreign Bible Society for their helpful and harmonious coöperation with our missionaries in Egypt and the distribution of the Scriptures.

5. To the Christian Union Herald, the Christian Instructer, the Midland, the United Presbyterian and the Women's Magazine for the space and prominence given to the "Monthly Messages," missionary articles and numerous letters from the mission fields.

6. To the Board of Publication and to Rev. Robert Stewart, D.D., for permitting the reproduction of the maps of Egypt and India, respectively, in their possession for use in the annual report.

7. To Mr. Archibald Lendrum, of East Greenwich, N. Y., for his generous provision of the funds necessary for providing the theological seminary in India with proper domicile; and to Mrs. J. A. Gradle, of Topeka, Kan., who, with the late Mr. Gradle, provided the funds necessary for the Zagazig, Egypt school building.

8. To the heirs of the late Mr. George C. Christie, of East Greenwich, N. Y.; Agnes McGeoch, Wm., John and Alexander McGeoch, Jane E. Maxwell, Wm. D. Christie, Jane and Eliza Christie, Mrs. Hiram H. Parrish, Gilber and William J. Maxwell for making good to the full amount the sum of $20,000 which their brother and uncle had verbally requested should go to the Board after his death. Of this amount $14,707.24 has already been received in cash and securities have been given for the balance.

9. To the following persons who have contributed $100 or more to the foreign missionary treasury:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board of Home Missions respectfully submits to the General Assembly the report of its work for the past year. In doing so we desire, first of all, to record our devout thanksgiving to God for His blessing upon the work and upon the laborers in the Home field. By His favor a good degree of success has been achieved and great encouragement given to our Church to persevere with increased earnestness and zeal in the effort to take this land for Christ.

The workers on the field, the Home Missionaries and their noble bands of helpers in the respective stations, are deserving of commendation for their faithful and self-sacrificing labors. Many of these are enduring hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ and nearly all of them, for the sake of the work in which they are engaged, are practicing a self-denial that is known and appreciated by very few who have not had personal experience in the Home Mission field.

The Board desires, also, to express its appreciation of the interest and prayers and financial support of the Church, and thanks are due to many individuals whose timely offerings during the year greatly helped in the furtherance of the work.

During the year the Board was deprived of one of its most honored and useful members, Dr. W. J. Reid, who entered into rest September 22d, 1902. His wisdom and experience and interest in the Home Mission work made him a valuable counsellor, and he will be greatly missed by the Board and by all who have a part in this important work. He was the first Corresponding Secretary of the Board, and served as such with acceptance and ability until 1872, when he resigned the office. Upon his resignation he was elected a member of the Board, and continued in that relation until his death.

In view of the growing interest in missions in general and the demands and opportunities for the enlargement of our Church's work on all sides, the Board feels that it is fitting, before presenting the formal statement of its work for the past year, that a brief statement should be made to the General Committee of Home Missions and the General Assembly, of the extraordinary needs and opportunities that confront our Church in what is recognized as the Home Mission field.

The Board recognizes that the amount of money to be expended in this work from year to year, and, therefore, the number of missionaries to be called into the field, are matters to be determined entirely by the General Assembly.

Without undertaking to say what can reasonably and hopefully be expected of the Church, or what the Assembly should require of it for the coming year, attention is hereby called to the fact that a careful review of the present situation shows that at least 350 more missionaries could be assigned to important and needy posts of labor in this country where our Church would have good prospects of success, if the workers and the funds for their support were available.

Exclusive of the large section which is regarded as the field of our sister Church, the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, in 10 of the States and Territories we have no churches. Within the region just referred to there are 266 cities of 10,000 inhabitants and upwards in which we have no existence as a denomination. In each of 30 cities of 25,000 population or more we have only one church, in each of 21 others of the same class we have but two congregations.

In the vast and new sections of the Northwest and Southwest, and in the Pacific coast country, that are having a phenomenal growth of population by immigration, especially from the central and western portions of the country, there are at least 600 communities, more or less populous, that are absolutely destitute of churches and the Gospel.

The dense ignorance, the depravity and godlessness of 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 White mountaineers, in the South appeal to the Churches of this land for the Word of life.

The presence of some 12,000,000 foreigners in this country, thousands of them illiterate, vicious and practically without any religion, a considerable number from heathen lands, presents still another appeal for more extended evangelistic work. Waiting for the Gospel, also, are Alaska, Cuba and Porto Rico.

What part of the stupendous work that lies before the Churches of this land God intends our Church to do, and what part it shall be asked to do, are questions of tremendous importance and seriousness which the next General Committee of Home Missions and General Assembly will have to face.

The Board stands ready to do the bidding of Christ and of the Church to the utmost of its ability.

The present condition of our Home Mission work is very prosperous and the outlook for the future is most encouraging. The following report gives the main facts with regard to the work during the past year:

I. CONDITION AND PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

	1901.	1902.	1903.
Stations granted aid, year ending March 31	208	229	241
Presbyteries represented	57	58	59

Increase by Profession	1,250	1,524	1,512
Increase by Certificate	1,451	1,581	1,661
Decrease	1,307	1,491	1,480
Net gain	1,394	1,614	1,693
Increase by Profession, per cent	7.3	8.3	8.
Net gain, per cent	8.1	9.	9.
Teachers in Sabbath Schools	2,008	1,954	2,152
Scholars in Sabbath Schools	23,517	23,130	24,398

Contributions to the Boards	$20,272	$24,822	$ 23,126
For Salary of Pastors and Supplies	90,693	95,112	92,360
Without church buildings	19	19	30
Stations with preaching full time	184	185	216
Settled Pastors	123	144	104
Stations served by settled pastors	130	150	111
Stations granted aid, year ending June 30	222	239	248
Appropriations, including grants by Board	$88,478	$88,706	$102,822
Payments to Presbyteries	79,659	82,014	87,748
Entire expenditures, year ending March 31	82,585	96,385	94,982

The foregoing figures show an increase by profession of 1,512 and a net gain in membership of 1,693. The Sabbath schools had a good increase in the number of teachers and scholars.

The contributions of the missions themselves indicate noble effort and self-denial on their part. As has already been noted, they gave toward the support of their ministers $92,360 and for the general work in the care of the different Boards $23,126.

During the year 18 congregations became self-supporting, viz.: Buffalo Second and Westminster, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Coraoplis, Homestead, Kittanning, Pittsburgh Thirteenth and Pittsburgh Thirty-third street, Pa.; Clarion and Winfield, Ia.; Columbus First, O.; Fowler and Los Angeles First, Cal.; Kansas City First, Mo.; Lawrence, Kans.; Pawnee Second, Neb.; Rushville, Ind.; Spokane First, Wash.

The Board gave special attention and encouragement to new work, and to this end coöperated with presbyteries in exploring prospective fields.

During the year thirty-one new missions were established, and in all of them, except two, work has been regularly and successfully begun. These stations are widely distributed throughout the country and have been established in important and promising places, as the following list will show: In New York—East Brooklyn, Schenectady and South Park, Buffalo; Pennsylvania—Westminster (Philadelphia), Clairton, Donora, Monessen, Rennerdale, South Monaca, Swissvale, West Pittsburgh and Woodville; West Virginia—Moundsville and Parkersburg; Ohio—Trenton; Iillinois—East St. Louis; Iowa—Grinnell, Prescott and Waterloo; Missouri—Gibson Heights (St. Louis); Colorado—Fort Morgan; Oklahoma—Hobart; Idaho—Southwick; Oregon—Kent and Ontario; Washington—Spokane Second, East Side, Tacoma, Green Lake (Seattle), Mt. Vernon and Fletcher; California—Redlands.

Scores of other and equally inviting fields in all parts of the country are open to our Church and should be promptly entered.

II. GRANTS BY THE BOARD.

CASES REFERRED.

The cases referred to presbyteries and the Board by the last General Committee and Assembly were acted on as follows:

Caledonia—Buffalo, South Park, $500, granted; Detroit—Donaldson, $100, granted, Stevensburg, $100, granted; New York—East Brooklyn, $1,100, granted.

EMERGENCIES.

To meet emergencies that occurred during the year the following grants were made:

Albany—Schenectady, $1,100; Arkansas Valley,—Roosevelt, and con., $500, additional, Stafford, $75, additional, exploring, Phœnix, Ariz., $100; Cedar Rapids—Fairfax, $75; Chartiers—Donora, $950; Concordia—Investigating Concordia, $100; Des Moines—Grinnell, $400, additional; Detroit—Detroit First, $80, additional; Frankfort—South Monaca, $1,000; Illinois

III. SPECIAL MISSIONS.

During the year 24 stations have been in the care of the Board as special missions. In nearly all of these stations the work has gone forward with a good degree of success. To as many of these as continue in the list beyond the present year the Board has made grants and appointed, or will appoint, ministers. In the list which follows appear the names of these stations and the grants made to them for the coming year.

The cases of those whose term expires this year will go directly to the General Committee.

IV. THE WORK OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY BOARD AND THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

For several years the Women's Board has rendered valuable assistantce in our Home Mission work. The following statement, which was kindly furnished us for publication, shows what was done the past year:

Warm Springs Indian Mission, salaries and general expenses, $3,279.80; women missionaries in Seattle, Tacoma, Whatcom, Portland, Ore., Detroit, Cincinnati, Bloomington, Ind., Good Hope Mission and Italian Mission, Pittsburgh, salaries and traveling expenses, $3,409.27; donations, $2,250; designated money, $346.

The Board of Publication during the year made grants of Bibles, Psalm Books, Bible Songs, Psalters and Sabbath School supplies to 101 Home Mission stations. The grants, aggregating $2,069.55, were a great help to the missions that received them.

V. THE SLIDING SCALE AND FIFTEEN-YEAR LIMIT RULES.

In the earlier years of most of the missions a large measure of financial aid is obviously needed, and is cheerfully given, but the spirit and habit of dependence becomes confirmed in so many that the Church found it necessary to adopt rules to meet the cases of congregations that have received aid for a long time and that are not disposed to contribute as they should to the salary of their ministers. Now and then a congregation exerts itself to do its full duty in this respect, but such instances are very rare. Provision being made for exceptional cases, the Board believes the enforcement of the rules by presbyteries and by the General Committee should be insisted upon for the good of the congregations directly involved and for the welfare of the whole work. For the coming year 90 congregations, forty per cent. of all applying, ask exemption from the sliding scale rule and 87 seek exemption from the fifteen-year limit.

Nearly all the Sabbath schools contributing to this work sent their offerings through the Financial Agent of presbytery. In only a few instances were these offerings separately designated or sent directly to our treasurer. This report, therefore, shows only a small part of the receipts from that source.

The receipts from presbyteries were $1,800 more than last year and from all ordinary sources $2,331. The receipts from legacies were unusually large, $24,666.33. Several stations to which large grants were made were not able to comply with conditions for the whole time or began work late in the year, and therefore received only a part of the appropriations made to them. This, together with the small balance from last year, accounts for the balance on hand, $5,154.53.

For the coming year much more will be needed than was appropriated for last year and vastly more than was received from the sources that are to be relied upon for the support of this work.

The appropriation last year was $103,000. In order that the work already undertaken may be properly supported, and its extension continued as conditions demand, an increase of 50 per cent. over the appropriation for last year would be a reasonable sum to devote to this work upon which depend the future strength and usefulness of our Church at home and abroad. With the cry of the watchmen upon the walls of Zion ringing in our ears, the appeals coming up from hundreds of needy and destitute places and the direct command of God to go forward, the time has come for a heroic advance.

VII. THE COMING YEAR.

Sixty-one presbyteries have sent in their annual reports to the Board; 57 of these present requests for aid for 237 stations. The total amount called for by these applications is $110,076. This sum will doubtless be considerably increased by some applications that have been delayed and by others that are indefinite as to the amount required.

The A. R. Church of the South makes request for aid for four coöperative missions.

There are 15 requests for grants for strictly new work. The aggregate amount thus applied for is $10,250. Four hundred dollars is asked for by two old congregations applying for aid for the first time.

The term of service of Rev. J. G. Brown, D.D., George M. Paden, Esq., and Rev. W. W. Lawrence, who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. W. J. Reid, will expire June 30th, 1903.

J. P. McKinney, Esq., was chosen by the Board during the year to succeed H. W. McKee, Esq., who resigned on account of inability to attend the meetings of the Board. The General Assembly is asked to ratify the action of the Board in these two cases.

The statistical table of the mission congregations and the report of the treasurer, which has been audited as required, are submitted herewith.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 11th, 1903.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The forty-fourth annual meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions was held in College Springs, Iowa, May 20-27, 1903. With the exception of Sidney, all the presbyteries in America and the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension were represented by delegates.

Rev. J. C. Scouller, D.D., of Philadelphia Presbytery, was elected chairman; Rev. S. J. Shaw, of Los Angeles Presbytery, was elected recording secretary, and Rev. M. E. Dunn, of Spokane Presbytery, was chosen assistant secretary.

Applications aggregating $115,960 were presented by 58 presbyteries for aid for 248 stations.

There were 24 applications for grants for strictly new work, aggregating $15,750. One old congregation, applying for the first time, asked for $300.

Realizing that this work is the basis of the future strength of all the work of our Church at home and abroad, and in view of the large amount called for by the presbyteries for the coming year, and the extraordinary openings for our Church in so many needy and promising places in all parts of the country, the committee entered upon its work with a profound sense of responsibility. Each case was given careful consideration, and in making the appropriations the constant aim was to distribute the money contributed by the Church for home missions in such a way as to accomplish the best results in the great work of maintaining and extending the cause of Christ in our own land.

In the following report is set forth the result of the deliberations of the committee. Appropriations are recommended as follows: For special missions in the care of the Board, $12,735; for other stations aided in former years, $76,652; for new work, $15,750; to the Board to be used during the year to meet emergencies that may arise and to provide for the support of new missions that may be taken up before the next meeting of the General Committee, $15,000. The total amount recommended to be granted is $120,137.

This sum is considerably larger than the amount appropriated to this work in former years, but the General Committee feels that it is the very least the Church should be asked to contribute for home missions during the coming year. Vastly more is needed to enable our Church to enter the hundreds of fields to which our divine Lord is directing our attention as already white for the harvest. Realizing and cordially appreciating the needs of all other lines of missionary work, and desiring for them a just and full share of support, the amount asked for this work was agreed upon after a week of earnest and prayerful deliberation. We submit our report in the belief that we have been guided by the Spirit of God in the work committed to us, and with the prayer that by the same Spirit it may be commended to the General Assembly and the whole Church.

I. AID GRANTED.

The following characters are used to express conditions upon which appropriations are made: p. s., continuance of existing pastoral settlement; s. settlement to be effected. In all other cases the condition is stated supply, unless something different is expressly indicated. A fraction after the appropriation shows the amount of time to be taken, as ½ or 2/3. When no figures are used the grant is for full time. In designating the grants the dollar sign is omitted.

II. SPECIAL AND NEW WORK.

1. Special Missions. The term of nine stations as special missions expires this year, viz.: Alliance, Altoona, Dubois, Olympia, Portland (Grand Ave.), Pueblo, Seattle (First), Springfield, Waitsburg. Alliance, Olympia, Pueblo, Sioux City, South Omaha, Springfield, Mo., and Waitsburg asked to be continued for another term. These requests, with the exception of South Omaha, were granted and the appropriations made to the stations appear in the general list of grants. Manhattan, Worcester and York were made special missions.

2. First Grant. The following is a list of stations that are granted aid for the first time. The amount and conditions in each case are given in the regular list of appropriations: Allegheny, Leetsdale; Arkansas Valley, Hutchinson, Oklahoma City; Concordia, Manhattan; Conemaugh, Altoona, Second; Illinois Southern, Hopewell; Iowa Northwestern, Exploring; Monmouth, Gladstone, Kewanee; Monongahela, McKees Rocks; Muskingum, Byesville, Lancaster; Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Baltimore Ave.; Pittsburg, Pond; Spokane, Spokane, Third; Steubenville, Piney Fork and connection; Wisconsin, Corless, West Allis.

III. GENERAL.

Resolutions and recommendations were adopted as follows:

1. That we express our gratitude to God for His blessing on our home mission work and also on the sessions of this committee.

2. That we make grateful acknowledgment of the efficient work of the Board of Home Missions, and especially of its faithful secretary, Alexander Gilchrist, D.D.

3. That we urge upon our congregations and pastors more careful consideration of the very important fact that applications for new work are multiplying and indicate a becoming zeal in extending the work of our Church. Hence congregations that are receiving aid should make greater effort to lessen their calls for continued aid, and thereby not only benefit themselves by enlarged gifts, but at the same time do a real missionary work in behalf of other needy fields.

4. Further, that in reporting attendance at this committee to his presbytery, each delegate request the presbytery to consider two things:

(1) New fields of work in the bounds of the presbytery.

(2) Help for the future must depend upon, and will be in proportion to, the vigorous work done.

5. That the suggestion of volunteer service in the home field, which was endorsed by the last General Assembly, be again commended to the attention of the Board of Home Missions and theological students and young men of the ministry.

6. That the treasurer of the General Assembly pay J. R. S. Hawthorne, janitor of the church at College Springs, Ia., ten dollars for services rendered during the session of this committee.

ALEXANDER GILCHRIST, Secretary.
J. C. SCOULLER, Chairman.
S. J. SHAW, Recording Secretary.
M. E. DUNN, Assistant Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

TO THE ASSEMBLY, TO MEET AT TARKIO, MO., MAY 27, 1903, the Board of Freedmen's Missions presents its fortieth annual report.

Your Board, in presenting this its fortieth annual report to the General Assembly, wishes to express its gratitude to God for His blessing which He has made to rest upon the workers and the work under its care; and also to tender its thanks to the whole United Presbyterian Church for her response to the needs of the missions under its supervision.

THE BOARD.

The Board held twelve regular meetings, and special meetings when emergencies arising made it necessary. The attendance of the members and the interest shown in all that related to the well-being of the missions, testify to the earnest devotion of the members to the responsible trust committed to them by the General Assembly. The lives of the members have been spared, and they have given many hours each month to the careful superintendence of the work; the busines men unselfishly leaving their business and personal interests and the ministers laying aside their pastoral duties to study and plan and pray for the uplifting and the salvation of the Freedmen.

THE WORKERS.

The number of missionaries employed by the Board is 105. We are called upon to record the death of Mrs. Anna B. Cook, wife of Rev. J. L. Cook, principal of the Henderson Normal Institute, which occurred February 9, 1903, leaving a babe only a few hours' old. Mrs. Cook was principal of the Training School Department. We bear willing, cheerful testimony to her noble Christian life and to the faithfulness and unusual ability and skill with which she managed her department. She was one of our most efficient and valued teachers and missionaries. Her place will be hard to fill. Her husband, Rev. Jacob L. Cook, has suffered a very serious breakdown of his physical health. This was occasioned by the great sorrow that came upon him and by overwork as principal of the Institute and pastor of the congregation. He has been laid aside from all work for several weeks. We pray that his useful life may be spared.

Prof. R. J. Love was also forced to retire from his position as principal of the Normal Department of Knoxville College, about the 1st of January. He was granted leave of absence by the Board for the rest of the year. A constant service for ten years, with no loss of time or space for rest, other than the ordinary vacations between the terms of school, told upon his nervous system so seriously that a long rest was absolutely necessary that his useful life should be saved to the work. We are glad to report that he is rapidly regaining his strength. The lives, and, in large measure, the health of all the other workers have been preserved.

THE FIELD.

But little change has been made in the field of our missionary operations. The fifteen missions reported last year have been in active and encouraging operation during the year, although in some with a smaller corps of workers than formerly, owing to severe financial conditions. One new mission was established late in the autumn of 1902. It is known as KIMBROUGH, and is an addition to the Alabama group in the Black Belt. The people of the vicinity earnestly petitioned for the opening of a mission, and emphasized their petition by tendering to the Board, in fee, ten acres of land, on which they had erected a school house containing two rooms. The petition was granted and the school opened with one teacher, Miss Janie Upton. The attendance soon outgrew the capacity of the one room, and an assistant was appointed. The salaries of the two teachers are $35 and $15 per month, respectively. A Sabbath school was maintained with an enrollment of 115. The field is very promising.

We have now 16 stations. The total enrollment of the day schools is 3,678. We have 11 congregations, Cleveland having completed its organization by the election of two elders recently. There are five unorganized missions, a total church membership of 852, being a net increase of 32 for the year. The total enrollment of the 19 Sabbath schools is 4,041, and the total contributions of these congregations and missions are $3,948, an average of $4.65 per member. This total is $11 less than the contributions of last year. Hard times "came knocking at the cabin door" of the people composing the membership in the Alabama group, having suffered an almost total failure of their principal staple crops for two years in succession.

THE SITUATION.

During the year the condition of the work was laid before the Church from time to time. Its encouraging aspects were exhibited and the difficult problem of how the work was to be supported was frequently discussed. The first months of the fiscal year were better than those in a later period, when the missions were all at work in every department with a full corps of workers. February and March are the months in which the expense of the work is usually the largest. In these months this year the balance from February and the treasurer's receipts for March were less than $1,200, while the expenses for the same time were only a little lss than $10,000. More than once, as the Board sat around the table in the place of meeting, almost paralyzed by the sad report of the treasurer, the expedient of closing the schools and recalling the missionaries was suggested, and at every meeting prayer was made for deliverance to come from some quarter.

The last month, April, brought a goodly sum into the treasury. A response and remittance were received from every presbytery in the Church except two, one in the far east and the other on the Pacific slope. From the latter a remittance has been received since the treasurer's books were closed and credited to the new year. The total contributions received from all regular sources for the year are $38,388.93, or 70 per cent. of the appropriation made by the last Assembly. The receipts from legacies and other sources raised the amount to the grand total of $56,800.74, which enabled the Board to meet all the expenses of the work for the year and to reduce the indebtedness reported last year from $25,352.77 to $18,400, which is the debt we are required to report as still resting on the Board.

While regretting exceedingly that we are not able to report the indebtedness all paid, we are thankful that the burden has been lifted in part, and we take this as a proof that this part of the Church's work is still dear to her heart and a pledge that henceforth it is to receive the support and encouragement which its importance demands.

A DETAILED STATEMENT OF THE WORK.

The following statement, as compiled from the annual reports of the principals in charge of the different missions of the Board, is presented for your careful and prayerful perusal and consideration:

KNOXVILLE COLLEGE AND SUB-STATIONS.

Eleven sub-stations, the head of which is Knoxville College, are grouped together. They are located in Alabama and Tennessee. The teachers are all supplied from Knoxville. The monthly reports are made to the Board through the President of Knoxville College, who has direct oversight of the missions. The workers in these various stations meet together once a year at the college, in connection with the Summer Bible School. Thus this group of missions is held together by very strong ties. Amid many difficulties the year has noted much progress. All the principals report that this has been a good year. The failure of crops through two successive years, in Alabama, has added difficulty to the work in those missions.

There is evidenced all the time a larger effort on the part of the people to help themselves. The last two missions that have been opened up have begun work on property that has been provided by the people and deeded to the Board. Several of the congregations have paid part of their pastors' salaries, and all have contributed more or less to the Boards of the Church. There is a growing tendency, on the part of the stations, to help themselves and a desire to show their appreciation of what has been done for them by meeting their own expenses as far as possible. It is noteworthy that from communities in proximity to our missions requests have come that the Board open up stations among them, on condition that they themselves provide the buildings.

Knoxville College.—The past year has been in every respect a good one. The enrollment reached 407. The students have come from 18 States and some from beyond the States. There has been no serious interruption in the work of the college throughout the year. The health of the workers, with one exception has been good. Dr. R. J. Love, principal of the Normal Department, was compelled, the first of January, to give up his work for the rest of the year. He is much improved, and confidently expects to take up his work in the fall with vigor. The principal of the Training School, Miss E. Belle Kerr, was compelled to leave in February by the serious illness of her mother. Her place was temporarily filled.

Financial.—Knoxville College has no endowment. An appropriation of $5,000 was received during the past year from the government, through the University of Tennessee, with which our Industrial Department is connected.

Religious Work.—All the services in connection with a regularly organized congregation are carried on. The religious activity has been marked; all the congregations have done good work. Miss Jennie McCahon, as missionary, is a faithful and untiring worker. The students are required to attend all the religious services, and, in addition, there is a good attendance from the city. The college Sabbath school has an enrollment of 276, with an average attendance of 188. The number of accessions to our church during the year was 28. A large number of others have accepted Christ and joined other churches.

Industrial.—The Department of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts was created in 1891 by the University of Tennessee. By a contract between the University and Knoxville College it was agreed that the University should make annual appropriations to the support of the Industrial Department, as might be necessary, and the College should provide all buildings and the necessary instruction in the strictly literary branches. The Board of Trustees of the University makes such appropriations from year to year as are necessary to maintain the department. The amount of $5,000 has been given for the year 1902-3.

The relation with the college enables the students of the Industrial Department to obtain, without extra charge, all the advantages of the Literary Department, and in like manner the college students have the advantage of the Industrial Department.

Departments.—The Industrial Departments include Agriculture, Carpentering, Printing, Sewing, Cooking, Electrical work, Brickmaking, Baking and incidentally a great deal connected with other trades.

Agricultural Department.—The college grounds consist of 45 acres. The college owns a farm of 63 acres a few miles away. In addition to this the college has leased an adjoining farm for five years, making in all 135 acres in charge of this department. Small crops are raised for the most part, thus giving the students training in making the largest yield off a small acreage. Stock of various kinds is raised. With the aid of a foreman all the work on the farm is done by the students, under the direction of the professor in charge.

A well equipped dairy, with a large barn, with basement, cow stable, silos, creamery with separator and other apparatus afford opportunity for the thorough teaching of this important industry.

Instruction is given in poultry raising, which is carried on quite extensively.

A well arranged greenhouse affords facilities for winter vegetable raising and floriculture.

Mechanical Course.—The industrial building is equipped with a 25 horsepower engine, a dynamo capable of lighting 250 lamps of 16 candle power, a circular saw, lathes and work benches, with outfits of tools for work in wood. Students in this department pursue a regular course in wood work, iron and mechanical drawing. They are under the direction of a competent instructor and produce articles to be sold at the market price. They are made familiar with the use of tools and are taught how to care for them and how to keep them in order.

Printing.—The facilities for becoming acquainted with the business of printing are good. A large cylinder press, run by steam, does the heavier work, such as catalogues and newspapers, while a job press turns out programs, letter heads, bill heads, circulars, posters, etc., to meet the demands of trade. The work is under the direction of a practical printer, who teaches all the phases of printing office work.

Brickmaking.—A brick-yard is maintained, in which the students desiring to remain during the summer may improve their vacation both in learning the trade and earning expenses for th next year. Rbout 400,000 brick were made last summer.

Dressmaking—One large room is devoted exclusively to dressmaking. A lady of practical experience superintends the work. Opportunity is given to students to acquire skill in cutting and fitting, provided they have had sufficient practice in the use of the needle. Persons who are not students in the college may take lessons by paying the same tuition as in the Literary Department.

Sewing.—Lessons are given daily in plain sewing to all the girls in classes from the Second Primary Year to the Eighth Year Training, inclusive. Lessons in dressmaking are given daily to all the girls in the Normal and Collegiate departments.

Domestic Science.—In addition to the regular cooking for the boarding department, all of which is done by the students, under the direction of a superintendent, special instruction is given in a course of scientific cooking.

Students are taught the chemistry of foods, and the principles of cooking are illustrated by the preparation of the common typical foods, the aim being to teach their preparation in the most digestible and appetizing forms, and along lines of rigid economy.

Under the direction of this department a large oven does the baking for all the boarders, about 800 loaves a week being turned out.

ATHENS, TENN.

The year has been a prosperous one at this station. They are well equipped with buildings, the neat brick church building having been erected by the Sabbath schools of the Church about ten years ago. This is the only one of the Tennessee or Alabama missions that has a separate building for church services. The enrollment of the day school reached 158 and the Sabbath school 105. The various organizations of the Church—Young People's Society, Women's Missionary Society and Junior organizations—have been maintained in a healthy condition. Rev. J. T. Arter is pastor and principal.

CLEVELAND, TENN.

The year's work has been marked by a steady growth under the direction of Rev. J. A. Cotton, who began the work at this station four years ago. One year ago a lot with a saloon on it was purchased. The building was moved to a more convenient part of the lot, an addition put to it and this has been used for school until a better structure can be secured. Thus the notrious "Forked Lightning Saloon" has been transformed into one of the most useful institutions in the town of Cleveland. The congregation has been organized within the year and elders elected. There has been a healthy increase both in membership and efficiency. The enrollment of the day school has been 85 and of the Sabbath school 100.

BRISTOL, TENN.

Bristol is the most northern of the Tennessee missions, being on the border line between Tennessee and Virginia. The second year in the new property, with its splendid brick buildings, at Bristol, has been characterized by a marked growth. Through liberal gifts of Major A. D. Reynolds and other citizens of Bristol, the Board was encouraged to establish the plant in 1900. The growing interest and increase in numbers have justified their course. The enrollment in the day school has been 195 and that of the Sabbath school has been 81. Rev. Frank W. Woodfin is pastor and principal of the mission.

RICEVILLE, TENN.

The youngest of the Tennessee missions is Riceville, in charge of Rev. J. H. Tarter, with two assistants. The school is located in the village, and draws on the surrounding country, which has a large colored population. The work is very highly thought of by all the people in the community.

A sewing department was begun for the first this year, in connection with the work, which has greatly prospered. The school enrolled 87, while the Sabbath school and church have an enrollment of about 75.

MILLER'S FERRY, ALA.

This oldest mission of the Alabama stations has had a good year. The industrial feature has been more largely developed in this station than in any of the others. In addition to the sewing department a teacher in cooking and laundering has made quite a success of these departments. A printing office, in which the "Black Belt Missionary" is published, together with other job work, has been in existence two years. A carpenter shop was opened this year and has proved a success. Besides giving $100 to the Boards of the Church, the people contributed $175 to the pastor's salary. Dormitories for both girls and boys add to the efficiency of the plant. Rev. C. H. Johnson is pastor and principal.

PRAIRIE, ALA.

Rev. J. E. James is pastor and principal of the work at Prairie. The work at this station has an added feature of a farm of over 700 acres, which is owned and controlled by the Women's Board, under the superintendency of

Mr. N. B. Cotton. Arrangements have been made for dividing up the place into small farms, to be sold out on such terms that the people may provide themselves homes. During the year, through friends in the Second Synod, they were enabled to purchase an old church building which stands near the school buildings. This building will be converted into a dormitory for girls as soon as necessary means are secured. The partial failure of crops in Alabama for two years has materially decreased the attendance at all the stations in Alabama. The day school enrollment has reached 202, while the Sabbath school has enrolled 137.

CAMDEN, ALA.

Rev. E. K. Smith has charge of this station, located in the county seat of Wilcox county, with a population of 35,000, of which only 7,000 are white. The other Alabama stations are in rural districts. The results of the year's work have been good. The enrollment of the day school has reached 252. The hard times have caused the migration of a large number of people to the large cities. This tells heavily on the net gain of church membership. Camden is rejoicing in the anticipation of a commodious girls' dormitory, a memorial to the late Miss Mary Carson, of the Sixth church, Pittsburgh, Pa., given by her father. The building will be erected during the summer.

CANTON BEND, ALA.

Prof. J. N. Cotton is the principal of this place. He is a ruling elder and conducts all the religious services of the congregation, except two preaching services each month by Rev. E. K. Smith, of Camden. Though the school is not a large one, it has made a deep impression on the community and is highly respected by the white citizens as well as the colored.

MIDWAY, ALA.

The second year of this station has accomplished all that had been hoped for it. Prof. T. R. Robinson is principal, and has had no assistance but that of Mrs. Robinson, who has voluntarily taught regularly through the year. The people provided, two years ago, ten acres of land and the school building. The school is located in a very needy portion of the Black Belt. The enrollment has been 102, while the Sabbath school and church have an average attendance of about 75.

KIMBROUGH, ALA.

A petition came to the Board one year ago, from both colored and white citizens of this place, for the opening of a school, pledging themselves to provide land and building, as had been done at Midway. The proposition was accepted and the school has been conducted with Miss Janie Upton as principal. The outlook is very promising. Sabbath school has been maintained regularly and preaching services will be provided for soon. The enrollment of the day school reached 172, while the Sabbath school reached 115.

CHASE CITY, VA.

This, the oldest of the more eastern group of missions, has enjoyed a good year. Under the efficient leadership and wise management of Dr. Moore a strong and faithful corps of teachers have, through much labor, kept this mission in the front rank for efficiency and success. The Sabbath school enrolled 335, maintaining an average attendance of 187 for the whole year and 202 for the school term. The secular, or day school, enrolled 332, with a monthly average enrollment of 229 and a monthy average attendance of 185. The congregation has the largest membership of any of the missions, this year reporting 178, with an accession of 12 during the year on profession of their faith. Their total contributions were $428.

THE WORK.

(1) Religious Work.

All the services in connection with a regularly organized congregation have been carried on during the entire year. The regular Sabbath services, consisting of sermon and Sabbath school, were held each Sabbath and were well attended, the highest average attendance for any one month being 243, the lowest, 118. The average for the entire school year was 202.

The interest in the weekly prayer meeting and the Young People's Christian Union has been equal to that of former years. Unusual interest has been manifest in the semi-monthly open meetings of the Young People's Missionary Society. The programs were arranged with a view to the giving of information as to the work actually being done by the various Mission Boards of the Church. Several meetings were devoted to each Board. In the discussion of the work among the Freedmen a special effort was made to impress the responsibility of the Freedmen themselves in relation to the work, and the importance, not only of their coöperation, but also of their effort to do something for themselves. Special emphasis was placed on the fact that the Church was supporting these missions, not merely to benefit those directly reached, but that these might be fitted to benefit the needy thousands of Freedmen whom the Church cannot directly reach.

The temperance work, organized last year, was continued throughout the entire school year with encouraging results.

(2) Industrial Work.

(a) The number of students in the Girls' Industrial Home and Boys' Cottage surpassed that of any former year, there being 30 girls in the Home and 17 boys in the Cottage. If all return next year who have said they would, and others come who have notified me of their intention to do so, there will not be room for them in the Cottage. It is becoming known that young men can earn part of their expenses by work on the mission farm. Some of the best young men in the Cottage this year would not have been here but for the fact that they could work out part of their expenses. The indications are that we will not be able to accommodate all who want to come next year.

(b) Sewing Department.—The work in this department has always interested the students who are enrolled in the sewing school. The number enrolled for the year is 152; articles made, 773; yards material used, 1,539. The department has been self-sustaining, with a balance in treasury, April 1, of $43.96.

(c) Domestic Science.—This department was opened in November, 1902. About 100 girls were given instruction in plain and fancy cooking. Great interest has been awakened, and we expect that much good will result. The work has not been self-sustaining, but we hope by the adoption of a different system next year to greatly reduce expenses and make it practically self-sustaining.

BLUESTONE, VA.

Prof. W. G. Wilson has been in charge of this mission for the last two years, and the work has prospered under his wise and faithful management. Despite the fact that many have removed from the neighborhood, the school has maintained an enrollment of 136 and the Sabbath school of 215. The membership of the congregation stands at 50, and besides paying all their own expenses last year contributed $50 to the Boards of the Church. Prof. Wilson is a classical graduate of Lincoln University, has been studying theology under the tuition of Dr. J. Mac Moore for some time, and expects to be ordained to the gospel ministry in June, prox.

NORFOLK, VA.

This has been a successful year in this mission, both in the numbers that have been instructed and in the interest manifested by all. The grand total of those who have been instructed in all departments is 1,252. The number of those in the school alone is 724, with an average attendance of 604. The work has enlarged beyond the power and endurance of the teachers. A submission, in a most needy and destitute part of the city, where parents and children are most anxious for a school, had to be given up, after an interesting session of some months, because the teachers were not able to take on this additional labor. The school and Sabbath school are under the supervision of a member of the congregation, but she had to get teachers who are not of our Church, because of the locality and distance and added labors.

The congregation has manifested more activity and interest. The members are very anxious for a church building, and although some of them have need of assistance and none are wealthy, they have raised this year $542.60, or 171 per cent. of their quota. In addition to this sum the Sabbath school has raised $270.60, or in all, $813.20. A large part of the congregation's contribution and $29.70 of the Sabbath school's were for the building of their church. Thirteen members have been added to the congregation. Nine of these received the sacrament of baptism. Six others have expressed an intention of uniting with the church shortly. A few who applied for membership were admonished to study more carefully the requirements and obligations of a member of the church.

Three members have died during the year, one of which was an elder and the clerk of session and a very useful man. Six names have been dropped from the roll. Among those recently received were some of the best students in the school and some of the most intelligent and prosperous colored people of the city.

Work on the church building has begun and will continue till the house is completed, if God wills. When completed it will be a strong temperance power in the community. According to law a number of saloons of the worst character, that have defied all attempts at their suppression, will have to move at least five hundred yards away, and one of the worst corners in the city will become quiet and safe.

Religious instruction is given in the school by the study of the Bible, the International Sabbath School Lessons, the Catechism and by personal instruction in divine things. Seven prayer meetings are held each Wednesday afternoon in the several rooms. The students take an active part in reading, praying and speaking on the topic.

The congregational prayer meeting is well attended.

The Women's Missionary Society meets the first Thursday of each month. The meetings are well attended and a good degree of interest is manifested. Seventy-two dollars has been contributed to the various work of the Church.

The Y. P. C. U. meets every Sabbath morning for prayer and conference, once a month for business and every other month for social entertainment. The work of the society is carried on mainly through its committees. The society agreed to raise $100 for the church building fund, each committee to raise $10 in whatever way it might elect. One of the committees raised $15, another $20.10, and all did well. The total amount raised for the year is $162. Hundreds of United Presbyterians, Christian Instructors, Midlands and the Sabbath school literature are distributed to the needy. The Quarterlies are returned at the close of each quarter and are sent to Sabbath schools in the country, which are glad to receive them.

Industrial.—In the sewing department there are 283 girls and one boy; 314 articles of clothing were made out of 873½ yards of cloth. The girls are classified according to proficiency. Each girl is required to learn to do all plain sewing, after which she is taught fancy needlework. Thus they are able to brighten up their own homes, and many make quite a sum of money by the sale of such articles. Each girl, before she is allowed to graduate, must be able to plan, cut, fit and make all her own clothes, and especially her graduating dress.

Domestic Science.—Two hundred and nine girls received instruction in this department. Here are seven grades, with an average of 29 in a class.

The primary object of this department is not to supply families with cooks, but to make teachers who will go out among their own people and instruct them in the art of economically and tastefully preparing the meals in their own homes. This is a work that is badly needed. We have not been able to supply the demand for such teaching.

Printing.—The work here is done largely by the students, with a foreman printer. Mrs. McKirahan does the proof-reading and correcting of manuscripts, a work she has been doing for seven years. Besides the "Bulletin" and all necessary printing for the school, enough job work is done to pay all the running expenses and to purchase additional equipment. More work came to us than we could do. Twenty-six young men and two young ladies received instruction in printing. Reporters are appointed in each class room to prepare articles of information for the college papers. These receive instruction in the methods of newspaper correspondence.

General.—The year is closing with a deep feeling of the Spirit's presence. The teachers and principal prepared a list of names of persons who are not Christians, both in the school and out of it, and make them the subject of prayer at a time agreed upon, and are gratified to see these persons coming into the church. Not all the work done is measured by accessions to our congregation, for many so prayed for and labored with go into other churches. The praise belongs to God. "For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen."

HENDERSON, N. C.

The work at this point has been carried on with great earnestness and enthusiasm during the year. The sore affliction which fell upon them in the death of Mrs. Anna B. Cook, and the temporary laying aside of Pastor J. L. Cook, which sad events are noted in another part of this report, was a great shock to the workers, the school and the whole community. Mr. Cook and his wife were held in high esteem by people of all classes in the town and vicinity. This was shown by the attendance at Mrs. Cook's funeral of the most prominent citizens of the place. Universal regret was expressed, and the leading papers of the town published tender and flattering notices. All extended sympathy to the bereaved husband and offers of any necessary help were not lacking.

The Work Went On.—Under the management of Prof. J. W. O. Garrett, the efficient principal, the faithful corps of teachers seemed to increase their diligence, and in abundant labors and self-denials they pushed the work to a successful closing of the schools. The two faithful elders of the congregation renewed their strength and did not allow the religious work to flag. So far as the work and the results are concerned, this has been one of the best years in the history of this interesting mission. The day school enrollment was kept down somewhat by an alarm of small-pox which was sounded periodically through the year. But still the attendance reached almost to 500, and the attendance at Sabbath school reached its highest mark, 1,075. The old dormitories were greatly overcrowded through the whole term, and many who desired to come had to be turned away. The industrial features were emphasized in every department so far as possible. On April 23d an intercollegiate oratorical contest was held, Kittrell College, Albion Academy and Henderson Normal Institute contesting. Henderson's representative won the "loving cup," which was the prize. Our institution has taken the highest grounds as one of the best institutions in the state, morally and intellectually.

TOWNSVILLE, N. C.

This is a town situated in a thickly settled community, about 16 miles from Henderson. Mr. Cook has been conducting preaching services there occasionally during the last year. There is no church there, other than the old native African. About 24 men and women, all of whom, we believe, were at one time or another students at Henderson, are urgent that a United Presbyterian mission be established there and a congregation organized, all of whom have signed a statement to the effect that they will become members at the organization. Mr. Cook represents the field as needy and ripe for organization. The principal difficulty in the way is the absence of any building in which a work can even be begun. The entrance of this field would require the obtaining of a place of worship and building suitable to the needs of the mission. One or two missionaries would be the most that would be required for some time. The Board asks the Assembly to indicate its pleasure respecting the occupancy of this field.

LEAKSVILLE, N. C.

Rev. W. M. Fowlkes has been laboring in this town for the last two years, conducting school, Sabbath school and preaching the gospel frequently. He has been coöperating with the public school authorities, holding all meetings and services in the public school building. He has been the principal of the school and the school board has borne the expenses of the school and supported two assistant teachers. In short, they bear all the expense except Mr. Fowlkes' salary. No attempt has been made at organization of a distinctively religious work, other than that noted above. Mr. Fowlkes believes that the time has come when we should establish our mission work independently of the public school work, and carry it on as is our wont in every place, and the Board concurs in his opinion. Mr. Fowlkes reports the enrollment of the Sabbath school 160, with an average attendance of 85. The services have been conducted regularly through the year and have been well received by the people. He says: "I preach a short sermon every Sabbath before Sabbath school and conduct a regular preaching service every first Sabbath. We have a large crowd out to regular preaching. . . . I have never seen as large and as needy a mission field. Hundreds of old people all through this section are sitting, waiting for the Lord to call them to be saved. There are churches and ministers, but a very little preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Surely this is the place where the Lord would have the United Presbyterian Church establish a mission and give the gospel in its purity to these benighted people. The Presbyterians have had a Sabbath school at a place called Springfield, which is about two miles from Leaksville, for about four years. They also have three members. This work was under the care of the Presbytery of Southern Virginia. The pastor who was supplying this field lives 75 miles away. In view of this fact, and that we are on the field, so near, the presbytery at its sitting in Richmond, Va., this month voted to vacate the field and turn their strength over to us. The members and Sabbath school petitioned the presbytery thus, and the pastor heartily recommended the same course. This neighborhood is thickly settled by colored people who own their homes. There is no church, white or colored, in that section of the country. The services have been conducted in the public school house. This school had an enrollment last term of 95. The place is about a twenty minutes' drive from Leaksville and the town is gravitating in that direction. One lady, who is a member, has a husband and five children to be brought into the church. One man has a wife and five children. The other man has a wife and several relatives. These people are just waiting to join our church. I await your instructions."

GENERAL.

In the resumé of work given above, it will be seen that the fields occupied have been entered manifestly by the leading of the Spirit. They are wide and needy and are yielding gradually to the beneficent influences of the gospel and are being thus gradually transformed into fruitful fields. In all the congregations and separate missions all the machinery and appliances used in the best organized congregations all over the Church are being employed, and these appliances are being manipulated in many places by those who are foremost and best in their home congregations, which they have left for the time being at the Master's call. Preaching services, Sabbath schools, prayer meetings, women's missionary societies, young people's Christian unions, senior and junior, mothers' meetings, all are to be found in active operation. The statistics of these missions are suggestive and encouraging, but they only tell a part, a small part of the story. Young men and young women go out from these centers into the surounding country and into distant places by the hundreds, enter the public schools, and, in addition to living pure, refined Christian lives—an impressive object lesson to all who see them—they actively engage in the work of evangelizing the unsaved of their race. Even the little boys and girls become missionaries in their own homes, and sing the Bible Songs, the gospel of God's Son, into the hearts and lives of their fathers and mothers, who are not able to read the word, until they are often found rejoicing in God who has saved them.

In all except the newly occupied stations special attention is given to industrial work in some of its forms. The largest and best equipped industrial plant is at Knoxville, to the account of which, elsewhere in this report, we call special attention. But we wish to remark that however great stress is laid on this line of education, it is not allowed, knowingly, to interfere with, limit or hinder the distinctively religious or evangelistic effort for the saving of the lost.

The salaries of all the industrial teachers are paid by the Women's Board, except those at Knoxville, in the agricultural and mechanical departments, whose salaries are provided for by the University of Tennessee out of the state's appropriation to that institution. The Women's Board has expended for this purpose $8,392.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension respectfully submits the following report for the year ending April 30, 1903:

The providence of God has again brought great sorrow and loss to the Board in the death of Rev. John S. McKee, D.D., a member much beloved, and a faithful and efficient servant of the Lord in every work to which he was called. On the 5th of March, after a short illness, he was called from his service to his reward. The following minute was adopted by the Board:

"The members of the Board of Church Extension record their great sorrow over the death of one so much esteemed for his personal character and valuable service in the Board and in the Church at large. The announcement of his death, coming, as it did, before we were aware of his serious illness, was a very painful shock, and we are slow to realize that he will be with us no more. Taken from us in the strength of his powers and in the midst of great usefulness, we sustain a severe loss, and in our sorrow extend our sympathy to his bereaved family.

"Dr. McKee was elected a member of the Board of Church Extension on the 15th of July, 1901. He was chosen because of his eminent qualification for the service asked. Although spared to meet with us for less than two years, he proved himself to be a valuable member. He was regular and prompt in attendance, and he gave close attention to the business before the Board. His general knowledge of the Church and its mission field, his quickness to grasp the leading points of the application for aid, and his well balanced judgment as to what should be done, gave weight to the conclusions. He saw things in their proportions and relations, he was conscientious to form his judgment with deliberation, and to seek the good of the whole Church, without preference for any one part of it.

"In his manner he was dignified, courteous and kind; in his spirit he was a servant of the Lord Jesus, desiring to know and do his will. His wholehearted love for his brethren, his devotion to the work of the Lord, his conscientious performance of duty, made him a delightful brother and a highly esteemed member of the Board. As the time extended the love for him increased."

The vacancy thus created was filled by the election of Rev. William I. Wishart, of the Presbytery of Allegheny. A vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. H. C. Swearingen, D.D., was filled by the election of Rev. Pressly Thompson, of the Presbytery of Chartiers.

The Board has given very careful consideration to the applications presented to it, endeavoring to make an equitable distribution of the funds at its command, and seeking to give as largely and as promptly as the circumstances would permit. In cases of emergency special meetings were held, and, so far as known to the Board, no worthy mission has been left without sufficient aid to give it a reasonable opportunity for success. It has not been possible to give all that has been asked, nor, perhaps, would it be wise to do so in all cases, for the spiritual life of a congregation is developed and strengthened by strenuous effort for self-support. The correspondence of the year has been very large and indicates an increasing spirit of missions in the presbyteries and larger demands upon the Board in the future. To an unusual degree missions and presbyteries have given free expression to their appreciation of what has been done for them.

The Corresponding Secretary has not been able to make an extended visit to any part of the mission field, as recommended by the last General Assembly, but presented the work to a number of the synods. Visits for investigation of particular cases have been made by the Secretary or some member of the Board, and with good results.

PARSONAGES.

Only one parsonage grant—to Hobart, Okla., $350—has been made during the year. The agreement with the Women's Missionary Board concerning, the parsonage work and the regulations for its mangement, approved by the last General Assembly, have been very satisfactory. Grants by that Board have been made to Kent, Ore., Dales Memorial, Philadelphia, and Vandergrift, Pa., aggregating $7,000.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The receipts from the Sabbath schools have been $735.57 larger than in the preceding year. Guthrie, Okla., was designated as the memorial church.

INDEBTEDNESS OF MISSIONS.

Reference was made in the last report to the General Assembly to the number of our congregations burdened with debt. Some have since made vigorous efforts to relieve themselves of the burden with a good degree of success. Others have not been able to meet their liabilities. As against aid for such, the Board in its appropriations gives the preference to new missions. It has not been possible to prevent some of the missions aided during the year from incurring debt. This arose partly from the inability of the Board to give sufficient help to avoid the necessity of borrowing, and partly from a prevailing strong desire of missions to have more expensive and attractive churches than their means allow or their necessities actually require. Liabilities are incurred in the expectation of larger receipts as the work advances than are realized, with the result of a disquieting deficiency.

The Board fully appreciates the desirability of a mission having a good church building, as contributing to the comfort of the members and as giving favor with the public, but the building should have a proper relation to the means at command, the present membership and the prospect for the near future, rather than for the more distant time. The anticipations of rapid growth are seldom realized, and a smaller investment in the present without debt may give better satisfaction in the future, when it will be better known what the permanent need of the congregation is.

APPROPRIATIONS.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly of 1901, the Board made an appropriation of $5,000 to the First church, Boston. After full investigation the plan of buying an additional lot and erecting a larger church was abandoned, as involving too much debt upon the congregation, and the appropriation was withdrawn. The condition of the walls of the present building and the stringent building regulations of the city make the changes and repairs necessary to accommodate the congregation impracticable. The alternative is a new building on the present lot. This will cost not less than $40,000, or may be $45,000. The President of the Board visited the congregation and made a personal investigation of the conditions. The case is again referred to the General Assembly for consideration and instructions.

The appropriations made during the year are as follows:

CONGREGATION.	PRESBYTERY.	DONATION.	LOAN.
Allegheny, Twelfth	Allegheny	$ 5,000 00
Baltimore, North Avenue	Philadelphia	500 00	$ 700 00
Benkleman	Pawnee	500 00

Gibson Heights, St. Louis	Southern Illinois	3,000 00
Grinnell	Des Moines	1,600 00
Green Lake, Seattle	Puget Sound	1,000 00

CONGREGATION.	PRESBYTERY.	DONATION.	LOAN.
Guthrie, Okla.	Arkansas Valley	$ 4,500 00
Hobart, Okla.	Arkansas Valley	700 00
Hobart, Okla. (Parsonage)	Arkansas Valley		$ 350 00
Jersey City, First	New York	2,500 00
Moundsville	Wheeling	2,500 00
New York, the Bronx, now East 187th Street	New York	465 00
Ontario	Oregon	300 00
Pittsburgh, Eleventh	Monongahela	500 00
Rennerdale	Monongahela	1,500 00
Schenectady	Albany	2,900 00
Swissvale	Monongahela	1,000 00
Tacoma, East Side	Puget Sound	1,000 00
Trenton	First Ohio	1,410 00
Washtucna	Spokane	1,000 00
Waterloo	Cedar Rapids	2,500 00
West Pittsburgh	Monongahela	945 00
Worcester	Boston	4,000 00
York	Big Spring	3,500 00
Youngwood	Westmoreland	500 00
		$57,320 75	$ 3,050 00
Total Appropriations			$60,370 75

Some of these appropriations are for missions in new places, remote from our other congregations. A considerable number were for the purchase of lots. Almost all are in large cities, or in very rapidly growing towns in which the future population will have an important influence on the surrounding country, and in which we should have a place.

These appropriations are $4,260.75 in excess of the grants made last year, and they are $5,370.75 in excess of the appropriation by the General Assembly. There seemed, however, no alterriative, and the appropriations were made in the confidence that they would meet the approval of the General Assembly and contributors to these funds.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

As compared with the preceding year, there has been an increase of $569.09 in the receipts from congregations, Sabbath schools and societies, but a decrease of $658 in the personal gifts, making a net decrease of $128.89 in receipts from contributions. That is, the receipts are substantially the same as in the previous year. This does not include $1,000 received subject to annuity. The receipts from legacies have been $147.50, as against $10,065.50 in the year before.

The receipts from all sources have been as follows:

From Congregations	$	$29,021 19

Appropriations Not Paid		27,462 00
Total Liabilities			$33,712 11

It is many years since the Board has been under a burden so heavy.

The contributions received, including individual donations, amount to 62.6 per cent. of the appropriation by the General Assembly.

There has not been any material change in the Permanent Funds. A detailed statement accompanies this report.

The "accounts, securities and investments" of the Board have been audited by the same "expert" who has rendered this service so satisfactorily for several years. His certificate and the certificate of the Union National Bank of the amount on deposit are attached to the Treasurer's report.

In view of the above exhibited condition of the treasury and the increasing demands from the missions, $65,000 must be received during the coming year, without any allowance for increase of payments to the missions. The Board, therefore, asks that $65,000, and, if possible, a larger sum be set apart for this work.

The Board acknowledges the very valuable services of the Superintendents of Missions and Financial Agents and its indebtedness to William F. Robb, Esq., and D. B. Douthett, Esq., as notaries, and to Donaldson Brothers for legal service.

The term of office of Mr. A. P. Burchfield, Rev. Pressly Thompson and Rev. W. I. Wishart expires with this year.

The members of the Board feel very deeply the responsibility that rests upon them, and earnestly ask the counsel and prayers of the General Assembly and a careful consideration of this part of the mission work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

M. M. PATTERSON, President,
C. F. DEAN, Secretary,
A. G. WALLACE, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The Board of Publication, with grateful recognition of the blessings bestowed by God upon its work during the last year, presents to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America this its forty-fourth annual report, covering the year beginning April 1st, 1902, and closing March 31st, 1903.

THE PUBLISHING DEPARTMENT.

OUR PUBLICATIONS.

Since the last report the following publications have been issued: A Cyclopædic Manual of the United Presbyterian Church of North America. By the Rev. William M. Glasgow. It comprises a brief history of the ancestral branches, ministers, congregations, institutions, courts, boards, missions, periodicals, etc., of the United Presbyterian Church, and is embellished with the portraits of the moderators of the General Assembly since 1858.

A Revised Edition of the Digest of the Principal Acts and Deliverances of the General Assembly to 1902. By the Rev. J. D. Sands, D.D., assisted by the Rev. A. G. Wallace, D.D., LL.D.

A third edition of the Bible Songs, edition of 1901, embracing 25,000 copies.

A new edition of The Confession of Faith, embracing 500 copies.

A new edition of the Catechism, embracing 10,000 copies.

A Hand-Book for the Mission Study Course of the Young People's Christian Union. By the Rev. Charles R. Watson.

A Program for Missionary and Children's Day of 1903.

The circulation of our periodicals for the past year is herewith appended:

Bible Teacher (Monthly)	83,000
Christian Union Herald (Weekly)	1,190,200
Youth's Evangelist (Weekly)	1,482,400
Olive Plants (Weekly)	1,311,000
Bible Teacher Quarterly	305,900
Junior Quarterly	119,000
Bible Teacher Lesson Cards	1,038,000
Bible Lesson Picture Roll	1,024
	5,531,424

According to the instructions of the General Assembly of 1902, a Book of Psalm Selections, with music suitable for children, has been compiled. It will be published in a few months.

A tract on Secretism has been ordered for gratuitous distribution, and its preparation has been committed to the Rev. W. I. Wishart.

A tract on Psalmody, also for free distribution, is being written by the Rev. James A. Grier, D.D., LL.D.

A Summary of the Authoritative Standards of the Church, which the Board was directed to prepare, is under way. This work is difficult and important, and the Board has counted it wise to proceed with deliberation.

FREE DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE.

Grants of Bibles, Psalters, Bible Songs, Lesson Helps and Sabbath school papers to the amount of $2,500 have been made. (See financial statement below.) These donations have been given chiefly to weak churches and to mission stations and Sabbath schools in the home mission field. In answer to requests from the Board of Freedmen's Missions, the schools and stations under its care have been supplied gratuitously with what was needed. Some assistance has been rendered the Foreign Mission Board also. Five thousand copies of the Hand-Book for Mission Study have been provided free of cost, and provision has been made for rendering aid to a periodical published by one of our missionaries in Egypt.

The Board is profoundly impressed with the missionary possibilities attaching to its work in the distribution of literature, and insists on being classed with the mission boards of the Church. It believes that if liberal appropriations are allowed much may be done in coöperating with the Boards of Home Missions, Church Extension, and Freedmen's Missions to further missionary work in places of our country destitute of spiritual privileges and to assist existing mission stations. For this purpose an appropriation of $5,000 is asked for the coming year.

COMMENTS.

Presbyterial Superintendents.—With still fewer exceptions they manifest a deep interest in their schools, and make a most commendable effort to secure complete reports.

Pastors.—There are 801 schools attended by our pastors, a slight increase over that of last year. The pastor who neglects his school is the rare exception.

Elders.—Of the 3,856 reported, 3,022 attend our schools. The number is larger than in any former year.

Enrollment.—The total reported enrollment is 120,772, or 1,501 more than one year ago. A commendable increase has been made in many of the schools, but an unfortunate decrease is found in a few.

Average Attendance.—The above figures show that it is slightly in advance of last year. It seems as if there is something wrong with the management of the school in which the average attendance is under one-half of the total enrollment. Such, however, is the case in many of our schools.

Contributions.—Still they continue to increase. The total for the year is $120,831, almost $8,000 more than ever before. Of this sum $44,812 have been given to the Boards, more than the entire offerings of the whole Church to the foreign work thirty years ago.

Missions.—A few have been organized into congregations and several have been dissolved. The total number is 73.

Scholars Confessing Christ.—The reported number is 4,255, or more than any year since 1898. This, however, does not represent the entire number, as about 200 schools have left this column blank.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That the third Sabbath of October be set apart as a day of prayer for Sabbath schools; the second Sabbath in June as "Missionary and Children's Day"; and the fourth Sabbath in November as "Temperance Day."

2. That all schools having in average attendance of less than one-half of the enrollment be urged to examine carefully into the cause of the absences.

3. That, in view of the special importance of the Sabbath school work and its vital connection with Our Young People's organization, the Assembly take into consideration the advisability of seclecting a General Secretary, and provide for his support, who shall devote his whole time to these two branches of Church work.

4. That presbyteries again be urged to examine carefully their respective fields, with a view of establishing mission schools.

5. That, through the Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents, each of our schools be requested to organize a "Home Department" class.

This report closes with the 31st of March, 1903. The Board has adopted this time for closing the books that sufficient opportunity may be afforded to audit all accounts before the preparation of the report to the Assembly.

For some months back the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, the Rev. J. C. Boyd, D.D., who has served the Church faithfully these many years, has been incapacitated by severe illness from performing the duties of his office. The Rev. John McNaugher, D.D., was appointed Corresponding Secretary pro tem., and still fills that position.

The Rev. W. R. McKee, D.D., for twenty-seven years an efficient member of the Board, for twelve years its President, and at the time of his death the Vice-President, departed this life July 19th, 1902.

Mr. Hugh Kennedy, by reason of removal to Buffalo, N. Y., resigned his membership in the Board.

The Rev. John E. Wishart was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Dr. McKee, and Mr. Robert Trimble was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Kennedy.

The term of office of the following members expires this year, namely: John McNaugher, D.D., J. D. Sands, D.D., Rev. George E. Hawes, and Mr. John A. Bell. The term of the Rev. John E. Wishart and that of Mr. Robert Trimble, both of whom were elected to fill vacancies, expires with this meeting of the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. SANDS, President,

JOHN MCNAUGHER, Corresponding Secretary, pro tem.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The year just closing may be noted as one of special importance in all that pertains to the work of higher education. Men of wealth have devoted large sums of money for the founding and equipping of educational institutions. As a result better facilities are being provided for prosecuting the work of education in all our colleges and universities. The recent donation of $600,000 to Tuskegee, Ala., shows something of the interest taken by one man in the better training and education of the negro, while the liberal gifts made by others to colleges and seminaries are to receive equal commendation, and are to be taken as an evidence of an ever-increasing interest in the proper instruction of the youth.

Our denominational schools have not received the attention of the rich to as great an extent as might have been desired, and yet the prominence which is being given to the College and Seminary Fund will justify the conclusion that the members of the Church are glad to contribute as they are able for the support of our own institutions.

The regular contributions of the Church for any single year have not been large—far below what they might have been—and yet the sums received from this source during the past eight years, for our seminaries, colleges and academies, will aggregate about $80,000. Add to this the almost $45,000 contributed to the beneficiary fund and the more than $10,000 placed by legacy and otherwise in the permanent investment fund of the Board, and we have a brief summary of what is being accomplished through the annual offerings of the people.

The ever-increasing demand for missionary effort in the home and foreign lands is but an additional call for decided enlargement and better equipment in all our colleges and seminaries. What answer can the Church give to the plea from India and Egypt and the Sudan for almost five hundred additional missionaries, when there are reported but little more than seven hundred of the young people of the Church—men and women—in all our denominational colleges and theological seminaries? The work of the Church at home and the work abroad must depend very largely for its future success upon the young men and young women who, year after year, are being trained in our own institutions of learning. It is becoming more and more apparent that there must be an enlarging and strengthening of the foundations, if the superstructure is to be symmetrical and permanent.

The work of the Board, in helping to defray the current expenses of the denominational school, and in the judicious bestowal of assistance upon needy beneficiaries, is one of the essentials, as to agencies and methods, for the larger growth and the continued prosperity of the denomination.

A summary of the year's work is herewith submitted to the Assembly.

I. BENEFICIARIES.

Forty-four young men have made application, through their respective presbyteries, for aid from the beneficiary fund. The number is nineteen less than that of the preceding year.

Beneficiary education is not a peculiarity of our own Church, but is, indeed, a prevailing custom among the different denominations. It is probable, however, and, as the Board views it, altogether desirable, that the time is at hand when better facilities being afforded by our seminaries and colleges for the assistance of needy students, the demand for direct beneficiary help will materially decrease, the Church still acting as a helper, but dispensing her benefactions through other agencies rather than by direct donations to the student.

Forty-three of the young men have been in attendance at our theological seminaries, and one is a member of the senior class at Tarkio College. Of the theological students twenty-five attended the seminary at Allegheny, Pa., seventeen the seminary at Xenia, O., and one the seminary at Knoxvile, Tenn.

The presbyteries represented in the applications made are the following: Monongahela, 5 students; Muskingum and Wheeling, 4 students each; Sidney, Steubenville and Xenia, 3 students each; Allegheny, Frankfort, Lake, Philadelphia and Rock Island, 2 students each; Arkansas Valley, Boston, Cedar Rapids, Cleveland, College Springs, Conemaugh, Garnett, Kansas City, Mansfield, Pawnee, Tennessee and Westmoreland, 1 student each. Twenty-seven of the young men are graduates of our own denominational colleges, fourteen are graduates of other colleges, and three are undergraduates.

Thirteen are theological students of the first year, twenty are second-year students, and ten graduated the present year.

Thirty-two students were recommended for $125 each, ten for $50 each, one for $100, and one for $85. The Board has been able to meet the full appropriation for the year, making the total payment to beneficiaries $4,685.

Former beneficiaries, R. G. Ramsey, T. R. Aiken and A. Foster Robinson, have returned money received from the Board while preparing for the ministry.

The Board would again urge promptness on the part of students and presbyteries in making applications for aid. The papers ought to be in the hands of the presbytery before the opening of the seminary. By this time young men are certainly able to tell whether aid will be needed, and it would be of profit to all concerned if some limit were set as to time of making application, and the rule adopted that the money paid should be in proportion to the time remaining of the seminary year after the application has been acted upon by presbytery.

II. SEMINARIES, COLLEGES AND ACADEMIES.

Letters were addressed to all pastors and to sessions of vacant congregations in order to collect facts respecting the attendance of students at our academies and colleges. Answers have been received from a greater number of persons than ever before, while the information given is much more definite and satisfactory. The points of inquiry covered the attendance of the young people of the Church upon the academies and colleges of our own denomination and upon institutions other than our own.

From the almost six hundred answers received the attendance is reported as follows:

Our own academies	102
Our Church colleges	417
Academies outside of our Church	461
Colleges other than our own	628

The figures given indicate that of 1,608 students reported, 519—less than one-third of the whole number—are in attendance at our own denominational schools.

The pastor of our church in a city where a state university is located reports that there are students attending that institution from more than one-half of the United Presbyterian congregations of the state. This, too, in face of the fact that two of our Church colleges and one of our academies are within easy access of the larger part of the state. The Church is evidently needing a revival of interest in the denominational school.

Blanks were also sent, asking pastors and sessions to report the name and postoffice address of young people of the several congregations who are graduates of high schools, and who may have thought of attending college in the near future. About thirteen hundred names have been reported, and a printed list of these names has been sent to each college and academy. It is proposed, in this way, to open communication and place the literature of our schools in the hands of the young people, so that they may become informed and interested in matters pertaining to the educational work of the Church.

The theological seminaries report an attendance of eighty-five students, sixteen less than the preceding year. Last year there were thirty-two graduates; this year there are twenty-nine in the senior classes. The present junior classes number twenty-four less than were enrolled one year ago.

The five colleges report an attendance of 552 in the collegiate department, seven less than the preceding year.

Th two academies have an attendance of two hundred and twenty-three students, one more than was reported last year.

The College and Seminary Fund, while much less than we hope to see it in the near future, has been of great benefit to all our institutions, and, in some cases, it has been recognized as essential to their existence. Is it not time for the General Assembly to make more ample provision for this fundamental work of the Church?

The amount distributed this year to the educational institutions is $12,000, almost $2,000 more than during any former year.

The payment of money, as provided for by the General Assembly, gives the several institutions the following amounts:

Allegheny Seminary	$ 2,166 65
Xenia Seminary	1,333 35
Cooper College	1,062 00
Monmouth College	1,805 00
Muskingum College	1,361 00
Tarkio College	1,178 00
Westminster College	2,094 00
Pawnee Academy	500 00
Waitsburg Academy	500 00
Total	$12,000 00

The annual reports of the several institutions are submitted for the consideration of the General Assembly.

SEMINARIES.

Allegheny, Pa.—There has been no report received from the seminary, except the number of students in attendance, which is as follows:

Whole number	56
Senior class	19
Middle class	24

Xenia, O.—The faculty consists of four professors. Since the last annual report the Rev. David MacDill, D.D., resigned and the Rev. Jesse Johnson, D.D., has been elected to fill the vacancy.

Twenty-eight students have been in attendance, classified as follows: Junior, 4; middle class, 15; senior, 9. The property of the seminary is valued at $10,000. An increase of $10,000 has been made to the endowment fund during the past year. The present endowment is $157,000, and in addition to this there is $33,000 subject to annuity.

The following statement is submitted by the faculty:

"The work done during the year has been quite satisfactory, notwithstanding the fact that our students were subjected to quarantine restrictions for almost three weeks, an interruption which was all the more serious since it came just as the classes had fairly entered upon the work following the holiday vacation. Apart from this invasion of disease, which occasioned the temporary suspension of our work, there has been no case of serious sickness among the students. Our efforts are somewhat hampered by lack of proper accommodations, such as library and recitation rooms. However, there is good promise that this need will soon be supplied by a new building, with such appointments as will enable us to carry on our work to much better advantage. We gratefully acknowledge the financial assistance which the Church and the Church's agent—the Board of Education—have furnished. Such supplement to our income, direct and indirect, has been most timely and helpful. We trust the time is not far future when, with an enlarged faculty and an increased endowment, Xenia Seminary may be able to render such service to the Church as the Church will be entitled to receive, when she shall have made the accomplishment possible."

COLLEGES.

Cooper College.—There are in the faculty ten regular professors and six assistants. The students enrolled are classified as follows: Collegiate department, 62; preparatory, 91. Other departments: Music, 78; elocution, 58; art, 42. Total, 331, less students counted twice, 64, making the actual enrollment 275.

There are seven to graduate in the present senior class. Of the collegiate department, 85 per cent. of the students are Church members and 72 per cent. of the whole school are professing Christians.

The organizations for Christian work are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Arrangements for Bible study and recitation are: "Bible lesson every Monday. Heard in sections."

The property is valued at $30,000. Present endowment, $29,725. The endowment has been increased during the year by a donation of $6,000, "the income to be devoted to the education of Indians and Negroes."

The following statement is submitted by the faculty:

"Cooper College has a good field. All of western Kansas is being utilized, Colorado and Oklahoma are tributaries to Cooper. The increase of thirty-six students in the literary department this year is largely from the region west of Sterling. Fact has proved the college favorably situated. The outlook grows brighter each year. Our new heat plant adds much to our comfort and power to do work. The college needs money. Could the Church give Cooper $5,000 each year the attendance could be almost doubled. Now is the time to push our educational work in this western field. We must hold the field, or other institutions will crowd us to the wall. The loud call for Egypt and India means that Christian education must receive more attention from the Church."

Monmouth College.—The faculty consists of thirteen professors in the literary department, four in music and two in athletics.

The classification of students is as follows: Collegiate department, 144; preparatory, 85; music, 205. Deducting duplicated names, the whole number of students is 350. There are twenty-four in the present class. Ninety-four per cent. of the students are professing Christians.

The organizations for Christian work are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Arrangements for regular Bible study and recitation are: "Regular college class work in Bible during fall term; Christian Association classes on Sabbath morning in the college for special study."

The property is valued at $95,000. Present endowment is estimated at $227,000, with an increase of $8,000 during the year to the endowment fund.

The statement of the faculty is:

"The year soon to close has been a good average in almost every particular. The attendance has been the same. Substantial growth has been made in some directions. It has been a year of 'good feeling.' One of the disadvantages under which we have labored for two years has been removed. It is not good for a college to be without a president. President-elect Rev. T. H. McMichael, D.D., will enter upon his work immediately after commencement. We look forward to the future with new hope. With God's help we hope to make advancement all along the line of college work and efficiency.

"One of our most pressing needs is a dormitory for our young ladies. More and more it is a demand of our constituency. The scholarship plan adopted by our business manager has already justified its wisdom. There is nothing, however, in a material way that gives strength to a college like the steady, annual income that flows from an adequate endowment.

"An encouragement we may mention, in common with our other colleges, is the increased contributions to our educational institutions through our regular constituted agency, the Board of Education. The Church's contribution in this way, small as it is, is a great help to our institutions."

Muskingum College.—There are thirteen professors in the faculty. The enrollment is as follows: Collegiate department, 95; preparatory, 108; music, 69; other departments, 58. There are 15 in the present senior class. The per cent. of Church membership is: College proper, 98; preparatory, 86; whole school, 90. Of the college classes the per cent. is: Senior, 100; junior, 100; sophomore, 96; freshman, 96.

The organizations for Christian work are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Arrangements for regular Bible study and recitation are: "One hour each week in all college classes. Good work has been done by the 'Voluntary Bible study classes this year.'"

Property valuation, $33,000. With an increase of $500 during the year, the present endowment amounts to $38,500.

The faculty says:

"Although we have had some unusual difficulties to overcome, God has blessed the college and increased our attendance. The work has been quite satisfactory. The building debt has been greatly reduced. The equipment of the physical and chemical laboratories has been increased. Muskingum needs an enlargement of her endowment more than anything else material. This she must have to compete successfully with rival institutions whose endowments have received large additions recently. Institutions of other denominations are offering tempting inducements to our students. Generous support, hard work and wise management will be needed to keep up Muskingum's continued growth in standing and attendance."

Tarkio College.—There are fourteen professors and five instructors. The number and classification of students are: Collegiate department, 75; preparatory, 98; musical, 110; other departments, 118. Scheduled in all departments, 401. Names repeated, 144, making a net total of 257.

The senior class numbers eleven. Ninety-five per cent. of the college classes are professing Christians, 79 per cent. of other departments, and 84 per cent. of the whole school.

The organizations for Christian work are Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., also a college Sabbath school and a class for mission study.

Arrangements for regular Bible study and recitation are: "Six weekly recitations in Bible throughout the school year. Five have been conducted by the President and one by the Vice-President."

The property is valued at $85,000. The endowment, as reported to the Board of the College in June, 1902, is $100,233, with an increase of $1,955 during the year.

The brief, but far-reaching statement of the faculty, is:

"After reflection we believe that our first and great need is a baptism of the Holy Ghost. The Church does not provide an equipment comparable with that provided by the state. The college needs many things which it does not have, but it needs 'power' first of all and most of all. If it can have the Church's prayers it can wait for its gifts."

Westminster College.—There are twelve professors in the faculty. The whole number of students is 284, classified as follows: Collegiate department, 176; preparatory, 880; music, 21; other departments, 7.

There are thirty-nine in the present senior class. Ninety-five per cent. of the students are professing Christians. The organizations for Christian work are Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., with several classes for Bible study and two classes for mission study. The arrangements for regular Bible study and recitation are: "Instruction given one day in the week in life of Paul and life of Christ. Old Testament history one day in week."

The property is valued at $90,000. Present endowment, $170,000.

The faculty says:

"The year 1902-1903 has been marked by a healthy religious life. The Christian associations have been aggressive and have made their influence felt. They have increased in numbers and interest and have become, if not a dominant, a very important force in the college. Impetus was given to the spiritual life of the meetings, conducted by Mr. S. D. Gordon, of Cleveland, O. He gave a series of quiet talks, admirably adapted to engage and arouse the minds of the students. Some radical changes were made, and the tone of the whole student body was raised.

"Two ambitions now urge the associations forward:

"First—To win those who are yet without.

"Second—To secure a building as a home for the associations and a center of social life for the men.

"As to our material needs, they are such as press on our neighbors and sisters—endowment, buildings, scholarships, equipment. We have a well equipped science hall and a well located ladies' hall. A larger list might easily be made of what we have not, and concerning them our condition is somewhat like that of the men of Gideon, 'faint, yet pursuing.'"

ACADEMIES.

Pawnee City, Neb.—The faculty consists of the Rev. R. T. Campbell, principal, and Sadie Karr, Jennie E. Martin, Julia Sevesind, Audrey Holsclaw, Daisy McClure and Elpha Taylor, professors.

The number of students is 142, an increase of 18 over the enrollment of the preceding year. There are 13 in the present senior class. The property is valued at $20,000. This is vested in a board of trustees and secured to the United Presbyterian Church.

The following is the statement of the faculty:

"We are glad to be able, in our report this year, to make the best showing in the history of the institution. One gratifying feature is that our growth has been distributed through all the departments. We are especially glad to report a large enrollment for our fall and spring terms, which adds much to the year's tuition. The great need of the institution is a steam heating plant. The present method of heating by stoves is very unsatisfactory. We solicit an investigation of the work Pawnee Academy is doing for the Church, and earnestly ask that the academy be again recommended for an appropriation of $500 from the College and Seminary Fund for the coming year."

Waitsburg, Wash.—The academy is under the control of the Synod of the Columbia. F. C. Chalfant is principal, and he has associated with him, as members of the faculty, Robert M. Horner, Mary E. Brent, H. L. Gray, Mary E. Dixon, Ivy E. Brown, Rev. W. J. Hawk, Mrs. V. Purrington and Mrs. V. Abbott.

Eighty-one students have been enrolled during the year, not counting forty in the music department. This shows an increase over last year in the literary and business departments of 33 students. There are six in the graduating class. The estimated value of the property is $18,800.

An appropriation of $500 is asked for the coming year.

The report of the faculty suggests the following:

"During the past twelve months the academy has entered upon a new era of progress and prosperity. The dormitories erected last year have proved to be of great benefit to the institution. The $500 worth of new laboratory equipments, secured through the generosity of Miss Ina L. Robertson, has greatly increased the efficiency of the Scientific department. In addition to this, $600 have been expended by the citizens of Waitsburg in beautifying the grounds.

"The faculty has been strengthened by the election of a professor for the Business department and the employment of a matron for the girls' dormitory. The enrollment of students greatly exceeds that of the preceding year. The urgent needs are a gymnasium, a new building for the laboratories and business departments, and, above all, the earnest sympathy, coöperation and prayers of the Church."

III. FINANCES.

The annual statement of the treasurer, properly audited, is herewith submitted to the Assembly:

The only addition made to the permanent fund during the year was a legacy of $110.12.

The whole amount received from presbyteries is $14,324.04, or $275.15 more than was received from the same source during the preceding year. The receipts from interest are somewhat larger than were reported to the last Assembly.

The appropriation made for last year for educational work was 28 cents per member—7 cents for the regular work of the Board and 21 cents for the College and Seminary Fund.

The presbyteries have contributed as follows: Four presbyteries paid 2 cents per member; three, 3 cents; four, 4 cents; four, 5 cents; two 6 cents; two, 7 cents; four, 8 cents; three, 9 cents; two 10 cents; four, 11 cents; two, 12 cents; five, 13 cents; three, 14 cents; three, 15 cents; six, 16 cents; one, 17 cents; two, 18 cents; two, 20 cents; two, 21 cents; one, 22 cents and one—Cedar Rapids——the full appropriation, 28 cents.

One presbytery failed to make any contribution to the work of the Board.

The several synods have contributed the following amounts:

Synod of New York	$1,463 55	8 cents per member.
Synod of Pittsburgh	3,610 66	14 cents per member.
First Synod	3,005 09	13 cents per member.

IV. THE BOARD.

The Board asks for an appropriation of $33,000 for the coming year—$8,000 for the regular work and $25,000 for the College and Seminary Fund.

The terms of office of Hon. T. G. Peacock, Mr. W. P. Schall and Rev. R. W. Nairn expire with this meeting of the Assembly.

Rev. T. H. Hanna, D.D., who has been a member of the Board for many years, and is at present its Persident, tendered his resignation at the last meeting. It is the province of the Assembly to fill these vacancies.

By order of the Board,

T. H. HANNA, President.

W. T. CAMPBELL, Corresponding Secretary.

Monmouth, Ill., May 5, 1903.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The work committed to the Board of Ministerial Relief has been prosecuted during the past year with the manifest blessing of God, and we herewith render an account of our stewardship to the General Assembly and the Church with heartfelt gratitude to the Giver of all good.

As the scope of our operations widens and the number of our beneficiaries increases, we are confirmed in the belief that the work of justice and mercy which the Church is doing through this Board ought to receive much greater emphasis.

Our method of relief is neither antiquated nor ineffective, but the product of wide observation, long experience and of mature wisdom of our own and other great Christian organizations.

All that is needed to make it an ideal system is more prayerful and earnest attention and more liberal support on the part of the Church. The stirring call which the Church is sounding at his hour for more missionaries for home and foreign fields, we believe, would meet with readier and more numerous responses if the Church showed a more cheerful and generous disposition to do her manifest duty to those who have consumed themselves and their substance in her service.

FINANCES.

The report of our Treasurer, which has been duly audited by an expert accountant, shows that the amount received during the year from presbyteries was less than that received during the previous year. The interest from investments shows a slight falling off, while only one legacy of $100 is reported as coming to the Board.

On the other hand, payments to beneficiaries amount to $13,262, as against $10,690 last year. The increase is due, in part, to the raising of the maximum grant from $200 to $250 and the formation of a new class of beneficiaries.

Of the $6,797 balance reported, $1,600 belongs to the Endowment Fund, and the next quarterly payment to beneficiaries, June 1st, will very materially reduce the balance.

Though $10,000 was appropriated by the Assembly last year, not two-thirds of that amount was received from presbyteries.

Our Endowment Fund amounts to $119,600.

BENEFICIARIES.

Eighty-five persons received needed and deserved relief from the Board during the past year—35 ministers, 47 widows, 3 orphans. We report this year the largest mortality list we have ever had, 9 beneficiaries having died, leaving the present number 76.

SUGGESTIONS.

1. That presbyterial committees would bestir themselves in the work of bringing the claims of this Board before the congregations of their respective presbyteries.

2. Give the work of this Board a more prominent place in the courts and conferences of the Church from General Assembly to session. It is doing the Red Cross work of our United Presbyterian army, and, though it is often made to bring up the rear in courts, conferences and contributions, we are persuaded that nowhere do the eye and heart of our divine Commander linger with deeper tenderness.

An appropriation of $10,000 is asked for the coming year.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires at this meeting of the Assembly: James Walker, John C. McLaughlin, James Price, D.D.

The Treasurer's report follows, and also the report of the auditing accountant:

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S BOARD.

Although the year just closed has been, to some of our members, a peculiarly sad one, on account of the death of loved ones, the work has been steadily carried on and has prospered, and it is with feelings of deepest gratitude to the Heavenly Father that we present the following report:

STATISTICAL.

Number of Presbyterial Societies	64
Number of Congregational Societies	989
Number of Members	26,190

FOREIGN.

closed the second decade in our history, we find a review of the statistics very interesting reading, and proof positive that there is a place for our organization in the missionary operations of the Church.

The first official record of the foreign department of our work was made by the faithful Secretary, Mrs. W. J. Reid, who has held the position during twenty years. In the year 1887, $8,000 was the contribution of the women for foreign work. This year (1903) the large sum of $49,219.32 is reported. In the year 1887 our Secretary reported two ladies sent to Egypt as our representatives. In a few years all the salaries of the thirteen unmarried ladies were assumed by the Women's General Missionary Society. To-day we report forty-eight under our care.

In 1888 our Secretary made an appeal for $5,000 for the erection of a hospital in India. This year we report three hospitals, four dispensaries, five physicians, one trained nurse and a large number of native helpers. Special interest has always been manifested in the support of girls in the various schools under the direction of our lady missionaries. Year by year these scholarships have increased, until the present time, when we report the Girls' Boarding School, at Sialkot, India, with its 150 students, and the Girls' Boarding School, at Luxor, Egypt, with 100 students, wholly supported by the W. G. M. S. Very many Bible readers and native workers are supported by the women and children of the Church. Eight beds, at $1,000 each, in the Martha J. McKown Hospital, Tanta, Egypt, have been endowed, and twelve beds, in the Good Samaritan Hospital, at $600 each. Scholarships in many of the schools have been maintained, and the traveling expenses of many missionaries going to and from their fields of labor are the closing items in a record of love and liberality which no earthly report can set forth in all its details.

Slow and tedious have been the legal processes by which we have come into possession of our hospital properties, whose present value is $40,000. The school property at Sialkot, valued at $10,000, has not yet been transferred, but messages from India assure us that a clear deed, in the name of the W. G. M. S. will soon be in our hands.

The property at Luxor, a gift from Mr. Davis, an American tourist, has been received by Rev. Murch for us, and the transfer of the title will soon be made. Work undertaken, but not completed, is the hospital buildings at Tanta and the school building at Luxor, Egypt, both of which, we hope, may be ready for occupancy in a few months. It gives us much pleasure to report all the salaries of the eight young ladies, who went to our foreign fields last October, provided for, and six more salaries promised. Dr. N. Belle Drake and Miss Flora J. Jamison are under appointment, and we are in correspondence with four other young ladies, who may receive appointments later. Eight is the number required to meet the immediate demand, four in each field. An unsuccessful attempt has been made to secure two medical missionaries, one for Jhelum and one for Sialkot. Very few United Presbyterian women study medicine. We therefore urge the attention of this unmet need in our medical work upon those who may be called upon to advise our young women as to their life work.

Nine lady missionaries are now in the home land for their well-earned rest.

A resolution, adopted by the W. G. M. S. convention, held in Allegheny, Pa., explains the attitude of the women of the Church to the stirring appeals received from Egypt and India, and needs no emphasis to prove that as true helpmeets they are willing to meet the demands of the work in proportion to their ability and as the Lord may direct. The resolution reads thus:

"Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to make the effort to provide one lady missionary for each ordained missionary sent out by the Foreign Board."

HOME MISSIONS.

During the year, ending April 15, 1903, eleven persons have been engaged in the work of this department. Their territory extends from Oregon, on the west, to Pennsylvania, on the east. No change has occurred in the personnel of our Indian workers on the Warm Springs Reservation since previous report. We are glad to be able to state that much progress has been made by the Rev. J. O. Ashenhurst and Miss Montgomery in the study of the Indian language. Mr. Ashenhurst has preached thirty-eight times in the native tongue, and Miss Montgomery is able to read portions of the Bible and pray in the homes without an interpreter. Both of these workers are engaged upon a translation of the Gospel of Mark. We expect great blessings when this people shall have the Word in their own language.

At the request of Cedar Rapids Presbyterial, endorsed by presbytery, two missionaries have been appointed to labor among the Sac and Fox Indians at Tana, Iowa—Mrs. Carrie P. Giffen and Miss Elizabeth Campbell. It is hoped that work will be begun upon this reservation some time during the coming July. We entreat your prayers for them.

Work has been carried on among the Poles and Italians in Pittsburgh, Pa., and deaf mutes in Oregon. The latter is a new enterprise, and during its first year ten persons have been added to the Church.

A mission in North Fairmont, Cincinnati, Ohio, was organized by the session of the First church in September, 1902, with Miss McMunn in charge. In April, 1903, presbytery organized a congregation with a membership of twenty-three, few, if any of whom, had ever had any connection with any Church. A lot has been given them, and they are now making efforts to secure a church building.

MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

This department still continues to be liberally and affectionately remembered by the women of the Church. Its benefits are not confined merely to the aged ministers of our Church, but are gladly bestowed wherever there seems to be need. Sometimes aid received from Board of Ministerial Relief is supplemented, and often a kind letter and an unexpected and unsolicited draft goes into a home where sickness and sorrow dwell, thereby bringing the help that comes from Christian fellowship and sympathy.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

FREEDMEN.

Early in the year just closed, this department of our work sustained a great loss, when, after a few months of faithful service, our efficient Freedmen's Secretary, Mrs. W. R. Wilson, found it necessary to withdraw from the Board of Directors of the Women's General Missionary Society. In fear and trembling her successor took up the work she laid down, and with feelings of sincere gratitude to the heavenly Father for His guidance and support, presents this report.

As during the preceding year, our work has been mainly along industrial lines. A new sewing department was added last September at Riceville, Tenn., making thirteen sewing schools under the care of the Women's General Missionary Society. Cooking departments were conducted at Knoxville, Henderson, Miller's Ferry and Chase City, that at Chase City being opened in October. Very encouraging reports have been received, telling of the interest and enthusiasm manifested by the pupils in these departments, and of their great desire to learn and to put their knowledge into practice in their own homes.

Our farm, at Prairie, Ala., continues under the superintendency of Mr. N. B. Cotton, who has lately organized a Farmers' Conference, which promises to be beneficial to the community. Our Board has decided to recommend the sale of small portions of farm to worthy persons, with a view of securing a better and more permanent class of people on farm.

Five hundred dollars, donated through King's Daughters of Sixth church, Pittsburgh, Pa., toward a memorial for Mary Carson, is to be used in building a girls' dormitory at Camden, Ala. Plans have been prepared and forwarded for approval, and, as soon as possible, the contract will be let and work pushed forward rapidly.

The Women's General Missionary Society now provides for the salaries of twenty-four workers among the Freedmen.

Last year's receipts were $10,605.67 and disbursements were $10,142.22, of which $8,380 were for salaries, and the balance for fire insurance, advances to tenants, furnishings for teachers' homes, fitting up cooking school at Chase City, supplies for sewing and cooking schools, and as designated by donors.

PARSONAGE WORK.

Three congregations received loans during the year which this report covers. They are located as follows: Dales Memorial, Philadelphia, Pa., $3,500 for ten years; Kent, Ore., $1,000 for ten years; Vandergrift, Pa., $2.500 for ten years.

While the number of grants falls below that of one year ago, we have reason to believe the interest in parsonage work is increasing. The amount received from missionary societies is greater than in any previous year.

Total receipts for the year, ending April 15, 1903, were $11,321.47; total disbursements, $21,385.

On this, the happy occasion of our twentieth anniversary, our parsonages number sixty-six, located in twelve states.

With gratitude to God for His favor in the past, we look hopefully into the future.

JUNIOR MISSIONARY.

Our societies are steadily going forward, increasing each year in membership and in contributions. Last year 200 societies were reported, this year 233; a gain of 33 societies. Thirty societies were reported organized this year.

Number of members last year	5,602
Number of members this year	7,568
An increase of	1,966

Every presbytery, except two, shows an increase in membership. Los Angeles and College Springs have more than doubled in membership. Philadelphia Presbytery reports three new societies, composed of children from homes outside the Church. Xenia has one more society than there are congregations in the presbytery.

Quite an interest has been awakened in our Little Light Bearers' circles (children under six years of age). The membership in these circles is 769. The contributions from these circles are given toward the support of Lois Reed McClure, of India. The Foreign Board allows $100 on the salary of the missionary for each additional child, and the Women's Board proposes the same for this the only child under its care.

The contributions last year amounted to	$6,016
The contributions this year amounted to	6,369
An increase of	$ 353

The special work assigned was the support of the Girls' School at Luxor, Egypt. One thousand five hundred dollars was the amount asked, but $2,124 was given, $624 more than was requested. This does not include $331 given by the other junior societies of the Church. All but fifteen of the societies report taking the Junior Magazine and the help and impetus received from it.

Three new leaflets have been prepared, one by Mrs. W. S. Heade, on Early Training of the Children for Missionary Service; two by Malcolm Laing, on Little Girl Life in Egypt and India.

Three hundred and ninety-one members of junior societies united with the Church during the year; 1,402 come from homes outside the Church.

HOME FOR CHILDREN OF MISSIONARIES.

The Home for the Children of Home and Foreign Missionaries has completed its second year. At present five children occupy this Home.

Monthly reports of the work are presented to the Women's Board by the managers.

Children over twelve years of age are charged three dollars per week for board and laundry; those under twelve years, two dollars per week.

Quite a number of individuals and societies have remembered us during the year with contributions of money and various articles needed in the Home.

We feel quite sure, when the missionaries are acquainted with the advantages this Home provides, the number will be so increased that a much larger and better equipped Home will be required.

With gratitude for the favor with which God has blessed us in the past, we look hopefully to the future.

THANK-OFFERING.

In the spirit of deep gratitude, and with a devout acknowledgment of God's help through the entire year of service, we bring to you the annual report of the thank-offering department of our women's work.

"No effort is too great for the women of the United Presbyterian Church to put forth," might well be written over their past history; for every year has brought its own new test of interest, of liberality and loyalty, and yet they have not been found wanting.

The appeal of the Xenia convention, one year ago, for societies to double their membership, contributions, thank-offering and subscriptions to our Missionary Magazines, served as a bugle call to the faithful workers throughout our churches to promptly gird themselves for a more active campaign. Never before have such earnest efforts been put forth to reach "the mark set before us" as during the past twelve months.

Not many societies doubled their membership or contributions, yet the large majority increased in both respects. The increase in senior and junior organizations during the year is 77; increase in membership, 3,232; increase in contributions over last year is $10,604.

While the subscription list to the Women's Missionary Magazine did not increase as we hoped for, a commendable increase was made in many societies. The new subscribers number 380. Not all societies doubled their thank-offerings, but in several presbyterials many did, as their total offerings go to prove, and these were notably among the smaller societies.

The total thank-offering for the year (to May 15th) is $34,163.04; the societies in Egypt report $227.50; those in India report $133. The increase is $4,548.62.

Forty-nine presbyterials increased their offerings over last year. One gave three times as much, and another gave five times the amount given the previous year. Two others almost doubled. Monmouth, Xenia, Muskingum, Allegheny Chartiers, Monongahela and Westmoreland presbyterials went beyond the $1,000 line, while Philadelphia and Wheeling almost reached the line.

During the year the good pastors, as usual, proved to be real Aarons and Hurs in holding up our hands. Many during the "ingathering" time, in February and March, preached appropriate sermons on "Giving" to their missionary societies, while others exchanged pulpits, one pastor preaching the thank-offering sermon for the congregation of the other. To all of these we are deeply indebted, for we recognize that our Women's work cannot be a success without the hearty coöperation of the pastors.

The General Assembly makes no appropriations for the mission work it has entrusted to the special care of the Women's Board, as it does for all other boards; hence our women's work is entirely dependent for support upon the voluntary contributions and thank-offerings of the women. Larger contributions and offerings, from year to year, make it possible for the women of the Church to accept of greater trust at the hands of the General Assembly.

The need of enlarged work in all our mission fields answers the question, "What of the future of our thank-offering work?" With stirring appeals for help constantly ringing in our ears, how can we do else than consecrate more fully all we are and all we have to the Lord?

The distribution of thank-offering supplies for the year, ending April 15, 1903, is as follows:

Senior and Junior Thank-offering Boxes	8,022
Senior and Junior Thank-offering Envelopes	41,000

Advancement has been made in the year just closed. While not as much as we would like, nor as we anticipated for this year, yet much has been done. More money has been made and more widespread interest taken. More leaflets have been sold and more sent free, 22,000 in all. More printing has been done than ever before in one year. JUNIOR'S MISSIONARY MAGAZINE.

The women in charge of the junior missionary societies of the Church have always had as their standard a well rounded development in the Christian education they endeavored to provide for the boys and girls of the Church; therefore, at their earnest request the Junior's Missionary Magazine was authorized by the Women's Board, and made its first appearance as an eight-page periodical January, 1899.

The review of its four years of existence fills us with gratitude for the blessing and guidance of the Holy Spirit, who has given it the measure of success it has attained. Once more, at the request of the junior leaders, the Board decided to enlarge the Magazine, and in January, 1903, it came forth as a twelve-page publication, with a number of new and attractive features.

The pictures used in the Magazine are largely those kindly sent by our missionaries, and are true representations of our work. If, as has been said, "An ounce of picture is worth a ton of talk," then are our juniors receiving a good practical education through the eye-gate. The stories prove a constant delight to our young readers. The "Special Work" column has developed such an interest in the special work that it has become very necessary to the popularity of the Magazine.

The "Beginning of Things" is carefully guarded in the effort made to create and foster an interest in missions in the opening minds of the little ones under five years of age. The notes on the prayer meeting topics and the missionary subjects, by Mrs. John A. Wilson, the Reporters' page, under the direction of Mrs. N. Wylie Stevenson, the Plans for Programs, outlined by Mrs. Mary Clokey Porter, the Want Column, conducted by Miss Elizabeth Schwarburg, the stories that all children love and the items of current interest and helpfulness make an instrument in magazine form by which we hope to fasten the child mind to the facts of God and His kingdom.

The present number of subscribers is 6,100, 300 more than reported last year. There are about 15,000 boys and girls in the junior societies of the Church, and several thousand more not connected with the societies, so that there is a wide field for the circulation of the Magazine. When of old God gave the law to His people, he charged them thus: "Ye shall lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul; ye shall teach them to the children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house and when thou walkest by the way; when thou liest down and when thou risest up; and thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house and upon thy gates." This is God's own method of educating upon a subject. Can we do better than make it ours in the Christian training of the future men and women of our Church? And in view of the wide open doors before us, can the editor do less than ask the commissioners to this General Assembly, that as a means to an end, they cease not in their efforts until every child within the range of their influence shall have become a reader of the Junior's Missionary Magazine?

Ten cents per year in clubs of ten or more; single subscription, 25 cents per year.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY MAGAZINE.

Year after year the Women's Missionary Magazine comes forward with its report. Changes may occur in its management and appearance, but its object remains permanent, being primarily the education and edification of the women of our Church, and ultimately the glory of God through the spread of the Gospel. During the past year the hearts of the editorial committee have been cheered by an increase of 380 to the Magazine subscription list. While our periodical has not yet attained the ideal, yet we are grateful to feel that through divine help our efforts are having a measure of success in the directions indicated. The systematic, united study of missions seems to be meeting with favor and to be producing good results. We trust that the merit of our Magazine will increase, and believe that in consequence our circulation will be enlarged.

GENERAL FINANCE.

The reserve fund, out of which the Women's Board is able to assist in meeting debts contracted for church buildings, was set aside for this purpose in those rare years when gifts were more than enough to meet the demands of our missionary work. It is essential to have an investment to provide the contingent fund out of which the current expenses may be paid.

It may be said that this fund is, in a sense, the working capital of the missionary society. Sooner or later the money flows back, to be used again in like useful home work.

The rate of interest charged is 4½ per cent. the first year; if renewed, 5 per cent. is expected.

The following list shows the loans at the close of our year, April 15, 1903:

Thirty-third Street church, Pittsburgh, Pa.	$ 2,400 00
Benha Girls' School, Egypt	500 00

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The report of your Committee on Narrative and State of Religion must begin with a note of thanksgiving. It seems to be expected that this committee will take the work of the year into review; and while there is much, as will appear later on in this report, to humble, yet the dominant note must be of thankfulness and congratulation.

The past has been a good year. The Lord has not forgotten His people, He has not withdrawn His power and favor. We make grateful acknowledgment of Him through whose patience and grace and power the Church has been able to continue and to send up to this Assembly reports of work done.

The statistics placed in our hands by the Second Clerk of the Assembly are already before you, and we need to comment but little upon them.

The number of synods is the same as last year, the number of presbyteries is increased by one, and the total number of ministers is decreased by two.

Twenty-one of our ministers passed to their reward during the year, several among these being men we have looked up to and reverenced as the leaders of our Church. Once more we call over the roll of honored names, and record them here as held in very high esteem for their work's sake.

The average age of the deceased brethren is 70.5 years.

These have gone into their rest, but being dead they yet speak to us and bid us be faithful to the great trust they have left in our charge.

Death has reaped a large harvest from among our members during the year, 2,018 having passed over to the better things.

The Church has had a gratifying accession of members, a total of 17,091 being added to our membership in the whole Church. This is 2,044 more new members than were received last year, an encouraging increase, which shows that some earnest work has been done both in home and foreign fields.

While there has been a fairly large increase in members, the net increase still remains small, 3,175 being the net increase. And the larger part of this net increase has to be credited to the foreign field.

Our old enemy, the removal column, still gets in its decimating work upon the roll of our members. Eleven thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight removals shows that a large percentage of our United Presbyterians seem to be pursued by some sort of a Nemesis who is always repeating the policeman's command, "Move on."

And, strange to say, these removals appear in largest number in those sections of the Church that are usually advertised as being ideal places to stay. The Synod of the Columbia has suffered most from removals, having lost 13.7 per cent. in this way. The Synod of Kansas comes next, with 12.5 per cent., and the Synod of Nebraska third, with 12.4 per cent.

A comparison of the statistics for ten years back shows that the western synods have suffered most from this roving disposition of some of our Church members. The Synod of California leads the list in this regard, having lost on the average 13.4 per cent. of her members each year for ten years. The Synod of Nebraska comes next, with an average of 12.8 per cent., and the Synod of Columbia third, with 12.7 per cent. From this the synods range on down to the Synod of Pittsburg and the Second Synod, the former of which has averaged only 6.7 per cent. by removals and the latter 6.6 per cent.

This question, however, occurs to your committee, whether many names are not removed from our rolls, not because they have gone beyond our bounds or are beyond the reach of our help and the sphere of our obligation, but because, in fear that the "quota" will increase to uncomfortable proportions, the roll is deliberately trimmed down to its lowest possible figure. We submit that sessions ought to recognize their obligation to look after and hold to those who have been on the roll of the Church, and that they ought to be very slow to give any one up or cut him off for the sake of saving a few dollars of quota money.

If any paring of the rolls in the interests of economy exists, it is evidently not confined to any section of the Church, yet such an explanation will probably account for only a small percentage of the losses by removal. There is a restlessness characteristic of some of our people which can neither be checked nor satisfactorily explained.

But if the western synods have suffered most from removals, yet two of them lead all the rest in net gain, the Synod of the Columbia showing a net gain of 6.4 per cent. and the Synod of California 4.9 per cent.

And let it be said, to the honor of the Synod of the Columbia, and as evidencing the effectiveness of our home mission work, that this synod has been in the lead for ten years back. It has shown an average net increase of 8.1 per cent. Only three synods have shown a net increase every year for ten years, the Synod of Columbia, the Synod of Pittsburg and the First Synod of the West. But while the Synod of the Columbia has shown an average net increase of 8.1 per cent., the average of the Synod of Pittsburg has been only 2.8 per cent., and for the First Synod of the West 1.8 per cent.

The synods of New York, Iowa, Kansas and the Second Synod show a net decrease three years out of ten.

The synods of California, Illinois and Ohio show a net decrease two years out of ten.

If something could be done to anchor our Church members when once we have them, and to hold them against the disposition to drift, there could be a gratifying net increase to show in every synod in the Church.

The accessions by profession of faith in America aggregate 6,724. This is 878 more than were received in this way last year. Yet this statement ought to provoke some very earnest questioning. It is to be noted that this aggregate only amounts to 5.7 per cent. of the membership of the Church in America, as reported last year; that is to say, it took one hundred of our members a year to bring in from the world a little more than five members. We had, at the beginning of last year, 989 fully organized congregations. When these 6,724 accessions by profession of faith are averaged among these congregations, it means that each congregation succeeded in securing only six new members from the world in a year's time. All the machinery of a congregation—a minister, a bench of elders, a Sabbath school, young people's societies, and all the stated religious services—only resulted in bringing in six persons to make confession of Christ. Such facts ought to humble us and lead us to inquire whether we are at all justified in calling ourselves fishers of men.

Do such results obtain because we are lacking in power? There are abundant resources of power, and we ought to get power if we do not have it.

Is there something wrong with our methods? Do we sometimes forget that the first object of our churches and Sabbath schools is to save souls? Do we come to depend upon those who may come in to our churches by certificate for our increase and our strength? Often we see the request in the papers that United Presbyterians who are looking for a new location will come and settle in such and such a place for sake of the cause there. Advertising for floating church members, with unused certificates in their pockets, has come to be an important feature of our work.

All of which is well enough, but we ought to have faith to believe that United Presbyterians can be carved out of the raw material. It is a serious mistake if we come to depend for our gains upon accessions by certificate. We simply raise the question whether there is not too much of a disposition to wait for floating United Presbyterians, or members of other churches, to come to us by certificate. When the statistics of the various synods for the past ten years are compared, it is found that out of eleven synods, five on the average show that more than half their accessions have been by certificate. In the other six but little more than half have been by profession. In this respect New York Synod makes the best showing, 62 per cent. of her accessions being by profession of faith during the ten years. The Synod of Illinois comes next, with 58 per cent., the Second Synod, 57 per cent., Ohio, 55 per cent., First West, 53 per cent., and Pittsburg, 53 per cent.

It seems to your committee that these facts emphasize the importance of planning some more widely extended and thoroughly organized evangelistic movement for the next year. There ought to be more than an average of six souls saved by each congregation.

Steadily the membership of the Church is creeping up; 119,358 members in America and 16,293 in foreign fields, indicates force capable of doing great things for the advancement of the Master's kingdom.

In the matter of contributions, it is to be noted that there has been a slight decrease in the whole Church, as compared with last year. While there has been a good increase in the amount contributed for pastors' salaries, and in the amount contributed for congregational purposes, there has been a decrease in the amounts contributed for the Boards of the Church and for general purposes.

It is worth while to inquire whether we are applying our contributions too largely to our own local work. What proportion of our contributions should be applied to the general work of the Church? Would it be too much to suggest that for every dollar expended upon our local work a dollar ought to be sent out to the general work? We are a good distance away from this ideal, as will appear from a comparison of the figures. The First Synod of the West has given, on an average, 19 per cent. of its contributions to the four mission boards during the last ten years; the Synod of Ohio gave 18 per cent. to these causes; the Synod of Pittsburg and the Second Synod each 15 per cent. In the Synod of California the proportion dropped down as low as 9 per cent. It seems to your committee that these proportions might be improved. Take the best of these, the average in the First Synod of the West, and it would seem to be right that out of each dollar contributed by our people more than 19 cents should go to the great missionary work of the Church. God speed the day when for every dollar our people apply to their local work, at least one dollar shall be sent out into the work at large.

STATE OF RELIGION.

As touching that very difficult thing to measure, the state of religion, your committee is of the opinion that there is no marked change to be noted since the report on this subject was read one year ago. While certain surface indications might seem to belie the statement, yet there seems to be a great deal of genuine piety and sincere loyalty to the Lord and to His Word and to His work. Our Church is to be congratulated in that there has been no disposition to question the vital doctrines concerning the person and work of the Lord Jesus, concerning the authenticity and plenary inspiration of the Bible as His Word, or concerning those great fundamentals of faith, the doctrines of grace. There has been no disposition to follow the so-called "new theology," to teach that religious development is simply a process of naturalistic evolution, or to substitute for the old ideas of conversion and regeneration and santification the "influence of heredity and environment," the "development of the altruistic instinct," and the "natural growth in ethical culture." The strength of our Church has been in the fact that her ministry has always preached a strong theology and has not hesitated to proclaim the whole counsel of God.

It has been the observation of some of your committee, that while there has been very general loyalty to Christ and His Word, there is not to-day the respect for the Church and its authority that might be desired. It is asserted that there is a disposition to question the right of the pastor to exhort and direct and instruct; that there is a disposition to resist what little authority sessions attempt to exercise. The investigations of your committee have not gone far enough to indicate clearly whether this may be a general tendency or not. But it is believed that a greater emphasis should be put in these days upon the Church as the ordinance of God and upon the respect that is due to constituted ecclesiastical authority.

As the year is passed in review, one of the most encouraging things to be noted is the greatly increased interest in the missionary work of the Church. It is unquestionable that the people of our Church are thinking more about the white-ripe harvest field and the scarcity of laborers than they have done for some time. And it is believed that there is very general and earnest prayer to the Lord of the harvest that He would thrust forth the laborers into His harvest. The pressing demands that are being made for manning new fields in our great and growing cities, the wonderful success that has attended the home mission operation, the demands of our growing work among the freedmen and the way the race problem has thrust itself upon the attention of the north as well as the south, the phenomenal call that has come from the foreign field for enough reinforcements to get the Gospel to all those we are responsible for in this generation, the call to his responsible position of the new Secretary of the Ways and Means Committee, the educational methods which have been so well carried out by our board secretaries and our missionaries and our Church papers during the year, all these things have combined to stir up a very general and a very deep interest in the aggressive missionary work of our denomination. It is a most hopeful thing when there is a deep interest in aggressive missionary work. It promises most for the spiritual development of the members of our churches, and most for the success of our local work in our various congregational fields. It is with deep gratitude that we note this increase of missionary interest, and it is the belief of your committee that the greatest work before this Assembly is to take such steps as will foster and increase this interest in the general work of our Church.

Your committee would submit that a larger interest needs to be shown in Sabbath school work, both for sake of the spiritual development of our people and in order to secure our denominational growth. When one reads the statement in the statistical report that 121,030 Sabbath school pupils regularly assemble to receive instruction in the Word of God, it looks like a most encouraging and hopeful thing; and yet it will be noted that the number of Sabbath school pupils is not equal to the number of Church members by about 14,000, whereas it certainly ought to be greater. There is no better way for a quickened spiritual life to show itself than in Sabbath school work.

As showing the effectiveness of Sabbath school work, it is to be noted that of the 6,724 members received by profession of faith last year, 4,225 came in from the Sabbath school. It is safe to assume that the influences of the Sabbath school had most to do in bringing this large number to make a decision for Christ. With such results to show as the year's fruitage, it would be wise to enlarge our Sabbath school effort. A comparison of the figures will show that during the past ten years not a single synod has made continous gain in Sabbath school attendance. Three of the synods have shown loss in Sabbath school attendance for five years out of the ten. The key to the Church's growth is in winning and instructing the children, both those from religious homes and those from the homes of the world. It would indicate better things for the spiritual life and activity of the Church if the reports for another year would show a great revival of Sabbath school work.

No evidences appear of any marked activity along the lines of reform. The testimony of the Church rings true on every question touching civic righteousness and the preservation of our distinctively Christian institutions. Some of her members are fairly faithful in backing up this testimony by their own practices and by the use of their influence. Others are, to say the least, very indifferent, and others again, both by their practices and by their influence, are positively hindering the attainment of ideal moral conditions in society and in the state.

If Dr. Josiah Strong's contention is true, that the next great awakening is to be brought about by the application of Christ's laws to social and political conditions ,then it would seem to be imperative that we give a larger place to preaching the full meaning of the kingdom of Christ, and that we put forth earnest effort to bring the practices of Christians into complete harmony with the testimony of the Church on questions of moral reform.

This committee has no means of knowing definitely how general is the observance of family worship and the performance of the private and personal duties of religion. So far as we have been able to gather information, it would seem that the rush and energy characteristic of these days have led to more or less neglect of these duties that affect so vitally the spiritual development. Once more, therefore, this report must sound the note of warning and call upon the members of our churches to search the Scriptures daily, to be instant in prayer and to keep the fires alight upon the home altar, lest we be wholly shorn of our power and come into that pitiful condition when we shall have only a name to live.

While there is much to make us very humble and thoughtful in the facts of the past year, as they are brought into review, there is also much to make us very hopeful. It is certainly true that, notwithstanding our failures, the Lord has set before our Church a door that no man can shut. The future is inviting and assuring. With the old missionary hero we ought to say, "The prospects are bright as the promises of God." And we shall realize the bright prospects if the Church shall hear and heed the old message that is voiced in every report brought before this Assembly, "Speak unto my people that they go forward."

W. I. WISHART,
GEORGE G. WALLACE,
J. B. POLLOCK,
Committee.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS.

1. We have honestly tried to render to the Church the service expected and required of us. We have held meetings during the year as often as seem necessary, and, after earnest discussion, have adopted the means that seemed to us best adapted to the end of quickening the conscience of the the Church in the matter of giving to the Lord. We have endeavored to keep ourselves in touch with pastors and sessions and financial agents of presbyteries, and through these with the membership of the Church. We have sent out circular letters to the persons mentioned above from time to time. Some months ago we published in all the Church papers a complete list of all the congregations that had at that time paid one-half, or more than one-half, of their quota to the Boards of the Church. At the close of the financial year we prepared for publication in the Church papers a list of all congregations that had paid all of their quota for the year, or more than that. We also prepared and had printed and distributed throughout the Church 115,000 copies of "A Folder Full of Facts and Figures," for the purpose of making the entire membership familiar with the work and the claims of the various boards of the Church. In addition to this, we tried to keep in touch with the membership of the Church, and to keep constantly before our people the matter of their responsibility for the missionary enterprises of the Church, by means of a brief communication from our committee, which appeared in our Church papers each week during the year. For this means of communication with the membership of the Church we are grateful to the editors of our Church papers.

2. We hope and believe that our efforts have not been altogether fruitless. Letters received from pastors and treasurers of congregations assure us that a number of congregations were stimulated to early effort in the matter of securing the appropriations to the missionary work of the Church. So far as is known to us, no congregation that began early in the year to meet its obligations failed to pay its full quota before the expiration of the year. We did not repeat the suggestion and plan of last year, in asking the congregations for a "holiday offering to the Lord," believing that what our congregations most need is to be stimulated in the matter of meeting their annual obligations. The $30,000 received in the holiday offering last year helped to make a better report at the close of the year, and the lack of such an offering this year is doubtless against us in our comparison of the year's work with that of the preceding year. Still we are glad to be able to report larger receipts by the treasurers of our boards than last year. Receipts from the presbyteries for the year just closed show gains over last year as follows: Foreign Missions, $10,070; Home Missions, $1,802; Freedmen's Missions, $2,714; Church Extension, $357; Ministerial Relief, $265. We are sorry to note that the total contributions for America fall $6,940 short of the total amount for last year. But if from these totals we subtract the contributions for general purposes, it will be found that the amount contributed for salaries of ministers, for congregational purposes and for the Boards is $45,274 more than last year.

3. We announce with pleasure that in accordance with the direction given us by the last General Assembly, we have secured the services of a competent person, whose duty it shall be, in connection with the Committee on Ways and Means, to keep the Church thoroughly informed as to the work represented by her various Boards, and to secure from the Church, as nearly as possible, the full amounts appropriated by the General Assembly. Mr. J. Campbell White, accepting of the appointment tendered him by your committee, entered upon his work January 1, 1903. At the suggestion of the Ways and Means Committee, he spent the early months of the year in visiting our mission fields in India and Egypt. He has been on the ground, and very busy, for the last six weeks, and will continue to give all his time to this work. The members of your committee believe, as they did one year ago, that what our people need is patient, persistent, inspiring and practical instruction that will bring them into and keep them in contact with the work which is being done by our Church, under the blessing of God, every day. Mr. White is making himself thoroughly familiar with the work and claims of every Board of our Church, as he is already familiar with those of the Foreign Board. It will be his duty, and it is his purpose, to present the claims of all the Boards of our Church with equal faithfulness and fervor. It is the purpose and plan of your committee that his work for the present financial year shall be directed to the single end of bringing the entire Church up to absolute loyalty and faithfulness in the matter of meeting in full all obligations for missionary work at home and abroad, laid upon her by the highest court, under the guidance of the Spirit of God. May we not ask, and confidently expect, that there will be for him everywhere an open door?

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

We confess that we began the collecting and tabulating of statistics this year with very little eagerness. We did not jump to the task. For it was coming to be current talk in many quarters that the young people's movement had gone beyond its prime and that it was living on the glory of the past rather than the inspiration of the present and the hope of the future. And then there were those who said, that as there was no annual convention this year, and as the energy of the young people seemed to be running wholly towards conventions, this would be a "dead" year. And we had gone with the multitude under the juniper tree. We had almost allowed ourselves to believe that these things were true. We had not become pessimists, but we were not very sanguine optimists. And so we addressed ourselves to the work of gathering reports, which is never any fun, with less than the usual enthusiasm. For we were bitten with the too common microbe of "what's the use," and were expecting a decrease in the work, and there is not much in such a prospect to make one "leap as an hart."

And now with the miserere off our minds, hear the jubilate. We were pleasantly disappointed. For we are able to report a snug little gain in every department of the work save one.

I. STATISTICS.

Last year we reported 730 senior societies; this year there are 780, a gain of 50. Of these 146 are Christian Endeavor, 613 Christian Union, while 21 are either independent or failed to specify the character of their organization.

Last year the total membership reported was 28,892; this year 30,216, a gain of 1,324.

Last year 1,210 members of the senior societies united with the Church on profession of their faith in Christ; this year 1,492, an increase of 292.

Last year the contributions reported amounted to $43,618; this year they fall to $30,904, a decrease of $12,814. Of the total contributions nearly 32 per cent. went directly through the Boards of the Church.

The report of the juniors is encouraging, also. Last year there were reported 443 junior societies; this year 490, an increase of 47, these societies being divided thus: Christian Union, 187; Christian Endeavor, 59; Missionary, 233; Intermediate, 11.

Last year the total membership reported was 16,763; his year 17,948, a gain of 1,185.

Last year 896 juniors publicly named the name of Christ upon them; this year 1,146, an increase of 250.

Last year their contributions amounted to $8,664; this year $12,525, a gain of $3,861, and of this amount $10,072 wer given to missions, or over 80 per

II. REMARKS.

Permit a few observations upon these figures: One thousand two hundred and seventy societies sounds pretty big; and yet there are, in America alone, 236 congregations without any organization among the seniors, and 505 that have no organization among the juniors. There may be difficulties in some of these places that make an organization impossible, but surely many pastors, and where there are vacancies, many sessions are not awake to the fact that they have a tremendous amount of power lying latent which might easily become kinetic by a little effort.

There were 7,332 additions to our Church last year by profession of faith. Of these almost 36 per cent. came from the young people's societies, senior and junior. Certainly here is a "feeder" which the Church dare not neglect. There are only two presbyteries which did not report some conversions among the young people.

We are at a loss how reasonably to account for the decrease in the contributions, unless it be that the young people have forgotten, as older ones sometimes set the bad example, to give as the Lord has prospered them. However, there are 78 societies which did not report any contributions whatever. It must have been the negligence of their secretaries, as it is simply impossible for that many societies to live without giving something. Close up the pores of a man's skin, and the man will die. And Christian beneficence is the life of a society as it is of an indivdual.

The society of Rochester congregation, Caledonia Presbytery, led in the average contributions, giving $11.67 per member; Roney's Point, Wheeling Presbytery, was next, with an average of $9.60 per member; while the society in Cairo, Egypt, outstripped the majority of the home societies, with an average of $2.80 per member.

While the total contributions fell short of last year's record, yet a larger amount went directly to the mission work of the Church, last year the percentage being 23; this year, 32.

III. ENCOURAGING FEATURES.

It ought to be of interest to you to hear of two new features of the work this year, of which we can only speak generally, as statistics are not yet at hand.

The "Mission Study Course," as outlined by the Rev. Charles R. Watson, has been adopted by a large number of societies, and where tried and tried honestly, it has justified our confidence in it and more than realized our expectations. The young people are going to be intelligent missionaries. We commend this plan to your prayers and your coöperation.

The suggestion of last year, that synodical conventions be held in 1903, owing to the absence of a national convention, we believe has been quite generally acted upon, and, so far as we have been able to learn, the plans give promise of helpful meetings.

Not the least of the "encouraging features" to be reported is that the term of office of the General Secretary expires with the present General Assembly.

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS.

One for your thought and the other for our action. This for action: It has been a growing conviction with some of us that if we are to keep our young people in a separate organization, and if we are to accomplish the good we might and ought to do, other plans must be adopted. It is simply impossible for a pastor or a busy layman to give the young people's work the attention which its importance and its promise warrant and demand. The Christian Endeavor organization keeps two men going all the while among their societies, the General Secretary and the Field Secretary. And the results are commensurate with the efforts put forth. We therefore recommend that a man be chosen to act as General Secretary of Young People's Work and of the Sabbath schools, the same to devote his entire time to this double work so closely allied, and to be supported as the judgment of the General Assembly decides.

This for your thought: It is quite easy to criticise the young people's work and to become dismal prophets concerning it. Let us guard against this. It accomplishes nothing, only the creation of a hurtful atmosphere, which is very bewildering and suffocating to those who are trying to do what they can. To change the figure a little, let us "either pull an oar or bail or cut bait"; and if we are not doing any one of these, let us at least be prudent enough not to complain of the slow progress the boat is making, or the scarcity of the fish that are caught.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT RUTLEDGE, Chairman,
THOMAS H. HANNA, JR., General Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE ALLEGHENY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

This seminary has completed another year of successful work under the marked evidences of the divine favor. The lives and health of professors and students have been preserved to an unusual degree, and the work of the session has proceeded from beginning to the end without any considerable interruption.

The number of students in attendance has been 57. These were classified as follows: Seniors, 20; middlers, 24; and juniors, 13.

The personnel of the faculty and the work done by each remain unchanged since our last report, as follows: James A. Greer, D.D., LL.D., President, and professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology; D. A. McClenahan, D.D., Secretary, and professor of Old Testament Literature and Criticism; John McNaugher, D.D., Registrar, and professor of New Testament Literature and Criticism; and John A. Wilson, D.D., professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government and temporary professor of Pastoral Theology.

The curriculum of study, approved by the Assembly, has been followed without deviation, and the truth of God, as received and witnessed for by the United Presbyterian Church, has been taught to your students of theology without any admixture of opposing errors. In order that the seminary might carefully follow the movements of the pillar of the cloud, special emphasis has been laid upon the study of Christian missions and experimental religion, and a large place has been given to an expository study of the English Bible.

As heretofore, the students of the junior class, as members of the Students' Mission League, have been assigned to work in the various churches of Allegheny and Pittsburgh, under the direction of the several pastors. This school of practical work has been of great value to the students.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,
W. B. SMILEY, President,
W. H. MCMILLAN, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE MANAGERS OF THE XENIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

We desire to make mention, first of all, the goodness of God manifested toward our seminary during the past year. The lives of professors and students have been spared. The curriculum has been carried out and the course of study completed.

The number of students enrolled has been 28.

The usual course of special lectures, by men chosen by the faculty, has been given before the students and local friends of the seminary.

In music, instruction has been given by Professor Maynard, of the Xenia High School; in elocution, by Professor Fox, of Columbus.

The students have exercised their gifts during the session in the Sabbath schools of our churches, in the workhouse, county infirmary and the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, with its 900 children.

The preaching services of "the Goes Station mission," now under the care of the Second United Presbyterian church, for the most part, have been carried on by the students.

Dr. David MacDill, who, after seventeen years of faithful and efficient teaching in the seminary, resigned his charge last August, continued to teach, by special request of the Board and Faculty, until his successor, Dr. Jesse Johnson, elected last fall by the synods in control, should be ready to take up his work, which he did on January 1, 1903.

At its recent meeting the Board of Managers took steps toward the establishment of "the Newburgh chair" in the seminary, which will necessitate the addition of a fifth professor to our faculty.

The Board of Managers authorized and directed the Board of Trustees to erect immediately a new seminary building for chapel, recitation and library purposes.

The Board of Trustees has accordingly already taken the matter in hand.

During the year there has been added to our endowment fund, by bequests and gifts of generous friends, the sum of $10,763.78.

Dr. David MacDill, professor emeritus, died on Sabbath, April 19, 1903. Dr. J. B. McMichael, professor emeritus, died Dec. 31, 1902.

Respectfully submitted, EDGAR MACDILL, President,
W. S. MCCLURE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MEMBERSHIP COVENANT.

Your committee, appointed by the last General Assembly, to consider further the matter of a membership covenant, and to report to this Assembly, has held three meetings in the City of Pittsburgh. These meetings have been faithfully attended by the members of the committee.

We respectfully submit the following:

First of all, we record with deepest sorrow the death of one of the members of our committee, the Rev. John S. McKee, D.D. His removal was a great loss to us in our deliberations. We are glad, however, to say that we received the aid of his valuable counsel in our first meeting. At this meeting the outline of the longer form was decided upon, and no material change in this form has since been made.

We have endeavored, on the one hand, to keep in mind the instructions given to the preceding Membership Covenant Committee by the Assembly of 1901, and which reads as follows:

"There are matters of supreme importance, as the doctrine of the Trinity, the divinity and atoning work of Christ, the Holy Spirit and His work, not mentioned in any of these formulas, but which should have specific assent on the part of all who are received into the membership of the Church." Minutes of Assembly, 1901, page 274.

On the other hand, we have endeavored to recognize the call coming from many ministers, asking for a shorter form of words for the more public reception of members.

Therefore, our report presents a two-fold formula of questions.

We recommend the following longer formula to be used by sessions in the admission of applicants into the membership of the Church:

1. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and conduct?

2. Do you believe in the one living and true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

3. Do you believe that Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God; that He became flesh and dwelt among us; that He suffered and died for our sins; that He rose from the dead and ascended into heaven; that He is seated at the right hand of God, is Lord over all and cometh to judge the world? Do you believe in the presence of the Holy Spirit given by the ascended Lord, and that He has power to lead you into all truth, to sanctify you and to comfort you?

4. Do you take Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour, and do you place your faith in Him alone for salvation? Do you promise to lead a life of prayer, to study diligently His word and to live in obedience to His will as you find that will revealed in His word? Do you solemnly dedicate yourself to the service and glory of Him whom you now publicly acknowledge as the Lord of your life?

5. Do you promise obedience in the Lord to the constituted authorities of the United Presbyterian Church, and will you receive, in the submissive spirit of a disciple of Christ, the teachings of the Church as set forth in her accepted standards of doctrine and worship?

6. Do you promise to seek the peace, purity and prosperity of this congregation while you remain a member thereof; to be faithful in your attendance upon the public worship of God and in the observance of the sacraments; to cultivate an abiding spirit of love and sympathy toward your brethren in the Lord, and do you promise to aid this congregation in all its efforts to advance the kingdom of Christ, both by your active service and your financial support, as God may give you power?

7. Do you make this profession as in the presence of God, in reliance on His grace and as you desire to give in your account with joy at the great day?

Your committee also recommends the following formula of questions for the public reception of members in the presence of the congregation:

1. Do you profess your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as the only Redeemer, and your Saviour?

2. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?

3. Do you promise to receive, in the submissive spirit of a disciple of Christ, the teachings of this Church, as set forth in her accepted Standards?

4. Do you promise faithful attendance upon the ordinances of public worship, the maintenance of private and family religion, obedience to God's law and the keeping of yourself unspotted from the world?

5. Do you promise all due support for the Gospel and the cause of Christ in this congregation and throughout the world?

6. Do you make this profession as in the presence of God, in reliance upon His grace, and as you desire to give in your account with joy at the great day of our Saviour's appearing?

MINORITY REPORT.

The undersigned member of your committee on "Membership Covenant," appointed by the last General Assembly, to report to the Assembly of 1903, would respectfully report that he is not able to see his way clear to sign the majority report of said committee, and on account of the vital principles involved in the matter, he deems it his duty to set before the General Assembly a report more in accord with the historic and biblical basis on which our Church rests her "Standards," and on account of which she claims a right to exist as a "separate body" and by which and through which she bears her testimony.

"A Short Form of 'The formula of questions' to be answered affirmatively in order to admission into the membership of the United Presbyterian Church":

1. Do you profess your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as the only Redeemer and your Saviour?

2. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the sufficient and only infallible rule of faith and practice?

3. Do you accept, as scriptural, so far as your knowledge of them goes, the subordinate Standards of this Church?

Note for the Guidance of Sessions.—In case an applicant should be unable to understand or accept some of the principles set forth in the Standards of his Church, he may be admitted into full communion provided that he be not definitely settled in opposition to any of the principles of her profession.

4. Do you promise faithful attendance on the ordinances of public worship; the maintenance of personal and family religion and the following after righteousness in all your relations in life?

5. Do you promise to be subject to the order and discipline of God's house; to make it a matter of conscience to promote the peace, purity and prosperity of this congregation and to give all due support to the Gospel and the cause of Christ in this congregation and throughout the world?

6. Do you promise in reliance on divine grace, to walk conformably to the profession you now make?

7. Do you make this profession as in the presence of God, and as you desire to give in your account with joy at the great day of our Saviour's appearing?

Most respectfully submitted, W. S. McCLURE.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON REFORM.

In viewing a field so wide as that covered by the great moral reforms now pressing upon the attention of the Church, it is difficult to form adequate conceptions or reach satisfactory conclusions. Even a "bird's-eye view" of the conflicts that are waging all over our nation would require space and time much too extended for this report. The interests and issues are so various and varied that we can bring before the General Assembly only a few of the facts and features bearing upon reform work.

1. Temperance. It is properly the custom to give to this reform the most conspicuous place, since the liquor traffic is generally recognized as the most prolific source of our country's ills and the Goliath of the Church's enemies.

There are some encouraging signs to report in the struggle against this foe. The commercial world is becoming more and more opposed to the saloon and its products. The railroads and other business corporations are making more stringent the rules against the use of intoxicants by their employes. The average American seems more easily moved by the "dollars and cents" argument than by any other, and this is taking a large place in opposition to intemperance. Even greed is made to minister to virtue and sobriety.

The army of total abstainers is growing steadily. There is a revival in pledge-signing crusades. A change for the better has come over the editorial pages of some of our leading metropolitan journals. Abstinence and the evils of strong drink are being preached where only a few years ago there was cowardly silence or open hostility to temperance reforms. Gradually the saloon is being driven from many hamlets, towns and large rural districts all over the nation. Territory under practical prohibition is growing, particularly in the Southern states. In many places the people are tiring of saloon-truckling officeholders and better men are being elected to office. Kansas and Maine have shown at recent elections a remarkable rising in the tide of public sentiment for the enforcement of their prohibition laws.

Congress, while moving slowly, has made some progress in the enactment of laws favorable to this great reform.

Our nation now prohibits its rum-sellers trafficking in those islands of the Pacific having no civilized government. Two important measures looking toward the divorcement of our government from its partnership with the liquor traffic passed the last Congress—one prohibiting the sale of liquor in immigrant stations, the other closing and prohibiting the groggeries in the basement of the capitol building. Two other bills failed of passage, but are to be pressed in the next Congress—the McCumber bill, forbidding the sale of intoxicants in all government buildings, and the Hepburn bill to protect prohibition states and no-license towns against "interstate commerce" tricks. The anti-canteen law has been held and strengthened, notwithstanding the persistent opposition of the highest officials in the War Department.

There is still a very dark side to this reform. The liquor traffic was never more terrible in its ravages or more defiant in its attitude toward the Church and all that is good. Two states—Vermont and New Hampshire—have exchanged their prohibitory laws for license. The increase in the consumption of liquors continues, as revealed by the recent United States Treasury statistics. Twenty gallons for every man, woman and child of the nation, or, counting that one-half of the people are total abstainers, forty gallons per year for each of the drinking population is the appalling record. The enormous expenditure of money, on the part of those who can least afford it, the constant drain on the whole people to care for the unfortunate victims of the traffic and secure police protection, not to say the destruction of the productive power of the slaves of drink makes this a financial problem, in the face of which all others pale into insignificance. And no one can estimate the moral loss to the nation because of the presence of such an evil.

The liquor trust controls political action and governs the great political parties of the nation. The great mass of Christian citizens are blinded by its blandishments.

While the Churches have so often called "license" "a sin against God and a crime against humanity," still 90 per cent. of the voting members continue their allegiance with political organizations that are committed to the license policy.

The liquor trade has never, in its history, been putting forth such strenuous efforts to fasten its hold upon the nation. The "campaign of education" resolved upon has been carried on by unusual advertising in the secular press all over the country. The liquor papers openly admit this propaganda to be the result of alarm over the activity of the temperance forces of the nation. What terror might be aroused among them if the forces opposed to alcohol would really arise in their might!

2. Sabbath Reform. The most signal victory for the defense of the Sabbath has been in the securing of the closing of the St. Louis World's Fair to visitors on the Sabbath. It is now assured that this great exposition will not outrage the Christian sentiment of the country, as was done at Chicago and Buffalo. The tendency on the part of the railroads to lessen both passenger and freight traffic on the Sabbath continues.

The Sunday newspaper continues to be one of the greatest enemies of the Sabbath and of true religion. The evil is increasing and presents a problem that needs to be taken hold of by the firm hand of the Church.

3. Purity Reform. The struggle to protect the sanctity of the home is a pressing one. The divorce evil is growing worse under the present diversity of laws in the land. Laws making it more difficult to obtain divorces are being enacted in some of the states. The need of uniform divorce laws in all the states and territories touching divorce is great. It would seem that there is no reform that could come nearer getting the active coöperation of all Christian bodies than this. There is an opportunity of Church federation here that ought to be embraced, and which would certainly mean great victories for purity.

The country has again had its attention called to polygamy by the election of a Mormon apostle to the United States Senate. This poisonous reptile needs to be crushed by an amendment to the national constitution. One has been proposed and will be pressed at the coming meeting of Congress.

4. Municipal Reform. The government of our cities is one of our greatest problems. The past year has seen some startling revelations of corruption, notably in St. Louis and Minneapolis. The fraud perpetrated by high officials on the public has almost paralyzed belief. It is a matter of congratulation that there have been a number of convictions in the cases named, and a resulting quickening of the public conscience.

In the matter of general moral reforms and the agencies at work to accomplish something definite and permanent we wish to make special mention of the International Reform Bureau of Washington, D. C., Rev. Wilbur F. Crafts, D.D., Superintendent. It has secured, in connection with the W. C. T. U. and the Anti-Saloon League, fifty-nine national acts of government in seven years, besides aiding in many state and local reforms.

In view of the alarming facts that appear in connection with the liquor traffic, Sabbath desecration, impurity, gambling, municipal corruption, etc., we believe it is the urgent duty of the Church to study carefully the signs of the times and to acquaint herself with all the movements for social, political and moral reform. Her power must be brought positively and directly to bear in these struggles which affect so largely her own life and work. Hers is not a mission of indecision or compromise with giant evils simply because they are not easily overcome. Her attitude is ever to be one of open hostility and aggressive warfare. Jesus Christ came to destroy the work of the devil. His Church must recognize this as part of her work or confess herself impotent and disloyal.

The Church may well heed the words of ex-Senator Henry W. Blair, in an appeal to the Church to recognize moral reform as a branch of missions: "I think that any student of our history will admit that among organized bodies of men the pulpit has been the pioneer and principal promoter of the great steps taken by our nation in civil, social and moral reform. It is the business, as well as the inclination of the American pulpit, to be right and to be aggressive. The pulpit was the real leader of the people up to and through the Revolutionary War. Giving due credit to all other men, organizations and agencies ever since the Revolutionary War, and to-day, the pulpit has been and now is the real leader of the American people whenever they are led toward higher and better life. The pulpit largely inspires and controls the platform, the press and all other agencies for good. With this power goes corresponding responsibility."

The Permanent Committee recommends for the action of the Assembly:

1. That the former deliverances of this Assembly, relative to the sin of licensing the liquor traffic, be reaffirmed; and that it is the sense of this Assembly that Church members ought not to give their allegiance to any organization, political, social or otherwise, that favors or fosters the license policy.

2. That we urge our people to a stricter observance of the Sabbath, to a shutting out of their homes the Sunday paper, to a hearty coöperation with all local movements for a better observed Sabbath.

3. That we rejoice in the unusual number of governmental acts, legislative and executive, recently secured at Washington in restraint of intemperance, impurity, Sabbath-breaking and gambling, under the leadership of the International Reform Bureau, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Anti-Saloon League, and we hereby authorize additional petitions to Con-half, to be attested by proper officers, asking additional acts to ing in soldiers' homes, to protect state and local prohibition n by "interstate commerce" tricks; to obtain an anti-polyg- to forbid the transmission of race gambling bets by inter-

COMMITTEE ON SEMI-CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

The Committee, to which was referred the preparation of a plan for the celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the organization of the Presbyterian Church of North America, would report as follows:

1. The Fiftieth Anniversary of our denominational organization should be characterized by grateful memories of the past and by an effort to have the whole Church reach the divine ideal of service in the future. It should also be marked by such aggressive effort as shall make our Church an adequate factor in the great work of the world's evangelization and instruction in righteousness. To this end we recommend the following:

1. The appointment by this Assembly of a committee of ten members—five ministers and five laymen—which shall be known as the Semi-Centennial Commission, whose members shall reside in such geographical proximity as to permit frequent meetings without excessive sacrifice of time and financial expense, and whose duty it shall be to execute the plans herein outlined.

2. That this committee be empowered to appoint, or to secure the appointing by proper authorities, of synodical and presbyterial committees—a committee in each synod corresponding to the number of presbyteries in the synod, and of three in each presbytery—who shall coöperate with the central committee in furthering its aims. The members of the synodical committee shall be the chairmen of their respective presbyterial committees.

3. That the corresponding secretaries of the various boards, the presidents of our theological seminaries and colleges, the president of the Women's Board and the United Presbyterian Women's Association, the secretary of the Ways and Means Committee, and the surviving members of the Quarter-Centennial Commission shall be advisory members of the commission, whose privilege it shall be to attend meetings designated by the commission and offer counsel and suggestion, and whose duty it shall be to coöperate with the commission in the furtherance of all its work.

4. That the commission appointed by this Assembly be empowered to proceed at once to the securing of permanent synodical and presbyterial committees, so that the whole work may be begun early and culminate in the semi-centennial celebration of 1908, rather than have its beginning at that date.

5. That in the raising of funds by the commission provision be made for the payment of subscriptions in annual, semi-annual or quarterly payments to the treasurer of the commission, to be hereafter chosen, and that the taking of said subscription should begin not later than April 1st, 1904; also that all subscriptions to special work, made after the appointment of the commission, may be counted in its record and credited to the congregation making the same, provided said subscriptions shall be paid through the treasurer of the commission or officially reported.

6. That in order to stimulate the payment of congregational debts a supplementary record shall be kept by the commission of debts liquidated during the celebration period and reported as a part of celebration effort; said record to be admitted only on condition of some direct contribution to the commission's work.

7. That the General Assembly of 1907 be urged to appoint Pittsburgh, the place of our denominational organization in 1858, as the place of meeting in 1908; that the period of the Assembly's session be made ten days, so that with forenoons spent in ecclesiastical business the afternoons and evenings may be used for conferences and addresses upon important features of Church work; that for said conferences the commission, in consultation with the heads of institutions and secretaries of the various boards, should secure the widest and ablest presentation of all that concerns joyous memory of the past and aggressive attitude toward the future; that sectional meetings should also be arranged for so as to provide for the widest possible interest and hearing.

8. That our relation, as a denomination to the whole Church of Christ, be recognized by consideration of our contributions of influence to other denominations and by arrangement for such conferences and interdenominational greetings as shall emphasize the spiritual unity of all those who love the Lord Jesus in sincerity and truth.

9. That the commission shall arrange for the publication, in book form, of special features and addresses, so that the whole Church may share in the intellectual and spiritual uplift of this celebration.

II. Believing that our Fiftieth Anniversary should be marked by a strengthening of all phases of our Church work, the following distinct lines of effort are recommended:

1. To have our Church reach the ideal of home evangelization presented by Christ in the Gospel of the kingdom and manifested by the Church during the pentecostal era.

2. To have the Church measure up to the Master's ideal of foreign missionary work and so to increase our missionary activity as to fully meet the needs of the missionary fields entrusted to our care.

3. To make provision for the educational interests and institutions of our Church, both at home and abroad, and to place these upon a basis of efficiency through the securing of needed enlargement and adequate endowments.

4. To provide for greater efficiency in every department of our Church work by increasing the resources of the various boards and placing at their disposal enlarged means for aggressive effort and expansion of work.

III. For the carrying out of this anniversary purpose, we would make the following recommendations as to methods:

1. That a permanent committee on evangelization be appointed, which, through coöperation with synodical and presbyterial sub-committees, shall aim to awaken every congregation to a sense of responsibility for the unsaved in its own community; and that this committee shall endeavor to secure periods of special waiting upon God and special evangelistic effort in every congregation of our Church, either through the aid of visiting evangelists or by the coöperation of pastors in synods and presbyteries.

2. That the financial aim of the Church at this celebration shall be the raising of at least $2,000,000 to be devoted to our Church work in lines designated by donors, or, as undesignated funds, to be disbursed by the Assembly in such measure as to secure a proportionate administration of all funds contributed to the needs of the Church.

3. That inasmuch as every phase of our Church work is important every part should be a sharer in the results of special anniversary effort to the measure indicated in the following outline:

(a) The Board of Ministerial Relief, with its gracious task of providing for the aged and disabled ministers of the Church, who have sacrificed all worldly considerations for the promotion of the Gospel, should have a substantial increase in its resources. Five per cent. (5%) of the sum realized should be devoted to this board.

(b) The Board of Publication, so essential for the production of our Church literature and the providing of mission stations with needed supplies, should be enlarged in its efficiency so as to make it a power in developing the evangelistic spirit, in creating denominational loyalty and in pushing the work among the unsaved. By coöperation with the Board of Home Missions a system of colportage work should be organized which would, in many instances, give employment to ministers who are without charge, and in this way carry the Gospel to hearts and homes long unreached by the regular ministers of the Church. To the better equipment of this board two and one-half per cent. (2½%) of the celebration offering should be devoted.

(c) The work done by our Church among the freedmen, instead of being lessened, should be increased. Manifestly, all debts of the board should be liquidated and a substantial fund secured for the equpiment of our freedmen's schools, with industrial appliances, so that the education of the negro shall be along the line of his greatest need, i. e., that of becoming a Christian citizen, with true notions of industry and practical knowledge of how to work. To the Freedmen's Board five per cent. (5%) of our anniversary fund should be devoted.

(d) The Board of Church Extension, which goes hand in hand with that of Home Missions into needy communities and aims to provide church buildings for new congregations, should be encouraged in its work by receiving five per cent. (5%) of our semi-centennial funds.

(e) The Home Mission Board, whose work lies at the foundation of all success abroad, should have generous encouragement. If the home Church be not enlarged and its congregations multiplied and strengthened, whence shall come the workers and sinews of finance for our aggressive work in foreign lands? Ten per cent. (10%) of our semi-centennial offerings should be devoted to the work of the Home Board.

(f) In our important foreign mission fields, India, Egypt and the Sudan, the work of evangelization and instruction should be pushed with increasing vigor. The call of our missionary associations in these fields for an aggregate of 485 new missionaries should be regarded as the call of God to evangelize these lands within the present generation. While every effort to provide new missionaries must be paralleled with provision for the support of the work rendered wider by their ministry, and while the Church cannot at once respond in fulness to this Macedonian call, the desire of our missionary associations should be heeded with a large faith and a response be begun with a fervent energy. The years preceding the culmination of our semi-centennial celebration should witness large progress in effort to answer this call, while the results of special effort may, with propriety, be credited in the celebration fund. In addition, however, to all contributions through regular channels fifteen per cent. (15%) of the celebration fund should be devoted to the Foreign Board. Since the semi-centennial of our foreign mission work in India and Egypt occurs in 1904 and 1905, advantage of this fact should be taken to deepen interest in the effort of the Church for these fields. The Foreign Mission Board is, therefore, urged to arrange its anticipated celebration of these events so as to further the interest and work of the commission.

(g) The importance of Christian education, both at home and abroad, needs, also, a fuller emphasis. Our colleges and seminaries at home can meet the intellectual and spiritual demands of our age only as they are more fully equipped and endowed. Not only the need of ministers and missionaries, but also our need of a Christian constituency behind these demands a larger support of our home institutions. The fact, also, that all foreign lands must in the end be evangelized by their own people makes Christian education abroad the key to the solution of the missionary problem of evagelizing India, Egypt and the Sudan in our own generation. Fifty per cent. (50%), therefore, of the sum secured as a semi-centennial memorial may wisely be devoted to Christian education at home and abroad, with such proportion of division as may be hereafter designated by the Assembly.

(h) Very important to the general success of our Church work has been the work of the Women's General Missionary Society, administered through the Women's Board, and also the work of the Women's Association, so ably organizing and administering worthy charities of the Church. The work of these societies reveals the impossibility of fitly celebrating our half century of Church life without a recognition of women's work in modern Church effort. The commission should, therefore, coöperate with such committees as may be appointed by the Women's Board and the Women's Association for making the review and consideration of women's work a marked feature of the celebration. That the work of the Women's Association may be enlarged and its institutions extended to new communities of our Church, two and one-half per cent. (2½%) of the celebration fund may with profit be devoted to this work That the work of the Women's General Missionary Society may be extended, five per cent. (5%) should be disbursed through the Women's Board. In view, also, of the eminent success of the Women' General Missionary Society in its auxiliary method of work, we recommend to said society that it parallel the work of the Assembly by appointing an auxiliary commission, which, through presbyterial committees, shall coöperate with the Assembly's commission in raising the large sum that will fittingly mark our half century anniversary.

IV. So great a work as has been outlined can be accomplished only through the blessing of God, in the abundant working of His Holy Spirit. Like as barges and rafts lie grounded in the river channels until there is rain upon the uplands and the rising tide to bear them to their destination, so will the spiritual and material resources of our Church lie unused until through rain of grace upon the uplands of the soul, tides of emotion and action are furnished, which shall secure the outgoing of resources and energies for the glory of God. Granted that the plan outlined may be that of God for us, and that the Holy Spirit is at our disposal as the source of power, it is still true that the Spirit has laws of activity for His action, and that there are conditions to be fulfilled for the receiving of grace. These are vivid consciousness of the exalted Christ and of His abiding presence with us through the Holy Spirit; keen apprehension of His provision and purpose for world-wide redemption; earnest desire for the coming of His kingdom; fervent prayer for the bestowment of His power; profound faith in His faithfulness and a self-surrender to His service in an all-absorbing effort for His glory. Without the fulfillment of these conditions the Church will remain listless and powerless in the presence of her magnificent opportunities. Without vivid consciousness of the exalted Christ and His abiding presence through the Holy Spirit, the Church will look downward and lose spiritual fervor in the stupifying atmosphere of worldliness. Without keen apprehension of Christ's provision and purpose for world-wide redemption men will continue to measure success in terms of art and literature and commerce rather than by truth and godliness. Without earnest desire for the coming of Christ's kingdom fervent prayer will not be made, faith will not be in exercise and channels of effort will be lacking for the outflow of God's power to the world. In order that the Church may realize that the source of her power is in God and that the channel of His communication is through the prayer of faith, we recommend that the commission be empowered to arrange for a week of special prayer in the autumn of 1904, to be observed throughout the whole Church, and that, through correspondence and conference with the leaders of our denominational work a program shall be furnished, setting forth the needs of the Church and the lofty purposes that should inspire our anniversary effort. With such a coming together of the Church in unity of spirit and desire, we may hope that pentecostal power may rest upon us; that the Church may rise to her sublime privilege of joining Christ in His work of redemption; that she may view the sin-sickness and sorrow of earth with Christ's pitying eye and devote herself to world redemption with the Pauline spirit of self-sacrifice which seeks to "fill up that which is lacking in the afflictions of Christ for His body's sake, which is the Church." Waiting for the "promise of the Father," and accepting by faith the enduement of power from on high, God may cause the day of our celebrating past mercies to be the time for the kindling of signal fires upon the mountains of holy effort for the gathering of all God's people unto His work of world redemption through the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON A UNIFORM VERSION OF THE PSALMS IN METER.

The Joint Committee for Preparing a Uniform Version of the Psalms in Meter held a meeting in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, Canada, from September 10 to September 18, 1902, and a meeting in the Presbyterian Building, New York City, from April 8 to April 15, 1903.

Representatives were present from the following Churches: (1) The Presbyterian Church of the United States of America (North); (2) The Presbyterian Church in Canada; (3) The United Presbyterian Church in North America; (4) The Reformed Presbyterian Church (Synod); (5) The Reformed Presbyterian Church (General Synod); (6) The Reformed Church in America (Dutch); (7) The Christian Reformed Church in North America; (8) The Associate Presbyterian Church; and (9) The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of the South.

The committee made a thorough revision of the Psalter from Psalm 122 to the end; but before reporting their work to the Churches coöperating, the committee decided to review the work done, especially the first part. The committee have aimed at making a Psalter with only one version of each Psalm; but to satisfy the interests represented, it was found necessary to add second versions in a limited number of cases. The majority of these have been decided on, but each needs to be revised as the work already done is reviewed. A meeting for this purpose will be held in September in a place to be selected.

The meetings of the past year were characterized by the same unanimity in aim and method, the same cordiality and freedom, and the same manifestation of the presence of God's Spirit that characterized former meetings; and the committee feel increasingly encouraged in their work.

The committee are glad to report that the Commission of the Presbyterian Alliance (Western Section), after full consideration, decided at their meeting last October: (a) To advise all the Churches in the Alliance to appoint representatives on the committee; and (b) To recommend to the Program Committee of the Alliance that the "uniform version" be given a place on the program for the next Council. It is hoped that additional Churches may take part in the final revision about to be entered upon.

To meet the expense of printing and other small items, the committee ask, for the current year, the sum of $15 from each of the denominations coöperating. This should be sent, without delay, to the Secretary, Rev. J. D. Steele, Ph.D., 74 W. 103d street, New York City.

The thanks of the committee are due to the authorities of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, for providing a room for meetings and for comfortable lodging for the members of the committee, and to the Home and Foreign Committees of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America for the use of their commodious and comfortable board rooms.

On behalf of the Committee,
ELIJAH R. CRAVEN (Convener), Philadelphia, Pa.
WM. J. DEY, (Chairman), Simcoe, Ont.
JAMES D. STEELE (Secretary), New York City.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATES FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON A UNIFORM VERSION OF THE PSALMS.

Your delegates herewith send you the annual report of the Joint Committee on a Uniform Version of the Psalms in Meter. At the recent New York meeting fifteen delegates were present, viz.: Three from the Canada Presbyterian Church, two each from the Presbyterian Assembly—the Reformed Presbyterian Synod, the Christian Reformed and our own Assembly—and one each from the Dutch Reformed, the Reformed Presbyterian General Synod, the Associate and the Associate Reformed of the South. At Montreal all the Churches were represented, but only twelve delegates were present.

At these two meetings the first revision of the Psalter was completed from Psalm 104 to the end. Fourteen second versions of certain Psalms were presented for consideration at the last meeting and twenty-six substitutes for the meter adopted for other Psalms. These will be examined in connection with the final revision and some of both are likely to be corrected and adopted. As thus far adopted, counting Psalm 119 as twenty-two separate Psalms, the meters adopted are twenty-five in number, as follows:

The C.M., 66 Psalms; L.M., 35; L.M., six lines, 7; S.M., 10; 8s and 7s, 9; 7s, 7; 7s and 6s, 4; 10s, 4; C.P.M., 3; 11s, 3; 8, 6, 8, 4, 3; 11s and 10s, 3; H.M., 2; 6s, 2; 9s and 8s, 2; 8s and 6s, six lines, 1; 12s and 9s, 1; 12s and 11s, 1; L.P.M., six lines, 1; 5s and 6s, 1; 8s and 7s, seven lines, 1; 10s and 4s, six lines, 1; 10s, five lines, 1; 5s and 6s, 1; 11s and 8s, 1.

It is expected that two more meetings will be required to finish the work, and it is hoped that the uniform Psalter will be submitted to the Churches in the spring of 1904. Our next meeting is to be held on September 8-16, 1903.

Expense accounts are herewith presented.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNION WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

The Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South respectfully reports that the correspondence between the two bodies has not been renewed as yet. The hope that we might be able to report some progress has not been fulfilled. The United Presbyterian Church, having approved the basis submitted a few years since, has been waiting for some proposition that might lead to the earnestly desired end. The correspondence by delegates between the General Assembly and the Synod has been cordial and pleasant, and, we doubt not, has been productive of more general kindly relations.

At the meeting of the Synod in 1902 the Committee of the Synod of the South reported that no efforts towards union had been made, and asked that the committee be relieved and a new committee on union be appointed. This was done, and your committee hoped that correspondence would be resumed without delay, but as yet no communication has been received.

Respectfully submitted,

Sewickley, Pa., May 20, 1903. A. G. WALLACE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE BOOK OF GOVERNMENT.

The Committee on the Revision of the Book of Government respectfully reports that several meetings were held and a considerable part of the book was gone over with care, but it was not possible to complete the work this year. As far as the revision has been carried on, the effort has been to embody the experience of the Church in its several courts and administration and the deliverances of the General Assembly on subjects involved.

The committee suffered the loss of a very valuable member in the death of Dr. John S. McKee, and felt unwilling to attempt to complete the work of revision without the vacancy thus created being filled.

Your committee, therefore, reports progress, and, if such may be the will of the General Assembly, asks that the committee be continued and the vacancy be filled by the appointment of a minister.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the committee.

A. G. WALLACE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES.

The Western, or American, Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Holding the Presbyterian System, respectfully presents to you its annual report.

The commission has held, during the past ecclesiastical year, two meetings, one at Philadelphia, Pa., October 27 and 28, 1902, and the other at New York, N. Y., April 15 and 16, 1903. Both meetings were well attended. During the business sessions special attention was given to two topics: The formation of union Churches in missionary lands, and evangelistic work in the congregations connected with the Churches of the Alliance.

On the subject of Presbyterian Union in India the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this executive commission cordially commends the union of the various Presbyterian bodies in India into a single Church.

In connection with the subject of evangelistic work the secretary of the commission was authorized to send out a circular to all the congregations of the Alliance, inviting their coöperation in the evangelistic movement undertaken by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America. A circular was sent to 15,000 pastors of the Churches in the Alliance, asking "immediate organized effort for the salvation of souls and earnest and united prayer to the throne of grace for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the evangelistic work of all Christian Churches throughout the world." So far as the commission has received information, this united evangelistic movement resulted in much good.

The following resolution on evangelistic work is submitted to your venerable body for action:

WHEREAS, The general conditions on this continent favor a widespread evangelistic effort; therefore,

Resolved, That the Western, or American, Section of the Alliance, rejoicing in the evangelistic work already accomplished, cordially commends to the general judicatories of all our Churches the appointment of evangelistic committees, with power to coöperate each with the other in evangelistic effort, in the hope that under the divine blessing there may be a revival of religion covering the entire continent.

Three matters considered at the New York meeting are presented for action by you, viz.:

The commission adopted unanimously a report upon an advanced course of Sabbath school lessons, and directed that it be presented to each of the supreme judicatories of the Churches of the Alliance for their action. This matter is so important that the entire report has been put in print and is submitted to you in a separate communication.

The commission also requests that, as last year, so this year, the second Sabbath in September be set apart as a day for prayer for public schools.

The commission further requests that your Church appoint a delegate to a joint conference on the subject of divorce and remarriage, which has been established by the coöperative action of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church North and the Baptist Churches North. The purpose of the joint conference is to secure action from the ecclesiastical side upon this deeply important matter, vital to the welfare both of the Church and of the State. The conference has already held a meeting and an executive commission has been appointed, the chairman of which is the Rt. Rev. Wm. Croswell Doane, Bishop of Albany, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and the secretary the Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America. The work done thus far, however, is purely preliminary, and, in view to the fuller representation in the conference of the Christian Churches of the United States of America. It is hoped that action taken by your body will be such as to strengthen this movement in behalf of the interests of the family. Should the way be clear, it is also suggested that the following resolution be adopted by your body:

Resolved, That all ministers under our care and authority are hereby enjoined to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the cases of divorced persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds and for causes recognized as scriptural in the Standards of this Church.

The Alliance has appointed as a delegate to carry to your venerable body fraternal greetings, the Rev. R. G. Ferguson, D.D.

Your attention is once more drawn to the needs of the Reformed Churches on the continent of Europe, in particular in France, Italy, Austria-Hungary and Russia. While there is much encouragement in connection with the work of some of them, the conditions which surround them are still, to a large extent, unfavorable to their growth and to the highest devolpment of their spiritual life. Especially is this true in Russia. Earnest prayer is requested on their behalf, and contributions for the promotion of the welfare of the congregations connected with them are recommended whenever the requests for aid are properly authorized. In this connection attention is drawn to the need of providing during the summer months stated supplies for preaching stations to be established where American tourists most congregate. There are American evangelical churches in the larger cities of the continent, such as Paris and Berlin. While these and similar congregations should be liberally supported, there is an increasing demand for temporary religious services at various points on the continent. It is requested that parties interested in this work communicate with the chairman of the committee of the Alliance upon "Work on the European Continent," the Rev. James I. Good, D.D., Reading, Pa.

Tendering to you the cordial regards of all the other Churches in the Alliance, invoking the blessing of God upon our coöperation in so many lines of Christian work, and rejoicing in our spiritual unity, we are, in behalf of the Western Section of the Commission of the Alliance,

R. P. KERR, Chairman,
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE WM. REED ESTATE.

The executors and trustees of the estate of Wm. Reed would, in this their fifteenth annual report, say:

1. They have concluded a sale, but have not executed a deed, for some 400 acres of coal land in Kentucky at $6.00 per acre, and hope soon to have part or all the proceeds to be used as intended.

2. Diligent, but as yet unsuccessful, efforts have been made to sell the 12,000 acres of mineral in West Virginia, but we think the prospect for better results soon is good.

3. We have a reserve of $1,800 at interest, to be used only in emergency and for paying taxes.

Respectfully submitted,

S. COLLINS, of and for Executors.

REGULATIONS FOR THE DELEGATE FUND.

The General Assembly of 1899 appointed a committee to report to the next General Assembly on the subject of a General Delegate Fund. The committee reported regulations which were adopted. They were amended by the Assemblies of 1901 and 1902, and are as follows:

1. The General Assembly, through its Committee on Finance, shall make an assessment upon all the presbyteries in America for a general delegate fund, the same to be included in the appropriation for the General Assembly Fund. The assessment shall be according to the membership in the several presbyteries, as reported to the Assembly making the assessment, and shall in no case exceed ten cents per member.

2. The Financial Agent of each presbytery shall receive the amount collected, and forward the same to the Treasurer of the General Assembly not later than April 20 of each year.

3. The Treasurer of the General Assembly shall report to the Assembly at its first session the apportionment to each presbytery for the General Assembly Fund, the amount received from each presbytery, and the percentage of the latter to the former. This report shall be referred to the Committee on Finance.

4. The Committee on Delegate Fund shall apportion the delegate fund in proportion to the amount of railroad fare each delegate has paid.

(NOTE.—Each commissioner submits to the Committee on the Delegate Fund a statement of the expenses paid coming to the General Assembly and an estimate of the expense of the return trip. This statement is made on a blank prepared by the committee, and must be given in early in the sessions of the Assembly.)

5. All the commissioners in attendance on the sessions of the General Assembly are entitled to the benefits of this fund. The roll of the Assembly, as certified by the Principal Clerk, shall be accepted as evidence of the attendance required. The expenses to be provided for shall be limited to railroad fare, and that by the shortest route to and from the place of meeting of the Assembly, the delegates availing themselves of any commutation, or special rates that may be offered. Commissioners from presbyteries in foreign lands shall be allowed mileage from their place of residence in this country.

6. The Principal Clerk, not later than the close of the morning session of the last day of the General Assembly, shall certify to the Committee on Finance the attendance of the commissioners on the sessions of the Assembly.

7. When the report of the Committee on Finance shall have been adopted, the Principal Clark shall draw a warrant on the Treasurer of the General Assembly for the aggregate amount, and certify to the Treasurer the amount due to each presbytery, together with the sum to be paid each delegate.

8. The Treasurer of the General Assembly shall remit to the Financial Agent of each presbytery the amount due to the delegates of that presbytery, who shall, without delay, remit to each delegate the amount due to him.

9. The Committee on Finance shall submit to the General Assembly an estimate of the amount required for the Delegate Fund for the following year.

The General Assembly also adopted the following:

Resolved, That, while we concede the right of a presbytery to provide for the expenses of its own delegates, yet in view of the fact that the establishment of a General Delegate Fund is the act of the highest court of our Church, whose authority we recognize, and that the principle on which it is based is scriptural as well as fraternal, viz., that the strong should bear the infirmities of the weak and not please themselves, and that the success of the plan depends on the coöperation of all our presbyteries and congregations, we urge all the presbyteries to contribute their full quota to the General Assembly Fund. Minutes General Assembly, Vol. X., pp. 269, 1901; 594, 1902.

(NOTE.—For the convenience of all concerned, the following plan of payment was adopted in 1903: As soon as possible after the adjournment of the General Assembly the Principal Clerk sends to the Financial Agent of each presbytery entitled to payment, a warrant on the Treasurer of the General Assembly for the whole amount due to the presbytery, with the sum due each commissioner on the margin. This warrant is equivalent to a draft on New York and may be deposited in any bank. The Financial Agent then remits to each commissioner the amount due to him, retaining the marginal memorandum of the warrant as his voucher.)

The appropriation for the Delegate Fund is included in the appropriation for the General Assembly Fund, which for the year 1903-4 is seven cents per member.
